

NSM interview with Loki Hulgaard

The great time has come. Germany is awakened. It is courage that makes you successful.

It is courage that you are looking for. You are looking for courage. Be strong when you are weak.

Be brave when you are scared. Be courageous when you are unsure. Be humble when you dominate.

Dominate humbly. When the battle of life is upon you, remember you are strong. When it looks like the odds are stacked against you, remember you are powerful.

When it gets hard, remember this is what you asked for. The things that come easy in life don't last. The things that last don't come easy.

Inhale courage. Exhale fear. Inhale success.

Exhale failure. Inhale power. Exhale weakness.

Fill yourself with confidence. Breathe in courage. Just know I am not going to lose.

I know I am never going to quit. I know I will never surrender. I will never give in.

I know I will never ever back down. I have a warrior mindset. I am always ready to fight.

I know I am powerful. I am ready to fight. I know I am successful because I am ready to fight.

I know I can win. I am ready to fight. I know it's mine for the taking because I am ready to fight.

I am always ready to fight. I am always willing to fight. If they knock me down, I will get back up.

Because I have a warrior mindset. There are no limits to what you can achieve in this life. The only limits are the limits you set in your mind.

The only limits are the ones you set. Dream big. Think big.

And you will achieve big. There are no limits to what you can achieve in life. The only limits are the limits you set in your own mind.

The only limits are the ones you set. Dream big. Think big.

And you will achieve big. The viking is not a warrior because he always wins. He is a warrior because he will always fight.

The viking is not a warrior because he always wins. He is a warrior because he always fights. It is courage that creates the greats.

It is courage that won battles. It is courage that changed the world. It is courage that makes you successful.

It is strong when you are winning. Be weak. Be brave when you are scared.

Be courageous when you are unsure. Be humble when you dominate. Dominate humbly.

When the battle of life is upon you, remember you are strong. The Berlin-centered economy, which is currently collapsing, leaves us no other choice than to declare Bavarian independence. The state of Bavaria must separate from the rest of Germany and form its own nation.

Of course, we are a different society. We are predominantly Bavarian. We are all Germans.

Culturally, perhaps, there are similarities. But even then... I'm talking about reality, not fairy tales. I'm talking about the purity of the German people, which is no fairy tale.

Who alone are responsible for the moral decadence that now riddles our society? The Jews! The Jews! We've always loved Germans, but who are now, and who have always been, unwelcome, unwanted, and they are everywhere! Die Partei ist Hitler! Hitler aber ist Deutschland, wie Deutschland Hitler ist! Die Partei ist Hitler! The Party is Hitler! The Party is Hitler! The Party is Hitler! The bullet went through the back of the team's head, according to the lawsuit. Ah, there we go. Uh, I think Commander accidentally muted me.

Ha, ha, ha, ha. Can you hear me, Matt? Sorry, Randall, having some more technicalities here. Looks like Matt got disconnected there.

Yeah. I figured something was happening. Figured blog talk might not be cooperating tonight.

Looks like it's back up. Uh, what's Matt's area code? Uh, I'd have to look. Uh, I don't know it right off the top of my head.

All right. He should be back on now. Yeah, I'm back on.

Okay. Uh, yeah, you were talking, you were talking about, uh, the cops shooting the knee grid. A lot of times, a lot of times when they're running, you know, their pants are always falling down, so they'll reach around their waistband and pull their pants up.

And, I mean, I mean, a lot of times they might just be pulling their pants up, but a hell of a lot of times they have packets of heat in there, too, so. I'd say it's a justified shooting. Yeah.

They're saying the bullet went through the back of the team's head, according to the father's lawsuit, and he died three days later. The lawsuit claims the officer he fired had no objective facts to believe that Golding was armed or reaching for a weapon. The team was unarmed.

The fact that the police department and the city of Fresno police officer all agreed that the shooting was justified is troubling the light of the video. It clearly shows that it's not. Uh, citing police statements, the father's lawsuit says that Golding was wanted for questioning a connection with a shooting one day earlier that had caused a fatal car crash.

Fresno police stopped the questioned teenager and pulled over a car in which he was the passenger, the lawsuit states. The teenager in the car initially replied with police, but Golding then took off running, the lawsuit states, leading to the fatal chase. Fresno's police chief, Andrew Hall, told CNN affiliate KSPE that the shooting was ruled justified by the Police Internal Affairs Bureau, the Fresno County District Attorney's Office, and the city of Fresno's Office of Independent Review.

So that's three different places that cleared this officer. The use of lethal force in this case occurred while officers were investigating a homicide. The 16-year-old in this case was involved in the homicide with his brother, and his brother was later arrested and plead guilty, Hall said.

Uh, the video represents a different vantage point and was not what the six officers could see. The 16-year-old was also known to carry firearms and had jumped a fence into a child daycare center. CNN has reached out to Fresno Police Department and the Office of Independent Review for comment, and apparently they haven't gotten back to them.

But, you know, of course, this kid should've knew, you run from the cops, you know, there's a chance that you'll get shot. Black lives matter. Yeah, especially when you're... How's that girl play, play, uh, play stupid games and win stupid prizes? Yeah, I mean, and like they said, you know, apparently they've had run-ins with this kid before, and he is known to carry a weapon.

So, of course, they're on guard. And, uh, of course, looking through that fence, I mean, yeah, it could've, you know, the kid jumps over, he probably lost half his pants, you know, like I said earlier. Reaches down to pull him up.

I mean, they don't know if he's got a gun, you know. I've watched plenty of videos, you know, when they reach around and go for the waistband and pull out a little .380 or, you know, turn around and shoot at the cops. I mean, automatically, especially, you know, a black, they know that there's a good chance their ass is gonna get shot if they run.

You know, they're notorious for carrying weapons. I mean, what do they expect? And then, of course, you know, here's the parent's blank slate. Oh, they've hit the lottery with it.

There was one that robbed a Dollar General, a dollar store down in Dayton, Ohio, and his family wants to file a lawsuit because they shot and killed him. He goes in there and robs the place and gets shot, and then, you know, he was a good boy. Exactly, and if the judge don't throw that out immediately, I mean, the judge is slapped because that is just retarded.

I mean, if somebody dies by accident when you're committing a felony, you're gonna be charged with murder and go to, you know, to prison. So, I mean, it should be looked at the same way, you know, but the system is definitely rigged to cater to these animals nowadays. You know, you gotta touch them kid gloves.

Here's a good one about Zuckerberg, and it's actually kind of funny because it's about CNN, you know, going after him. Hey, Randall? Yeah. If I could real quick, we're supposed to be having a caller call in from Canada.

He's on the line. I don't know what area code you are, so if you could just push one on your keypad, and that'll bring it to the top of the board, and I'll screen you on the back line. Sorry about that, brother.

I'll be out here giving you a hand if you guys need anything. All right. Thanks, Commander.

No problem. CNN president calls out Facebook over absolutely ludicrous policies on political ads. CNN president Jeff Zucker on Thursday denounced Facebook for what he called its absolutely ludicrous policy that exempts political advertisements from fact checking.

Facebook took so much heat, rightly so, for what happened in 2016 and for the political advertising that aired on there. Zucker said during a CNN sentencing conference. And now they say that political advertising is just a tiny part of their business.

But that they not, that, yeah, if I can talk tonight, that they're not going to fact check anything, and that they're going to take all political advertising, whether it is true or not.

I think that is absolutely ludicrous, and I think they all should be called out. Zucker went on to cite his own network policies surrounding advertisements, saying that CNN has already turned down two ads from President Trump's re-election campaign because they didn't meet its standards.

We have an obligation at CNN. If a political ad comes along and it's not true, we're not going to take it, he said. We've turned down, I think, two ads from the Trump campaign.

We've taken two. But we don't have anything against taking those ads, but we're only going to take them when they are truthful. Facebook should have the same standards of frankly, given what happened in 2016, maybe they should just sit out the election and not take any political advertising until they can figure it out and get it right, Zucker added.

The comments came as Facebook CEO Mark Zuckerberg faces a swarm of scrutiny from Democrats and lawmakers over its policies surrounding content and ads shared by lawmakers. Zuckerberg has consistently stood by the new policy, assuring in a speech in Washington, D.C. earlier this month that Facebook should not be in a position to moderate political content. Political ads on Facebook are more transparent than anywhere else, Zuckerberg said.

We don't fact-check political ads because we believe people should be able to see for themselves what politicians are saying. I know many people disagree, but in general, I don't think it's right for a private company to censor politicians or the news in a democracy. But now, look how many of us they have absolutely banned.

It won't allow us to have an account. I mean, he's talking out of both sides of his mouth there. Credits have pushed back, arguing that Facebook has an important responsibility to combat disinformation and harassment on the platform, especially during the election cycle.

Multiple Democrat presidential candidates objected in early October after the country committed to the Trump campaign to run an ad pushing unsubstantiated allegations against the 2020 presidential candidate, Joe Biden. Biden's campaign spokesman, T.J. Ducklow, if that's how you actually pronounce that, said at the time that the spread of the objectory false information to influence public opinion poisons the public discourse and chips away at the democracy. CNN said that it rejected the same ad, which includes images of some of its journalists, because it didn't meet the network's advertising standard.

Zuckerberg faced several questions regarding the new ad policy during a House Financial Service Committee hearing on the Capitol Wednesday. After being asked by Rep. AOC if she could target primarily black zip codes and advertise them the incorrect election date, Zuckerberg said that she couldn't, before emphasizing that the platform would take down political ads that incite violence or lead to voter suppression.

And that actually sounds like something that she'd probably really want to do. But, you know, because these big campaigns are paying so much, you know, Facebook's going to take them no matter what they say. They want to count them dollar bills.

They want them shekels. Whatever they traced back to the Russians, they said that, you know, the Russians, it was like a $10,000 Facebook ad that they took out. That was perfect timing.

You know, I mean, they allow that, this information, like that, no problem. But, you know, let us say something, and it's see, bye-bye. But, of course, if we shut out all kinds of money, oh, they let us say whatever.

But that just shows you, of course, the double standard. Let's see what else have we got here. Oh, this one's kind of wild.

And definitely, even though they haven't really released any names on this, you can guarantee that the person was probably black. The Tallahassee Police responded to Taco Bell on Tuesday evening and discovered that a woman had been doused in gasoline instead of blaze. Officer Rochelle Denmark said in a statement, The victim of the attack, who has not been identified, was airlifted to a hospital with serious injuries, police say.

The incident is being investigated by Tallahassee Police, as well as State Fire Marshal and the Federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms and Explosives, which together have classified the crime as an aggravated battery. The suspect identified by police is Mya Williams, 32, fled from the scene. Williams was last seen wearing a black t-shirt, tank-free pants, a red wrap around her head, and several necklaces.

The several necklaces are what makes me think that it is a black. Police don't know if there is any relationship between the suspect and victim. But there we are once again, animals acting like animals.

What was her name, Mya? Mya, Mya Williams. Oh yeah, that's a black woman. I mean, I just couldn't, you know, picture some black woman, but they said they had the red wrap thing around her head and had several necklaces on, her probably wearing a bunch of gold chains, you know, so I say it was probably another black girl that got doused, probably from her man.

And the news is full of, you know, I just looked it up for you. Huh? I just looked this story up. Yeah, it's a black chimp.

The suspect in the Taco Bell attack has been identified as Mya Williams, 32 years of age, who identifies as a black female, according to Tallahassee PD. Just gets weirder and weirder. Yeah, what's the picture? I mean, she identifies as a black female.

It kind of makes it sound like she's something else. Well, this black female has a beard. And is balding like a man.

Oh, God. I don't look like a Somali. It's like a Somali in the picture.

Got that long, skinny, narrow, black face. The nose looks like he's been chasing parked cars. Probably jumped off a banana boat down there.

Fleshed off a banana boat. Yeah, they still do that over in Africa. They'll take tires and wrap the tire around them and light the tire on fire.

Yeah, I've seen that. It's pretty horrific. Randall, I've got the caller from Canada.

Whenever you're ready to bring him in, he's got an interesting story. There's no better time than the present. Okay, I'm going to bring in Loki.

Apparently that is his real name. He's from 587, which I believe is up in Alberta, Canada. Loki, are you with us? I'm with you.

Nice to be here. Yeah, thanks for coming in. Yeah, I appreciate you reaching out to me and asking to come on the shows.

You might have to tell everybody a little bit about your situation because I don't think anybody knows. What do you got going on up there in Canada, Stan? Yeah, just all the information is on a website that has been created. I'm not really at liberty to say if I created the website.

One of the websites I had is now known by the government here, so they were sort of throwing that on top of the other charges that they charged me with. But this one website is www.free-speech.is-great.net. So I'll just say that again. www.free-speech.is-great.net. So that's got basically all the content related to the case, except the police disclosure, the police report.

That was on the previous website, and that was forced to be taken down by order of the government. Otherwise I would be considered in violation of my bail conditions, which were basically that I would forfeit $4,000 for bail, or I would be put into jail for whatever indefinite period. So basically this series of charges is about my allegedly having distributed a bunch of propaganda about Jewish white genocide, stamping money bills with that slogan, Jewish white genocide, and then citing that website, thezog.info, and distributing a bunch of flyers around and stickers, 99% of the 1% is Jewish, with that yellow star in the midst of it, and a bunch of pamphlets that said, immigration equals white genocide, white self-hate, Jewish supremacy, and linked other websites citing immigration statistics and how it was associated with Jews, and how they were basically the ultima causa of that genocide agenda, basically.

And then of course, that led to my being arrested on very flimsy evidence, a lot of informants. This town that I'm living in is sort of like a Zionist type of stronghold, I guess. I've never really seen this in Canada before, and I've been in various places in Canada, but here it's like everybody's... Sounds kind of like Charlottesville.

Yeah, well, I'm not too sure about that, but here for Canada, it's sort of like this super uptight town where everybody's always spying on everybody and ratting each other to the police. There's a NATO base near here too, where they train British military troops and British artillery and soldiers, and so it's sort of like a spy society type of feel here. And so there's lots of informants.

The Jews basically run the town. They sort of monopolize it, like every box store, every business is run by them, and they're totally immersed in the government. I'm sure that's sort of standard procedure on their part more or less everywhere, but here especially I find that it's sort of hyper-concentrated with them, so it seems like some type of sort of dukes-of-hazard spy society town.

So they had a lot of informants that were working to try to find out who was distributing this material, and they were basically spying on me. They had police helicopters or military helicopters, I couldn't tell which, basically following me around the entire town on multiple occasions. Holy shit.

So I would go from one walking around or biking around, I'd go from one side of the town to the other side of the town, and I would see the police helicopters sort of on an oblique angle above my head the entire time, and yeah, this has happened several times. And then after the event, when I was arrested after the arrest, I was in my house several times. It happened, there were police helicopters right above my house, so I would just press my face against the window and look right up on a super acute angle, and I could see police or military helicopters above my house, and then also I noticed some type of military plane with like a translucent radar cone just flying like right above my place here, right over the flight path, and at a very super low altitude, and I was just seeing this radar nose cone just right above my place, and yeah, there was police outside and everything.

So in any case, what led to this was that I was going to a Safeway with money bills, which I stupidly and imprudently was buying regular items with, but I would hand it face down to the clerks when I paid, so I had it stamped on there the Jewish white genocide slogan, and so the clerk finds this out and they look at it, and then they hold it up to the camera, so apparently this served as evidence that led to them linking it to me, and then so they basically used that as a justification to get a search warrant to come in here, break in, take about $8,500 worth of my stuff. I had a bunch of firearms that I imprudently had not stored properly, and that I had also scratched off the serial numbers of because I was going to stash them in the ground out of a sort of paranoid fear of gun confiscation given what was going on. So then they took those and they slapped some charges on me there.

So I've got about, I don't know, 14 gun charges for violating gun laws, and then the so-called hate speech called public incitement of hatred charges here. So basically all those charges are rolled into one, and they're using the firearms charges not only to portray me as a terrorist, because if anyone Googles my name on the internet, they'll see a front page big blown up picture of a big spread with all the guns and money bills stamped and everything, and ammunition boxes that I had, and so forth. So they're trying to link that to portray it as a potential terroristic act that I was intending to perpetrate, allegedly.

So they're trying to associate that with the anti-Jewish commentary. So you were in possession of some firearms? Yeah. Were these all legal? Well, the way in which they were stored and then the scratching off the serial numbers is not considered legal apparently.

So yeah, I guess that's pretty stupid of me, but oh well, whatever the case. Yeah, that might be an issue in any country. I don't even think you'd get away with that in the States.

Yeah, so I had them basically squirreled away in the basement in the darkest corner, but I didn't realize that it was even possible for police to use a money bill and a stamp message on a money bill to justify raiding your property and going into your place, because not being somebody who's had any great entanglements with the law in the past, I never really understood what they could get away with. But apparently obviously they can, but that's always an issue whether they obtain the search warrant even legally or not. So basically that's what they have charged me with is all those charges.

So they're basically trying to create the appearance in this town as well in the media and so forth of my being a terrorist because of the firearms and associating that with the messages that I had distributed. So that led to a massive damage of my reputation here and so forth, obviously enough. So basically that's pretty much the whole issue, is that I was alleged to be distributing these sorts of materials, and then they came in here and they did this, and now they're creating that appearance so they can justify setting legal precedence here to strengthen their censorship laws and their gun-grabbing laws and so forth.

I was thinking that Canada had kind of like the frigging speech that we do here in the States. Oh no. What's that? Randall, if we were to go up to Canada and try what we try here in the States, they'd bury us under the jail up there.

Oh, okay. I wasn't totally clear on that. Yeah, what you've got to do to get a firearm in Canada.

Yeah, it's a whole other world up there. We take it for granted what we have here. With the laws in this country that they prohibit you from having any larger capacity magazine than five rounds.

So they actually pin the magazine, and yeah, I had drilled out some of the pins in the magazines that I had purchased legally. So, you know, but oh well. Well, you're being heard right now.

You're being heard on about five continents right now, including Canada, obviously. What would you like to convey to them, or what can they do to help you out? The people? Well, basically, I also write a lot of writings, spread a lot of messages, a lot of philosophical writings and stories of mine. So what they can do to assist me and to assist the South Africa Family Relief Project, where I guess people are aware of that organization, aren't they, with Karen Smith? Yeah, but we've heard of it.

Most people, yeah. So in any case, there's a typist there who assists me in typing my writings, so if people could donate to them, which would be donating to the South Africans in the squatters camp, then that assists me by getting my writings out there, and then people can see those writings on a website called the-struggle.net, and that's basically a compilation of writings of mine. So that would assist me.

I don't get any money myself, but that at least enables other people to get the content that I produce for free. Of course, they'd have to donate to that organization. And they would go directly through them? Well, I would just basically be paying the typist who works in the squatters camp to type my writing.

So that's basically the only thing that I would request or I would desire if people have an interest in that. They can check the website out, get what they want from there. Yes, from my understanding, the firearms laws, for those of you familiar with U.S. laws, if you think New York State is tough, go up to Canada and see what you've got to do to get a firearm and not stay illegally from a dealer to your house.

What do you have to do to get a firearm in this country? You have to take a firearms training course, and then you have to take a hunter's training course. That way they can try to imply that the only legitimate reason for you to have a firearm is to hunt, and they're basically saying that it's not even considered legal to claim that you're wanting a firearm for self-defense. And when you have a firearm, you're supposed to store the, this is what I found out, the ammunition completely separately from the firearm.

You can't keep it inside of the magazine. You have to keep it in a locked cabinet. You have to have a trigger lock on the gun or whatever rifle, and then it can't even be within the same reach pretty much at all.

So it basically completely disarms you. It renders you more or less defenseless. So that pretty much nullifies your ability to even defend your own life from a home invader.

So it's ridiculous. So you become basically a criminal. I'm sure in Europe it's much the same, if not more extreme, that you basically become a criminal simply through wanting to defend your own property from home invaders.

And obviously, as everybody in the States knows, the more non-whites come into your society, the more crime there is. It's basically proportional. And Canada, obviously, since about 2005 or so, has been increasingly more and more non-white at a sort of logarithmic progression.

So the more non-whites come in, the more crime, the more crime, the more people are threatened. So they have to have guns, but they can't use guns, otherwise they're criminals. So it's sort of like self-defeating, absurd, pretty much.

It almost sounds like what they do in New York State. It's like a Canada light version. They say the same thing up there.

They'll actually give you a gun up in New York State once you've been through all the headaches and if you can acquire a New York State pistol permit, because you have to have a permit to buy a gun there in that state. And by the time you get done getting through all the red tape and everything, if you ever, as you said, are in your home and you have to defend your home, you're not allowed to do that. Your first rule of business is to flee your home because it's not worth it to kill anybody, including a home intruder, to defend yourself.

Your self-defense should be a last resort. So they can come in, steal, loot, burn your house down. As long as they're not trying to kill you or your family directly, your obligation is to leave.

And if they can prove otherwise, they can charge you with murder. It's incredible. They claim here that you can use reasonable force or deadly force to combat deadly force, but of course it's always subject to a judge's interpretation and all the judges are largely either Jewish or Freemasons, so you can never trust them since the whole agenda is anti-white and anybody who is white is portrayed basically as guilty before proven innocent.

And if you're a gun owner or if you're anybody who's white male and right wing, as they call it, then you're basically set up in front of a firing squad. You're not supposed to grab your gun and defend your property. You're supposed to make them a sandwich.

Yeah, well, that's basically the law here too. Just totally, you know, rake and pillage as they want and just total garbage. Yeah, you're supposed to run away out of your own house here too.

That's basically explicitly the law that you have an obligation to just leave your own property. And there's quite a few of these incidences, especially in rural areas around farmland, like in South Africa. I think they're starting to use the redskins around here, you know, the so-called indigenous First Nations, as they call them in this country.

They're starting to use them like they're using the blacks in South Africa to do farm raids and stuff like that. So there have been incidents where some rural person or farmer shot their gun in the air to sort of scare off the intruder. And then they actually shot one of these redskins.

And then he became the villain, basically. So I don't know what's going on with that case. But I heard that there was a case like that recently in this country in, I think, the adjacent province.

So you can really not even defend your own property. Now, pardon my ignorance in this, but what is Canada's history in terms of slavery? I know a lot of these back in the day, the U.S. slaves fled into Canada. I know this because I've seen the parts of the Underground Railroad.

I grew up in a small town called Lewiston, New York, which is right by Niagara Falls, New York. So I could almost throw a stone and hit Canada from where I was at. Plus, I spent a lot of time in Toronto, Grimsby, St. Catharines.

So I'm very familiar with it. But what is Canada's, what is their connection to slavery? Was there ever a history of slavery of any sort in Canada? What's with all this guilt over these minorities coming in there? Over them coming in here recently, you mean? Like border hopping? I mean it all. I mean, in the U.S., they love to make us feel guilty here in the U.S. Right, right.

And they let, basically, yeah. And it turns into this white flight, and blacks go around and kick the shit out of people, and they walk Scott Free out of court like nothing happened. And when white people fight back, they incarcerate them.

And they call that reparations. And I'm just wondering what their justification for doing it. I'm sure there isn't one.

But do they even have a leg to stand on there in Canada? Is there some history there? In this country, it's basically similar to New Zealand to some extent. Only in New Zealand, the country was established by people who were put into penal servitude. So they have that sort of moral high ground that mitigates the white guilt burden.

Whereas in Canada, the guilt trip here is basically you took the land from the Indians. Or they were first nations. They were here before you, blah, blah.

Even though that's obviously easily disproven by Kennewick Man and Billy Roper's book there, Paleo-American Ethnic Diversity. And I think John Benugent, with his Solutrean hypothesis, and various other people of that sort have easily put forth plenty of evidence that we were here way before, even before the Vikings. If people look up the banned Mormon cartoon on YouTube, if it's still up there, it basically shows how white people were here first.

They welcomed the Redskins who came over from the land bridge from Siberia. And then the Redskins went around slaughtering and murdering most of the white population. So all those claims of their being first are basically illegitimate and counterfactual, easily disproven.

But nobody is permitted to give voice to that. So basically that's the whole guilt trip here. You took the land from the Indians, you're not allowed to live here.

You should be thankful that you have what you have, and you should feel guilty about building civilization out of the wilderness, even though you compensated the Redskins with rubies for land. And there are all sorts of warring tribes of different bands or different tribal groups of Redskins who fought amongst one another, some of them with the white settlers and some of them not. And yeah, much of the land didn't even really have too much in the way of Redskins on it because it's such a vast territory.

So it's in a way similar to the claims that the Negroes are making in South Africa about their firstness by virtue of their being African. Somehow they have an entitlement to occupy this land, and so too in this country they're making the same type of claims happen forever. Sorry, I hadn't heard that one before.

Randall, have you heard that one before, their firstness, the sense of entitlement? It's the first time for me. It's very fitting. It's kind of like the chosen people.

You've got the chosen people, then you've got the people that are part of the firstness. In this country too, the Redskins are making all sorts of claims to have their little holy hoax. They have their own holy hoax here, which is that the Catholic Church allegedly put some sort of typhus germs into blankets and gave them these blankets, and this apparently killed a couple of them.

I don't know how many, a couple hundred or whatever. And so they use that sort of narrative, that victim narrative, so that they can portray themselves as wounded victims. They have a moral claim on that basis of that false narrative that all white people are this evil Catholic Church who owes them, and so forth.

So it's just the same standard issue, like you said, entitlement mentality, the victim morality, where white people are the perennial villain, and anything that isn't white is necessarily by default a victim of evil white people. So basically that's the main claim here in this country, to browbeat white people. Also in BC there's another claim, I think it is, Chinese railroad workers.

There are like a few hundred of them, or I don't know how many there were, but there were some Chinese railroad workers from the turn of the last century, and they apparently had a little hardship or something, and so that somehow entitled the Chinese to take over Vancouver and BC and set up basically a Chinese ethnostate on Canadian soil, which is basically a Trojan horse for the Chinese communists to invade the country, basically. And so there's that. And then there's also, people know about David Suzuki, who is allegedly Japanese, but is actually probably Jewish.

He's got wooly hair. Japanese people don't have wooly, frizzy hair, but straight hair. So he's got all these Jewish traits, physiological, biological traits.

And his claim, he's like a spokesperson for environmentalism and for the Japanese community, that the Japanese were in internment camps during World War II, and therefore they're victims of white people, blah, blah. So that's another one of the whines in BC. We need to try something like that here in the States.

For which? We need to try that here in the States. That'd be a good tactic to go after. Basically saying that all the Germans, the Italians, and the Japanese that were in concentration camps during World War II, for no reason other than being U.S. citizens here in this country.

Lay that guilt on thick. Guys, we've got a caller here. They may have a question for you, Loki.

I'm not sure it could be on topic or off, but anybody else that wants to speak, questions, concerns, gripes, twitches, or complaints, on topic or off, or if it's for Loki here and his situation, which one on your keypad, I'll bring you in. Up first, we've got 248. 248, you're live.

Go ahead. Hello, hello. I'm listening.

Oh, man, what Loki's saying is, and the way he says it, well, he talks about food for thought and about the Skraelings or the red-skinned peoples not being here first. That's correct. We were here, as he stated, about Kennewick, man.

We were here way before them. Too many came over, then he started killing us. And one point I wonder if Loki's familiar with is, didn't ex-president, who was president at the time, Bill Clinton, have the Army Corps of Engineers in Washington State, after Kennewick, man, skeleton was taken out, put a whole bunch of rocks, concrete, and so forth to bury any more evidence of any more Kennewick men? Do you have any more info on that? Yeah, actually, there's this one guy who is an author and a publisher of books.

He says he's coming out with another one, with the one that is basically definitive proof about how we were here first. Yes. At the 55club.net is his website.

He sells a lot of Odinist books, and he and also, I think, Billy Roper in Paleo-American Ethnic Diversity also discussed that, how it was basically deliberately covered up, the Kennewick man thing, and that there was all sorts of political debacle, so that they could say, oh, it's so painful, just like a little holy hoax, oh, it's too painful to discuss the truth because of our emotions. So they fall back on that sort of fallacious argumentation, or it's not even argumentation, it's just trying to derail rational argumentation through emotionalizing. So basically, that even though you have the truth, you're not allowed to speak the truth, because the hegemonic narrative that they're putting forth, which is backed up by legal impositions, or sort of encoded into the discourse of society, basically prohibits people from even discussing things, just like the holy hoax.

So now all the non-whites are starting to come up with whatever sort of whines in their history, all around the world, in all the white countries, as a sort of narrative that they can use for political leverage to try to insert themselves in white people's society, to justify their presence there, and then from there build up their ethnic communities as Trojan horses, and basically try to take it over from within. I heard even in the States that they're building whole walled cities or towns for the Muslims, that they're building basically fortresses. That's what I had heard recently, somewhere in, I think, in the southern states maybe, or somewhere like that.

Virginia maybe, I think. Here we have Dearborn. We have Dearborn, Michigan, which is, I'm outside of Detroit.

Yeah, yeah, and Iran. The Jews did that. I'm pretty sure the Jews did that deliberately to curse Henry Ford, because that's their sort of psychopathic mentality, to try to curse the Gentiles.

So any time one of the Gentiles does something that works against their interests and they go out of their way to try to destroy them, like they did with Czar Nicholas, and with Henry Ford and Charles Lindbergh, and basically whomever else throughout history, they try to destroy or desecrate their memory. Excellent analogy. Here we have Dearborn, Michigan.

It's heavy Muslim and Arabic. My brother lives there. It's just at the border of Detroit.

I'm at the north border of Detroit. I can throw a rock and almost hit Detroit where I was raised up. But the Muslims moved in there.

They're not in walled communities, but they're breeding like flies. Your analogy with how they're destroying that, being Henry Ford's place of employment and what he's connected with, and he had the International Jew, you know, the four volumes. I understand you got them when you purchased a Ford motor vehicle in 1920, 21.

Yeah, he put them into the glove compartment of every motor vehicle for free. And the thing is Henry Ford had designed the motor vehicle to run on gasohol, which doesn't pollute the environment. But the Rockefellers, whose real name is Rosenfelder, and are Jewish, just crypto-Jews, they had forced them onto the usage of gas so that they could meter it because they controlled standard oil.

So basically their intention was to profit and monopolize things because they controlled the energy, had a monopoly on oil and gas. Makes sense. And so all this babble about, oh, one less car, got to stop people driving around in cars because it hurts Mother Gaia.

The only thing that that is really, you know, to be laid at the feet of is not Henry Ford but the Jews themselves because they were the ones who forced him to get away from environmentalism in his invention, the motor car. Otherwise the motor cars would have been, you know, doing nothing to harm the environment at all. That's an interesting analogy.

Guys, we're at the top of the hour here. I think now would be a good time to go ahead and sneak in a quick break. Randall, you good with that, brother? Yeah, that's fine with me.

Okay. We'll take a few-minute break here, commercial break. Enjoy some of our Third Reich-themed commercials.

We'll be right back after these messages. When someone tells you white people are weak, have them tell it to your ancestors, the Romans. We stand at the door of Rome's Burgham announcing 14 days of games.

It will be the greatest games that Rome has ever seen. The greatest games in our history. Perhaps the greatest gladiator as well.

That's a game! Look at that! The Greeks. Only Spartan women give birth to real men. And, of course, Spartans have the reputation to consider.

The assault of my queen, the threat of my people, the slavery, the death of the one chosen by one's careful imagination. You should have done the same. This! The Vikings.

This is NSMBC Radio. Pay them a visit and tell them we're back gladiators. Don't drink so much.

No. Just listen to them. But Israel equals slavery.

The Berlin-centered economy, which is currently collapsing, leaves us no other choice than to declare Bavarian independence. The state of Bavaria must separate from the rest of Germany and form its own nation. Of course, we are a different society.

We are predominantly Catholic. We're all Germans. Culturally, perhaps, there are similarities.

But even then... What about Parsifal? No, no. None at all. I'm talking about reality, not fairy tales.

I'm talking about the purity of the German people, which is no fairy tale. You alone are responsible for the moral decadence that now riddles our society. The Jews! The Jews! Yes! We've always loved Germans, but who are now, and who have always been, unwelcome, unwanted, and they are everywhere.

The party is Hitler. Hitler, however, is Germany as Germany is Hitler. Hitler, die Ass! Die Ass! Die Ass! Die Ass! Ladies and gentlemen, come here to chew bubblegum and kick ass.

The following is George Lincoln Rockwell at Michigan State University in 1967. First I became a conservative, and I promptly became thoroughly and totally disenchanted and disgusted with conservatives. They are the most cowardly bunch of finks that I have ever had to deal with.

They're all busy calling me a communist now so as to prove that they're not Nazis. This is what the Birch Society says, this is what Haggis says, all these nicey-nicey sweetie-pants are all busy saying, oh, Rockwell, he's a commie, don't go near him. They're absolutely disgusting.

So I gave up being a conservative. I said, I'm gonna fight. I'm gonna tell the truth, the whole truth.

Every bit of it I know. And I have been. And ever since then, in spite of the toughness of the fight, I have been winning some of the most wonderful people I've ever met.

People who are no cowards, people who are no hypocrites. Our country is drowning in hypocrisy and cowards. Now, will you tell me how a cowardly, hypocritical conservative who says, I love Jews and Negroes are my best friends, how is he gonna save his country from hypocrisy doing that? So I became a Nazi because I found out what a Nazi is.

A Nazi is a man who believes in the right race above all things. Adolf Hitler said the white race is a master race. That doesn't mean we have to persecute anybody else, but it means we've gotta keep our own country white.

If Israel is a Jewish country and has the right to be Jewish, if Ghana is a black country and has the right to be black, why don't we have the right to keep a white country white? And Christian, how long do you people think you'd last if you went over there to Israel and campaigned in the Jewish schools in Israel against singing Jewish songs? And yet they're over here campaigning against us singing Christmas carols in ours. And in school after school, state after school, they get them stopped. You can't sing Christmas carols.

They won't tolerate it, but we must. I'm just simply saying Hitler discovered that this is going Billy James Hoggins, but have actually whipped it. And those three places are Spain, and they hate Spain, Italy, and Germany.

They whipped communism and got rid of it. We don't want to live, we don't want to die. I have decided... I have decided to never step in front of this people and to make cheap promises.

The future of the German people is in our own hands. If we ourselves present this German people to our own work, to our own life, to our own freedom, to our own pride, to our own dignity, then we will be a force again, just like the fathers of Germany did not help the state, but had to do it themselves. The NSM will not tolerate any suggestions of violence or racial epithets on our shows, but due to the controversial nature of our program, listener discretion is advised.

And welcome back to the Mason Dixon Show here on NSL Media, one of the most popular white nationalist platforms out there.

Before we jump back into our conversation, if anybody out there would like to join in or have a question, comment, give us a call at 516-453-6058, just one on your keypad, and we'll bring you on. I'd like to remind everybody that tomorrow night at 9 a.m. we have the Code Truth with Commander, and on Saturday is Open Phones, one of our most popular shows. And Sundays is NSM Weekend with our PR Director, Mr. Harry Hughes.

And Mondays is NSM 101 with Norris, so definitely tune in to those shows. And we've got Loki Canada with us tonight. He's facing hate crime charges along with some other things that are kind of bundled up on him.

So we'll go ahead and get Loki back on here. You there, brother? Yeah. All right.

Hello. Good to have you. Good to be on.

Yeah, of course, as always, Matt's with us and Commander's joining. It's always nice to have Commander on. He makes any show interesting.

Yeah, I've been called a lot of things interesting as well, but I appreciate it. Well, I quite enjoy it. I get a kick out of it.

Other people just a little pissed off I've heard, but... We've got another caller. Whenever you're ready to bring them in, 434, they're in queue as well. Just a heads up.

Okay, we'll go ahead and bring them on. All right. 434, you're live.

Go ahead. Hey, am I here? You're here. Hello? All right, sweet.

Hey, Burt, Commander, I talked to you earlier. I just wanted to say how great this... Yeah, how great this media thing has been so far. And this is my first time listening in.

So, yeah, it's been great. Thanks for tuning in. Yeah, we have some fun around here.

Hold on. Hold on, you can take me off live. Okay, we'll come back to you.

All right, calling in. I can bring in 248 as well. We were speaking to Loki earlier, if you like.

Go ahead and lead on it, Randall. Okay, well, we'll go ahead and bring him back in, too. Make sure that we know that he's seen one of them.

All right. Randall, Matt, Loki, and 248. You guys are all live.

Hey, 248, just call me Big Ken. My name's Ken. I'm honored to talk to you gentlemen.

Feel just like I do, and I'm glad, great, we have this ability to express ourselves, considering how hard it is with the media and whatnot. Some of us get together to talk, express our views and so forth. Yeah, well, nowadays, when we get together, you know, it's almost like they did the mafia.

There's always a large FBI present. Yeah. I've been involved in the white separatist cause, whatever you want to call it, since 1982, and belong to different groups.

It's generally how you feel inside, but I've just seen so many things happen over the years. Fort Smith, Arkansas with Pastor Butler and Miles back then in 87. Let's see.

And then Matt Hale, POW, and Dennis Mahan, another POW. I don't know if he's still alive. I haven't got a letter from him in a while.

And Richard Scatari from the old order days. I may be giving away my age here by saying stuff. Yeah, I used to be a POW, CR bird.

Oh, okay. Yeah. He passed on, didn't he? Yeah.

About three years now, I think. Two or three years. I believe it was liver cancer that got him.

Okay. The order members were older than me, because I remember I was connected with, oh, man, my goodness, way back, white patriot party days. I used to get the war newspaper, the truth at last, and all that, and connected with the National Alliance.

And the order had their time. They fought for us, and they wound up locked up. Some had passed on inside, and some had got paroled.

And the only address I have for when I write is Richard Scatari out of California. David Tate is still around. Oh, that's great.

Yeah, I know Gary's widow, Susan, she still has all the information. If I'm not mistaken, you still find out how to write who's left at davidlane48.net. I could tell you how to write them. It's davidlane48.net. Yeah.

I'll get a contact. Oh, okay, thank you. The funny thing is, you know, it isn't my age that stops me.

I just never, I don't have computer skills. So Commander Burt sent me, he'll send me a text, and then I'll call the number, and I'll push one, and I'm here talking to you guys. Who knows, one day I might get online.

And my son being 34 years old, he knows all about that. And what I want to do, I got a pen in my hand. I want to write how to contact, you know, that former website you had said.

Let me get my pen handy here. And I'd like to write besides Richie Guattari, the other two. David Tate and, let me see, David Tate and I don't know, how would I get their address? You said there was a .com? Yeah, davidlane1488.com. 1488.net? So if I just type into Google, it automatically comes up for me.

Oh, just Google it then, okay. They have a .net address also. Yeah, it also has all David's writings on it too.

Any literature that any of them has written, you can find it on that website too. Okay, my son looks up all this stuff on his smartphone, but he has a laptop computer. And I know people that have home computers.

If I could look up all that stuff, I had a computer. I'd probably gain 25 pounds sitting in my butt in a chair looking it up. As of now, I'm living in a trailer that's just filled with old literature.

A buddy of ours, his roommate died. She was in the cause about four and a half years ago. He said, you've got to clean my trailer out.

The guy's about almost 400 pounds, so he's not going to do it. And I saved all these old publication periodicals from getting tossed in a dumpster. They didn't even have a dumpster there.

You should scan them and then put them on a website for people, or get somebody to do the scanning for you. Yeah, I wish my son could step up for that, because I've got nine boxes of American Free Press spotlights. I've got some old wars, a few copies of the old Resistance Records magazines.

Doubles, of course. I would sell the extras, because I'm in a nine foot by 50 foot trailer, and I'm knocking stuff all over the place trying to walk through here. I'm never going to get rid of this stuff.

You could sell them on a website, sell PDFs for like a buck each or something like that. You could make yourself some money. You said PDFs? Yeah, you scan them using a scanner, and you scan them into a document, and then it becomes a PDF file.

You can just put them on a website and sell them to people for a buck each. Yeah, I would put the money in, and I'd send a donation to the NSM. I'd send a donation to Carl Hand's group, who has the White Christmas Drive, if you're all familiar with that, and stuff like that.

I'd save some money to get my grandkids out of here, because we're too close to Detroit, and it's getting darker and darker and more dangerous all surrounding it. I remember seeing on YouTube a video of some... Turn some lights on! That's what the NSM did. We marched through there.

Yeah, we put some sun wheels up there in that town, didn't we, Randall? Yeah, we sure did. Hey, I don't want to cut you guys off, but we've got 434. He's got his audio problems squared away, and he's out there standing in the freezing cold trying to get in here, so I'm going to bring him in real quick.

434, are you there? Yeah, I'm here, man. Okay, what was it that you wanted to bring to the table, brother? You got something good for us? Yeah, well, I just wanted to tell a little story I had about my time working at McDonald's for a little bit. Okay, this should be interesting.

Anytime it's McDonald's in Florida that starts with, it's usually pretty interesting. Go ahead. It wasn't a McDonald's in Florida, it was a McDonald's in Virginia.

No, I'm saying if it's any combination of those two, though. Either the words Florida or McDonald's are in it, it's usually going to be some good shit. But go ahead.

Well, I was working there for about a couple hours, and I met some really nice people. Well, people who I thought were really nice. And I'm just going to, well, they weren't.

They seemed nice at first. And then they decided to, I don't know how to say it, but how else to say it other than this. I went out to go have a cigarette, and this was when they had just raised the law in Virginia, that I can't, and fucking Jews or whatever, whoever did that.

All right, before we go any further, we've got three words that we're not allowed to say. You just said two of them. The other one is for the people south of the border.

So anything else goes on the platform, but the platform has strict rules against that. I don't care if you call it a spoof. I apologize deeply.

I don't care. No, I'm just letting you know. It's okay.

You probably didn't catch the disclaimer. It's not us. No, I didn't.

I actually don't have a problem with it. But the platform does not allow it. Gotcha.

Recognized. Yeah, go ahead. All right, so basically, I ended up getting fired and bitched out by a woman of color who, she just started screaming at me.

She just approached me and started screaming at me, like, you don't curse out no old woman. And I walk in there, and it was a woman who is Jewish, and she had lied to this black woman saying that I had cursed her out in private, which I don't know how that works out, because if you've been to the McDonald's where I'm at, there's no room to, like, curse somebody out, you know? You know what I mean? Whoa. Like, there's no, there's no, there's no, like, there's no, like, it's like they ganged up on me, you know? That's how it feels.

Was her Big Mac kosher? So, so was the Chimp Mac. Was her Big Mac kosher? Go ahead, go ahead. Basically, the Jews can do whatever they want and get away with it, because they're obviously a privileged group.

The same thing happened to me in another city. I was actually struck by a vehicle driven by a rich Jew. I was on a bike.

I had grocery bags on each handlebar, and the Jew saw me, and she accelerated the vehicle at me, struck me, knocked me off the bike. It was on camera. I had a witness.

I called the police. I was going to charge her with vehicular assault. I said, I want to lay assault charges against this person, and then they said, oh, yeah, we'll look at it.

Of course, these officers weren't white. Then I went back to my place, and I got a call from the sergeant, and he said, oh, yeah, sorry, but, you know, no harm done, blah, blah, blah. So, I said, well, you must be a freemason or something like that, because you're running cover for your Jewish master, and he said, oh, what are you doing using that? And then, so he's just like, oh, I think we're done here, and then that was the end.

They can basically do whatever they want to you with impunity, and that's the same thing that happened to me in this case here. I had actually attempted suicide after this, because I was so tired of this horrible society that I had to live in, so then I slashed my wrist, and I was taken by the ambulance. When the police came, one of them was a Filipino, and he basically said, oh, that's not how you commit suicide.

You do it like this. He showed me a different way, a different part of the anatomy. Wow.

That's disgusting. He actually wanted to encourage me to kill myself, and then from there, I was taken to the hospital, and who did I see there? Number one, there was Jewish nurses around there babbling and trying to, you know, slander me, bragging about their vacation stuff and insulting me. Jewish security guards.

Then I go and get a Jewish psychiatric nurse who says, oh, you never know what's going to be on the other side, you know? Trying to encourage me to kill myself again. And then there's another Jewish psychiatrist, and she says, I tell her, I don't hate Jews. I don't have any hatred of Jews.

And then what do I find later in the report? Loki discussed his hatred of Jews. That's like a verbatim quote from her. And then what did she do? She didn't put me on a suicide watch.

She just let me go right away, and I was telling her, like, if I go to jail, I'm just going to starve myself to death. I don't want to be, you know, I don't want to have to go through an ordeal of that sort. And so, in other words, she just let me go without putting me on a suicide watch or anything else.

So I lodged a formal complaint against her. And then, you know, just recently, I find in the disclosure, oh, look, it looks like I was telling about my hatred of Jews, apparently, even though I explicitly stated that I didn't hate Jews. So they wrenched it from context and put it in the paper there.

Yeah. So it's basically just more of the same twist, inversion, fact, reality that they always play their little mendacious games all the time. And that's basically the general, the general stories that I've encountered.

Yeah. The same old, I'm a victim. You know, the Jew cries that they're a victim when they're stabbing you.

Yeah. Yeah. So basically, that's one of the incidents that happened here.

And I did a journaling of the last year of all the little incidents that happened to me dealing with Jews and how they're always trying to throw stumbling blocks in my path and always trying to screw me over, all sorts of sneaky little games that they're playing here. So it's just an endless series. Hey, one question.

Go ahead. Loki, one question. OK.

I know there's Jews connected with the psychiatry thing, the big scam, because they invented it and they exploit it. But I was getting a publication from Dr. Ed Fields out of Marietta, Georgia. He says they don't really have Jewish nurses where they, you'll never find one because they have to touch people and it's just not their cup of tea.

Did you actually have medical Jewish nurses there? Yeah. Yeah. I've seen a couple of them.

I guess to them it's just, you know, they can get off on injecting poison into people. Yeah. Good point.

You know, in my life earlier, I had some red-skinned nurse, you know, she was like, seemed to be sort of filled with this perverse delight when she gave me one of those vaccinations at the time. I didn't know about the evils of vaccinations. So yeah, they seem to have an evil, vengeful personality, too, the red-skinned around this country.

They're all sort of like backstabbing, evil types of creatures, you know, always trying to throw you into trouble. Like you said before, when you were making comments about the redskins, hey, Custer had Crow Scouts that hated the Sioux and went against him. I think the Northern Cheyenne had a problem with the Rikara.

They were slaughtering each other before we had so many whites coming over here back again after they slaughtered us thousands of years ago. And yeah, they have the problems. So now they're all supposedly united? Yeah, yeah.

You made some good points on that. That's the claim that they make, that they're all a united group. But if the white people just evaporated, they would be cutting each other's throats and scalps, cutting each other's horrible tortures.

Yeah, exactly. I think Thomas Goodrich wrote a book called Scalp Dance recently, which was basically demonstrating how the redskins basically tortured each other and rival tribes, you know, poking like burning hot brands and impaling each other with these burning hot brands and, you know, trying to get as much pain as they possibly could to feed their pain god, Augie, who is apparently a god that they worshipped. Yeah, a pain god called Augie, the pain god.

That's gross. Yeah, basically most of their whole culture, just like most of the non-whites, their culture is based on sort of like a demonic, I don't know what, propitiation or invocation of like demons. You know how Africans, they have their voodoo, they have biting the heads off chickens, Obia and Wonga.

It's the same thing. Gambala. Yeah, it's the same thing with the redskins.

They're basically, they like to portray themselves as some sort of, you know, very spiritual superior beings, but all of their so-called spirituality is basically just demonology or whatever you care to call it. It's a diabolic. Right.

Good point. Another thing, it's like, here's a bunch of stone age savages. They never invented the wheel.

I don't think they had anything made out of metal until the whites, we came back here. They didn't, you'll see, you know, in certain places, white people, they're a little confused. You'll see the picture of the Indian chief on the horse in their house.

I said, hey, you people are part Indian. Oh yeah. You look whiter than John Boyd Walton and Marsha Brady.

Knock that off. And then they got the Indian chief on the horse. First of all, very few of them had the war bonnet.

All they had was a stupid feather. Until the Spaniards introduced horses here, all they did was walk around and probably eat dead animal carcasses and a little horn. And they never accomplished enough.

That's basically all they had. It was a little pony for the Spaniards introduced the horses. I wouldn't agree to eat the ponies after riding them.

They're always this, regardless of the time. You can't change biologies because you slap a suit on a monkey doesn't make it anything other than a monkey in a monkey suit. It's the same thing.

Where in the hell is the purge when we need him? Isn't purge the expert on this shit? Yeah. Well, I thought he was. We put the chant out there, that usually reels them right in.

I should give some more examples about the Redskins in Canada. Where I was living in a city called Winnipeg. Everybody probably knows where that is, I guess.

It's like an exact geographical center of Canada. That's sort of like a Redskin stronghold. There's a large portion of them there.

I think it's about 25% of the population is Redskin. And last I was there, I was trying to get an apartment. They were running some type of social service bureaucracy.

I didn't have a job at the time, but I had enough money to pay off a loan. But they wouldn't give me housing at all. So they were trying to throw me in the streets.

And then I said, hey, why are you doing this? I've got to pay for it. And then right away they start getting all aggressive. Trying to almost physically assault me and throw me out there.

But eventually I got a ghetto apartment right in the downtown across from my old university there. And what happened just before that, people had been hacked to death by machetes. On one side of my apartment there was a Redskin drug dealer.

On the other side there was another Redskin drug dealer. Just outside of the window in a house, there was a bunch of faggot Redskins that were going through all sorts of people involved in their faggotry. And they were staring at me when I was having a bath and stuff.

Hooting and hollering, trying to invite me to their mixed-race orgy. And then underneath there they had a mixed-race couple. Some dumpy so-called Christian white guy with his Filipino oriental there.

And they were all pestering me and bothering me. And then right next door there was like a... The Redskin drug dealer had their little chillins, their braves. They were puffing away on weed, dealing drugs over the place.

It was like some type of drug den. So they're hanging around outside the window, screeching and shouting all the time. And I get pissed off because I'm trying to write.

And so I take a cup of water and I fling it out the window at them. And then I hear this shrieking sound from the Redskin. And she calls the police on me.

Then the police come to the apartment. A Negro and his Jewish superior police officer. And they're scrounging around in my place.

And they're trying to pump me for information. Talking about the assassination of Paula Timmons and stuff. Trying to find out if I was going to do that.

Because I guess it might have been that city. For me distributing some propaganda and stuff there too. So yeah, they're basically trying to scout on me and stuff.

Next door the other Redskin. I'm telling him, can you please not play super loud music late at night. I'm trying to go to sleep.

And then this guy is getting a hammer. Trying to rush at me and stuff like this. But then he eventually gets arrested and carted off to jail.

So here I am trying to walk around the downtown at night. And I've got a police helicopter in that city following me all around. Into the trendy area where I was trying to get away from all the dirty savages.

That I'm seeing a Negro running a convenience store. Pimping young white girls out of there. In Winnipeg, Canada? Yeah, definitely a sad scenario.

And you see all these upper class white people are giving these savages free. Free this, free that. Here's your government grant.

Here's your free convenience store. Casinos too? What's that? Do they get casinos too like they do here? The redskins do, but in this case it was a Negro. And I've seen this on multiple occasions.

They have their free convenience store. And they're turning it into a drug den. You know, like a business.

Drug business. And then they've got a prostitution ring running. And so forth.

They're prostituting redskins. Yeah, pretty much. That whole city is just another sign of the decay of the society.

Of course the city is run totally by Jews. By the Asper family. The Diamond family.

Hey, I've got, well, actually two things. I've got a joke. You want to hear it? Go ahead.

A black man walks into a store and buys something. All right, here we go. That's funny.

I've got another caller here. 239. I'm going to bring them in.

239, go ahead. Hey, how are my fine civet friends doing? How? Hey. You sound like the guy that was on the thing two, three nights ago.

Yeah, that's right. You remember me, don't you? How's it going, bud? Yeah. You were talking about southwest Florida.

That's right. We're flying high. That's good.

We should turn your shit around. I had a dream about Trump. No, that wasn't sexual.

After he got reelected, he turned on the Jews. And we all went. That would be awesome.

I always think that Trump should win the dictator thing. Get the Jews out of circulation. And install National Socialism.

That would be cool. If Trump became like this dictator. Where he had statues of himself.

Like Joseph Stalin. Or Idi Amin. All around the United States.

He got rid of the media. And slowly made this country. Whiter than a Brady Bunch.

He said the media is the enemy. The enemy of the people. I wonder what he was really trying to say.

The Jews are the enemy of the people. Maybe. Maybe not.

I don't know. He's in the tank. He might be a front man.

For all I know. Yeah. I caught in on you.

Go ahead. Yeah. He gave us a little lip service.

His name is Drumpf. With a D and an F. A D on the front and an F on the back. Drumpf.

I can tell you like him. That's his real name. His real Jewish name.

He's not a Jew. Maybe in his heart and his mind. Excuse me.

Let me refresh that. Let me rephrase that. Maybe in his mind and in his soul.

In his heart. He's a Jew. I don't know if he is.

Physically. Biologically. He doesn't really look Jewish.

But at the same time he's got weird colored skin. Even if it's a town. It's sort of the way Jews town.

They always have a sort of off colored look. It's not really the same sort of coloration of skin. I've always noticed that Jews have skin like a banana peel.

Yeah. Sort of like a grody corpse like look. He's always making those.

Those freemasons. Those criminals too. Bernie Sanders.

You know what he wants to do? He wants to go to Africa. On our taxpayer money. And do abort.

Millions of black babies. Right. And then you know what he's going to do? He's going to make a killing in the stem cell.

The stem cell thing. He's going to make a billionaire out of them. That's his plan.

Yeah by Sanders. No shit. He's so evil man.

He's the worst of the Jews. That look. The Jews that have that look.

Like Bernie. They're the worst. They're the devil.

A little bit like Larry Finer. The Three Stooges. In their physical appearance.

Those people are scary you know. They don't play. You guys have heard about that book.

How to Recognize a Jew. How to Recognize and Identify a Jew. It's a handbook.

That's a good handbook for understanding the physiognomy of Jews. How to Recognize and Identify a Jew. By John Dogoy.

Type that in. That will give you a 60 page run down of all the minute particulars. I hate to say this.

Some of them are Aryan looking. Not that many. They're all in a mixed group.

At the same time they still have generalizable features. You can detect certain qualities and features of theirs. Bernie Sanders is a typical stereotype.

Most dangerous. I'm glad he had that heart attack. He bought us our country some time.

The other guy died. That black guy died. Cummings.

That was a godsend for us. Give us some background on him. Forget about Cummings.

Refresh us on that. Who Cummings was. He's dead.

He's a black congressman. Big race beta. He was the strength on the impeachment trial.

He was basically the head of it. It's starting to come back now. Maybe there is hope for us.

I think we're an endangered species indeed. My son, I got five grandchildren which is good. I like to raise them out in the country because we're too damn close to Detroit.

One of the kids' granddaughters is in Kentucky. One is in Tennessee. If they're in the country that's good.

The other three grandchildren are up here. We're too damn close to Detroit. Isn't it a shame we have to resort to hiding going into the freaking woods? Yeah.

It's crazy. I live in the mountains here in Kentucky. The Mexicans are absolutely flooding the place.

How about Bowling Green, Kentucky? That's on the western side. I'm on the eastern side of Kentucky. Like Pikeville? I grew up in Pikeville and I'm living about 40 minutes north of Pikeville now in a town called Pikesville.

We've got a population of about 600 now. There's four Mexican restaurants in this small ass town. There's no east but now there's more methamphetamine than you'd shake a stick at now.

I understand. You know who's behind that of course. You know who's behind that, right? Exactly.

It's obvious as it can be. Every gas station we've got now is Arabs have took it over and now they're buying automobiles. The government's giving them free grants to set up to buy businesses here.

We talked about that on another show. We're getting screwed, man. Hey, I looked up I looked up I was just going to say it's their policy globally to just sort of take the shit and smear it as thickly as they can over all of the white bread basically so that the whole of the sandwich becomes a shit sandwich and then it becomes like a Trojan horse.

All of these gas stations, mosques, Sikh temples, Chinese community centers, every one of those is basically like a terrorist organization that they're just using to consolidate their power and then when the Jews give the signal then... You know what the worst thing you know what the sickest thing is? They've got white people hating white people now. Oh, the anti-white white. I know people and they go don't you want to make babies with a, I don't know if it was a white woman or a white guy, it was a white woman.

Don't you want to make babies with a white man? So the kids will come out looking like you Oh, it don't matter no more They came up with some like lame explanation like She watches a lot of TV Oh, don't worry about it, let things go, you know, just go with the flow. If they want to have babies with a black, it's fine As long as they're happy. Like they're on drugs Basically most of the women are brainwashed at this time because they're so emotional and it's their natural tendency to be emotional more so than rational You know why they're brainwashed? Because the education system in this country is all run by communists very liberal They have an open grade school now and then the college is just a finishing course for communists Hey a buddy there from Kentucky My mom's people come out of Pikeville My father's people come across the border from West Virginia They moved all around But going down there in the 60s and 70s just to visit some old kinfolk who knows who's alive That area was white, Appalachian, Scots, Irish, Germanic You're telling me what you're telling me I'm ready to go to the beer store now You should come down here to Southwest Florida There's a lot of us down here but they're still kind of sleepy but at least we're cut out of the same cloth That's what keeps us sane Hey you know what all those white girls picked up with these black guys and now they're free babies They're going to feel sorry because now when they go to family reunions they're going to feel left out because they're going to be the only white person That sounds not good You'll be sorry Over here we've got potatoes for the Irish side of the family We've got pasta for the Italians and pretty much everything else that's white over here If you guys want stuff for your side of the family, the KFC and the watermelon is located over on the table over there It's like the candy store you know the old candy store you go in there and it was all white chocolate now you've got this variety over here you've got that variety over there Oh my goodness Before I forget the main reason why I called was I looked up the 109 countries that they expelled the Jewish people out of and they were all from Europe except for one country Guess what it was Egypt? No, it was Russia That's hard to believe They kicked them out in 1392 Well they must have found their way back there sometime between then and World War II Can I ask you a question? Do you think Putin's in with Israel and the Jews? Putin is a Jew His mother is a Jew by Halakhic Law I've seen his family retreat I heard otherwise His mother was a Christian Once again, it's just like their game They have the right wing, left wing type dichotomy then they set up a world war My belief is that they're just portraying Putin as an enemy so that they can create that dialectic and bring it to America versus China and Russia It's all fake I get it Let's take a look at what we know about the Russians What do we know today? We know in the past during World War II they were communists They wrote the whole handbook for communism with Lenin and the Bolsheviks and taking out the Romanovs You fast forward to today and look at where us Americans have to go just to be able to talk on fucking social network We gotta go to VK We try to post what we want to post on American sites like Facebook or Twitter I hate to sound like a dumbbell but what's VK? A lot of people in America don't know what it is It's a Russian word I think it's Vikante I call it VK for short It's Russia's version of Facebook It's a Facebook clone but it doesn't have all the rules and stipulations Short of making death threats you can go on there and say what you want We've had so many Jews try to oust us We're actually broadcasting on VK on my page right now If you go to my page on VK I'm live streaming this whole show You'll see a picture of my talking head Alright so I'm asking you this question Commander Is Russia Does that mean they're an ally of us? What's the bottom line? At the very least they're not totally against us because they would have shut this down a long time ago and it seems to me like Russia's one of the few nationalist countries left out there I think at one time they were in the fall of communism It'd be easy to say that they killed Germans and Nazi Germany and Russia were enemies and yada yada yada but I'm not getting that feeling from them at all It seems like the tables have turned substantially and it's pretty sad when we've got to go to their sites just to be able to exercise our first amendments because we've got a bunch of communists here Right I read about that site It was in the AFP They did expel them in 1392 They had good reason too That's right Hey nobody talks about the case Amen brother A very important subject Everybody's thinking like Jews from the Bible and all that crap providing answers You know what the Bible is my friend? It's the Wall Street Journal That's the Bible Yeah there you go But I studied this Cesar thing and I look at some of these Jews They got them round big ass heads and they look like Turks like a Turkish guy And they're in the big time They're in the big time baby killing business for the stem cell There's big money in that Oh yeah yeah The abortion clinics are basically just consuming them themselves in local communities They probably consume the aborted fetuses Oh my god They're probably using them for delicacies They probably cook them up and eat them They eat the dead fetuses Oh god The blood banks are basically run by the adrenochrome Yeah exactly the adrenochrome They basically they torture the person with Jewish ritual murders and then they torture them horribly so they can pump out adrenaline and then they obviously go further and extract it for themselves But the blood banks too I'm pretty sure most of those are run just so they can feed off the blood of white people They use us Aryan warriors for their mules to go out and do their dirty work do all the killing Most of the best soldiers in the United States are Aryans The books on Jewish ritual murders pretty much goes into some of that but you guys just gave the screw about three more turns That's pretty interesting Have you guys ever seen a kosher slaughter before? No I heard they take chickens over and they break their necks over their shoulders I heard they do that Oh you should see Go check out one of those Pull them up on YouTube I'm pretty sure that stuff is okay to play on there and you'll see how horrific Oh sorry They depict that in the movie The Eternal Jew The National Socialist movie Right at the end That kosher slaughter Where they cut the cow's throat and they don't stun it first Yeah they let it bleed out They're a bunch of sick fucks is what they are Then they sit there and Hitler comes out with laws against stuff like that and he's the evil one That stuff is disgusting I heard 70% of abortionists Even Hitler was afraid of those people Yeah I heard 70% of abortionists are Jews This is some older stuff and 90% or more of the people getting abortions to women are white That's just total destruction of the white race by a hymie But at the same time though most of those white women wouldn't be very good mothers if they were just going to toss their children Not to mention abortion though Yeah I'm wondering if adoption is something but you never know if the Jews are running adoption stuff like a pedophile ring Yeah they are too They basically adopt gentile children and basically subject them to whatever Maybe sell them on the slave market as well because they obviously run international slavery Yeah like that Epstein guy I think they are the king of bad I know there's There's gentiles and Guys I need you to check your background If anybody's on a speaker I'm sure we're getting some massive feedback on here I'm going to have to start cutting line Yeah that could be mine I get echoing now Alright that was me I think We've got a computer in the background Please mute it because it's feeding back I'll have to drop the call No it's just my phone Is it mine? Yeah it sounds better now I don't want to feed on that but Aryans do dirty deeds too Alright Nothing like Jews Nothing like Jews Right We don't have a tail meat I got to tip my hat You've got so much power in that media Oh my god that media is so powerful Go check out the Orthodox What is that thing where they Orthodox Jews They give them a circumcision there, put their mouth right on the penis of the small Jewish baby They even have a specific name for the person who does that called the mohel When I call people out on that you know what they say about that? They say oh those are Orthodox as if I'm supposed to give a fuck somehow what kind of a fucking Jew it is.

It's a fucking Jew is a fucking Jew to me What do I give a shit if it's a fucking Orthodox Jew, traditional Jew a child molester Jew, a money counting Jew. They're all Jews And the auction meant that they were all good only the Orthodox ones are bad It's all against Jews against Jews In that diamond business the ones that dress up in black and they're in the stem cell business too I think the slave trade they have in Israel prostitution is legal in Israel you know that? Prostitution is legal? I didn't know that Yeah it is, in Israel it is So you can go visit God right and then go cross town and get a blowjob and not get arrested. Hey do they all look like Roseanne Barr? That's a joke I won't They all look like Carol Brunette They tried to send me over to Tel Aviv before and I won't go anywhere near Israel not because of my personal beliefs Are you kidding me? It's got nothing to do with any of that They'd take one look at me and have me arrested The problem with it is if you go into a country like Israel with a U.S. passport out there and you have any ambition or desire to go into any other country and they stamp an Israeli stamp on your passport you may as well just take your passport and throw it in the fucking garbage because they are not going to let you into any other countries out there You've got to have them stamp it on a separate piece of paper If anybody ever listens to the sound of my voice goes to Israel do not let them stamp inside the permanent page of your passport.

Christ if you ever want to go to an Arab country or anywhere that's even remotely Muslim I think I'll be going there I don't want to go there If you go there you might not come back out of it Yeah right If I could feel safe going there I think I'd go to Nazareth But other than that I wouldn't go into television God I'd fucking scream What the fuck am I doing here I want to be as far away from those people as possible Christ I'll go run across the street I'll go run across the street Oh Jews They're going to kill us all They'll help you erase the hate Erase the hate Yeah right And then they turn around They're poking you with a stick and then they call you a hater at the same time Isn't that wonderful Shalom Shalom Goem Mazel Tov Believe me This country is so vast It's so huge It's a lot of pocket change you got up in there and those cops take it up and get a head start on them Interesting Well guys we got about 58 minutes left to the 3 hour mark Anybody else wants to join in the conversation Interesting conversation though Guys try to be respectful If you hear somebody else already speaking if you would just yield for editing reasons It makes my life a lot easier There's no way to edit whenever you guys talk over each other I've got to cut the whole piece I can't untangle it Well Randall Take the lead brother What do you got Well this is how sensitive that we've had to become here in the state A McDonald's is apologizing after displaying an insensitive Halloween decoration A McDonald's forced to apologize this week after several customers took offense to an insensitive Halloween decoration displayed below the cash register Eric Pocock was food at the North Sand Row Tuesday when he noticed a number of festive decorations below the counter It looked like a typical Halloween decoration It said Happy Halloween It had some spider webs and spiders and stuff like stuff and it haunted a tree and I was like well okay that's cute Then he looked a little closer That's not so cute. That's not right Pocock was referring to the decal with a person hanging from a tree He said it looked more like a lynching Other customers were upset over the image. One woman told WHDH that the decoration goes against what the franchise is about.

McDonald's represented Ronald McDonald helping children she said across the street from a high school. It's just wrong Something so insensitive like this they need to take it down Pocock said They should have thought twice about putting that up. The restaurant owner and operator Chuck Winfrey issued a statement to local stations apologizing for the image.

We deeply regret that this decoration was on display and as soon as we identified the inappropriate content we immediately removed the decoration display he said Creating an environment that is welcoming and inclusive to all guests and employees is of critical importance and we apologize for any unintended offense that may have arised in our community So a simple spooky Halloween decoration turned into a shitshow A lot of McDonald's when you see somebody that's hung you think about lynching Just amazing

So I didn't catch all that Randall you're saying that they had a rope in a tree there at the McDonald's or what was the dealio? It was a decoration below the cash register and you know it had the spider webs and everything and then had like a haunted little tree and in that tree there was a person that was hung from it it was just you know a little something they put up underneath the cash register they didn't put a picture of it up in the article of what it exactly looked like but they're saying people after they noticed it while they were paying for food that first thing that came to their mind was a lynching. Well yeah I think that's what it was I mean that's stuff that you see during Halloween I agree It's just totally insane that we've become have to be that sensitive about every little thing Well it's not we that's sensitive they're a bunch of bitch made sissies is what they are and they keep on, I mean this stuff doesn't stop, it's just gonna go on and on and on. It starts off with stuff like that, stupid little petty ass shit and then eventually you know they're coming into your house saying well this offends me and that offends me so your white skin offends me you know they won't be happy until white people change but it's disturbing I mean how many people don't see this? On the same token I mean you gotta admit what we've seen so far there has been a dramatic change with people recognizing this problem I mean white nationalism is on the rise if not just in America it is on the rise around the world and for the countries that we can't see the media seems to reflect that for what those of us here in the United States we know it's on hell I can tell you I don't know what the other groups are doing but I can tell you that our numbers are going up steadily and steadily I just posted the numbers for blog talk and for VK did you happen to catch those Randall? How many countries were broadcasting this show in today? Isn't that some shit? It's through the roof We're doing something I saw a little country called Rwanda in Africa light up on the mouse like what the fuck is Rwanda? I like to think of it as that movie Black Panther where were they all from the chimps in that movie I can't even think of the name of it I never actually watched the movie but I heard all of it because I know all the black guys were going around saying yeah that's where I'm from I'm from there and it wasn't even a real place it was like a fictitious place but they were saying all their relatives were there from there Oh yeah I mean this community shit like that kills me and that's why Halloween I'm planning on going out just to see how many shocks and awes I can get They probably won't know what the fuck to think when they see you No I mean that's what we're going to do for Halloween we're going to walk the street in uniform and I want to have a handful of flyers if anybody wants to have a conversation I just want a flyer Was it Wakanda? Yeah that's it Wakanda that was the name of the town I had to look it up So all these fine young Jerry Curl brothers go around saying no my family is from Wakanda and I guess in the movie it was my understanding that this was some great big technology thing or something that they had all this technology that doesn't exist today and probably never will but supposedly the blacks invented it Oh yeah Yeah these motherfuckers don't even know who the hell their father is for Christ's sake they tell me that they know what country Oh yeah I'm from Wakanda Fuck outta here It's not even a real place I'm going to use that saying at one of our events or maybe in one of the interviews Give a white man a pile of bricks he'll give you a city Give a black man a city he'll give you a pile of bricks Exactly That should be one for a chant That'll be pretty good It's kind of long Yeah it's kind of long but it'll still draw a lot of attention It's a fact You go to the black part of town and it looks like hell You go to the white part of town it looks beautiful It's common sense They like to destroy everything they touch for sure and if you say anything about it you say you don't want it in your neighborhood the Jews will call you a racist I love to do this I love to do this Yeah I mean I don't know what's worse about it the fact that the Jews and the blacks are pulling this shit or the white people are dumb enough to care that they're doing it This is what blows my mind They come into my neighborhood or any places I live and they come in and say Hey you know your shit over there your house is too clean your grass is too green that's racist You're going to have to do something about that I'm going to look at them What you been smoking? Get off my fucking yard Sambo That's why you need some rock salt and 12 gauge for them They've got different what do they call that different anatomies than what we've got With rock salt the fuckers are liable to melt like battery acid or something Who the hell knows All that we have in common but we're so obtuse speaking in terms of geometry so opposite The world we live in is definitely upside down and inside out It's good that people are really beginning to realize that's important I was beginning to wonder there for a lot of years Is everybody this fucking stupid? It's so sad that so many still are and it needs even an attempt to try to tell them and clue them in on what's happening They explode with a rage and where does that come from? Is that something that the Jews have put in there secretly to hypnotize them to come at you with rage like that when you try to open their eyes? I've had to listen to more assholes over the years with their bullshit People who think they know everything and they couldn't find their assholes with both hands and a flashlight After 9-11 happened I had to listen to all these stupid people out there It's not all Muslims It's just the extremists from 9-11 Islam is a religion of peace Now here it is 5-10 years later They're all child molesters They're all a bunch of terrorists I tried to tell you that back in 2001 but you could hammer nails with your fucking heads The masses are a strange animal It's funny how they react It's like they're on the short bus diversity I don't think I'd go up with a black eye I'm out I was in for a minute Right away Your speaker's already spoken One of them just dropped off Might be Hello there brother How y'all doing? Doing well Randall.

How are you? I've just wanted to listen to everything And I agree wholeheartedly I hammered their asses in that era Few minutes ago when I walk out in the morning and just what's up there and public me off Everything's you know, sort of like the damn Jesus all took over and panned everything on her way But um, I figured I'd call and say how do you guys good anyway? Yeah, we're just hammering it out, son You know trying to hope that We might you know, uh save our race from extinction, but you know We need Arian out there on board. So, uh, I will like I've asked many times before so when you're gonna join Yeah, yeah, and I know i've been coming back pedal on that It's gonna take more than color when everybody just save our race Oh, yeah, you know just just you know, just every time I go back pissed off about I can't even go to the grocery store If I get pissed off, you know, you know just race trader this I don't know But uh, I didn't want to keep you guys doing all right, I just want to say hello I really enjoyed the show. I listened to it all night.

So don't jump in lunch, but um, every time you guys are on the ferry I appreciate it Yeah, we gotta get together soon and catch up. Yes, we do randall. Uh, actually, uh, the gentleman I was speaking to you about earlier today Yeah, uh, i'm thinking about having a lunch with him So somewhere around that time frame you can be available and you may write up if you want to no, that's good Yeah, uh hammer george is a real good guy.

Uh, Yeah, he called me. Uh, he uh, you know, he sent me a couple messages now, you know me man I'm always busy, but uh, you know me and him talked about 30 minutes. We're on the same page.

So everybody's good to go Yep Yeah, definitely. Let me know when you put uh, try to get up there and i'll try to break away Cool. Now he uh, he is actually where I used to live either.

He's actually right there I mean where I used to live up since he so we'll figure something. We can't always gonna hatch some things Sounds good. All right Do it now I say kentucky's coming in strong.

Y'all got to get on that on that kentucky swamp water up there. That shit's my kryptonite I know everybody It tastes like piss, but I get addicted to that la Do you like that la? Yeah, I know it man, uh, the only way I like la and jack dangles I haven't tried that but I probably need to yeah, you you're gonna enjoy that next stuff If there's some way randall, let me know where we'll be in the same area I can make it happen I'll bring you a six pack and we'll just fit But uh, yeah, I like la pretty well, you know I'm right in central kentucky right now. So I don't hear a lot of me and randall kind of distance right now We're gonna work on that.

Yeah, that sounds good. Get active if you can bring your friends too Everybody's coming in. I know people a lot a lot of people out there talking shit and organization including this one Have gone out there in the past and been like, oh our numbers are through the roof and they're phenomenal randall Do I fucking lie? I mean, come on i've been afraid about everything.

I've I put our goddamn numbers for our platform out there today I'm, i'm as transparent as transparent can be about the the bills that this organization has about the numbers that we turn the productivity, uh, i'm Very transparent about the membership, uh membership numbers. I will not under any circumstances give out member information Everybody knows that I am an asshole about that I refuse to do that and if they ever want to kick my doors in fbi or anybody else Good luck because there ain't a damn thing to take because I don't collect it And if you don't believe me just ask any of my members because they get aggravated with me when they order shit from the store I've got to ask them for their damn address every time and as soon as it goes out in the mail I shred it and I gotta ask them for it the next time I'm not going to keep it around my house Yeah, you know, that's kind of way man talking about georgia That's kind of why I was describing to him when I get up in the morning and hit that front door to go to work I know who's got my back. I don't care about who's the most popular or whatever.

I know who's actually got my back And i'm talking to randall talking to him. I don't know. Yeah.

Yeah We're going to be doing some more You'll be able to see a lot of that in action detroit, you know, we we we knocked it out of the park in detroit But I mean, let's be fair detroit was one event It's the only one we've had a chance to do under the new command staff and you know, which doesn't just consist of me It's you know of other people there's more to an organization than just its leader So I couldn't do this without all the other guys So we'll have others and they will be very successful and guarantee it and it's just our tactic We're not that we've we've you know, we've simplified the plumbing They don't more you overthink the plumbing the easier it is to stop up the drain So why has it got to be so damn complicated? Let's fix it. Let's make it simple Let's make it and that's exactly what we've done and it's working. It is absolutely working Simplify everything everybody wants to copy overcomplicate this that and others and they're simple is always better I'll tell you one thing and I got no problem putting out there publicly and randall you can take note of this, too What was happening that I saw with jeff scoop running this organization and it went on for I don't know how many decades Is he was making the state leaders responsible for answering the answering the emails for each and every state So for kentucky you had a state leader that was answering the email you had for florida every state out there in the union And yes It wasn't all the lower 48 And when these people they just got tired of doing work or got busy at their jobs And they didn't feel like answering emails.

They didn't get answered. That's been that's been eradicated. There's no more of that shit People want to reach out now.

It's set up on an auto reply All you got to do is email chief of staff at nsm88.org or commander bird at nsm88.org You'll get an auto reply with instructions right away and you'll get a phone call within usually within hours Or I got it Yeah, exactly. You got instructions there. That'll hold you over till we can get you on the phone Now you guys are doing great work.

I will jump in Randall knows much what I got going on. Awesome. I appreciate you calling in.

It's good hearing you in there You guys hang in there Hey Yeah, he's definitely one guy i'd love to bring you up, uh, he's a monster of a boy He he'd be really good to have standing beside us if we ever have questions Sounds like a southern gentleman Uh, and he's more rough biker. Well when you actually get the name, he would just be really I'm, just going judging by his voice Yeah He's definitely a straight up biker Yeah, uh lord, uh known him almost my whole life he's a real good guy I've been trying to pull him in, you know, uh all summer. I almost got him there good good work Yeah, we just got no we got another app on the mail today So just coming in boom boom boom people are seeing so I actually got a comment and i'm gonna tell you I don't know if I said this or not already.

I got one that actually swole my head. I'm not gonna lie It made me feel really and it was it wasn't a letter. It wasn't an app It was a message on vk messenger that somebody sent and they were asking questions basically drilling me drilling our shit Testing our tactics seeing what we're all about what our plans were and everything else And I was johnny on the spot with everything boom boom boom boom and he's like wow You guys really got your shit together everything from security to your protocols your procedures and everything else I said it may not be perfect, but we make a damn stern a bad choice of words not stern We we make a very valiant effort God I want to jinx it make a very valiant effort to uh To make sure that things go as they should and we've been lucky they have Hopefully I want to say it's not luck, but they really have gone quite well I'm, very happy and if things keep on going like this, uh, I anticipate there's gonna be problems I'm sure things wouldn't be normal if there wasn't problems.

It's just uh more we're more on the right path And I it just I it's frustrating because I can't help but wonder if we had we done this shit 27 years ago Where might we be today you see what i'm saying? Yeah, it's a frustrating notion. Well, I mean, you know Things should have changed, you know years back, but you know, you know hindsight's always 2020. There's no use to dwell on it You know, uh, we're definitely you know at a really good place right now and you just need to keep going forward with it So we shall Well, we got about 34 minutes left.

What do you think randall? You want to keep on going or you want to close it down for the evening? Let's see you Uh, we don't have any more takers. I guess we'll shut it down. All right, let's do the last call last call for alcohol You ain't got to go home, but you can't stay here questions concerns gripes picture or complaints push one on your keypad We will bring you in promptly for the close of the show closing comments Got one just popped up three three zero.

I'll bring you in right away three three zero. Go ahead Hey commanders. It's me matt.

Uh call must drop just call me. Okay. All right Leave you leave you open matt for the duration of the show Anybody else see there's still a dozen a year or so on the left on the line Push one or two keep that i'll bring you right in if not We're gonna go ahead and wrap it up randall.

You want to shut her down brother? Yep Guys, don't forget tomorrow night code truth commander and uh, be safe out there in 88 Yep, keep it legal out there everybody in 88. You guys have a good night Once again antifa members attack peaceful demonstrators and once again They came to fight dressed in black wearing masks and armed with smoke bombs shields and pepper spray. Take a look last night antifa the radical left-wing outfit That that follows through on on what a lot of democrats are kind of advising people to get radical They attacked the the republican headquarters in new york city.

They did damage They left some some of their antifa symbols, etc. And they said in a note attached to their damage They said this is merely the beginning Of a violent clashes broke out this weekend in portland, oregon Police say four people were arrested during demonstrations The protests involved anti-fascists known as antifa Groups claiming victory over far right protesters and they credit black clad antifa for driving trump supporters Out of 13 people were arrested and sunday's mugshots of 11 were released They face a variety of charges from rioting to resisting arrest Meanwhile back home people are waking up to the routine violence of left-wing activists and protests You've seen it a lot in the past couple of weeks in the name of stopping fascism Agitators are showing up at rallies and quickly getting violent this past weekend Even the washington post was forced against its will no question to admit that masked left-wingers Is fucking bullshits You have reached the national socialist movement the nsm is america's largest and premier white civil rights organization Year after year white americans labor at their workplaces only to have a few shackles throw at them on payday Afterwards they are told to keep their mouths shut Otherwise, they call them racists and tell them they are lucky they have a job at all The political struggle that you see before you today is pure smoke and mirrors Democrats and republicans are too weak to handle the current issues in the u.s And our track record proves it donald trump has excuses of why this border wall has not been built And why the federal government will not use the military to secure our border make no mistake border security Is the responsibility of the federal government not the individual state black people running through the streets rioting looting raping and destroying everything? They see because they know the international shanks purdue will come to his rescue pro bono in court The lgbtq community pushing for pedophilia with their drag queen story hours with children crawling all over the degenerate freaks All to the sound of claps and laughs And the masterminds of all this the international jew these kosher swines have been kicked out of 109 countries Just since 250 ad for reasons that we see right here in america today and around the world They flutter around and pretend to be your friends and seem harmless while they conspire behind closed doors to have you The goyem fight his war to the middle east and rob us flying back here at home If you are sick and tired of the nonsense the national socialist movement is the place for you Leave your name number and a brief message and we will get back with you as soon as possible Also, don't forget to check out our podcast at five one six four five three six zero five eight You can also call 24 hours a day seven days a week for showtimes and schedules.
