Die große Zeit ist jetzt angebrochen. Deutschland ist zu erwachen. The viking is not a warrior because he always wins.

He is a warrior because he always fights. It is courage that creates the greats. It is courage that won battles.

It is courage that changed the world. It is courage that makes you successful. It is courage that you are looking for.

You are looking for courage. Be strong when you are weak. Be brave when you are scared.

Be courageous when you are unsure. Be humble when you dominate. Dominate humbly.

When the battle of life is upon you, remember you are strong. When it looks like the odds are stacked against you, remember you are powerful. When it gets hard, remember this is what you asked for.

The things that come easy in life don't last. Inhale courage. Exhale fear.

Inhale success. Exhale failure. Inhale power.

Exhale weakness. Fill yourself with confidence. Breathe in courage.

Breathe out fear. Be taken because I am ready to fall down. I will get back up because I have a warrior mindset.

There are no limits to what you can achieve in this life. The only limits are the limits you set in your mind. The only limits are the ones you set.

Dream big. Think big. And you will achieve big.

You can achieve in life. The only limits are the limits you set in your own mind. The only limits are the ones you set.

Dream big. Think big. And you will achieve big.

The Viking is not a warrior because he always wins. He is a warrior because he is always strong. When you are weak, be brave when you are scared.

Be courageous when you are unsure. Be humble when you dominate. Dominate humbly.

When the battle of life is upon you, remember you are strong. I paid them a visit to tell me what they were planning. So don't drink so much.

Just listen to them. But Israel equals slavery. The Berlin-centered economy, which is currently collapsing, leaves us no other choice than to declare Bavarian independence.

The state of Bavaria must separate from the rest of Germany and form its own nation. Of course, we are a different society. We are predominantly Catholic.

We are all German. Culturally, perhaps, there are similarities. But even then... I'm talking about reality, not fairy tales.

I'm talking about the purity of the German people, which is no fairy tale. Who alone are responsible for the moral decadence that now riddles our society? The Jews! The Jews! Who are those self-Germans? But who are now, and who have always been, unwelcome, unwanted, and they are everywhere. The party is Hitler.

Hitler, however, is Germany, as Germany is Hitler. Hitler, Sieg Heil! Sieg Heil! Sieg Heil! For more information, go to nsm88.org or contact Commander at area code 904-844-0433. Good evening, good area folks.

You're tuned in to the Mason Dixon Show here on NSM Media. And I believe Matt is with me this evening. You there, Matt? Yeah, I'm here, brother.

How you doing? Doing pretty good, brother. I believe Commander is running the board for us tonight. And I think he has a special guest coming on at some point.

All right. I wonder who that's going to be. From what he gave me earlier, it is a guy that has been charged with a hate crime.

I don't have the details of it. But I'm sure he'll let us know when the guy tunes in, comes into the show. Trying to look through the shows here, the articles, and see where to start off here at.

As always, there's so much crap in the news. It's hard to sopher through it all. Here's one that caught my eye.

Video shows officer shoot an unarmed 16-year-old as he runs away. Police say it's justified. This is from CNN.

Newly released video of a fatal police shooting in April 2017 shows an officer firing a deadly shot at an unarmed 16-year-old who had jumped over a fence and was running away. Police in Fresno, California say that three different official departments have ruled the shooting justified. The surveillance camera footage provided by attorney Stuart Chandler showed 16-year-old Isaiah Golding jump the fence and entered a small yard as he is being chased by two officers.

Golding, wearing a gray sweater, lands on his feet and starts to run. One officer climbs the fence while the other gets into a crouching stance and fires through the fence, the video shows. Golding then stumbles and falls to the ground.

In the police body cam footage provided by the attorney, someone off camera can be heard saying, good shot. Golding's parents filed separate wrongful death lawsuits against the city of Fresno and several of its officers in March of 2018. Chandler, who represents Golding's father, said the suit was filed separately because the couple are divorced.

The bullet went through the back of the teen's head, according to the lawsuit. Ah, there we go. I think the commander accidentally muted me.

Can you hear me, Matt? Sorry, Randall, having some more technicalities here. Looks like Matt got disconnected there. Yeah, I figured something was happening.

Figured blog talk might not be cooperating tonight. Looks like it's back up. What's Matt's area code? Uh, I'd have to look.

I don't know it right off the top of my head. All right, he should be back on now. Yeah, I'm back on.

Okay. Yeah, you were talking about the cops shooting the Negroes. A lot of times when they're running, their pants are always falling down, so they'll reach around their waistband and pull their pants up.

I mean, a lot of times they might just be pulling their pants up, but a hell of a lot of times they have some heat in there, too. I'd say it's a justified shooting. Yeah, I was saying the bullet went through the back of the teen's head, according to the father's lawsuit, and he died three days later.

The lawsuit claims the officer he fired had no objective facts to believe that Goulding was armed or reaching for a weapon. The teen was unarmed, the lawsuit states. The fact that the police department and the city of Fresno police officer all agreed that the shooting was justified is troubling the light of the video.

It clearly shows that it's not. Citing police statements, the father's lawsuit says that Goulding was warned for questioning a connection with a shooting one day earlier that had caused a fatal car crash. Fresno police stopped the questioned teenager and pulled over a car in which he was the passenger, the lawsuit states.

The teenager in the car initially replied with police, but Goulding then took off running, the lawsuit states, leading to the fatal chase. Fresno's police chief, Andrew Hall, told CNN affiliate KSPE that the shooting was ruled justified by the Police Internal Affairs Bureau, the Fresno County District Attorney's Office, and the city of Fresno's Office of Independent Review. So that's three different places that cleared this officer.

The use of lethal force in this case occurred while officers were investigating a homicide. The 16-year-old in this case was involved in the homicide with his brother, and his brother was later arrested and plead guilty, Hall said. The video represents a different vantage point and was not what the six officers could see.

The 16-year-old was also known to carry firearms and had jumped a fence into a child daycare center. CNN has reached out to Fresno Police Department and the Office of Independent Review for comment, and apparently they haven't got back to him. But, you know, of course, this kid should've knew.

He ran from the cops. You know, there's a chance that he'd be getting shot. Black lives matter.

Yeah. They're always doing books. How's that go? Play stupid games and win stupid prizes? Yep.

Yeah, I mean, and like they said, you know, apparently they've had run-ins with this kid before, and he is known to carry a weapon. So, of course, they're on guard. And, of course, looking through that fence, I mean, yeah.

You know, the kid jumps over. He probably lost half his pants, you know. Yep.

Reaches down to pull them up. Yep. I mean, they don't know if he's got a gun, you know.

I've watched plenty of videos, you know, when they reach around and go for the waistband and pull out a little .380 or, you know, turn around and shoot at the cops. I mean, automatically, especially, you know, a black, they know that there's a good chance their ass is going to get shot if they run. You know, they're notorious for carrying weapons.

I mean, what do they expect? And then, of course, you know, here's the parent's blanket. Oh, they've hit the lottery with it. There was one that robbed a Dollar General, a dollar store down in Dayton, Ohio, and his family wants to file a lawsuit because they shot and killed him.

I mean... He goes in there and robs the place and gets shot. You know, he was a good boy. Exactly.

And if the judge don't throw that out immediately, I mean, the judge is slapped because that is just retarded. I mean, if somebody dies by accident when you're committing a felony, you're going to be charged with murder and go to, you know, to prison. So, I mean, it should be looked at the same way, you know.

But the system is definitely rigged to cater to these animals nowadays. You know, you've got to touch them kid gloves. Here's a good one about Zuckerberg.

And it's actually kind of funny because it's about CNN, you know, going after him. Hey, Randall? Yeah. If I could real quick, we're supposed to be having a caller call in from Canada.

He's on the line. I don't know what area code you are, so if you could just push one on your keypad and that'll bring it to the top of the board and I'll screen you on the back line. Sorry about that, brother.

I'll be out here giving you a hand if you guys need anything. All righty. Thanks, Commander.

No problem. CNN President calls out Facebook over absolutely ludicrous policies on political ads. CNN President Jeff Zucker on Thursday denounced Facebook for what he called its absolutely ludicrous policy that exempts political advertisements from fact-checking.

Facebook took so much heat, rightly so, for what happened in 2016 and for the political advertising that aired on there. Zucker said during a CNN sentencing conference, and now they say that political advertising is just a tiny part of their business, but that they're not going to fact-check anything and that they're going to take all political advertising whether it is true or not. I think that is absolutely ludicrous and I think they all should be called out.

Zucker went on to cite his own network policies surrounding advertisements, saying that CNN has already turned down two ads from President Trump's re-election campaign because they didn't meet its standards. We have an obligation at CNN. If a political ad comes along and it's not true, we're not going to take it, he said.

We've turned down, I think, two ads from the Trump campaign. We've taken two, but we don't have anything against taking those ads, but we're only going to take them when they are truthful. Facebook should have the same standards and frankly, given what happened in 2016, maybe they should just sit out the election and not take any political advertising until they can figure it out and get it right, Zucker added.

The comments came as Facebook and CEO Mark Zuckerberg faced a swarm of scrutiny from Democrats and lawmakers over its policies surrounding content and ads shared by lawmakers. Zuckerberg has consistently stood by the new policy, assuring in a speech in Washington, D.C. earlier this month that Facebook should not be in a position to moderate political content. Political ads on Facebook are more transparent than anywhere else, Zuckerberg said.

We don't fact-check political ads because we believe people should be able to see them for themselves for what politicians are saying. I know many people disagree, but in general, I don't think it's right for a private company to censor politicians or the news in a democracy. But now, look how many of us they have absolutely banned won't allow us to have accounts.

I mean, he's talking out of both sides of his mouth there. Credits have pushed back, arguing that Facebook has an important responsibility to combat disinformation and harassment on the platform, especially during the election cycle. Multiple Democrat presidential candidates objected in early October after the Congress permitted the Trump campaign to run an ad pushing unsubstantiated allegations against the 2020 presidential candidate, Joe Biden.

Biden's campaign spokesman, T.J. Ducklow, if that's how you actually pronounce that, said at the time that the spread of the objectionable false information to influence public opinion poisons the public discourse and chips away at the democracy. CNN said that it rejected the same ad, which includes images of some of its journalists, because it didn't meet the network's advertising standard. Zuckerberg faced several questions regarding the new ad policy during a House Financial Services Committee hearing on the Capitol Wednesday.

After being asked by Representative AOC, God, I hate that bitch, if she could pay to target... Oh, jeez, sorry, guys, I scrolled too fast. Okay, if she could target primarily black zip codes and advertise them the incorrect election date, Zuckerberg said that she couldn't before emphasizing that the platform would take down political ads that incite violence or lead to voter suppression. Wow.

That actually sounds like something that she'd probably really want to do. But, you know, because these big campaigns are paying so much, you know, Facebook's going to take them no matter what they say. They want to count them dollar bills.

They want them shekels. I remember they traced... Whatever they traced back to the Russians, they said that, you know, the Russians, it was like a $10,000 Facebook ad that they took out. Oy vey! That was perfect timing.

You know, I mean, they allow that, this information like that, no problem. But, you know, let us say something, and it's see you, bye-bye. But, of course, if we shed out all kinds of money, oh, they let us say whatever.

But that just shows you, of course, the double standard. Let's see what else do we got here. Oh, this one's kind of wild.

Definitely, even though they haven't really released any names on this, you can guarantee that the person was probably black. A woman is doused with gasoline and set on fire at Taco Bell in Tallahassee, Florida. A woman is recovering from a serious burn after being set on fire at Taco Bell Wednesday as police search for the suspect.

Task force responded to Taco Bell on Tuesday evening and discovered that a woman had been doused in gasoline and set ablaze. Officer Rochelle Denmark said in a statement, the victim of the attack, who has not been identified, was airlifted to a hospital with serious injuries, police say. The incident is being investigated by Tallahassee Police, as well as State Fire Marshal and the Federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms and Explosives, which together have classified the crime as an aggravated battery.

The suspect identified by police is Mya Williams, 32, fled from the scene. Williams was last seen wearing a black T-shirt, tank-free pants, a red wrap around her head, and several necklaces. The several necklaces are what makes me think that it is a black.

Police don't know if there is any relationship between the suspect and victim. But there we are once again, animals acting like animals. What was her name? Mya? Mya.

Mya Williams. Oh yeah, that's a black woman. I mean, I just, you know, picked her some black woman, but they said they had the red wrap thing around her head and had several necklaces on.

Her probably wearing a bunch of gold chains, you know. So, I say it was probably another black girl that got doused, but it was probably her man. And the news is full, you know.

I just looked it up for you. Huh? I just looked this story up. Yeah, it's a black chimp.

The suspect in the Taco Bell attack has been identified as Mya Williams, 32 years of age, who identifies as a black female, according to Tallahassee PD. Just gets weirder and weirder. Yeah, what's the picture? I mean, I mean, she identifies as a black female.

It kind of makes it sound like she's something else. Well, the black female has a beard. Yeah.

And is balding like a man. Oh, God. I don't look like a Somali.

It's like a Somali in the picture. Got that long, skinny, narrow, black face. The nose looks like he's been chasing parked cars.

Oh, we do have a banana boat down there. Fish off a banana boat. Yeah, they still do that over in Africa.

They'll take tires and put some, wrap the tire around and light the tire on fire. Yeah, I've seen that. It's pretty horrific.

Randall, I've got the caller from Canada. Whenever you're ready to bring him in, he's got an interesting story to tell. Better time than the present.

Okay. I'm going to bring in Loki. Apparently that is his real name.

He's from 587, which I believe is up in Alberta, Canada. Loki, are you with us? I'm with you. Nice to be here.

Yeah. Thanks for coming in. Yeah.

Appreciate you reaching out to me and asking to come on the shows. You might have to tell everybody a little bit about your situation, because I don't think anybody knows. What do you got going on up there in Kanada-stan? Yeah.

Just all the information is on a website that has been created. I'm not really at liberty to say if I created the website. One of the websites I had is now known by the government here, so they were sort of throwing that on top of the other charges that they charged me with.

But this one website is www.free-speech.is-great.net. So I'll just say that again. www.free-speech.is-great.net. So that's got basically all the content related to the case, except the police disclosure, the police report. That was on the previous website, and that was forced to be taken down by order of the government.

Otherwise, I would be considered in violation of my bail conditions, which were basically that I would forfeit $4,000 for bail, or I would be put into jail for whatever indefinite period. So basically, this series of charges is about my allegedly having distributed a bunch of propaganda about Jewish white genocide, stamping money bills with that slogan, Jewish white genocide, and then citing that website, thezog.info, and distributing a bunch of flyers around and stickers, 99% of the 1% is Jewish, with that yellow star in the midst of it, and a bunch of pamphlets that said immigration equals white genocide, white self-hate, Jewish supremacy, and linked other websites citing immigration statistics and how it was associated with Jews, and how they were basically the ultima causa of that genocide agenda, basically. And then of course, that led to my being arrested on very flimsy evidence, a lot of informants.

This town that I'm living in is sort of like a Zionist type of stronghold, I guess. I've never really seen this in Canada before, and I've been in various places in Canada, but here, it's like everybody's... Sounds kind of like Charlottesville. Yeah, well, I'm not too sure about that, but here for Canada, it's sort of like this super uptight town where everybody's always spying on everybody and ratting each other to the police.

There's a NATO base near here, too, where they train British military troops and British artillery and soldiers, and so it's sort of like a spy society type of feel here. And so there's lots of informants. The Jews basically run the town.

They sort of monopolize it, like every box store, every business is run by them, and they're totally immersed in the government. I'm sure that sort of standard procedure on their part more or less everywhere, but here especially, I find that it's sort of hyper-concentrated with them. So it seems like some type of sort of Dukes of Hazzard spy society town.

So they had a lot of informants that were working to try to find out who was distributing this material, and they were basically spying on me. They had police helicopters or military helicopters, I couldn't tell which, basically following me around the entire town on multiple occasions. Holy shit.

So I would go from one walking around or biking around. I'd go from one side of the town to the other side of the town, and I would see the police helicopter sort of on an oblique angle above my head the entire time. And yeah, this has happened several times.

And then after the event, when I was arrested after the arrest, I was in my house. Several times it's happened, there were police helicopters right above my house. So I would just like press my face against the window and look right up on a super acute angle, and I could see police or military helicopters above my house.

And then also I noticed some type of military plane with like a translucent radar cone, just flying like right above my place here, right over the flight path, and at a very super low altitude. And you know, I was just seeing this radar nose cone just right above my place. And yeah, there's police outside and everything.

So in any case, what led to this was that I was going to a safe way with the money bills, which I stupidly and imprudently was buying regular items with, but I would like hand it face down to the clerks when I paid. So I had it stamped on there, the Jewish white genocide slogan. And so, you know, the clerk finds this out and they look at it, and then they hold it up to the camera.

So apparently this served as evidence that led to them linking it to me. And then, so they basically use that as a justification to get a search warrant to come in here, break in, take about $8,500 of my stuff. I had a bunch of firearms that I imprudently had not stored properly, and that I had also scratched off the serial numbers of because I was going to stash them in the ground out of a sort of paranoid fear of like, you know, gun confiscation, given what was going on.

So then they took those and they slapped some charges on me there. So I've got about, I don't know, 14 gun charges for violating gun laws. And then the so-called hate speech called public incitement of hatred charges here.

So basically all those charges are rolled into one, and they're using the firearms charges, not only A, to portray me as a terrorist, because if anyone Googles my name on the internet, they'll see, you know, like a front page, big blown up picture of, you know, a big spread with all the guns and money bills stamped and everything and ammunition boxes that I had, and so forth. So they're trying to link that with the, you know, to portray it as a potential, you know, terroristic act that I was intending to perpetrate, allegedly. So they're trying to associate that with the, you know, anti-Jewish commentary.

So you were, you were in possession of some firearms? Yeah, but were these all legal or? Well, the way in which they were stored and then the scratching off the serial numbers is not considered legal, apparently. So yeah, I guess, I guess that's pretty stupid of me, but oh well, whatever the case. Yeah, I just sort of like tossed them.

That might be an issue in any country. I don't even think you get away with that in the States. Yeah, so I had them, they basically squirreled away, way in the basement in the darkest corner, but I didn't realize that it was even possible for police to, you know, use a money bill and a stamp, stamp message on a money bill to justify raiding your property and going into your place, because not being somebody who's had any great entanglements with the law in the past, I never really understood, you know, what they could get away with, but apparently, obviously they can.

So, but that's always an issue, whether they obtained a search warrant even legally or not. So basically, that's what they have charged me with is all those charges. So they're basically trying to create the appearance in this town as well in the media and so forth, of my being a terrorist, because of the firearms and associating that with the messages that I had distributed.

So that led to a massive damage of my reputation here and so forth, obviously enough. So basically, that's pretty much the whole issue, is that I was alleged to be distributing these sorts of materials, and then they came in here, and they did this, and now they're creating that appearance so they can justify setting legal precedence here to, you know, strengthen their censorship laws and their gun grabbing laws and so forth. I was thinking that Canada had kind of like the freedom of speech that we do here in the States.

Oh no. What's that? Randall, if we were to go up to Canada and try what we try here in the States, they'd bury us under the jail up there. Oh, okay.

I wasn't, you know, totally clear on that. Yeah, what you've got to do to get a firearm in Canada. Yeah, it's a whole other world up there.

We take it for granted what we have here. With the laws in this country, that they prohibit you from having any larger capacity magazine than five rounds. So they actually pin the magazine, and yeah, I had drilled out some of the pins in the magazines that I had purchased legally.

So, you know, but oh well. Well, you're being heard right now. Right, you're being heard on about five continents right now, including Canada, obviously.

What would you like to convey to them, or, you know, what can they do to help you out? The people? Well, basically, I also write a lot of writings, spread a lot of messages, you know, a lot of philosophical writings and stories of mine. So what they can do to assist me and to assist the South Africa Family Relief Project, where I guess people are aware of that organization, aren't they, with Karen Smith? Yeah, but we've heard of it. Most people.

Yeah. So in any case, there's a typist there who assists me in typing my writings. So if people could donate to them, which would be donating to the South Africans in the squatters camp, then that assists me by getting my writings out there.

And then people can see those writings on a website called the-struggle.net and that's basically a compilation of writings of mine. So that would assist me, I don't get any money myself, but that at least enables other people to get the content that I produce for free. Of course, they'd have to donate to that organization.

So yeah. And they would go directly through them? Well, just basically be paying the typist who works in the squatters camp to type my writing. So that's basically the only thing that I would request or I would desire if people have an interest in that.

They can check the website out, get what they want from there. Yes. From my understanding, the firearms laws, for those of you familiar with US laws, if you think New York state is tough, go to Canada and see what you've got to do to get a firearm and not stay illegally from a dealer to your house.

Go ahead. What do you have to do to get a firearm in this country? You have to take a firearms training course, and then you have to take a hunters training course. That way they could try to imply that the only legitimate reason for you to have a firearm is to hunt.

And they're basically saying that it's not even considered legal to claim that you're wanting a firearm for self-defense. And when you have a firearm, you're supposed to store the, this is what I've found out, the ammunition completely separately from the firearm. You can't keep it inside of the magazine.

You have to keep it in a locked cabinet. You have to have a trigger lock on the gun or whatever rifle. And then you can't even be within the same reach pretty much at all.

So it basically completely disarms you. It renders you more or less defenseless. So that pretty much nullifies your ability to even defend your own life from a home invader.

So it's ridiculous. So you become basically a criminal. I'm sure in Europe, it's much the same, if not more extreme, that you basically become a criminal simply through wanting to defend your own property from home invaders.

And obviously, as everybody in the States knows, the more non-whites come into your society, the more crime there is. It's basically proportional. And Canada, obviously, since about 2005 or so has been increasingly more and more non-white at a sort of logarithmic progression.

So the more non-whites come in, the more crime, the more crime, the more people are threatened. So they have to have guns, but they can't use guns, otherwise they're criminals. So it's sort of like self-defeating, absurd, pretty much.

It almost sounds like what they do in New York State. It's like a Canada light version. They say the same thing up there.

They'll actually give you a gun up in New York State once you've been through all the headaches. And if you can acquire a New York State pistol permit, because you have to have a permit to buy a gun there in that state. And by the time you get done getting through all the red tape and everything, if you ever, as you said, are in your home and you have to defend your home, you're not allowed to do that.

Your first rule of business is to flee your home because it's not worth it to kill anybody, including a home intruder, to defend yourself. Your self-defense should be a last resort. So they can come in, steal, loot, burn your house down.

As long as they're not trying to kill you, your family directly, your obligation is to leave. And if they can prove otherwise, they can charge you with murder. It's incredible.

Yeah, they claim here that you can use reasonable force or deadly force to combat deadly force. But of course, it's always subject to a judge's interpretation and all the judges are largely either Jewish or Freemasons. So you can never trust them since the whole agenda is anti-white and anybody who is white is portrayed basically as guilty before proven innocent.

If you're a gun owner or if you're anybody who's white and male and right wing, as they call it, then you're basically set up in front of a firing squad. You're not supposed to grab your gun and defend your property. You're supposed to take them very much.

Yeah, well, that's basically the law here too. Just totally rake and pillage as they want and just total garbage. Yeah, you're supposed to run away out of your own house here too.

That's basically explicitly the law that you have an obligation to just leave your own property. And there's quite a few of these incidences, especially in rural areas around farmland, like in South Africa. I think they're starting to use the Redskins around here, you know, the so-called indigenous First Nations, as they call them in this country.

They're starting to use them like they're using the blacks in South Africa to do farm raids and stuff like that. So there have been incidents where some rural person or farmer shot their gun in the air to sort of scare off the intruder and then they actually shot one of these Redskins and then he became the villain, basically. So I don't know what's going on with that case, but I heard that there was a case like that recently in this country and I think the adjacent province.

So you can really not even defend your own property. Now, pardon my ignorance on this, but what is Canada's history in terms of slavery? I know a lot of these, back in the day, the U.S. slaves fled into Canada. I know this because I've seen the parts of the Underground Railroad.

I grew up in a small town called Lewiston, New York, which is right by Niagara Falls, New York. So I could almost throw a stone and hit Canada from where I was at. Plus I spent a lot of time in Toronto, Grimsby, St. Catherine's.

So I'm very familiar with it. But what is Canada? What is their connection to slavery? Is there ever a history of slavery of any sort in Canada? What's with all this guilt over these minorities coming in there? Over them coming in here recently, you mean? Like border hopping? I mean it all. I mean, in the U.S. they love to make us feel guilty here in the U.S. Right, right.

And it turns into this white flight and blacks go around and kick the shit out of people and they walk Scott free out of court like nothing happened. And when white people fight back, they incarcerate them. And they call that reparations.

And I'm just wondering what their justification for doing it. I'm sure there isn't one, but do they even have a leg to stand on there in Canada? Is there some history there? In this country, it's basically similar to New Zealand to some extent. Only in New Zealand, the country was established by people who were put into like penal servitude.

So they have that sort of moral high ground that mitigates the white guilt burden. Whereas in Canada, the guilt trip here is basically you took the land from the Indians or they were first nations. They were here before you, blah, blah.

Even though that's obviously easily disproven by Kennewick Man and Billy Roper's book, Paleo-American Ethnic Diversity. And I think John Benugent with his Solutrean hypothesis and various other people of that sort have easily have put forth plenty of evidence that we were here way before, even before the Vikings. If people look up the banned Mormon cartoon on YouTube, if it's still up there, it basically shows how white people were here first.

They welcomed the Redskins who came over from the land bridge from Siberia. And then the Redskins went around slaughtering and murdering most of the white population. So all those claims of there being first are basically illegitimate and counterfactual, easily disproven, but nobody is permitted to give voice to that.

So basically that's the whole guilt trip here is you took the land from the Indians, you're not allowed to live here. You should be thankful that you have what you have and you should feel guilty about building civilization out of the wilderness, even though you compensated the Redskins with rubies for land. And there are all sorts of warring tribes of different bands or different tribal groups of Redskins who fought amongst one another, some of them with the white settlers and some of them not.

And so, and yeah, much of the land didn't even really have too much in the way of Redskins on it because it's such a vast territory. So it's in a way similar to the claims that the Negroes are making in South Africa about their firstness by virtue of their being African. Somehow they have an entitlement to occupy this land.

And so too, in this country, they're making the same type of claim happen forever. Sorry, I hadn't heard that one before. Randall, have you heard that one before? Their firstness, the sense of entitlement? It's the first time for me.

It's very fitting. It's kind of like the chosen people. You got the chosen people, then you got the people that are part of the firstness.

In this country too, the Redskins are making all sorts of claims to have their little holy hoax. They have their own holy hoax here, which is that the Catholic church put, allegedly put some sort of typhus germs into blankets and gave them these blankets. And this apparently killed a couple of them, like I don't know how many, a couple hundred or whatever.

And so they use that sort of narrative, that victim narrative, so that they can portray themselves as wounded victims. And they have a moral claim on that basis of that false narrative that all white people are this evil Catholic church who owes them and so forth. So it's just the same standard issue.

Like you said, entitlement mentality, the victim morality, where white people are the perennial villain and anything that isn't white is necessarily by default a victim of evil white people. So basically, that's the main claim here in this country to browbeat white people. Also in BC, there's another claim, I think it is Chinese railroad workers.

There are like a few hundred of them, or I don't even know how many there were, but there are some Chinese railroad workers from the turn of the last century, and they apparently had a little hardship or something. And so that somehow entitled the Chinese to take over Vancouver and BC and set up basically a Chinese ethnostate on Canadian soil, which is basically a Trojan horse for the Chinese communists to invade the country, basically. And so there's that.

And then there's also, people know about David Suzuki, who is allegedly Japanese, but is actually probably Jewish. He's got wooly hair. Japanese people don't have wooly, frizzy hair, but straight hair.

So he's got all these Jewish traits, physionomical, biological traits. And his claim, he's like a spokesperson for environmentalism and for the Japanese community, that the Japanese were in internment camps during World War II, and therefore they're victims of white people, blah, blah. So that's another one of the whines in BC.

We need to try something like that here in the States. We can basically, because we need to try that here in the States. That'd be a good tactic to go after, basically saying that all the Germans, the Italians, and the Japanese that were in concentration camps during World War II, for no reason other than being US citizens here in this country.

Lay that guilt on thick. Guys, we've got a caller here. They may have a question for you, Loki.

I'm not sure it could be on topic or off, but anybody else that wants to speak, questions, concerns, gripes, twitches, or complaints, on topic or off, or if it's for Loki here in his situation, push one on your keypad and I'll bring you in. First, we got 248. 248, you're live.

Go ahead. Hello, hello. I'm listening, and man, what Loki's saying is, and the way he says it, well, he talk about food for thought, and about the Skrailings or the Red Skin Peoples not being here first.

That's correct. We were here, as he stated, about Kennewick, man. We were here way before them.

There were too many came over, then he started killing us. And one point I wonder if Loki's familiar with is, didn't ex-president, who was president at the time, Bill Clinton, have the Army Corps of Engineers in Washington State, after Kennewick, man, skeleton was taken out, put a whole bunch of rocks, concrete, and so forth to bury any more evidence of any more Kennewick men. Do you have any more info on that? Yeah, actually, there's this one guy who is an author and a publisher of books.

He says he's coming out with another one, with the one that is basically definitive proof about how we were here first. Yes. At the 55club.net, this is a website, he sells a lot of Odinist books.

And he and also I think Billy Roper in Paleo-American Ethnic Diversity also discussed that, how it was basically deliberately covered up the Kennewick man thing, and that there's all sorts of political debacle so that they could say, oh, it's so painful, just like a little holy hoax, oh, it's too painful to discuss the truth because of our emotions. So they fall back on that sort of fallacious argumentation, or it's not even argumentation, it's just, you know, trying to derail rational argumentation through emotionalizing. So basically, that even though you have the truth, you're not allowed to speak the truth, because the hegemonic narrative that they're putting forth, which is backed up by legal, whatever, legal impositions, or sort of encoded into the discourse of society, basically prohibits people from even discussing things just like the holy hoax.

So now all the non-whites are starting to come up with whatever sort of whines in their history, all around the world in all the white countries, as a sort of narrative that they can use for political leverage to try to insert themselves in white people's society with, you know, to justify their presence there, and then from there build up their ethnic communities as Trojan horses and basically try to take it over from within. I heard even in the States that they're building whole, like, walled cities or towns for the Muslims, that they're building, like, basically fortresses. That's what I had heard recently, somewhere in, I think, in the southern states, maybe, or somewhere like that, Virginia, maybe, I think.

Oh, here we have Dearborn. We have Dearborn, Michigan, which is, I'm right outside of Detroit. And yeah, yeah, and ironic.

The Jews did that. I'm pretty sure the Jews did that deliberately to curse Henry Ford, because that's their sort of, you know, psychopathic mentality, is to try to curse the Gentiles. So anytime one of the Gentiles does something that, you know, works against their interests, and they go out of their way to try to destroy them, like they did with Czar Nicholas, and with Henry Ford and Charles Lindbergh, and basically whomever else throughout history, they try to destroy or desecrate their memory.

Excellent analogy. Here we have, like, Dearborn, Michigan. It's heavy Muslim and Arabic.

My brother lives there, you know, just at the border of Detroit. I'm at the north border of Detroit. I can throw a rock and almost hit Detroit, you know, where I was raised up.

But the Muslims moved in there. They're not in walled communities, but they're breeding like flies. And it's your analogy with how they're destroying that, being, you know, Henry Ford's, you know, place of employment and what he's connected with.

And he had the International Jew, you know, the four volumes. I understand you got them when you purchased the Ford motor vehicle 19, 20, 21. Yeah, he put them into the glove compartment of every motor vehicle for free.

And the thing is, Henry Ford had designed the motor vehicle to run on gasohol, which doesn't pollute the environment. But the Rockefellers, whose real name is Rosenfelder, and are Jewish, just crypto Jews, they had forced them onto the usage of gas so that they could meter it because they controlled standard oil. So basically, their intention was, you know, to profit and monopolize things because he controlled the energy, had a monopoly on oil and gas.

And so, you know, all this babble about, oh, one less car, gotta stop people driving around in cars because it hurts Mother Gaia. The only thing that that is really, you know, to be laid at the feet of is not Henry Ford, but the Jews themselves, because they're the ones who forced him to get away from environmentalism in his invention, the car. Otherwise, the motor cars would have been, you know, doing nothing to harm the environment at all.

That's an interesting analogy. Top of the hour here. I think now would be a good time to go ahead and sneak in a quick break.

Randall, you good with that, brother? Yeah, that's fine with me. Okay. We'll take a few minute break here, commercial break.

Enjoy some of our Third Reich themed commercials. We'll be right back after these messages. Someone tells you white people are weak.

Have them tell it to your ancestors, the Romans. We stand at the dawn of Rome's birth. I'm announcing 14 days of games.

It'll be the greatest games that Rome has ever seen. Greatest games in our history. The Greeks.

Only Spartan women give birth to real men. And of course, Spartans have the reputation to consider. Insult my queen.

Threaten my people with slavery. And I'm the one chosen by what's carefully by the solution. I've done the same.

The Vikings. This is an SME. Pay them a visit.

Tell me where they're landing. It don't make sense. Just listen to them.

But Israel equals slavery. The Berlin-centered economy, which is currently collapsing, leaves us no other choice than to declare Bavarian independence. The state of Bavaria must separate from the rest of Germany and form its own nation.

You're saying... Of course, we are a different society. We are predominantly Catholic. We're all Germans.

Culturally, perhaps, there are similarities. But even then... What about possible? I'm talking about reality. Not a fairytale.

I'm talking about the purity of the German people. This is no fairytale. Who alone are responsible for the moral decadence that now riddles our society? The Jews! The Jews! Yes! Who call themselves Germans, but who are now, and who have always been, unwelcome, unwanted, and they are everywhere.

I have come here to chew bubblegum and kick ass. The following is George Lincoln Rockwell at Michigan State University in 1967. First, I became a conservative.

And I promptly became thoroughly and totally disenchanted and disgusted with conservatives. They are the most cowardly bunch of thinks that I have ever had to deal with. They're all busy calling me a communist now, so as to prove that they're not Nazis.

This is what the Birch Society says. This is what Haggis says. All these nicey-nicey sweetiepants are all busy saying, Don't go near him.

They're absolutely disgusting. So I gave up being a conservative. I said, I'm going to fight.

I'm going to tell the truth, the whole truth. Every bit of it I know. And I have been.

And ever since then, in spite of the toughness of the fight, I have been winning some of the most wonderful people I've ever met. People who are no cowards. People who are no hypocrites.

Our country is drowning in hypocrisy and cowards. Now, will you tell me how a cowardly, hypocritical conservative who says, I love Jews and Negroes are my best friends. How is he going to save his country from hypocrisy doing that? So I became a Nazi because I found out what a Nazi is.

A Nazi is a man who believes in the white race above all things. Adolf Hitler said the white race is a master race. That doesn't mean we have to persecute anybody else, but it means we've got to keep our own country white.

If Israel is a Jewish country and has the right to be Jewish, if Ghana is a black country and has the right to be black, why don't we have the right to keep a white country white? And Christian, how long do you people think you'd last if you went over there to Israel and campaigned in the Jewish schools in Israel against singing Jewish songs? And yet they're over here campaigning against us singing Christmas carols in ours. And in school after school, state after school, they get them stopped. They won't tolerate it, but we must.

I'm just simply saying, Italy and Germany, they whipped communism and got rid of it. And to do it, of course, they had a little difficulty with the Jews. Because the minute you go after communists, you're going to run into the Jews, which is why the Birch Society, it's like saying you love to go swimming, but you hate swimming.

The future of the German people is at stake. If we ourselves, this German people, carry out our own work, our own dreams, our own independence, our own pride, our own freedom, when will we again be able to stand up, just like the fathers once did, not to raise money for Germany, but to fight for it ourselves? The NSM will not tolerate any suggestions of violence or racial epithets on our shows, but due to the controversial nature of our program, listener discretion is advised. You there, brother? Yeah. All right. Hello.

Good to have you. Yeah. Good to be on.

Yeah, of course, as always, Matt's with us. Commander's joining. It's always nice to have Commander on.

He makes any show interesting. Yeah, I've been called a lot of things interesting, but I appreciate it. Well, I quite enjoy it.

I get a kick out of it. Other people get a little pissed off. We got another caller whenever you're ready to bring them in.

434, they're with you as well. Heads up. Okay, we'll go ahead and bring them on.

All right. 434, you're live. Go ahead.

Hey, am I here? You're here. Hello. All right, sweet.

Hey, Burt, Commander, I talked to you earlier. I just wanted to say how great this media thing has been so far. And this is my first time listening in.

So yeah, it's been great. Thanks for tuning in. We have some fun around here.

Hold on. Hold on. You can take me off live.

Okay, we'll come back to you. All right, calling in. I can bring in 248 as well.

They were speaking to Loki earlier, if you like. Go ahead and lead on him, Randall. Okay.

Well, we'll go ahead and bring him back in to make sure that he wants to add. All right. 248 here.

Randall, Matt, Loki, and 248. You guys are all live. Hey, 248.

Just call me Big Ken. My name's Ken. I'm honored to talk to you, gentlemen.

Feel just like I do. And I'm glad, great, we have this ability to express ourselves. Considering how hard it is with the media and whatnot.

And some of us get together to talk, express our views and so forth. Yeah. Well, nowadays, when we get together, it's almost like they did the mafia.

There's always a large FBI present. Yeah. I've been involved in the white separatist cause, whatever you want to call it, since 1982.

And belong to different groups. It's generally how you feel inside. But I've just seen so many things happen over the years.

Fort Smith, Arkansas with Pastor Butler and Miles back then in 87. Let's see. And then Matt Hale, POW, and Dennis Mahan, another POW.

I don't know if he's still alive. I haven't got a letter from him in a while. And Richard Scatari from the old order days.

I may be giving away my age here by saying stuff. Yeah, I used to be a POW, C.R. Bird. Oh, okay.

He passed on, didn't he? Yeah, about three years now, I think. I think it was two or three years. I believe it was liver cancer that got him.

Okay. The order members were older than me. Cause I remember I was connected with, oh man, my goodness.

Way back, white patriot party days. I had to get the war newspaper, the truth at last and all that. And connected with the national alliance and the order had their time.

They fought for us and they wound up locked up. Some had passed on inside and some had got paroled. And the only address I have for when I write is Richard Scatari out of California.

David Tate is still around. I know Gary's a widow, Susan. She still has all the information.

If I'm not mistaken, you still find out how to write the who's left at David Lane. I could tell you how to write them. It's David Lane, Davidlane48.net. I'll get a contact.

Oh, okay. Thank you. The funny thing is, you know, it isn't my age that stops me.

I just never, I don't have computer skills. So, Commander Burt sent me, he'll send me a text and then I'll call the number and I'll push one and I'm here talking to you guys. Who knows one day I might get online.

And my son being 34 years old, he knows all about that. And what I want to do, I got a pen in my hand. I want to write how to contact, you know, that former website you had said.

Let me get my pen handy here. And I like to write besides Richard Scatari, the other two, David Tate and, let me see, David Tate. And I don't know, how would I get their address? You said there was a dot com.

Davidlane1488.com. I don't know, if I just type into Google, it automatically comes up for me. Oh, just Google it then. Because I know it's .net too.

They have a .net address also. Yeah, it also has all David's writings on it too. Any literature that any of them has written, you can find it on that website too.

Okay. My son looks up all this stuff on his smartphone, but he has a laptop computer and I know people that have home computers. If I could look up all that stuff, if I had a computer, I'd probably gain 25 pounds sitting my butt in the chair looking it up.

As of now, I'm living in a trailer that's just filled with old literature. A buddy of ours, his roommate died. She was in the cause about four and a half years ago.

He said, you got to clean my trailer out. The guy's about almost 400 pounds, so he's not going to do it. I saved all these old publication periodicals from getting tossed in a dumpster.

They didn't even have a dumpster there. You should scan them and then put them on a website for people, or get somebody to do the scanning for you. Yeah, I wish my son could step up for that because I got like nine boxes of American free press spotlights.

I got some old wars, a few copies of the old resistance records magazines. Doubles, of course. Yeah, and I would sell the extras because I'm in a nine foot by 50 foot trailer, and I'm knocking stuff all over the place trying to walk through here.

I'm never going to get rid of this stuff. You could sell them on a website. Sell PDFs for like a buck each or something like that.

You could make yourself some money. You said PDFs? Yeah, using a scanner and you scan them into a document and then it becomes a PDF file. You can just put them on a website and sell them to people for a buck each.

Yeah, I would put the money in. I'd send a donation to the NSM. I'd send a donation to Carl Hand's group who has the white Christmas drive, if you're all familiar with that, and stuff like that.

I'd save some money to get my grandkids out of here because we're too close to Detroit, and it's getting darker and darker and more dangerous all surrounding us. I'm sure you guys- I remember seeing on YouTube a video of some- Turn some lights on. I don't know if the NSM did.

We marched through there. Yeah, we put some sunwheels up there in that town. Didn't we, Randall? Yeah, we sure did.

Hey, I don't want to cut you guys off, but we got 434. He got his audio problems squared away, and he's out there standing in the freezing cold trying to get in here, so I'm going to bring him in real quick. 434, are you there? Yeah, I'm here, man.

Okay, what was it that you wanted to bring to the table, brother? You got something good for us? Yeah, well, I just wanted to tell a little story I had about my time working at McDonald's for a little bit. Okay, this should be interesting. Anytime it's McDonald's in Florida that starts with, it's usually pretty interesting.

Go ahead. It wasn't a McDonald's in Florida. It was a McDonald's in Virginia, and- No, I'm saying if it's any combination of those two, though.

Either the words Florida or McDonald's are in it, it's usually going to be some good shit, but go ahead. Well, I was working there for about a couple hours, and I met some really nice- well, people who I thought were really nice. And I'm just going to- well, they weren't.

They seemed nice at first. And then they decided to- I don't know how to say it, but how else to say it other than this. I went out to go have a cigarette, and this was when they had just raised the law in Virginia that I can't- and fucking Jews or whatever, whoever did that- All right, before we go any further, those are- we've got three words that we're not allowed to say.

You just said two of them. The other one is for the people south of the border. Anything else goes on the platform, but the platform has strict rules against that.

I don't care if you call it- I apologize deeply. I don't care. No, I'm just letting you know.

It's okay. You probably didn't catch the disclaimer. It's not us.

I actually don't have a problem with it, but the platform does not allow it. Gotcha, I recognize. Yeah, go ahead.

All right, so basically, I ended up getting fired and bitched out by a woman of color who-she just started screaming at me. She just approached me and started screaming at me, like, you don't curse out no old woman! And I walk in there, and it was a woman who is Jewish, and she had lied to this black woman saying that I had cursed her out in private, which I don't know how that works out, because if you've been to the McDonald's where I'm at, there's no room to, like, curse somebody out, you know? You know what I mean? Whoa. Like, there's no, there's no, there's no, like, uh, there's no, like, uh- It's like they ganged up on me, you know? That's how it feels.

Was there Big Mac Kosher? So, so it was a chimpanzee. Was there Big Mac Kosher? Go ahead, go ahead. Basically, the Jews can do whatever they want and get away with it, because they're obviously a privileged group.

The same thing happened to me in another city. I was actually struck by a vehicle driven by a rich Jew. I was on a bike.

I had grocery bags on each handlebar, and the Jew saw me, and she accelerated the vehicle at me, struck me, knocked me off the bike. It was on camera. I had a witness.

I called the police. I was going to charge her with vehicular assault. I said, I want to lay assault charges against this person.

And then they said, oh, yeah, we'll look at it. Of course, these officers weren't white. Then I went back to my place, and I got a call from the sergeant, and he said, oh, yeah, sorry, but, uh, you know, no harm done, blah, blah, blah.

So I said, well, you must be a freemason or something like that, because you're running cover for your Jewish master. And he said- Oh, what are you doing using- That's like that. And then, uh, so he's just like, oh, I think we're done here.

And then that was the end. They can basically do whatever they want to you with impunity. And that's the same thing that happened to me in this case here.

Uh, I had actually attempted suicide after this, because I was so tired of, uh, this horrible society that I had to live in. So then I slashed my wrist, and I was, uh, taken by the ambulance. When, uh, when the police came, one of them was a Filipino, and he basically said, oh, that's not how you commit suicide.

You do it like this. He showed me, you know, a different way, uh, a different part of the anatomy. Wow.

And he actually wanted to encourage me to kill myself. And then from there, I was, yeah, I was taken to the hospital. And who did I see there? Number one, there was, uh, Jewish nurses around there babbling and trying to, you know, slander me, bragging about their vacation stuff and insulting me.

Jewish security guards. Then I go and get a Jewish psychiatric nurse who says, uh, oh, you never know what's going to be on the other side, you know? You know, trying to encourage me to kill myself again. And then there's another Jewish psychiatric, uh, psychiatrist.

And she, uh, she says, I tell her, I don't, I don't hate Jews. I don't have any hatred of Jews. And then what do I find? Uh, later in the report, uh, Loki discussed how he, his hatred of Jews.

That's like a verbatim quote from her. And then what did she do? She just, she just, she didn't put me on a suicide watch. She just let me go right away.

And I was telling her, like, if I go to jail, I'm just going to starve myself to death. I don't want to be, uh, you know, I don't want to have to go through an ordeal of that sort. And so, in other words, she just let me go without, uh, putting me on suicide watch or anything else.

So I, I put a, I lodged a formal complaint against her. And then in the, you know, just recently I find in the disclosure, oh, look, looks like I was, uh, telling about my hatred of Jews, apparently, even though I explicitly stated that I didn't hate Jews. So they wrenched it from context and put it in the paper there.

I agree. Yeah. So it's basically just more of the same, uh, twist and version fact reality that they always play their little mendacious games all the time.

And that's basically the general, the general stories that I've encountered. Yeah. The same old, I'm a victim.

You know, the Jew cries that they're a victim when they're stabbing you. Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah. So basically that's, uh, one of the incidents that happened here.

I did a journaling of the last year of all the little incidents that happened to me. Dealing with how they're always trying to throw stumbling blocks in my path. And I was trying to screw me over all sorts of sneaky little games that they're playing here.

So it's just an end. Hey, one question. Loki, uh, one question.

Uh, okay. Uh, I know there's Jews connected with the psychiatry thing, the big scam, because they invented it and they exploit it. But I was getting a publication from Dr. Ed Fields out of Marietta, Georgia.

He says they don't really have Jewish nurses where they, uh, you'll never find one because they have to touch people. And it's just not their cup of tea. Did you actually have medical Jewish nurses there? Yep.

Yeah, I've seen a couple of them. I guess to them, it's just, you know, they can get off on injecting poison into people. Another reason in my life earlier, I had some red skin nurse, uh, you know, she was like, seemed to be sort of filled with this perverse delight when she gave me a, uh, one of those vaccinations at the time.

I didn't know about the evils of vaccination. They have an evil, vengeful, uh, personality to the red skins around this country. They're all sort of like backstabbing, uh, evil types of creatures, you know, always trying to throw you through, throw you into trouble.

Like you said before, when you were making comments about the red skins, Hey, uh, uh, Custer had, uh, Crow Scouts that hated the Sioux and went against him. I think the Northern Cheyenne had a problem with the Rikara. They were slaughtering each other before, uh, uh, we had so many, uh, uh, whites, uh, coming over here back again after they slaughtered us thousands of years ago.

And, uh, yeah, they have the problem. So now they're all supposedly united. Yeah.

Yeah. You made some good points on that. That's the claim that they make that they're all a united group.

But, uh, if the white people just evaporated, they would be cutting each other's throats and scalps and cutting each other's horrible tortures. Like the, yeah, exactly. I think Thomas Goodrich wrote a book.

Thomas Goodrich wrote a book called scalp dance recently, which was basically demonstrating how the red skins basically tortured each other and the rival tribes, you know, poking like burning hot brands and piling each other with these burning hot brands. And, you know, it's trying to get as much pain as they possibly could to feed their pain. God, Augie was apparently worshiped.

Yeah. Pain God called Augie, the pain God. Yeah.

Basically most of their whole culture, just like most of the non-whites, their culture is based on, uh, sort of like a, uh, demonic, uh, I don't know what, uh, propitiation or invocation of like demons. You know how Africans, they have their voodoo, they have biting the heads off chickens, Obia and Wonga. It's the same thing.

Yeah. It's the same thing with a red skin. They're basically, they like to portray themselves as some sort of, you know, very spiritual superior beings, but all of their so-called spirituality is basically just, uh, demonology or whatever you care to call it.

It's a diabolic. Uh, right. Uh, good point.

Another thing, it's like, here's a bunch of stone age savages, savages. They never invented the wheel. I don't think they had anything made out of metal till, till the whites, we came back here.

They didn't, uh, you'll see, uh, you know, in certain places, white people, they're a little confused. You'll see the picture of the Indian chief on the horse in their house. I said, Hey, you people are part Indian.

Oh yeah. You look whiter than John boy, Walton and Marsha Brady knocked that off. And then, uh, they got the Indian chief on the horse.

First of all, very few of them had the war bonnet. All they had was a stupid feather. So the Spaniards introduced, uh, uh, horses here.

All they did was walk around and probably dead animal carcasses and a little hunt. And they never accomplished for that. That's basically all they had.

It was a little pony for the Spaniards introduced the horses. They're always regardless of the time. You can't change biology is because you slap a suit on a monkey.

Does it make it anything other than a monkey in a monkey suit? Where in the hell is the purge? When we need him, isn't purge the expert on this shit? Yeah. Well, I thought he was, but we put the chain out there. That usually reels them right in.

I should get some more examples about the red skins in Canada, uh, where I was living in a city called Winnipeg. Everybody probably knows where that is. It's like an exact geographical center of Canada.

And that's sort of like a red skin stronghold. There's large, a large portion of them there. I think it's about 25% of the population is red skin.

And, uh, last I was there, I was trying to get an apartment. They were running some type of social service bureaucracy. I didn't have a job at the time, but I had enough money to pay off.

But they wouldn't give me a, you know, housing at all. So they were like trying to throw me in the streets. And then I said, Hey, what's why, why are you doing this? Is it paying for it? And then right away they start getting all aggressive, uh, trying to almost like physically assault me, uh, and throw me out there.

But eventually I got a ghetto apartment right in the downtown across from my old university there. And who, what happened just before that people had been hacked to death by machetes. Uh, one on one side of my apartment, there was a red skin drug dealer on the other side.

There was another red skin drug dealer, uh, just outside of the window in a house. There was like a bunch of faggot red skins that were going through all sorts of people, uh, involved in their faggotry. And they were staring at me when I was having a bath and stuff, hooting and hollering, trying to invite me to their like race orgy.

And then underneath there, they had a mixed race couple, some dumpy, uh, so-called Christian white guy with his Filipino, his Filipino, uh, Oriental there. And they were all pestering me and bothering me. And then right next door, there was like, uh, the red drug dealer had their little chill in there.

Uh, they're brave. They're, they were puffing away on weed, dealing drugs of the place. It was like a, some type of drug den.

So they're hanging around outside the window screeching, shouting all the time. And I get pissed off cause I'm trying to write. And, uh, so I take a cup of water and I fling it out the window at them.

And then I hear this like shrieking, uh, sound from the red skin. And she, uh, she calls the police on me. Then, uh, the police come to the apartment, uh, a Negro and his, uh, Jewish superior, uh, police officer.

And they're scrounging around in my place and, uh, they're trying to pump me for information talking about the assassination of Paula Tate and stuff, trying to find out if I was going to do that. Cause I guess it might've been that city for me distributing some propaganda and stuff there too. Uh, so yeah, they're basically trying to scout on me and stuff.

Next door, the other red skin, he's like, uh, I'm like telling him, could you please not, you know, play super loud music late at night. I'm trying to go to sleep. And then this guy's like getting a hammer, trying to rush at me and stuff like this.

But then he eventually gets arrested, carted off to jail. So here I am trying to walk around the downtown, uh, you know, at night and I've got a police helicopter in that city following me all around into the trendy area where I was trying to get away from all the, uh, you know, dirty savages. Then I'm seeing a Negro running a convenience store, pimping young white girls out of there.

So yeah, definitely a sad scenario. And you see all these, uh, all these upper class white people are giving these, uh, savages free, free this, free that. Here's your government grants.

Here's your free convenience store. And yet they're running. What's that? Do they get casinos too? Like they do here? The reds do, but this in this case was like a drill.

And I've seen this on multiple occasions. They have their free convenience store and they're turning it into a drug den, you know, like a, a business drug business. And then they've got a prostitution ring running and so forth.

They're prostituting. Yeah, pretty much that whole city is, uh, you know, just another sign of the decay of this society. Of course, the city is run totally by by the Asper family, the diamond family, people who are in one of the major.

Yep. Go ahead. Hey, I've got, uh, well, actually two things.

Uh, got a joke. Um, you want to hear it? Go ahead. A black man walks into a store and buy something.

All right, here we go. That's funny. I got another caller here.

Two, three, nine. I'm going to bring them in two, three, nine. Go ahead.

You're live. Hey, how am I? Fine. Fitted friends doing? Oh, you sound like the guy that was on the thing.

Two, three nights ago. Yeah, that's right. You remember? How's it going, bud? Yeah.

You were talking about Southwest Florida. That's right. We're flying high.

That's good around. I had a dream about Trump. It wasn't sexual.

After he got re after he got reelected, he turned on the Jews and we all went. Yeah, that'd be awesome. Huh? I always get the truck out and get the get the Jews out of circulation, install national socialism.

That would be cool if Trump became like this dictator. We had statues of himself like Joseph Stalin or Idi Amin all around the United States. He got rid of the media and slowly made this country.

Yeah. You know, why you're in a breed of the media is the enemy enemy of the people. I wonder what he was really trying to say.

Yeah, the Jews are the enemy of the people of all races. Maybe not. I don't know.

Yeah, he's in the tank. He could he might be a front man for all I know. Yeah, I got in on you.

Go ahead. Yeah, I could be. Yeah, yeah, I'm sorry.

Go ahead with a D and an F. D on the front and an F on the back. Trump. I can tell you like that's that's his real name.

He's real Jewish man. He's not a Jew. Not not by maybe excuse me.

Let me rephrase that. Maybe in his mind and his soul and his heart. He's a Jew, but I don't know if he is.

If he's a Jew, physically, biologically, he doesn't really look Jewish. But at the same time, he's got sort of like weird colored skin, even if it's a town. It's sort of the way Jews can.

They always have a sort of off colored look. It's not really the same sort of coloration in their skin. Okay, I always noticed the Jews have skin like a banana peel.

Yeah, sort of like a grody corpse like look. He's always making those those those free meals too. Hey, Bernie Sanders, Bernie Sanders, you know what he wants to do? He wants to go to Africa on our taxpayer money and do a boy, millions of black babies.

All right. And and then, you know, he's going to do he's going to make a killing in the stem cell. The stem cell thing.

He's going to make a billionaire out of him. That's his plan by Sanders. No, he's the worst.

He's so evil, man. He's the worst of the Jews that look, you know, that look, the Jews that have that look like Bernie, they're the worst. They're the devil.

Or like a little bit like Larry Finer, the three stooges in their physical appearance. Those people are scary, you know, and they don't play. You guys heard about that book called How to Recognize a Jew, right? How to Recognize and Identify a Jew.

It's a handbook. That's a good handbook for understanding the physiognomy of Jews. How to Recognize and Identify a Jew by John Doe Goy.

You type that in. That'll give you like a 60 page rundown of all the minute particulars. Yeah, but I hate to say this, but some of them are Aryan looking.

Not that much. They're all in a mixed group, but at the same time, they still have generalizable features. You know, you can detect certain qualities and features of theirs.

Yeah, Bernie Sanders is a typical stereotype. And most dangerous. I'm glad he had that heart attack.

He maybe saved, he bought us our country some time. And the other guy died. That black guy died.

Cummings, that was a godsend. So, you know, give us some background on him. Forget about Cummings.

Refresh us on that. Who Cummings was, I forget. He's dead.

He's a black congressman. Oh, big, big, big race. Big race beta.

Yeah, okay. Big twice. He was the strength here on the impeachment trial.

He was basically the head of it. All right. Yeah, it's starting to come back now.

So maybe there's hope for us. I think we're an endangered species, indeed. Yeah, yeah.

My son, Mom, I got five grandchildren, which is good. I like to raise them out in the country because we're too damn close to Detroit. One of the kids' granddaughters is in Kentucky.

One is in Tennessee. And if they're in the country, that's good. The other three grandchildren are up here, and we're too damn close to Detroit.

It looks like it's a shame that isn't a shame. We have to resort to going into the freaking woods. Yeah, it's crazy.

It's really not. I mean, I live in the mountain here in Kentucky, and the Mexicans are absolutely flooding the place. Really? How about Bowling Green, Kentucky? That's on the western.

I'm on the eastern side of Kentucky. Okay, by like Pikeville? Yeah, yeah. I grew up in Pikeville, and I live about 40 minutes north of Pikeville now in a town called Paintsville.

We've got a population of about 600 now. Oh, there's three. Well, no, I'm sorry.

There's four Mexican restaurants in this small-ass town. There's no yeast, but now there's more methamphetamine than you'd shuck a stick at now after all these things. I understand.

Well, yeah, you know who's behind that, of course. All these drugs flooding. You know who's behind that, right? Exactly.

I mean, it's obvious as it can be. And every gas station we've got now, Arabs have took it over, and now they're buying automobiles. Yeah, because the government's giving them free grants to set up to buy businesses here.

That's why. That's like here. We talked about that on another show, yeah.

We're getting a screw job. We're getting screwed, man. Oh, my God.

You know what? Hey, I looked up— I looked up— Go ahead. I was just going to say it's their policy globally to just sort of take the shit and smear it as thickly as they can over all of the white bread, basically, so that the whole of the sandwich becomes a shit sandwich. And then it becomes like a Trojan horse.

All of these gas stations, mosques, Sikh temples, Chinese community centers, every one of those is basically like a terrorist organization that they're just using to consolidate their power. And then when the Jews give the signal, then— And you know what the worst thing, you know what the sickest thing is? They got white people hating white people now. Oh, the anti-white white.

So, you know, I know people, and they go, I go, don't you want to have— make babies with a— I don't know if it was a white woman or a white guy. It was a white woman. Don't you want to make babies with a white man, you know, so the kids will come out looking like you? Oh, it don't matter no more.

I came up with some, like, lame explanation, like— She watches a lot of TV, I guess. Oh, don't worry about it. Let things go, you know.

Just go with the flow. If they want to have babies with a black, it's fine. As long as they're happy.

The attitude, like, what? Like they're on drugs. Basically, most of the women are brainwashed at this time because they're so emotional, and it's their natural tendency to be emotional more so than rational. Then the— Yeah, you know why they're brainwashed? Because of the education— the education system in this country is all run by, you know, liberal— Yeah, communist, liberal— Yeah, they hit them up in grade school now, and then college is just a finishing course for communists, you know? And, hey, buddy there from Kentucky, my mom's people come out of Pikeville, my father's people come across the border from West Virginia, you know, they moved all around.

But going down there in the 60s and 70s just to visit some old kinfolk, which, who knows who's alive? That area was white, Appalachian, Scots, Irish, Germanic, and you're telling me what you're telling me, and I'm ready to go to the beer store now. You should come down here to southwest Florida. There's a lot of us down here, but, you know, they're still kind of sleepy, you know? But at least we're cut out of the same cloth, you know? That's what keeps us sane.

Hey, you know what? Wait, wait. I'll bet white girls get picked up by these black guys and shoot down and shoot free babies. Oh, they're going to feel sorry, because now when they go to the family reunions, everybody— they're going to feel, like, left out, because they're going to be the only white person.

Oh, that sounds not good. You'll be sorry. Yeah, over here, we've got potatoes for the Irish side of the family.

We've got pasta for the Italians and pretty much everything else that's white over here. And, hey, if you guys want stuff for your side of the family, the KFC and the watermelon is located over on the table over there. It's like the candy store, you know? The old candy store.

You go in there, it was all white chocolate. Now you've got this variety over here. You've got that variety over there.

Hey, I want to— before I forget, the main reason why I called was I looked up the 109 countries that they expelled the Jewish people out of, and they were all from Europe, except for one country. Guess what it was. You won't believe this.

No, it was Russia. I thought they were— I don't believe it. That's hard to believe.

They kicked them out in 1392. Well, they must have found their way back there sometime between then and World War II. Yeah, the K's are— Hey, can I ask you a question? Do you think Putin's in with Israel and the Jews or not? Putin is a Jew.

His mother is a Jew by Halakhic laws. That makes— I've seen his family— I heard otherwise. I heard otherwise.

His mother was a Christian. Dichotomy here. Once again, it's just like their game.

They have the right-wing, left-wing type dichotomy, then they set it up to set up a world war. My belief is that they're just basically portraying Putin as an enemy so that they can create that dialectic and bring it to America versus China and Russia. Yeah, it's all fake.

Okay, it's all fake. Yeah, I get it. Well, let's take a look at what we know here about the Russians, guys.

What do we know today? We know in the past, especially during World War II, they were communists. Clearly. I mean, they wrote the whole fucking handbook for communism, essentially, with Lenin and the Bolsheviks and taking out the Romanovs and everything else.

But you fast forward to today and look at where us Americans have to go just to be able to talk on fucking social network. We've got to go to VK. Good point.

You've got to go where? We've got to go to VK because we try to post what we want to post on American sites like Facebook, Facebook or Twitter. I call it Twatter. Yeah, I hate to sound like a dumbbell, but what's VK? Well, a lot of people in America don't know what it is.

It's a Russian word. I think it's V Kontakte or something like that. It's short for, I'll call it VK for short, but it's Russia's version of Facebook.

It's a Facebook clone is what it is, but it doesn't have all the rules and stipulations. So short of making death threats on there, you can pretty much go on there and say what you want to say. I bet we've had so many Jews try to oust us.

We're actually broadcasting on VK on my page right now. If you, if you go to my page on VK, I'm live streaming this whole show right now. You'll see a picture of my talking head on there.

So what? All right. So I'm asking you this question, Commander, is Russia, does that mean they're an ally of us or what? What's the bottom line? They're not, at the very least, they're not totally against it because they would have shut this down a long time ago. And it seems to me like Russia is one of the few nationalist countries left out there.

I think at one time they were, and I mean, the fall of communism, I think the, you know, it'd be easy to say that, you know, they killed Germans and Nazi Germany and Russia were enemies and yada, yada, yada. But I'm not getting that feeling from them at all. It seems like the tables have turned substantially and it's pretty sad when we've got to go to their sites just to be able to exercise our first amendments because we've got a bunch of communists here.

Right. I read about that site. It was in AFP.

They did expel them in 1392. They had good reason to. Hey, nobody talks about the case and a very important subject there.

Like everybody's thinking like Jews from the Bible and all that crap providing. And my friend, it's the Wall Street Journal. That's the Bible.

There you go. And I studied his case or thing and I look at some of these Jews, they got them around big ass heads and they look like Turks, like a Turkish guy. And they're in the big time.

They're in the big time baby killing business for the stem cell. It's big money in that. Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah.

They're basically, they're basically just consuming them themselves in local communities. They probably consume the aborted fetuses and what they don't oh my god They're probably using them for delicacies. Yeah, they probably cook them up and they eat the dead fetuses.

Oh God Yeah Yeah You do that they torture the person the Jewish ritual murders and then they you know Torture them horribly so that they can pump out adrenaline and then they obviously go further and extract it for themselves But the blood banks too. I'm pretty sure most of those are so they can the blood of white people They got us they use us Aryan warriors for their Their mules to go out and do their dirty work do all the killing. Oh, yeah Most of your best soldier in the United States the Aryans.

Yeah The books aren't Jewish ritual murderers pretty much goes into some of that But you do you guys just gave your screw about three more turns. That's pretty interesting. Have you guys ever seen a kosher slaughter before? I heard they take chickens over there and they break their necks over their shoulders.

I heard they do that. Go check out one of those pull them up on YouTube. I'm pretty sure that stuff is okay to play on there and you'll see how horrific.

Oh, sorry, they depict that in them in the movie the eternal Jew the National Socialist movie right at the end that kosher slaughter Where they cut the cow's throat and they don't stand it first. Yeah, they let it bleed out. They're a bunch of sick fucks is what they are, you know Then they sit there and Hitler comes out with laws against stuff like that and he's the evil.

That stuff is disgusting, you know, I mean, it's a... I think it was about the Aryan die. I heard that 70% of abortionists were Jews. Even Hitler was afraid of those people.

Yeah, I heard 70% of abortionists are Jews. This is some older stuff. And 90% or more of the people getting abortions to women are white.

That's just total destruction of the white race by Heimlich. But at the same time though, most of those white women wouldn't be very good mothers if they're just gonna toss their children to... Not to say they don't support abortion, no. Yeah, I'm wondering if adoption is something, but you never know if the Jews are running adoption stuff like a pedophile ring, you know.

Yeah, they are too. They basically adopt gentile children. They basically subject them to whatever.

Maybe sell them on the slave market as well because they obviously run international slavery. Yeah, like the Ipstin guy. I think they are the king of bad, you know.

I know there's... They're not good. There's gentiles and... Guys, I need you to check your background. If anybody's on a speaker, we're getting some massive feedback on here.

I'm gonna have to start cutting lines. Yeah, that could be mine. I can get echoing now and then.

Right, that was me, I think. We've got a computer in the background. Please mute it because it's feeding back.

I'll have to drop the call. No, it's just my phone. Okay, I don't hear it anymore.

Is it mine? Yeah, it sounds better now. Yeah, you know, I don't want to... What's going to get on there, but I think Aryans do dirty deeds too, alright? Nothing like the Jews. Nothing like them.

Yeah, they're on the floor. We don't have a tell me. I'm just going to be sarcastic and say I've got to tip my hat to them.

Well, I mean... They've got so much power in that media. Oh my God, that media is so powerful. Go check out the Orthodox... What is that, that thing where they... The Orthodox Jews, they give them a circumcision there.

Put their mouth right on the penis of the small Jewish baby. They even have a specific name for the person who does that called the mohel. You know what they say when I call people out on that? You know what they say about that? They say, oh, those are called rwanada and africa light up on the mouse like what the fuck is rwanada i thought i was like i like to think of is that that movie black panther you know what where were they all from the chimps in that movie uh i can't even think of the name of it i never actually watched the movie but i heard all because i know all the black guys were going around saying yeah that's where i'm from i'm from there and it wasn't even a real place it was like a fictitious place but they were saying all their relatives were there from there oh yeah leave it to them well i mean this this insecurity shit like that you know kills me and that's why halloween i'm planning on going out on fully in some units just to see how many shocks and all if i can get yeah they probably won't know what the fuck to think when they see you no uh i mean that's playing what uh what we're going to do for halloween we're going to walk street in uniform and uh i want to have a handful of flyers with anybody wants to have a conversation i'll do a flyer was it wakanda yeah that's it wakanda was the name of the town i had to look it up saw all these fine fine young jerry curl brothers go around saying no my family is from wakanda and i guess in the movie was my understanding that this was some great big technology thing or something but they had all this this technology that doesn't exist today and probably never will but supposedly the blacks invented it and uh yeah yeah these motherfuckers don't even know who the hell their father is for christ they tell me that they know what country oh yeah i'm from wakanda fuck out of here it's not even not even a real place i'm going to use that saying in one of our events or maybe in one of the interviews give a white man a pile of bricks they'll give you a city give a black man a city he'll give you a pile of bricks exactly yeah that should be one for a chance that'll be pretty good it's kind of long but yeah yeah it's kind of long but yeah but it's still draw a lot of attention so it's a fact i mean you go to the black part of town and it looks like hell you go to the white part of town it looks beautiful i mean it's common sense they like to destroy everything they touch for sure yeah and if you say if you say anything about it you say you don't want in your neighborhood the jews will call you a racist yeah i mean i don't know what's worse about it the fact that the jews and the blacks are pulling this shit or the white people are dumb enough to care that they're doing it this is what it blows my mind they come into my neighborhood or any in places i live and they come in and say hey you know your your shit over there your house is too clean your your grass is too green that's racist you're gonna have to do something about that i'm gonna look at them you know what you've been smoking get off my fucking yard sambo yeah well that's why you need some rock salt and 12 gauge for them i don't know they've they've got different uh what they call that different anatomies than what we've got so you know with rock salt the fuckers are liable to melt like battery acid or something who the hell knows i want to talk about all all that we have in common but we're so we're so obtuse i guess the word speaking in terms of geometry so opposite well the world we live in is definitely upside down and inside out no it's good that people are really beginning to realize that's important i was beginning to wonder there for a lot of years i was like is everybody this fucking stupid well it's it's so sad so many still are and it means even attempt to try to tell them and you know clue them in what's happening they explode with a rage and where does that come from is that something that you know the jews have put in there secretly to hypnotize them to come at you with rage like that when you try to open their eyes i've had to listen to more assholes over the years with their bullshit people who think they know everything and they couldn't find their assholes with both hands and a flashlight after 9-11 happened i had to listen all these stupid people out there oh it's not all muslims it's just the extremists and uh from 9-11 that muslim islam is a religion of peace now here it is fast forward five ten years later and oh they're all child molesters they're all a bunch of terrorists well jesus christ i tried to tell you that back in 2001 but you could hammer nails with your fucking heads yeah i mean the masses are a strange animal i i mean it it's funny how they react it's like you know they're on the short bus no i give up trying you know i let i'm the kind of person to wear when i see a white person out there getting their ass kicked i'll let them get their ass kicked fuck them oh how do you feel about your equality now let him get punched the face by a black guy a couple more times yeah keep on and still still into that diversity there buddy i'm gonna break your nose too how do you feel about that equality yeah give him a t-shirt video i bought in a diversity i don't think i got this black ass this broken nose got my mud shark sunglasses so what matt do you fall asleep on us over there uh i was me i was in for a minute oh okay well what do you guys want to do we got 45 minutes left you want to bring in we've got uh two callers that have already spoke uh got a bunch of callers left on the board anybody want to comment questions concerns gripes bitches complaints push one on your keypad i'll bring you in right away board's clear everybody who wants to speak has already spoken and one of them just dropped off so we got two four eight and oh got one on your neck of the woods this one of your relatives randall 606 might be hello how you doing i'm doing well randall how are you feeling pretty good yeah i just want to be boys or not i've been listening to everything going and i agree wholeheartedly hammer there and sitting out here a few minutes ago when i walk out in the morning and just what's out there and public me off anymore um everything's you know sort of like the damn jesus all took over and panned everything on their way but um i figured i'd call and say how do you guys good anyway yeah we're just hammering it out it's not you know trying to hope that we might you know uh save our race from extinction but you know uh we need a spot area out there on board so uh like i've asked many times before so when are you going to join yeah yeah and i know i've been coming back settle on that it's going to take more than a caller when everybody's going to save our race oh yeah you know it's just it's just you know just every time i go outside pissed off about i can't even go to the grocery store if i get pissed off you know this race trader this i don't know but uh i didn't want to keep you guys too nervous once i say hello i really enjoyed the show i listen to it all night so i don't jump in much but um every time you guys are on the ferry over i appreciate it yeah we gotta get together soon catch up yes we do randall uh actually uh the gentleman i was speaking to you about earlier today yeah uh i'm thinking about going to have a lunch with him so somewhere around that time you can be available and you may write up whatever you want to no that's good you know uh hammer george is a real good guy uh yeah he called me uh he uh you know he sent me a couple messages and i'll you know me man i'm always busy but uh you know me and him talked about 30 minutes we're on the same page so everything's good to go yep we'll definitely let you know when you put uh trying to get up there and i'll try to break away okay cool now he uh he is actually where i used to live out of he's actually right there i mean where i used to live up since he so we'll figure something we can't always gonna have some things sounds good all right i say kentucky's coming in strong y'all got to ease up on that on that kentucky swamp water up there that shit's my kryptonite i know everybody it tastes like piss but i get addicted to that la do you like that la can't get that shit yeah i know it man uh the only way i like la is jack daniels i haven't tried that but i probably need to yeah you you're gonna enjoy that next uh if there's some way randall let me know where we'll be in the same area i can make it happen i'll bring you a six pack and we'll just fit but uh yeah i like la pretty well you know good stuff i'm right in central kentucky right now so i don't hear a lot of me and randall gonna work on that sounds good get active if you can bring your friends too everybody's coming in i know people a lot a lot of people out there talking shit and organization including this one have gone out there in the past and been like oh our numbers are through the roof and they're phenomenal randall do i fucking lie i mean come on i've been afraid about everything i've i put our goddamn numbers for our platform out there today i'm as transparent as transparent can be about the the bills that this organization has about the numbers that we turn the productivity uh i'm i'm very transparent about the membership uh membership numbers i will not under any circumstances give out member information everybody knows that i am an asshole about that i refuse to do that and if they ever want to kick my doors in fbi or anybody else good luck because there ain't a damn thing to take because i don't collect it and if you don't believe me just ask any of my members because they get aggravated with me when they order shit from the store i've got to ask them for their damn address every time and as soon as it goes out in the mail i shred it and i gotta ask them for it the next time they saw me i'm not i'm not going to keep it around my house you know that's kind of way me and dr georgia that's kind of why i was describing to him when i get up in the morning i hit that front door to go to work i know who's got my back i don't care about who's the most popular or whatever i know who's actually got my back and talking to him oh yeah yep we're going to be doing some more events you'll you'll be able to see we'll see a lot of that in action detroit you know we we we knocked it out of the park in detroit but i mean let's be fair detroit was one event it's the only one we've had a chance to do under the new command staff and you know which doesn't just consist of me it's you know of other people there's more to an organization than just its leader so i couldn't do this without all the other guys so we'll have others and they will be very successful i can guarantee it and it's just our tactic we're not that we we've you know we've simplified the plumbing the more you overthink the plumbing the easier it is to stop up the drain so why does it got to be so damn complicated let's fix it let's make it simple let's make it fun and that's exactly what we've done and it's working it is absolutely working of course you simplify everything everybody wants to copy overcomplicate this that and others in there simple is always better i'll tell you one thing and i got no problem putting out there publicly and randall you can take note of this too what was happening that i saw with jeff scoop running this organization and it went on for i don't know how many decades is he was making the state leaders responsible for answering the answering the emails for each and every state so for kentucky you had a state leader that was answering the email you had for florida every state out there in the union and yes it wasn't all the lower 48 and when these people they just got tired of doing work or got busy at their jobs and they didn't feel like answering emails they didn't get answered that's been that's been eradicated there's no more of that shit people want to reach out now it's set up on an auto reply all you got to do is email chief of staff at nsm88.org or commander bird at nsm88.org you'll get an auto reply with instructions right away and you'll get a phone call within usually within hours or yeah exactly you got instructions there that'll hold you over till we can get you on the phone and you guys are doing great work i will jump in uh randall knows much of what i got going on awesome i appreciate you calling in good hearing you in there you guys hang in there yeah he's definitely one guy i would love to bring you he's a monster of a boy he'd be really good to have standing beside us if we ever have a question sounds like a southern gentleman uh and he's more of a rough biker well when you actually get the name he's just being really i'm just going judging by his voice yeah he's definitely a straight up biker yeah uh lord i've known him almost my whole life he's a real good guy i've been trying to pull him in you know uh all summer i almost got him there good good work yeah we just got no we got another app in the mail today so it's just coming in boom boom boom people are seeing so i actually got a comment and i'm gonna tell you i don't know if i said this or not already i got one that actually swole my head i'm not gonna lie it made me feel really and it was it wasn't a letter it wasn't an app it was a message on vk messenger that somebody sent and they were asking questions basically drilling me drilling our shit testing our tactics seeing what we're all about what our plans were and everything else and i was johnny on the spot with everything boom boom boom boom and he's like wow you guys really got your shit together everything from security to your protocols your procedures and everything else i said it may not be perfect but we make a damn stern effort a bad choice of word not stern we make a very valiant effort god i want to jinx it make a very valiant effort to uh to make sure that things go as they should and we've been lucky they have my hopefully i want to say it's not luck but they really have gone quite well i'm very happy and if things keep on going like this i anticipate there's going to be problems i'm sure things wouldn't be normal if there wasn't problems it's just uh more we're more on the right path and i it just it's frustrating because i can't help but wonder if we had we done this shit 27 years ago where might we be today you see what i'm saying yeah it's a frustrating notion well i mean you know things should have changed you know years back but you know you know hindsight's always 2020 there's no use to dwell on it you know uh we're definitely you know at a really good place right now and you just need to keep going forward with it so we shall oh we got about 34 minutes left what do you think randall you want to keep on going or you want to close it down for the evening let's see
