

Capricorn compatibility

To discuss Capricorn compatibility we need to look at Capricorn in combination with each of the other sun signs. Each match has different strong and weak areas and its own quirks and unique features.

Capricorn compatibility table

This shows the typical scores for relationships between Capricorn and each of the other sun signs. Click on any combination to explore that match in more detail.

The most compatible signs with Capricorn are generally considered to be Taurus, Virgo, Scorpio and Pisces. The least compatible signs with Capricorn are generally considered to be Aries and Libra.

Comparing sun signs can give a good general idea of compatibility. However, this is just a quick and easy way to compare, and it's going to have lots of exceptions on this broad level.

That's because people are more than just their sun sign. There are other planets which also affect someone's personality. This creates billions of permutations making each Capricorn slightly different. Generalizing too far based just on sun signs can therefore be misleading.

To fully understand someone or how compatible you are with them we need to calculate those other planet positions from their date of birth and then compare them to your own. This unlocks the real power of astrology and gives much more useful and specific information, such as how they view you, how to turn them on, how to avoid arguments with them etc. If you would like to explore this further please see the astrology compatibility readings page.

Capricorn compatibility forums

Here you can share experiences and opinions on dating, marriage and affairs, whether you're a Capricorn or have experience with one.

You'll find that some of these forums are generally positive in tone, and some are generally negative. That doesn't guarantee that will be your experience, however you are very likely to recognize some common patterns which can be fascinating.

Some relationship combinations are much more common than others. Some sun signs are also much more chatty than others. Some are more likely to compliment (or complain!) about a partner. Each forum therefore tends to have a fairly consistent trend to the comments.

Please keep in mind though that people are much more than just their sun sign. Beyond a point Capricorn compatibility varies due to the individuals other planet positions when they were born. You need a real astrology reading to understand a real relationship.

Relationships with Capricorn men:

Capricorn man Aries woman

Capricorn man Taurus woman

Capricorn man Gemini woman

Capricorn man Cancer woman

Capricorn man Leo woman

Capricorn man Virgo woman

Capricorn man Libra woman

Capricorn man Scorpio woman
Capricorn man Sagittarius woman
Capricorn man Capricorn woman
Capricorn man Aquarius woman
Capricorn man Pisces woman

Taurus and Capricorn is a very harmonious match, with similar views on life, finances and many other key areas. This one has soulmate potential, and is one of your most compatible matches!

Taurus and Capricorn Compatibility scores

Taurus and Capricorn Compatibility

Taurus and Capricorn Sex

Taurus and Capricorn Communication

These scores show the averages for data collected from my clients over the past 20 years. It's important to note however that individual relationships vary enormously. This is a summarized picture, a real compatibility reading is needed to judge a real relationship. It's also worth noting that Soulmates can be found in any sun sign match, even those which are statistically likely to have low compatibility.

Taurus and Capricorn compatibility

This article is in two halves, the first is written from the viewpoint of the Taurus man or Taurus woman, and the second is written from the viewpoint of the Capricorn man or Capricorn woman.

From the Taurus viewpoint

You'll admire your partners ambition, work ethic and sense of humor while your Capricorn will love your cautious and sensible nature.

A practical and sensible match on all levels, you're both very reliable and steadfast, value security, have the same high standards regarding the home and the value of hard work. You're both conservative and won't embarrass the other

In a Taurus Capricorn relationship you're on the same wavelength, and will find it very easy to understand each other, and from very early on you will both recognize the potential of this relationship. Similarly, you both value commitment, and it's fairly likely that marriage will be (or was) discussed early in the relationship.

This may make both of you wonder why you trust the other so much, as you're both highly cautious and not normally willing to risk much if the odds appear to be against you. Your intuition is right however, and this partner is a safe bet!

Traits such as possessiveness which you may have been criticized for in the past are very likely to be understood and even appreciated by this partner. Capricorn likes a lot of reassurance, and you'll give it to them without really trying.

You may find your Capricorn somewhat secretive at times. This is mainly because you're so open and straightforward compared to most other signs, so don't hold it against them!

Your views on many topics are very likely to be identical, including some key issues such as finances, commitment, parenting etc.

One of the biggest risks, and also one the biggest strengths in this match is that it's quite likely to be all work and no play. You're both so sensible, that someone occasionally has to create time to relax a little and enjoy life.

Due to this it can be a particularly strong relationship if you work closely together. Regardless of whether you do so, you're both likely to help each others careers and be highly tolerant of long hours and your partner 'putting work first'.

Following on from this, it's worth recognizing that between you this is a match which can do anything you set your mind to! An absolute powerhouse of determination and follow through. You may want to consider starting a sideline business to harvest this huge potential, and working together as a team will strengthen this relationship, and make you appreciate each other even more.

You both place a high value on home and family, and will appreciate each others enthusiasm in improving and enjoying that environment over choosing to go out or party. Neither of you are overly sociable or outgoing, and it's likely your idea of a good evening out will be visiting a restaurant together, rather than attending a party.

It's likely that one or both of you favor older style furniture over the more contemporary, and both of you are likely to have a few family heirlooms in the collection (and often more than a few!..)

You both enjoy material possessions and both can be sentimental. It's likely that between you your garage will be stuffed full of treasured items dating as far back as early childhood. You can each be a world class packrat!

You both tend to be somewhat pessimistic, at least so far as always planning for the worst and being prepared to deal with it. You're both very concerned with money and finances, both highly logical, neither of you play mind games, you're both incredibly loyal. You're both looking for a partner you can trust, and have found that with each other. I could go on, but I'm sure you're seeing the pattern here - Taurus Capricorn is a very agreeable match!
Taurus Capricorn in the long term

This is a match which if married will probably never get a divorce, no matter what hardships are experienced. Neither of you give up on something easily once you make a commitment.
Taurus Capricorn sex

You're on the same page again here, and both appreciate the same lusty and sensual style of lovemaking. Neither of you is particularly spontaneous or reckless, and you'll probably never be on the news for public indecency. That suits you both just fine!

It's important to note however that we're looking only at sun signs here. There are many other planets which can have an equal or greater effect on someone's personality. Makes sense, as ultimately everyone is of course unique. Generalizing too far based just on sun signs can therefore be misleading.

To fully understand someone or how compatible you are with them we need to calculate those other planet placements from their date of birth, and compare them to your own, and then interpret the results.

This unlocks the real power of astrology, and gives much more useful and specific information: everything from how they view you, how to turn them on, how to avoid arguments with them etc. If you would like to explore this further please see the compatibility readings page.

From the Capricorn viewpoint
Capricorn and Taurus Compatibility

Before getting to know your Taurus you probably thought you were the most stubborn, reliable and 'solid' person you knew. You probably re-evaluated that soon after! Taurus is a human rock. Strong, unmoving, unhurried, cautious, sensible and loyal.

You may be more stubborn in pursuing goals but in every other area Taurus has you beat, and is a partner you can intuitively trust and confide in. Your partner is likely to be more serious than you by nature, and if so will certainly enjoy your sense of humor.

A practical and sensible match on all levels, you're both very reliable and steadfast, value security, have the same high standards regarding the home and the value of hard work. You're both conservative and won't embarrass the other. You have an absolute army of things in common (and hence this article from your viewpoint is almost identical to your partners, which is fairly unusual)

You intuitively understand one another, and from very early on you will both recognize the potential of this relationship. Similarly, you both value commitment, and it's likely that marriage will be discussed early in this match.

This may make both of you wonder why you trust the other so much, as you're both highly cautious and not normally willing to risk much if the odds appear to be against you. Your intuition is right however, and this partner is a safe bet!

You're on the same wavelength and will find it very easy to understand each other. Your views on many topics are identical, including some key issues such as finances, commitment, parenting etc. You'll both make excellent parents.

One of the biggest risks, and also one the biggest strengths in this match is that it's quite likely to be all work and no play. You're often both so sensible and hardworking, that enjoying life can be a low priority.

Due to this it can be a particularly strong relationship if you work closely together. Regardless of whether you do so, you're both likely to help each others careers and be highly tolerant of long hours and your partner 'putting work first'.

Following on from this, it's worth recognizing that between you this is a match which can do anything you set your mind to! An absolute powerhouse of determination and follow through. You may even want to consider starting a sideline business to harvest this huge potential, and meanwhile, working together as a team will strengthen this relationship, and make you appreciate each other even more.

You both place a high value on home and family, and will appreciate each others enthusiasm for improving and enjoying that environment over choosing to go out. On this subject, neither of you are overly sociable or outgoing, and it's likely your idea of a good evening out will be visiting a restaurant together, rather than attending a wild party.

It's likely that one or both of you favor older style furniture over the more contemporary, and both of you are likely to have a few family heirlooms. You both enjoy material possessions, and both can be sentimental. It's likely that between you your garage will be stuffed full of treasured items dating as far back as early childhood. You're a pair of packrats!

You both tend to be somewhat pessimistic, at least so far as always planning for the worst and being prepared to deal with it. You're both very concerned with money and finances, both highly logical, neither of you play mind games, you're both incredibly loyal. You're both looking for a partner you can trust, and have found that with each other. I could go on, but I'm sure you're seeing the pattern here - Capricorn Taurus is a very agreeable match!!

Taurus Capricorn sex

You're on the same page again here, and appreciate the same lusty and sensual style of lovemaking. Neither of you is particularly spontaneous or reckless, and you'll probably never be on the news for public indecency. That suits you both just fine!

Capricorn Taurus in the long term

This is a match which if married will probably never get a divorce, no matter what hardships are experienced. Neither of you give up easily once you make a commitment.

Taurus and Capricorn Compatibility Summary

So is this article conclusive? No! This article is based only on sun sign interaction. In order to provide a lot of people with information it's a convenient and fast way to generalize, but it's far from conclusive at this broad level. To get a complete picture we need to take all the other planets and their interactions into account for each of you, with a real astrology reading...

Taurus and Capricorn related pages

Capricorn man

Capricorn woman

Taurus man

Taurus woman

For details of the most common pros and cons of relationships with each of the other signs I have a separate index of articles on Taurus compatibility and Capricorn compatibility

Taurus and Capricorn compatibility readings

I specialize in providing fast and accurate relationship readings delivered by email. These are designed to show exactly how compatible you are with a given partner and explore everything about your relationship, including a detailed analysis of your personality and your partner's personality.

Leo and Capricorn

Leo and Capricorn compatibility in relationships

Leo and Capricorn is an interesting and complex match. Traditionally considered a poor astrological match it often works well in practice, partly because both of you are too stubborn to accept otherwise!

Leo and Capricorn Compatibility scores

Leo and Capricorn Compatibility

Leo and Capricorn Sex

Leo and Capricorn Communication

These scores show the averages for data collected from my clients over the past 20 years. It's important to note however that individual relationships vary enormously. This is a summarized picture, a real compatibility reading is needed to judge a real relationship. It's also worth noting that Soulmates can be found in any sun sign match, even those which are statistically likely to have low compatibility.

Leo and Capricorn compatibility

This article is in two halves, the first is written from the viewpoint of the Leo man or Leo woman, and the second is written from the viewpoint of the Capricorn man or Capricorn woman.

From the Leo viewpoint

In many respects you're the opposite of this partner, yet you both have the toolset to turn these differences into an incredibly effective team. If you can survive the first 6-12 months this is a match which often gets stronger over time.

Capricorn is a very sensible and down to earth partner. A patient and goal orientated planner, analyzer and achiever. In many respects this is exactly what a fiery and spontaneous Leo needs. They're good at plotting the course, while you're good at driving the car to get there.

Your Capricorn can be somewhat pessimistic by nature, while you're the eternal optimist. This is the start of a giant circle of bringing out the best in each other. Your optimism will inspire their ambition, their ambition will feed your competitive side, your playfulness will balance their goal orientated life style etc. To examine some aspects of this Leo Capricorn dynamic in detail:

Your Capricorn is far more practical than you are, often reserved and conservative when it comes to day to day tasks and life organization, and this may be the biggest difference between you - they have infinitely more patience for boring or trivial tasks. No bad thing I hear you think to yourself!

You're spontaneous, while this partner prefers routines and schedules. In both areas your Capricorn lends a steadying influence - even if you were reckless with other partners you may not be with this one. This is often a solid partnership. You both have similar goals, yet a radically different approach to getting them. Your style will fascinate your Capricorn and vice versa.

If you're a Leo who enjoys the praise of a romantic partner this match often works especially well, as to earn it you'll be focused on productive tasks which you might otherwise neglect. More to the point the competitive element will make you want to focus on this, whereas a bossy partner couldn't.

Your Capricorn is more ambitious than you are, but you're more competitive, and won't let a partner get far ahead in the success department without racing to catch up. You may notice a radical difference in your respective approaches however:

You're both very stubborn and there's a high potential for a Leo Capricorn relationship to be a giant battle of wills. Unlike some matches however it's typically both healthy and productive in this match. Your Capricorn is sensible and long sighted, while you're intense and short sighted, complimenting each other perfectly.

While your Capricorn prefers steady progress towards a goal, you tend to be very impatient - either not interested, or a tornado of energy, and typically with no middle ground in between. Similarly, you're more suited to short high intensity bursts of activity, often leveraging your charisma to win others to your cause. This 'lazy short cut approach' to reaching goals may both fascinate and annoy your Capricorn - especially when they see how powerful it can be!

You both want the respect and admiration of others, although you want it for totally different reasons. While your Capricorn is validating their accomplishments you just enjoy the attention. Your partner socializes for the sake of making contacts, whereas you do so largely for self entertainment.
Leo Capricorn sex

You both prefer light and fun sex. Capricorns are often so goal focused that they tend to neglect relationships, and you're one of the few signs with the skill set to drag their mind onto more carnal subjects - when you do you'll find they're as frisky as you are once practical matters are forgotten. Don't be misled by their calm and reserved exterior!

It's important to note however that we're looking only at sun signs here. There are many other planets which can have an equal or greater effect on someone's personality. Makes sense, as ultimately everyone is of course unique. Generalizing too far based just on sun signs can therefore be misleading.

To fully understand someone or how compatible you are with them we need to calculate those other planet placements from their date of birth, and compare them to your own, and then interpret the results.

This unlocks the real power of astrology, and gives much more useful and specific information: everything from how they view you, how to turn them on, how to avoid arguments with them etc. If you would like to explore this further please see the compatibility readings page.

From the Capricorn viewpoint
Capricorn and Leo Compatibility

Outgoing, charismatic and bold, Leo's are the natural 'salespeople' of the zodiac. Often bending others to their will through little more than genuine warmth and well intentioned but bold requests - no matter how egotistical they are, it's very hard to hate or say no to a smiling Leo. The match of your patience and hard work together with your Leos 'human leveraging' abilities can be incredibly effective if you share a goal.

You both want the respect and admiration of others, although you want it for totally different reasons. While you're validating your accomplishments your Leo is just fueling their massive ego. You socialize for the sake of making contacts, whereas your Leo does so largely for self entertainment - they want to have fun.

You're far more analytical than your lion, and a common mistake in a Capricorn Leo match is to try to analyze them logically - Leo is a sign governed by whim and passion, and often doesn't make a whole lot of sense on the surface. More than anything, their incredible self confidence makes them want things they can't have. Often for no better reason than the small ego boost it gives them when obtained. A clever Capricorn can use this predictability to great affect!

You both can be controlling in a relationship, however your match of patience, analytical abilities and being stubborn makes you ideally placed to turn all these traits to your advantage. To be a good idea something needs to be 'their idea' - master the art of this and you'll have your lion on a leash. Best to do so because Leo is one of the few signs more stubborn than you are if handled incorrectly.

This is often a solid partnership, and one which often gets stronger over time. You both have similar goals, yet a radically different approach to getting them. You're more ambitious than your Leo is, but they're more competitive, and won't let you get far ahead in the success department without racing to catch up. You may notice a radical difference in your approaches.

You can be somewhat pessimistic by nature, while your Leo is the eternal optimist. This is the start of a giant circle of bringing out the best in each other. Your partner's optimism will inspire your ambition, your ambition will feed their competitiveness, their playfulness will balance your goal orientated life style etc. To examine some aspects of this Capricorn Leo dynamic in detail:

You're both very stubborn and there's a high potential for this being a giant battle of wills. Unlike some matches however it's typically both healthy and productive. You're sensible and long sighted, while your Leo is intense and short sighted. You plan the course and your Leo will often be happy to drive the car.

While you prefer steady progress towards a goal, this is a partner who is very impatient. They're either not interested, or a tornado of energy, typically with no middle ground in between. Leo is far more suited to short high intensity bursts, often leveraging their charisma to win others to their cause. This 'lazy short cut approach' to reaching goals may both fascinate and annoy you - especially when you see how powerful it can be. Leo's are often 20% work and 80% 'selling' of it!

On the negative side you may find your Leo to be very egotistical, self centered, aggressive and spontaneous or reckless. On the flip side of this Leos are one of the most predictable signs and this often translates to stability, in an indirect way. Stability being a key quality you look for in a partner.

You're far more practical than your Leo when it comes to day to day tasks and life organization, and this may be the biggest difference between you.

Capricorn Leo sex

You both prefer light and fun sex, and if you're a workaholic this is one sign with the skill set to get your mind onto more carnal subjects. If you've been previously accused of neglecting relationships, this can be a great match for you.

This is an exceptionally playful partner, and one who will typically be bold and outrageous enough to drag your attention back to the relationship at will.

Leo and Capricorn Compatibility Summary

So is this article conclusive? No! This article is based only on sun sign interaction. In order to provide a lot of people with information it's a convenient and fast way to generalize, but it's far from conclusive at this broad level. To get a complete picture we need to take all the other planets and their interactions into account for each of you, with a real astrology reading...

Leo and Capricorn related pages

Capricorn man

Capricorn woman

Leo man

Leo woman

For details of the most common pros and cons of relationships with each of the other signs I have a separate index of articles on Leo compatibility and Capricorn compatibility

Leo and Capricorn compatibility readings

I specialize in providing fast and accurate relationship readings delivered by email. These are designed to show exactly how compatible you are with a given partner and explore everything about your relationship, including a detailed analysis of your personality and your partner's personality.

A calm and fulfilling partnership of equals, Virgo and Capricorn is a perfect and mature match of mutual respect, support and shared goals.

Virgo and Capricorn Compatibility scores

Virgo and Capricorn Compatibility

Virgo and Capricorn Sex

Virgo and Capricorn Communication

These scores show the averages for data collected from my clients over the past 20 years. It's important to note however that individual relationships vary enormously. This is a summarized picture, a real compatibility reading is needed to judge a real relationship. It's also worth noting that Soulmates can be found in any sun sign match, even those which are statistically likely to have low compatibility.

Virgo and Capricorn compatibility

This article is in two halves, the first is written from the viewpoint of the Virgo man or Virgo woman, and the second is written from the viewpoint of the Capricorn man or Capricorn woman.

From the Virgo viewpoint

Virgo Capricorn is one of your very best matches (alongside Taurus) and one that very often has soulmate potential.

Your dispositions are similar enough that you'll intrinsically understand each other, yet different enough to always be exciting. This is also a partner who you're very likely to find both physically and mentally appealing.

You have so much in common with this partner that I'll make a list for brevity (because you both enjoy efficiency, and a good list!)

You're both mature and caring, without being smothering

You're both extremely hard working

You're both intelligent and rational, and rarely emotionally needy

You both need approval and encouragement (good because you'll both totally approve of each other!)

You both value the home, and prefer to stay in instead of partying

You both have a lot of common sense, and are highly practical and down to earth

You're both highly organized

You're both very concerned with your public image, and will never embarrass each other

You both value security and stability, and will be there for each other through thick and thin

You have a very similar intensity and work ethic

You're on the same page financially; you both know the value of accumulating financial security

You each like and admire the way the other leads their life

You're both very responsible, and respect those with a sense of duty. You won't need to wonder if this partner will ever let you down

You both tend to be perfectionists when it comes to work or important life projects, and don't like to undertake something if you can't do it well.

This list could go on for a very long time, but I'm sure you're seeing the pattern.

You'll love your partner's ambition, determination and realistic approach to reaching lofty goals. This is a partner who will constantly inspire you.

Just as some relationships drain your self confidence, this is one which will increase it. This is a partner who will consistently encourage you, and constantly approve of the methodical precision you bring to a relationship.

Capricorn is often highly focused on social networking, and you'll likely approve of their discriminating approach to selecting a successful and inspiring circle of contacts (this area is also important to you, though not to the same degree).

Capricorn is also a partner who often surrounds themselves with a reserved and detached air, often coming across as aloof. You're one of the signs who can understand this preference, and often appreciate a partner who's reserved and sophisticated - no loud Aries party animals crushing beer cans on their foreheads here!

However, you're also one of the few signs who can see through this aloof veneer, and connect easily regardless of it. Your Cappy will recognize and appreciate that gift.

You're more flexible than this partner (most people are!) but will only come to respect their strength of purpose and determination. It won't take long for you to believe they'll get wherever they say they're going, and this will be a constant source of inspiration and security.

Virgo Capricorn long term

Others may say this is a dull match of all work and no play. Comments along those lines overlook your mutual priority system. Things such as sex will just focus on quality over quantity, and the overall fun will be just as high as with a more reckless lover.

This has the potential to be an efficiently powerful match on all levels, not least financially - In fact it's one of most likely matches to consistently work hard and invest money.

Virgo Capricorn sex

A perfect match in this area, you're both cautious and reserved when deciding who to sleep with. This is a partner who is on the same page as you, and will see any delays in first sleeping together as time well spent, increasing your emotional intimacy and heightening the eventual sexual intensity.

Often this is described as a very unsexy match. Thankfully, that's definitely not the case. You both can be deeply erotic, however you both need a partner with a high level of stability, maturity and patience to unlock that full potential. This partner very likely can, where someone with less patience or more vulgarity often can't.

As with other areas of the relationship, the mutual trust and understanding in this match will inspire you to express yourself, without nearly as much awkwardness as other matches might instill. You will never be criticized, only inspired.

It's important to note however that we're looking only at sun signs here. There are many other planets which can have an equal or greater effect on someone's personality. Makes sense, as ultimately everyone is of course unique. Generalizing too far based just on sun signs can therefore be misleading.

To fully understand someone or how compatible you are with them we need to calculate those other planet placements from their date of birth, and compare them to your own, and then interpret the results.

This unlocks the real power of astrology, and gives much more useful and specific information: everything from how they view you, how to turn them on, how to avoid arguments with them etc. If you would like to explore this further please see the compatibility readings page.

From the Capricorn viewpoint
Capricorn and Virgo Compatibility

I show both sides of a relationship as typically each partner sees things differently. However, in this instance your values and outlooks are so similar that each viewpoint article is almost identical! The Capricorn side is included here for completeness and for those people who like to read things first from their own viewpoint.

A calm and fulfilling partnership of equals, Capricorn Virgo is a perfect and mature match of mutual respect, support and shared goals.

You'll love your partners reliability, precision, detail oriented mind and constant drive for perfection. Just as some relationships drain your self confidence, this is one which will increase it. This is a partner who will consistently approve of the ambition and determination which you bring to a relationship.

Your dispositions are similar enough that you'll intrinsically understand each other, yet different enough to always be exciting. This is also a partner who you're very likely to find both physically and mentally appealing.

Capricorn Virgo sex

A perfect match in this area, you're both cautious and reserved when deciding who to sleep with. This is a partner who is on the same page as you, and will see any delays as time well spent, increasing your emotional intimacy and heightening the eventual sexual intensity.

Often this is described as a very unsexy match. Thankfully, that's definitely not the case. You both can be deeply erotic, however you both need a partner with an enormous level of stability, maturity and patience to unlock that. This partner can.

As with other areas of the relationship, the mutual trust and understanding in this match will inspire you to express yourself, without nearly as much awkwardness as other matches might instill. You will never be criticized, only inspired.

Capricorn Virgo long term

Others may say this is a dull match of all work and no play. Comments along those lines overlook your mutual priority system. Things such as sex will just focus on quality over quantity, and the overall fun will be just as high as with a more reckless lover. This has the potential to be an efficiently powerful match on all levels.

Virgo and Capricorn Compatibility Summary

So is this article conclusive? No! This article is based only on sun sign interaction. In order to provide a lot of people with information it's a convenient and fast way to generalize, but it's far from conclusive at this broad level. To get a complete picture we need to take all the other planets and their interactions into account for each of you, with a real astrology reading...

Virgo and Capricorn related pages

Capricorn man

Capricorn woman

Virgo man

Virgo woman

For details of the most common pros and cons of relationships with each of the other signs I have a separate index of articles on Virgo compatibility and Capricorn compatibility

Virgo and Capricorn compatibility readings

I specialize in providing fast and accurate relationship readings delivered by email. These are designed to show exactly how compatible you are with a given partner and explore everything about your relationship, including a detailed analysis of your personality and your partner's personality.

Scorpio and Capricorn

Scorpio and Capricorn compatibility in relationships

Scorpio and Capricorn is a great match, and one which will bring out the best in each other.

Scorpio and Capricorn Compatibility scores

Scorpio and Capricorn Compatibility

Scorpio and Capricorn Sex

Scorpio and Capricorn Communication

These scores show the averages for data collected from my clients over the past 20 years. It's important to note however that individual relationships vary enormously. This is a summarized picture, a real compatibility reading is needed to judge a real relationship. It's also worth noting that Soulmates can be found in any sun sign match, even those which are statistically likely to have low compatibility.

Scorpio and Capricorn compatibility

This article is in two halves, the first is written from the viewpoint of the Scorpio man or Scorpio woman, and the second is written from the viewpoint of the Capricorn man or Capricorn woman.

From the Scorpio viewpoint

You have much in common with this partner, and very similar values and goals. You'll each come to have a high level of respect for the other.

You're both hard workers, who value security. You're both reserved, and appreciate a nice home environment. You'll come to respect your partners ambition, determination and sense of purpose, while they'll admire your fantastic intuition, insight and passion.

You'll like how down to earth and responsible your Capricorn is - this is a reliable partner who will ground you, while you inspire them. A perfect match in this area.

You may find your Capricorn less emotional than you would like - this is typically a fairly unemotional partner, but you have the ability to bring out their feelings and help them experience life on a deeper and more romantic level than they would with many other signs. You certainly both have the staying power to reach that point.

You're both very loyal, and will weather relationships through thick and thin - neither of you has a problem with commitment. You're definitely on the same page financially; both preferring to be sensible with money, and both prepared to work hard to improve your long term security.

You both can be fairly stubborn in your own ways. Overall your partner is slightly more flexible than you are, however the areas of friction in this relationship will be so minimal that this isn't a major issue in this match.

Overall a very complimentary relationship, where you'll appreciate each others strengths, and truly feel that you're a team.

Scorpio Capricorn sex

There's certainly no shortage of chemistry here! Your partner may be somewhat of a workaholic, but you'll have the ability to distract them reliably, and they'll appreciate you for it.

This is a partner who likes lusty sex, and you're just the person to provide it!

It's important to note however that we're looking only at sun signs here. There are many other planets which can have an equal or greater effect on someone's personality. Makes sense, as ultimately everyone is of course unique. Generalizing too far based just on sun signs can therefore be misleading.

To fully understand someone or how compatible you are with them we need to calculate those other planet placements from their date of birth, and compare them to your own, and then interpret the results.

This unlocks the real power of astrology, and gives much more useful and specific information: everything from how they view you, how to turn them on, how to avoid arguments with them etc. If you would like to explore this further please see the compatibility readings page.

From the Capricorn viewpoint

Capricorn and Scorpio Compatibility

Often you come across as reserved or aloof, however this is a partner with the intuition to see through that veneer to who you really are, bringing out both your feelings and romantic side. You may wonder why you're such a different person when you're with them!

You'll find your Scorpios level of intensity and passion fascinating, and come to respect their intuition and insight when dealing with people. This is likely to be a street-smart partner who can better help you deal with the world.

Meanwhile you'll ground them, and provide the stability and commitment they demand from a partner, and a highly rational way of thinking which they'll come to value. Between you this is an awesome team, both in love or in business.

You're both hard workers, who value security. You're both reserved, and appreciate a nice home environment. You both typically prefer to stay in rather than going out.

Your Scorpio is likely to be particularly withdrawn occasionally, and need lots of personal space. This is how they recharge, so don't take it personally - they'll be right back afterwards!

You're definitely on the same page financially, both preferring to be sensible with money, and both prepared to work hard to improve your long term security. You both can be stubborn, though overall this is a partner who probably has you beat in this area. Your disagreements are likely to be so rare that this won't be a problem.

Overall a very complimentary match, where you'll appreciate each others strengths.

Capricorn Scorpio sex

There will be plenty of chemistry here, and you'll come to love your partners passion and emotional intensity. If you normally find it hard to switch off from 'work mode' then this is a partner who will make it much easier!

Scorpio and Capricorn Compatibility Summary

So is this article conclusive? No! This article is based only on sun sign interaction. In order to provide a lot of people with information it's a convenient and fast way to generalize, but it's far from conclusive at this broad level. To get a complete picture we need to take all the other planets and their interactions into account for each of you, with a real astrology reading...

Scorpio and Capricorn related pages

Capricorn man

Capricorn woman

Scorpio man

Scorpio woman

For details of the most common pros and cons of relationships with each of the other signs I have a separate index of articles on Scorpio compatibility and Capricorn compatibility

Scorpio and Capricorn compatibility readings

I specialize in providing fast and accurate relationship readings delivered by email. These are designed to show exactly how compatible you are with a given partner and explore everything about your relationship, including a detailed analysis of your personality and your partner's personality.

Capricorn and Capricorn

Capricorn and Capricorn compatibility in relationships

Capricorn and Capricorn (two partners, each with a Capricorn sun sign) is a match which often gets bad press for being boring, but it can work very well in practice, often with soulmate potential.

Capricorn and Capricorn Compatibility scores

Capricorn and Capricorn Compatibility

Capricorn and Capricorn Sex

Capricorn and Capricorn Communication

These scores show the averages for data collected from my clients over the past 20 years. It's important to note however that individual relationships vary enormously. This is a summarized picture, a real compatibility reading is needed to judge a real relationship. It's also worth noting that Soulmates can be found in any sun sign match, even those which are statistically likely to have low compatibility.

Capricorn and Capricorn Relationships

Capricorn is a sign often misunderstood by other signs, so this match works especially well if you've had partners who just didn't understand or accept you previously - this one will know where you're coming from, without any frustrating explanations.

You're both practical, ambitious and persevering. You both value and seek recognition for hard work, and both tend to be serious and practical, especially in public.

You both can be very reserved with strangers, and the hardest part of this relationship is often getting it off the ground initially.

After that it's typically very stable and long lasting, with both of you going to any length not to let the other down, and appreciating the same in return. Having a partner you can rely on is very important to both of you.

The main danger in this relationship is that you both tend to be 'work first' (or children, home, responsibilities first) and play second. You also tend to be pessimistic and stubborn, which can make for a tough situation.

This match is sensitive to moon signs, and works best when you each have non-earth moons which are compatible with each other (the good news is that statistically that's fairly likely). For example, two earth moons would be a Low-Low-Low score, one fire moon and one air moon would give a High-High-High. Please see below for more information on investigating this.

Capricorn and Capricorn sex

A surprisingly volatile and spicy match, with no shortage of chemistry. You're both very sensual, playful and adventurous in bed, and would make those who know you only by your reserved social side blush.

There is a risk of you both feeling a lack of emotional connection or intensity in the long term however, unless you consciously make room for regular romance within the relationship.

Overall this relationship has great potential, with relatively little effort!

It's important to note however that we're looking only at sun signs here. There are many other planets which can have an equal or greater effect on someone's personality. Makes sense, as ultimately everyone is of course unique. Generalizing too far based just on sun signs can therefore be misleading.

To fully understand someone or how compatible you are with them we need to calculate those other planet placements from their date of birth, and compare them to your own, and then interpret the results.

This unlocks the real power of astrology, and gives much more useful and specific information: everything from how they view you, how to turn them on, how to avoid arguments with them etc. If you would like to explore this further please see the astrology compatibility reports page.
Capricorn and Capricorn Compatibility Summary

So is this article conclusive? No! This article is based only on sun sign interaction. In order to provide a lot of people with information it's a convenient and fast way to generalize, but it's far from conclusive at this broad level.

To get a complete picture we need to take all the other planets and their interactions into account for each of you. If you would like more information on this for your unique relationship please see the astrology compatibility reports page.

Share this page: Facebook Twitter

Enjoy this page? Please pay it forward...

Capricorn related pages

Capricorn man or Capricorn woman

For details of the most common pros and cons of relationships with each of the other signs I have a separate index of articles on Capricorn compatibility
Capricorn and Capricorn compatibility readings

I specialize in providing fast and accurate relationship readings delivered by email. These are designed to show exactly how compatible you are with a given partner and explore everything about your relationship, including a detailed analysis of your personality and your partner's personality.

Capricorn and Pisces

Capricorn and Pisces compatibility in relationships

Capricorn and Pisces is a great match, with an harmonious (particularly important to both of you) match of Capricorn's practical approach to life and Pisces imagination and romantic nature.

Capricorn and Pisces Compatibility scores

Capricorn and Pisces Compatibility

Capricorn and Pisces Sex

Capricorn and Pisces Communication

These scores show the averages for data collected from my clients over the past 20 years. It's important to note however that individual relationships vary enormously. This is a summarized picture, a real compatibility reading is needed to judge a real relationship. It's also worth noting that Soulmates can be found in any sun sign match, even those which are statistically likely to have low compatibility.
Capricorn and Pisces compatibility

This article is in two halves, the first is written from the viewpoint of the Capricorn man or Capricorn woman, and the second is written from the viewpoint of the Pisces man or Pisces woman.
From the Capricorn viewpoint

Pisces is a very caring, sensitive and empathetic partner, and it's likely you'll come to admire their intuition and ability to predict things before they happen.

They're also very good at providing emotional support and security, which will make you more self confident, while they inspire you to express your feelings more than most other partners will.

You're practical and down to earth, while your Pisces is more emotional and romantic, both bringing balance into each others lives. As in so many other aspects of this relationship you can both learn a lot from compromise and meeting in the middle.

You both can be insecure at times and this is a partnership where you will both benefit from constantly complimenting and encouraging each other.

Be aware that you are likely to have the more dominant personality, and this is a partnership which works best if you don't take control of everything, even if it will be tempting at times.

The main potential area for conflict in this match is that of finances and money. Pisces are spiritual, while you're materialistic, and you'll need to recognize that often they just aren't inspired by possessions or wealth.

Often Pisces just want to help others (no matter if they're blatantly being taken advantage of) and this may confound you. Don't be surprised if you go to pay a bill or buy a new trinket only to find they've lent all your money to someone down on their luck!

In this area you may find Pisces to be wasteful, while they see you as highly materialistic and perhaps even selfish. As with other areas you'll admire your partner, even if you don't want to be them! Compromise can be satisfying for both of you if you can find a middle ground somewhere.
Capricorn Pisces sex

A great match, with no shortage of chemistry, you'll appreciate your partners imaginative approach and romantic nature, while they'll appreciate your more lusty style. Try to get your partner to share their fantasies, as it's likely they have a lot and you'll enjoy them!
Long term

You're both very loyal, and enjoy harmony over drama or friction. You're each very different but you meet the others needs well. Overall this match has very solid long term potential.

It's important to note however that we're looking only at sun signs here. There are many other planets which can have an equal or greater effect on someone's personality. Makes sense, as ultimately everyone is of course unique. Generalizing too far based just on sun signs can therefore be misleading.

To fully understand someone or how compatible you are with them we need to calculate those other planet placements from their date of birth, and compare them to your own, and then interpret the results.

This unlocks the real power of astrology, and gives much more useful and specific information: everything from how they view you, how to turn them on, how to avoid arguments with them etc. If you would like to explore this further please see the compatibility readings page.
From the Pisces viewpoint

Pisces and Capricorn Compatibility

Pisces Capricorn is an excellent and harmonious (particularly important to both of you) match of your imagination, vision and romantic nature with Capricorn's ambitious and practical approach to life.

This is likely to have been a quick and easy friendship prior to moving further. You're on the same page and intrinsically trust and understand one another.

Your down to earth Capricorn will ground you and provide practicality to the relationship, while you bring an idealistic and more emotional outlook and romance to them, both finding greater fulfillment in life thanks to the other.

Your partner is more ambitious, while you're more imaginative, intuitive, sensitive and empathetic, making for a solid and reliable team. You're more emotional than your Capricorn, however they're very patient, and will help with any insecurities, being so stable and loyal.

Capricorn isn't a very romantic or sensitive sign unless they're with the right partner, and that's where you come in, constantly inspiring them in this direction. Similarly they have a stronger personality, which can provide structure and understanding of reality which you may sometimes lack. You'll appreciate this partner who knows where they are going, and has a step by step plan of how to get there.

The only area of potential conflict relates to money. You may not like or understand your Capricorn's preoccupation with material possessions or social status, while they won't understand your generosity or desire to help others before yourself. You can both learn a lot from each other in this respect, and will both benefit from compromising.

You both can be insecure at times (you more outwardly and Capricorn more under the surface) and this is a partnership where you will both benefit from constantly complimenting and encouraging each other.

Pisces Capricorn sex

A great match, with no shortage of chemistry. Your romantic nature compliments the more fun and lusty Capricorn style perfectly.

Long term

You're both very loyal, and enjoy harmony over drama or friction. You're each very different but you meet the other's needs well. Overall this match has very solid long term potential.

Capricorn and Pisces Compatibility Summary

So is this article conclusive? No! This article is based only on sun sign interaction. In order to provide a lot of people with information it's a convenient and fast way to generalize, but it's far from conclusive at this broad level. To get a complete picture we need to take all the other planets and their interactions into account for each of you, with a real astrology reading...

Capricorn and Pisces related pages

Pisces man

Pisces woman

Capricorn man

Capricorn woman

For details of the most common pros and cons of relationships with each of the other signs I have a separate index of articles on Capricorn compatibility and Pisces compatibility
Capricorn and Pisces compatibility readings

I specialize in providing fast and accurate relationship readings delivered by email. These are designed to show exactly how compatible you are with a given partner and explore everything about your relationship, including a detailed analysis of your personality and your partner's personality.

What Zodiac Signs Are Compatible With Capricorn?

Capricorn natives take a pragmatic approach to life, and are intelligent, judicious and responsible people. Capricorn zodiac compatibility indicates that they value money but are not greedy, they have a sense of humour but can sometimes be really sarcastic. Besides, Capricorn horoscope compatibility suggests that the Goats can be introverted and deeply crave for recognition and appreciation for the things they say and do.

Capricorn Natives Are Most Compatible With: Taurus, Pisces, Virgo

The Goats share many traits with the Taurus native, making them an extremely compatible pair. They are both passionate, down-to-earth and money-minded. Besides, Capricorn love compatibility suggests the Goat will be grateful to the Taurus native for being a good home-maker, while the Bull will be grateful to the Capricorn native for taking care of their mutual security. Sex will only strengthen the relationship.

The Fish is another sign that is compatible with the Capricorn native, as per Capricorn best compatibility. Although Capricorn traits and Pisces traits are quite contrary to each other, they tend to compliment each other. While the Goat ensures the security of the union, the Fish help the Goat to take things lightly and not be too serious, something which contributes to the happiness in the relationship, according to Capricorn love compatibility.

Capricorn compatibility indicates that the Virgo and Capricorn natives are like two faces of the same coin when it comes to matching their compatibility. Both are hard-working, and like to share the fruits of their labour with their near and dear ones. However, at the same time they like to maintain a low profile. According the Capricorn compatibility, the sessions between the sheets may not be very stormy, but they will have a touch of love and protection for each other.

Capricorn Natives Are Least Compatible With Aries, Sagittarius, Leo

The Capricorn natives are least compatible with Aries, because the latter are too inclined to take risks, while the Goat prefers stability and security. Also, Capricorn compatibility shows that since both signs like to dominate, sexual relations between them will be totally unwholesome and unsatisfactory.

The conservative Goat also finds the going tough with the Sagittarius native, the latter being fun-loving and imaginative, as per the findings of Capricorn compatibility. The two signs find it difficult to appreciate the finer qualities present in the other. As far as sex is concerned, Capricorn compatibility chart suggests that a union between the two signs has no chance of standing up against the vagaries of time.

The wild ways of the Leo is another thing that does not go down well with the Goat, as per Capricorn compatibility. While the Lions are very affectionate, they love praise and can be somewhat egoistical at times, which tends to put off the Capricorn native. Capricorn compatibility suggests that neither will be willing to make compromises the other will be seeking for the forging of a sexual relationship.

Air and Fire: Not Good Matches

The remaining zodiac signs are in the elements of air and fire. Traditionally, according to sun sign compatibility, these don't make good mates for Capricorn.

Air Signs

Gemini, Aquarius and Libra are too flighty for earthbound Capricorn. You won't appreciate the itchy feet these signs have. You're a homebody and the air signs are always off on the next great adventure with little thought or preparation for the future.

Fire Signs

Aries, Leo and Sagittarius might infatuate you with their virile power at first, but these fire signs will simply scorch earth signs. There might be excitement in the first spark that becomes a wildfire, but as a mainstay way of life, you'll quickly regret the union. You might even be able to smother some of those flames of aggressive energy and tendency toward risk-taking, but it's only temporary. Fire is impossible to control or keep in one spot.

Capricorn's Best Love Matches

Compatible signs for Capricorns are earth and water sun signs.

Best Mate for Capricorn

Patricia Lantz C.Ht.

By Patricia Lantz C.Ht. Astrologer

hikers

The best match for Capricorn needs to understand that this sign sees life as a slow, sure-footed climb to the top of a mountain and that this is also the way a Capricorn approaches relationships with the opposite sex. Pragmatic and stoic on the surface, earthy Capricorn may not seem romantic at all, but when Capricorn surrenders to love, the earth cracks and a warm sensitive person is found beneath the surface.

Capricorn's Best Love Matches

Capricorn is an ambitious sign and is most often attracted to ambitious partners over laid back ones. The signs that seem the most compatible with the Capricorn include a loyal Taurus and a practical Virgo. However, number one on the list of best matches for a Capricorn is ambitious, goal-oriented, enigmatic Scorpio.

Related Articles

Capricorn Soulmate

Compatible Signs for Capricorns

Best Match for a Taurus Woman

flirty business couple

Scorpio

Often described as one of the power couples of the zodiac, Capricorn and Scorpio are a fascinating mix. Both move cautiously into a relationship and believe trust is something that must be earned although neither gives it lightly. So, it could take months before either is comfortable enough for vulnerable moments. However, once trust and love are assured, they will be deeply committed to one another. These two are hard workers who value home, family, and security. Both are private and reserved, so this is a couple that typically prefers staying in rather than going out. These two also share a special sexual bond. Capricorn likes lusty sex, and Scorpio is just the person to provide it.

Taurus

Status, financial well-being, and achievement are important to both Capricorn and Taurus. Both are into strong, enduring relationships and share a traditional approach to love and marriage. These two will find much to admire in one another. Mutual admiration is the key to love for Capricorn and Taurus. Plus, when Taurus's high libido and Capricorn's incredible stamina are ignited, passion explodes. However, this couple needs to remember they are first and foremost lovers, not business colleagues.

Virgo

Capricorn and Virgo are kindred spirits and are eminently capable of creating a successful and firmly based relationship. Both work hard and are committed to reaching their goals. These two will have a maturity in their relationship that bodes well for success in anything they do together. Sure, from the outside this might not seem like a very exciting couple, but since regularity and security mean more to this couple than excitement, their quiet life together suits them well. Plus, they make each other feel safe so sexual intimacy is assured.

Honorable Mention

Just do it Aries, supportive Cancer, joyful Sagittarius, fellow Capricorn, and unconventional Aquarius all deserve honorable mentions as potential Capricorn mates.

Aries

Aries can bring out Capricorn's inner child with all of their upbeat energy, while the Aries just do it attitude can spur Capricorn on to even greater success. Both need a reasonable level of independence in the relationship and are willing to give it. As to sex, both are passionate, have strong libidos, and are confident. So, if a few kinks are worked out like Aries' impatience and Capricorn's cautiousness, you're looking at another power couple.

Cancer

Cancer and Capricorn have a gravitational pull toward each other. Each will compensate for the other's weak points, and they both have a craving for home and family. Parenting is where this couple shines as a team. Raising kids is the ultimate honor for both, and both are loyal to family. This is a quality each respects in the other. At the end of the day, these two have enough in common to create a solid, lifelong match.

Sagittarius

With a little effort, this surprising pair can create an interesting and offbeat, yet seriously fun and successful, relationship. For the long haul, independent Sagittarius must allow Capricorn to be the rock, and Capricorn must learn to be a bit bolder and adventurous.

Capricorn

A Capricorn man and woman might seem to have been made for each other. Similar goals and needs in love provide a healthy and solid foundation for the relationship. They will just naturally respect and admire one another. Plus, they're both sensual beings and understand each other's needs quite well. While a tad on the mundane side, just a little frolicking can make this coupling quite a success.

Aquarius

Both Capricorn and Aquarius are quite cool emotionally and prefer fun sex to the heavy or overly romantic. As a matter-of-fact, sex was likely the initial attraction and could continue to be the life's blood of the relationship. Still, earthy Capricorn can be an important grounding force for eccentric Aquarius, and Capricorn's life will never be dull with an unconventional Aquarian.
Wild Cards

The most difficult and unpredictable couplings for Capricorn are flirty and indecisive Libra, elusive Pisces, curious and distractible Gemini, and "it's always about me" Leo.
wild cards
Libra

Capricorn and Libra can expect a lot of dissension, debate, and a potential falling out when they get involved. Of course, there's always the possibility that Libra's friendly upbeat nature can loosen Capricorn up, and that Capricorn will inspire Libra to stop vacillating and take a stand. If this happens, these two might be able to work their relationship out.
Pisces

Frankly, Capricorn could find Pisces a bit slippery, and Pisces could feel emotionally neglected and move on. However, the differences between them do create a strong attraction and if they stay together long enough, it's possible they'd make a perfect blend of stability, trust, and emotional excitement. But, this will be a tricky relationship to make work.
Gemini

In most cases, Gemini and Capricorn won't even be attracted to one another. However, if by some strange chance there should be an attraction, any relationship formed between these two will be a challenging, awkward, and complicated affair, to say the least.
Leo

It's hard to resist the charm of an enthusiastic Leo, but Leo might be a bit extravagant and ostentatious for a pragmatic Capricorn. Of course, playful Leo can show Capricorn a good time, and Capricorn could prove the value of hard work to Leo. Certainly, both Capricorn and Leo are ambitious and will admire one another, but a relationship of any kind between these two would require a lot of adjustments that could be frustrating to both.

Best	Scorpio	Taurus	Virgo
Potential	Aries	Cancer	Sagittarius	Capricorn	Aquarius
Unpredictable		Libra	Pisces	Gemini	Leo

Synastry and Relationship Astrology

Certainly, there are unlikely couples who are absolutely devoted to one another, and sometimes a perfect match turns out less than perfect in the end. So don't forget Sun sign compatibility is just a general guide. Relationship astrology requires much more than a comparison of Sun signs. In relationship astrology, i.e. synastry, the interaction between both birth charts is examined, offering an accurate gauge of compatibility.

A Bit More About Capricorn

Capricorn often gets a bad rap and probably takes the prize for being the most misunderstood sign of the Zodiac. It's true most Capricorns need solitude, have a stoic manner about them and when people don't know them well, they may seem aloof, uncaring, and even downright boring. But that's far from the truth. Sure, most are very reserved, but the majority of Capricorns have a wry sense of humor, are caring, faithful, and have a forgiving nature that endears them to others. Additionally, if you've ever had a Capricorn friend or lover, you know that when you're in a sticky crisis situation, it's the cool-headed but warm-hearted Capricorn that comes to your rescue.