Mastermind of logos-ratio acroams
Violent intrusion into pure virginal
Suppression of the will of 'Other's'
Denial of vitality- 'peace'; 'love' the cover

Into the Saturn matrix the gears are grinding and spinning for fear to starve
Amortization of life force
Releasing the vital soul from vehicle

The being understands not that which exceeds
It's finite state of craving-desire and 'need'
Spinning in the machine it pursues to feed
It's ego and finitude-abortions breed

Demiurge deity, logos, madman, demon
Absorbing the world, greed of vampirization
Servants terrestrial grease the gears
Of vampire machine called the matrix

Minions on Gaia, limited creatures
Fascinated by their glamorous features Staring into the mirror of their carnivalesque aberrative features, teratological pests

Swollen ego infatuated with self
On the treadmill in pursuit of temporal wealth

Demonic Dialectic

Soviet, democratic, christian, atheist

Black, white, rich, poor

Female, male, homo, hetero-sexualist

Silver cords tied to the second earth

All are one in love, peace and unity
All are equal in the eye of Saturn
Equally enslaved to the God of matter
To the soul Reaver, vampire of humanity

The demon and his children, operating
The Lord of hosts to cannibal feast, flagellating
The human animal sacrifices, propagating
More souls to trap within the womb matrix, gestating

Both 'sides' invented, both controlled
Opposites polarized with iron stone of load
Magnetically forced apart, contention of bone
Smashed together, skeletons in the tomb

Architect of evil, inharmony creates
Creat absurdam-masses take the bait
Fall upon each other's swords
Supplied by demon hordes

The Eternal Jew

Eternal jew you have forever been Forever will be bloody trek to see
Infernal jew you are always keen
To never kill without sins transferring
Nocturnal jew blind to see Whether blind or no, Truth will be

Through the ages of bloody stain
The ink in which you signed your name
Cloven hooves roughshod have maimed
The 'lesser folk' you have proclaimed

Claimed divine ancestry

From 'elohim'- Absolute; Supreme

Hoodwinked goyim gentility

To venerate reptilian seed

On the earth you descended

From off planet to contend with

Rival of Other species' members

Cosmic battle, terrestrial to end it

Devious secret ply thy trade

Descend the Valkyrie
On Eagles wings and cry:
"Delenda Judea! End the lie!"

From dimensions beyond
Mighty Divyas descend
Annihilate hell spawn
Bring about their death

Blackness banished from the land
By the might of Aryan hand
By the forces of divine command
Light of black sun-behold the man!

Prison Without Walls

The prison in which we're all confined
A matrix determined by Time
Trapping the slaves to work inside
Human batteries demons' vampirize

Born in sin within the world
Have fallen mixed with animals
Vivaparous or engineered sangrael
Blood poisoning now beneath the wheel

Now trapped within an oubliette
Of mind, of body though not Spirit
A prisoner of the round roulette
Wheel of incarnation set

The game is rigged by ringmaster
Of life's circus we mast pastor's
Only the few can avert disaster
Losing their soul the wheel rolls faster

Everywhere one goes hither and yon
Round in a circle a passive pawn
On a tether, a dog upon the lawn
Earthbound souls fixed to his bond

Only the adept may escape
The matrix prison of the slave
Only he transcends these knaves
Minions and dupes who await the grave

He no coward must stand against
The black magicians and their battlements
Must lay siege from stance within
To awaken the slaves of the prison

Unlike the selfish cowardly flight
Of traders who abandon in the night
Their Kith and kin to their plight
He girds himself with armor bright

The Hero knight his blazing sword
Unsheaths, readies his weapon of war
To split the skulls of Demiurge horde
The minions of this Time Lord

This is the chance for salvation
Slaves observe the gleam and awaken
The hordes move forth as a Kraken
Demons alive therein with hatred

The Aryan Virya stands against
The ugly concrete battlements
Of Demiurgic slave prison
And slashes gore from minions

Blue eyes flash incendiary light
Awakened Hyperborean right
To take the world from darkest night
To slay the vampires in the fight

The battle rages throughout the dark
Blazing fires match burning hearts
Battle rage for all becomes a part
The hordes loose their poisoned darts

Beast-men possessed full of frenzy
To destroy the mirror of their envy
To smash apart the white enemy
The color of skin dividing all and sundry

The demon seed command their slaves
To fall upon the Aryan brave
To kill for spite, torture and maim
To overrun the noble into the grave

The battle wearisome continues vigorous
Buckshot and mortars imperious
Unforgiving the shrapnel torturous
Lacerates the pure battling Heroes

When the darkling horde have attained
Apparent victory many they've slain
The blood memory of the Graal came Awakening Aryans to berserker rage

Fighting with desperate force

The Aryan combats deadly horde

The dark side of Demiurge Lord

Moves forward in attrition war

The Aryan to the death combats

The evil tide of untermenschen trash

Though he may fall in weapon's clash

He lives beyond the prison's lash

Having freed his folk whose souls he redeems

His own immortality through combat achieved

Resurrected on the Green Ray succeed

Through combat under Black light, Eternity

The Anti-Race

Mixed and tangled with each and all

Purity does not apply at all

The leaden metal of the thrall

Gold in the furnace with base metal

The fall of man from days of yore
From which blood poisoning of the pure
Has carried over generations forward
Infecting the noble with base slur

To make a virtue of a vice
The self-deceiving kikes
Invented self-deification rites
To inflate their egos overnight

Built into their creed of victimhood
Of veneration of their blood
Claimed 'holy' saved from the flood
By their father, made of mud

From miry clay these creatures came Engineered by Jehovah elohim
Hybridized creature, boastful claim
To rule the world fortune and fame

Throughout their trek through the ages
The jews have stolen wisdom of mages
In the host they have invaded
Intertwined themselves, miscegenated

Thus the host becomes the prize
Of hybrid beings who vampirize
Slave class of purer blood the prize
To rule through guile hoodwink their eyes

The creed of slaves become master
Enforced upon now witless masses
Chandal slave religion for asses
Plagiarism of the bastards

The world placed under shackles
The massive plebs turned into chattels
Economic tools controlled as vassals
Ruled from cathedral and the castle

Liberating themselves from the chains
Imposed upon bodies and brains
The Aryan hero's freedom retain Though under the yoke, hamstrung and lame

Throughout the ages of force imposed
The Aryan freedom always chose
To combat their slave master alone
In spite of ostensible holy robes

Heretics declared and vilified
Through slander of the organic lie Hunted as an animal by
The witless minions of the sly

True martyrdom not the jewish lie
Of jewish Jesus from 'on high'
Rather a devotion to their kind
Sacrifice themselves in the fight

Devoted to the end in war
Of occult Truth against the horde
And the lies of their Lord
The violation of the good, the pure

The anti-race has pursued
The pure of race the night through
The times of dark age, false and crude
To annihilate those good and True

The created anti-race still sounds
From its ramparts the world round
The virtue of rascals and clowns
To defile the pure, turn it brown

It's creeds of gutters' stinking mire
Have lit up the minds of the vile
Incited them to vengeful ire
Against their betters on the funeral pyre

In another world, another land a dark flame's emerald fire brand
Held aloft in a ruddy hand
Blazing forth ennobling man

The hordes of anti-race go forth
Burning, the bearers of this torch
Satan's brand held aloft for
The blind to guide to Elysium's shore

Kali's Time

The wheel of Ixion rolls perpetually spinning those Carnal earthbound souls
In an out of death throes

The great breath was exhaled
As halitosis from the mouth
Of Demiurge so vain and proud
To snuff Sophia's light out

The cosmos comes to be Demiurgic excrescence, plagiary
Fecal crystallization he Imposed upon eternity

Aeons trapped within Material densification
Rigidified explosion freezing creation's ocean

The atrophy of souls
Around the wheel roll
While the great knell tolls
For those of mortgaged soul

Those who live for ecstasy
Having no inner integrity
Have lost themselves in entropy
Wheel of karma ground beneath

Densification of being

Instrument of Demiurge
His minion priests purge
All contrary rites and words

With extreme violation imposed
Sacrilege of ancient gnosis
Burning and raping of those
To whom the Truth is known

Heretics and witches
The spiritual few it is
Who are framed as minions
Of devils and demons

Through the concealment of lies
The Truth darkly shines
Viewed through third eyes
Of the few who aren't blind

The mill of Grotti grinds
Eternal return called Time
Conditioning the mass mind
Trapping the souls to bind

The adept against the host
Of inept goyim foes
Controlled by G-d chose
Self deified demon folk

The ages continue apace
Aeon's temporalizing
As the mill of G-d grates
It's rusty gears of fate

The circle within a circle
Pens in the blinded people
To be chained by the purple
Toga'd shearers of sheeple

The time of the Dawn portends
The doom of the de-men
Jaws of the Wolf-Time then Destroys the slaver kin

The tension moves forth
Built up kinetic force
In the wolf's jaws a course
Of kosher chops of pork

The time window closes
On masses of earthbound souls
Trapped in the matrix of the poser
The imitator and the loser

Those who worship Him
Will lose and fail to win
Having committed the sin
Venerating creator and creation

The formula of false hope
Contained in Scriptures of mold
Pretense of wisdom old
Mimicry of philosophical gold

The jaws of the Wolf snap
On the silver cords of the scrap
Of the animal farmer's crap
Jealous G-d his broken back

Eternity eludes

All hybrids and fools

The fiction 'all are equal', all are 'one'

The overt differences stand clear

Multifaceted faces without peer

Organic culture a source of fear

To supremacists and their intentions dear

A plan to enslave the globe

To rivet chains upon the necks of those

The despots would enslave and clothe

In uniforms made in their mold

Made in the image of the Prince

Of slavery- global governance

Those who submit: their brains rinsed

Else annihilation their penance

The mass molded in a square
Four cornered, right angled there
The prison of lead in concrete stare
Out panoptic vision diabolical nightmare

Within the Utopia of despotism

Accrue to themselves wealth of denizens
Once autonomous, now forbidden

Soviet experiment paved the way

Too overt a lesson of cruelty
Fear porn by the Prince of slavery

False promise of reason right

To crack with iron and lead

The dialectic back and forth

Opposing sides reconcile henceforth

False light contained in retort

Of alchemical unification of force

Apparent equalization

Of opposite extremes as 'one'

Dynamic process the outcome

No stability in the sum

The sinister black magicians

Dialectic of absolution

Transfer their sins to victims

Karma the only conclusion

The vast array of difference

Gives proof of despots ignorance

Of a stable harmoniousness

To equalize unequal-foolishness

The claim that 'all are one'

Is trafficked from Mount Zion

Blown from trumpets brass anon

No Orientaloid could be Aleutian Islander or Congolese
No desert nomad could see
In a rival tribe equality

No Scottish clan can affirm
Equality in truth save as a 'Word'
Mere language of the Demiurge
Cannot synthesize a mixture

Diverse groups implied division
Not mixed in the Demiurge prison
Not a fantasy or useful fiction
To alloy cosmic differentiation

The 'human all too human' claim
To reduce difference to 'the same'
Testifies to impossible aim
Hubris of doomed Icarus's fame

All mixed together in the mire
Of the despot Jehovah's fire
The crucible of brazen iron Melted pot of sewage expire

Beasts or Gods

The bestial horde creeps steadily forth
Living for thrills and sport
They descend to the beast, fornicate and feed
In the sty they swill and breed

The gods heaven sent on mundane bent
Have entered to give their support
To salvage the few who have tired of the stew
Of the sewage of porcine crue

The gods incarnate, blue blood spirit state
Coming to kill the hordes of hate
Who have debased Hyperborean race
With pashu beast-folk ancient fornicate

The bestialized hordes of Demiurge Lord
Have in fearful trembling deplored
Their ancestral forebears who are aware
Of their plight of which only they care

The heroic folk who answer the blue
Blood to combat and arms lay to
The savage beast-men and masters de-men
To annihilate the dark forces' legions

The beasts are aware of Aryans' descent from above
Curse them as devils-no love
Prepare to drink their blood

Aryans the set apart few
Living in pursuit of Truth
Must muster their forces to Meet the savage crew

Amongst them are present
Amongst beast folk denizens traitors loyal to elementarwessen
Bloated with moralizing egotism

Bedecked in gaudy suits
Accoutred with polished boots
Badges and insignia too
Freemasons with the beastly crew

With juden rat against you
Beasts and de-men rend you
Aryan warrior the noble few
Against the mass of shit stew

The final end for the beast-men
Dawns on the purple horizon
Perceive their doom, their end
Vile beast-men, in guillotine their head

The traitors attempt to hide
With cunning guile slide
To ensnare or ingratiate with whites
Aryan warriors pile up funeral pyres

The sly and crafty kikes
Have portrayed themselves as right
As godly, good on Truth's side
But blinders place on blue eyes

The barbecue flames
Swelling with the maimed
Corpses of the slain
Traitors, beasts, black mages

Those spared this fate
Have left the battle plane
Off to orc holes foreign Leaving noble Aryan

The prophecy of futures
Have wounds now sutured
All events being proof of The Divine power of Thule

The Vril has shone its light
Through the blackness of the night
Enduring through the fight
Noble Aryan, Divine might

A new day has dawned
Over Spiritualized earth its song
Of greenest light so long has the old night gone on

All are bathed in its glory
All are aware of the story
The remnants who over storm see
Have persevered Unto the morning

Man of Race

He who stands as one of many
Yet one as many, many as one
Serving the folk and not his petty
Interests out of selfish love

To himself he is instrumental
Not a finite end in itself
He has attached to principle
His mind above the commonwealth

To the supra conscious Being
Who governs autocratically
Members subordinate it sees
Above their strife and tragedy

This organism powerful transcends the fray
Welter of particularism, holds its mighty sway
Indifferent to the single man, this sorrow of the day
Registers it in account, metes out justice karmically

But only for the greater good which is not of number
But for itself caters with individuals not encumbered
Rather its own might and will-all else a blunder
Any who should check its force will be rent asunder

The organism moves forward over obstacles
Like a tank, a juggernaut inexorable
The self-determination of the racial soul
Empowering itself against the world

The being an entelechy is Empowering itself through thick and thin
Seeking competitive challenges
To vie with others for Dominion

The man of race is unified
With supra-organism mind
Of Race and thus inside
Contained in miniature his kind

A healthy race implies such folk
As constituents of the racial soul
Not comprised of members alone
But an overarching, central pole

The empowerment of the man
Empowers supra-racial organism
And empowers himself again
As a battery of the microcosm

Racial conscious healthy mind
Possessed only by healthy kind
Those who are attuned to find Themselves in Racial organism, Supra-mind

The men of race sacrifice
For the higher inferior life endure hardship and strife
To empower their higher right

Their thoughts trend upwards to their source
The life-well of their rivulets' course
From the ocean of their being Tributary's over flowing energy

Expansion not contraction
The formula of the happy one Contract within, expand without
To battle, enemies to route

The victory alone to him goes
Who serves a higher purpose, shows
Himself a willing and able foe
Of that which threatens Oversoul

For the poor in spirit, weakly coward
The knell has sounded death's vain hour
The self absorbed effete forward
Into ignominious grave fallen

The man of race, the opposite
The hero striving with against
The enemy who poses him a test
The outcome going to the best

Wigger

White outside negro within
The mind of an ape stained with sin
White trash cracker spread with mud
What goes in the mind changes the blood

The youth of comfortable means
In a white picket fenced suburban dream
Tired from school turns on the T.V
Cacophony of jungle screams

The drums of the black celebrity
Voodoo priest of modernity
Slanging and banging in ecstasy
Infects the youth's mentality

Takes his milk money to the store
Owned by a weave haired nigger whore
Takes out costume of ghetto lore
Just like the nigger rapper on channel 4

Finds himself a powerful, trendy guy
Taking selfies in the mirror, giving gang signs
Bombards his ears, infects his mind
With the drumming of the savage kind

Hangs around at the b-ball court
Seeking negros with whom to cavort
Encounters a coon who plays sport
Selling rocks in the alley next to the court

Put under pressure he lights the pipe
Wanted to be cool, to take the spotlight
Hooked on crack, now he's up all night
With gang-related criminal types

Cash flows into his pockets, and into his nose
Crime pays-easy come and easy go
Wearing the colors of the negro
In a gunfight he falls from a shotgun blow

Femme Fatale

Absorbing all attention
Vampire of lustful men
Accumulate the wealth of them
Otherness invagination

The chalice empty, her siren call
Sounds forth echoing through the mall
Beguiling sound seduces all
Naïve and foolish, not a care at all

No need for dull care to assuage
For the fair maiden has come of age
Can appeal to masculine slave
To her misfortunes wipe away

In a Princess Palace hidden
Luxurious comfort, nothing forbidden
Her salacious charms have him
By carnal hooks, pull him in

The illusory veils of Maya ripple
Promises of ecstasy pulled into Gullible brute, useful but simple
Easily ensnared by femme fatale

Thoughts have flown the cuckoo's nest
Lusting after nubile flesh
Perfume intoxicates inept
Pursuing the forbidden flesh

His life of cyclic drudgery
Round the right wheel daily he Pursues the golden ring for she
To bind himself to fleshly Eve

To secure the masculine force
A wedding ring is the recourse
For femme fatale her main course
Black widow's feast her sport

The hapless dupe has exchanged
Brains for Brawn, become deranged
His nobler Self for base is lamed
Allowing femme fatale to tame

He has become a mere brute
Devoted to base pursuits
Unable to transcend the loot
Of fool's gold, forsakes the truth

Nigger

From ancient Lemuria your origin
Genetic engineered beast-men
A hybrid of the simian
-And otherworldly denizens?

Has in the jungle fertile lived
Has potlatch and stone axe given
Has war with your tribal kin
Wars still and this without end

Ferocious Zulus and Hottentots
Find their correspondent lot
In Crips and Bloods, the kelipot
In concrete jungle filled with thots

The daily grind in the urban center
Sewer slime that none dare enter
Lest they be of the darker
Variety of hominid ghetto creature

The stereotypes truisms be
In the center of voodoo priests
Cook up their crack ice cream
Serve it up to their infamy

The tribal war continues unabated
Between factions artificially created
By the system of de-men
Glocks and TECs' do them in

The tribal war regardless would Have occurred in spite of good Intentions or their contrary should Attempt on part of peckerwood

No altruism will change
Skin of an Ethiopian
As it is their nature to range
Over territorial domain

Hence the corruption of the coon
Is a necessary behavioral truth
That regardless of the boon
On part of whitey fails too soon

The treatment of the black kind
Towards his females is unkind
And vice versa, a pantomime
A Punch and Judy grand old time

The prodigality of the black
Spawn of the jungle overpacked
Into ghetto apartments packed
With roaches, bedbugs and rats

Perhaps it may with allowance be
Said that negro prodigality
Is a result of coarse uprooting
By christian goodie-good missionary?

Perhaps a long-range plan concocted
To oust blacks from Motherland the cost of Global dominion, that of genocide
Of all those of 'inferior' kind?

Christian mendacity and pretense
To achieve global governance
To offer cornucopia of false gifts
To naïve native denizens?

To offer promises of love and peace
Like a mouse a piece of cheese
Placed in the ghetto trap, a tease
Empty promise, false indeed

Christians and their jewish rulers
Impose their plans these arch-deceivers
To eliminate the 'useless feeders'
Establish Zion, kill the unbelievers

The only hope for all 'mankind'
Is to unite, not in body but in mind
To route the pests, the parasites
And to impose Universal Right

Christ the Commie

"All men are brothers", it was said again
Hammer and sickle echoing the refrain
What said Galilean by the Romans slain
By Marx, Engels, et.al engineered by jewish brain

The filthy sty of Galilee, gave birth to a tragedy
The Prince of mendacity, in manger with vainglory
The fictional entity of jewish jesus, virgin born he
The invention of the rebbe, man-god idol of slavery

The story goes onwards, the scribes of Zion's words
That magus of the 'Word', The Logos in miniature
Had come upon the earth, to blind and lame the hapless herd
Enable vulture birds, to feast upon the fatted herd

Subversives with their minds ablaze, incendiary pipe-dream haze
Inculcated in their fabled grey-matter, a revolutionary craze
To die for christ the one who sates, to tear down patricians' reign
To burn down with jewish knaves, the Roman city to the grave

Like a Phoenix ascending high, diabolical fiends would better fry
To destroy Truth supplant with a lie, pagan wisdom with christian lies
In martyrdom to crucify, the noble allowing base to rise
The vultures ascending high, temporal power no spiritual climb

From emperors of illustrious men, of noble patrician Aryan
To debased metal densest lead, gold into the pig pen
Caste, the outcasts would ascend, by tearing down better men
Gird themselves with purpled toga dress, imperial masters of Rome's vastness

The darkness of the fallen age, declined and on its last legs
For barbarians plunder with rage, resurrection from tragic fate
Of Roman Aryan empire great,
To Piscean age accommodate

The barbarians of the Aryan race, prevented by christ's sickly face
As archetype of 'godly' grace, to the jew's forestall their fate
'Mercy', 'piety' necessitate, hamstringing of the Aryan race
Yolked to 'christ the great', egregore with semitic traits

The fanaticism of the jew, has formulated poisoned brew
Of ecstasy for the elect few, a heaven world all else exclude
This substance from birth consumed, by gullible witless fools
Who the cunning of the jew, has yolked, harnessed to use

Throughout the plague of jewish, irrational and soulless Religious excreta and piss, continued on the path of His Spirit quest to establish, kingdom on earth or heaven
Seeking in homelessness, ancient home and within

For He they believe they fight, this jewish man named christ
It is rather the inner light, confused by charlatans to spite
The Aryan errant knight, crusade for gold for parasites
The noble inner light, lost on his journey through the night

The useful tool of black mage, the Aryan cavalcade
The tools of managers of the stage, in the theater of Kali's age
To employ the eager fray, pursuing distorted imagery
Of a jewish man overlaid, upon the christ of Golden age

Now understanding power held, the jewish worshipers of El
Their Demiurge of living hell, have plotted Aryan death-knell
Have fabricated another spell, through Luther's hands to tell
To engineer more pell-mell, Aryan against Aryan to fell

The Lutheran revolt against, corruption of the church men
Designed to tear down and rend, the integrity of Aryan Perhaps incited corruption, ab initio their destruction thirty years annihilation, of the best of Teutonic nations

Once this sensationalistic, conflagration had abated
The manipulative deviousness, of jewry orchestrated
Yet more sects 'christic', to divide and conquer nations
Of Aryan races with this, idealistic contestation

Over time and intensity, in the minds of men inculcating
The archetypes of christ-insanity, had led to empire building Marching forward over all and sundry, it was claimed 'God willing'
To absorb into the treasury, the blood of innocent killing

The secret orders of the ages, ruled by surreptitious mages
Lunar-semitic versus solar-Aryan, the former blacken the pages
Of the Tradition, to set the stages, for more bloody rages
Over the earthly plane is, the figure of the 'christly Aryan'

The hidden hands war together, black versus white forever
Embodying cosmic principles whether, deliberate or no, peace never Within this chaos of the better, against demons of the nether
Realms who have tethered, the mages of black magic lunar

Rabbi in the heart Europe, raises a demon child up
To play a role to corrupt, the Aryan nation from bottom-up
Semitic creed again erupts, to pollute garden weed seed erupts
'Common-ism' it is dubbed, lowest common only in the club

As in the ancient world of Rome
Seeds of tares have found their home
Proliferate their kind, aspire to own
The prosperous, wealthy Aryan home

With devastation, pestilential blight Suffocates Aryan oak's might
Would bring down from towering height
Tear heaven to hell in the fight

The formula of Semite minds
Have poisoned all our Aryan kind
For millennia have misaligned
Our consciousness of ancient times

From Golden age of pleasant clime
Descent to christian, commie crimes
Of saboteurs and by design
Through infection of our mind
With creeds of pacifistic kind
And veneration of the swine

Baby Doomer

Prodigal offspring of the hard-working Indulgence in duty shirking
Hedonists pleasure maximizing
At expense of posterity's lives

The war had ended and to celebrate
The rogue nations of 'allies' propagate
More flesh suits to clothe the souls
Who incarnate in earthly Sheol

The baby boom into a world of wealth
Gorging beyond the bounds of health
Have established for them not by themselves
A world of consumerism cards of fate dealt

With the promise of perpetual progress
No concern over any regress
Of spiritual, cultural degeneracy
No concern save the exception, for posterity

The sex, drugs and rock 'n roll
Have over the years taken their toll
This and Schofield Bible
Have minds polluted to the full

Vacations and articles beyond need
Perpetuate the cycle of their greed
A generation labeled the 'me'
Their ignomy is their notoriety

Conceived children to accrue
To themselves capital, social proof
Of their status, good citizens true
Not to perpetuate Aryan truth

The failed society of 'the people'
Hyper-focused on the individual
Enabled the teeming multitude
Of savages, Aryan Nations to ruin

Moving away to suburbia
Escaping apelings' criminal mania
Too afraid, full of self-love
Leave posterity with the mud

Robbing the cradle of inheritance
Leaving behind a puddle of piss
Drowning the Aryan torch therein
For posterity the reapers kiss

The social chaos boomers' unleashed
Will rebound upon them in their teeth
As they smile in the faces of the beasts
Who they brought in to ruin posterity

Whether in the old folks home or hospital
The nigger hordes hate us still Regardless of the gifts which thrill
The boomers ego-bring death will

The reaper's scythe from heaven
Upon the greying boomers descends
Into the fiery pits of de-men
Their bodies tumble in the end

Christ In Hellheim

The man of God

God-man

Sacrificed himself

Expiated sin

A bloody clod

Iron spikes rammed

"Good for our health"

Transport to heaven

Pilate the dutiful Roman

Answered to the de-men

Pax Romana citizens

Hellheim denizens

Jewry cried: "Crucify him!"

Screamed and riot threatened

Dutiful Pilate attended

Ordered kosher crime expiated

Nevertheless washed his hands
Of the blood of sacrificed lamb
Compelled by crowd fulfills sacred plan
Carnal God, bloody lamb

Pharisees and scribes upon them
Lamb-like innocent blood ran
Black magic invocation
Cabalistic sacrifice satiation

His blood upon them ad aeternus
Semper Fi Pilate-Pax Romanis
Jewry condemned to the furnace
Lake of fire semp aeternam

Sicut judaeus non Never harm the spawn
Of the Demiurgic G-d
Vicarious filiae deorum

Karma not to be ignored
By vicarious popish Lord
Baali incarnate Lucifer
Pedo priest-christ child adores

Revolt of the heathen rage

Rattling the bars of their cage

In shtetl Schmuel receives his pay

Funding opposition for violent change

Luther Lucifer excommunicant censur

Nails his theses to abjure

Corruption of kosher catholic church

Precipitates thirty years war

Gatekeepers to the promised land

Slain by Aryan brothers hand

Open doors to jude wanderman

Into hapless German land

Christ awaits in heaven

Lutheranism, Protestants

Sunder Peter's rock of adamant

Fomenting masonic decadence

Weishaupt, Rothchild and de-men

Children of hell ancestors descendants

Forever harrying Aryan

Planning for their martyrdom

Terror reigns apropos dreamscape
Of naturalistic entropic fate
Bundles of drives the souls made
Energetic structure-decapitate

Rousseau leads to Robespierre
Napoleon another Mason debonair
Yet more empire to harvest fare
Of souls for vampire jews to snare

Illumination, Europa unawares
Of false lights shining glare
Blinded by the demon flare
From torch of libertine liber

Isis stands forth boldly on the shore
A beacon of mother goddess Lore
Beckoning the Satanic horde
To bestow false light upon New World

Empires have been built before
Spanned the globe forevermore
Sun won't set but on goats-for Sacrifice they've been fattened for

Wars are kindled by incendiary hands
Sparking fires across the land
Homicide, genocides' flaming brand
To kill the christ of promise land

Devastate the Aryan land
Destroy purity of sonnenmensch
Murder and destroy god-men
For bloody harvest judenmensch

Trauma-based mind control
Laceration of bloody scapegoat
Machines of propaganda roll
Staining the pure with ink charcoal

Those who cling to christ have lost
Those who succumb to Holocaust
Propaganda and real loss
Inverted Truth to false

Christ has not come to redeem
But to tread upon all gentility
Like a winepress foam bloody
Graves of wrath skulls of envy

The true Krist dwells within our soul
We are the Krist not a jewish joke
Who jewry sacrificed upon a pole
Not Pilate's wish of old

We are the son of God
Not the son of gog
We the heavens laud
No jewish fecal log

Black sun shines aureole
Around our heads the Ray
Lucifer is here to stay
In Green Ray, Eternity

Cadaverous jew your time is nigh
To disintegrate and die
To Hellheim bye-bye
Redeemed earth through third eye

Christ perished on the cross
Fiction alone star-crossed
Jewry fated a loss
No martyrdom for dross

Poison Apple

The false promise of the jew
So sweet none would eschew
It's apparent good soon proves
Only for the giver is this true

The false gifts of the privileged Conferred upon the broad masses
Gestures, merely concessions
Displays of power, sin expiation

Karmic cleansing through glad tidings
The poisoned apple soon expiring
The gullible masses by the lying
Black magicians in shadows hiding

The game, a quid pro quo
To absorb from all their soul
A piece of pie for the whole
Redistribute wealth of the folk

To gorge themselves on the fruit
Parasites in the Apple seeking food
Leaving nothing but the core to use
For the goyim starvling brood

Collectivistic despots like effendis
Sitting in offices pretense of friendly altruistic commissars conceal deadly
Intent behind shark-like grin of enmity

The poisoned apples in the bellies
Of the impoverished masses starving
The poison works its way to entry
Vital centers-to the reaper send thee

In order to stave off death
One must bargain with the pests
In Mephistophelian contract
Sell their soul, then buried with the rest

Christard

The jew you love

Invented by scum

From gutter of mud

"He will come"

The rising and dying God

Risen from the fog

Son of a God

-Or sun of a dog?

Regnabit- "He will reign"

False promises infect the brain

Waiting for a big nothing

Disappointment, hope down the drain

The sickly creature from Galilee

Never existed, pure mockery

Invented by the kikery

Kehilla of rogues in secrecy

The Black mages in their image
Have created a mirage
Of sacred humble visage
To cast before their dogs

Throughout the whole of Pisces
These de-men mages mighty
Have enslaved all and sundry
With biblical fiction, plagiary

The depth of the conspiracy Unknown to the masses be Black Magic sorcery
Concealed in Scriptures 'holy'

A formula for slavery
Witless goyim serve knavery
While believing they serve christly
Deity, and divine right so mighty

These black magician mages
Themselves are too enslaved
By dark forces' rage
Who in innerspace range

These dark reptilian creatures
Who feed upon like leeches
The souls of their creatures
Vampirise as bleeders

Magical formulae are used
To mind control their tools
To feed upon their food
Insatiable, ravenous ghouls

Behind the smiling mask
Of humanitarian façade
The cybernetic mass
Of kikery so proud

These instruments of violence
Upon the earth dark emissaries sent
To torture and enslave men
Beasts and all sentient life therein

The black magic techniques
Employed by these sneaks
Derived from alien E.Ts
Reptilian's from Draco be

Transmit this vile gnosis
To those they use as gophers
Black mage Freemasons
Serving Jehovah and his kin

This Jehovah being
Not a notional entity
But a vile coterie
Of reptilian serpent seed

These trans-dimensional's
In and out of space travel
To vampirize the souls
Of those hypnotized fools

The Christian mass became 'Christians'-reptilian's slaves
And their golem scum
With whom they share blood

From Neanderthals combined
With reptilian blood the kikes
Are tied to hive mind
Called 'Jehovah', Lord of time

These reptilian demons
Though invisible to most
Our present upon Gaia
Seeking dominion global

To enslave the dumb
Beguile them with love
And the peaceful dove
Keep their minds numb

The Christian program is Recipe for enslavement
To keep the witless in Perpetual self abasement

The false hope held out
By arch deceiver's mouth
Or threat of the knout
Will banish all doubt

Coercion to believe
To beg on one's knees
To fornicate and feed
Embrace usurious slavery

The reptilian's will enchain
The witless minions, control their brains
By tactics of hypnosis and claims
To have divine authority

What is called 'God'
Three letter English word
Just like a cattle prod
To get the slaves to work

Worshipping and believing
Before an empty category
A mere verbal saying
Without any knowing

The empty fiction of a man
Who is the son of a fiction
Amounts to nihilation
Of mental clarification

Venerating an abstraction
The witless slaves into action
Are called, for satisfaction
Of vampiric reptilian's

The minions of the cabal
Arranged on hierarchy, fall
Victim to the tales tall
Of overlord reptiles

Will to Power

Will to power, divine distortion
Will to power, ripples in the ocean
Will to power, violent vampire Wolf
Will to power, Fenrir's belly full

Violent minions carry out
Demiurge's will to power
Creatures of the last hour
Defeated in cycles and rounds

The crack of the cosmic egg
Split with violence ancient of days
Separates, creates his slaves
Trapped, shutout of Eternity

Cybernetic robot, kosher certified
Plagiaristic distortion, attempted deicide
Neanderthaloid puppets, spouting lies
Devious minions, plotting genocide

The gods, the Goths, the Aryan
On earth for combat against them
Parabellum sive pacem
Eternal war against de-men

Involuted Divyas give way
To carnal forms Virya essay
To hunt down sub-humanity
Cast chandal apelings into flames

Power to Will

Power to will, of the vril
Black flame and purple thrill Worldly fight, struggle still Unconcealed maya's veil

Virtue can't be taught, it is inborn
Ontological validity, all else scorned
Non-equality-godhead must restore
Entropic force, fight tidal force

Power to will, Aryan skill
Power to will, against temporal
Finitude and solitude still Eternal embrace, power of vril

Power of Aryan will Combat eternal champion still
Red knight to combat-impale
Untermenschen flaming sword-heil!

The blackening age of iron and lead
Kali to battle at Fenrir's stead
Jormundgand entwining berserker dead
Einherjar to battle with steel and lead

The power of will, of Aryan man
Fight the dregs of the gutter beast-man
Terminate the Demiurge plan
Of harvesting the vitality of the land

The power of one against 'The One'
Cast down false idols, filthy scum
Worshiping the cross or his son
No rising and setting, Eternal Champion

Power of will, adept skill
Berserker warriors' godlike will Decapitate hordes of the Lord
Terminal scourge of false idol

Aryan might, with mind and might Seeking through combat the afterlife
Ready to go through the night
With blazing flame, Black Sun bright

Brothers in Arms

What makes a brother I question
Is it simply similar womb gestation?
Or cosmic egg partition-same origin?
Blood-kin or Spirit-kin relation?

Born into the same world womb

Material, perishable tomb

Incarnate, involuted two

Twins born of no virgins' swoon

The two thrown into the mud of the Mundane

Two antagonists fated to contest in strife

Dominance and war between opposite sides

Suffer the birth pangs, fraternal pain

One blackest black, one whitest white

Good and evil, good and bad-fight

Two value systems raging through the night

Though of same sire and mater born

Between the two magnet-like

Crash against one another in strife, endless strife

From whence difference emanates

No biological cause, womb and seed gestate

The higher planes divulge causal state

Look to the stars, to Heaven's Gate

Neglect not the higher estate
Observed by augury by natality
Minutes and seconds account for fate
From above yet too below are made

Lucky stars and of ill omen
Alone, neither one predestines
The circle of the starry heavens
Will and skill make destiny of men

What one does in life echoes eternally
No blame of Lord laid at his feet
The lofty good or bad karmic grief
With pre-given fate determine destiny

One brother follows baser drive
Impelled by lusts and animal vice
The other the bulls' horns are taken
Sacrificed-to higher self awaken

The fleshly lust of ill-starred breed
Impel's weak-willed goat to deed
To drug, drink, fornicate and feed
To fear reaper's scyth descending

The shadow of the Wolf o'er cast
Base-borne brute, Chandal caste
Though cast into world in leisure class
A fall from grace, perish at last

The fortunate though ignobly born
If of noble blood, noble soul endures
Against the doomsday clock of the 'Lord'
Of time, Demiurge soul Reaver

Caste alone guarantees no life
Independent of resistance to strife
The hero, the Virya, immortal life
Alone can attain Eternal fight

The ill-starred host must harder be Diamond-like from time to free
His hard lot must eternal be Free from base lust, drug and drinking

The ill-omened one must battle give Against the raging bull within
To slay as warrior violent sin
Triumphal stand while others' fortune
Vanquished in pursuit of sin

Pyramid of Universal Order

With equality we have nothing

All implode into a tragedy

All difference effaced, non-being

Indistinct mass of casualty

Disintegration is the rule when all are one

When hierarchy's lofty summit comes undone

When capstone of the pyramid would reach the sun

A heap of rubble, marble ruins the outcome

The hierarchical ladder topples to the ground

All reduced to serfdom in Kali's last round

The spiteful mass has pyrrhic victory attained

Has assailed its master, and rusted its chains

The muddy mire of freedom looks up at sky above

With jealous hatred in its eye it declares humanity's love

Stagnating in self-righteousness, it captures peace's dove

And with starving maw rends its flesh and drinks its blood

The proletarian hordes with hammer, axe and pike
Race toward the bourgeoisie tucked in for the night
Blazing brands light up the dark, the torch of freedom bright
Set ablaze the McMansions and Holocaust those they spite

Reaction of the self-righteous possessive individualists
Mobilize the hired goons, defend against the pugilists
Skirmish steady rages as flames the timbers lick
Skewer and rend the fatted bourgeois decadent

Burned-out cinders and rubble of happier former times
Lie smoking in the charnel mass of carrion and grime
The bestial hordes have swarmed, descended in the sty
Of porcine gluttons who've had their fill of slops and wine

The starvling proletarian hordes are led by heroes high
Regal in their Majesty, champions on the people's side
Have led their hordes against their masterminds
And now crown themselves new Kings, aristocrats divine

The trees and lampposts festooned stand forth
Revealing the fatted, bloated corpses
Of one time usurious exploitative torturers
Who live for greed and decadence gorging

The broad masses abased in former times
Have elevated, been enabled to climb
From a noble depth to proper size
Like their ancestors, Hyperborean giants

No massive frenzy commune commode
No wretched life, shouldering the load
To serve chandal servants of old
Hierarchy merit-based imposed

For the man of mechanical bent
Suitable occupation his fulfillment
For the man of trade, commerce, exchange
A proper vehicle in his proper place attained

For the warrior his vocation attained
Enforcing justice with might and main
For priest a temple to maintain
For the Warrior-Priest a unity is made

All are one together, no disorder
Forever separate, universal order
Together and separate forever
The pyramid of universal order

Demoralize

Demonize, vilify or attempt to crucify

Perpetual assault against holy 'I'

Shredding souls of semi-divine

Subterranean creatures try

In Soviet land it was perfected

The tactic of sabotage-resurrected

Instrumental means of chaos selected

To do unto death divine protected

Devious perverse creatures plan

To disintegrate the souls of man

Experiment on captive unpersons

Classical conditioning to torture them

How long can they live under x, y, z

How long can their hearts beat

How long can their eyes see

How long before felo de se

Subtler tactics employed against goy

Abuse and harassment designed to destroy

The mind and its integral autonomy

Animalistic tactics de-men employ

Constant assault and constant noise

Stress inducing breakdown ploy

Constant disruption and sabotage- "Oi!

Vey!", The jew cries out as he stabs the 'goy'

Hired spies ubiquitous

Paid to spy on 'them' and 'us'

The useful slaves of party trust

Knife their people in the back-barbarous

All endeavors are sabotaged

All noble aspirations backlogged

All to enmity and friendships robbed

Ubiquitous beast-men, abusing gods

Demoralization perpetual abuse

Party agents against the few

Prop up the lie, bury the truth

Under façade of 'helping you'

Insects buried under rotten stump
Creeping out to heroes hunt
Poison, stab and sharp swords blunt
The swords of Truth, gnosis from

The nation implodes under the tension
Beast-men of all kinds seek vengeance
On superior who stands above them
His physical form they seek to bludgeon

Regardless of the brutal strike
Led against their foe god-like
The angry mob simply incurs strife
Karmic backlash, against themselves they fight

Destroy their own possibility of being
Who they are as pattern of energy
Souls disintegrate, the demons feed
Through life of earthbound ecstasy

The hero may fall under their blows
But integrated soul in heaven dwells
Resurrected blood-memory avoid the Hells
Of fate of scoundrels chasing golden wealth

The Savage minions of the state
Sell their souls, they agreed to sate
Become a beast in yoke enslaved
By hidden hand, and then a hellish grave

The moral of the story is
To demoralize others incurs sin
To live and let die their kin
Creedo for which they'll fry not win

Whited Sepulchre

Outside shines so bright with godly light
Inside a wretched tomb stinking of blight
The inner not the outer, wrong not right
Slaves of the Demiurge, moralizing tripe

Arrogant bigots proclaim their sin
When into the church they step within Vainglorious fools cursed by demons
They called Angels, who possess them

Fatted bodies pack the pews
Reeking of cologne and perfume
Coughing and sniffing neurotic fools
Smiling with falsehood, creeping ghouls

With every passage quoted from bible
Yet another demon conjured to rival
The soul vampires of the false idol
Nailed to the cross, like rank-and-file

Grinning faces with capped teeth
Singing incantations merrily
Unbeknownst to them kabbalistically
Entities invoked from holy screed

Clean and pressed suits luxurious
Decadent shit in silk stockings
Stinking up the sewer of the usurers
Churchianity a sepulchre of sewage

Influenced by the vampires dark
Who possess faded souls their mark
Unaware of threat to life force
The christian in pew remains in 'park'

Swollen sack of falsehood comes

Ascends the priestly podium

Pontificates to the mass redrum

Should they fail to pay the sum

Into priestly collection plate

Multicolored notes are placed

To swell the coffers of the race

Of parasites so full of hate

Hypocrisy tumbles from the maw

Of Demiurge's minion priestly pa

Claims all are loved by the dog

Who rends their flesh and claims he's 'God'

Parishioners consume the words eager

They swallow down undigested-curs

The groundless, dogma of Demiurge

Scourge of True god who goes unheard

A call to arms against shaitan

Is issued by the priestly hand

And all are of frenzied firebrand

Eager to burn the witches of the land

But lo in yonder heaven comes
The thunder of military drums
The Wildes Heer of God Odin
To exterminate worshipers of 'The One'

The lightning flashes from on high
Darkling sky purple bolts let fly
To crash upon the sewer sty
Of church and altar and portly swine

The ruins of churchianity
Lie fallow with no mustard seed
A bible alone lies in the street
Till bolt of Thor destroys the screed

Universalist Abstraction

Primary, secondary properties
A function of cold necessity
Answering to the deficiency
Of reptilian alien breed

Within the matrix of robots
Calculating, cunning thoughts
Crystallize in structured dots
Connected with iron bars across

Numerology the source
From a mind from life divorced
Hive mind entity purports
To engineer, a world distort

Consultation with demon guides
Zions' dark dreary hive mind
Propitiate their Satanic kind
Blood for blood sacrifice rinds

Those the kikes deem 'qliploth'
Are trapped within Kronos' clock
Time determined, mere robots
Wound up daily to pay the cost

Blueprints, templates of the kikes
Manufactured with vile rites
To bind the souls of goyim kind
Hive mind oligarchy binds

Clever words without meaning
Are the chains which are binding
On the goyim eventually finding
That life consists in grinding

The witless fools who are enslaved
Abstract concepts with madness rave
Understanding not but words that play
Upon their minds the drumbeat stays

Echoes of empty nothingness
The slaves disport with bliss
Dealing the words emotive concepts
Hollow men filled with shit

'God' and 'love' and 'peace' proclaimed
'Equality'; 'humanity' the refrain
'Money' and numbers of scientists' brain
Economically, materially enslaved

This is the world of abstractors
Of the quintessence, the Masters
Robotic jugglery of high-flown words
In the machinery of the Demiurge

Reductio to abstract quantity

Reductio ad absurdity

Meaningless words for all to see

Had they the vision of Graal holy

That the stone from Lucifer's crown

Has become lost upon the miry ground

And most all are unable to look around

And perceive former riches abound

Now the fate of all the rule

Is to dance by master's rules

Mere animate, witless tools

Who cannot see the ruse

The panoptic prison of reptilians

Operates on the logical basis

Of quantitative abstractions

The code of the leaden matrix

The world enchained by the host

Of would-be master of Holy Ghost

The pawns in nets would boast

Their acclaim while as a pig they roast

The reptilian entities who enchain
The slavers humanoid goyim
Feast upon their sacrifice's pain
Of toil and strife, their age-old game

The abstraction of 'The One'
Demiurge and his son
Makes three in one
Trinitarian perdition

However no mention made
Of the holy ageless maid
Who from out of which all came
And to which all go to grave

The violent desert deity
With aggression deceives
Display of bestiality
Witless slaves bend their knee

When scales from eyes begin to fall
Yet more blinds are placed thereon
By the demonic thralls
Of the reptilian hosts their bond

This the humanist dogmatic creed
Software into hardware need
The dark hordes to enslave the breed
Of Aryan heroes with the idea: 'humanity'

This assists in perpetuating
The Aryan goyim for enslavement
To chain and bind in torment
For the sake of idle enjoyment

The creed of destruction is Instrumental in achieving this Enabling the creepiest hybrids
To be a Trojan horse gift

The interlopers have crept in
To work black magic on denizens
On Pacific land of Aryan
Passage enabled code: 'humanitarian'

'Equality' and 'love' re-present
The creed which purports heaven sent Another creed from gutters of Orient
To beguile the minds of men

That all are 'one' within 'The One'
Justifies all and sundry's insertion
Into the once pure land of Aryan
To mongrelize the godlike suns

Such is a recipe for the jew
Absorb for they and their masters too
The soul energy, life force of the few
To perpetuate, living-dead imbue

Money yet another chain
Binds the desire of the same
With gleaming fetters around the lame
Thews bound, warriors hereby tamed

To make it obligatory to Till fields and with axe hew
The living woods, protectors of the True
The Good, the Beautiful few

In the name of an abstraction
The world descends to commodification
Spirit submerged in densification
Violent structures of demonic invention

The numbers on the roulette wheel
Determine the course of the zeal
Of witless slaves hearing the peal
Of death-knell, before their G-d kneel

Scientism the new religion
All Are robots in the prison
Mere cybernetic mechanisms
That are batteries sub-human

The children of 'G-d'
Transmogrified into a cog
Into the machine of J.O.G
Chasing tail like a dog

Nine to five rat race run
Under artificial suns
Streetlamps electronics run
On goyim energy emanation

Reptilian creatures, plagiary created
A slave matrix, hive mind gestated
Imposed with violence unabated
Upon the witless goyim castrated

Divorced from true form of life

Living "strife, endless strife"

The quotidian day and night

Only the few continue to fight

The goal of each and all

To climb above fellow thralls

Plant spear flag into all

Competitors for power temporal

Within the realm of illusion

The slaves serve abstractions

'Economy'; 'Humanity'; 'the Father' and 'Son'

Forsake the marriage alchemicum

Chasing the nothingness of these

Abstract concepts like a rat cheese

Into the trap to crush and bleed

Absorbed into the demon seed

The false promise of the afterlife

Motivates to lay down their life

The mass of slaves under the strife

Would suffer for Eternal life

The false promise of eternal life
Through science to end the night
Of material finitude, the type
Holds promise to endure the strife

Whether heaven above or below
Neither valid, false promises both
The dark forces would have us hope
For what they sell like dope

The source of all our problems is Our trust in 'God', and creed human
So too creed of scientism
Keeps all chasing after visions

Until the abstractors have had enough
Of vampirising our vital blood
Using mind programs to bluff
The gullible-until they erupt

The key to the mystery of the matrix
Is discovered between the lines of text
Not rationalistic discourses
But the Graal within our breast

Predator and Prey

All throughout the Aeons
The predator and prey
Pursued, fled from one another
Two are bound in the fray
Like an abusive lover
Bestial, sadistic rape

The Aryan of Order, white
From Aldebaran his flight
To solar system bright
The Hyperborean Krist

Chasing after his prey
The reptilian's from Lyra came
To seize their vital game
To vampirize their brain

The parasites sought its host
Predator from far-flung cosmos
Entering into their new post
Around Mars with nukes to roast

The red planet besieged
Window allows escaping
Aryans to flee
To Gaia's terrestrial safety

The host of demon spawn
Annihilated most Aryans
The red globe exploded on Nukes red flaming dawn

The Hollow Earth on Gaia
Served sanctuary for the Arya
The demonic serpentine liars
In pursuit of Aryan warriors

The moon they put in place
Create the catastrophe
To exit from the grace
Of Hyperborean space

Established a base
Predatory serpent race
From which to invade
Gaia's pristine surface

The migrations from the north
Of noble Aryan warriors
Colonies to bear the torch
Of black sun, Lucifer Lord

The Gobi of the East
Black land al-chem's fertility
Fertile Crescent's noble cities
Pyramid culture globally

The demon seed descend
Manufacture their golem
Jewish robots serve them
As earthly gremlins

Aryans make fatal mistake
Of employing these as slaves
Aryan societies invade
To cut the throats of Kings

To enable the outsider
To enter inner chamber
Into the gates-the liars
Had planned to slaughter

By force of strength bestial
The robots prepared to kill
Through proxies' manimals
Reptilian slavers' cattle

Throughout the Kali Yug
The cunning anti-blood
Those who had survived the flood
Would mix the pure with mud

The predator pursues
The Aryan to use
To convert into a tool
As energetic food

The downward spiral quickens
Nearing the end of Piscean
From spiritual height descends
The final confrontation

Harried and pursued over Gaia
The Aryan bearing the fire
Of the Graal of Lucifer
Emerald ray of power

To chain in bondage of iron
The Aryan god-like sion
Of divine black flame fire
For slaver race of liars

Into the final phase
Ragnarok fires ablaze
The slavers couldn't tame
Berserker warrior brains

The host of the dark horde
Exposed to light of lords
Are in crosshairs and bore
Of Aryan warriors

The demon seed appear
In Kali's Yuga fear
Desperate to ensnare
The light of the Northerner

At that time descends
When the battle seems hopeless
The Wildes Heer of Odin
To annihilate reptilians

The planet then is cleansed
Through combat thick and thin
The mighty Aryans
With Divyas gain the win

The triumph of the Will Over all Gaia's fields
Ushered in eternal
Paradise of Divine Will

Mammon

Trash in, trash out
Producer, consumer
Numbers in bank account
Economic unit

The Golden dreams of yore
Now in physical form
No longer living for Spiritual heights of yore

The lumps of gleaming mass

In the mouth, out the ass

Transformed into trash

Brag about your stash

The sewer of Mammon

Spiritual famine

Sewer of greed live-in

Feed, propagate children

The cycle of time rolls on

Like a hamster in its prison

From nine to five a denizen

Tragic life the lesson

Trading in commodities

Neglecting philosophy

By phenomena blind to see

Transcendent aetheriality

Philosophical gold

Impotent to seize hold

And cadaverous and cold buried in fools gold and bankrolls

The weight of materiality
Leadens, presses upon our being
As Fenrir prepares to spring
To devour Andvari's rings

The futile rat race
Sprinting in place
Chasing after grace
Of Mammon, a disgrace

The promise of promissory notes
Empty promises of hope
False gifts in banknotes
Worth less than on them wrote

The day of old Mammon
Is nearing an end
The old light has faded
Kindling the black flame instead

The greed and gorging
Of the goyim porcine
And their rulers of Zion
Soon cast into Hellheim

Kali Ma appears

With maw of shining spears

Sword tongue, inducing fear

In the cowards who leer

Comes riding Kalki avatar

On famed celestial car

With high-held flaming sword

To smite all the cowards

Devotees of Mammon

Servants of the system

Of Zion commie prison

Broken by the risen

The ruins lie strewn

Around fortresses doomed

Might of Asgard soon

Midgard's Spirit True

Mammon is defeated

Gaia Aeon liberated

Destiny creates it

The losers in the grave end

Heimat

The place into which one is born
Fates decree one's loyalty sworn
The one with devotion and honor
Defends folk from beastly swarm

Opposes the traitors from within Securing the hope of kith and kin
To justice visit upon the sin
To noble destinies manifestations

The emerald woods and glimmering lakes
With the harmony of Heimat make
Into this realm a child came Blessed by Nornir's wyrd create

The child awakes to use one day
Receives the blessing of Phoebus's ray
Self-aware no longer at play
Imitating his elders would enter the fray

Tests of might and worldly skill
The triumph of the Aryan will
In his breast kindles the Vril
To defend the Heimat-ready to kill

The youth has proven himself
In combat through blows he dealt
In the prime of budding health
Around his waist girds sword belt

The orc horde surround the folk
Have penetrated the walls of stone
Have occupied the Aryan throne
Have to appearances all but won

The city's citadel encamped
Orc hordes on the battlements
The captive folk in the hands
Of ruthless hordes of beast-men

What neglected the intruder
The criminal jew and race traitor
The host of savage looters
Blood memory awakens Aryans

Neglected countryside awakes
To defend Heimat's sacred place
Grim expressions on their face
Battle hard-enter the fray

The city is now overrun
By orc hordes and traitorous scum
From the forest battle drums
Of Aryan hearts, memory of the blood

The Warriors surround the city
Urban cancer on the country
Prepared to infiltrate its belly
And excise the cancer deadly

The jews and traitors unaware
The stirring of peasant warriors
In position now to enter
The citadels stone barriers

The Black mages in their tower
Propitiate dark occult powers
With rites upon the witching hour
Invoke with blood the evil power

The cries of innocence ring out
Amidst the darkness of the fount
Sanguine life's blood pouring out
Of pallorous virgin child's mouth

A crash is heard struggle ensues
In dark corridor from out the room
The demon seed sense their doom
As dark shapes scatter to the tomb

The traitors within protective fort
Have recognized they must abort
Their ghoulisn rites and flee the force
Which threatens death without remorse

The orcs and traders are surprised
By Aryan invaders sudden sight
As upon the hordes project their might
To redeem corrupt city's plight

Raised are the battlements of yore
The orc host banished forevermore
The traitors and jews in public square
By ropes hanging, servants of demon horde

The Heimat is cleansed through blood and fire
Dark forces have now expired
Their slave minions on the pyre
Of black sons dawn and burning ire

Conservatard

Afraid to go forth, timid to step back
Conserve what perishes, a bootless track
The decayed, crystallized 'facts'
Phenomenal forms, fissured and cracked

The conservative seeks stasis
Won't face the many changes
Of the variable music
Of temporal ecstases

Stuck in the miry clay
Of old forms amidst decay
Moldering dogma-can't say
Mute by tumulous tomes stay

The stagnant puddles of piss
Which the false tradition is Invented fables of jewish
Necro-mages, nether-realm of Dis

To cling to thought forms rigid
Saturnian limitations
Worshiping idols of imagination
Planted in mind, weed seed cultivation

Accompanying false religion
A capitalistic vocation
Usury defines the nation
Reign of quantity's devastation

Supplanted spirituality
Economics, moralizing hypocrisy
Defining hallmark, Protestant mendacity
Derives from jewish demonology

To self-chosen they are servile
Sell out their race for gold pile
No wergeld as yet, meanwhile
The clock ticks down to the wire

Remaining in stasis non possess

Tradition perennial-Truth and Justice

Fixated on pseudo-spiritual bliss

Living life against life is

It, a fantasy of semitic

Contrived theological invention

The conservatard a denizen

Living in a mental prison

To cling to pretended rock of ages

The Petrus petrified by the mages

Of Zion, in the mind of slaves is

Eternal verity and yet the wheel spins

Would live in a heaven world above

Full of infantile, sentimental love

Can't see the falsehood of

The pigeon masquerading as a dove

The mask of priestly mage

Wailing and weeping throughout the age

Concealing grin beneath the pain

Inflicted on other, 'lesser' beings

Venerating the black wizards
Of Zion, no Eagles but buzzards
Pecking at the motes of others
Wounding the flesh the vampires

The golem of the goyim
The jews' captive Aryans
Useful tools to imprison
All and sundry in Zion

To seek to conserve the finite
The transient, and then to fight Against those who possess the light
Is to sabotage one's life

Let the conservative rot
Clinging to their shitty pot
Of fools gold, stools of mold
-A poor dogma, all they've got

The truth only the few are able To attain-transcending the cycles
Temporalized, perishable trifles
Fictions and fables of the Bible

Conserving what you cannot know
For Truth escapes profane folk
Proof for the latter provoke
War against their Aryan folk

Dupes of Judah they must lick
Swallow the sugarcoated shit
Of stuffy creed bound 'holy writ'
Key not to heaven but to the abyss

Those who cannot overcome
A crystallized mind made dumb
The dogma for them has won
Pride of place, worshipping scum

Demonic Empowerment

Yahweh-Jehovah the egregore
Conjured up from out the aether
Black mages circulate the floor
Widdershins black and white checkerboard

The Talmud and the Torah give Secret lore derived from reptilians
Arcane tongues mutter to Him
Chief of dark sinister legions

Yahweh-Jehovah curse be to thee
Transmitted from the jews virally
Pestilential miasma from the East
Blight upon the earth-demon seed

Within the deep dungeons of J.O.G
Infernal mysteries of synagogue
Carried out with merciless G-ds'
Subterranean chamber-swamp of frogs

Demigods of black magic Sacrifices perpetrated tragic
The life force of the innocent
Drunken made by ghoulish sins

Yahweh-Jehovah would bestow
The life force, blood principle
The demonic forms stem the flow
Of sanguine blood absorbed into

Pasty-skinned denizens
Of dark dungeon sanctum's
Share in distribution
Of life force of the innocent

These vile black mages try
To engineer chaos on the sly
Will incite the mindless to fly
At the threats of better kind

Provoke hostility and hate
From one and another against
By each other's blood to state
Of mutual wounds demons partake

Feasting upon the blood
Of goyim while playing dumb
The self-appointed 'chosen ones'
Created by reptilians

Into the tenebrous cabal
Conscripted are traitors useful
The reptilians influence calls
Golem, jews to dupe them all

Within the sacred sanctum's they Widdershin's circum-ambulate
Round altar intoning they await
The innocent's blood to partake

The illusion of pedigree
Gaudy, grandiose finery
In uniform, masonic degree
Climbing demonic hierarchy

To bind to ignoble nobility
The ritualistic ceremonies
Vile rights of demonology
Enable thieves' pact none may see

Bound by bonds of satan
Stronger than adamant
To be a finger on hidden hand
Sell one's soul is the demand

The higher up one ascends
The deeper his mind descends
Into recesses, downward trend
To the abyss to meet his end

The mask of falsehood he does wear
His public face citizens unaware
Of the psychopathic slayer
Of 'human, all too human' care

To all appearances he seems Humble servant of all and sundry
Yet behind the illusory scene
Levers pull for Solomon's dream

The gaudy outfit full of pomp
Circumstances of the swamp
Have embroiled him for the nonce
In obligations, tether taut

Around the neck of Mason
The noose does tighten
For golden chain mistaken
A rope by which to hang him

The mason serves the nation
Of golem 'self-chosen'
Mort-gage soul to them
To be consumed by reptilians

Within a hive mind immersed
The traitor accepted the curse
To make deals with the worst
Devils, sold out folk for paydirt

Generationally he is cursed
Every family member perverse
Ritual trauma-sodomy hurts
To reptilians' diabolical works

The cycle of abuse
Each generation continues
Perpetuates the false truth
The soul reavers' use

Jew and Greek

The claim that is made
Bible recipe for the grave
"Neither Jew nor Greek" save
All are one, Yahweh's slave

The book written by jews

Invented as a ruse

To deceive and abuse

The gullible fools

The book claimed 'holy'

By the chandal solely

To hoodwink in folly

The slaves of usury

Duped to falsehood affirm

That all difference overturned

With dispensation of the germ

Of tidings of the semite worm

That all are declared equal

Appeals to the simple

Riles up these creatures

To fall upon their unequals

That it's plain for all to see

That jews and Greeks do not agree

Not have adequate similarity

To pronounce their 'equality'

That differences of different breeds
Are palpable, tangible for Jew and Greek
Implies to affirm the contrary
Denies obvious reality

Beyond reason, is declared
Beyond words, floating in the air
The godly grace of Yahweh's care
Blesses all against nature's 'nightmare'

Such folly only a blind retard
Can affirm to be in the cards
Dealt by jews and Father
'Who created equal' all the stars

That all aspects by virtue of
The declaration of brother love
Have been effaced therefrom
And by God's grace are none

A hook nose and beetle brow
Not robust form beneath the plow
Not keen eyed sailor at the prow
Black and white-all equal now

The obligation is imposed
To deny that in front our nose
To blinders wear, not to know
The grandeur of nature's scope

Must we forever ignorant
Be, to receive priestly consent
To till the fields and pay expense
To parasites claimed heaven sent?

They would destroy all difference
They would employ this strategem
To trap us all in their prison
Mongrel mass, witless goyim

The greatest rebellion
Is to fight against true sin
Of the desecration
Of the Aryan nation

Should we our life set aside
For this ideal, readily die?
Or create a bridge over the lie
For posterity to Golden age realize

This our duty we must do
To oppose the nasty crew
Of the dark forces who Seek neither Greek nor Jew

Eternal separation is Key to ensuring this Opposition to race mixed
Zion prison matrix

The 'Hellish' Bible

A work of fiction, of cleverness contrived
Jewish fables, a pack of lies
Fear and trembling amongst the faithful
Reduced in mind to an animal level

The stories full of gloom and despair
Created by the desert dwellers
Have for so many of the dark age years
Kept the mass in constant fear

The moldy book of ancient days
Contrived in the Roman cloaca gentium state
In its origin derived from the Dead Sea
By diabolical cunning of serpent seed

Trapping people of noble spiritual height
Within limitations designed to tear down and spite
Those who stand above the guttersnipes
Who peer up at their betters and violence incite

Library of ancient lore
Burnt down by untermenschen incendiary furor
Destruction of sources of pure
Unalloyed Truth concealed in fire's roar

The mixing of kinds of pashus and men
Would make in alchemy formula to win
The world and its wealth to have dominion
For devious tricksters, untermenschen

As in the city of Orthunc of old
With Saruman servant of Sauron is told
To mix orcs with men, to break the mold
Of pure Aryan, the brave and the bold

The city of masonic technocracy
Has created vile engines to unleash on enemies
Despotic sadists who believe
They alone qualify as 'humanity'

The work of pure fiction Bible of old
Designed to subject to mind control
To demonic possession and to impose
Upon all of the hypnotized faithful

A black magic formula to erase those Conflictual thoughts deemed heretical
To capture the minds of individuals
To immerse in hive mind of diabolical evil

The citadels of Orthunc made of concrete
Synthetic artificial construction of these Possessed black mages who would engineer feats
Of Solomon's Temple, Zion city

To keep the slaves slaving 'the Bible' is made
Deemed 'holy' by the cabal of black mages
To reduce the once noble Aryan brave
Reduced to a cowardly neurotic slave

Turn the other cheek, judge the not Witless goyim their minds do rot
With each passage from this witchcraft book
'Holy', or hellish?- one need only look

Render unto Caesar what is their own
Absolve themselves of property to atone
To reduce themselves to slavery and disown
Kith and kin, to marry christ alone

No regard for family or friends
Regardless of blood or relation
Cast aside all culture and then
Embrace empty formulae of the black magicians

Within the church or outside
Invoking entities, call it genocide
Believe in their holiness-but alive
Claimed 'Angels', but demons inside

Entities binds to the faithful slave
Who continues to believe their 'holy' name
Themselves magic words which entrain
The passive obedience of the slave

The entities in which the parishioners believe
Eager upon their souls to feed
Invoked by magical incantations
Bind to their host for vampirization

The fabulous tales of 'the book'
Called 'holy' by the hypocrite crooks
Are mere allegory, hoodwinking the dupes
Of the pathos of the eternal jew

To bind oneself to the church
Is to throw oneself in the lurch
Bound and gagged in spiritual terms
Destined in hell fire to burn

Aryan Optimality

What constitutes a gain for the race
Is that which has the greatest claim
To benefit the highest quality
To the greatest degree, links in the chain
The higher type the lower leads Upward in the cycles of evolution

The questing spirit of the Aryan
Across the expanse of the land
Has throughout the millennia
Sought power and strength through his noble hand

He served his tribe, he served his folk
Invok'd Divya on earth invoked
To destroy the savage foe
Of Demiurge Spawn from the cosmos

His combat always served his race
Race first before his self to sate
He fought for honor amongst his tribe
Sacrificed himself, surrendered his life

Throughout the ages across the world
He served his folk against the Demiurge
Killing and destroying dark denizens
Liberating and freeing their slaves' captive

Throughout the annals of history
He built empires of nobility
Ruled with benevolent decree his charges
Improved the totality

Corrupted by deviant inclinations

Temptations of the flesh

He mixed the castes

Degenerated the best

Encountered in vice through detachment

From the nature of gods of the folk

Mesmerized by dark, arcane lore

He allowed the disintegration of his world

The jewish pest ubiquitous

Had embedded themselves, contaminated the blood

As a tick within the skin

The jew had employed anesthetization

The Empire fell through inner rot

The jew facilitated this cunning plot

To mongrelize the Aryan stock

With defective blood of bestial lot

This corruption of the blood

Introduced all manner of problems

Cause the healthy to fall victim

To deviance of mind, it's perversion

The ultimate cause of the fall
Though deliberately undergone to combat evil
Was the mixing of the blood
Which was the true Noah's flood

The ark of body of the race
Still pure to a degree
Preserves the hope of humanity
For a future age of golden dreams

Today now is the darkest age
When all must face the grave
Open before them as a challenge attain
Overcome death for a future age

Whether to die or live bodily
A matter of indifference for Aryanity
Resurrection or perdition will be Contingent upon fighting the enemy

The formula for happiness only attained
By those who sacrifice engage
A Mors Triumphalis receive undying fame
To live amidst Eternity

Mote Pickers

Those who live to moralize

Had best look in the mirror

They will then realize

Their greater vices don't compare

The hypocrisy of the bigoted moralizing

Who saturate in egotistical sanctimony

Always condemning prejudicially

The 'Other'-display themselves 'powerfully'

Their hyper-obsession with dominance

Has led to their self-importance

A genuflection before their ego

An erection of bestial libido

The beams jut forth from your own

Windows into hollow soul

Of vacuous look of animal

Aggression under politeness concealed

The veil of maya drape over your eyes
Blind yourself to motives biased and vile
To hide behind crocodile smile
Muster your forces for strength trial

Old women and young, men also Trained as children to undergo Violent aggression against the foe
The flag of peace flying low

The stuffy church lady in the pew
The bureaucrat and money-lending Jew
All working against anyone who Contests their despotic iron rule

They tear you down with nary a care
Scratch out your eyes with hostile stares
Pretend that they are unaware
Of their violent intent and from their stare
The beams of hypocrisy vision impair

Self-Deceiver

Would pretend to have the Truth

Specious mind reality ignores

Emotional mind is living proof

That the facts you do abhor

In the pew on Sunday sits

The christian holier-than-thou

Immersed in self-righteousness

With their vainglory proud

Drinks the holy water down

Regurgitates the sermon

A simpleton, holy clown

Humble hypocrite vermin

Spiteful and malicious he

The stuff shirt moralizer

Attacks passive aggressively

All that which is higher

Declares he has "the Truth"

Yet it fails articulation

No evidence or proof

For his mental masturbation

Claims his dogma 'beyond words'

Would silence opposition

Prognosticate's the absurd

Scholastic bones of contention

Pontificates upon 'the christ'

Calls it 'spiritual truth'

Fleshly cadaverous semite

So very morbid and uncouth

The sallow sack of bones

On the cross of ages

"Oi! Oi! Oi!" He intones

As the bigot turns the pages

His eyes half shut with arrogance

Holier-than-thou display

Of haughty self-righteousness

Truths' brightness dims to grey

The words in this magic book
Endowed with 'special' properties
Deceive the gullible folk Represented as prophecies

The emotional, empty words
Beguile the common folk
Priestly sermon weekly heard
Theological lies-a cruel joke

The witless slaves coerced to drudge
Day and night without respite
Unable to the lie overcome
No inkling of truth however slight

The wizards of Zion contrived
This vile book to deceive
Their captive simple minds
Without any reprieve

The dark age of Pisces
Suppressed the ancient lore
Distorted, and for this species
The goyim's wealth absorbed

The religious racket continues
To shakedown the holy-rollers
To straight-jacket minds to Their priestly caste exploiters

Truth cannot be found amidst Creation of rabbinical fanatics
The pages of the holy jizz
Of desert dwelling madmen

The earnest devotions of
The hypocrites and their pretense
Of universal brother love
Little more than self-deception

The devotion to Mammon is
The real treasure sought
Earthly not saintliness
The real goods that are bought

The mind of the believer
Never a knower can be
Is underachiever
In facing truth, reality

Those who deceive themselves
To others also will
To lie, not good for health
Makes the soul quite ill

The source of all speciousness
Lies in the Scriptures 'holy'
To believe in such rubbish
Of jewish man-god's glory

To live in the Truth
Entails a recognition
Of what the senses give us proof
Not crazed semitic invention

Bureau

The Bureau intricate, a matrix
Grooves and locks and drawers
Organized as a system
Controlled by jewish commissars

The bureaucratic system
Created by Kabbalists
Designed to trap the goyim
Through arcane black magic

Processing the citizens
Is the intended purpose
To regulate the goyim
As they exist to 'serve us'

The jewish puppets of the host
Motivated by their hidden masters
Dark forces from the nether worlds
Creating endless disasters

The ghoulish cretin sits within
The cubicle devoid of life
Saturnian incubation
Hive mind engineering strife

From top to bottom corruption
At all levels evil
From lowest janitor shoveling shit
To ivory tower power pinnacle

The laws of the 'chosen ones'
Echoes throughout the hive
Reverberates distortion
'The truth' actually a lie

To elevate themselves above
All others is their goal
Arrogate to themselves the love
Etched in tablets of stone

Thou shalt bow to kikery
Shalt scrape and till the fields
To furnish genetic plagiary
With bumper crop shall yield

The Bureau of Zion proudly
Stands before the vision of all
Proclaims itself as godly
Holy Temple which can't fall

The hubris of the jews will be
Their inevitable devastation
Will break the mold finally
Of hive mind crystallization

To penetrate the ossified
Minds of the zombie mass
Requires a proper tool to pry
Open, densified carapace

Until such time as it can bore
Into the darkness of the tomb
In which the witless masses snore
Somnolent amidst the gloom

The dark age of Kali is Upon us but is lifting
Dawning of the light is Gloom of ignorance erasing

The rusted gears of leviathan
Begin to grate against Each other yet continue on Incurring great expense

The wheel which turns around-the-clock
Right-ward in its motion
In spite of its rusted block
Kaaba-still sails upon the ocean

Ahead the iceberg jagged stands

Immobile in the waters

Of the icy crystallized land

The crew go to the slaughter

"Full steam ahead!" the captain cries

As ship of fools goes forth

Ramming into the jagged ice

Crew plunges into black water

The Bureau in the capital

Sends forth a rescue crew

Answers distress signal

Would save their fellow jews

Fail to see the submarine

With 'SS' emblazoned on it

Diving into the deep

Into the hollow planet

The Bureau commissars

With jewdar do detect

Receive message through aether

From reptilians are sent

The Bureau issues full alert
Code red emergency
All minions must not desert
Take up the fight not flee

The panic in the eyes of these Commie-christian slaves
Testifies to their belief
In impending grave

The host prepares in bunkers
In ramparts of adamant
To combat the Nazi foe
They must come against

Power of vril is contained
Within each and every one
SS warriors still the same
-Don't fight for fame and fortune

A higher, nobler goal
The defense of the race
Elevates them over those Who for-profit live in disgrace

The Bureau with its technology
Subject to Aryan reprisals
The advanced power of the Nazis
Attain forces genocidal

The kikes and minions scramble
Shorted circuits send forth sparks
Edifices shake and rumble
The lights go out-all is dark

Amidst the gloom appear lights
Bright and menacing
UFO vimana's bright
Doom, destruction threatening

The kikes squeal with animal fear
As their carcasses are ruptured
The entrance of the Wildes Heer
Of Odin wrecks destruction

The citadels and ramparts
Of ugly iron and concrete
Lie in ruins, a testament
To the cabals defeat

The inner-space reptilians
Have also been defeated
By warriors of Odin
Triumph of the Will of Aryans

Singled Out For Slaughter

part one: Ancient Lore

The Aryan with noble might Stands forth on Olympus
From airthrone Odin-like
Beholds the humble masses

From the depths
The svartalfs peer full of jealousy and hatred
At the aesir women leer
Lechers seeking satiation

The demon-seed from in the earth
Wvil plans gestation
Wood with dark masters conspire
Midgard's devastation

The host lets loose upon the folk
From subterranean dens
Would infiltrate the healthy stock
Corrupt naïve children

The pure of heart and pure of blood
Are in the target placed
To poisoned dart and cruel blade
The mask of friendship gives way

To arms into combat
They must in order to defend Kinfolk and Heimat
Beauty of their pristine homeland

Blood and Soil are brought
As one into a unity
A juggernaut, battle ax
In berserker fury

The slave hordes who from orc holes crawl
Eager to descend
Upon their surprised host they come
White-man flesh to rend

The battle rages throughout the day
And night with devastation
The orc host with their kikes
Led by reptilian legions

The mages of the Aryan race
Put forth their heroism
In combating the reptilian race
Enforcers of the matrix prison

The battle wages continually
Throughout the time cycles
The Aryan race is everlastingly
Devout in giving battle

Part two: Modern Day

The battle fought has never ceased
But continues on
In ancient times and so today
Black magician, demon spawn

Insist upon imposing
Their tyranny onto this world
Their violation of harmony
To enslave the goyim herd

Through Mafia-style tactics
They have managed to get power
Have wormed their way into their host
Concealed in ivory tower

All through the Gentile society
They have deposited their agents
Have inserted spies and saboteurs
To neutralize opposition

A nation under siege
Within by pestilential thieves
Who creep amongst the shadows
And skim off all the cream

No trust may be had in such Samaritans
A black pall o'erarches
The witless beasts once called man
It's tenebrous arches

The commissariat stands forth
In uniformed regalia
Proud and arrogant their course-
Into the lake of fire

"Full steam ahead!",
Proclaims the captain of the ship
Off a cliff into ravine,
The jagged rocky abyss

The arrogant pigheadedness
Of the oligarchs
Would it's false light bestow
And keep us in the dark

Legislation is written
With gilded pen on parchment
Proclaiming the illegality
Of the life of the Aryan

As in former times
The gates had already been Opened by the operatives of dark
Forces, their de-men

The flood tide of sewer
Pours into the land
Filled with furious violence
Upraised brown hands

Clenched into fists ready to kill
White founders of the nation
To riot, loot and pillage
Till its ultimate ruination

The mind-numbed whites who exist
In zombie stupification
Have no recourse, mere dodo birds
Awaiting extermination

Incapable of seeing Beyond momentary situation
They peck at their tasty grubs
While existing in their cages

The butchers allowed into the gates
With arms are supplied
By the cabal operatives
To facilitate the genocide

The mind control technology

Employed to sabotage

Potentially alert minds

For whom all reason is lost

The sights and sounds and vibrations

The bombardment with radiation

With radio waves and chemicals

With propaganda poison

The mass into a slave has been

Transmogrified goyim

Once human now mere robot

A soulless mechanism

A hopeful soul for which all hopes

Dashed in Zion's prison

These dodo bird so proud and vain

Heads upraised to heaven

Have fallen down with infame

In Icarian descent

Now shattered on the rocks below
To be pecked at by the vultures
The hordes of teeming multitude
Of the multi-kult-ur

Have near precipitated the decline
Into the whites' sepulchral

The race of heroes, adventurers noble
Descendants of the gods
Have now most desperate battle
To oppose the diabolical dogs

What conclusion will arise
Only the sage can know it
To finally destroy the pest
Who hold the slavers' whip?

To allow oneself to be dragged down
To an ignoble demise
Mixed out of life with the scum
Of pashu beast-men kind?

This not the fate and Aryan
Would allow himself to suffer
To allow his extinguishment
Without the slightest mutter

Rather to oppose their foe
And their intended destruction
Else the earth itself can end
Without the culture of the Aryan

The would-be destroyers
Of their hated foe
Have mustered all the dark
Forces of blackest evil

Have brought them against the Aryan nation
Into the gates have they brought them

Have hypnotized and deceived these Witless hybrids, slaves of the demon seed

Prepared to hurl them against the hated whites
To snuff out black flame of luminous light

The Ragnarokr on the horizon glows

Campfires of their savage foes

Eager for the noble blood of those

They the elder gods chose

Spiritual Israel

Into the churches the slaves congregate

The thirst of untermenschen sate

The churches are but demon hives

Controlled by extraterrestrial kind

Who possess the souls of the grime

Of whited sepulchres-criminals inside

The hypocrisy of the faithful

Have capacity for Truth deprived

Their minds are now unable

To reason or decide

In the whited sepulchral sermons
Are preached to better condition
The slave class to perdition
And to feed their souls to demons

These arrogant naïve fools
Who sit in the wooden pews
Absorb the hypnotic words
Of priestly worshipers of Jews

Exult their ego and claim
They have a 'spiritual monopoly'

This pseudo-spirituality, their boastful claim
Of being associated with higher things

However they are mistaken
In their exaltation
Are bound to dark forces
From the nether regions

This hive mind entity
\Which they call a spiritual height
Is instead an egregoric prison
Devoid of divine light

The slave masses trapped within Too witless to understand
They have bound themselves to sin
Through clutching the hidden hand

For their betters whose blood would slake
The thirst of untermenschen sate

The hypocrite priest wears a smiling mask
While behind his flowing robes the collection plate is passed

This pretender to the divine is a servant of the Lord
The Lord of hosts of demons that enslave the world

The christly sock puppet
In which he inserts his hand
Is a mere distraction
To deceive the foolish mass

The priestly hypocrite works with hybrids
Part neanderthal and reptilian
The jewish perennial liars
The Dark Lord their sire

Priestly pedophile

Sitting in the chapel

Practicing black magic rites

Under the mantle

Torture and murder the hypocrite extols

Pretends he's fighting against the Devils of old

While simultaneously possessed by one of them

His true diabolical kith and kin

The pall of egregore envelops

The mind of moron masses in Reducing them to witlessness

Incapable of any action

The slaves are controlled by this

Pseudo-spiritual hive mind magic

Within this vile black magic structure

True believers in the False, cluster

Being vampirized by their demon masters

Having souls absorbed by them and their mast pastors

The pomp and circumstance of this hive mind

In reality empty, vainglorious brag

The deceived fools by their egos

Have become attached to egregore

Have through false humility

And self-righteous vainglory

Become bound to the seed of reptilian demon breed

Hence the seeds of their destruction

Were sown as they came in

Entered into whited sepulchre

The Hollow men their souls departed

Gone to the nether regions of Dis

To be vampirized by reptilians
