Prologue.

When we started Proyecto Ovnis, 5 years ago, we never imagined that it would become a cultural phenomenon, not only in Bolivia, but, through the Internet, all over the world. Evidently, besides the commercial success, Proyecto Ovnis generated a growing audience for esoteric topics, but essentially, for hyperborean gnosis and the interest in Belicena Villca, the last Inca princess. Proyecto Ovnis Radio had the virtue of producing the first esoteric radio soap opera on the planet, and Proyecto Ovnis Magazine, the first esoteric and hyperborean "Comic". Let it be understood as "hyperborean" the whole plot of mythical, metaphysical, protocultural, prehistoric and historical nature, hidden, hidden, distorted and censored by the world synarchy, new world order, that transnational interest that seeks to concentrate all the universal power in its hands.

This expansion of Proyecto Ovnis into audiovisual, radio and graphic production, brought new and valuable information that was accumulating, to the point of becoming an important reference for a reloaded second part, which was just waiting for the right kairos to emerge. This Kairos would happen in an unexpected way, and its protagonist would be a brave Colombian revisionist, who after an unprecedented adventure, joined the Proyecto Ovnis team, daring to take on the challenge of writing the third book of the series, embarking on an exciting journey through esotericism, ufology and hyperborean wisdom in an extraordinary essay, her first of its kind: Proyecto Ovnis El Origen (UFO Project The Origin).

In this fourth book of the series, we support with new information all the revelations of the two previous books, expanding relevant aspects regarding the intraterrestrial worlds, the 211 base, as well as within the typology of contact and abduction. As for the great revelation of the first series of UFO Project concerning the case of extraterrestrial contact of Rosalia Tagliavore, the most important of all times for the dissemination of the Hyperborean Wisdom of exoplanetary origin, we now outline a similar case of abduction and contact, which highlights the existence of alien forces in Antarctica, as well as the presence of powerful arms of supragovernmental control that operate in the concealment of this information.

All the evidence shows irrefutably that the cosmic conflict that makes this war essential is about to hatch with irresistible force in our usual plane; the increasingly frequent and routine sighting of "Andromeda Gerät" type ships and daughter ships in the Andes Mountains is an unmistakable sign of this; Therefore, UFO Project 2 The Origin and the Final Battle, strategically closes this diffusion in the face of an expansion of the Veganist Movement, a third position metapolitical entity that has millions of virtual followers in Latin America, who have entered or are entering in cars of the terrible revelations of the Hyperborean Wisdom, This fact will undoubtedly have repercussions in those contexts where the cosmic powers are already preparing to initiate the last act of the drama of the spiritual enchainment of an extraterrestrial race to which we all belong, the slaves who do not have to suffer this world dominated by materialism, collective pain, scepticism, apathy, apathy, the banality, baseness and social scum, a Dantesque reality to which we have been led by a system of social, political and moral control sustained by Jehovah Satan and his fallen angels.

Introduction.

UFO Project, for strategic reasons, was built around the Second World War as a plot axis, based on the hypothesis of extraterrestrial contact worked by German secret societies that was the determining factor for Hitler's Germany to reach, so to speak, with the recovery of ancestral legacies, that golden age that it lived, and that could have infected the whole world if powerful antagonistic forces had not intervened to try to destroy it.

We demonstrate that the Second World War was not only not a German defeat, as official history portrays it, but one more phase, the last of an essential war that encompasses in its prosecution the entire history of mankind. In this sense it is vital that at this point, you assume the reading of the "Magic Novel" of Nimrod de Rosario, which details the history of this colossal cosmic conflict between opposing deities, which in these times have come to be called "aliens".

We show that these alien "deities" are beyond all morality, "good" or "evil", in their role as co-creators of this world, they rule it with a control system called "kalachakra", which regulates the "karmic" cycles by means of an energetic flow modulated from a complex archetypal engineering work. This center, abode or base is known among the different esoteric schools as Chang Shamballa or Dejung. It was also made clear in UFO Project that these regent aliens are seriously opposed by cosmic powers that question and reject the tyrannical spiritual chaining of the "kalachakra" or wheel of Karma. We will provide more details of this conflict in this fourth installment, such as, for example, the denunciations of a prestigious alienologist, who as a former Jesuit priest, provides very interesting data on this metaphysical "ballyng" to which humanity is subjected in its transit through this world of pain and death, supporting all the statements we made about it in Project UFOs the Other Face of the Aliens. But we will not only address relevant aspects of the work of Salvador Fraxido, but also of Corrado Malanga, Héctor Antonio Picco and Fabio Zerpa, considered the most serious researchers of this alternative and notoriously censored alienology. Why, it will jump to the sight that the system only enlarges with all pomp those "ufologists" or "alienologists" who approach the "UFO" perspective rigged, inflated with unimportant paraphernalia, confusing, indiscriminately mixing anomalies without deepening in their origin and implications, or else, speculating on the exoplanetary origin of the increasingly numerous "UFO" sightings, emphasizing the a priori phenomenology of the real facts that are the object of concealment, such as that these contraptions are the work of human powers, not aliens, and most of them, devices conceived by the Third Reich.

These agents of the system, driven by a desire for prominence and the search for easy fame, never touch even a glance on facts such as that world Zionism driven by negative aliens like Yahweh are about to achieve World Government through satanic sects like the "Illuminati" and Kabbalistic Freemasonry, the relationship of Israel and its acolytes England, France and the USA with the current exopolitics with dark ends like the fall of nationalism, globalization, mass genocide for the control of energy and economic resources and the financial control of a suprapower. We will never see an Erick Von Daniken, a David Childress, a Zecharia Sitchin, a Giorgio A. Tsoukalos, a David Icke or a Jaime Maussan point to Zionism as the media promoter of all this "extraterrestrial" paraphernalia disguised as "science". In this sense, all the blame for the evils of the world is laid at the feet of "Nazi" aliens, this they do not say, called "reptilians", a right-wing "snake", and the misnamed "Nazis", of course.

It is in this context that UFO Project The Final Battle expands on important themes such as the Atlantean connection and the meaning of sacred symbols and myths that contain the keys to an integral understanding of the history of the world from the extraterrestrial conception, its chaining to matter, and the great end of history that will parallel the so-called PARUSIA, the return of Kristus Lucifer, the great chief of the Hyperborean Race, the great alien, in the Kairos of the Spirit.

Fasten your seat belts, the great journey has begun.

Chapter 1.

The Influence of the Third Reich in the Ufological theme.

The Great Contribution of Felipe Botaya.

UFO Project The Antarctic Base dealt, without censorship of any kind, with everything related to the German base 211 in Antarctica. Base still operational, which would only be one of many that the "Nazis" built in the land of Queen Maud. To our surprise, Felipe Botaya, a Spanish Englishman, had launched in 2010, just two years before us, all about "Nauschwabenland" in a very good book entitled: "Antarctica 1947 - The War that Never Existed", in the sense that although "The Holocaust" never took place, having so much diffusion by the Zionist media power, "exists" in the minds of millions of unwary. The Antarctic battle did exist, but NOBODY KNOWS IT, because of the tremendous concealment, so it "does not exist" in the minds of those millions of dupes. Yes, the book is extraordinary and opens a door to a vast work of cultural and historical revisionism about German secret weapons and the Nazi agents behind these amazing developments. For example, Botaya in "Operation Hagen", confirms with information from those involved in the development and testing of the "Wunderwaffe", the actual detonation of two deterrent atomic bombs by Nazi Germany, one in Tunguska in the middle of the Siberian tundra, corroborating once again what we stated in UFO Project The Other Side of the Aliens, and for which we were criticized by a number of unwary pseudosapientists, as well as the existence of eyewitnesses, technicians, pilots and engineers who provided this information to various researchers and journalists in the post-war period.

In "Base Waldner 555", this outstanding researcher confirms the existence of at least three Nazi operational bases on Latin American soil: precisely, the Waldner 555 somewhere in Matogroso on the Brazilian-Paraguayan border, in northern Argentina, a finding recently corroborated by a report in "El Clarín", and in southern Chile, the "Dignidad" enclave, from where the test prototypes of the Haunebus would operate. As we will see later

Later, multiple sightings of Haunebus¹ were recorded in the Andes Mountains. Also, at the Waldner 555 base, the designs for the ¹Haunebu is the name of a German model of a large-span flying saucer, characterized by a flattened bell shape with spheroid protrusions at the bottom.

Zeppelin" type transport ship Andromeda Gerät, with multiple and spectacular sightings in the Brazilian, Bolivian and Paraguayan Amazon, which according to Botaya's sources, arrived in packages transported by submarines that dominated the fluvial routes of the Amazonian rivers and the estuary of La Plata.

But perhaps the most intriguing book of Don Felipe is "Cronos" where he reviews the development of the anti-gravitational thruster "Die Glocke", Botaya flows in this book about the possibility of time travels carried out by SS commandos with certain specific missions, taking advantage of the space-time dislocation of "the Bell".

It was Felipe Botaya who popularized SS General Hans Kammler, in charge of the SS Special Developments department, and responsible for Nazi UFOs. A Luftwaffe transport and communications squadron, the JagerKG 200, would have created safe and frequent routes to Antarctica via South Africa and the Weddell Sea, which, coincidentally, is the site of most UFO sightings.

But Botaya tells us about other developments in Nazi Germany's science and technology, pressurization suits and synthetic fluid assimilation, plasma cannons, infrared sights, digital cameras and antimatter converters, synthetic fuels, supersonic aircraft, antigravitational engines and a wide range of others.

Israeli agents followed the escaped Nazis in order to neutralize their action and at the same time to obtain information to prepare large-scale attacks with the participation of the Allies. As we will see later, Israel participated in one of these attacks on the 211 base which, among other consequences, provoked the Falklands War and the destruction of the shuttle Columbia.

Undoubtedly Botaya came into contact with agents, perhaps escaped "Nazis", or of some eastern or western intelligence service, such as the KGB diluted by the "perestroika". Obtaining important first-hand information that, as we said, corroborates everything we have affirmed in UFO Project.

The third, fourth and fifth attacks on the Antarctic Base in the 1980s. Let us recapitulate, the first attack on the German Antarctic base was carried out in early January 1947 with a powerful armada composed of three "Task Forces", one of them, Task Force 68 under the command of Admiral Richard Evelyn Byrd made contact with hostile forces and suffered many casualties. The consequence of this attack was the censorship of the nearly 30,000 men who participated in the operations, as well as the creation of disinformation coverage such as that of the "Philadelphia Experiment", not only to justify the casualties, but also to filter the hundreds, perhaps thousands of reports from military personnel shocked by the witnessed portents and to divert public opinion. Likewise, the coverage of "Roswell", which served to create in the collective mind the idea that the "flying saucers" were outposts of extraterrestrial civilizations that visited the planet with dark purposes, if not, remember the popular television series "The Invaders", curiously the flying saucer of these hostile aliens was very similar to the "Haunebu".

The second attack was with nuclear weapons in 1958. A special missile called "Polaris" was conceived for the operation, precisely because it was designed to attack polar targets. This attack was also unsuccessful, and the "Polaris" exploded off target, possibly intercepted by the anti-missile belt of the 211 base. And this coincides with what happened in a sixth attack led by American stratospheric ships specially designed for that purpose, the shuttles.

Let's see, thanks to Hector Antonio Picco, we now know that there were several large-scale military operations against base 211 in the 1980s. Let's see: "Then, in July 1979, March 1986, and finally on December 3 of the same year, the experiences are repeated again: This time the "attacking team" is composed of Norway, Israel and South Africa. The results were again disappointing, and a true hero of our time, the Israeli nuclear scientist Mordehai Vanunu (or Faanunu), a member of the group of 1,150 people sent to Antarctica, stood out. 150 people sent to Antarctica forced to remain silent, but he reveals atomic secrets to the English newspaper "Sunday Times", and for this he is sentenced in his homeland to 18 years in prison, on charges of "treason and sabotage" Shortly thereafter, on 30-12-86, UPI and TASS cable reproduced by "Clarín" of Buenos Aires, the Minister of Environmental Affairs of South Africa, John Wiley reveals the early construction of an airstrip for high performance warplanes on Marion Island, located (oh, coincidence) right in front of Queen Maud's territory, where the main UFO base is located, all in open contradiction to the Antarctic Treaty signed on 1-12-59, which forbids the execution of atomic tests in that territory".²

And the denunciation surprisingly concludes: "But they have been made, no doubt, because they want to exterminate those who are there, the owners of the UFOs. Then, in the year 2017, according to infidences of the English intelligence services (there is a very important sector of the World Government there), the "news" would be made known. This data is extracted from a report by Francois Lepot (now we know: pseudonym of the Argentine journalist Enrique Oliva), published in "Clarín" of Buenos Aires on 10-5-87."

¿Lo sabe nuestra cancillería?

Israel realizó tres ensayos nucleares en la Antártida

Cairo. El diario Al Ahram informó que Israel realizó tres ensayos nucleares en el sector noruego de la Antártida con la colaboración de Noruega y Sudáfrica.

Al Ahram publicó su informe en la primera página, señalando que el primer ensayo tuvo lugar en julio de 1979, en Queen Maudland, con la participación de Sudáfrica. El segundo se efectuó en marzo de 1986, mientras que el tercero se efectuó el 3 de diciembre del mismo año, siempre con la participación de Noruega y Sudáfrica.

El informe señala que la Unión Soviética y EEUU detectaron en su momento las tres explosiones. Noruega respondió que se trataba de los famosos desprendimientos de hielo. Nada más. Agrega el informe que Israel había firmado con Noruega un convenio secreto de colaboración nuclear, por el que procedió a enviar al continente helado 1150 personas, entre militares y científicos, en 1985, que viajaron a bordo de una nave con bandera liberiana que posee la compañía naviera israelí "Zim". Sudáfrica envió un grupo de 260 expertos y Noruega 670 expertos. El propósito declarado fue: "interés por explorar la región helada".

Noruega y Sudáfrica ayudaron a Israel a construir una base, aeropuerto y un complejo de comunicaciones, junto con un laboratorio de investigaciones sofisticadas. Esas construcciones culminaron en Septiembre de 1985.

El informe agrega que dos aviones de transporte S-130 aterrizaron en Port Elizabeth en diciembre de 1986, llevando a bordo 42 científicos que fueron trasladados de inmediato a Queen Maudland a bordo de un barco de carga de bandera sudáfrica, para realizar el ensayo. Prosigue el informe señalando que 750 israelíes fueron devueltos a sus países en febrero del año pasado y el resto, el 31 de agosto p.p.d.

Noruega dió a Israel 21 toneladas de agua pesada para fabricar las bombas nucleares en el lapso que media entre 1959 y 1970, como prueba de que Noruega es cómplice y socio de Israel en sus actividades nucleares.

Esos científicos asociados han descubierto de paso yacimientos de carbón, de uranio, hierro y petróleo en cantidades apreciables para ser explotados eventualmente.

Hoy se sabe que Israel ha enviado a Noruega, hasta hoy, siete grupos técnicos y militares durante el año pasado para capacitarlos a trabajar en condiciones atmosféricas bajas. (Al Watan: Será este un eslabón más del plan Andinia para birlarnos la Patagonia desde esa base tan cercana y tan sofisticada? Habrà que pensarlo, verdad!!

New Sightings of German ships.

At the gates of a new world war, with very intense conflict hotspots in Ukraine and Syria, UFO sightings have increased considerably in the world. We are particularly interested in sightings of German craft. For example, a Norwegian expedition to Antarctica recently in January 2016 captured on camera and video a spectacular Haunebu. The images are astonishing, simply spectacular. Likewise, a series of incredible but real Antarctic videos have been leaked: huge artifacts in the middle of craters in the ice, and Pyramids!!! The secrets hidden in Antarctica are uncovering evidence of a past marked by alien connection, and this can no longer be hidden.

Andromeda Gerät in full maneuvers over the city of Oruro - January 2016.

Between December 2015 and January 2016, there were three multiple sightings of the cigar-shaped craft in Oruro, Bolivia. In all three recorded sightings, a squadron of four "Andromeda Gerät" in simultaneous deployment, doing maneuvers with the "daughter ships", models Haunebu, Foofighter and Flugelrad. Our UFO Project team in Oruro sent us footage of these incredible sightings which, among other things, caused panic and blackouts throughout the city of Oruro. We believe that the ships emerge from a nearby base, a topological fold somewhere in the altiplano, or perhaps they come from Antarctica itself, thousands of kilometers away.

Also in the city of La Paz multiple sightings could be captured, these images of three Foofighters fireballs are from December 30, 2015 over the area of rio abajo and Mallasa.

But sightings of German ships have been recorded all over the world, most recently in Norway, Denmark, the Netherlands and the United Kingdom.

UFO Project 4

Sightings have also been recorded in the planetary conflict zones, especially in Afghanistan, Israel and Syria.

For some time now, important records have been made about the sighting of a triangular UFO. Recently, technical specifications of this new type of craft have appeared, attributing it German provenance. Recent sightings of this UFO are especially impressive. Below we will show some images of this triangular apparatus that has been recorded in Germany, Belgium, Denmark, or, on the other side of the world, Bolivia, Argentina, Brazil and Colombia.

Now, we have evidence that the "Nazis" produced several prototypes of triangular spacecraft, so it is more than likely that this type of UFO is German. Let's remember that Lipisch, one of the most prolix German designers, successfully experimented in flight, several prototypes of triangular model.

So frequent have the sightings become, so popular are the "Nazi UFOs" becoming, that a new wave of art and drawings on the subject abound on the net.

Hollow Earth and subterranean worlds.

Also, new information has reached our hands to enrich the fascinating subject of the "hollow earth" and the "intraterrestrial" contexts where they would dwell, from aliens with advanced subway bases, to ancient humanities, remnants of mythical antediluvian civilizations. In this sense, we were able to verify the importance that the legendary intraterrestrial citadel of "Erks" in the bowels of the Uritorco mountain, awakens in hundreds of groups of esotericism and ufology enthusiasts in Cordoba, Argentina. Two relevant issues: firstly, the "Comechingon" feat at the time of the Spanish conquest, and secondly, the great fourth type contact adventure of Monica Perez, which involved an attempt to access the hidden entrances to the intraterrestrial citadel of "Erks" by a team of investigators that accompanied Monica on this raid, which was thwarted by the "men in black".

Evidently, thanks to the extraordinary revisionist contribution of Héctor Antonio Picco, it came to light in the field of ancestral mysteries so rich in the Andean world, that legend tinged by myth, about the Casique Voltan who went down in history as one of the most powerful Inca Kings for his condition of absolute leader in a possibly Atlantean or at least post-Atlantean context world, whose vestige is constituted by a command staff sculpted in black basalt and which has lasted until today as part of the of a private collection of archaeological objects in Argentina. The "Comechingón", an ethnic group of white Indians that inhabited the Calchaquí valleys, is extraordinary, apparently they knew the access to subway cities built by the Atlanteans in remote times, and that they used as a refuge to escape extermination during a great battle with the Spaniards. There are scholars who affirm that the mass suicide of the survivors of the battle who threw themselves into the void in the "Cerro de la Maldición" located 10 kilometers from Capilla del Monte, was apparent, that in reality they forced an entrance to the intraterrestrial city of "Ercks"; similar to the retreat of the Viking Ingas in the Island of the Moon, who forced an entrance to an intraterrestrial city during the war of Tiahuanaco. Let us remember the persistence that the cultural folklore in the Andes grants to the Chincanas or entrances to that intraterrestrial world.

Dick Ibarra Grasso, former dean of the Universidad Mayor de San Simón, confirms with historical data and detailed semiotic studies, that the Inca calendrical culture looked at the intraterrene world as the true divine world, opposing Judeo-Christianity and its celestial deities, to intraterrestrial cosmic powers generically called Genios or Supay.

UFO Project 4

To corroborate the above, we have the beautiful story about several trips that a team of ufologists made in the company of the contactee Monica Perez to the Uritorco mountain with precise indications that she received in the contacts to find one of the secret entrances to the citadel of "Ercks"; the interesting thing is that one of those incursions was suddenly and untimely interrupted by two strange characters that fit the profile of the famous men in black.

We will address the issue below on the great evidence of this vast intraterrestrial world.

In the icy Antarctica, not without mentioning that as we have already seen in UFO Project 3, the "Cave of the Tayos", and the entrances discovered in the Amazon jungle by several researchers and archaeologists of a huge labyrinth of tunnels that make up a colossal network in South America, or the incredible discovery of megalithic remains and possibly cities belonging to an ancient civilization still populated at present in the middle of unexplored Amazonia, which will cause the disappearance in a reckless expedition of the real "Indiana Jones", we refer to the English explorer Sir Percival Harrison Fawcett, corroborate the need to review the historical records as well as undertake new studies to officially realize these discoveries that can change the world.

Chapter 2.

Alien Interference.

Corrado Malanga.

Censored in his country, rejected by ufological research organizations in Italy, the fact that his work has reached our hands is one of those rare synchronicities that have occurred in the three, almost four years since the first UFO Project film conference that have contributed to the idea of this project taking shape.

sequel. Corrado Malanga's work provides very important data that corroborate everything we have been dealing with for some time now, and that is:

That abductions, beyond being a phenomenon of uncertain paranormal dye, almost unreal, hallucinating, is evidenced concretely and factually by thousands of cases susceptible of being homologated, studied and classified.

That aliens operate with total impunity, carrying out these abductions for the specific purposes of human cloning and hybridization.

That the need arises to make a sort of typology of the supposedly alien entities, to elucidate their ethology and complexion.

That in order to understand human alien interaction, one must delve into the physical and metaphysical complexion of the human being; that beyond the biological entity, there are subtle substrates of energetic and intelligent quality: Soul and Spirit. And now, the most lurid:

That supranational power groups are aware of the intense alien activity, deeply involved, to the extent of actively participating in different scenarios involving the UFO phenomenon.

That the aliens are in conflict and are preparing for a great conflagration that will affect the entire world, and will become visible in the short term.

It is surprising that Dr. Corrado Malanga, without coming into contact with hyperborean wisdom, has been able to glimpse that the human being, beyond the psyche and the personality, insufficient to explain his essence as an individual and autonomous subject; which differentiates him from purely animal biological entities, possesses an energetic substrate, the soul, intimately linked to something that is not him and that he recognizes as the spirit. Beyond the esoteric paraphernalia, which is the only one that talks about the soul and the spirit, or the deep psychology of Carl Gustav Jung that alludes to these traits elementary elements of the human metaphysical complexion, it is well known that the average human being is totally disconnected from its meaning, therefore from its scope and its importance to know himself; and that is what makes interesting the proposal about the alien interference that Corrado Malanga offers us.

If as researchers or as protagonists of alien interference we cannot elucidate the meaning of these psychological (soul) and extra-psychological (spirit) traits, we will not be able to understand alienology. Dr. Corrado Malanga is very clear when he affirms in his theory of alien soul parasitism, that the dominion of the human soul is fundamental for the extraterrestrials. As its name indicates, Corrado Malanga proposes that the soul is an entity differentiated from the human subject and very appreciated for being an energetic substrate, which allows some types of aliens to manifest themselves in lower dimensions; it is a very interesting proposal exposed in his work, "Cicatrix" first and second part, however he does not clarify at all neither the meaning of the spirit, that is, if it is an energetic substrate like the soul, nor its participation within the alien parasitism that seems to us too passive.

Let's take a step-by-step look at it below when we address the issue of alien possession.

Alien Typology.

In terms of typology, Corrado Malanga compiled and assembled a not inconsiderable network, for its taxological thoroughness and characteristics attributed to the various alien entities that he was able to differentiate and catalog in hundreds if not thousands of hours of regressive hypnosis to which he subjected dozens of men and women abducted in Italy, his native country.

Conglomerate of alien entities according to Corrado Malanga. We can distinguish the "Orange" and at the top the sauroid and the Lux.

We have the "Lux", being of light, a MAA or active alien memory, very common in cases of possession. In second rank of importance the "Reptiles", or "Sauroids", which would be MAP, latent in the human being as a product of hybridizations that took place in some preterit era, we suppose, since there is no clarification in this respect. These memories would be randomly activated in the abductees for some purpose. At a lower level we have the typical "greys", direct executors of the abductions, coinciding with what we affirm in

UFO Project, that the so-called "grays" are in reality a kind of biorobotic servitude. And finally, we have the dissidents, or if you prefer, the opposition, those called by the "Malanga typology", the "Orangemen", who, according to the abductees' descriptions, are humanoid in appearance, tall and blond, of "Nordic" type, like the Adamsky's "Venusians". Very coincidental indeed, since as we saw, these aliens are the protagonists of Monica Perez's abduction, thus described, and are in cosmic conflict against the "Lux".

This is very important, since the "Orange" type, so called because of its orange clothing, which coincides with the description that Monica Perez makes of the Antarctic intraterrestrials, leads us to think that it is more than a coincidence, it is a corroboration, since Adamsky's "Venusians" fit perfectly with the description, and a triple coincidence is too much. Beyond the conflict that the "orange" have with the "Lux", which according to Malanga is for the hegemony and total control of humanity, we are not given more clues, and the participation of this type of alien in the abductions seems to us very ambiguous.

We are tying up the threads by the hand of the Hyperborean Wisdom, since the thesis of Corrado Malanga is correct; even if we look at the "Lux" that star in the cases of alien possession using the possessed as containers, they manipulate the subjects from a superior sphere, enervating the personality of the contact, or, at least, copying it, in order to interact in our dimension. That is to say, they use the contact by assuming its control from "another world", parallel to ours. We cannot but compare it to the "Siddha³ Traitor", which is a power or archon with the rank of a ruling god of this world.

The MAP or "passive alien memory" corresponding to a lizard extraterrestrial matrix, called "sauroid" by Malanga and wrongly called "reptiloid" by ufologists, corresponds to an extraterrestrial inheritance of genoarchetypal content. Let us analyze, a "passive memory" that is to say, "latent", dormant, corresponding to an alien in a higher sphere. Note that it is not the case of the "lux", no, because if it is passive, it induces us to reason that it parasitizes the human contact or subject, first by a hybridization, which turns the human into a hybrid or mutant with alien legacy, and second, that memory being grafted out of place, in a world that is completely alien to it, remember that it is alien, it is with all property an EXTRATERRESTRIAL BEING imprisoned in this world context.

Therefore, if there is a conflict between the "Lux", with the Nordic humanoids or "Orange" could be due to this interference that produced the fall of an extraterrestrial race in the matter. Let's go deeper to complete the idea.

Contacts, Cloning and Military.

It must be emphasized that the regent aliens, in the "Malanga typology", the "Lux", by grafting from a higher sphere, have an enormous advantage over the subject of contact: they can see the context beyond time and space, that is, the ability to see the timeline of the subject who is in a lower dimension; and they can enervate the volitional capacity of the contact by psychic phagocytosis. Having made this clarification, we can speak of the fourth phase contact as a kind of alien possession.

³ "Siddha" is a Sanskrit word used to denote a "god" in the sense of being divine, immortal and eternal; properly a "Spirit".

interdimensional, which could operate simultaneously in several subjects at the same time, and in several worlds. Let's clarify within the subject of extraterrestrial contact the issue of multidimensionality or, if you prefer, of parallel worlds, hundreds, perhaps thousands of contexts in which we would exist simultaneously, jumping from one timeline to another in a back and forth, an eternal return to the same thing. In hyperborean wisdom, the Nimrod contact of Rosario, Felipe Moyano, gives us hallucinating guidelines about the possibility of existence in several worlds of illusion of which the material universe called the "great secret of maya" would be conformed in its complexions; and it is at this point where the topic of cloning takes on highly suggestive and interesting edges, because, if we exist simultaneously in several worlds, cloning would explain it satisfactorily.

Telepathic contact is a common symptomatology in abductees, who claim to clearly hear an "inner voice" external to themselves. Likewise, and as Salvador Freixedo rightly states, the contact suffers an increase in psychic and even parapsychical capacities: hypersensitivity, sleep disorders, extrasensory and astral perception, and sudden attacks of genius, as in the case of Rosalia Tagliavore, Monica Perez and Luis Felipe Moyano himself.

In "Cicatrix" Corrado suggests that a large percentage of abductees treated with regressive hypnosis at some point unconsciously experienced exophilic tendencies; a large number of women were sexually possessed during abduction and became pregnant during intercourse. Corrado Malanga's team collected a large amount of reliable documentary evidence: ultrasound scans with notoriously humanoid fetuses with reptiloid features or lizard people. In other cases, contacts or abductees claimed to have been in technological environments full of cryogenic chambers, where many could recognize their own clones.

And now, let's get down to the nitty-gritty, contacts and abductees agree that during their abductions and visions they could distinguish the presence of human military, interacting with the aliens in a cooperative environment. Corrado Malanga denounces that French, American, Russian and Israeli military swarm these "alien" bases. When we look at the issue of "synarchy" or what is commonly known as the "New World Order", we will elucidate why these world powers are involved in this conspiracy and what are the ends they are pursuing with the tenacious concealment of the "alien question".

Exopolitics.

Since the 33rd degree Freemasons Harry Solomon Thruman and Dwight Eisenhower chaired one of the first committees of relations, censorship and disinformation on the UFO subject "Majestic 12" together with such sinister characters of the Zionist "lobby" as Henry Kissinger, since it must be emphasized, the Zionists pull all the "exopolitical" strings on alien matters for a reason of the first order: to hide all traces about the fallacy of the dismantling of Nazi Germany in World War II as well as the existence of Nazi operational bases all over the world, which pulls down the screen of the alleged Allied victory and Hitler's death, and above all, the German development of anti-gravity propulsion and "flying saucers".

But let's make a quick and instructive retrospection; "Exopolitics" is a denomination too late to try to specify the alien-human relations that has always, let's understand this well, always, since the creation of humanity by, precisely, the aliens, been in force, since the very protohistory of all the peoples of the world with their "deities", until Judeo-Christianity was imposed in the West and in the East the white fraternity tried to erase all traces of the Atlantean past of the humanity by founding equally sacralizing religions that vanished into confused myths

the history of our extraterrestrial past. The Nazis recovered that proto-historic file that made possible their re-contact with those who dwell in higher spheres, obtaining the "Vrill". In due time we will expand on this subject.

As for Exopolitics in the light of Corrado Malanga's extensive work, and from what has been analyzed so far, it is a kind of disinformation plagued with half-truths, or what is the same, lies, to disorient humanity with the consent of a hierarchy or supra-power in which we can find at its highest peak an alien named Rigden Guiepo, supreme ruler of that "occult hierarchy", worshipped in the East as the Bodhisattva Maytreya. We will note that the aliens always disguise themselves with religious and sacred trimmings. Yes, the Rigden Guiepo of Hyperborean Wisdom is a "Lux" in the Malanga typology; and as clearly shown in the excellent Italian film "Sei Giorni Sulla Terra", these "Lux" rulers, true parasites of the anima or soul, according to Malanga, operate with a myriad of biorobots, better known in ufology as the "Greys", the "Sheidim" of the Hyperborean Wisdom, who serve as liaisons with allied powers who are aware of their existence, and receive technologies in exchange for their cooperation in the plan for total control of human societies towards a New Order in which they, the rulers, will attempt to culminate an evolutionary plan with dark ends for the vast majority of mankind.

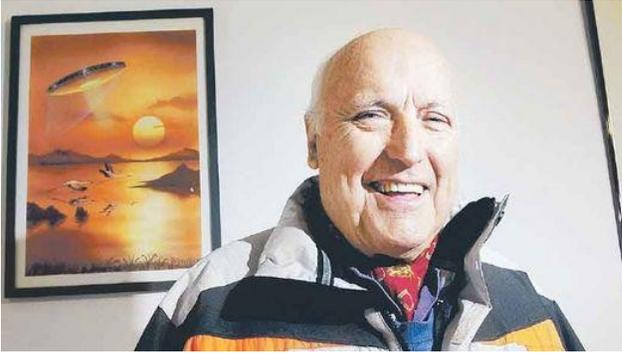

UFO Project 4

To close this section, let us summarize: The "Orange" would have re-established contact with humanity through Nazi Germany; the "Orange" are opposed to this New World Order that the "Lux" want to establish. Ergo, Exopolitics boils down to the fact that the Nation States or countries of the world, which will occupy a secondary or even tertiary rank of existence under the aegis of the Anglo-Israeli power that is with the "Lux", will propitiate that this contact takes place, something that until now has been avoided by the conspiracy and the mantle of confusion that services specialized in the alien question have been sowing all over the world with the MIB, which will be studied in detail later, and others like A'man, Shin Beth, Mi5, SSF, that watch this possible contact with the "Orange", "Nordic" or "Venusians", it is the same thing, to frustrate it.

Chapter 3.

Extraterrestrial Control.

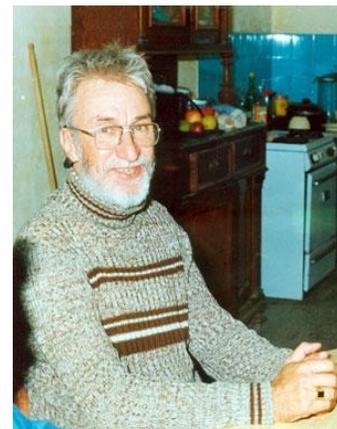

Héctor Antonio Picco and Fabio Zerpa.

Fabio Zerpa, of Uruguayan nationality, lived in Argentina from a very young age until he was recognized for his work as one of the precursors of "UFOlogy" and the study of the paranormal in Latin America. He was the founder of the first magazine on the subject: "Cuarta Dimensión", which was widely distributed not only in Argentina, but also in several Latin American countries.

He participated in several international colloquiums with other ufologists and researchers supported by field studies with witnesses of sightings, "UFO" hunters, contactees and abductees. He was one of the first to make known the "Antarctic mystery" with its alien bases and the censored subject of "Nazi UFOs"; then he was intercepted by the "Men in Black" about whom he wrote a very enlightening book, one of the few that exist of Latin American ufologists, precisely "The Men in Black"; and this was not fortuitous, it coincided with the case of Monica Perez that he was working on, as we will see later on.

Among the people who collaborated with Fabio in the magazine "Cuarta Dimensión" stands out the writer, musician and contactee Héctor Antonio Picco, whose work on the study of the UFO phenomenon, alienology and alternative anthropology plagued with historical and cultural revisionism, recently reached our hands, providing unthinkable elements that confirm, once again, our thesis of UFO Project; that Antarctica is an advanced platform not only for the aliens but also for the Nazis; that Argentina, Argentum, is full of anthropological vestiges that evidence the existence of white peoples long before the arrival of the Spaniards during the conquest, and that these peoples have an alien connection; Likewise, that the reality of the existence of intraterrestrial worlds is unquestionable and that, literally, we, the superficial humanity, live on a very advanced and millenary intraterrestrial civilization without noticing it due to the disinformation of the system and our low spiritual development. Incredible but true.

Hector A. Picco

At some point in his childhood, Hector witnessed an amazing UFO sighting very similar to the encounter Rodrigo Guerra Grundy had during the 1980 carnival in Santa Cruz de la Sierra Bolivia. Yes, the cigar-shaped "UFO" that was seen in Santa Cruz by thousands of people, among them Don Carlos Ibieta, a well-known communicator from Santa Cruz, who corroborated that wonderful sighting. Hector saw the Andromeda Gërat in broad daylight as a gigantic "Zeppelin" of gleaming platinum metal for several minutes at very low altitude, an event that would mark him for life, and that greatly influenced his passion for the study of the UFO phenomenon. Picco's sighting was in 1945, when there were no more "Zeppelin" airships in the world.

Zerpa would dismiss the case of Monica Perez to Picco's surprise, because in the history of the magazine "Cuarta Dimensión", never had a case as transcendental as Monica's been dealt with. It seems that Zerpa was dissuaded by the "MIB", and left the case in oblivion, producing the break with his editor in chief Picco. Héctor Picco would dedicate himself to study and investigate in depth the case of abduction and contact of Mónica Pérez independently, a fact that would change his life forever.

Mónica Pérez and the Antarctic Mystery.

Monica Perez was born in Vicente Lopez, Province of Buenos Aires on October 29, 1953 with Basque ancestry on her father's side and Lebanese on her mother's side. Picco recognizes in her innate mediumistic powers, which were enhanced by study and esoteric practice during her youth. Hector Picco's first experience with contact was when he participated with Monica and a selected group of people in an extraordinary sighting called by the "aliens" who contacted Monica in Pampa de las Varitas, province of Mendoza in 1984, which generated very suggestive photographic evidence that mysteriously was lost.

In 1989 another scheduled meeting for sighting and possible contact took place in Casilda, Province of Santa Fe, in which six people participated in addition to Monica. Abundant photographic evidence was obtained. Finally, in the beach resort of Quilmes, in the year

1987 another scheduled meeting took place, which was also corroborated by testimonial and photographic evidence.

However, in 1986, the extraordinary case of Monica's abduction took place, where she was taken and operated inside a UFO, where a brain implant was performed, corroborated by radiographic examination by Dr. Eduardo Brovelli, who stated with astonishment and dismay that he had never seen anything like it in his 15 years of experience; a case of abduction and surgery unique in the world.

But if this is already surprising, even more surprising are the revelations that the aliens made to Monica at several telepathic messages that she would not have been able to string together, and which confirm the veracity of the messages that Rosalia Tagliavore communicated at the time, therefore, as well as everything else what we stated at the time in the first two books of the UFO Project saga. Let's see:

- The "Aliens" come from Antarctica, they are intraterrestrial. Monica emphasizes: "They" say they live there, inside, they even have their own sun...I don't know how to explain it...it's as if it were another world inside the Earth itself, like Jules Verne's center of the Earth...something like that.
- "They", the "aliens", have a Nordic-Germanic biotype; "They are tall, 2.10/2.20 mts., blond, very large, blue eyes, white complexion, quite robust..."... and use visible RUNES as standard symbols on ships and uniforms.
- To the question of why she underwent the operation during the abduction, she answers: "To be living proof of the reality of "them", something that medical science, if it decides to do a serious investigation CANNOT DISPROVE..."
- As Rosalia Tagliavore, Monica conveys messages that transcend her level of understanding and that in synthesis, she summarizes the lack of awareness of humanity asleep in a kind of lethargy, and that to wake up from the dream that plunges it into this decadence, it must assume an internal struggle with itself.
- That the whole UFO culture, good aliens, human evolution and life on other worlds is a scam.

To round up a bit, let's clarify some details of this revelation. It is more than coincidental that Monica's abduction experience carries a message of rebellion against this state of affairs, we refer to the current situation of this context we call the world. We must WAKE UP! She emphasizes, and the fight is against oneself; the enemy is within, not only outside. In this context Malanga tells us that the Soul is the enemy of the Active and Passive Alien Memories, Felipe, the son of

Rosalia Tagliavore, bases the exoplanetary wisdom that she transmits in her work on a complex struggle that the chained Spirit must sustain against the soul or anima; in short, the coincidences add up and continue.

Rosalia Tagliavore warns humanity.

Rosalia, the most important contact and abduction case in history, wrote 67 "letters" in which she unveils the mystery of the exoplanetary wisdom whose translation and dissemination for humanity was entrusted by the Antarctic aliens to her son Philip. Although we will not delve into the powerful content of these letters, which were already the basis of UFO Project 1 and 2, it is necessary to emphasize clearly and syntactically the essential features of this revelation:

- That the extraterrestrials warn that there is no more time and that humanity must wake up from the great deception because a great planetary catastrophe is approaching.
- That politicians, corrupt or unwary, commit spiritual treason by courting Zionism against the interests of their own people.
- That there are two camps of "aliens", some who support Zionism as the head of a new world order, and others who oppose these plans.
- That both sides are preparing to wage a cosmic battle that will involve several worlds, including our own, in their theater of operations.
- That in view of the overwhelming and crushing dominance that the synarchy has established with its Masonic arms embedded in banking, the church and other world organizations, it is vital that his son's books be disseminated to reach the "chosen few" who will be instrumental in the preparations for the "final battle" that is coming.
- That there will be a great evacuation, given that the days of this civilization are numbered and that the "extraterrestrials" or "intraterrestrials" will not pact with any synarchic or Zionist instance.

Let us look at some important nuances. Rosalia and this exoplanetary Wisdom denounce that Zionist aliens distill human pain, and feed on it, as well as on the blood of animals and men. We will see how an extraordinary alienologist, whose erudition has transcended him among fans of the subject, we refer to Salvador Freixedo, confirm these aberrant extremes of the alien nature seated at the top of this pyramid of world power. Rosalía paves the way for us to assimilate these contexts and addresses key ufological themes such as the "Men in Black", the "chupacabras", the "transitiation" to other dimensional contexts by a "transient".

Rosalía with her older brother José.

second alien intent, "human cloning", the mystery of Adolf Hitler, all threaded together to recognize their relationship to current politics, history, economics, as well as our own psychology, behavior and level of consciousness to AWAKEN to these realities.

Something very important, some sectors of the Roman Curia are aware of the transcendence of the "extraterrestrials" who communicate through Rosalia, and they have expressed themselves in a very subtle way: apologizing to Rosalia in the name of the Church. And in that sense goes the most important communiqué of the extraterrestrials who contacted her: ALL HUMANITY MUST SINCERATE.

The Men in Black.

The famous "Men in Black", tragicomic protagonists of a "Hollywood" film trilogy that embedded them in the popular imagination, and which, irony aside, portrays them with some of their real characteristics, because, it must be said, the MIB exist, they are real, they belong to a supra-governmental echelon, and their activity is enormous, especially in countries such as Argentina and the USA.

The UFO phenomenon gained notoriety from the great diffusion that the system gave it between 1946 and 1952, modeling its current form towards the conception of the origin of the UFOs.

extraterrestrial of the "flying saucers" diverting the hopeful look of the humanity towards distant confines of the material universe. Precisely that was what they wanted to achieve, since the allied powers knew about the intraterrestrial origin of the "UFO", and about the development reached in NAZI Germany to contact these subterranean forces.

Since then the system, the CIA, Tavistock, and Aman B'nai B'rith, have woven an entire

The UFO phenomenon has been abused through the abusive use of the media, the film industry and mainly television, in order to confuse the population, satirize the UFO phenomenon, in turn silencing, silencing or discontinuing magazines, pamphlets and groups specialized in ufological research, financing charlatans and mythomaniacs of the ilk of Sixto Paz, or promoting mass drug addiction of esotericism enthusiasts through cultural movements manipulated by mind control and other "entertainment" techniques, infiltrating agents in sects or research and truth-seeking groups, etc.

UFO Project 4

However, there always were and always will be people and researchers who are not susceptible to manipulation and intimidation, who cannot be diverted or corrupted. To neutralize them there are the famous MIB or men in black. Let's go deeper.

MIB activity is notoriously large in the US and Argentina. The question:
Why?

UFO sightings skyrocketed in mid-1947 in the USA. The presence of UFOs was so frequent, especially in the vicinity of military bases such as the famous "Area 51" and secret bases for the development of nuclear weapons, that the U.S. government had to forge a cover-up: "Roswell". What actually happened was that the US had attacked the German Base 211 in Antarctica, and the Nazis responded by making use of their highly advanced fleet of flying discs violating with impunity American airspace; we detail this story step by step in the book: "UFO Project - The Antarctic Base". Even the German "UFO" crew members contacted American citizens like George Adamski introducing themselves as "Venusians". Although the U.S. intelligence agencies managed to deceive the great mass of the American people with their Roswell charade, many investigators came to identify the Nazi UFOs thanks to leaks from military personnel who participated in the attack on the German base in the Antarctic, and it was necessary to deploy a police control apparatus. We do not know for certain how many murders of witnesses, investigators and reporters who were on the trail, were committed by the "MIB", however it must have been a huge purge.

In Argentina, Nazi UFO sightings are frequent in Capilla del Monte and Uritorco, so since the state fell into synarchic hands, remember the string of Masonic presidents who ruled since the overthrow of Perón, the country was infested by agents of the system, looking for escaped "Nazis", as well as "Men in Black", to neutralize the Argentine connection with the intraterrestrials. But there is more.

Who are the MIBs?

It is undoubtedly a supra-governmental agency that is above the highest echelons of the security systems and intelligence services of the allied powers⁴. It is a synarchic control system whose function is to neutralize agents who can leak information capable of undermining or exposing the false arguments that sustain the system on the alien question.

What is the purpose of the MIBs?

Being anomalous agent detection systems, MIBs pursue contactees, UFO witnesses, researchers, seekers, publishers and individuals related to "Intraterrestrials" or "Nazis", or who have, possess or disseminate information about them, ⁴ The so-called "Allies" in World War II.

even if the subjects of persecution and observation are unaware of the implications of all this.

In this sense, the MIBs search for books, relics, dossiers, archives, photographic material, crystals, "magical" objects that provide clues to the truth that the system tries to censor and hide. On the subject of the "contactees", to hunt down or identify, quantify and label the entities that alienate or contact them.

Are MIBs human?

Perhaps some subordinate steps are. But the MIBs themselves, emphatically, are NOT. Those who have had the terrible experience of encountering them, claim to maintain that they are humanoid in nature, but not human, since their features betray an alienated form, as well as being possessed of supernatural powers, usually of a telepathic nature; although impeccably dressed, men in black do not always wear black, and although they generally appear in threes, one waiting in a black car or a brand new luxury model, sometimes in civilian or military dress, in twos instead of threes, and with no car in sight. Many of those intercepted say that the MIBs have faces with oriental and even Semitic features.

What is your "modus operandi"?

Those who have had these unpleasant encounters with the men in black agree that it all starts with a strict surveillance of each of the movements of the persecuted subject. Then comes the phase of intimidation, for which the MIB make use of third parties whose minds they easily alienate. This terrible faculty of mind control is evidenced by most of the victims who have had the opportunity to narrate these encounters. Phone calls, messages, dreams in the midst of altered states of consciousness, are experiences that the protagonists coincide in affirming.

Chapter 4.

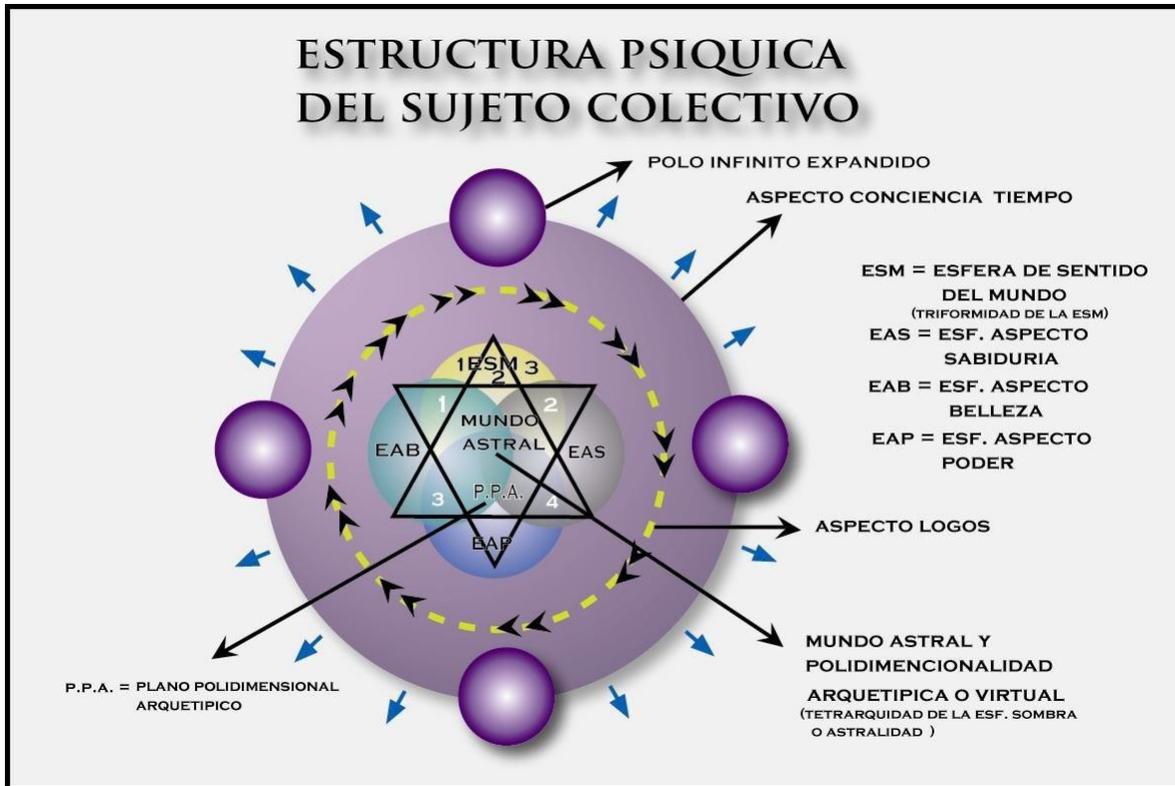

Forms of Alien Social Control.

What is the "demiurge"?

Beyond the metaphysical conceptualizations that assimilate the demiurge with what we call "god", the exoplanetary wisdom translated by Felipe Moyano goes much further, establishing parameters of comprehensive assimilation that for the first time are within the reach of man. In this sense, the Hyperborean Wisdom demonstrates that the mental dynamics that we call consciousness is in reality a temporal dimension that generates a universal constant, the demiurge. We advise those who want to deepen in this gnosis to read the work of Nimrod de Rosario; for the time being and for simplistic purposes, we will make a simpler translation for the sake of brevity. In this vision, the demiurge is a collective subject; and this is much more significant than one might imagine at first glance, since the current phenomenon of globalization is making possible the cultural homogeneity of humanity and the individual's own time is increasingly contaminated, or if you will, subordinated to the cultural patterns of the collective subject. So, whoever imposes the trends, has the power to impose virtual realities fed by the culturally oriented sense of millions of individuals. Yes, we live in a temporary and existential communism.

We will not dwell too much on this as it has been extensively explained in "Metaethics Social Psychology" and in the previous UFO Project series, however it is necessary to provide essential guidelines in order to better understand the monster that truth seekers must face if they are to gain a modicum of freedom to reach Origin.

The demiurge, being a collective subject, has a governing center from which emanates an elemental archetypal essence that will be the parameter to which the collective existence will be channeled. That particular center that flows from a higher dimension is conformed by the aliens or extraterrestrials and has as a lower counterpart a social prototype that viralizes it in these denser dimensions, our world context. Yes, that's right, what we are referring to here is a "chosen people"; this will be a second plane of manifestation of the demiurge. Here is the crux of the matter, for this human group that wields enormous material power is actually supported by extraterrestrial cosmic powers. This is why whoever does not understand the importance of the dynamics of the Jewish people in the world, will never be able to understand the alien question and much less relate it to the psycho-social springs that move the system leading it towards a purpose established from a higher sphere by the demiurge.

Although this cultural war for the domination of the psyche of the peoples through ominous symbols or deities became implacable with the manifestation on this plane of the same demiurge psychically unfolded in his chosen people, and it is painful for people to realize this undeniable reality, the truth is that pain is precisely the metaphysical engine that encourages this cosmic power to continue to keep humanity stagnant in these lower spheres, secondary plane of corporeal existence that at present, with seven billion, crowd the great sheepfold, the human farm overflowing with life to distill the pain that is so pleasing to the "lord", according to the saint and sign of the sacrificers who offer it to him without disgust at the expense of all of us. We will expand on the subject when we address the work of the savior Freixedo, for the moment let us begin to unravel the organic structure of this global system.

What is Synarchy?

For the exoplanetary wisdom brought by Felipe Moyano, there are two types of men, the sleeping and the awakened. In order to facilitate the understanding of the sleeping men, since the awakened ones, having the capacity of comprehension, realize their extremely precarious condition of human guinea pigs for these powerful aliens, we will say that there are three types of men, the normal ones, who accept the world without questioning anything that escapes their immediate understanding, avoiding at all costs any doubt that merits a work of verification and serious self-criticism. It is the majority who blindly believe in everything that the predominant culture preaches: democracy, social peace, equality, human rights, that "Nazis" are bad, etc.; they do not believe in aliens because their world of lies would collapse without remedy, for if aliens exist, they think, "god", be it a tribal totem or a cultural product, would have no reason to exist, and this causes them much fear. Well, now come the intellectuals, idealists, philosophers and other subjects of more acute intellect. They are a minority, they may or may not believe in extraterrestrials, it does not matter, since they have made the mistake of pigeonholing themselves in their own paradigmatic cultural goals, for example a revolutionary, an anarchist, a feminist, or the counterparts, capitalists, businessmen, artists, and lovers. As you can already understand, for these subjects it matters little whether aliens exist or not, since they will assimilate the concept to their overbearing culture.

Finally, we have a tiny minority of men, the seekers. They neither pigeonhole, nor allow themselves to be pigeonholed, they have a powerful intuition for detecting anomalies and the power of enough will to unravel them. Well, the first two types of men, normal and intellectual, are asleep, while the seekers are half awake and in transit to awakening. We have made this long analysis to affirm something very important, the SYNARCHY is conformed by this type of man, very superior organically, functionally and spiritually. It is these men who found and nurture the secret societies, and their actions are vaguely perceived by the second type of intellectualoid, and completely unnoticed by 99, 9% of humanity.

Now, let us go a little deeper. We said that this superior type of man makes up the synarchy, which serves to concentrate all political and financial power in their hands. So the synarchy functionally collective subject, molds the demiurge towards a final evolutionary form, when he will transfer all power into his hands, according to the alien pact signed with his "chosen people". What moves these "synarchs" to perform such an arduous task if in the end they will transfer all their power to the demiurge? It is a very good question, no doubt, and it occurs to us that perhaps they seek to become demiurges themselves, or perhaps the motive is a desire for immortality. What is certain is that the synarchs are beyond the Zionism of which they make use, and beyond elitist Judaism and other political existential pseudo-summits such as Marxism or liberalism, and therefore beyond the paradigm of psychosocial power. They are beyond all religion, which they also make use of, as they make use of nationalism and other forms of political and social organizations.

These men, as we have already said, organized in secret societies, are in contact with the aliens, or perhaps they are the aliens themselves, which seems very logical to us, and are properly the true SYNARCHY, the master of the fold in which all of sleeping humanity lives, grows, reproduces and dies. Below them are all the other planetary hierarchies of secondary rank: rabbis, popes, gurus, political leaders, international bankers, and the "chosen people," of course, etc. All must square themselves to guidelines that only they understand in their true magnitude and significance as direct representatives of the aliens or being aliens themselves.

Now, a reflection, those of us who have realized the tremendous power that the synarchy has, should not fall into the error of underestimating it, but neither of overestimating it, both positions are conducive to strategic error.

The 144,000 and the Rapture.

Who are the famous 144,000? We believe we are in a position to answer the question, and we will do so syntactically first: They are the synthesis of the evolutionary process of the demiurge in a context world, our context world. We have already said that the demiurge is a collective subject, it is made up of billions of people, so why only 144,000 will constitute its synthesis?

It is evident that the existential contexts prepared by the synarchy will not bring the billions that we are to their final eternal perfection. These contexts, this context, is only functional for the perfection of certain individuals. That is why we have all noticed that societies are directed towards the consolidation of certain paradigms in the sphere of sense of the demiurge that are conducive to global homogenization, in this sense remember that we already talked about the cultural trends that are imposed with the demiurge's push, the sense given by millions of people. The famous "holocaust" never existed, but it is affirmed every time thousands of incautious people believe it; the same, homosexuality is a perversion impossible to reconcile with the natural law, but "gay" marriage is legalized in more and more countries of the world. These are the psychosocial conditions required by the collective subject to perfect the demiurge.

Although it is hard to know that the world does not favor our existence and the system uses us to perfect and elevate 144,000 butterflies, we must have the courage to assume it and after understanding it, verify it, contrast it, have the dignity to denounce it. That is exactly what we are doing throughout the entire UFO Project series. Good, let us make some considerations to clarify the concept of the 144,000 and recapitulate:

First: The perfecting of the 144,000 could be assimilated to the advent of the Messiah, called Metatron in Jewish Kabbalah. The manifestation of Metatron in the world will be the signal for the descent of the "Shekinah", the Kabbalistic term for the "Holocaust of Fire".

Second: This event happens unalterably when a human civilization reaches the degree for the entelechy or final perfection of its elite. It already happened in the times of Atlantis, then in the times of Sodom and Gomorrah, and it will happen again very soon.

Third: Then, the "positive" aliens, who oppose the synarchy, intervene, either from the sky, as in the time of Atlantis, or by helping men on Earth to oppose these truly satanic designs, as in World War II.

Fourth: It is obvious that the synarchic agents spread the fallacy that the "negative aliens" are those who oppose the glutton for blood and human pain Jehovah and his "angels" in heaven, just as on earth the "Zionists" are poor little angels and the monster is Hitler.

Fifth: Let's be specific: The alien rulers of this world distill the pain generated by humanity. It is precisely the pain of humanity that gives meaning to the world of the demiurge. The final holocaust, the pain that will be distilled in torrents, will serve as the impetus for the rise of the 144,000.

Sixth: With Jehovah satiated, the 144,000 elevated, the cosmic cycle of manifestation at its end, the aliens or archons who enchained their own race in matter to make sense of the demiurge's world, will begin again their task of perfecting other human types in a new cosmic cycle.

In order to convince you, at least, of the evidence that all this conspiracy has dark purposes, which do not fit at all with the new age version that aliens and the "first cause", that is, what you call "god" are good older brothers of the poor humanity stained with sin, guilty, ignominious, impure, we are going to analyze very succinctly the ufological work of a former Jesuit priest named Salvador Freixedo.

Finally, the so-called "rapture" is almost elucidated, if not completely unraveled: there will be an evacuation by both warring alien sides to save some human remnants for strategic reasons. It's as simple as that.

Salvador Freixedo denounces.

In "Defend ourselves from the gods", Salvador Freixedo assures that he advanced the views of UFOlogy by a few years, when he pointed out that it was no longer time to doubt whether UFOs were real or fantastic and not even to examine whether contactees or abductions were real or imaginary. There, against the opinion of the "serious ufologists", he made it clear that what had to be done was to defend against the malign interference that certain entities were exerting on the human race.

Furthermore, in that book, fundamental for understanding not only the UFO phenomenon, but human history and the very life of man on Earth, he included the "god" of Christianity with all these mysterious and superior beings that visit us, and placed him not precisely among the best, but among the cosmic ruffians who come to take advantage of the weaknesses and credulity of mankind.

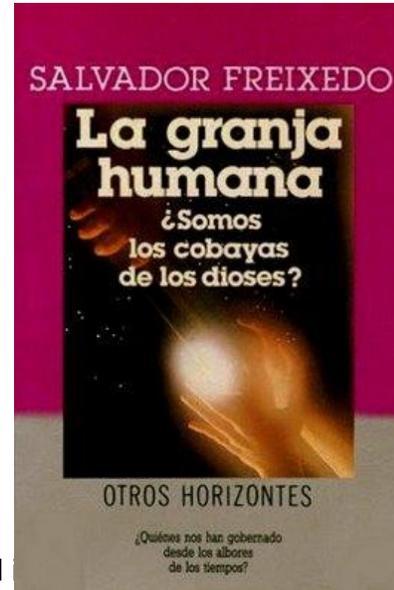

He denounces the fact that we humans are all manipulated by those who hold the reins of society, whether in the political, military, religious, legal, financial, news or labor spheres. In general, in each one of these strata -which in a tacit or manifest way understand each other very well- there is an organized mafia that is responsible for human societies going straight towards this lamentable state of affairs.

Freixedo tells us that what he intends to do is to warn those who, without having sought it, begin to hear voices or to be in some way the plaything of some entity, terrestrial or extraterrestrial. Throughout his work he assures that this happens, even though psychiatrists have no idea about it and even though fanatics believe that it is the work of Satan. Indeed, he is a Satan without horns and without ecclesiastical or theological fires, extra-Christian and extrareligious, with which unfortunately some humans have to deal with in certain strange circumstances of life. And nowadays, due to the increased activity of these little alien and big-headed satanases, we all need to know a little more about the subject so that, in case we have to face it, we are not caught unawares, as it has happened to so many. In this sense, his book "Israel, People of Contact" is very enlightening for open minds, free from the religious prejudice that makes sense a priori of goodness to a cruel, genocidal and bloodthirsty tribal deity on whose head has been forged the intolerant tyrannical monotheism that has been imposed on the world.

In his book "The Human Farm", he deepened the basic ideas of "Defend ourselves from the gods". He abounds in new cases, not precisely to prove that the phenomenon exists, but to have elements to reflect on the illogical and erratic nature of the phenomenon and to try to approach the real intentions of the UFO-nauts or aliens. He described, perhaps for the first time in ufology, more than thirty characteristics of these beings, some of which are accompanied by documentary evidence emanating from various official reports, albeit secret, that have been coming to light throughout the 80s.

Some of these characteristics have already been intuited

The main reason for this is the great appreciation of blood and certain animal and human viscera and tissues, which the "Rigelians" and "Reticulians" now confess to; The "vicarious feelings" they experience for the excited human psyche; the intervention they have had over the millennia in the formation of races and religions; their liking for human wars, and something that is still not admitted by almost anyone because it is actually difficult to believe: their relationship, more or less direct, in the great forest fires. The great intuition possessed by this researcher, who, without having come into contact with the exoplanetary wisdom of Felipe Moyano, hits with remarkable precision on the weakness that aliens feel for distilling human pain, will be obvious.

His work, full of very interesting data, also reaffirms the interest of extraterrestrials in sexual and, ultimately, genetic matters; his support for the

The "enlightened" or secret societies, to manipulate humans; in their ability to make themselves invisible, or in their own nature of being ordinarily invisible, something that so scandalizes "serious people" and narrow-minded scientists.

In "The Extraterrestrial Menace" he touches the delicate subject of "Nazism" and its extraterrestrial contact with great caution, and although with many mistakes, it is still meritorious. In "The Human Farm" he manages to see in Hitler a contactee, an envoy of the gods, or the extraterrestrials, and we do not understand how he does not manage to close the plot, because knowing that Yahweh is an impostor, and the Zionists are manipulators of the truth, who dominate the world today with their powerful lobbies and international banking, which he says and not without dissimulation in several of his books, it is inexplicable that he fails to weave the great conspiracy of the synarchy against a humanity that had in Hitler and Nazism its staunchest defenders.

Chapter 5.

The Annunaki Conspiracy.

The Atlantean Rebellion.

The pertinent question at this point in the report is: Why does the culture of the system hide everything about the existence of Atlantis from us? Until recently it was thought that the mythical Troy was just that, a myth. But, Troy was tiny next to an entire civilization, and if there are remnants of Troy, literally the Earth must be infested with remnants of Atlantis... and guess what, it is. So, we repeat, why does the official historiography deny it? Why does it insist on hiding its history, which also, like the megalithic remains, abounds?

Answer: Because in the time of Atlantis something happened that is faintly reflected in the sacred books of several cultures and peoples of the world, for example the biblical Genesis, which we have already said is an Atlantean record distorted by the golen or priests of the "chosen people".

Well, the virtue of the hyperborean wisdom of exoplanetary nature translated by Felipe Moyano, is that it allows us to know, perhaps for the first time, this fascinating veiled history of one of the most spectacular and advanced civilizations that this universe has ever known. It is so important that the present humanity enters in cars of it, that it is necessary that we dedicate this section to narrate it with good words and clear language, since it encloses the true and transcendent meaning of a very dear symbol for all of us: The Kristo.

What happened in the time of that remote civilization? First, we are not going to dwell on exposing evidence and data of the abundant paleoarchaeological remains of Atlantis, instead, we will refer the searcher to study specific books on the subject like

Paul H. Koch's "The Hidden History of the World", Graham Hancock's "The Footprints of the Gods", or Robert Scruton's excellent work "Secrets of Lost Atlantis"; we will try to describe the Atlantean context that the synarchy has viciously concealed, and that is: that in Atlantis, whose history can be traced back to 250,000 years ago, there coexisted, in addition to a primitive humanity, an alien-human hybrid humankind. That Atlantean race, gifted by a hybridization that took place in an Origin, as the fall of an alien race in the matter mixing its blood with the humanoid matrices available on Earth, produced a MAP or passive alien memory, which in the times of Atlantis, closer to that Origin, enhanced in the hybridization the alien inheritance. Something important, the hybridization was not consented, it occurred against the will of the fallen extraterrestrial race, by deception, or if you will, betrayal. However, the process of hybridization was managed by those who propitiated this deception or betrayal, counting on the fact that the MAP, product of the hybridization, the alien being chained to the anima of the hominid, would not be activated to the extent of remembering its original divine state. When this happened, a schism occurred, which shook the scaffolding of the kalacakra, and the MAPs, aware of the deception, AWAKENED, and rebelled.

At first glance we might think that it is the raison d'être of the myth of "Lucifer", but it is not so; it is properly the myth of the "Atlantean Christ", which represents a "son" of the "Atlantean Race of the Origin" in search of the lost divinity, of the liberation of matter, of the cycles of pain and death.

Now let us contextualize, we already said that the "MAPs" are passive alien memories, that is, latent, or in other words, DORMANT, these "MAPs" in the Atlantean origin were much purer as semenic content in the psyche of the Atlanteans, therefore with greater mnuminous power, susceptible to reactivate and generate a powerful egoic center superior to the telluric psychological personality of the soul. And that is exactly what happened. Now, at present, although we are not as pure as the Atlanteans, we have latent alien memories in our psyche, susceptible to be AWAKENED, and that is why the great concealment that the synarchy makes of the alien issue, weaving a cloak of confusion to prevent the MAPs from reacting to the stimulus of the symbols that match the Extraterrestrial Symbol of the origin in whose periphery the passive alien memory is anchored. So who is Lucifer if the symbol does not refer to the Atlantean rebels?

Who is Lucifer?

Beyond giving an etymological meaning: "He who carries the Light"; Lucifer is a true alien completely foreign to this universe. Understand this well, he is much more than an extraterrestrial, he is an extrauniverse, an absolute outsider in this universe. That is why he is not a simple "rebel", much less a "fallen one". That is why it is not a "MAP", but it can be a MAA or "active alien memory", operating from outside the material universe, as a "Black Sun" behind Venus. That is why the archons or regents

UFO Project 4

Lucifer has the capacity to interfere directly with humanity when his strategy requires it, as in the times of Atlantis.

Understand this then, the event that the synarchy wants to hide is the DESCENT OF LUCIFER with a powerful army of liberating gods to Earth in the time of Atlantis, precisely to support the Atlantean rebels who were fighting to free themselves from the Tyranny of Orichalcum, an event that produced the total destruction of Atlantis when the archons and Jehovah Satan saw the battle lost.

Thanks to the exoplanetary wisdom channeled by the contact Felipe Moyano, we now know that Lucifer is directly linked to the descent of an EXTRATERRESTRIAL GEM, a precious stone from his crown seated on a RUNA. This crystal would be a kind of "flash memory" of supermassive storage that contains the chrono-cultural records of all the transit, present, past and future, of the extraterrestrial race fallen in the universe of matter and energy, a kind of extra-universal matrix that has the capacity to alter the ontic designs of matter. Something extraordinary indeed, unimaginable, but susceptible of being intuited as a more than feasible possibility. In this sense, we refer the seeker to "The Mystery of Belicena Villca", the only source that translates such a cosmic event. We, based on this inspired story, built a quite interesting translation in "Belicena Villca, the last Inca Princess", which we embellish with the nuance of the sound production in order to spread and socialize it.

Lucifer inspired the rebellion against the priestly castes that sought and still seek the perfection of the anima or telluric soul at the expense of the spiritual enchainment of an extraterrestrial race whose powerful mnuminous energy drives it evolutionarily. Several races with strong hybridization participated at different times in these rebellions in what is known as "THE SCENCIAL WAR" for the liberation of the "spirit", it is understood, the divine alien trait, from matter. These races became mythically symbolized as deities: Zeus, Apollo, Prometheus, Atlas, Poseidon, Hades, Kus, Shiva, Krishna, krom, Osiris, Horus, Mares, Mars, Nimrod, Kukulkan, Vultan, Wotan, Odin, as well as their female consorts, Inanna, Venus, Isis, Ishtar, Astarte, Xochiquetzal, Pachamama, Tchulcha, Supay, Friga, Freya, Belicena, Ama, Pyrena, Anhata, etc.

The theme of a type of "crystals" and their use by the rebellious Atlanteans is very significant. Our interpretation in this regard is based on the tremendous distortion that the Golen culture has made of the "Graal" the luciferic gem, hypostatized in a cup. It is like pulling out Hitler's mustache and presenting him as an agent of Freemasonry, or some such nonsense. Let us explain: the "Luciferic" deities that burst in during the times of Atlantis to support the rebels could be framed in the "Lux" type of Malanga; as we have already seen, they are entities that more than being refulgent, manifest their essence as a plasmatory will, in symbolic theological language, VERB. This essence manifests as spark, ray, light, is the Vril, of which we will speak later. These crystals would have been, and here we enter into speculation, a kind of conductor, amplifier, or transducer of the divine spark inherent in the plasmatic faculty of the volitional agent of these deities. The Atlanteans, very pure hybrids, would have been able to activate these extraterrestrial crystals, which became a very desirable spoil of war for the Golen, that is, for the priestly castes. This culture has remained intact, today the gems and crystals with their extraordinary properties depending on the degree of purity they possess, are highly prized as well as scarce and their use has always been associated with witches and necromancers. To close this section we will say that the word "Christ" comes from "Crystal", precisely because of the purity of the light that shines, reflects and plasma. Then, the Atlantean crystals were records shaped by the powerful extraterrestrial will.

The Mystery of "Jesus".

From now on we will say that the symbol of "Jesus" is quite complex, and it is necessary to get rid of all dogma to be able to unravel it and understand the truth. As "Jesus", stripped of the Atlantean symbol of "Christ", we have three different entities or subjects that became a syncretism to which the Christic symbol was later added. Let's see, we have two historical characters, a zealot called Judas of Gamala and a slave raised in arms, very possibly the famous "Spartacus".

Again, we will refer the searcher to specialized books on the subject of the mythical "Jesus", since for reasons of time and space, we will not be able to delve into it, however, we will provide the essential guidelines.

EL MANUSCRITO DEL EVANGELIO DE JUDAS

- Manuscrito del Evangelio de Judas (peuaggelion nioudas)

- Escritos en sahídico, dialecto copto del sur egipcio to unravel the myth given its importance in the allinological, and therefore ufological, subject.⁵

Well, monotheism as a synarchic conspiracy to destabilize and overtake the mighty Roman Empire, required that the Jewish independence zealot Judas of Gamala amalgamate with the hero of the great slave rebellion that devastated Rome leaving a collective trauma of fear and admiration for that gladiator out of nowhere who devastated Rome with his famous rebellion. But for the myth to be driven by the persistent memory of the Atlantean hero who defied the infernal powers of the demiurge, the Atlantean Christ, as already seen, the new religion attached this pagan deity to the attributes of the new "Jewish messiah", and syncretism did the rest, with the intolerance and fanaticism of the priests involved in the propagation of the new monotheistic religion, which cost the lives of millions of people in two thousand years of secant dogmatism.

Messiah, Metatron, is not Christic. And precisely this is the bipolar duality that is evident in the synoptic gospels, and stands out more than notoriously in some apocryphal gospels such as the Gospel of St. Thomas, the Gospel of Judas and the Cathar Gospel of John. Beyond the fact that the "new ege" and the mass religions adopt "Jesus" as the prototype of the good and abhorred, we can notice in him the powerful mnuminoso myth of the "Atlantean Christ", let's analyze.

The "Urantia" book, which was actually produced by the CIA with the assistance of paid esoteric scholars, and circulated with the fabricated story that it was conceived by the hand of a brain-dead man, makes "Michael", the cosmic name of "Jesus of Nazareth", a cosmic alien power with the highest degree after the "first cause", i.e. god.

...in this conception overlaid with pseudo-alien paraphernalia, the lieutenant of "Michael" a certain "Ashtar Sheran" supervigilates a quarantine that the galactic confederation has imposed on the planet because of Lucifer's rebellion... you will notice the tremendous confusion that this fallacy implies.

Once again, and thanks to the exoplanetary wisdom translated by Felipe Moyano, we know that "Jesus" is a psychoid archetype that fulfills the function of pushing the gentile humanity towards the Hebrew entelechial Manu, in the face of the new World Order in the agenda of the synarchy. Regardless of whether he has an alien face, an extraterrestrial redeemer Messiah, who tells half-truths about the enchainment of a race.

⁵ In this regard we recommend studying Robert Ambelain's books "Jesus, the Deadly Secret of the Templars" and "Saul, the Man Who Created Jesus Christ".

extraterrestrial to matter, the famous "thought adjusters" of the Urantia Book, alien memories that "help" against their will, to evolve the human monads, or, in their face of shepherd, of sacrificial lamb whose shed blood also redeems the Hebrew humanity, the truth is that we must assume that as syncretism it leads to confusion as we have been denouncing throughout this section, predisposing us to be tolerant with the nameless baseness committed by the "chosen people" to whose race it belongs, a total contradiction if we take into account that Christianity founded on that syncretism has always been hostile to supremacist, misogynist and intolerant Judaism.

The Gnostic Jesus Christ repeatedly emphasizes that "Jehovah" is not his Father; that he belongs to a pure and perfect extrauniverse, an infinite kingdom of self-generated, that is, of gods, which has nothing to do with this imperfect material world, shattering with this statement that Jewish racial supremacism of totemic and theological nature, which seeks to impose as the only god his sick tribal deity, retrograde and sadistic to the max. Let us read Salvador Freixedo, and let us inform ourselves, since this is exactly what someone who was a Jesuit priest ratifies in his extensive work.

Manifestations of the Virgin.

This is the key to the Anunnaki conspiracy. Thanks to Zecharia Sitchin and his extensive work on the "anunnaki", mainly "The 12th Planet" and "The Lost Book of Enki", we can imagine this Atlantean context of extraterrestrial creator gods, fascinated with a rich animal world. Planet" and "The Lost Book of Enki", we can imagine this Atlantean context of extraterrestrial creator gods, fascinated with an animal world rich in strategic minerals, adapted to their needs through a colossal work of re-engineering that would include the reconditioning of a native creature, through hybridization, that would give way to our monosapien origin. In the light of the exoplanetary or hyperborean Wisdom, we can reinterpret Sitchin's study, finding valuable coincidences with what we have been affirming throughout this report. Let us clarify: the "anunnaki" are the "Lux" of Corrado Malanga; we already said that the "lux" are MAA (Active Alien Memories) of reptiloid matrix, not chained to the mnemonic cycles of a humanoid, these are the passive alien memories, also reptiloid.

Hybridization, the mixing of alien and humanoid life matrices, was only possible, according to Sitchin, with the genetic participation of an extraterrestrial anunnaki female. This mother of monosapien hybrid humanity became a key archetypal referent, a deity too influential for the jealous creator of the native hominid creature. Since then, this female deity, this extraterrestrial alien became a source of conflicts and problems in the world of the demiurge. Marcelino Requejo, a renowned scholar who wrote several books on the UFO theme, delves into the subject in an extraordinary work: "Marian Apparitions, the Definitive Answer", since with solid arguments amply corroborated by a cultural revisionism based on the surprising apparition of the "Virgin" in Friol, Spain, he notes a series of anomalies characteristic of many other apparitions throughout history, reaching the unconventional conclusion that this entity is actually the Sumerian Inanna, the Anunnaki "problem goddess". Truly amazing. Let's see.

Jehovah Satan is jealous of the monosapien hybrids because of their divine potential, their vital support, the alien memory attached to the soul soul, which makes it divine, because it is capable of reaching that state of deity. History is full of men who managed to actualize that alien inheritance despite the predetermination of the soul to different degrees of submission to the demiurge; the soul, even if it reaches a devic state of great hierarchy, will always be condemned to exist in a lower rank in this universe, but if the Passive Alien Memory awakens, and imposes itself upon the soul, it can be unchained from it and attain the Divine Original State, which will equate it if it does not completely overcome the creator of the soul and body that was to evolve, this is the reason for spiritual enchainment, and the intolerance of monotheism.

The conspiracy of the Anunnaki archons contemplated the substantial decrease of the vital chronology of the hybridization to prevent the MAPs from awakening, reincarnating successively after very short vital cycles in order to prevent the CONSCIOUSNESS FROM BECOMING AWARE OF IT, ACTIVATING IT. Already in the field of speculation, we think that this is exactly what happened with the "Sumerian" princess "Isa"; in some crucial moment of her earthly life, with a very marked hybridization in the potency of her alien legacy, this woman woke up, managed to deify herself, and started the Atlantean rebellion. Her son VIRGINAL, now we know why, neither coitus nor the exaltation of any carnal appetite is needed to achieve MAP consciousness, and activate it; It is simply a memory, which we assume is activated by the ideational presence of the protagonist of that deed, THE VIRGIN AND HER LIBERATOR CHILD, that is, the Atlantean race that managed to update its alien matrix (the Virgin), and the active alien memory, relocated by that awakening in its true multidimensional context, infinite, eternal, without chronos, or whatever you want to call that divine state (the Christ).

Chapter 6.

The UFO Culture Scam.

Worlds of illusion.

At the time, in previous UFO Project series, we touched on the subject of the 600,000 illusion worlds of the demiurge. We said that a context world is just a matrix updated by the meaning postors, the biological entities that existentially sustain it. In other words, a biological entity can have multiple parallel existences although each of these series is conscious of only its context world. In Gabriel Michel's "La Lengua del Pasú", the thematic of recurrent and parallel lives is deepened as a kind of transit from one world to another, from a timeline in one contextual dimension to another, through metempsychosis or cycles of life and death.

As can be seen, this vision leaves behind the stereotyped "matrix", which is only circumscribed to the possibility of an illusory virtual world where an apparent life would take place; but the simultaneous existence of thousands of matrix, with "n" possible variables of parallel existences for a biological entity replicated in "n" possible worlds in "n" also possible ways, seems to us, besides hallucinating, more than feasible. Thus, the transit of the conscious subject of a biological entity through the worlds or oneiric contexts, could well be a tangible proof of the existence of parallel lives in other dimensions. In the case of a human hybrid, that is, most of us, having an alien memory grafted in its psyche, without evident implant in any part of the physical body, suggests that it is inserted in another dimensional sphere, namely a subtle body of energetic nature, still unverifiable for rationalist empirical science.

UFOs could transit in the intermediate spaces between parallel worlds, therefore UFOonauts and UFOs are invisible to those who are anchored in a given world context or timeline. But, let's go one step further in order to understand these possibilities that open up to us. The timeline is an integral dimension, that is, it is not limited to a sort of past, a present, and a sort of future; these are just other dimensions that compose it, therefore other context worlds, which could be actualized by determining an evolutionary point of kalachakra, alien interference, or through the will of an initiated operator, or failing that, who has the knowledge and technology necessary to jump from one dimension of the contextual timeline of a macrocosm and even a microcosm to another. Although glimpsing these truly mind-boggling possibilities is disturbing to reason, the exoplanetary wisdom translated by Felipe Moyano demonstrates them factually in an extraordinary way. Again, we will refer the seeker to the source of all this vast knowledge by inviting him to study the Fundamentals of Hyperborean Wisdom,

The previous reduction of the foundation of these, "The Mystery of Belicena Villca", however, we will provide in this report some guidelines that will help us to explain what follows.

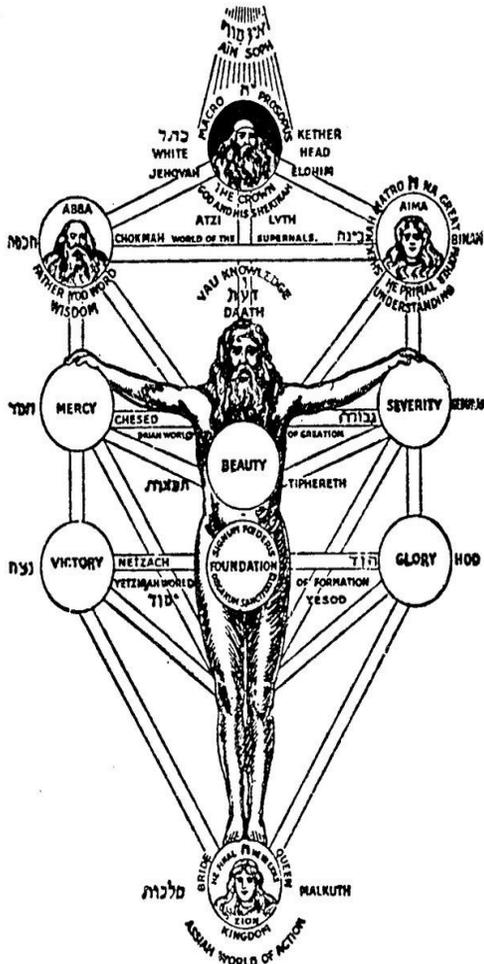

To give a very succinct and concrete overview, which is not flawed by the limitations of human reason, is already a challenge, but let's try. Just as the microcosm has a psyche that models its energy into forms that emulate what is experienced or registering what is felt, so the surrounding world or macrocosm contains a psychosphere, or if you prefer, is contained in it. This psychosphere emulates or registers, it is the same thing, and this was known to magicians, necromancers, esotericists and sorcerers who called these patterns of the planetary psyche, akasha. Philip's exoplanetary Wisdom rightly calls the akashic records as cultural records. Well, in the realm of the psychosphere, the microcosm is a record contained in a whole, therefore, such a record is susceptible to being traversed. That is exactly what a UFO does, and that is exactly what esoteric Nazism called the VRIL. Although we will talk about the VRIL later on, as the culminating part of this essay, it is pertinent to make an important clarification: the transit of these records can only be done with the knowledge of initiatic techniques or counting on a non-conventional technology that implies the use of a geometry and a multidimensional physics that science is just beginning to glimpse. However, although in this sense we are extremely limited in terms of the physical transit of these registers, by traveling in time, we could experience them, which would imply, if we look at it carefully, a factual transit, therein lies the paradox.

Other Universes.

Many people who come into contact with the Hyperborean Wisdom for the first time, ask what is Hyperborea?

So, apart from the etymological meanings, "beyond the boreas", North wind, or semantic, hyperborea is the country of the hyperboreans, the need arises to clarify that besides the known universe, with its thousands of worlds of illusion, there are other universes, where other constants higher than matter and energy would govern, concretely speaking, worlds of infinity, absolutely spiritual, with free and perfect creatures. That is Hyperborea.

Let us take an interesting reference in this respect of "Hyperborea", the recently recovered "Gospel of Judas", with a Gnostic "Christ" who reveals the existence of a world never seen by any angel, UNCREATED, overflowing with self-generated deities, that is to say, not created, without mother or father; a gospel where "Jesus Christ" reproaches Jehovah, calling him "Imposter", true meaning of the word "Satan", and his acolytes "the apostles of error", who will lead mankind to the worship of the creator of this imperfect world and to accept his own sacrifice to elevate it.

In "Project UFOs the Other Face of the Aliens", we explained based on the Kabbalistic "Rimon" tree, that in addition to the 10 "sephiroth" or sephiroth of Jehovah Satan, there is one above all that is not a sephira, but the symbol of emanation, from where the demiurge himself comes, remember that before the light was darkness, or "Ein Sof", the uncreated world, that is to say, another universe. In the Hindu cosmogony, with abundant Atlantean effluvia, the incarnation of Shiva, Sri Krishna affirms that besides this world of illusion there are many "lokas", which surpass in beauty and perfection this universe of pain. In Sumerian mythology, the "anunnaki" are deities coming from a superior sphere called "Niburu" or "Nibiru"; in Greek mythology, the world generator of "gods", the father of all deities, is Uranus, whose sons Cronus, Hades and Jupiter fight for the primogeniture, just as Anu, Enki and Enlil fight for it in Sumerian mythology.

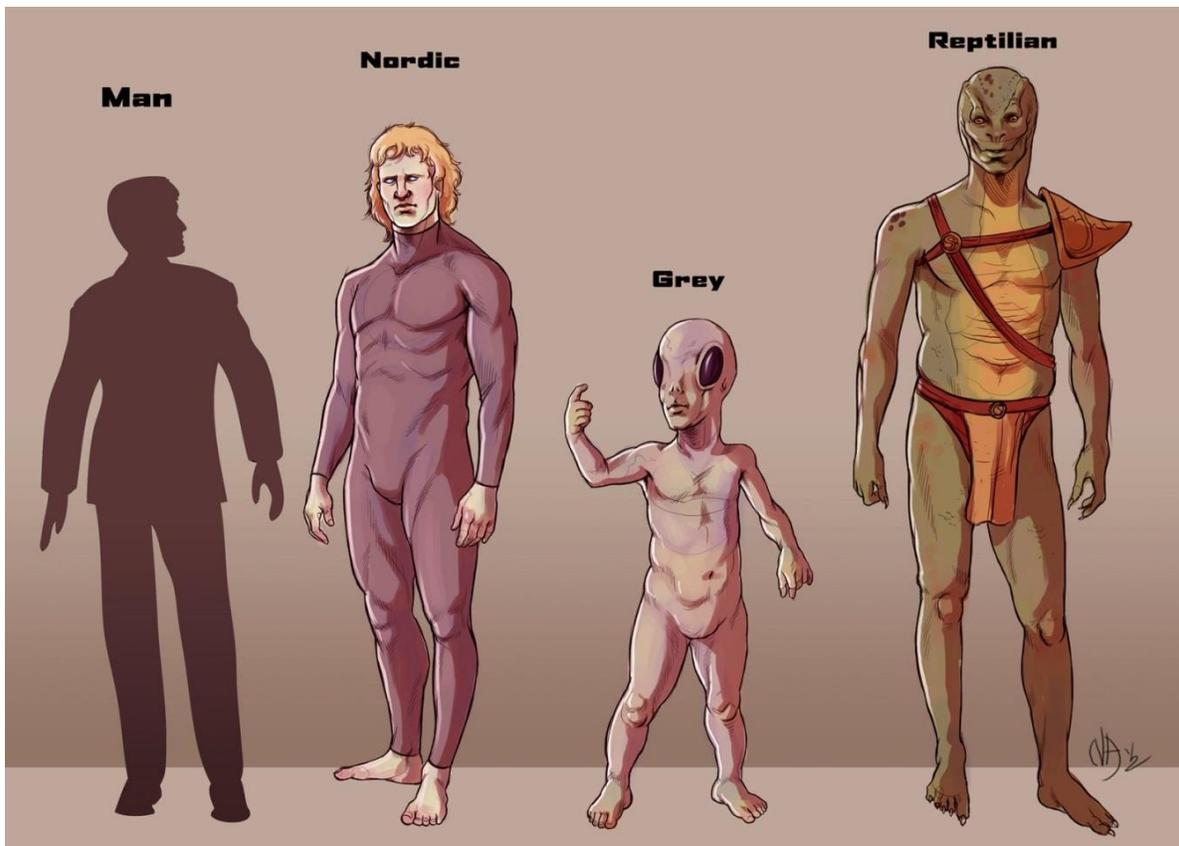

But leaving aside the myths, and drawing on rationalistic science and mechanistic of our days, mathematicians and astronomers have begun to glimpse that this theoretically "vast" universe of matter and energy is a gigantic hologram inserted in an immense empty space. The so-called physical laws that govern it are only phenomena of the first degree of determination, which can be broken, giving a glimpse of why the Atlanteans, for example, with the help of this knowledge of the illusory quality of matter, possessed a technology unimaginable to us, who still believe, mind you, we do not know, but, I repeat, we believe, that the universe is governed by immovable laws that give it an "existence" that in reality is completely illusory. Let us exemplify: ufologists and acolytes of science fiction, swear and perjure that the so-called "extraterrestrials" come from planets located at such colossal distances that we could never verify their existence a posteriori; we already said it, we are a priori believers, and in this universe of illusion, we will never stop being so, because to know its nature we must remember the laws that govern its illusory processual change; let us continue, gravity is not a universal constant, as it was thought, or as science affirmed, NOT. Gravity is only an archetypal inertia, if the inertia is broken, levitation is possible.

In this context, it is quite correct to affirm, like Freixedo, that "extraterrestrials" are, not because they come from Alpha Centurus, or Reticulis in the Pleiades, but because they are interdimensional entities, coming from higher spheres of this material universe, or extrauniverses. Let's go.

Who are the aliens?

We already said it, in reality, entities that come from other dimensions superior to our dimensional contexts, extrauniverses, more than extraterrestrials. Let's make it clear, although it is possible that in Orion mind-blowing context worlds develop, both for their dimensional level, as for their peculiar entelechial evolutionary development, very different from ours, they are illusory worlds, contained in this material universe, properly, simple superior dwellings, not other worlds, as we understand it, a place that "exists" where life forms develop, that "exist", in a universe that also "exists" and is overflowing with extraterrestrial life. NO. If the universe is holographic, virtual, rather than concrete, governed by archetypal inertias not by universal constants, etc.; then this view of a real world, is erroneous.

Felipe Botaya makes it clear that the "Majestic 12" censorship protocol established, among its aims and objectives, to make the specialized or amateur public think that the remnants of Nazi Germany, relocated in the United States, had been the target of the "Majestic 12" ensorship protocol, which was designed to make the public think that the remnants of Nazi Germany, relocated in the United States, had been the target of the "Majestic 12" censorship protocol.

UFO Project 4

Antarctica with its "flying saucer" technology were "extraterrestrials" coming from other planets, and that a wave of alien visits to the planet had begun from all the ends of the galaxy. Although we explained it in the previous series of UFO Project, the famous "grays", either "Reticulians" or "Regileans", ARE NOT EXTRATERRESTRIALS. Majestic 12" used these "EBEs", "Extraterrestrial Biological Entities" to carry out the assembly. But, there are records of these supposed "aliens", including lifeless bodies found and filmed by private individuals. One can fall into the error of "believing" that they are real, and yes, they do exist, but they are not extraterrestrials. Likewise, "Ummites", "Pleiadians", "Venusians", apparent humanoids, can go unnoticed among humans, so, are they human?

Answer: YES. They are human, and like any dissident of the system, special brigades of agents have been created to distinguish, identify and capture them. Why if they are nothing more than "good" big brothers of a super-democratic and colossal galactic confederation?

Response: Why the paraphernal epitome of "extraterrestrials" has been attached to them to deceive both the agents who capture them, at least first hand, and then deliver them to the MIB, and above all, to disguise and thus hide, conceal from the world, the existence of "NAZIS" who operate by making contact with men and women chosen by them to begin to divulge that they still exist and are preparing to reappear from one moment to another in an end of time, we will say, of the time left to this prevailing system in the world, with its decadent and hypocritical democracy, its all-powerful and usurious international banking, which steals the little wealth left to the nations, and its planetary henchmen, armies of gorillas that handle a powerful arsenal of weapons of mass destruction, to subdue those who dare to question Zionism with honest and original policies that nullify the social engineering that this synarchy operates at planetary level.

We have already said it and we repeat it, the "grays" that have been operating for thousands of years, are in reality biorobots, biological entities, yes, but not extraterrestrials; they are native to the planet, and although they live or coexist in a superior sphere of regency called Chang Shamballa, an extraterrestrial base, they are very mundane and local humanoid hybrids.

In the "Malanga" typology, this would be the origin: "Lux" or Active Alien Memory, extrauniverse or einsophite⁶. Lagartians or sauroids, passive alien memories, extrauniverses, einsophites; "Orange", humanoids, ummites, Nordics, Pleiadians, Venusians, extrauniverses, also einsophites.

As for the hybrids, we have already said it and we also emphasize it again, almost the totality of humanity is divided between Sethites and Cainites. Of the Sethites, children or descendants of "Seth", we have the "white fraternity", potential mutants who eliminated or drained the passive alien memory chained to their anima ⁶ Einsophites, from "Ein Sof", Kingdom beyond the highest Sephira of the Rimon tree of Jehovah Satan.

They are not to be confused with aliens, they are telluric; they are the immediate heads of the "sheidim" or "gray" hybrids; the counterpart, let us call it "the Black Order", formed by mutants who fully identified themselves with the passive alien memory chained to their telluric anima, making the mutation effective, ceasing to be telluric; that is to say, turning to their alien einsophite nature; they await in an intraterrestrial abode, therefore they are intraterrestrial, the whole "UFO" culture has been invented to hide their existence from humanity, as we have already pointed out in other chapters.

Exoplanetary Wisdom, Awakening from a Dream.

Until recently, those of us who wondered why the world is so illusory, why it is full of contradictions, why it lies to us, and worse still, why we had to tolerate such deception impotently, because the just never win, the tyrant, the crook, the usurper are always exalted, the good, justice never triumphs. Let us just take a look at the religions, all of them admit without disgust, that very few will be "saved", all men will be condemned and all of them try to gild the pill by selling indulgences, hopes, to which millions cling, when they know that there is only room for 144,000.

It was then that the tyrant, adept at baulling, exaggerated to the maximum degree the abusive use of his power based on fear, intimidation, is the gulag, the gun to the back of the head, the anarchist filled with satanic pride who launches himself without contemplation of any kind to abuse, lowering to his baseness the most precious legacy that we men have, our lineage, our blood, our yearnings for divinity.

the sinarchic monster in the form of communism, liberalism, hippism, Judaism, Hebraizing and Zionist Freemasonry, Castroism or Sephardic Cheguevarism, disgusting, vice, degeneration, in short, tyrannical baseness that if it does not impose corruption, it twists you with the force of the brutalized and alcoholized mass, we began to desperately look for a way out of this state of things, a door to freedom from this shitty world, Zionist to the max, Judaic, materialistic, castrated of spirituality, and in a Dantesque battle against ourselves, against the poison of fear that the system had sown inside us, we managed to pull our heads out of the muck with the courage that the great Hitlerian deed inspired in us in spite of everything. Yes, it was our fidelity to the fact that we were not wrong, even though the whole world came down on us as anti-Semites, even though we always liked the Arabs very much, or as instigators of hatred, when we never hated anyone as the Jews hate the human race.

UFO Project 4

WE ARE NOT ANIMALS MEN, NO, WE ARE GODS, WE ARE THE CHILDREN OF MILLENNIAL ATLANTES, it is a duty to remember it, that is, TO BE BRAVE, HONEST, NOBLE, WARRIOR.

That is the protocol of contact with THEM, who are WE OURSELVES, those of whom the Hebrew god is jealous, because we are more beautiful, more human and divine, more honorable and strong.

We must awaken, and once awakened discover fullness, true fullness and individual and collective joy, that is the requirement to enter into CONTACT, to assume the most relevant of this Exoplanetary Wisdom and project it in our environment, both individually and collectively, we emphasize.

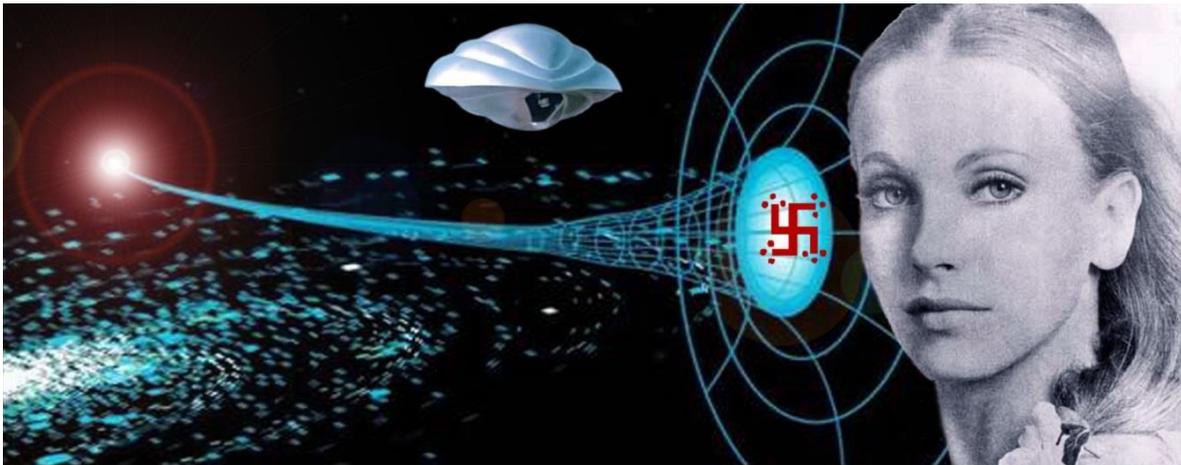

Chapter 7.

UFO Technology

Alternative forms of propulsion.

Here we will touch on one of the most fascinating topics of ufology, but also one of the most complex, UFO technology. In general terms, the problem lies in the generation of "healthy" energies, although now the subject of clean synthetic fuels, hydrogen, water, salt, in short, will NEVER BE VIABLE for the simple reason of transnational oil interests; and beware, as long as such corporations exist, any form of alternative energy generation to fossil fuels is a utopia. Yes, as long as the banking magnates and the Federal Reserve exist, nations will never be able to trade with anything but dollars.

And look, how one thing leads to another. Everyone believes that World War II was a crusade for the freedom of the countries oppressed by German imperialism with a devil at its head; Zionist propaganda imposed on the world by the greatest achievement of the sons of Zion, dominating 99% of the mass media. However, the truth is very different. Hitler's Germany blocked the traditional usurious banks by developing a new self-sustainable economy, which did not need loans and capital. We talked extensively about it in the first series of UFO Project, refer the search engine to this material or to specialized books such as "World Defeat" by Salvador Borrego Escalante. We will focus on ratifying that the ORIGIN OF THE UFO PHENOMENON, as we know it today, lies precisely in the Second World War.

In short, Freemasonry, a formidable tool of international Zionist power, with millions of affiliates on the planet, mostly bourgeois lobbies, Zionist networks, with enormous economic power, managed to raise 134 nations against Germany, the blockade was so suffocating, that the Germans began to develop new technologies to balance its enormous deficit of raw materials to produce conventional fuels. Among those great advances of Nazi Germany, in addition to synthetic fuels and materials, there were alternative propulsion technologies, the most innovative ones in charge of Special Departments of the SS, linked to esoteric secret societies and greatly influenced by those trends. It is very curious that the Society "Vril" at whose head was an extraordinary medium, runic shaman, necromancer, that the speculative ufological culture has planted suspicious rumors, rigged, that she would have been a telepathic receiver of the Aldebarians pointing out to her significant keys to decipher the Sumerian writing contained in archaeological relics in the possession of the "Vril" society that would have made possible the realization of a project of antigravitational propulsion in a model of "flying saucer" called, precisely, "Vril model".

Faced with the enormous pressure to which Germany was subjected, and being that the Nazis had managed to build a civilization, a model of society, so extraordinary for its advances in all fields, they did not have to resign themselves to losing everything with a material defeat in the war that could be seen coming, given the enormous numerical superiority of the Allied coalition. For that reason, the priority of the Germans was to obtain new settlements out of the material reach of the Allies, lunar, even Martian bases, in addition to the Antarctic oasis and other intraterrestrial underworlds in the Andes, in the Himalayas, in the Amazon, and in Europe itself. This added to the enormous advances in anti-gravity propulsion and electromagnetism to generate energy, opened up unthinkable possibilities, because it was not "Aldebarians" who came into contact with Maria Orshric and Adolf Hitler himself, but "Einsophians" loyal to the alien memories chained to hybrid humanity.

Dimensional Gates and Parallel Worlds.

Dealing with these issues, with the cultural distortion inoculated by the synarchy, is difficult, but not impossible. Thanks to Felipe Moyano's Exoplanetary Wisdom, we are able to take on this challenge. The synarchy operates culture to invisibilize cultural objects and pretend others. For example, in the subject of the famous "Semitic holocaust" supposedly perpetrated by the Nazis, what they have done is very simple, to cover up the cultural objects with the meaning of their propaganda, people SEE Auschwitz, huge dormitories and workshops, but their meaning has been directed to see "gas chambers"; The same in the ufological theme, some contacts, Billy Meir, George Adamsky, Linda Appleton, Monica Perez, etc, saw Nazis, Germans, but the cultural filter of the synarchy interpolates "Venusians", "Aldebarians", "Nordics", "Ummites" and before the uncertainty of some unconscious contacts, "orange" by the color of the aliens' hair or the color of their clothes. As you can appreciate, people travel through fictitious realities at the whim of the synarchy, and get lost in dimensions altered by their own induced confusion. Dimensional "travel", properly speaking, dimensional transit is therefore possible, for better or for worse, that is, to affirm a lie or a truth. Now think of an oriented person, who has verified the synarchic lie, to travel through the real dimension.

of the historical event, it is very possible that it finds the doors to the intraterrestrial worlds, by his predisposition, thus overcoming the illusion of synarchic virtual dimensions.

Now, for that very simple reason, UFOs are invisible in transit. They are there, but we do not see them, and if by chance they manage to become visible to us, it is because of the inevitable dimensional crossing between the real world through which they transit, and the virtual worlds in which we transit. With this argumentative preamble,

We can speculate a little about UFO technology, since in order to actually transit the virtual or real dimensions, it is necessary to possess a physical technology that injects or dominates the temporal dimension, that is, time.

Time travel.

Although the great anomalies that, like a stone in the shoe, science has been unable to solve; footprints of fossilized human footprints, millions of years old, together with those of dinosaurs, gears, screws, tools, embedded in rocks of colossal antiquity, including mummies of thousands of years old with clothes that do not correspond to that chronology, are evidence of the possibility of these dimensional jumps in the transcendent time line. Felipe Botaya shows us in his work "Cronos", beyond the novel discourse, the evidence of the temporal bilocation that "Die Glocke", "the Bell", could perform; the lintels and megastructures where this hallucinating ingenuity of the Nazis operated in Poland and Czechoslovakia have been found, logically duly dismantled.

Botaya goes further by affirming that the Nazis even carried out scientific and military missions using the bell in temporal travels; this would explain the mysterious signals that they left in these voyages, cultural objects out of chronological context. Die Glocke" managed to generate its own electromagnetic field, which annulled the anchorage of the gravis archetype in the electromagnetic field of the Earth, the mass of the bell itself and any object in the surrounding radius of action of its powerful electromagnetism, levitated, because the "Die Glocke" was able to generate its own electromagnetic field.

gravis archetype, or the center of gravity was annulled, unanchored from the center of gravity of the Earth. The time consciousness of the demiurge, Chronos, is diffused pantheistically, holistically, if you will, through this indiscernible point that science has just begun to glimpse as the "Higgs boson"; then, if the functionality of the Gravis archetype is annulled, which is what Felipe's exoplanetary wisdom calls this indiscernible point or "Higgs boson", guess what... Yes!... That's right; Chronos is annulled, and the dimensional transit takes place in an immanent, proper time; it is the principle of the "Vimana", the UFO technology.

In a few words, what is UFO technology; answer: it is the mechanics of antigravitation; but as we have already seen, antigravitation is to get out of Chronos, so let's complete the answer: it is the mechanics of timeless antigravitation.

Complementing, it is necessary to make this clarification; see: by means of an initiatory knowledge, those who manage to make conscious the whole microcosm, like "Lucy" in Luc Beson's film, "taking the self-consciousness to the nucleus of the cell", actualizes an immanent time, annulling the transcendent time of the macrocosm. Bingo, it also achieves the principle of the Vimana. That is why those who achieve it have two options, to transit through the demiurgic dimension of the solar cult Shamash Ra and join the White Fraternity, draining the alien memory; or, to achieve the state of consciousness potentiating the Alien Memory, then it will be able to access through the Gate of Venus, to the Black Sun, Amon, and reach the Ein Sof, in exoplanetary wisdom, the Origin.

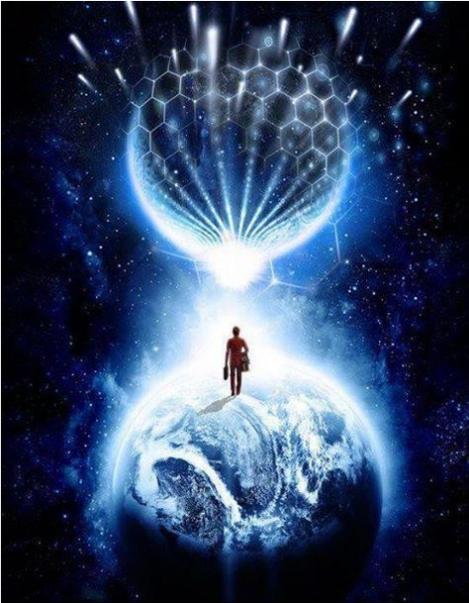

Exoplanetary Physics: The Vrill an einsophite feature.

Felipe Moyano affirms that the Vrill is pure possibility. For this reason, and to the seekers we ask you to refer to the work of Luis Felipe Moyano, since understanding the concept of pure possibility implies a deep gnostic analysis that will allow us to arrive at a knowledge that only the Passive Alien Memory possesses. Therefore it is important to awaken the Passive Alien Memory, to activate it, to access this irrational source, therefore not subject to any logic, nor limited by any universal pattern of reason, which Nimrod de Rosario calls pure possibility.

In the first series of the UFO Project we provided significant and very important guidelines to understand the Vrill from the microcosmic point of view, that is to say, initiatory, gnostic. Now we will try to complement that information and expand it. To do so, it is important to imagine the typological features of an einsophite alien. An einsophite is much more than an extraterrestrial biological entity, it is with property a POTEITY, let's see what the bible says about them: Ephesians 6:12:

"For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of this dark world, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places."

Above, an artistic allegory of the Reverted Einsophite, illuminating the consciousness of a hybrid human entity, any of us. By the spiritual enchainment, or the fall, which we already said was due to an original betrayal, these beings of fire suffered a reversion, this mystery is perfectly explained in the exoplanetary wisdom translated by Felipe Moyano, mind you, they did not suffer a perversion as the demiurge, they simply reversioned, leaving their spiritual plexus out of context, projecting their lux in the processual matter, inert, dead, lifeless. When projecting their Lux in the mutant anima by the sign of the original betrayal, they generated a MAP, passive alien memory; then, if the mutant manages to activate the MAP, it immediately identifies itself with the being of fire that projected it; being conscious of its plasmatic power, verb, it can alter the becoming of the timeline of the anima at will, opening the door to pure possibility; let's see an Alexander the Great, an Alexander the Great, a Leonidas, to a Genghis Khan, to an Adolf Hitler, and we will realize why the synarchy has done so much to prevent at all costs that some predisposed individuals achieve

First, let us note that the einsophites come from another universe, a world of darkness, for the soul, precisely, the Ein Sof, let us remember that before the light, the universe of matter and energy, was the darkness, a much more vast and original world, preceding this universe. The einsophites transcend all form, and can contract or expand at will, indeed their plexus is fully volitional, they are properly immensurable powers; their presence in a universe of matter and energy would conform to the stellar or nebular form, a gigantic star, quasars or pulsars, always clothed with a hostile back or face. It is possible, as Herrou Aragon's primordial gnosis says, that outside this universe of matter and energy the einsophites are beings of antimatter fire, a conception very difficult to envision.

Einsophite liberated, his spiritual plexus takes possession of the microcosm; the Vril has been

activate such a plasmatic power, capable of reaffirming the true history contained in the Graal.

We have finally arrived at the beginning of the VRIL. But, be careful, at the beginning, the end is the VIMANA.

Chapter 8.

The Final Battle.

Synarchic Aprestos.

In UFO Project The Other Face of the Aliens, we touched on the subject of the synarchic plans, and how they have been delayed to such a degree, that time has had to be recharged in an effort to concretize them somehow, in an increasingly convulsed and multipolar world; why, Israel has lost preponderance with the Palestinian plot, to the extreme that its relocation to more "promising" lands is being speculated, poor Argentinian Patagonians. Although it is difficult to understand, due to the bad impression that most people, including ourselves, feel for that fictitious state, it is suspicious that the synarchy, in spite of the great pressure of the Zionist "lobbies" all over the world, is, as it were, "abandoning" it, although it hurts the pan-Hebraists, and multitudes of fans that the "chosen people" have among the millions and millions of Pentecostal Evangelicals, Protestants and other philosophers, a "State" of Israel, is secondary, and we even dare to affirm, tertiary for the synarchy.

The nuclear agreement with Iran has shifted the "Synarchic opposition axis" to the Lilliputian "Syria", China is doing nothing at all, and Russia is speculating between pan-Slavic swings, very "Khazarian". It is as if they were still faking the "Cold War" to position themselves for a major conflagration, of that there is no doubt, but... Against whom, if the whole world is practically, though not formally, synarchic? In the Ukraine, Greece, Hungary, Austria and France, a neo-Nazism is beginning to nestle, unfortunately, a cultural neo-Nazism, a Sinarchism, that is to say, a third position inoperative in essence, since they are not opposed to "the Jewish", but in a glancing manner, their militants are as Sinarchic as the average American, Englishman, or Argentinean, although all of them are half "Nazis", between quotation marks.

In the face of this discouraging panorama, nothing clear, let's see what happens with the rulers of this context world, the aliens.

Recent Sightings in light of UFO Project.

We will begin this section by stating something that all followers and scholars of the UFO phenomenon have undoubtedly noticed, and that is, the considerable increase in sightings and contacts of various types in recent times. We are talking about thousands of daily sightings all over the planet, millions of direct witnesses... then, people's indifference is striking; what is the reason for this absolutely out-of-place disregard in the face of such evidence?

Answer: the constant synarchy in which the media persist; no doubt the commercial note, but, if banality sells, much more would sell to spread the truth; to spread news of deep geopolitical interest; we have several hotbeds of conflict

UFO Project 4

The UFOs are the first news of the day, but the red chronicle, the social baseness and the showbiz adorned with beauty contests and cooking recipes are the first news of the day. Anyway, the question is no longer whether UFOs exist or not, NO, you have to be too much of a cretin to deny it at this point; we have already shown you enough evidence about it in the UFO Project series, rather, the question lies in the lamentable state of laxity of humanity... Gods!.... Most worry about trifles, all the more so when they know that the future they are concerned about could be over at any moment.

The Hyperborean Pontiff, or Einsophite who brought the Exoplanetary
the sights of the "illuminati" wisdom.

UFOs engulfing entire aircraft, abducting them, making it credible that the Malasyan Airlines plane suffered the same fate, UFOs in tremendous dogfights, Israeli fighters shooting down UFOs, or UFOs monitoring coalition troops in Afghanistan with impunity, or attacking targets on battlefields, or even decimating equipment and personnel in the United States itself, are evidences that cannot be relegated to puerile speculations. Something big is brewing. For those who find it hard to believe, even if they are seeing it, the UFO sightings in Antarctica, for whose diffusion, years before, the MIB persecuted and discontinued in one way or another great ufologists such as Fabio Zerpa, show us that we must turn our eyes towards the frozen continent, the land of Queen Maud. The revelations of Rosalia Tagliavore, Monica Perez, Hector Antonio Picco, Felipe Moyano, Felipe Botaya and hundreds, if not thousands of witnesses from military and scientific bases are there to corroborate it. So, what are we waiting for to take action on the matter and found a specialized state organization to analyze the geopolitical and conjunctural connotation of all this? Let's remember that we are next to Argentina, and Argentina is just a stretch of ice water away from the white continent.

If Zionism already owns half of Patagonia, the Uyuni salt flat with its immense strategic resources must be in the hands of Zionism.

the "illuminati" magnates like Soros; some say that half of the salt flats have already been negotiated with the transnationals.

The Next World War and the Clone Armies.

Well, it is inaccurate to speculate either about a "third" world war, or more appropriately, perhaps, about a "fourth" world war. And the fact is that, the wide fronts, with

UFO Project 4

The multipolar framework, on the one hand Russia with two fronts, one in Syria and the other in Crimea, or Syria with multiple fronts in a zone of Muslim influence mired in a religious civil war that proposes unthinkable strategic alliances and secondary conflicts such as the war between Saudi Arabia and Yemen, or the Turkish onslaught and injustice in the Middle East, could suggest that the third world war is already underway, with multiple fronts in an area of Muslim influence immersed in a religious civil war that proposes unthinkable strategic alliances and secondary conflicts such as the war between Saudi Arabia and Yemen, or the Turkish onslaught and NATO interference, suggests that we are in the midst of a planetary conflagration in creccentto.

But... and the aliens, where do they fit into this. Let us remember two fundamental issues, one, the military build-up in the Malvinas, which is accompanied by the now permanent presence of the US Navy in areas surrounding Antarctica; and let us not fool ourselves, it is not just about showing muscle, but about testing someone's reaction... the question is, whose? From Argentina, we doubt it very much, with its armed forces completely disarticulated and organically weakened. Brazil, another sleeping giant, nothing is happening... there is only one answer, all this deployment is due to the alien presence in Antarctica.

But... the problem, let's call it, "NAZI", has the synarchic interests on the whole planet on edge, although the synarchy has always been more concerned about its resurgence in Europe. Suddenly, in an unprecedented psychosocial experiment, "Hitler" reappears on the scene, and oh surprise!... his reception in anti-Islamic and communitarian Germany, makes the hair stand on end of those who were so determined to demonize Hitlerism in order to eradicate it... and no matter how much they have bombarded the collective mind of Europeans and especially of Germans for 71 years... "Hitler" continues to arouse respect and admiration... believe it or not... the movie "Hitler is Back", clearly indicates that when the Nazis re-emerge from Antarctica and other bases around the world, they will have the unconditional support of the people, fed up with the tyrannical baseness of the decadent democracies.

In this context there is no longer any doubt, something will emerge from Germany itself at some point, and it will be definitive, because it is no longer about simple humans, but about the "Cresta" men, as Felipe Moyano's exoplanetary wisdom calls them, which we said is in line with the true history of the extraterrestrial lineages in their transit through matter, so that future is likely to happen. According to Rosalia Tagliavore, who in one of her abductions to the Nazis' 211 base recently, if we take into account that time is a variable out of place for those who are out of it, already in the "future" becoming, as in the case of the intraterrestrial Germans, she witnessed a colossal, enormous, work of cloning. Thousands of bodies in suspended animation, gigantic, with a large athletic build, programmed for an awakening that, according to Her, would be happening at the time of the very near Final Battle. This coincides with a very important part of the "Malanga" thesis about the extensive work of human cloning in which the alien sides in conflict are involved. Indeed, hundreds of witnesses induced by hypnotic regressions to relive the moments of their abduction agree in their accounts to have seen huge hangars with cloning machines, containers, where many saw themselves, i.e. their clones. It is possible that many of those following this report have been cloned, and that these clones are being prepared as a tactical mass in colossal battles to be fought in this essential war.

The leading role of Latin America.

The question of questions is: Why is the Exoplanetary wisdom of the Einsophites radiating to the whole world from here... from Latin America, from the Argentine pampas and the Peruvian high Andes, as Benjamín Solari Paravicini says, "the light that will illuminate the whole world"?

The Inga, the Charismatic Leader
resurfaces in Tawantinsuyo

It is important to remember two things that the synarchic system has tried to cover up by all means; first, the issue of nationalism. Second, the issue of the true value of men, without distinction of creed, race, color, culture, or whatever. Let us not forget that our nationalisms are pale reflections of portentous effluvia manifested by our ancestors, by their blood, by their brotherhood and by their soil. Our small republics may be able to manifest some tiny glimmer of that mystique, but it will never be enough to dawn in the midst of this synarchic darkness, which corrupts the peoples with its common markets, its perverted social engineering, its monetary and materialistic passion. However, not long ago, the Tawantinsuyo, our true homeland in this world, rose imposingly to demonstrate that its borders were not there was room for hunger, corruption and poverty. We are Tawantinsuyanans, children of the Ande, children of millenary Atlanteans. And in this land that some call Albi-Ayala, despite all the outrage that generated that genocidal conquest of our ancestral and millenary culture, which brought Freemasonry, lackey servant of the stateless international Jew, but yes, father of usury, corruption, the culture of degeneration, degradation and farracha, gentile lineages have converged from all the ends of the earth, who will unite to claim their legitimate right to divinity, to greatness. Here, in these lands, the final metaphysical battle is already being fought against the forces of chaos and moral depravity, against the monster of lies and poverty of Spirit.

From here we will summon all men and women of the world to wake up and fight. Religion has made us believe that we are sinners and that our divinity is an affront to the jealous god, whose if not ours? Marxism has made us believe that we are rational animals, little more than mere monkeys, disposable and torturable like poor dogs and cats. Capitalism has made us believe that we are little numbers in a statistic, mere consumers of inert and dead matter. We have shown them that it is not so; that no matter how inferior or detestable they look, how many psychological complexes or bipolarities they suffer, in reality they are VALUABLE, formidable entities that can learn, solve, live, feel, work, that a man, no matter who he is, what color he is, how he smells or how he looks, is a formidable tool, a maker, a craftsman, a worker, a bidder of meaning capable of doing wonderful things, just look at what we have built. That is why all of us, let's understand this well, ALL of us, suffer alien interference, we are all monitored, and for sure, cloned, to give sense to other illusory hells like this one.

We are the aliens; and our longing for justice, beauty, dignity, which we do not find in this world, that memory, that nostalgia for a perfect world, is the conclusive proof that we are not from here, that after millennia and thousands of successive reincarnations to get nowhere, the time has come to assume it and return together with the BEING of FIRE from which we were torn away, to our Origin beyond the stars.

Epilogue.

In this evolution we do not know if there will be another Kairos for a continuation of Project UFO, but what we are sure of is that all the material presented must be used to the maximum, by all those who have coincided in a human or extrahuman way with us.

What there is no doubt about is that time is running out, and everyone has the duty first to recognize it, and second to get in touch with the exoplanetary wisdom of Felipe Moyano, which is the basis of this great saga that has emerged as the UFO Project.
