

THE SERIOUSNESS IN THE ESOTERIC WORK AND THE ABNORMALITY OF OUR PSYCHE

First of all my dear brothers, it is necessary to know, that in truth, what we are looking for, is the Inner Self-Realization of the Being.

In certain occasion I was speaking with the director of an school, whose name I will not mention, and I asked him a question. The answer of the director, that certainly is dead now, left me very sad: "No, we are not in search of the Inner Self-Realization of the Being, we are not interested in that; what we want is the force of the mind, we want to reach the unity of the life, etc., etc., etc." Well, he gave me a number of unfortunate excuses.

I ask to myself: Why should we be in this class of studies if we were not in search of the Inner Self-Realization of the Being? What would be the objective? To distract ourselves? To have fun? In the profane world there are so many ways in where one can get fun: in the theatre, in the bullfighting, etc., etc., etc.! So, before anything else, we have to be serious.

There are schools of cheap pseudo occultism and pseudo esotericism, but it is really hard to find serious people... If we were to call to the path the five millions of person which in Mexico are dedicated to the cheap pseudo esotericism and pseudo occultism, if in truth we were to call them to come to the path, if we were to put on the table, in front of them, the postulates of Gnosis; if they were taught about what the path of Self-Realization is, I am sure that most of them would run away.

Many of them are erudite in Theosophy, in pseudo Rosicrucianism, etc., etc., etc.; unfortunately, it is hard to find serious people; all of them are looking for a form of diversion, almost all of those pseudo knowers of the cheap pseudo esotericism, what really want is to pass the time, to have fun, but when in truth we put on the table the postulates of the Self-Realization and they are invited to work, then they ran away. Therefore, it is not the Self-Realization what they are looking for, but a form of diversion, that is all.

We, first of all, have to be serious people. I could not call "serious" somebody who does not care for the self-exploration of himself, somebody who is not worry for the self-knowledge of himself.

The ancients said: "Noscete Ipsum." "Man, know yourself... and you shall know the universe and the Gods." How could one know the Astral world if one does not know oneself? How in truth could one know the Universal Mind if one does not his own mind? How could one know the world of the Natural Causes, in one does not know the causes of his own psychological errors?

So much has been said about the Inner Worlds, but if one does not know his own inner worlds, how could one know the inner worlds of the planet Earth, solar system, galaxy and infinite?

We have to be serious! In the world of the cheap pseudo esotericism and pseudo occultism there exists so much inferior mentalism... There is a sanctuary in Venezuela in where a lady, fell in state of trance and begun "giving initiations": "this person has the fourth initiation," "this other one reached the fifth initiation," "he is already an hierophant," and incredible things like that.

We, in truth, need to be serious, very serious. Obviously, those that accepted that order of things in that Lumisial, were not serious people, it seem impossible to me that a serious person could accept that kind of nonsense.

Many want initiations: "that person is already in the fifth initiation, is a Mahatma," "a medium said to somebody that he was already in the sixth initiation and that tomorrow he would attain the seventh initiation..." All of that is lack of seriousness! How could one know the inner worlds if does not know his own inner worlds?

In the inferior mentalism there exists incredible nonsense: people who dream and that believe are awoken, and the most serious is that they daydream, dream convinced they are awoken. Those dreamers of negative kind, of medium type, those, we would say, hallucinated, project their dreams over the people and see in the people their own negative, incoherent and absurd dreams. That is the crude reality of the facts!

We want objective realities, not absurd and incoherent dreams. I could not accept dreams, I want objective realities, and that is what I wish to all of you. Those objective realities are possible when in truth the Consciousness has been objectified. But it is not possible to objectify the Consciousness if before one has not passed through the Buddhist Annihilation, word this one that scare the members of many schools.

In reality, the "annihilation," is something that bother the schools of cheap pseudo esotericism and pseudo occultism. It happens that the ego does not want to pass through any annihilation; the Ego wants to live, at any cost, does not desire the annihilation.

Obviously, my dear brothers, we have to comprehend the Doctrine of the Many. Some have said that I took the Doctrine of the Pluralized "I" from Gurdjieff, and "how can be possible that been the Avatar of Aquarius, I took it from him..."

Are mistaken, I have not taken this doctrine from Gurdjieff, nor Gurdjieff is the author of this doctrine. Gurdjieff took this doctrine from Tibet, it is a tibetan doctrine and I took this doctrine from the Egypt of the Pharaohs, I knew it in Egypt, it also knew this doctrine in many other ancient schools.

The first ones to teach it were the Avatars of Lemuria. So, Gurdjieff took it from Tibet and I did so from Egypt; I do not believe that it can be a crime the fact that I took it from Egypt, however, in the ancient Egypt of the Pharaohs, the "I" was not known as Ego (Ego is a latin term); the pluralized "I" was called Seth, and the psychic aggregates, cited by the Tibetans (not exclusively by Mister Gurdjieff) were known as "the Red Demons of Seth."

We, the Egyptians knew (and I say "we, the Egyptians" because I am an Egyptian and this brain that I am using in order to think and to speak, has been 4.000 years under the earth) that Horus (we did not say Horus, but Aurus) was captured by the Red Demons of Seth; when we were speaking in this manner, we wanted to say, to explain to our devotees, that the Red Demons of Seth had trapped the human Consciousness.

The devotees of the High and Low Nile, understood it, and in general all of us were in fight against the Red Demons of Seth. Obviously, what I mean, is that we were fighting against the "I's" that personify a determined error and speaking in an strict Tibetan language: against the psychic aggregates that personify our errors.

In Tibet the Doctrine of the Many is the foundation of the Lamaism. There is not doubt that Mister Gurdjieff, that lived as Lama in Tibet, extracted the doctrine in order to teach it in the western world.

The Doctrine of the Many is very well known in Tibet and when is say "it is necessary to destroy the psychic aggregates that personify our errors," the Tibetans express this concept in the following manner: "The Inner Buddha must destroy the doctrine of the many within himself," that is to say, "to destroy the inhuman elements that we carry within ourselves."

There also are some fallen Boddhisattwas in Tibet, in the Himalayas. Many times the Lanus, that is to say, the disciples, have to accept patiently, the entire day, the different psychic aggregates that pass or control in successive order the body of the Lama, of the fallen Lama, the fallen Boddhisattwa.

But they have the patient to tolerate their stupidities, waiting the moment when the procession of aggregates will end and finally the Real Being of any of these Instructors-Lamas will show up, even for a moment; then they receive the teaching that they were waiting from the Being. Afterwards, the Being goes away and the "I's" continue tormenting the poor disciples.

"To end the Doctrine of the Many within oneself," is not easy, in that manner we used to think and continuous doing so the ancient Egyptians. It is necessary to kill the Red demons of Seth; within themselves is the Essence... Among the devotees of Chang and Zen, the Essence receives another name: it is called Buddhata, so you can see that this doctrine is not exclusive property of Mister Gurdjieff or somebody else; it is general.

That Buddhata or psychic material that we carry within ourselves, is important, is the Essence that is inclosed among the Red Demons of Seth, among the psychic aggregates. It is necessary to brake each one of those undesirable elements that we carry inside in order to liberate the Essence; only in this form we will attain our integration and to become sacred individuals.

We well know that in order to disintegrate the psychic aggregates, we have to direct the Lance against them, and this is taught clearly by Richard Wagner, great Master underrated by the know-it-all of the cheap pseudo occultism. Richard Wagner with his "Parsifal," gives an extraordinary lection of Tantric esotericism. His "Parsifal," represents the Inner Christ or the Christ-Jesus, he certainly can represent the Adeptus who is not an Exentus yet, however, I would say that represents the Adeptus-Exentus.

Obviously Parsifal also has his Divine Mother, represented by Herzeleide... Anfortas, the King of the Grail, had a wound in his side, a terrible injury which springs blood and water; his disciples always washed it in a near lake but his wound did not cure... One day, the King of the Grail in presence of Kundri (a kind of Magdalene), fell in her sensual arms. While falling in his arms, Klinsorg takes away the Lance and with it wounded the King Anfortas...

Brothers and sisters, you have to know that the Lance is a sexual tantric symbol. This means that he had fallen; however, Parsifal did not. Parsifal almost became a victim of Kundri, Gundrigia, Salome, but in the supreme moment he remembered the King Anfortas and his wound. He cried out for help from his Mother Herzeleide and the Saviour Christ and obviously, he was assisted.

She (Kundri), singing in the Opera of Wagner with her delicious voice, cry, asks for help to the terrible Klinsorg, that used her for his perverse purposes and this appearing threw the Lance against Parsifal, but Parsifal is in ecstasy: he catches the Lance and with it makes the signal of the cross; afterwards the Castle of Klinsorg falls over the horrible precipice.

Parsifal passes the test successfully. Later, he returns to the castle of Monsalvat in where after touching with the Lance the side of the King Anfortas, the wound of the latter is miraculously healed... It come to my memory the principle of Hamlet: "Similium Similium Curando," the same, is cured with the same. If the Lance, symbol of the male sexual electric force, can make the Gods fall, it is also truth that with the same Lance it is possible to cure the side, it is possible to return to the path, it is possible to attain the final liberation.

Parsifal does the signal of the cross with the Lance (you now very well that the connection of the Vertical Phallus inside of the Formal Ecteis, form the cross). So, Parsifal forms the cross. Certainly, it is there where is the clue of Richard Wagner, is precisely in the moment of the chemical or metaphysical copulation, when one has the power to destroy the castle of Klinsorg; that castle is carried by everyone: within it are the Red Demons of Seth: anger, greed, lust, envy, laziness, gluttony, pride, etc., etc., etc.

Precisely, it is during the supreme moment of the copulation, when we can use the Lance to destroy the Red Demons of Seth. This is taught by Krum Heller, but in a more incipient form, when he says "male and female, in the supreme moment of the chemical copulation are surrounded by the forces that created the universe," and "retaining those forces we can purify ourselves..." So, the teachings of Krum Heller are incipient, but exist.

The Tibetan tantrics that teach to use the Lance to destroy the Red Demons go much further; there is a Master that wrote a book about sexual magic; a very wise German that comprehends the clue and explain it. So, there is much documentation, but everything is in code and it is necessary to know how to extract it from the different Sanskrit, Tibetan, Chinese books, etc.

Well, you have the key, you know how to use it, so is necessary to use it in order to destroy the psychic aggregates. However, any aggregate has to be previously comprehended in all the levels of the mind, before to be eliminated directly in the ninth dantesque circle.

I was saying to you in the talk we had in Machultepec, that the psyche of the human beings is altered, is abnormal. This misfortune came after the abominable Kundartiguador organ was eliminated by the Arch-Physicist-Chemist-Common, Angel Loisos.

The Archangel Sakaki and his hight delegation gave to humanity the abominable Kundartiguador organ with the purpose of stabilizing the geological crust of the world: it was attained, but there was a mistake in the trans-infinite mathematic calculations... That organ was taken off in Lemuria but so late; as a consequence of it, the bad results, the negative consequences, the inhuman psychic aggregates, were firmly established in the five cylinders of the machine.

The Consciousness, the Essence, the Buddhata, the most pure we have, was altered since then, as a result of the concrete fact that the Essence was inclosed among the undesirable elements that we carry in our psyche.

Since then was established in us an abnormal psychic state, because been the psychic material, that is to say, the Buddhata, the Essence, trapped by the different inhuman psychic elements, the result could not be different. Obviously, since then the human psyche is altered and the three-brained beings that live over the face of Earth, are Ab-Nor-Mals, I repeat this word slowly.

However, I was saying to you in our talk of Machultepec, that one does not realize is an abnormal, that is unbalanced, until eliminates the psychic aggregates. When one has attained the radical disintegration of the undesirable elements, the Essence becomes normal within oneself, the psyche becomes normal, and once the normality is established, obviously one perceives the abnormality of our fellow men.

This is hard to understand. Even if you accept this intellectually, you do not have consciousness of what you are listening, it is not possible, because you do not even remotely know how the normal Consciousness works.

Obviously, you believe that you are men, and I do not blame you; I see you as abnormal beings. Why? Because the one that is within myself, disintegrated the undesirable psychic elements, disintegrated what I had of abnormal. When I attained that, and not before, I could verify by myself and in a direct manner, the crude realism of the abnormality of our fellow men's psyche. Since then, I saw my fellow men as unbalanced people; I felt that I was sleeping in an insane asylum: the planet Earth.

Now you can explain by yourselves, the origin of the wars, etc. Many times, it is just enough a cosmic catastrophe that produces cosmic waves, they touch the brains of the organic machine called men and the latter (been abnormal) go to war.

If they were normal, they would not do that, but are abnormal, they hoist different flags, justify their battles with different excuses, they think are normals, but as a matter of fact, they do all of that because are abnormal. A bad planetary conjunction is enough to provoke a war: millions of humanoid beings against millions of humanoid beings.

Been in that abnormal conditions, how can they love each other? It seems very difficult to me the existence of marriages that will last until the old age... Men are abnormal, women are abnormal, I do not understand how they can coexist together.

When they are happy, with harmony, peace and beauty, it appears a word that the other misunderstand, that interpret in his way, in negative form, and he gets angry. So, he says something that hurts the other and finally they end up, as we used to say in my house, "changing the plates..." However, why do the couples have to "change plates"? Poor plates, poor cups, poor glasses...! Well, just abnormalities!

The friends feel affection, they appreciate each other, however, for any reason, they have an argument and the friendship ends... When we analyze what was the reason, we see that it was something not important, without value... People that seem to be very respectable and serious, end up doing silliness, stupidities... all of that is the result of abnormality, are just abnormal things.

Obviously, the three-brained beings of the planet Earth do not have a perfect relation with the three-brained beings of other inhabited worlds. Undoubtedly, there are other planetary humanities, that as I was saying to you are very interested in studying these abnormal.

Every once in a while, they "steal" somebody, they take them in a cosmic spaceship of course. I say to you, please forgive our extraterrestrial brothers when they take somebody. They always bring him back, but they take them for two reasons: one, to cross them with people of other planets, because the Sixth Race is been created; two, in order to study the abnormality of the terrestrial.

They are profoundly studied in the laboratory of the cosmic spaceship. As the terrestrial behave in a so rare form, they catch the attention of the entire cosmos: they do not have harmony, do not have control of the words, of the verb; they discuss for any silliness, fight when there is not reason.

Are so rare, that this produces astonishment in all the cosmos, so they have "stolen" many of them, and they will keep doing so to study them in the laboratories. They take them as "rabbits of laboratory;" they take the terrestrial to study them with lenses, etc. Well, they are observed in order to see, to understand and I would say, to know all those psychic-physiological processes, the abnormalities. Later, are taken back and left in where they had been taken.

But one does not see these abnormal states when has psychic aggregates within oneself. You can be here listening. Yes, I know that you are listening, but I am absolutely sure that you are not conscious of what I am saying, and even though you are listening, you keep believing within yourselves, there, in the depths of yourselves, that you are normals and I cannot condemn or criticise you for that.

You do not know the psychic state you have; but when you destroy the Ego, when you reduce it to cosmic dust, then you will attain the normality. Only that day you will realize that you were abnormal; only that day, before is impossible.

So my dear brothers, in tonight's talk I wanted to invite you to re-attain the normality of the psyche, I wanted you to comprehend the necessity of passing through the Buddhist Annihilation. I was saying that the Ego of each one of you in no way want to die.

I am astonished that you have the patience of been listening to me; I even get surprise, because the Ego of each one of you has to be seeing me as a terrible demon. It is obvious: To you I am the death, my true name is "death" to the Ego of each one of you; the Ego does not like that.

Obviously you receive the words and say: "Well, this is not time to die; it will be another time. It is necessary to be patience. Maybe the Master is right or maybe he is exaggerating..." So, the Ego try to find different excuses in order to avoid what is coming to him: The Death... The death that the Ego does not like, in no way he will accept his death.

So my dear gnostic brothers, because I know your actual conditions, I invite you to study. As Imitatus, I am training you, so you could work on yourselves. You have to have continuity of purposes, because the Ego does not want to die. In this situation, how you could want to die, if you are the very Ego? The only thing that can save you is the study and the practice immediately; it would be worthwhile to you to study my book "The Great Rebellion," and "Revolutionary Psychology."

I have asked the brothers: "Well brothers, have you studied my book The Great Rebellion?" "Yes -they say-, we have read it..." "Well, but did you study it?" "Well, in reality no; we read it at five hundred kilometres an hour..." Then I get astonished: it passed so many years in order to be able to write the book The Great Rebellion or Revolutionary Psychology and they have read it in a couple of hours!

They constantly come to me saying: "Well, I would want to work on myself, to dissolve the Ego, but I wonder if you can teach me..." But, what an abnormal psyche the one of the terrestrial: they ask me to teach them to dissolve the Ego, after they have read my book Revolutionary Psychology! But, what is happening? If in that book I have given all the indications and now they ask me to teach them! What is happening? They have completely destroyed the intellectual center!

For example, in Atlantis or in Lemuria, no one used to study in that way. A Lemur used to considered the letters as something sacred, they utilized an alphabet of 300 consonants and 51 vowels; in Lemuria the letters were sacred and no one accepted a paragraph of a sacred book, if before they had not become conscious of that paragraph and in order to become conscious of that paragraph, they used to pass entire days meditating on it; so they were conscious of what studied.

When one reads at "five hundred kilometres an hour" and later says "I already read the book," "I know that book," the intellectual center is been ruined. That is not a correct form of studying; one must not pass to the next paragraph, if before one does not become conscious of it, we need to know what we are going to bring to the intellectual center.

In certain occasion, when I travelled through the countries of South America, I knew an indian that lived near the Sumum Supremum Santuarium. He was a "Mama," a kind of Mahatma, he was an small man of about this size; he did not have more than one meter and some centimetres. His hair was long, his chin black and long, wearing a tunic, it looked like a small thin Christ.

He started talking about themes that I had written in "The Revolution of Bel." I said to him: How come, brother Bernardino Alfaro Torres?" Because he had been baptized with that latin name by a Missionary; "how come -I said- that you know about my book The Revolution of Bel, if you do not know how to write neither to read, if you are illiterate?" "Mister, we the members of the tribe of Mamas, do not need to read a book, we examine it in the Astral world."

"The book The revolution of Bel, is a book of the Goddess Nature and we have it in the altars of our Temples-Sanctuaries..." This man was amazing: he knew all the book, he spoke about Nirvana, of a Golden City in the nirvanic world...

In other occasion I was with the "Arhuacos;" they were talking about Karma, but they did not do it as the Theosophist or pseudo-Rosicrucians do. No, to see two Arhuacos in a Cafe talking, was something really curious; they were speaking about businesses: "I own some amount of money that my godfather lent me, and I will see how can I pay it to him."

"I have already paid some drafts, I will see if I can get a credit, because I need it to my businesses..." "Last time I paid 500 pesos of the credit and because of that I think I will not have problems: I will get the credit..." Well, everything were businesses. Any profane could believe that they were talking about businesses; no: they were talking about The Businesses with the Law, about Karma and Dharma, and they did so better than any pseudo esotericist, of any modern pseudo occultist or any erudite, better than Annie Besant and her followers.

They are practical in one hundred percent and their way of studying my books was through meditation. As they did not know to read and write, they did it through meditation, and those that knew it, read them and later meditated on them; but most of them did not know to read and to write. They did not have their intellectual center ruined, as the civilized do, the so called "civilized," or "bonachis," as are known in the Sierra Nevada.

Bernardino, the Arhuaco, was saying to me: "Those bonachis think that are very cultured, very civilized, because they have small invents like car, plain, ship, toys that are not worth, and they do not nothing about the Mysteries of Life and Death..." What do they know about that native, that true illuminated?

So my dear brothers, do not destroy the intellectual center, neither the emotional one. Any emotion has to pass, first, through the filter of the comprehension, before that the emotional center could react. We have to become conscious of all our perceptions, of everything we study, of what we receive.

If you study carefully my books "Revolutionary Psychology" and "The Great Rebellion" and bring that knowledge to the practical field, in the name of the truth I say you, that you will attain the Buddhist Annihilation; then you will establish in your psyche, the psychological normality, you will be as the three-brained beings of cosmos, you will be able to experiment in direct form that which does not belong to time, that which is beyond the body, the affects and the mind.

Until here my words. If one of you has something to ask in relation with the theme, can do it with entire freedom.

 Master, you have talked about the abominable Kundartiguador organ, does the abnormality of our psyche comes from it?

 Well, in reality, from the Kundartiguador organ comes the abnormality of the psyche, because that organ crystallized in our psyche all the bad consequences that it originates. That is to say, the psychic aggregates exists because of the abominable Kundartiguador organ, otherwise they would not exists and unfortunately, within those aggregates, the Consciousness is inclosed; because of that, the Consciousness is abnormal.

The Consciousness is the psyche that functions in abnormal form. The terrestrial are abnormal, are clinical cases that actually are been studying by all the brothers of the solar system. That is the cause, the principal reason of why many times the extraterrestrials take a person to be study in a laboratory.

The abnormal state of the terrestrial has caught the attention in the cosmos: their estrange psyche, their estrange behaviour, that does not have any relation with the cosmic culture of the infinite space. But all of this, was produced unfortunately, because of the abominable Kundartiguador organ.

 One question Master: Did the entire humanity fell or there still are human beings that preserve their primitive hierarchy?

 Well, there are some real men that did not fall and that still preserve their normality.

 From that epoch?

 Yes; not all the inhabitants are visible for the inhabitants of the three-dimensional world of Euclid. In the fourth vertical of our planet Earth, there exist other humanities of flesh and bones that are normals, that did not developed the abominable Kundartiguador organ and that continue reproducing themselves using the Kriya Shakty. So the abnormal are the ones that live in the three-dimensional world of Euclid, the ones that commonly are called terrestrial.

 Venerable Master, in the Gnostic Ritual of Third Degree, that as we know comes from the Egyptian wisdom, we read the following: "I, deceased, I pronounce the same words four times" and "I wish my enemies could be pull down and destroyed" and "the Red Demons of Seth will be delivered to the great destruction of the abyss and the nothing..." What is the meaning of "I pronounce the same words four times"?

 Obviously, we have to pronounce the words, so the physical body can walk correctly; words that originate the Astral verb; the words originate the birth of the Mental body; the words originate the body of the Conscious Will. So, the verb expresses itself in four forms, in order to originate that birth four times.

And about "the enemies," de Red Demons of Seth, that have to be destroyed in the abyss and the nothing, obviously it has to be in that form: we have to destroy them. Now, if we are unable, if we do not commit ourselves to the destruction of Ego, the evil and its undesirable elements, then Nature, in the underground world will destroy them, in the world in where we just listen the wailing and gnashing of teeth.

I do not recommend you to descend to those regions because one suffers so much. Yes, you will attain the disintegration of the Ego in the infernos worlds; you will be able to get out free of Ego, after some thousands of years, but I do not recommend it, because over there one suffers so much. In the submerged world there exists a frightful materiality, there everything is more dense; it is better for you to do the work now, but is you do not want to do it now, well, Nature will do it by you in that regions...
