

targeted individual rountable kaminski

Behind Enemy Lines on speakfreeradio.com, happy Thanksgiving for those of you in the United States. We have a full slate, almost full slate of people here for our Thanksgiving for Targeted Individuals show. We're going to proceed as if everything was normal and hope that it will become normal.

We're going to have call-ins later in the show after we hear the testimony of some Targeted Individuals and when that happens, the number to call will be 1-605-562-0400 and the access code that happens after that is 811-7272 and the pound sign. Before I introduce our mammoth cast of characters here, and we're still missing one or two, I think, I just wanted to say that in America, this is the day we give thanks for the bounty that that beautiful gift of life has bestowed upon us. We break bread with friends and family and give thanks for those we love, but on this particular day, in this particular year, we are forced to give thanks for a peculiar kind of pain we never have had to face before, a peculiar kind of pain of knowing we have inflicted upon ourselves something so horrible, we almost can't admit that it's happening at all, except that it is happening and we must.

Somebody's making noise out there, be careful. Today, we ponder three different kinds of stories that we're going to bring to you, all pertaining to the Targeted Individuals, to all the Targeted Individuals in the world whom we respect today for their endless suffering. The first story for which there is no explanation that is not too painful to explain, the second story which has a clear explanation of the past which caused the pain, and the third story which forecasts the pain that is yet to come, which we know is on our doorstep, bringing a darkness too horrible to ignore because it is impossible to escape.

Targeted Individuals are living a nightmare that we are all about to share. There is no escape, nor is there any reason for it that makes any sense. I first encountered Renata as the partner of a Canadian farmer whose neighbors were killing his cattle, with the larger intention of stealing his land.

The farmer and his cattle have all been killed, but her torture continues, and the only progress to be made is just to try to stay out of its way. The monsters who have destroyed her past continue to stalk her future, and as the horror of doctors turned killers now plagues the entire world. Renata just sent me a Joe Imbriano video that I'd already seen that tells us much about the scary future closing in on us.

Everyone who really knows Renata knows how intelligent she is, but they also know she sees things that other people don't seem to see, and that, as with most other Targeted Individuals, makes her life very difficult. In fact, this is the common thread of all Targeted Individuals. So Renata, as much as we've talked a little bit about your history, can you tell us who are these monsters who curse all your waking hours? Hi.

No. It is the general public. I mean, it is.

It is. Okay. After 9-11, the Father Bush said, I have 84 billion for fighting domestic terrorism, and this is the head of the snake that is after us, you know? But there aren't really any domestic terrorists.

They are just trying to suppress dissent, what they think is dissent. What it really is, it's just normal human beings wanting to have justice and a good life and law and order. And the whole world has gone crazy, and, you know, and this is coming from above.

All of this is coming from above. And then it triggers us down, and the law enforcement is doing it, and then they have organizations of, it's called InfraGard, which all the shops are organized in it. So they are doing it.

And then they have those community policing centers where everybody can sign up, and then they can be a gang stalker, and they get equipment in the morning and have to bring it back at night, and they can do it. And so it goes on and on. And more and more people are signing up because it is well-paid, and people think it is fun, and they have their community, and they feel like they are the chosen ones, and they will inherit the earth, and we will be all dead.

And that's who is behind it. Is this what they call contact tracers? No, I don't think so. No, that's something else.

But they follow us. They infiltrate everything. You know, they are on the computer.

They have cameras in the house. They have implants in the targeted individuals. They have GPS in their car.

They know where I am at all times. They can see me. They have TV.

They can watch what I'm doing at any time when I'm going to the washroom. They can see me. Everything.

You know, so when I'm going to the door, a car on the hill sitting there waiting for me to move to the door will come down, and then when I open the front door, it will pass by my driveway and release the gas and try to shoot me every day, all the time. You should explain what that means, shooting. Oh, yeah.

They release their gas. They have directed energy weapons. There are many different directed energy weapons.

There is infrasound. There is microwaves, radar, laser, all kinds of things. And so most of them, they need to have an ionizing trail, so they release the gas, and then their energy weapon can ride on that wave and shoot me.

But I have now, I put up some defense so they don't have a big gap to shoot through, and I get hit, but so far it wasn't lethal. But Werner got hit and he died from it. He had, his heart exploded.

Are you talking about Werner? Yeah, I'm talking about Werner. He was killed that way. The other voice you hear is Loki Helgaard, who has interviewed Renate before and is, I would say, an expert in this subject.

Renate, tell us the story about Werner and how this, the things that happened to him and how long this has been going on and what you're facing now that doesn't seem to ever end. Yeah. Werner came here in 1969, as far as I know, and pretty soon in the 70s, maybe 75, I don't know exactly when it started.

People turned on him for no reason at all. But then there was the year of Jubilee and some neighbors came to him and said he has to give them the land and the house because it is on, some of the people, they had a deed given 200 years back by somebody, and that's why they just thought they can claim it back. And Werner said, are you out of your mind? I paid for this, I have the deed, this is my land.

And they said, no, no, that's not right, it's the Jubilee, you have to give it back. And then they started harassing him and they were releasing gases that when the cattle was breezing in, Werner had a herd of 100 cattle, then it would corrode the lungs and they would die. Wow.

And so they killed 325 cattle over the course of 20 years. And Werner couldn't get anywhere, he went to the police, the police even sent him an email and said, you who killed 6 million Jews, I'd like to come and kill some more of your cattle. So this, I was going to try to suggest this, that this was because he was German.

And maybe it's just because I'm German too. Right. Yeah.

They seem to like to focus on certain bloodlines of people, the Nordic, especially Germans. Yeah, it is quite possible. Nobody ever tells me why they are doing it to me, but they are all doing it to me.

It doesn't matter whom I interact with, like car mechanics or shop assistants, they are all doing something to me. They try to collect my frequencies and they poison my food. You should go more into the frequency thing.

Yeah. So the whole world runs on frequencies and now it is very advanced now. People, the perps, for example, they could for some time, at least 20 years, they can, when they record your frequencies, then they can write a weapon kind of, and then they can zap you with a cell phone and you have injuries.

And I don't know if they need implants for that. I have lots of implants. But they can do all kinds of things.

They can change you physically. And they used to shoot me in the knees a lot. And then one time I went to a hospital and they put me in a room and let me sit there for an hour.

And meanwhile I was being treated with frequencies, but I didn't see it, but that's what they did. And my swollen knees, they swelled down to nothing. They were like totally slim.

And then the doctor said, what are you complaining about? I don't see anything. I said, yeah, I came in here, my knees were really swollen and now it's gone. It's a miracle.

What can I say? And then, you know, they wanted to keep me there and put me in the loony bin because I said I had swollen knees and he didn't see them. This is one of those tricks they play all the time. And it was hard for me to talk myself out of there, but I finally succeeded.

And I'm getting better at it because practice makes perfect. So this is now, you can buy machines. One is called Spooky 2 and you can fix yourself.

But the thing is, if you have the machine, the perps can use it against you and make you look like a monster or what, you know, really. They use energy medicine or this sort of technology that was developed by Royal Raymond Reif and Nikola Tesla. Yes.

And only they use it in a black magic way, like to harm people instead of to help people. Loki wrote a book about this. What's the title of that book, Loki? Targeted Individual Handbook.

Yeah. And so when I was talking to Renata the other night, she was telling me about her time in Vancouver where she would tell people about what she was experiencing and they couldn't understand what she was saying. So that caused all sorts of trouble.

And this is the general problem with targeted individuals as a class, in that things are happening to them that other people don't realize are going on. And then they try to diagnose them as mentally ill, but the things are actually happening. Yeah.

I wanted to say, psychology is a record. It is just totally fake. It is not a science at all.

They cannot measure anything. They cannot find anything in the blood analysis. It's all, it's fake.

It is 100% fake. And they have this ESM Bible and they have their conferences and they vote some disease in there. Now they have government defiant disorder, you know, defiant disorder.

Right, that's right. Yeah, that's right. And they have their Munchausen disorder, that means that you are telling lies all the time, or stories, you know, stories, and all these things.

And they just do it to have a handle on TIs and when they say anything, they can grab them and stick them in a loony bin. Yeah, it's called punitive psychiatry in the Soviet Union. It's the same thing they're using now everywhere.

Yeah. And, I mean, this whole TI thing, it is coming from East Germany, and it was Stasi, and it's called Zerztzung. Zerztzung means decomposition.

It means they are taking apart the life of a TI on every level, in their relationships, in their work relationships, in everything they have. Everything gets destroyed and tempered with. So they want to push them into suicide.

So you not only have experience in the effects of this, you also have a superior understanding of the forces that are acting against you. Yeah, thank you, because it is the amount of time I have been targeted. So I've seen it all when it developed in Vancouver after 2002.

Yeah. It really developed, and they set up all those fusion centers. Right.

And I was watching it firsthand, and I tried to complain to the police, and then a young girl came in and said, I want to sign up for the community policing. And I knew she was a bird because she was, you know, she wanted to get paid for it, that's all. Yeah.

Yeah. Well, this is amazing. Let's turn our attention now for a moment to who has been standing by patiently, the targeted individual who has been on this show before and explained a lot of things.

His story is a little different than yours, but it's just as horrendous. Targeted or TI, that's what we call you, TI. Can you explain the ordeal that you've had in your life, trying to cope with these strange things that have been laid upon you? And apparently, from listening to you now, you appear to have succeeded in avoiding the worst of the harassment.

Well, I don't know that that last portion is correct. It's a day-to-day battle, as any of us are targeted, understand. Renata, let me just make a quick comment.

Renata, the Jews are the ones who talk about their Jubilee. Yeah. I'll just make a quick comment.

In their synagogues, they choose targeted individuals, people who they want to harass and claim their assets for whatever reason. And so my bet is that there's a local synagogue, and some individual has claimed the rights to your assets. And when that is done, the rest of the tribe just acknowledges that, and it's a free-for-all for that person to target you.

That I expect. Yeah, but it's not a person. It's like a whole gang of them.

And I never knew they were the Jews, but I found out in Vancouver. And they also used to say, Oh, I'm Italian and bullshit, you know, or I'm from Spain. But they were all Jews.

They were all from Israel. I could see it after a while. You know how I found out? I was crossing the pathway there, and I had to cross the parking lot of the synagogue.

And I saw all the cars, and I knew all the numbers by heart. I said, Wow, this is one, this is one, this is one. They were all circling me like sharks circle a dinghy in the water.

And they were circling around where I live, and every day they were crossing my path, you know, with those cars. And they were all in the synagogue parking lot. So then I thought, Oh, my, they are all Jews.

This is what it is. And I went a little bit further, and I came to the Jewish school, and I saw all those cars, another sort of cars that were harassing me. And I knew all those numbers too, by heart, because I saw them every day.

And none of them were very Italian. They were all Jews, you know. Different nationalities, like the people who are, according to what I have discovered, these old families that are the upper 13 or upper 17 families that control the whole planet, they're all Jews, but they all have Italian names.

They were, it goes back a long, long ways. Or English or German names too. Yeah.

Well, yeah. Yeah, they've infiltrated every supposed hierarchy of nobility and corrupted it for their own purposes. And they live in nice areas in Vancouver.

I'll tell you that. I've been walking around there a lot, and I found out a lot of things just by walking around and looking at stuff. It is pretty amazing when you put these dots together and see a big nose, a big damned hooked nose, and wringing hands with gold in them.

You had said that about, like, every targeted individual has at least, what, 20 stalkers each assigned to them? Yes, that is my observation. At least 26 people that are on you all the time. In Vancouver, probably more.

Sometimes I was, I had so many stalkers around me, I couldn't stand it anymore. And so when you walk in a straight line, a B-line, in a not so populated area, not downtown, so then you will leave them behind because they have to go back and get their cars. Yeah.

And then you have like 10 minutes of a break until they come again and park in front of you again. Yeah, the next one picks you up, and then the next one picks you up. I have had dinner on the beach in a remote village, Pacific side of Mexico, way south, Oaxaca, and been having a dinner with friends, and I felt a strange energy, and I turned, and there was a row of probably 8, maybe 10 of this tribe just staring at me.

Yeah, they are everywhere. It is just quite remarkable. They are all controlled by a hive mind.

Yeah. Yeah. So another facet of it, and John, I should get back to answering your question.

No. Thank you. And bless your heart dealing with this.

It is very tiring to say the least. Really? Yeah. The other team that works with them, so the Jews do this based in their synagogues, and they plot and plan, and it is the Masons as well, and I can give you a few examples of being tailed by and attacked by the local Masonic members.

I go into a building supply. I was a contractor for a while, and I am standing in line at the service counter waiting to be served, and the guy who is there being served turns to me. I have no idea who he is.

I have never seen him before in my life, and he says, oh, and he expresses my name, and says the smiling whatever, and it is like they have a photo of me on a dart board in their Masonic lodge and in their synagogues. They probably do. Yeah.

They probably do. Absolutely. Hey, let me interrupt.

Let me just interrupt with this. You're listening to Kaminsky Goes Ballistic, Behind Enemy Lines on speakfreeradio.com. We're going to be taking phone calls a little while after the first of the hour. The number to call at that point will be 1-605-562-0400.

The code to punch in after that is 811-7272 and the pound sign. David, I didn't ask this of Renata because she didn't want to get into it, but how did this first start happening to you? You have a very interesting, and I don't know if you want to get into that or not. What do you think? Why not? Why not? I think it's very important, but before we go into that, I just wanted to say why am I interested in this? Because I see a parallel between what is happening to you guys, what has happened to you all your life, and what is now occurring in the society at large where the media is forcing these false facts down our throats that are leading to our complete destruction.

Just as the attempts have been made on your life, the attempt is being made now on the entirety of human society. So tell us the really terrible story of how you first got trapped in all this. Okay, well I was born into a multi-generational Masonic family within the vigorous embrace of international Jewry.

So I was born into the power structure, WASP, Jewish, Masonic of Eastern Canada, the quite upper echelons of it. And I had a memory, we talked about this the other day, John, this is probably why you're particularly interested in this. I think it's a common thing that has happened.

Yes, absolutely. It's made a terrible secret because it's such a horrendous story. Yeah, it's at the core of Satanic function, it's at the core of international Jewry, it's at the core of Masonic function.

So I had a memory, have a memory, all my life. And this is the first memory, the first conscious recollection I have in my life of being outside the picture window. This is in spirit, a point of consciousness that's left body.

So I'm out of body, outside the picture window of the apartment building where I lived with my parents until the age of three months. So I'm 30 days old and there I am. Now what an odd memory.

And some friends who have been psychologists, psychiatrists, they said, oh my God, David, were you sexually abused as a child? And I would always say, no, I've had a wonderful life, great family, every opportunity afforded me. Short of the long is, I've had so many, one, offers of incredible wealth, hotels, brokerages, I can go on with the list that would have made me a multimillionaire at the age of 19 or 20, which I walked away from. It wasn't until I was in my 50s and had left all of that in my early 20s and had a number of subversive horrors befall me that I had memory bubbling up in my consciousness.

And what happened? The reason at the age of 30 days that I was out of body was because I was being sexually abused by my grandfather who was a high-level mason. He was having me give him a blowjob at the age of 30 days lying there in my bassinet. And in this memory, which was clear as a bell, I heard his thoughts as he was doing what he was doing.

And he said, you have to get them while they're young, the younger the better because then they won't remember. So this was part of early conditioning that went on actually for nine years in my life. I served a lot of Ontario's elite, apparently in this way.

I've had three other specific memories bubble up and spirit, by the grace of God, said that's all you need to see. But that's enough, you understand. So I was groomed to be one of these psychopathic predators and very much part of Satan's team.

And I left. Should I mention it? Richard Ivey, the Richard Ivey School of Business, I'll stick my neck out here, was a mentor to me from very, very young. And to the best of my understanding, it was anticipated that I would work with him closely.

Now Richard Ivey was the fellow who gave 30 million dollars to the University of Western Ontario and their business school became the Richard Ivey School of Business. I was to get my MBA and work closely with Richard and move on to fame and fortune and probably political life in Canada. And I left, but not without receiving the offers.

It's a little like Christ's temptations. I'll give you all these wonders of the world. If only you'll bow down and worship Satan.

And I didn't tell them in so many words that it was obvious that they were very sick people. And I simply headed west. I'm very thankful for that.

So that's the foundation of this. And because I was born into it, I will also say that my life has been filled with astral travel, remote viewing, past life memory. I've gone and studied at the Monroe Institute in Haversville, Virginia.

Some of your listeners may be aware of that facility. Brilliant man, Robert Monroe. I was invited to become an instructor with them because they gave me a discreet little test and had me draw with a pencil on yellow lined paper exactly what I saw.

And then they put up on a projection screen exactly what it was that I drew. They knew that I could actually do this stuff. So they wanted me to become an instructor.

So I know that my memories, my visions, my experience in these extra-dimensional territories are real. So I wanted to say that as I became aware of what my grandfather had done to me and what that then developed into over the first nine years of my life, I had a recollection as well prior to choosing my family of origin. In other words, prior to choosing to incarnate.

And I chose two very intelligent parents and a wonderful familial circumstance, but chose also my family of origin because of my grandfather and his position in Masonic order because I anticipated he would likely sexually abuse me so that I would viscerally know what the hell these people who are targeted, are abused, they become MK Ultra assassins or whatever their position as a Tony Blair or a, oh my God, Pierre Trudeau's daughter, son, is it his? There's a whole story there, but there's a mind control. David, let me stop you and ask you a specific question about that because a lot of this is kind of familiar territory to me, especially the Monroe Institute. Yeah.

What was it in your past life that made you choose that? Oh my goodness. This gets into, that's a bigger yes question. My memories go back right to Lemuria.

So I kid you not. I understand, yeah. I know who I was in Lemuria.

I know who I was in Atlantis. I know who I was at the time of Christ. I know who I was, oh my God, it just goes on and on.

And so it's a little like there was a TV series or a movie. What was it called, The Highlanders? Where these people are incarnating and they're here again taking sword and sinew and muscle to this battle that's been going on for thousands of years. Well, that's very much my life.

In this lifetime, I spent 20 years working closely with Lord Martin Cecil, Lord Martin Exeter. Familiarly, historically, well, with him, he was the second or the co-founder of an organization called the Emissaries of Divine Light. Absolutely brilliant.

Aren't those the doctors who are doing the Pilgrim Society stuff now? No, well, not to my knowledge. I left the organization a number of years ago. Lord Martin died.

We were very close. His son took over. The son, well, had not much respect for me and wanted me gone.

So I left. So I don't know what they're doing now. But it's been basically overtaken by and destroyed by the tribe.

And it's become essentially a New Age cardboard cutout with Judeo-Christianity back of it. Like everything else, yeah. Yeah, it doesn't carry the visceral, spectacular insights and substance that it once did.

Anyway, I interrupted you. Sorry. So you chose to come back to- And do my best here.

Yeah, yeah, we all did, yeah. Thank you, John, for this privilege of permitting me to give voice this way. Well, the purpose of the show is to- How many people out there are lost and buffeted and wracked and tortured by these things that they have very little understanding of? And I'm so impressed by what Renata knows about this.

And yet she's still under siege. I mean, I'm a guy who tries to fix things. I've been trying to do it for a long time.

I haven't fixed much, but I'm trying to fix things. And it's like once you understand this, you seem to have climbed out of the ill effects of it. Whereas Renata seems to be still pretty much assaulted by all of it.

And it's just a talking session to whoever else may be out there who is looking for a way out. And there are great links on the internet, one of which is now Loki's book. Loki, what do you think of all this? Well, I think people definitely need to know this sort of information because if you're living in a society where without reason you can just be targeted and subjected to this sort of treatment and the bulk of society, those who are considered good people, quote-unquote, approved, kosher, approved people, if they are all psychopathically participating in your own abuse and harassment and know to whatever extent, probably to a great extent, that that's what they're doing to you and that's what others are doing to you, then do you want to live in a society like that where you can't even be sure that you'll have basic integrity of your mind or body or soul? So if people need, if they want to live in a decent society, they should come to understand this phenomenon and circulate it around to other people so that, like this radio show, circulate the link around and let people know what's going on because if you don't, then they might very well come for you sometime, if not through gang stalking, then through a vaccine or whatever else.

Gang stalking is a whole other show at this point. I wanted to mention that Renata sent me an article the other day in the Targeted Justice newsletter called the CIA's favorite murder weapon and this is why Maisie, I wanted Maisie to be here, but she couldn't make it. It was about the size of a toaster and it was, Rhody and Schwartz was the favorite murder weapon, it was the name of the company, Rhody and Schwartz, SZU-100A, and it was, to make a long story short, it was a signal generator that could put voices in people's heads that they would regard as quite real and I'm not saying that either one of you have done that, but I have, let's see, who is this here? I have another call, I am expecting another call, who's going to talk about the third element of this and he seems to have come and gone.

Anyway, maybe he'll be back. John, could I bring in an element here? Yes, please. You were mentioning that I appear to be functioning reasonably well in the midst of all of this crap and Renata is having a very difficult time.

Oh my God, can I appreciate that. My brother has told me that I lost track, you should have committed suicide at least seven times and I can appreciate that sentiment. Big thing missing is our connection to spirit, our connection to God.

And I am blessed to be what's spoken of as Kundalini awakened and to live, if you will, as Christ spoke of it, under the shadow of the Almighty. So in no time at all, I can just close my eyes and let my Kundalini ascend and I'm in a very blissful state. The power of prayer, yep, that's what it is.

I do my prayers every day, early in the morning I go out, just when I wake I go outside in my pajamas and I ground myself for going barefoot and I say my prayers to God and Jesus and the Holy Ghost. And in the evening too, before I go to bed I give myself to God. There's a third element to this program that I wanted to, and I'm going to be coming back to both of you for more testimony after this fellow who's calling now, who's called into the show before and he's tried to make us see something that it's taken me a very long time to see.

Dawn, are you there? Dawn? Is that you? Did he walk away from the phone? Hello? Oh, no, hang on a second. No, that's not Dawn. Oh, and I see, I can't shut off this call, Catherine, and this is not what I wanted to happen.

I would like to talk to you after the top of the hour, but we're going in a different direction right now. Do you want me to hang up? Yes, please. Do you want me to hang up? Are there limited slots? Yes, there are, yes.

I'm expecting another call. Okay, I'll hang up and I'll call back later. Thank you very much.

If I could just add a little bit about the synthetic telepathy. Yes, go ahead. I personally have had a lot of experiences of that within the last.

Somebody's calling. Yeah, no, there's somebody who's not muted and is talking in the background. This would be, I'm trying to track all these numbers here, this would be this fellow.

See, I'm unable to mute calls because I didn't get in the right spot. So 951, can you hang on and hold your breath for a while? Thanks. Yeah, I just called in, yeah.

All right. Oh, okay, Dawn, that's you. I got my number screwed up.

I've been waiting for your call, yes. Dawn is the third element. But before that, Loki, what were you going to say? I was just going to mention about synthetic telepathy and what they can do with the machines that they have.

I don't know every detail about the technical aspects of those machines, but they can basically implant thoughts in your mind, images, sensations, feelings, words, and things of that sort. And they can steer your consciousness so that they can basically mentally influence you to do certain things by putting this sort of ray or whatever you want to call it. I think Miguel Serrano talks about it as a tachyon ray in the menu for the man to come, and that it manipulates your consciousness.

And one time, several years ago, they were implanting right around the time of the Brandon Tarrant fake false flag shooting. They were implanting very heavily, like a lot of dreams of mass attack type garbage, because they were trying to influence me to do that. Let me read this definition that Renata sent me.

Only a handful of companies in the world can make signal generators that reach these frequencies, so they cost about $50,000 a piece. The 60 gigahertz signal can be directed from a cell tower using digital beam forming, and it blocks the uptake of oxygen in the lungs and the patient suffocates to death. This is the same kind of technique that can put voices in your head.

I just wanted to get that out, because that is the thing that has been going on in hospitals, killing these people on ventilators. It's the same kind of technology. Now, Don.

Don is going to tell us something he's been trying to tell us for months. I've picked it up in bits and pieces. This proves that we're all targeted individuals.

Don, what's going on? Well, just a couple of days ago, I was just taking a friend to the hospital. He denies that this is going on, and I can see he's got a spray house, which ate his roof up. And we come back into town, and there's no air, and he needs a chair.

But they crippled him. It's VOC, a volatile organic compound. Whatever it is, whatever they put in the formulas, I'm not privy, but there was a spill by the pool guy, and they evacuated the area about three weeks ago, and he's the guy that delivers next door.

It's all this covert spy stuff. They think they own this land. They move in, and it's like you were saying, they put 50 of these guys on you, all Jewish, and you just see them sneaking around.

When you go to a store or something, they're the same personality. Reminds me of that quote of Jacob Grimm, the Jew and the Brambles. Tell us about that.

It's just a story that he wrote. Pretty much just encapsulates the way they sort of sneak around. They actually literally do that behind the walls and behind fences and whatever, ivy and so forth.

In addition to this low-level poisoning of us individuals or areas from time to time, this happens across the board in high finance. I don't know if any of you saw today where Sam Bankman-Fried has been invited to this festive gala in New York City with Janet Yellen of the Federal Reserve, and even Zelensky has been invited from the Ukraine to come and talk about the financing of America's phony war in the Ukraine. Sam Bankman-Fried has embezzled, I don't know how many, $600 billion that he squandered that wound up going through the Ukraine and wandered back to Democratic politicians, and instead of arresting him, they're bringing him to a gala in New York City.

Anyway, I was just digressing there. Let's see. Don, what are they doing? What is that stuff they're spraying everywhere? Well, a lot of people, you know, on the T.I., they say it's xylene or something, you know, but it has, like, I think it's a prion.

It's how they kill those cows, you know, and they did that to a farm. They'll kill a cow. They did that to a herd I was at in Tennessee.

We were in a valley, and they gave them these, you know, that bronchitis, not bronchitis, but bracirosis, but you couldn't sell any milk to anybody. You know, it canceled your right to do commerce, and, you know, I was with the Hare Krishna. This was the Hare Krishna farm, you know, but there was fighting like you couldn't believe.

It's all goons, you know, running gas on people. It's a goon squad, you know, and if you try to get anything done with the medical, they'll ionize you. They'll nuke you.

Renata, what were you going to say? I'm saying this is totally right, and they did it in Vancouver like crazy, you know. They would just drive with a car, and it has a hole in the bottom, and dribble, dribble, dribble this gas on the pathway that I was taking, or if I went by bicycle, somebody would go in front of me, and so wherever I go, I had to breathe in that stuff, so they did this maybe for 10 years nonstop, and then they also get it in your car vents. Yeah, I bought two cars, but they'll put it on the highway.

Yeah, they'll put it on the highway in front of you, and they turn in front of you. They know where you're going, and they come out from a side road and start gassing the road, putting a strip down the road. Yeah, the whole road, and they had little plastic baggies.

They threw them out the window, and then they burst when they hit the pavement, but I'm always turning off my air, and I have the windows closed, and they gas my car. They come from behind, and then they cut in front of me, and then the white cloud comes out of the car from the back and hits my car, and then I have to put my window washers on, and I leave the air off, and I don't open the window, but every day five cars or so do that to me all the time, and I call it the flavor of the week. They have all kinds of pesticides, and they do it for one week, and then they change.

Don, you talked about them doing this in buildings. Oh, yeah, they do it everywhere. They do it in the hospital.

When I took them to the Kaiser in Moreno Valley, it comes into the lobby, and everybody gets mean, and I could have stopped that poor child from screaming to death by getting a vax. They had two vax lines, and this Mexican mother with this cute little boy, it says, you get your shot, and they were all holding him, and I looked at that waiver, and it said you're increasing Guillain-Barre syndrome if you get the shot. It says right there on the waiver.

I could have put that to that mother and stopped it, but there was gas. We were being gassed in the lobbies. They have it all, especially Starbucks.

That's Jewish-owned, and they have secondary. It's all secondary security, and they do it. Yeah, Starbucks is really bad.

They poison all my coffee all the time, every time, and they know me. It doesn't matter where I go. They know me because they have that target alert, and then it's on their cell phone, and they know exactly where I am.

Yeah, it's like a cell phone app. She didn't have her morning coffee yet. She's going to probably try to sneak a coffee from you, and they give me poison in the coffee for years and years.

From the year 2000, I was working in Vancouver, and the Starbucks across from the company, they were poisoning my coffee, and my co-worker, she was also German. She said, you know what? I'm always feeling sick from this coffee. They were poisoning her too, but of course we didn't know, both of us didn't know, but they put poison in the coffee.

Yeah, it's against Germans. Germans are over-represented. And Scandinavians as well.

Yeah. Basically, they want the people that are closest to the gods, the devias, the blue-eyed, blonde-haired people, and people who are most capable of opposing them because they know that nobody else really is going to be able to do much to put a stop to their tyranny. I'm not blue-eyed, but yeah.

And they're very well-practiced. You know that classic image of the Grim Reaper? That scythe-like tool, long coat, and the hood over the head? Those were spraying devices. Those were initially sketches, which became woodcuts, which became printed from medieval Europe because the Jews would go around towns because little towns and villages were in the low-lying area, at the confluence or where a stream would run, and they would spray, and down the spray would come, and then, oh my god, we had the plague.

Yeah, you know, they poisoned my water, they poisoned my well, and they poisoned my water, what comes out of my faucet, and sometimes my bathwater is blue, really blue. I mean, the color blue, incredible. I take pictures of it.

Yeah, the rich pond turns purple here. They used something, a dye or something, I don't know. And you can smell the poison too.

They're spraying right now from two or three sides right now. They're spraying it. Yeah, me too.

And then they go upstairs and into the crevices of the floor. They have a tank, and then it's like a vacuum cleaner nozzle, those fine nozzles where you can get into the corners. Yeah, they stick that in there, and then they press, and then it runs through the floorboards and comes out on my kitchen ceiling and falls into my butt.

Especially if you're living in an apartment. If you're living in an apartment, they always have the next-door neighbor or the upstairs person putting it through the ventilation system or something like that. And it always smells like pepper too.

Yes, it smells like all kinds of things, flavor of the week, as I said. But I have all my vents closed, and there's this joke, how do you know a TI lived in this building? Because what is called the floor, do you know the little- Wayne Scotting. Yeah, around the thing is caulked.

It's caulked because they do it everywhere, and it comes from below through there. You can hit the receptacles too, the electric, because they're open boxes, and it goes right through the electrical. The door frames, it comes out of the door frames like crazy, always.

And I found out when there was a storm how much air comes through there. A lot of things come through the door frame. Let me interject this.

You're listening to Kaminsky Goes Ballistic, Behind Enemy Lines on speakfreeradio.com. We're coming down to the break, the mid-show break. It's going to be four or five minutes. I'm flying blind because I don't have my board up, so I'm going by the sound of the music that's going to play, and right on cue it has appeared.

We have about a four or five-minute break. I can't cut anybody off, so just hang around and be quiet and get something to drink or go to the bathroom, and we'll be back in about five minutes. Thanks for the great, great conversation and the great participation.

Perfectly done. You're listening to Speak Free Radio, the free speech internet radio platform. www.speakfreeradio.com Darling, did I tell you about my lost weekend with Giuseppe the G-Man? Do tell, dear.

Is that why there are empty speakfreeradio.com tabs all over? Well, I began imbibing Thursday night 7 to 9 p.m. Eastern with the sane asylum. The guests and discussion are simply intoxicating. But darling, it was not enough.

There is no one else quite like Giuseppe, my dear. Friday I knocked back two more hours 7 to 9 p.m. Eastern with the perfect triangle. I was simply buzzed by the utterly bold truth-telling and interviews.

Shall I be worried, my love? I've never seen you feeling so alive. I don't know, darling. Saturday I lost control and guzzled down 3 straight hours of the Saturday sane asylum extravaganza from 2 to 5 p.m. Eastern.

I was literally three sheets to the truth wind. Truth is a powerful intoxicant, my dear. Oh darling, Sunday after church and our picnic.

I snuck away at 10 p.m. Eastern to chug along the fastest hour of pure lucidity, the sane asylum Sunday evening simulcast. I'm worried, my dear. What would you do Monday through Wednesday when there's no Giuseppe? Fortunately, darling, I have the speakfreeradio.com podcast archives as my secret stash.

I can stay under the influence of truth all the time. I'm Giuseppe the G-Man. Join me Thursdays through Sundays on speakfreeradio.com for your lost weekend of truth.

My plan is to create a political organization, or two, actually, if my strategy is going to go correctly. But the manifesto is going to have policies of mandatory repatriation. You see, what is taking place is actually genocidal.

So all of the citizenships that have been granted, let's say since the 1900s, will be revised and reviewed. And if they have been deemed to have been granted as a legal act of genocide against the indigenous white population, they will be revoked. They will be given six months to leave the country after getting their affairs in order.

Otherwise, they can be immediately detained and deported. If we have to detain and deport them, then they will not be reimbursed for the property that we seize. If they leave of their own accord within that six months, they will be reimbursed.

Either way, they have to leave. And if somebody's citizenship was revoked, let's say a family member, then all their descendants do too. So anybody who is not of indigenous white British lineage will be getting removed if their citizenship was deemed to not be valid and an actual act of genocide against our people by our corrupt government.

That's the end goal. Oh, my God, oh, my God. Sorry.

I don't know a damn word of what you're talking about. It's not me. They could have struck the hour.

My heart is calling. Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh. Calvary is coming up.

Hey, remember the mortgage meltdown of... Put on Tustin's straight and orange. We're celebrating Toyota Fest. Bye, Zazie.

I'm in love with you. I'm in love with you. I'm in love with you.

I'm in love with you. I'm in love with you. I'm in love with you.

I'm in love with you. I'm in love with you. You're listening to Speak Free Radio, the free speech Internet radio platform.

Welcome back to Kaminsky Goes Ballistic, Behind Enemy Lines on speakfreeradio.com. You guys were great during the break. I'm sorry I don't have better control of the board, but that's just the way it is. We were going to take calls in the second half, although both Renata and David, and I see Don may have departed, but he may be back, have plenty more to say.

Anybody who wants to call in is advised to dial 1-605-562-0400. The code to call is, to add at that point, is 811-7272. David, we kind of cut you off at TI.

We mainly cut you off at midstream. What I'm fascinated by is how you've transcended your difficulties, and even though you say you're still somewhat under siege, you certainly have an intelligent persona where you have created all these works of literature and are able to articulate your circumstances, whereas Renata is still fighting these things off because she's still seriously under siege. Really, the point, I think, of this show is to— And perhaps Loki is the guy who's going to really have something to say about this.

He's fighting these things off because he's still seriously under siege. Hey, 804, could you mute yourself? I can't mute you. Yep.

Thank you. There's a lot of scramble going on there. I still hear it.

Yes, I wish I could stop you, but I can't. Thank you. There, seems to have stopped.

Yes. Please stop. I'll recognize you in a moment.

Now I forgot what I was doing. I was talking to David about— You were saying that I might have some insight into something. That too.

It's like we're looking for solutions here so people aren't so uncomfortable. Is there such a thing? I think I remember asking Renata that, and she said there's nothing she could do but to keep trying to avoid it. I think maybe a good idea is to basically not pray to some Jewish god named Yahweh or Jehovah, but to basically commune with the gods of the white race, the Aryan devias, and try to purify yourself and live a pure spiritually oriented life, a life where you're opposing what's going on and not acquiescing to it, and that way you're tying yourself in with them.

You're demonstrating that you're doing your part, carrying out your role in this incarnation on the earth, and by virtue of that fact, you're going to be working with them. They're going to help you. They're going to assist you to whatever extent.

For me, it's not about a sort of Middle Eastern supplication or anything of that kind. It's all about having a more active, what Julius Evola called spiritual virility, basically a more imminent transcendence, a detachment from the chaos, to the extent you can detach yourself from all the sensations and stimuli. Don't become immersed in that, but focus on third eye meditation and basically strengthening yourself through challenging yourself through exercise, spiritual exercise, physical exercise.

What you can do practically as well is to avoid people who you don't know because most of them are going to take their cell phones out. They're going to start recording your frequencies when you're within six to ten feet of them. Then they interact with your consciousness, so when you focus on them, then they can put forth some stimuli of whatever kind, like drive by with a vehicle, and then you'll see certain things, a dog hanging its head out the window or something.

Then that way they can tap into your consciousness because they've chipped you. They've chipped your brain, they've chipped your body, and they can pick up the frequencies of your conscious mind, and then they can interact with it. You don't want to allow them to engage you.

Don't look at them, don't look in the eye because that's how they engage you. Learn to read active memory. As one guy said, you're going to be subjecting yourself to more than one stimuli, multitasking at the same time.

You're going to listen to maybe a harpsichord music or other type of music while you're interacting on the computer or typing or whatever or chewing bubble gum or singing a song simultaneous to going for a walk or something like that, listening to headphones. The point is to not enable them to engage your consciousness or to come near you so they can record your frequencies and blast you. That's good advice.

David, what techniques have helped you? Well, breath work has been very good, consciously breathing. I knew that. Beyond techniques, I mentioned my unique, bizarre, multiple past life memories, my ability to remote view and astral travel and so on.

I mentioned the emissaries of divine light. What a great library you have there, yes. Yeah, so I just like to meld some of my personal memory with some of the experience and teachings provided by Lloyd Meeker, a.k.a. Yoranda, and this fellow, Lord Martin Exeter, Omra.

You see, I remember being with them in numerous past lives, and I won't belabor that, but it's... Anyway, what I recall and what both these men taught, and it's in their literature, is that we as divine beings, pre-incarnation, we're dominantly on this planet, and those of us who are responsible for this planet are from the Pleiades and Orion, and that we held conscious, focused intent, and over days of creation, and this is not a day in a week as we know it, but a day in this creative nomenclature relates to a platonic year, which is to say a 26,000-year cycle. Right. That's basically a Vedic conception, isn't it? Yeah.

Well, yes, it's using some of that reference. So, over the course of 26,000 years times six, you know, the six days of creation, which is like 155,000-156,000 years, we manifested the Earth and then incarnated upon it. And so the Earth actually has been functioning for an additional approximately 160,000 years.

According to the teachings of these two gentlemen I refer to, they speak of the age of our Earth as actually being about 312,500 years. So, and I have a second book, it's called The Cosmic Alarm Clock, and in that, incidentally, my books are available at archive.org. Oh, good. The one book I just mentioned, The Cosmic Alarm Clock, by title search, you could find it.

The other is The Real History of the Earth. Why in hell all this is happening again? Which continues to get larger. Well, it did, John, until it got blown up several times, and what had reached 750 pages is now cobbled together as about 235, and that's what you'll find on archive.org. I've given up trying to alter it, amend it, add to it, because even if I'm offline and in a basement, well away from any sort of interconnectivity, they still are on my computer and destroying what I do, so I give up.

But those, thankfully, have made it online. And so we created this Earth, and a metaphor that I use in The Cosmic Alarm Clock is that of a piano. And so there are 88 keys on a piano.

There are 88 constellations known to man. Interesting. As we... I'll just change the metaphor here.

So the Earth is part of our solar system, is part of the Milky Way galaxy. As all of this is spiraling forward along, if you will, a cosmic keyboard, we moved into a black note, a sharp or flat, 26,000 years ago. And I was there.

I know this sounds insane, but there you have it. I have to live with this stuff. And we were aware that we were moving into a different vibration in universal space which would allow for this rebellion which we are experiencing now, and we have been experiencing on this planet for the last 26,000 years.

So everything is founded upon vibration, and our global circumstance is no exception. And so just as we moved into this shadow space, this dark place, this sharp or flat of peculiar vibration, where we could, and this is what we sought to teach, to show, this is what I was. I was a teacher, I was a priest back in Lemuria, and more than that.

But anyway, this is not about me. This is about this vision, this message, this understanding, which hopefully can help us relax in the midst of this insanity and recognize that it is in fact coming to conclusion. You see, Satan can't create anything of himself.

He can only manipulate the real divine cycles that are underway. So there was rebellion, and going back to living in the Garden of Eden 26,000 years ago, as we entered this darkening vibration, we sounded the alarm. We said, look, folks, you're not going to see things as clearly as you did.

It's going to look like we're flying through a fog bank. Don't be concerned. Pay attention to God, to Spirit, to connection with Spirit, to your Father, however you want to phrase that.

And adhere to integrity and honesty and nobility of purpose and concern for the collective well-being of all life, and everything will be fine. Well, these characters, Lucifer and his band of angels... Yeah, that's more of a Christian perspective, isn't it? It is, but it actually is inherent in mythology and lore globally. I would just take issue with that myself, but yeah, that's your story.

Yeah, it is. Before we go any further on that, I have this burning question I want to ask Renata. Renata, what would it take to make you happy? To make me happy? I just want it to stop.

I don't want to have my clothes sprayed with pesticides, all my clothes every night. So in the morning I have nothing to wear, and the first thing I have to do is make a load of laundry. And now they access the water, I think, I don't know.

I still feel it after it's been washed. Or maybe they put stuff in the dryer, I don't know. I need to take the back of the dryer and look in there, but it's all too tight.

I'm alone, you know, I have my hands full. I have some cats here, and they are outside, most of them. But I have to feed them, I have to get the stove burning all the time.

I have four quarts of wood, and I have to burn that. I've got a good idea. If somebody out there wants to pay my way, I could go over there and help her, but I can't do it myself.

Oh, that would be an excellent idea. Yeah. So it would be good to have somebody so I can go out and not fear that they just destroy everything while I'm gone, or spray everything.

They poison all my food. If I don't eat it right away, I can't keep it till tomorrow, because it will be inedible anymore. And plus, at night, they torture me the whole night long.

They wake me up at five times a night, and every time. First, I can't breathe, or I'm sick, you know, my feet hurt, all kinds of things hurt me. And they inject me with graphene oxide for crying out loud.

If I have a cat scratch, it will be injected. For nine weeks, I have now on my arm these things, and they don't heal. And then white flakes come out of them.

And I saw that on a video that Andreas Kalka, a doctor, made. A German doctor, he is really good. He has some books out there.

You should check them out. Yeah, except the graphene oxide, which is in the vaccine, this COVID stuff, it comes out of the skin. And the body puts it out of there.

Where it was injected, it comes out there again. And it comes out all the time here. But, you know, every day I get a new injection.

It's not only that. They are really inventive in the way they torture me, unbelievable. And when I go to the washroom, stuff comes out of me that I would never eat.

And it burns me when it comes out. It's like, you know, they do it well. And they are filing my teeth at night.

And this morning, again, I had like broken stuff in my mouth, like sand. It was from a tooth. They were filing down.

And these things, it's unbelievable. And then if I want to tell it to the police, they say, and how do they get in? And I said, look, why don't you watch the video, How to open any door in under 10 seconds on YouTube. Yeah, in under 10 seconds on YouTube.

Okay, it's easy. And also, they probably, they can make hydraulic walls, wings out. Like they used to do that in the old castles, right? When you see those really old Dracula films, the whole wall moves out.

Yeah, why not do it here? I mean, how do I, what do I know? What do I know? This is a big house. It has three empty rooms upstairs. Loki, do you have a suggestion for her? No, the only thing that I could suggest is that she has somebody there who is present.

But other than that, I can't really think of any solutions, because obviously these creeps have figured out every little countermeasure. And they buried the weapons everywhere. And this is probably why.

I would put video. You have video because they are in the computer. They kill all my video equipment, my listening equipment.

It all gets killed. Donna's back. I was meaning to ask you, Don, do you have anything further to add to this debating? You just did, but then she said that might not work.

Yeah, you need to get somebody, a ladder and put some cameras up on the roof. And it's usually just this mist, you know, they're misters or, you know, nebulizers or atomizers. And they're forcefully shot with this polyacrylamide that jacks up the pumps to a couple hundred pounds probably.

Because they shoot it way over the tops of 35-foot trees here. And, you know, and the only way I figured it out was the cameras by putting up night surveillance. It doesn't show up in the day, but you can see it with a magnifying glass outside.

Or you can see it if the sunlight shines through it. But that's all they're doing. They're finding, they've probably got an infrared thing that shows where the leaks are in your house.

Where the insulation is really thin. And they're shooting it into those areas. And once it gets in, it can't get out.

It's like, you know, the opposite of a sieve. It captures the BOCs. Your house does.

And it won't let it out. You know, it takes about 20-30 minutes for it to stop. But they never stop.

They never stop. Once those pumps are gone, they go 24-7. And then it reacts with the moisture, the humidity in the air.

It activates it by putting styrene in it. It's like a delay. So that when a certain amount of moisture comes, it dissolves.

So all that, from 20-30 hours, it starts releasing from the trees. You know, and it creates this terrific gas. But, yeah, they also shoot it with wands and stuff.

You know, on the side of your house, anywhere there's thin insulation or, you know, a gap in the window or the door, you know, anything that has a crack. Yeah. I've noticed, Dawn, that you and Renata have similar observations on things that have happened to you.

Yeah, Dawn, I used to photograph everything. And the camera picks up way more than the eye can see. And I have, like, blue energy coming out of something, you know, like a cell phone mostly.

Yeah, but you end up being stalker. They'll turn you into a stalker. That's the problem with cameras.

You'll turn into a stalker. No, I just set them on my house, tape, you know, 25 cents worth of tape and tape them up to the roof pipes and in four directions. Then you find out who's doing it and then start putting it where they're resupplied because they'll have a resupply, you know, guy there that comes in.

They have put cameras into my eyes. And also some of the cats had cameras in their eyes, and Werner had cameras in his eyes too. Well, it'll burn your eyes, but it has a deliriant in it.

It's called BZ, and there's all kinds of fake LSD. It's an artificial LSD that's hundreds of times more powerful than LSD, and it's stable in that acrylamide. It's all this acrylamide, and it stabilizes in it, and then it's shot out, and then there's an instantaneous gas reaction.

I have 100,000 hours, but I don't replay it, but I watch this stuff as it reacts with the weather conditions, and it'll start forming these bubbles, big giant bubbles. When I say giant, I mean, you know, less than a sixteenth of an inch. They're tiny, but, you know, the infrared lights it up.

The sunlight lights it up. That's the weakness of it. You can see it easily with night cameras, and they're doing it and everything.

It never stops, and it's random and all this, and you think there's an intelligence. Yeah, well, the guys here, they supposedly did 9-11. I mean, these guys have every kind of way to get into your computer and they think 20, 30, 40 years out.

They're thinking way out, you know. Any weakness, they're going to come in and take over the town. They take the town over.

I saw them coming in. Hold it just a second. I just want to say you're listening to Kaminsky Goes Ballistic on speakfreeradio.com. We have a caller who's been waiting patiently for a long time, and we've made her wait long enough.

Catherine, thanks for your patience. Are you there? Hi, John. How are you doing? I don't know Renata, but I believe I've talked to David in Canada.

I've talked to him. What's your question? Oh, it's not a question. I was just going to tell a little bit of what I know and experience.

What I think, and I've discussed this a little bit with David, and I don't know if David remembers me, but what I think is that whatever time-space continuum these Jews, demons, Satan are on, it collapses. So everything that they did to us and might continue to do to us, it's a spiritual warfare thing, and Renata needs to learn how to do spiritual warfare. What do you think about that, Renata? Do you need to learn how to do spiritual warfare? Yeah, I don't know what to do.

I am in touch with God. I feel he can hear me, and I'm still alive after all this time. It's got to be more than God.

You've got to just put it out there that these people need to die and die now. Anybody that's attacking you needs to die. That's it.

Well, I think that what you're talking about, that you were talking about the spatiotemporal continuum, and that to me is like this demiurge. It's just like this demiurge plane, the plane that we're living in, the third dimension, is like the plane of the demiurge and the lower astral planes, and that's what Jehovah is, is this prince of darkness who controls that realm, and this is where these entities live, and they can't go beyond that dimension. So you're pretty much right about that, I think, that you have to elevate yourself to a higher level of consciousness and deal with the beings that exist at higher dimensions who can maybe intervene on your behalf or assist in some fashion.

And I think the only way to do that is to reawaken your blood memory, to reawaken your blood memory, and then to recognize the existence of the devias. What it is is this is part of our spiritual journey, that we were attacked and we need to attack back. That's a good suggestion, Catherine.

That's a good suggestion. This is part of our evolution, in that we need to know that we don't exist in the 3D. Catherine, we're not interviewing you.

We're interviewing our targeted individuals. We have another call. Let's see.

404, what is your question, sir? Oh, hi. I fled for my life. I packed everything into a van and left, and that was what is advised to me, and that's what I would advise to everybody there.

You can't leave because they'll tell you everywhere. They'll pursue you everywhere. Yeah, they won't have the intensity.

Yeah, you're under surveillance, but it's not the same. Yeah, it is. Everywhere you go, it's the same.

How far did you go? I went to Anchorage. I went to Florida. I went to Denver.

I went back to Anchorage, Washington, California, and I'm in Arizona. Wow, wow. I moved 16 times once, you know, maybe 10 years ago it was.

I moved 16 times. I tried to shake it off. I found that they have everything set up in 14 days, including poisoning the water, you know? I've moved about 50 times in my life, and it's always been the same.

Yeah, in one year. Yeah, you do. You get a couple weeks of a break.

I've been in Arizona near Kenyon now for about two years, and my stalking has been really relatively nonexistent until lately. Yeah, I guess it can be more or less intense. Yeah, some places are better than others.

It's true. Where you go, they don't have agreements where you left. Yeah, I guess that's true enough.

If you, like, did something that the people in the local community didn't like, then they're going to be really heavy at targeting you. Whereabouts did you say you were? It's the board. I was in Albany, New York.

I see the board. Whereabouts did you say you were from in Phoenix or in Arizona? Oh, now I'm near Kingman. I've been here about two years.

Where's that? Kingman. Near Kingman. Not too far from me here, about 200 miles.

But you can escape. But they probably use drones on you by now to find out where your phone ping is. Oh, the satellites, sure, 24 hours a day.

But, Don, you better get out of here. They could rob a glop of this crap on you. They're killing you, man.

You're not going to win at all. They were killing me. There was no way I was going to survive.

I had to leave for my life. And it was better. So, Don, you got to move, man.

Pardon? You have to move. You're not going to win. It's going to be worse.

Well, it's the only place I have my name on anything. No, I know. No, I know, because you don't have the will, the will to get anything done, which needs, you know, I need to get, you know, affidavits into the court and things like that, into a court of record.

I left the lot, and they rob you as you're leaving. Yeah, that's what they did to me. The courts aren't worth the powder to blow them.

They're all masonic, controlled by the Jews. It's all the same thing. And I'm wondering, why even be in America, actually? Yeah, you can't be in a NATO or, you know, or Hague country, apparently.

You got to get out of the Hague Convention. That's what they suggested to me, being a wise guy, and that's what I did. And it did.

It got better. What's going on now? I had three cars in my driveway every day. They would meditate on me, Satanists.

They would leave it in my path, you know. Wow. They're all in my property at night, but not here.

It's not happening now. They're dug in here. I mean, they're dug in.

I mean, they're not leaving. I mean, it's a very armed population, Republicans, you know. Yeah, they are.

It's like cowboy country. Yeah. I was just thinking of Renata.

Renata, you want to move to Arizona? I know I do. I know you do, yeah. But you have land.

It's really affordable. It's the most affordable place. Well, but Renata has land.

It's a two-acre community. Renata has land, a lot of land, where she is, and she doesn't want to part with that, even though they want her to sell it. Maybe you should sell it, Renata, and get the hell out of there.

Yeah, I have a problem. Yeah, I know. That's what I did.

Yeah, and also I have cats here. And I have no place, no other place. And it is kind of home to me.

I got used to it. It's my home. I invested all my whatever, you know, for the last 10 years.

Oh, yeah. Yeah. You're dying.

They're killing you. You're not going to win. It's not this place.

It's my home. Really? Oh, yeah. Carbon filters.

You need carbon filters and a lot of video cams out. Even if they're fake, you know, put video cams out there. But you've got to put surveillance cams.

That will change their whole thing. You know, you can't. You've got to have recording devices.

Can't they just use an electromagnetic pulse to knock them out, though? Don, what are you doing? Don, what do you do with the tape from the video cams? I mean, who are you going to go to to appeal? Well, they're stacked up in a closet, about 10 of them, you know, two terabytes. And I'm not doing shit because I don't have the will to get it on SD. They want it on SD, you know, for the sheriff.

But you've got to have a judgment against them. You've got to get, you know, there's affidavits. There's common law, you know, not common law, but lawful ways of exposing and getting them to react, you know.

But, you know, there's a gun. You're throwing them at them than you're going to have in the courts, I'm afraid. Right.

You've got to do it proper through the mail and whatnot. But the mail is the court system. The court system was set up through the mail system.

That is your court, the post office. Yeah. Loki, do you do law? Not very well, no.

But I've been involved in a legal case for hate speech since 2018 here, and I've been wrapped up in all these legal proceedings. They stole about $10,000 worth of money that I had in property, and then they've been charging me to pay for lawyers for like four years and so forth. So I have no idea what they've stolen basically everything from me.

So now their goal is to railroad me through the system, to force me to trial where I can't even have a lawyer really because there's not going to be enough time for me to get one. The previous lawyer just abandoned me at the last moment deliberately so he could hand it off to the Crown to, you know, railroad me through the system. And then once they do that, I'll probably be kicked out of this apartment and then rendered homeless after that.

So the guy in Arizona, if you want to tell me exactly where that is, I don't think I heard it properly. It's like Kingman, you said? Kingman? Yeah, Kingman. It's outside of this next door in Golden Valley.

Okay, I'll investigate that because maybe I'll just hop the border and go there. What I tried to do, I tried to reach out to Arizona, like the state, or it was New Mexico because somebody told me that they were like a sanctuary state, but they never responded. I guess they only want beaners from across the border.

They don't want white people from the other border. I just read this is a sanctuary. This is a constitutional sanctuary county.

I just read. But I think that might relate only to guns. I'm not sure.

Everything. I recently read that. It's Mojave County.

But I get robbed all the time by tribal companies and realtors, and I have a shack in Texas I have to sell. Yeah, I think it's probably the best. You guys might want to get in touch with each other.

You know where Alan Watts was by Sudbury, right? You know, he died, and his wife went to Texas, and I think that place is empty. I'm not sure. I didn't talk to her.

Yeah, he was. I'm not saying, you know. Laurentian University is where he was located near.

That's a mind control experimentation university out of Sudbury where they invented the Persinger helmet for mind control. Oh, well, you were thinking of a place to stay, and I was thinking of that. You know, I don't know what she's doing with it.

I don't see it for sale or anything. But, you know, anywhere out of Canada is better. Yes.

Yeah. Just get a bill of sale on a van, you know, a common law bill of sale. And once you get into the United States and use that, you know, try to get a reliable, have a mechanic test it out.

Well, I've got no money now. Now I'm basically driven into poverty. So there's no possibility of even being employed because that's one of the things they do in the gang stalking, and Renata knows a lot about that, is that they shut you out of employment through slandering you as like a pedophile and so forth.

What they do, you walk around, and then they'll put children next to you because they know your routes because they monitor you every minute of every day, and then they'll put baby strollers next to you. Right, they did that to me yesterday. Yeah.

I was at the store and they did one of those acts, you know, a bunch of them. But they all got the shot, you know. They're zombified.

They're not nearly as active as they were before. But, yeah, they did that one on me yesterday. Yeah.

I can't even listen to that on Craigslist. Yeah. Yeah, basically what they do is they just, they take a lot of photographic and video footage of you walking around the streets and so forth on your normal life, and then they'll put children next to you and take photographs and video footage of you next to the children, and then they'll put it out in community policing, and then circulate rumors around about you claiming that you're a pedophile so that they can get more retards in community policing to tail after you and harass you.

And then no one will hire you for employment, and they've got other techniques to shut you out, you know, preventing you from getting employment by threatening you. They all got the zombie shots. You know, it's like they're sickened.

They've been skinned. And they're probably possessed by entities. That's my thought.

So my place in New York was worth about 700 grand. And the guy who buys Tobit and leaves said, they only let you get 300, and that's all I got out of it. Oh.

So he could even foresee that. Yeah. That's what they're doing here, is trying to get property.

I did. I took it. I'm always happy.

I was so happy to go. And my place is beautiful. I built it from scratch.

Wow. What did you do to... A lot of money if they let you. What did you do to endure their ire? My speech, I would call it talk radio, and I'd complain about school teachers' salaries.

I'd say, their jobs aren't that hard or worth it. And I did it three times over the years. Yeah.

That's all I can think of. That's the way it is in Canada, pretty much. Everybody working in the government makes a huge amount of money, and they just loaf around and shuffle their feet most of the time.

I know that through personal experience. You know that you own property, you gotta pay for that, man. If you live in a house, you know.

Oh, yeah, there's a school tax here. Yeah, it's like $40,000, $50,000 added on to the property or something. But, yeah.

So, John, did you see my number? Give it to Loki. I don't have, because something strange happened at the beginning of the show, and I don't have control of the numbers. So, I have the 404, but I have the first three digits and then asterisks, because I'm not managing.

I can't blip anybody, which can be a problem. Oh, do you have an email? I do, pseudoskylaxx at gmail.com, P-S-E-U-D-O-S-K-Y-L-A-X, pseudoskylaxx. Yeah, and I appreciate getting in touch with you.

Yeah, yeah, yeah, I think, yeah, that's definitely a good idea. I'll never get that right. I'll never get that email right.

Look up johnkaminski.org, and you'll find it on there. But, you know, what do you guys think of Russia? Every day is good news coming out of Russia, but it doesn't make any sense why Putin doesn't just whack Zelensky. Well, because he's on the same, because he's not on the up and up.

He's part of the. He might kill hundreds of thousands of people, he's going to die when he could just whack Zelensky. Well, if you caught my note earlier in the show, Zelensky is supposed to appear in New York City with Sam Bankman-Fried, Janet Yellen, and all these other movers and shakers.

Pence is supposed to be there too. Who? Pence, former vice president. Pence, yeah, I saw that, Pence, as if he was anybody.

What a creeper. He is a creeper. Well, this has been a wonderful conversation.

Who can figure that guy out? I wish I could have regulated it better, but it's been fine. You've all been really decent. We have about 15 minutes left in the show.

I'm glad we got some new target individuals, and let's see here. Okay, I'm going to hang up. Get in touch with Loki if you can.

It's been good talking to you. Thanks for calling. Thank you.

Thank you very much. And let's see, who do we have left? We have Dawn. Dawn, is there anything else you want to add to this conversation? No, I'm pretty out of it.

You've been a valuable contributor. We'll talk more about this. Catherine? Hi, John.

You know, I was going to tell a lot of things, but I just wanted to give Renata a little bit of tough love. Oh, please do. It just sort of came out of me.

It just sort of came out. Like, I've been through a lot of stuff, a lot of stuff, and you've tried to murder me at least two times. Catherine, you're supposed to be asking questions of the guests.

We don't want to know about your history. We'll do a show with you sometime. Okay, but I was going to share some of my stuff, and basically we're targeted because we have these abilities.

I don't know if it's, you know, you could say it's the chicken or the egg. You know, do we become more psychic and, you know, get multidimensional abilities because we've been tortured? I think it's more that they know who we are. We don't know necessarily who we are, but the fact that they've done this to us, like it could be - I don't think you got the point I was trying to make, and it just sort of came out of me like sort of like automatic writing.

No, I don't think you have it, Catherine. Catherine, we're not interviewing you. We're interviewing our guests, and we have another call, 337.

Thanks for calling. What's your question? John, this is Pat. I don't really have a question, but I just wanted to relate an incident.

A friend of mine of 30 years went through some of these similar things. He was very active in the patriot community, and he just couldn't get any rest. He couldn't get any relief from any of this stuff, no matter what he did.

He finally ended up moving to South America at a high altitude, and he's been relatively attack-free ever since. I just wanted to throw that in there. High altitude, yeah.

I heard high altitude is good. I can't breathe up there. The problem is it costs a lot of money to do those sorts of moves.

Right. And then how do you sustain yourself there? Especially if it's a foreign language. Well, he's on Social Security, so that's his source of income.

That goes a long way in Central America. It does. Yeah.

Yeah. Yeah, well, he was in South America. Yeah.

I heard that Paraguay is actually accessible to people who don't speak Spanish, that you can buy - you can get citizenship just by buying property. But I also heard that a lot of Jews are coming down there to monopolize it. The Bush family - Planandina.

He rented in Ecuador. The Bush family owns 45,000 acres in Paraguay. Yeah, it's part of their Planandina.

Miguel Serrano talks about that a lot in Adolf Hitler, the Ultimate Avatar. Right. Where they're basically looking to sabotage the ability of South America's pushback against them.

Loki, one thing I wanted to ask you about, are you able to leave the province that you're in now? I'm not really too sure. I don't think so. I think I'm still trapped here.

Yeah. And then I think my legal case trial is going to be - I'm not too sure when, but I have to - it's going to be arranged on the 15th of December when that will be. And it's with or without a lawyer because I foolishly agreed to that.

I said - so he said, does that sound fair to you? I said, oh, sure, whatever. They're letting you out of here. But then, yeah.

So now I'm basically going to be railroaded through the system one way or the other. But I don't know what's going to happen when. Can never be sure.

Renata, how did you escape from the system? From what system? Well, when you were in Vancouver, you had some trouble and you managed to - Yeah, yeah, yeah. I had to go. And I was talking to Werner for a very long time.

We were calling each other daily more or less. And after his court trial where I rescued him from the clutches of the people there, they had him in jail again. They were going to let him rot in there.

And Diana Spangola and I, we rescued him. So after that - so when I suddenly had to leave because my son-in-law threw me out, then I phoned Werner and I said, I'm going to visit you. And he said, really? And how long did that last? It lasted until he died.

We were together like seven years. Yeah. Yeah.

Yeah, I first heard about you through Werner where they were killing his cows and nobody could understand why. But I think we deduced that it was because he was a German and they were Jews. Don't you think? Yeah.

Yeah. I think that's true too because my aunt was like a pure-blood Icelander, blue-eyed, blonde-haired. And her military aircraft officer husband probably was working in the gang, stalking against her.

And they caused her to die through inducing cancer states in her. Even though that was before any of the EMF was really brought out or cell towers and she was having like a fruitarian diet and all this to keep an alkaline body. So you wouldn't have gotten cancer otherwise unless it's through microwave weapons being beamed at you through the walls.

Here's a question that's a slight digression that I've been meaning to sneak in. I have a lot of these questions, but I haven't been able to answer them all. Some vaccine victims, just before they die, look around them up in the air and it's like they're trying to swat away a mosquito and they can't seem to do it.

How close does this resemble? Where did David go? I don't see him. Does this resemble the personages that seem to follow you? Or are all the people who follow you actually real people? Of course, they are real people. I think a lot of them are possessed or maybe they're an incarnate type of entity actually.

Because if you look at their faces, they look sort of like blank. They don't have like a zombified look on their face. Definitely.

They are zombies, most of them. And Serrano calls those types, calls Jews the robots of the Demiurge. The Demiurge is this prince of darkness.

If you watch the movie by John Carpenter, The Prince of Darkness, it shows quite a lot of very interesting correspondences between that group and an entity that has a conscious control of their activity on the earth. And they're a hive mind or part of that hive mind entity. They have a hive mind and you can see them communicating with blinking their eyes at each other across the room.

And they are communicating, you can see it. Yeah, one time I was walking down the street and I saw them all just sort of like meet each other in the middle of the street from different houses. And they were just sort of like staring at each other right in the middle of the street.

And then one of them sort of like looked over at me with this sort of surreptitious, creepy look on his face. Jesus. It's like the Children of the Damned or something of that kind.

Yeah, it's a nightmare. It's a living nightmare. It's a real thing.

And when you, you know, I can see it's like it took Don maybe 12 times to try to raise a subject with me before he finally got through to me. And it's the same with you guys. When you meet somebody that you have never met before and you try to explain some of these things that are going on, they look at you like, what the hell are you talking about? And yet it's real.

And now the parallel I take and what really maybe the most important thing about this show is that what's happening in real life now is that this is happening to the general population. We're all targeted now. Soon we'll be babbling about entities nobody else can see.

And now that you know this, what are we going to do about it? I think in large part it's dependent upon these devias coming back. Serrano speaks about that in Avatar in quite a lot of detail. Yeah.

That we need to basically just keep up the fight and keep getting information out. Obviously we're not going to just go around with guns like some agent provocateurs are trying to incite. You know, that would be useless and ineffective.

That's right. And who knows? But we need to just be smart and prudent about our warfare activities against these beings. Easier said than done.

Yeah. So, Renate, do you have any parting words for us? I thank you for the show, John, because it is really important that this goes out there. And everywhere in the... Luni Bintze always said, you know, there are admittedly 10% people in here that don't belong here.

But the number is in reality much higher. I heard this over and over and over. And it's just... The system is just using it to get rid of dissent, what they call dissent.

I call it just normal human being. When you recognize reality, the crazy reality that they manifest, then they just call that paranoid delusions and slap the label on you. Yeah, and we have to talk about this and show.

And there are so many targeted individuals. They estimated 2 million in North America, but probably now it has doubled for sure. Because, you know, it is the largest growing business.

The purpose is that it's a business. And they are being paid by tax dollars. What do you think? Especially now when all the jobs have been taken away.

Yeah, it's an alternative occupation for them. Yes. Well, thank you for helping to explain the situation that really affects us all one way or the other.

All the ways are bad. And I wish we could have a better solution for the both of you. It's like I'm kind of in this too, although I don't think I'm targeted by anybody except Jews in general.

But we're all in trouble. All the people of the world are in trouble because the people who are running things are way above the law. They control the law.

They control the media. And they control the way most people think by blackmail, by emotional blackmail, exploitation, and brainwashing. And it's like we're looking at something really dark coming our way and we really don't know how to deal with it.

So I want to thank you for at least trying to straighten out what we can straighten out. And talking to some people, we got a couple of people tonight who came in who were members of this club. And we all need to stick together as best we can.

Loki, I hope you get in touch with that guy in Kingman. Hopefully. I'm sorry.

I can't read the phone numbers here. Usually I can. But for some reason they changed my code.

Anyway, thank you. Speak Free Radio. Thank you, Renata.

Loki, we'll talk soon. Speak Free Radio, Behind Enemy Lines. I wish I had a board.

Thanks again, guys.
