HOMENAJE A RUDOLF HESS
Y A LOS HÉROES NAZISTAS CHILENOS

Discurso en el Cementerio General de Santiago de Chile,
5 de septiembre, a las 5 de la tarde, del año 102

CAMARADES! Here we are again, another circle has closed, another year with its many events, within the acceleration of the time of the apocalypse, of the Götterdahnmerung. It happens like the old locomotives, which accelerated when they reached the last station; or like the horses, which speed up their gallop when approaching the querencia, the home... in this case, hell.

Right here, a year ago, along with paying homage to our Chilean Nazi heroes and to the ultimate hero, Rudolf Hess, assassinated on August 17, 1987, we also gave our support to the heroic people of Iraq and their leader, Saddam Hussein. We then offered to go to fight at their side.

It is not strange, comrades, that it is here, in this cemetery, surrounded by the dead and the ghosts of the dead, that we decide to review the fundamental facts of our terrible time. Because it is here, among the dead, where the last living that remain in Chile gather. And because these eternal dead are of course more alive than our compatriots out there, concerned only with making money, exploiting someone, or handing over the shreds of this sacred land to the masters of the world. They are just ghosts, dead in life, without an ideal, slaves of the most atrocious materialism, mere toys and robots of the propaganda directed from the centers of power of the world, of television, of the consumer society, of triumphant supercapitalism and legalized usury. Without faith, without ideals, dwarfs of materialism and without spirit.

It is the eternal dead who here listen to us and understand us. And they inspire us, from their glorious Walhalla, of immortal heroes. And our gods!

Yes! we were ready to go to fight and die, there, in Iraq, in ancient Mesopotamia, when the war ended abruptly... I'm reviewing now, I'm taking stock... What really happened? I want you to look for yourselves, to feel for yourselves... What happened, comrades? Concentrate, remember, so that you are not deceived by the enormous disinformation, by the propaganda controlled by the enemy, by the world center of power.... Look! What "Gulf War" are they talking about? The truth is that there was no war of any kind. There was only an indiscriminate aerial bombardment, a massacre, a savage genocide with millions of tons of explosives as in Hiroshima and greater than that of the entire Second World War. This is what those who talk about human rights boast about. Thirty and so many countries bombing from air, sea and land, testing there their new explosives and armaments, against an isolated and poor third world country, murdering, massacring, dismembering innocent, defenseless populations, with their most modern technology, dropping bombs from an enormous height, from where the earth cannot be seen, and only a radar screen can be seen, as if it were a video-game. And those Yankees, with phonos in their ears listening to rock and chewing "rubber" while dropping bombs, insensitive, automatons, robots!

Has anyone ever wondered: what is the difference between a cow chewing its cud and a Yankee chewing gum? And the answer would be: "the cow's intelligent face".

There was not, comrades, a single voice of protest against that technotronic massacre of a people inhabited by human beings, who still feel and suffer. There was no Vatican to raise its voice. Because this was a war of the transnationals. And the Vatican is a bankrupt transnational, which needs the support of money? That the Yankees are pathologically abnormal is proven by the grotesque hero's welcome given to the commander of that army of robots, as if he had won a war of the galaxies, to the bloodthirsty "bear"? What war, comrades? If there was no war, no breakthrough, no real terrestrial confrontation? Do you know what really happened, comrades? There was an agreement with Hussein, to make it appear that the Americans had won the war. And do you know why this agreement was reached? Because Hussein gave an ultimatum: if the bombing continued, he would attack Israel with a tremendous destructive weapon, which he still has. And so Iraq is left with its elite army intact and Hussein remains in power, with the same popularity. And the Americans can celebrate their "great triumph"; they are cured of the trauma of Vietnam and Bush secures his re-election. And no one asks for more, even though Israel does not get what it wanted; it does not get the territories of ancient Mesopotamia, necessary to be able to settle the million Jews coming from Soviet Russia.

It is in this way, comrades, that Iraq has not lost the war.

But now a second story begins, the one that has to do directly with us, the one that affects us, because where are those million Russian Jews going to settle, where are they going to put them? Here comes the serious part: in the Chilean and Argentinean Patagonia. With the agreement of our authorities, especially of the Ministry of National Goods, in the hands of the socialists, of the humanists and of the greens; that is to say, of a certain "Silo", gray eminence of the drug and spearhead of the American intelligence services and of the Zionism, that directs certain Chilean politicians of second class, but that have power, and moves them to make fulfill the ends of the Judaism and of its installation in the richest, although depopulated territories of Chile and Argentina. This "Silo" is an Argentinean Jew, originally from Mendoza.

Of all this I can speak with propriety, comrades, because for many years I have been fighting to take young Chileans to the virgin territories of Patagonia, where there are the largest hydrographic reserves in the world and also fishing and forestry reserves, so that the young people of our homeland have a horizon, a destiny. Beyond crime and drugs, and to make a homeland and to be able to live a life of superior and free men, not directed by machines, computers and robots. To carry out a Chilean colonization, along the lines of Nicolás Palacios, thus complementing the gigantic work of the construction of the southern highway. All this seemed to be possible and even advances of money were given for this colonization. But then we came up against the interests of Zionism and globalist Judaism, represented in Pinochet's government by the Jewish Melnik, as we denounced it in this very place, at the foot of this monument, several years ago. And it is all over; because the Jews were interested in those same territories, with their famous "Plan Andinia", denounced by our Argentine brothers and comrades. And because, for more than twenty years, the Jews, disguised as backpackers and poor hikers, have been traveling through the most secret and strategic regions of the south with the support of our authorities, the army, the navy and Conaf, knowing that they really belong to the Israeli army, aviation or intelligence services. And for this very reason, the little that we had achieved there has been taken away from us. And the houses that some of our young people had built with their own hands, during years of work and titanic effort, have been burned down, without the guilty parties ever being punished. Instead, huge extensions of virgin lands have been sold to Jews representing foreign firms, such as to a certain Rick Klein, of the "Ancient Forest International" or to a Jan Mosset, of the "World Tree Foundation", who already have hundreds of thousands of hectares in their possession; or to another Jew, Juan Carlos Schidlowski, a bead bird who has received another large amount of hectares to start, in the vicinity of the Melimoyu, a business with ecology, selling "ecological shares". But all this is only the spearhead, the advance of the great plan of the installation of millions of Jews in the least polluted area of the planet, the richest, the most mysterious and the most beautiful.

Our Homeland! in full view and acceptance of the authorities and our military. With the so-called "regionalism", which Chile should never have favored or accepted since Chile itself is already a region, where its survival card will always be centralism and a strong state, never weakened. With the "regionalism", malicious and exacerbated, it is will be one step away from the future atomization and division of the country, with Araucanian, Pehuenche, Huilliche, etc. areas. And if it is propitiated to depopulate the Laguna del Desierto on both sides, in order to reach an arbitration agreement, it will be easy for "that vacuum" to be filled by a "third party", coming from Russia or Israel, especially taking into account that our Ministry of Foreign Affairs has appointed a Jewish "jurist" as representative of our country. The "Andinia Plan" is not so absurd in the light of the dismemberments of Yugoslavia and of Soviet Russia itself, ordered by the "computerized" maps, already in the hands of the world government, or mundialist. And in view of this and of what the "secret masters of the invisible government" decide. France would not be doing crazy things, nor giving blind sticks when it goes ahead in time to include Easter Island in a stamp of its nationality.

Comrades, that's how things are, that's how they are going today.... secret and invisible government, world government, "new order"... Who are their bosses? Of course they are not the ones who appear every day on the television screens and in the pages of the newspapers. Mr. Bush is not. And he knows it. Nor Kohl, nor Major, much less Felipe Gonzalez. A little closer to the real summit would appear David Rockefeller, who would have come only a few months ago to Chile to certify the arrival of Russian Jews in the southern Patagonia. Something already endorsed by the meeting of Latin American Zionism, only a week ago in Santiago and with the presence of the Minister of the Interior.

What can our rulers do? Very little, almost nothing. Because they obey orders, as the press, as all the front organizations of large and small countries. This is the way things are handled in the world today and perhaps always has been. Orders are given and must be carried out. And they are obeyed by those politicians who, in some way, want to survive, knowing what it is all about. They are obediently obeyed by Felipe Gonzalez, who throws overboard centuries of friendship and unique relationship with the Arab world, to indiscriminately place the Spanish air bases at the disposal of the American bombers, who dropped tons of bombs on the Arab nation of Iraq. Menem does the same by sending ships to the Gulf, derisively, to collaborate with the British navy that bombed Argentine soldiers in the Malvinas. Thus they think they can change decisions already taken by the world government, which are irreversible and undemocratic. Because democracy is imposed only on an intermediate plane; in the world of the slaves, of the inferiors, who will have to work and obey a superior autocracy and the tyranny of the government of the private transnationals, where the directors are not elected by vote of the employees, but in secret conclaves, as in the Vatican. And in this world government, where the transnationals are the visible instrument of an inner circle, there is already a map of the earth divided by zones, or areas of production, consumption and relative power. And in this map, irremediably all of Latin America, Asia and Africa (except Japan) are slave zones, producers of raw materials and cheap labor; that is to say, what in military jargon is called "supply and transport zones". And we will not be able to get out of here (unless we rebel and fight a frontal war against the world government, like Iraq, even if we perish!) Chile already has the proof of what this means. When it has been deluded in being able to get out of from underdevelopment and become a developed country, the grapes are poisoned. When it rises from this disaster, cholera arrives, just where it should not, in the central zone, where the fruit is grown and harvested, instead of the north, where it would have been logical for it to arrive. And when the cholera is over, because the harvest and export season is over, the copper strikes begin, in our main source of foreign exchange. And when the harvest and export season returns, we are forewarned that there may be cholera again.

In the world map, the USA, Germany, England, France and Japan will be the creators of technology, electronics and science; they will be the great producers: this is the first world, the second world will be Spain and, possibly, Italy, consumers of "state-of-the-art technology". The third world, the manufacturers and producers of raw materials, we have already seen what it will be. Everything is thus programmed and divided? May Osorno forget about producing milk! This is reserved for Argentina...

And what will happen to Russia? This is extraordinary, comrades! Russia is going to be moved to the third world, to the world of slaves. Russia, in truth, has always been a great underdeveloped power. I said so already in 1971, in an interview. It was only for reasons of necessity of the great plan that it was made to appear as a dangerous world power. That it is now going downwards is indicated to us, more than openly, by the fact that the Jews are being removed from there and taken to safer regions.

And how do you achieve this incredible thing overnight? How, from the heights of power, in

In a matter of hours, powers that seemed indestructible are plunged into the abyss? How can Marxism, communism, become capitalism in the blink of an eye? And its statism, its controlled economy, become a consumer society, a social market economy? Its totalitarianism, a democracy; its KGB criminals, white doves?

Comrades, we, who have never given up on our ideals, may never be able to understand what happened to the communists (if not to communism) unless we remain inexorable in the only possible explanation, the only one that counts: the universal power of the Jew, who controls both capitalism and communism, having in both the usury as the basis of those temples of materialism: the loan and the interest of capital.

But, nevertheless, let us pause to meditate for a moment, more with our hearts than with our heads, on all the terrible, atrocious things that have happened, and on what it must be for those true idealists, who gave themselves with all their intelligence, with their lives and even with their death, to the ideals that for them meant Marxism, communism and the world revolution in which they believed. Let us remember those years that preceded the Russian revolution, its writers.

Let us remember Maxim Gorky, Boris Pilniak, Sevolod Ivanov, Constantin Fedin, Michael Arzibachev, Dostoiewsky himself and Gogol. His pessimistic and powerful literature had such an influence on friends of my generation that it was the cause of several suicides, such as that of my schoolmate, whom I will also remember in this cemetery: Hemán González, and another one, Jorge Cavada. See thought, believed, dreamed, that the communist revolution was going to change everything, giving the young, the man, a better world. And I am sure that once my young Jewish opponent of the past, Volodia Teitelboim, General Secretary of the Communist Party of Chile, also believed it. And I ask him now: "Volodia, tell me, you who in Vicente Huidobro's house, late at night, in the old bohemia of old Santiago, kindly discussed with me about the "infernal little machine of dialectics", after forty years of having given your life to a cause, perhaps to an ideal, did you ever think that the Hegelian "thesis" and "antithesis", or the Marxist dialectics of historical materialism, would lead you to the "synthesis" of supercapitalism, of the transnationals, of the consumer society and the "means of production" in the hands of a very few "exploiting bourgeoisie", and not in those of the international proletariat? Tell me, Volodia, are you going to accept this too, as you accepted Stalin's crimes as well as Nemda? Are you going to do so, like the cynical García Márquez, who today manages with Uncle Sam, to continue pocketing dollars? Or are you going to rebel, as Fidel Castro has done (for the time being), perhaps remembering Che Guevara (perhaps Allende himself)? Are you going to remember the dead, the heroes -there were some too- as we Nazis do, as I, your friend from my youth, am doing here today, fighting to the last, to the end? Are you going to oppose, or are you going to commit suicide? Or are you going to do like all those treacherous and materialistic (truly "historical") scoundrels, those shameful traitors, who in twenty-four hours have turned their jackets inside out and preach today the consumer society, the social market economy, as the universal panacea, as the idol they worship, placing dollar signs on the pedestals of the toppled statues of Lenin?"

What has happened, indeed, our gods, to produce so many catastrophes of the soul, of the ideal and of sentiment, in the time of a sigh? I cannot believe, for example, that my respected and noble friend, Raul Ampuero -who was also a friend of Hector Barreto- who is not a Mason, who did not belong to the Masonic wing of the Socialist Party, as Salvador Allende did, can accept all this and at the same time become a defector.

What has happened is that everything, absolutely everything, has always been managed by secret threads, by secret societies, in the direction of what we have now arrived at: the establishment of a world government in a few hands, then in one hand, that of the King of the World, of the Messiah of Zion, here established from some other parallel hell, or similar world, already ready, already prepared, controlled and directed by a super-robot; perhaps by a genetic robot.

Thus, today's rulers will be replaced later by others even more servile, more suitable, to lead to the destruction of traditional Chile, of our traditional army, of all the last surviving traditions. And the most docile agents of the transnationals and the world government, the social democrats, will come to replace the more lukewarm ones, who will not be so much in their place: a Lagos, for example, a Freemason, educated at Duke University, financed by Rockefeller, or another of the like, agents of the computerized money powers and of the globalist plans, within which the traditional Chile, the grandiosely magical Chile, the Chile of our heroes will have to disappear, as anachronistic and obsolete.

In order to understand just a little of what has happened in this last year and even before, in the previous years, those incredible things for a mind that keeps alert and is not "mesmerized" by propaganda and subliminal messages, by the tremendous disinformation, and still admires what has happened and how this has come to happen, we, the Hitlerists, the National Socialists, have an unbeatable, extraordinary reference: we have the hero and martyr, Rudolf Hess. He revealed to us the "weapon" that the enemy possesses: psychotronics; the hallucinogenic drugs that facilitate semi-permanent hypnotic states and that also allow hypnotism at a distance with the help of the "T" or "Takion" ray machine. It was with this machine, comrades, in the possession of the CIA, the Mossad and other espionage and intelligence agencies, that General Pinochet was "hypnotized", with the help of one of his ministers, of course, who played the role of "superconductor" to make him think that he would win the plebiscite, something that everyone but him and his most intimate collaborators, equally hypnotized, knew very well that it was impossible. It was also in this way that Watergate was carried out. The defeat of South Vietnam, the assassination of Kennedy and the assassination of Indira Gandhi by his bodyguards and, now, the collapse of Marxism and the Soviet empire, in just a matter of hours, as the Berlin Wall collapsed and Germany was reunited, so necessary for globalism and the plans of the consumer society, of the indiscriminate mixing of races and the universal imposition of the credit card and the worldwide registration, or mundialist, degeneration of the masses and the youth of this planet.

The document of Rudolf Hess, read at the Nuremberg trial, tells us how his jailers were under hypnotic influence to add drugs to their meals, under the influence of a "hypnotic drug", "unknown to the world" and that "they would also have used in the trials against the Russian hierarchs, in Stalin's time, which led them to accuse each other publicly, screaming to be executed". This drug, according to Rudolf Hess, "would have been used with the world rulers, to fulfill the ends of Judaism: in the king of Italy, to betray Mussolini, and in Churchill himself; in the Duke of Harnilton and so many others. Even with the Germans and with General von Paulus. These "weapons" would be used on national and continental scales, as well as on individuals. This revelation of Rudolf Hess is the real reason why he was the only prisoner held in Spandau for more than forty years. And it is the reason for his murder, for once the Berlin Wall fell and Germany was reunified, there would no longer be any justification for his continued imprisonment.

The invisible hand works in the long run and in the knowledge of what is to come: Hess could not be released, because he would have revealed everything again, the big secret, the dark secret, which the enemy had managed to make unnoticed in the Nuremberg confession (although this statement has also been reviewed in various works and documents). Rudolf Hess had to die, and he was murdered in Berlin! As his son has declared, in his book: "How they murdered my father". This book has not yet been translated or published in Spanish.

But we, the Chilean Nazis, pray to you, Rudolf Hess, and exalt you, year after year,

We are here together with our comrades, also murdered by the great conspiracy, and we thank you for having made your truth known to us, and we revere you! Heil Hitler!, Heil Rudolf Hess!....

Comrades, living and dead, in spite of the gloomy panorama presented here, with total realism and without the gawking optimism of fools, who are exalted and fall into ecstasy at the thought of the twenty-first century and the miraculous advances of technology and the religiosity of pluralism and humanism, the abolition of war, the overcoming of all challenges by the inexhaustible creativity and entrepreneurial imagination, universalism, electronic money, the abolition of nationalities, the abolition of borders and countries, to leave only continental "geographical areas", and in the end, a single world, without races, all mixed up, like a boiling pot of beans, to leave only one single world, without races, all mixed up, like a boiling pot of beans, to leave only continental "geographical areas", and in the end, a single world, without races, all mixed up, like a boiling pot of beans, of borders and countries, to leave only continental "geographical areas", and, in the end, a single world, without races, all mixed, like a boiling pot of beans, with the reborn cosmic, humanistic, ecological religion of Aquarius, with "drivers" of space vehicles, of cosmic cabs, charging electronic fares to go to the stars, to buy pills from the supermarkets of the Moon, kidneys, livers, spare hearts, in spite of all that, I tell you that a very different thing is going to happen. Capitalism, supercapitalism, the consumer society, will go to hell and, like communism, like Marxism, it will not work either. And they will not work because, equally they are based on usury and on the grossest materialism and because behind both of them is the same essence of the Jew without creativity, without greatness, without idealism, without being able to offer human love, justice, nor true social order. Because the essence of the Jew is not creation, but destruction, it is not love, not even love of self, but hatred and destruction.

We predict that in the short term we will also see the great crisis of capitalism and its collapse. And then our time will come. The Jew knows this, and has foreseen it. For this reason, since the very end of World War II, he has propagated all those lies about the crimes and genocides of Nazism. But after repeating them so much, they no longer convince anyone. And this so that the world does not remember that there existed on earth a just and noble system, based on work, ending, once and for all, in Nazi Germany, with the interest of capital, that breeding ground of the parasitic middleman and of all injustices and evils, as it is today in the whole world and in our homeland, glorified and exalted by the social market economy and its coryphaeus, the Christian rulers, the Freemasons, the Socialists, the Communist defectors and the capitalist exploiters, all in unison. And by the Christian churches of every order and stripe. By the armies and navies.

We alone say No, we alone, the Hitlerists, repeat and shout with all our might: We are not capitalists, we are not democratic, we do not believe in democracy, we despise it, we are totalitarians, we are Nazis!

We despise the materialism of the consumer society, we hate the Judaic, usurious system, based on the usury of the moneylender and the banks, of the social market economy, of the merchant entrepreneurs, of the exploiters of man's work, of the work of the people. We will never give up, nor will we betray our martyrs! And to them we repeat: "Never doubt. Have faith in us, because we also believe that the justification of life is in something beyond life, and that a life without glory, without honor, without ideals, is better not to live it! Comrades dead, but more alive than the living! Thank you for your luminous

Cesar Parada, Rudolf Hess, your sacrifices have not been in vain, because we will never betray you and we only aspire to emulate you, to follow in your luminous footsteps, with the total, absolute certainty that in the end we will triumph! For after the apocalypse we shall come, with our Führer Adolf Hitler at our head, with the Last Battalion, to impose justice and honor on earth and to avenge you; for we do not forget the crimes and tortures of which you have been made victims. And tremble Jews, plotters, for your hour is at hand, for your apparent triumph will vanish like the nightmare of a night, at the very gates of the establishment of the world empire of Zion, which you already believe so sure! For, in the end, we, the Nazis, the Hitlerites, will triumph, here on this earth and throughout the universe. For we are also mighty, we have great powers, and our powers are superior to yours, for they are the powers of truth, of the ideal and of the spirit, those of heroic sacrifice! And because, as Rudolf Hess said at the Nuremberg trial: "There is in this universe a power greater than that of the Jew on earth".

Yes, comrades, it exists!

HEIL HITLER!
SIEG HEIL!
