A Cherished Goal

A Planet Devoid of Mud Races

Today It May Seem like a Dream, but the White Race has the Wherewithal to Convert it into Reality.

By Ben Klassen, P. M.

Have you ever wondered what this world could be like under ideal conditions?

Well, let us imagineer and speculate into a world of the future, a Planet Earth devoid of mud races, a goal that has long been cherished and is diligently being pursued by the Church of the Creator.

Let us project ourselves three or four generations into the future and assume this highly desirable objective is now a task completed, and let us take a fond look at the new Whiter and Brighter world about us.

First of all, we would find that our Planet Earth would be much less crowded. Our White Race would have burgeoned to perhaps one billion people in a few generations and then stabilized and levelled off at that point. This one billion people, however would now be spread out over a land mass four times larger than the now crowded quarters of the White Race. Not only would we be occupying space left open by the now departed mud races in our own territories, but the White Race would be spread out over Asia, Africa, South America and other territories in which there are now none, or few White residents.

Most of the thinning out would come about in the now overcrowded metropolitan centers. The big cities would be smaller, less crowded, with much more elbow room and breathing space. The slum areas formerly infested with niggers, Puerto Ricans and other undesirables, would now have been bulldozed away, cleaned up and converted into beautiful public parks and green areas, where decent men and women could stroll about without fear of attack from the criminals, where children could romp and play in safety, and families could picnic at their leisure. The cities would be clean, orderly and uncrowded as they still are in some parts of Switzerland and a few other parts of the White world that have not yet been infested with black criminals.

Speaking of slums, the Jewish media have repeatedly tried to deceive us that our cities have slums because those sections of the city have become old and therefore, naturally, they become run-down. This is, of course, a blatant lie. Slums come about because of riffraff that will neglect and destroy any kind of building or environment you put them in. Notably this shiftless and irresponsible type consists of one type of mud race or another with the niggers leading the way. I have visited some of the most beautiful little cities in the world like the beautiful city of Rothenburg, in Germany, or Zermatt in Switzerland, at the foot of the Matterhorn, whose finest and most interesting buildings are more than 600 years old. The cities are clean, interesting, well kept and inhabited by White people.

On the other hand, you can put niggers into brand new apartments, as the U. S. government has done innumerable times at the taxpayer's expense, and in 6 to 24 months the windows are broken, the plumbing has been ripped out, the elevators have stopped working because they have been used for urinals and garbage dumps. In short, you can take the nigger out of a slum but you can't take the slum out of the nigger, or to put the same idea another way, you can take the nigger out of the jungle, but you can't take the jungle out of the nigger.

But to resume our dream of the future. A much higher percentage of our people would now be living out in the country, either on large family sized farms, or on small plots of a few acres where they would cultivate their own garden, and perhaps have a nice little orchard of fruit trees. Prior to WWI, my people, the Mennonites in Russia, although living in communities of perhaps 1000, did just that. They had the best part of both worlds, a real farm perhaps a mile

The Achille Lauro Affair: A Staged Mossad Caper?

Rev. Carles C. Messick, H.P.

The Jews have long maintained that the Jew is a favored jewel in the eyes of the Lord and that non-Jews are as meaningless and expendable as cattle in the field. With all this hype over the Achille Lauro affair it isn't too difficult for one who is onto the Jews and their self-centered ways to see through this latest tear-jerker development.

The funny thing about this latest hijacking of the Achille Lauro is all the previous publicity involving this poor old crippled Jew, Leon Klinghoffer. The very next day after the announced hijacking we find these Jews on TV moaning and groaning about their poor decrepid father. I don't remember much being said about any of the other passengers aboard, just this Jew, Leon Klinghoffer. Two days before the hijackers gave up and were taken off the ship all we heard about was Klinghoffer this Klinghoffer that. The Egyptian government negotiated with the hijackers and they agreed to surrender. Everyone was relieved. The Captain of the Achille Lauro at first claimed that there were no injuries and he should have been in a position to know. Now, remember when the ship was first hijacked there were wild rumors circulating all over the Jews Media about two women having been killed? Later, no women killed as was first believed, but we were still hearing about this poor invalid Jew, Klinghoffer.

Then after the release the terrible shock of finding out that this very same Jew had been (so goes the claim) brutally murdered and his body thrown over the side. Oh, the wailing and the weeping from the Jews! Jews demonstrating in the streets of New York. All this news coverage over one dead and ailing Jew. When asked why they singled out Klinghoffer, why, he was the most helpless of all the passengers. Hell, they were all helpless! And why did they kill only one Jew when there were scads of other Jews ripe for the slaughter?

or so from their house and barn, and an orchard and garden plot with the house. No crowding, lots of fresh air, lots of room for the children to play.

We Creators regard trees as the most essential and important plants in our natural environment, and we regard fruit trees as the best of all. One of the first steps our ingenious and energetic White Race of the future will have tackled is the saving of our natural forests. Today we find this precious resource slowly dying in many, if not most, parts of the world. The lovely Black Forest of Germany is dying due to acid rain and atmospheric pollution, forests in the Northeastern United States and Eastern Canada are dying, forests in Russia are dying, forests in the Rocky Mountains regions are dying. The huge rain forests of the Amazon River region, which are regarded as one of the most important "lungs" of our atmosphere in restoring oxygen, are being wantonly destroyed and decimated at the rate of thousands of square miles a year.

All this must and will be reversed. We cannot and do not want to exist in a bleak and barren planet. This wanton deterioration must be stopped and then reversed and let Nature do the rest in rebuilding it.

Speaking of fruit trees, since the White Race of the future will also be inhabiting the tropical and subtropical areas of the world that it does not now inhabit, we will plant millions of acres of fruit trees. This will include not only the newly acquired tropical and subtropical areas but also the temperate regions. Since our population will be consuming much more fruit, our choice of fruits will also be greatly widened.

Whereas most of us are now familiar with such choice subtropical fruits as bananas, oranges, grapefruits, lemons, limes, dates, figs, papayas, mangos and others, there are numerous other tasty and nutritious fruits that we can and will grow and transport. Among these are such choice goodies as: cashew-apples, sugar-apples, star-apples, rose-apples, imbus, ambarellas, red mombins, yellow mombins, cherimoyas, soursops, ilamas, soncoyas, sweet granadillas, purple granadillas, giant granadillas, capulins, loquats, manzanillas, icacos, pineapple guavas, strawberry guavas, pitangas, feijoas, grumichamas, lit-chis, longans, rambutans, sopodillas, sapotes, canistels, kakis, mangosteens, jackfruits, durians, tunas, carrissas and carambolas.

Being man's most palatable and nutritious foods, their culture and expansion will be extensive and well advanced in the future environment of our race.

Along with restoring the forests of our planet, we will have gone a long way in also increasing the natural habitat of our wildlife — animals, birds and fishes. We will seriously pursue the survival and perpetuation of the wildlife species that are now still with us and do what we can to ensure they will remain part of our heritage and environment in the future. This includes cleaning up our rivers, lakes and oceans, and protecting our whales, seals, fishes and other marine creatures for our future generations to enjoy.

The nigger is one of Nature's most dismal failures.

The health of our people would, for several reasons, be excellent, since the overwhelming majority of our people would now be following the dietary program of fresh fruits, vegetables, nuts and seeds, getting plenty of fresh uncontaminated air, and being much more physically active. They would, in short, be following the natural life style of Salubrious Living. There would now be little need for Temples of Doom (hospitals) or even doctors, people having discovered the toxic effect of drugs, all drugs, and shunned them as they would the plague and niggers. People in general would be more exuberant, vibrant, happy and healthy, because they were faithfully following the Laws of Nature, and a natural life style.

Our people would also be emotionally and mentally far more healthy than they are today. For one thing, being physically sound and healthy is already a psychological lift in itself. Secondly, most of the depressing burdens the White Race is saddled with today would have been solved and eliminated. No longer would we have to worry about being mugged, robbed or shot, in our homes, or in a park, or walking down a city street at night. There would be no niggers or other lecherous animals lurking about to commit crimes. White criminals as such would be as rare as polar bears in Florida. Law and order could and would be maintained with a minimum staff of the law enforcement agencies.

Nor would our future progeny have to worry about going to hell and burn forever and a day. By now CREATIVITY would have abolished from their minds all the superstitious clutter and debris left over from our long departed Stone Age ancestors. One of the freedoms future generations will be able to enjoy is Freedom from Fear of Hell.

Not only would they no longer be harried and harrassed by their preacher perpetually threatening hellfire and damnation with his damnable Jewish Christianity, but the fortunate White progeny of the future would not have the Jewish IRS continually breathing down his or her neck, robbing them of the major part of their life's earnings. Taxes would be an insignificant minimum and the Jewish IRS would be dead and gone. With no more internecine wars to fight, no military burdens to carry, no freeloading and shiftless mud races to support, governmental expenses would be a small, minute fraction of what they are now. Practically all expenditures would be for constructive purposes, such as building roads, bridges, harbors, parks, playgrounds, etc.

The White Race would no longer shoulder the tremendous guilt burden that the Jew has now foisted upon us, about the poor, hungry, starving niggers in Africa, or Hindus in India or Indonesians in Indonesia, or Indians on the reservations or Eskimos in Eskimo land. We would not have to worry about them by this time. Having had the good sense to stop feeding and subsidizing all these incompetent mud races they would by now have withered on the vine, be dead and gone and only part of a long past nightmare. No longer would we feel guilty about their plight and incompetence, but we would by then have embraced the good sense not to feel guilty about anything, because there would not then be anything we should feel guilty about, not even about living the good life and enjoying every minute of it.

This guilt-free feeling would further have been reinforced by the sound psychological teachings of our religion: that no one need feel guilty about following his or her good sense, the natural instincts we were born with, and living the good life. (See "The Guilt Complex and the Fairness Neurosis", C. C. No. 61, in the WMB)

Our people would be much more gregarious and communally minded, enjoying sports, concerts, plays, art, literature and music. Every area would have a church center within close reach which would have recreational grounds and facilities for team sports, tennis courts, bowling alleys, swimming pools, concert halls, libraries and many of the other cherished amenities and activities that are inherently part of a White Man's brilliant culture and civilization. Our people's minds would no longer be confused and cluttered with filthy Jewish pornography, nor Jewish religious claptrap. The White Race would then indulge itself in that at which it is best — creative activities, cultural enhancement and salubrious living.

Not only would our future generations be able to express their natural creative instincts in healthy channels at home, but a far greater percentage would be able to travel. This they would do, both within the borders of their own countries to view the parks, and wonders of nature, and also abroad throughout the then beautiful, safe and shining world, to view all the foreign wonders. Practically all our good White Racial Comrades would be solvent, debt free and affluent. Why not travel? Properly oriented, trained and given ample opportunity everyone could afford those things, things we now regard as luxuries for only "the rich". Travel and transportation would be amazingly efficient and safe, and relatively inexpensive. But there are further bonuses.

By that time the White Race would have adopted and learned a universal language of its own, namely a revised and streamlined Latin, the greatest of all the languages in the civilization of mankind. Any of our White Racial Comrades from any part of the world could now travel freely in New Zealand, or France, or Sweden, or Germany, the now rebuilt areas of Africa or Asia, and converse with the White natives in his or her mother tongue — Latin. Everybody would be fluently speaking Latin, and soon Latin only. Nor would the polyglot welter of foreign currencies any longer be a problem. Instead of having to go to a Jewish bank to exchange monies every time a traveler crossed a border, the White world community would by now have established not only a common language, but also a common currency which would be as valid in any other country as it was at home.

Furthermore, the hassle of having to pass through immigration and customs every time they crossed a border would no longer exist. Our people would be able to cross national borders (if there still were any) just as freely as they now cross state borders in the United States. Why not? No country would have the fear or the burden of keep-

CREATIVITY

Creed and Program

Fundamental Points:

1. CREATIVITY is a racial religion whose prime goal is the survival, expansion and advancement of the White Race.
 2. Our organization is known as the CHURCH OF THE CREATOR. Our movement and religious philosophy are called CREATIVITY, and members of our church are called CREATORS.
 3. Every issue, whether religious, philosophical, political or racial, is viewed through the eyes of the White Man and exclusively from the point of view of the White Race as a whole.
 4. The cardinal test of any theory, plan or program is this: Will it accrue to the benefit of the White Race?
 5. We believe that the White Race is Nature's finest creation of all time and that our most precious treasure is our White gene pool. Guarding the purity of our worldwide gene pool, enhancing it, and the upgrading of our future generations is our highest responsibility and our most sacred duty.
 6. The four basic foundations of our religious creed are: A SOUND MIND in a SOUND BODY in a SOUND SOCIETY in a SOUND ENVIRONMENT.
 7. Our GOLDEN RULE is: What is good for the White Race is the highest virtue; what is bad for the White Race is the ultimate sin.
 8. A thorough and comprehensive study of history has convinced us that the Jews, with their odious Talmudic and Judaic religion, are the most sinister and dangerous parasites in all history, and that they now control and manipulate the finances, the propaganda, the media and the governments of the world. It is our sacred duty and unswerving goal to get these parasites off the back of the White Race and enable the White Race to again take control of its destiny and restore it into its own capable hands.
- DELEND A EST JUDAICA!
9. We mean to cleanse our own territories of all the Jews, niggers and mud races and send them back to their original habitat. Starting first with the United States, we then want to help each White country to free their territories of the contamination of mud races also, and prevent not only race-mixing, but geographic mixing of races within any of the lands now occupied by the White Race.
 10. A tremendous weapon in the worldwide Jewish drive of race-mixing and proliferation of the mud races has been Jewish Christianity, concocted for the very purpose of mongrelizing and destroying the White Race. It is our avowed objective to expose this Jewish swindle and replace it with a sound, healthy racial religion of our own.
 11. Our first and foremost problem in saving the White Race from mongrelization and genocide is to straighten out the confused and scrambled thinking of the White Race itself. Once we have accomplished that much, getting the Jews, niggers and mud races off our backs will be relatively easy. When this has been accomplished, we then propose to expand the White Man's territory slowly and gradually, similar to the historic "Winning of the West" in early America, until the White Man inhabits all the good lands of this Planet Earth.

12. Simultaneously with the above, we mean to promote and practice Eugenics for the upgrading and advancement of the human species itself, as is spelled out in our THREE BASIC BOOKS, Nature's Eternal Religion, The White Man's Bible and Salubrious Living.

13. We also are deeply concerned about the now rapidly deteriorating environment of our Planet Earth, which has not only become racially polluted, but is becoming highly contaminated with overwhelming masses of chemical wastes, nuclear wastes, and other dangerous and toxic poisons. As soon as the White Race again has control of its own destiny we mean to reverse this process, clean up the Planet and again make it a clean, pleasant and viable place for the White Race to live.

14. We also mean to address the problem of farmlands and soil fertility, a problem that is now out of control. As set forth in the White Man's Bible (Creative Credo Nos. 13, 14 and 15) we plan to put in operation a program to restore the fertility of the soil and conserve its stability on a worldwide basis.

15. We are also concerned about the physical and mental health of our people. In order to enhance and upgrade the physical well-being of both young and old, we mean to promote a natural life style as set forth first in The White Man's Bible and further amplified in Salubrious Living. The salient components for such a program are summarized in both books under the "14 BASIC POINTS" of Salubrious Living.

16. Our basic philosophy is spelled out under the heading of "THE SIXTEEN COMMANDMENTS" in both Nature's Eternal Religion, and The White Man's Bible, and is part and parcel of our creed.

17. Our "Declaration of Independence from Jewish Tyranny" is set forth in Creative Credo No. 67 of The White Man's Bible.

18. Our program to overcome the tyranny and violence directed against the White Race is spelled out on Page 401 of The White Man's Bible, and we mean to follow and implement these steps, including Articles 7 and 8 in the order listed, if and when the time should come when we are compelled to do so.

19. In Creative Credo No. 65, we have an additional creed of our Church enabling the White Race to protect itself from a hostile government, under the heading of "Articles for the Defense of the White Race." This, too, is part and parcel of our creed and program.

20. In a rapidly degenerating world that is now overcrowded and overrun with an explosion of inferior mud races; a world that is drug-ridden and already overly polluted with toxic chemicals and nuclear wastes; a world now steeped in anarchy, chaos and terrorism, it is nevertheless our ultimate and continuing goal to build in its place a Whiter and Brighter World for our future generations.

DEVOID OF MUD

ing out the undesirables. There would be no mud peoples or other undesirables, only healthy, affluent, intelligent White people, free and welcome to travel the world over.

With the blood-sucking Jewish twins, namely the Federal Reserve Board and the IRS gone, with the free-loading mud races no longer on our back, the White people could now concentrate on producing food, clothing and shelter as well as all the finer amenities of life for its own best interests. So productive is the White Race that once its hands are untied, every White family, and I mean every family, could now own and pay for a beautiful spacious home with adequate breathing space around it and live like a king. There would be no drones; there would be no unemployment; there would be no national debt; there would be no interest to pay to the Jewish counterfeiters. Everyone would be competent, everyone would be solvent, everyone would have ample time for leisure and the enjoyment of the finer things in life.

With our Eugenics program in full operation as well as practicing the best of Salubrious Living, as in Nature, the overwhelming majority of our White Racial Comrades would be remarkably healthy, both physically and mentally. Mental hospitals as such would soon be a thing of the past, and snake-pits of today would only be an ugly memory of bygone times.

Instead of pushing technology to its utmost dangerous boundaries where it could (and can now!) destroy all mankind, the future White Race will stress not more technology, but concentrate on improving our gene pool — more intelligent people, more healthy people, more athletic people, more beautiful people.

We will not waste our time, energy and resources pursuing "outer-space", or space travel. There is nothing out there for us but

BRICKBATS & BOUQUETS

Werter Kamrad Klassen!

Your breathtaking newspaper RACIAL LOYALTY came across my hands and I did read it with kind interest (Issue 28). I would very much appreciate you sending me other samples, two or three, no matter which issue. I realise you enjoy relatively more freedom than here. If only one issue of that kind would be published here in Germany, the editor would spend the rest of his life in prison. We have sharp laws, especially in Berlin where we are under direct occupation/military law. Fortunately, publications from abroad in a foreign language are not yet forbidden, but attempts are being made to promulgate such laws.

I likewise read "LIBERTY BELL", "NATIONAL VANGUARD", "THE ODINIST", etc., and I feel the English-written literature does express and shape the pivotal matters better than German publications can afford to do.

What is your personal view-point as to "Aryan Nations"? I may consent to their program, what I am confused about is that why they always refer to the Bible as a serious book and derive their ideology from there. What are the strongest groups in the USA? I am really astonished at how many there are. As to personal opinion: It's high time to look for an international exchange of ideas, inspirations and informations. We no longer can afford to stay in the old-type form of chauvinism, all people of Indo-Germanic stock are highly endangered. The purpose of our group is to work across the parties, to avoid the clubbiness. We are autonomous and spontaneous on ad-hoc basis. We detest the form of those organizations, sitting most times in chairs discussing personal matters, statues, paragraphes, position-papers and the like. Action is required.

Dear Pontifex:

Please sign me up for a 12 issue subscription!

I'm referred by my friend W. G. Nash of Texas, to whom I am indebted for priming my RACIAL AWARENESS through exposure to your works, as well as those of William Pierce, Revilo Oliver, Robertson, Simpson and others.

I am 35 years old, a traveling salesman with five intelligent, racially aware children, ages 7 through 16. I talk to lots of White people everyday who have had ENOUGH of the niggers! It's harder to make them aware of the Jews and their power, but I am persistent! I NEVER believed in gods or devils even as a child!

Thanks again,

Dear Pontifex:

It was a pleasant surprise to receive the parcel of Books, EXPANDING CREATIVITY. The subject matter perfectly compliments your earlier works. I also am pleased with the superior quality paper stock, it should outlast the newsprint used in your other publications.

I am in the process of putting these books in the right hands, to wake up more of our folk.

Sorry about my delay in answering your letter. I must say you answer mail and deliver orders faster than anyone I have dealt with. Enclosed is a small donation.

Faithfully yours,

Dear Pontifex:

I hope you will see fit to publish this information because it is important to the survival of the White Race. This condition is happening today, not in some ancient past.

I want to tell parents not to allow their new born babies to be CIRCUMCISED, this rarely being necessary. This is an ancient cruel practice performed by the Jews.

This cruel practice may destroy the male sex-organ and is child abuse imposed on helpless children. There are millions of male babies mutilated each year. These children are destroyed for life because of this Jewish practice.

Parents should love and protect their babies, not subject them to barbaric practices reminiscent of the Stone Age.

Let's get rid of this cruel and debilitating practice.

Dear Pontifex:

I just read your excellent paper today and just finished reading out loud your discussion with the Methodist minister, (my father who is an ordained minister said you weren't searching for truth). I said "You have refused to read Ben Klassen's books and yet he HAS read the Bible and was brought up as a Mennonite. So it sounds to me like he has sought the truth whereas you don't believe in reading opposing viewpoints very much."

He said, "Are you sure he has read the Bible?" I said, "Yes." He said "He said he had?" I said, "Yes, he did." He said, "Well, okay, at least has done that." So I proceeded to read the article about your discussion with the Methodist minister. After I got through, he said "That's some of the most ridiculous ranting and raving (by you) that I've ever heard."

In a state of surprise I said, "On the contrary, he had a very calm discussion." He replied, "I mean his way of thinking is ranting and raving." I said "How?" He said, "Because he seldom says 'My opinion' but makes statements." I still pressed for proof or even evidence of "ranting and raving."

I looked up "rant" in Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary. It says, (1) "RANT - to talk in a noisy excited or declamatory manner [my note: like Meir Kahane?] (2) to scold vehemently: to utter in a bombastic declamatory fashion. (3) rant - a bombastic extravagant speech; bombastic extravagant language Etc.

Also, (1) "RAVING" - irrational, incoherent, wild or extravagant utterance of declamation. (2) raving - talking wildly or irrationally; a lunatic.

He immediately cut in and laughed and said "That's what he is!"

I said, "how is he a lunatic?" He said, "I don't have to say." I replied, "If you make an accusation you should back it up with an example." He said, "I don't have time - there are 200 examples just in that one page you read." It could take weeks of time." I said, "Just name one!"

He wouldn't (naturally and unfortunately). He said, "I've got to go to bed," and shut the door. I said, "Well I would appreciate you letting me know one example because I agree with what he said and I want to know why I am considered a lunatic also, then. He said, "He's just a lunatic. I would like him to define just two things, (a) TIME and (b) SPACE since he wants the definition of "SOUL" and "SPIRIT". I said, "Time and Space" have been defined by Einstein and besides scientists are willing to change their minds because they are looking for truth, not defending some dogma."

He said, "Well, he's just irrational." I said, "Well, why don't you write him and tell him so AND TELL HIM WHY?" He said, "Ohhhh" - shook his head, smiled and then said, "Maybe I will someday."

Pontifex, this is a classic example why children should think for themselves and not blindly "believe" just because they were irrationally brought up a certain way. I do disagree with a few viewpoints, but at least you base your opinions

Dear Rev. Messick

On the "Spirit" issue, I had been asking some people now and then to describe them to me, but I hadn't gotten an answer, that is until yesterday. An elderly lady promptly told me all about the spirit deal. I will relate the story to you, for what it is worth.

She said that the spirit was electricity, and that when a person died that electricity resided in the air everywhere, and that the soul or spirit was electricity, and when a person died, that electricity left the body and went into the air. Now, it was the electricity of the bodies that had not been so good in life, that was collected into these generators around the country. They collected it up, whorled it around, and sent it out on the wires, through light bulbs, and burnt hell out of it. But, I insisted, all of it didn't go through light bulbs, that some went into factories and ran electric motors, and things like that. Well, it turned out that that electricity or spirit was some that had the body that wasn't so bad in life as the ones that were sent through the light bulbs, they were just made to work for all eternity for their sins. The discourse did go on for some time, but that is the gist of it.

Well, whatever it may be worth, it was her answer, and I did have to agree that electricity was everywhere, and in the air, also. So, there you have it. Oh, also I did have to agree that a person's nervous system did work on electricity, some think it does. I also asked why the spirit was punished for what the body did, and she said that the spirit allowed the body to do it, whatever it was and was responsible.

She wasn't a preacher, but very religious. She came by this thing on her own.

ASK AND YE SHALL BE TOLD. Sooner or later!

Dear Pontifex:

Everything received today in good order, and thanks.

Re. Issue No. 29 on Polarization and Confrontation:

Yes, as always, you are precisely on target.

I, too, have long pondered the strange brand of lemmingism afflicting the White Man. Can you conceive of any other people acting or believing against their own best interest? One could preach and explain for a century to the nigger how the White do-gooders think and he could only stare like an hypnotized owl, comprehending less than how to build a hydrogen bomb.

As you, I've been aware of the mechanics of our problem, but have been plagued by the question of its origin in the psyche. For one, why the hell did we accept the Hebe religion in the first place? Or, as it is becoming worse in recent years, why must we now cross ourselves at the sight of a nigger, or refer to the saintly Jewish person? What deep within our thought process allows us to accept, even seek, these bizarre unrealities?

To this end, I have studied the British in India. I could have chosen many other records of history, but that was as good as any, and certainly unsurpassed by driving-like dedication, sacrifice and suffering for an ideal that they accepted. Sure, some British Hebes came up smelling like a rose on the deal, but we're investigating the sincere, if foolish motives, of our own kind.

My conclusions: The nigger functions best like a Zulu: a discipline of imminent death from the chief ever at his throat. All peoples have their best system. BUT — only the White Man has functioned best, for example, at free enterprise. Why? He first of all thinks as an individual — it is his nature, and the reasons for that is probably beyond anyone's capacity to discover. But for individual effort, he needs intelligence and curiosity, which requires imagination, all of which he has to a degree that demands satisfaction. His nature demands that he create and produce. Its effect is narcotic and insatiable. That is why he's always been on top. But, HIS STRENGTH IS HIS WEAKNESS! He doesn't know that he can't play with fire and not be burned. He is curious about other races and investigates, as he does all else. He feels his strength and falsely thinks that alien association won't touch him, that he will continue ad infinitum with impunity. He can be kind, give away his goods as the source will never end. Sadly, he's then caught in his own trap and destroyed.

The answer? I don't know. If an atom bomb will do it — drop it. It's better than slavery to the nigger and the Jew!

Yours,

Dear Rev. Messick:

Thank you for 100 Issues W.S.U. Issue No. 9 of RACIAL LOYALTY & Nov. "R.L.". I put them out all over campus. The Muds, niggers, and faggots are going crazy. Score "1" for the White Race.

I have read all four books you sent — I believe firmly in the Racial Socialism of the Church of the Creator. I believe it is the essence of what our duty to race, people and land is.

Also please send me 8 Creativity Buttons and 1 copy of the "Survival of the White Race" (40 minute L.P.) by Ben Klassen P.M.

Thank You
For the White race

Heavenly HumorAbout Christmas

The Jewish propaganda machine is at this very moment again cranking up its promotional machinery and putting it into high gear in order to incite the goyim to buy! buy! buy! and fill its commercial coffers. Since this Christinsanity is based on a purely fictitious concept, on an event that never happened, and on a date that was picked at random six hundred years after the supposed event, we caution our White Racial Comrades to remain objective. In order to help keep things in perspective we again publish a little Christian humor.

A few days after Christmas, a Protestant, Catholic and a Jew were sitting at a bar, recalling how they each had spent Christmas day. The Protestant said, "Well, we started celebrating on Christmas eve. We went to our local church and listened to a short sermon and sang some Christmas hymns. Then on Christmas morning we gathered around the tree and opened presents. Then later, we had a few highballs and about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, we had our big Christmas dinner."

The Catholic said, "Well, by and large we did the same thing, except we didn't celebrate Christmas eve, but got up early the next morning and we went to Mass. Then, about 1 p.m. we opened our presents."

The Jew said, "Well, we have a different approach altogether. On Christmas day we invited all of our relatives and co-religionists to come together at the Department Store. We opened a case of Slivovitz, then we rubbed our bellies and looked with glee at the empty shelves and full cash registers. Then, we kneeled down and gave thanks to our own boy, Saul, who invented this clever gimmick and made it all possible in the first place, and then we all joined hands and sang, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

Promoting a Jewish Hoax

Before we go silly again glorifying a Jewish spook that never was, let us examine this annual hoax.

The above story sums up in a nutshell what fuels the buying splurge in which the average White goyim is caught up annually and perennially. Starting right after Thanksgiving (and many stores can't even wait that long) the biggest propaganda campaign of the year lets loose full blast — buy! buy! buy! from the Jew-owned department stores and all the other stores, 90 per cent of which are Jew-owned.

The pressure build up is tremendous. If you don't succumb to the Jewish campaign to buy, whether you like it or not, something for all your friends and relatives, whether they can use it or not, why, you are a Scrooge, a penny pincher, a tightwad, and not in the proper "spirit" of Christmas. Just so you will never forget what a reprehensible character Scrooge was, Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" is trotted out at the proper time with great fanfare. This happens BEFORE Christmas, year after year. You can depend on it.

So before we again are overwhelmed with this Jewish outpouring of mushy spirit — let us ask some sensible questions.

What is Christmas all about? Why should we spend all this time, money and hocus-pocus glorifying a Jewish hoax that never was? Wouldn't it be a lot more sensible to utilize that same time, energy, money and zeal promoting some of our own White racial heroes and values?

Yes, it would. Let us first look at the history of the Jewish hoax. Let us collect our senses and ask What is Christmas all about?

Well, supposedly we goyim are all overcome with deep religious awe and sentimental gush and are celebrating the birthday of Christ, our Savior, who supposedly came down from heaven (via Mary's womb) to save all of us poor rotten sinners from a fate of fire and brimstone and we supposedly are all thankful as hell that he was so charitable.

Save us sinners from hell? Really?

There are so many flaws in this whole fictitious fairytale that it would make your head swim when we go beyond the first gushy, childish euphoria as to what Christmas is all about.

Comparative Religions — Part VII

HINDUISM

Among the world's handful of so-called "great" religions, Hinduism is the most ancient of them all. Its very beginnings are lost in antiquity. The origins of superstitions, beliefs, customs and traditions date back to prehistoric times. Whereas the world's religious establishment rates it as one of the "great" religions (along with Judaism, Christianity, Mohammedanism), we Creators see nothing very great in this morbid collection of fungus on the brain. In our opinion it is a hodgepodge collection of stupidities and superstitions at its worst. It points up what we have been saying repeatedly — the so-called "great" religions are an archaic hangover from our Stone Age ancestors, debris and clutter of the mind that is based on superstition, gullibility and ignorance — an impervious roadblock to enlightenment, advancement and logical thinking.

Be that as it may, the number of adherents to Hinduism embrace nearly half a billion of the world's population, mostly mud peoples, and ranks third only after the Roman Catholic faith and the Moslem religion. In India alone there are 300,000,000 faithful.

Hinduism is unique in many ways. For one thing, it has no one founder. It evolved over the milleniums as a strange and confused intermingling of many peoples' cultures and outside influences. Its beliefs and customs are therefore hard to define, and there is no one common creed, no one doctrine, that binds all Hindus together.

Basically, Hinduism is not just a religion. It is more of a vast complex of theological, metaphysical, philosophical, ethical, cultural and social institutions whose predominant breeding ground was the sub-continent of India. It comprises of four main elements: religion, race, country and social organization. Each is bound up and is an integral factor in the life of the others, and cannot be separated. So loose and diverse is the complex nature of Hinduism that there is room for every contradictory belief and custom imaginable to be embraced within its discordant creed. In fact, Hindus have followed almost every conceivable variety of theism, atheism, polytheism and pantheism. They have maintained conflicting standards of morality; their worship has been both idolatrous and iconoclastic; all are tolerated as long as the rules of caste are not violated.

I have stated in some previous writings that some enterprising soul has compiled a catalogue of 30,000 different gods that superstitious and gullible fools have invented and worshipped over the ages. But I now learn that this only scratches the surface. The Hindu religion alone has a pantheon of 33 million gods, most of which in addition to the standard list of dieties, embrace local, village or even individual gods. Spooks, spirits, gods — 33 million of them — count them at leisure.

All Hindus recognize the domain of DHARMA (religious law) as the supreme agency of destiny. It is the important link between all the complexities of their belief.

One of the most important tenets of Dharma is the rigid caste system that has been imbedded in the Hindu religion for thousands of years. The four main castes all belong to early Aryan society, and are based mainly on birth and color of skin. They are, in descending order:

- (a) Brahmans, the priestly and cultured elite.
- (b) Kshatriyas, the ruling aristocracy.
- (c) Vaisyas, the farmers and professional artisans.
- (d) Sudras, the lowest caste, of the early Aryan society, who provided the needed menial labor.

As south India was Brahmanized, there was also an outcaste category, a fifth caste, which was non-Aryan and called the Panchamas. It consisted of the Pariahs and Harijans (God's people, the untouchables) and other destitute creatures who number around 80 million in India alone.

As far as birth, residence, hereditary occupation, and the regulation of food, drink, and marriage are concerned, each Hindu, even of the depressed classes, knows exactly where, according to custom, he or she belongs.

But the above five castes are by no means the end of the complexities of the caste system. Just as the Hindus have a total of 33 million gods, national, local, etc., so too, do the local villages have a further subdivision of their own sub-castes. Here is a typical example.

The village of Chandrauti's 4000 people are housed in 600 dwellings. In 22 of these dwell the Brahmans, members of the priestly caste, and one is their household of the Kshatriyas, the warrior caste. Others are identified by sub-castes: 16 dwellings of Banias, merchants and businessmen; 40 of Mallas, fishermen and boatmen; 20 of Lohars, blacksmiths; 10 of Khatiks, who deal in fruit and raise pigs; 15 of Ahers, cowherds; 10 of Dhobis, washermen; 5 of Gawals, shepherders; 3 of Bhats, singers and dancers, who perform at weddings and go out into the fields at harvest; 2 of Nars, barbers; 2 of Doms, the cremation attendants; and 1 of Gonds, who fry and sell peanuts and other snacks.

There are also 50 Moslem households in this village, weavers and tailors, and 200 untouchables, the Harijans, who now may own land but still must dwell outside the village in their own compound. In almost every household, the young men follow the trade of their fathers.

* * * * *

Although Hinduism evolved in prehistoric times, it began to take shape at about 1500 B.C.E. and we can follow its development by reviewing the sacred books that molded its development. There are six distinguished classes of literary works, all written in Sanskrit.

1. The Vedas (books of knowledge) emerging around 1500 B.C.E. There are four books (a) the Rig-Veda, (psalms); (b) the Yajur-Veda (formulas); (c) the Sama-Veda (charms); (d) and the Atharva-Veda (chants). Of them all, the first is the most significant, and the oldest religious document in history.

2. The Brahmins (priestly writings) dating circa 1000-800 B.C.E. They, too, occupy a singular position in world literature and are rated as the earliest extant prose writings in the Indo-European tradition.

3. The Upanishads (seances) circa 800-600 B.C.E., are speculative treatises concerning man and the origins of the universe.

4. The Law Book of Manu, dated at about 250 B.C.E. Its twelve chapters are an impressive code of Hindu Law.

5. The Bhagavad-Gita, Composed about 1 C.E., is the most highly esteemed document of all the Hindu literature. This dramatic poem suggests the possibility of universal salvation.

6. Epics and Puranas (ancient tales), produced 1-250 C.E., lay the foundations of folk Hinduism ("Career of God Rama"). The Puranas, eighteen in number, are a collection of religious stories.

So much for their "Sacred Books". Most, if not all, rate highly in the annals of ancient world literature.

That Hinduism is unique and a distinguished religion in a class by itself, of that there is no doubt. However, that it is "great", we Creators do not accept. There are a large number of ideosyncracies and characteristics that if looked at from an enlightened White Man's

Objectives of Our Comparison Series

1. To illustrate by means of detailed comparison that in CREATIVITY we have finally achieved a genuine, bonafide, comprehensive racial religion for the White Race that is the equal of, or superior to, any religion in history.

2. That our religion makes more sense, is more logical, is more complete and better planned and organized; it is, in fact, more effectively structured than any of the established old "great" religions of the world.

3. That in order to survive at all, the White Race must now polarize around its own racial religion.

4. To convince all the polyglot and diverse White racial groups and leaders that in CREATIVITY lies the salvation of the White Race and the sooner we unite under the banner of Creativity, the sooner we will be on our way in waging an effective battle for the survival of the White Race.

Think about it. If not Creativity, what else is there?

Hinduism vs. Creativity — A Comparison

A. Basis of Belief.

Hinduism is based on primitive customs, superstitions, taboos and hangovers that originated as far back as the Stone Age.

They believe in Karma, the transmigration of "souls" (reincarnation) into animals, snakes, humans, or whatever. They believe that the form they transmigrate into in the "next" life depends on how well they performed in the previous life. This supposedly goes on endlessly until the soul is finally liberated into an indescribable state called NIRVANA. Life on earth is considered as a transient migration of the soul and at best, a burden to bear, not to enjoy.

Although Hinduism is complex, confused and contradictory in most of its aspects, it became more formulated as its religious scriptures, written in Sanskrit, were handed down beginning approximately 1500 B.C.E. These scriptures, The Vedas and the Upanishads, have already been described in greater detail in our accompanying text.

Of prime significance also is the Dharma, religious law, which details the caste system, dietary laws, religious law and even civil law. This is neither consistent, nor well organized, and at best a confused hodgepodge of contradictions.

CREATIVITY, on the other hand, is in dire contrast to the superstitions and confusions of Hinduism. Creativity is based on an intelligent assessment of the universe in which we find ourselves, and seeks to solve the realities of life for the betterment and advancement of our own kind — the White Race. In so doing we shun all the superstitious mind clutter that has been dumped upon us by an ignorant and superstitious past, and instead pursue reality, logic and common sense, as detailed in our THREE BASIC BOOKS, Nature's Eternal Religion, The White Man's Bible and Salubrious Living.

B. Goals and Objectives.

Hinduism has no particular goals or objectives that have any earthly purpose or meaning. When the (White) Aryans from the North invaded the Hindu Kush and finally conquered all of India, they set about organizing and governing their new homeland. This occurred circa 2000 B.C.E. In so doing they absorbed many of the indigenous religious customs and traditions of the black mud peoples they had subjugated and were now organizing. But that is not all they absorbed. They soon found to their horror that through miscegenation they were being absorbed and mongrelized into the bloodstream of the more fecund and more numerous aborigines. They desperately tried to prevent this catastrophe from happening as best they could. They formulated harsh civil laws, proclaimed religious taboo against it and instituted the caste system of separation. As history plainly shows, as long as there was geographic mixing of races, none of this worked, and the exemplary Aryan race that conquered India 4000 years ago was completely mongrelized into the stupid negroid masses within approximately 6 centuries.

The present-day objectives of Hinduism, if any, are for the soul to migrate from creature to creature, until finally it ends up in some dim and distant Nirvana and is no more. Life is considered a burden and the objective (if any) is to end it all in some dim and distant future. At the same time, they want to be fertile on this earth and produce as many offspring as they can. This is, of course, a stupid contradiction that results in nothing more than endlessly proliferating the misery in an overcrowded, filthy, diseased and hunger-ridden world.

CREATIVITY, on the other hand, will have no truck with all this superstitious hocus-pocus, nor with the incompetent mud races. Instead, we seek to organize the tremendous potential of the White Race and the White Race alone, and build a Whiter and Brighter world for our future generations.

C. Racial Attitude.

The caste system, formulated and implemented by the Aryan conquerors, was not only highly racial, but was primarily based on color of the skin, and therefore indirectly on race. After six centuries the original Aryans were drowned in an overwhelming sea of negroids and the caste system no longer had any useful purpose. It then more or less classified the classes by profession and status rather than race, although the upper castes had and still have to this day, more White genes, less negroid, than do the lower castes.

However, outside of being an archaic relic of a dead past, it has little or no racial meaning anymore in today's mongrelized masses, and Hinduism embraces and welcomes any and all mud races. There are even a number of White Americans that have embraced it and stupidly find it "different" and "fascinating".

CREATIVITY, on the other hand, is highly racial and the whole religious creed is based on race — the White Race. We have learned our lesson well from the fatal mistakes made by the Aryan conquerors of India several thousand years ago, the mistakes made by the White Egyptians three to five thousand years ago, and every other White nation that has gone down the sump hole of history via mongrelization with its "cheap" negroid labor. We are determined not to make the same mistake.

We want to "conquer" no mud races, we do not want to enslave anybody, we do not want to exploit any race, nor are we looking for "cheap" yellow, black, or brown, labor. We want to advance and expand our own kind, do our own work and build a Whiter and Brighter World for ourselves. This, we are determined to do until we inhabit every square mile of good territory available. The whole world is our oyster and we will not rest until this beautiful Planet is all ours.

D. Organizational Structure.

Hinduism is one of the most disorganized of all the major religions and has no central head, only a loose scattering of temples, holy men and groups, sects, etc. No one knows exactly what the real creed of Hinduism is, as I have already outlined. The only structural organized tenets, if any, are inherent in its caste system, but it too, is loose and vaguely defined, and varies from area to area, and from village to village.

CREATIVITY is based on the Leadership Principle. Its fundamental creed and program are clearly delineated in our Basic Books. As it grows, we will continue to build our organizational structure according to the basics of the Leadership Principle, as did Adolf Hitler, and as has the Roman Catholic church for the last 18 centuries.

point, are both bizarre and repugnant.

Hindus hold that all animals are sacred. Since they believe in transmigration of "souls", (reincarnation) even a rat or a snake might house their grandmother's or aunt Minnie's, soul, therefore they dare not kill it or harm it in any way. The net result is that in a land of poverty and hunger, the country is overrun with rats, snakes and other pests, completely out of control.

The most sacred animal of all is the cow, and woe unto any alien who would strike a cow and drive her away from a fruit stand at which she might choose to be lunching. Of course, it is no more bizarre to worship a cow than a "spirit", as do the Christians. At least you can hear, see, feel and smell a cow, which is more than you can say for a spirit. No preacher has ever given me an intelligent definition as to what a spirit really is.

India's 200 million cattle can do no wrong, and national fiat forbids their slaughter. Hindu literature decrees that anyone who eats flesh or causes a cow to be slaughtered will rot in hell for as many years as there are hairs on the cow. Many Hindus believe that a concoction of a cow's five products — milk, urine, curd, butter, and dung — will cleanse the body inside and out. Even prominent "world leaders", like the late Mohandas Gandhi, and the late Shri Jawaharlal Nehru, indulged in such repulsive and filthy practices.

Hindus regard the Ganges as a sacred river and its water holy. This 1560 mile long river, winding through the heart of India, is fondly referred to as Mother Ganges. Though befouled with endless sewage, the Hindus believe it cannot be sullied, and despite the fact it is one of the dirtiest and most polluted rivers in the world, millions of Hindus bath in it annually as a religious ritual to cleanse their bodies and their soul, and the water is bottled and drunk as a purification agent all over the country.

* * * * *

CONCLUSION. Though it may be the oldest and one of the most prestigious of the "great" religions, we CREATORS do not find anything very great about either the Hindus or Hinduism. It may have been around for more than three and a half milleniums, and it may even have produced some great literature (mostly under the aegis of the Aryans and their descendants who invaded India from the north about 4000 years ago.) Nevertheless, despite their caste system, it did not prevent the mongrelization of the White invaders who conquered, took charge and created an outstanding civilization 4000 years ago. Today, India is one of the densest, sickest, most overpopulated, filthy, poverty-stricken of all the large nations in the world. Its hungry, superstition-ridden 750 million are one of the most desperate and miserable population masses in the world, completely out of control and completely unable to more space — bleak, endless, space — billions of trillions of miles. Our habitat, our home, our living space, are here, on this Planet Earth, and will be so forevermore. To waste endless time, energy and resources flying into unlimited space is as unproductive as was Egyptian Pyramid building. We will have better use for our energies, in first cleaning up our Planet Earth, then building productively for our own best interests — here on Planet Earth.

Nor will we pursue that life destroying insanity called atomic energy. We will instead stop it cold, and clean up the immense pollution and damage that we are already engulfed in. We will find new and cleaner sources of energy, such as the development of gravitational forces. In fact, I am convinced that we already have the technology now. I believe the oil companies and other Jewish interests are suppressing and stifling the technology so it will not upset their present financial appletart, at least until such time as they can get THEIR hands on it again and again have a monopoly in energy.

Speaking of technology, we will long ago have scrapped the clumsy British foot-pound system of weights and measures. Like universal Latin, we will have adopted the much more sensible and practical Metric System. We are almost there now, except for Britain and the United States, and that impediment is there only because the Jew wishes to prolong confusion and divisiveness as long as possible. Anyway, good sense will prevail and we will have both — a universal language for our White Race, and a universal system of weights and measures that makes good sense.

We will stress and pursue new horizons in the field of the arts — literature, painting, sculpture, music and other fields of the White Man's culture. The most beautiful poems still remain to be written, the most beautiful music remains yet to be composed, the most beautiful paintings still remain to be rendered. We will encourage it profusely, genuine art, great art, not the kind of Jewish slop now being extolled and eulogized by a decadent and degenerate Jewish society.

There is more, much more, some of which I can already foresee, some benefits which now are not too evident. But in any case, it will be a much more beautiful, happy, prosperous and stable society, environment and world than the degenerate catastrophe that now seems to be staring us in the face.

Does this sound too much like we are asking for a Utopia? Does it merely sound like an empty pipe dream?

If so, think again. The foregoing is as real as the fact that time marches on, whether we like it or not. It is all within our grasp. We, the White Race have the wherewithal to do it. We can make our dreams come true. So why not save ourselves, why not save our future generations, and build the brave, beautiful new world we are capable of?

* * * * *

Lest any of our enemies and critics gather the wrong conclusions from this idyllic picture that we Creators envisage of the idealistic world of the future, let me make one thing clear — and I have spelled this out many times in my previous writings. Yes, we do envision a Whiter and Brighter world of the future populated only by members of Nature's Finest — the White Race. Only with more intelligent and competent people can we, or anyone else, build a better world. It cannot be done with the scum of society — idiots, incompetents, the lazy and the shiftless, such as the Jim Jones cult of a few years ago gathered together and ended up in mass suicide in Guyana. I repeat, it can only be done with highly competent, intelligent people of responsibility, such as only the White Race can produce.

However, this does not mean we are going to wage bloody warfare against the mud races or that we have any mass designs of slaughtering them wholesale. On the contrary, we mean to exercise our religious and constitutional rights as spelled out in the First Amendment and other clauses of the Bill of Rights. We mean to build our religious organization and our membership, our churches and our influence until we embrace most of the intelligent membership of the White Race throughout the world. We mean to inculcate RACIAL LOYALTY between our kinsmen and help each other financially, politically, legally and morally. We mean to cut the mud races adrift and let them fend for themselves. No longer as in the past will we feed them, educate them, subsidize them or wet nurse them as has "our" Jewish government of the past and present.

We will go further than that. We will boycott the Jews, both in business and in politics. We will expose their nefarious conspiracy and financial counterfeiting racket. We will drive them from power, politically, financially, spiritually and socially. We, the White Race, will grasp the power and the direction of our own destiny back into our own hands. All this we can do legally and constitutionally. We are not only entitled to do so morally, but it is our highest moral duty to do so. Both the Eternal Laws of Nature and our own good sense compel us to do so, if our race is to survive, and we mean to see to it that it does just that.

Once the White Race has control of its own good senses and its own destiny again, the mud races and its billions of incompetent freeloaders, of their own incompetence will wither on the vine, and fall of their own impetus like the autumn leaves from the trees. They will shrink and shrivel away as did the savage Indians before the advancing White Man of our early American republic and the "Winning of the West". We will do it the American way, the legal way, the constitutional way, and not according to the suicidal "morals" of Jewish Christianity, but according to the morals of Creativity and the Eternal Laws of Nature.

* * * * *

What alternative do we have?

We are now at a very crucial crossroads in the evolution of our great White race. We can either toss in the towel and let the Jews and mud races take charge and mongrelize our future progeny into the filthy hell of oblivion. If you want to take a good look at what that hell is like, take a trip to India, and view the filthy, clawing, starving masses. Or if you want to take a shorter course and a shorter trip, go to Haiti and take a good look at those miserable starving wretches. They are a prime example of integration and race-mixing. Do you want your children and grandchildren to be absorbed in such bleak filth and misery? If not, do something meaningful.

What can you do? Plenty, and I have spelled it out repeatedly before. Promote CREATIVITY. Distribute the Basic Bibles. Become an Ordained Minister of our church. Organize a church group of your own. Remember, we are now at the crossroads. We need every one of our White Racial Comrades to pitch in and that means YOU, especially YOU. Again, consider the alternative.

And where were all the demonstrations for that Navy diver, who was White, and had been beaten to death on the recent hijacked airliner? Nary a peep! But one dead Jew and the U. S. government is moved up to Condition Red! We violated the sovereignty of a friendly ally, Italy, and arrogantly force down an Egyptian airline and nearly have a shoot out with Italian police. The best Italian leader Italy has had in 40 years is forced to resign. The fall of the Italian government becomes a major loss. In its current issue, the economist newspaper of London said the pro-Western Craxi had given Italy one of its most stable and prosperous governments since World War II and "could be remembered as the man who changed his country." Now, as a result of the U. S. and Israel's blatant arrogance and disrespect for Italian sovereignty, Craxi was forced to resign and this threw the whole nation into a crisis. BECAUSE OF ONE DEAD JEW! For one dead Jew, we sell our allies down the river and make their president look like a fool. Neither Egypt nor Italy is likely to forget this insult. We don't even know if it, in fact, ever happened. All we have is what the Media tells us and what the master prevaricators, the Jews, have been caterwauling about on T.V.

Being highly suspicious in nature when it comes to what the Jews claim did or did not happen, I suspect that the whole thing was a scam from top to bottom.

First of all, there was too much publicity about this Klinghoffer character while he was still alive. There were over 400 other passengers besides this particular Jew and very little was said about them. Coincidence? Secondly, how can only four terrorists take over a whole ship? How could they keep track of everybody on board? When did they sleep? Did they hang around the rest-rooms everytime someone had to go? The Navy's Elite Special Forces, (SEALs) specialize in capturing ships and whole crews. They train extensively and rigorously. They would be the first to let you know that it takes more than 4 gun toting sand niggers to take over a ship the size of the Achille Lauro. There is no way to keep an eye on 400 passengers and crew. Surely, some of them could have jumped one of the gunmen when he wasn't looking. To further arouse my suspicions, the president of Egypt, Hosni Mubarak said as much in CBS's "60 Minutes". This whole thing smells to high heaven.

Rev. David Cevette

I was watching the Jewish Network on the television, a/k/a (Ted Ashley at Warner Bros., Gordon T. Stulberg at 20th Century-Fox, Frank Rosenfelt and Dan Melnick at MGM, David Begelman at Columbia, Lew Wasserman and Jennings Lang at Universal Pictures, and Charles Bloudon and Robert Evans at Paramount) when the following occurred: In Hollywood it was announced that there is going to be a "peace march" next spring in 1986 from Los Angeles to Washington D. C. The Jews needed actors to role-model and spearhead the project so the actors were lined up (greedy little race-traitors they are) hoping to be chosen by one of THEIR Jew producer-god(s).

The camera swung over them that lined up for the casting call. (A casting call is referred to as a "cattle-call" by the Hollywood crowd!) Many of those present were obviously well established actors already under the Jewish spell of contract and prestige.

There the actors stood, waiting in line. Many of the faces were known throughout America and the world, for that matter, but at this point I will spare them further ado. But I will say that they were young and old, novice and veteran, all of them in a composed state of panic, secretly hoping that they would be one of the "chosen few" to get the JOB.

And what JOB was it, you ask, that these actors lined up for? Well, you see, the Jew has decided to have a peace march! That's right, a peace march! Now, in order for him to sell this idea to the gullible goyim he needs puppets to represent his idea, and the Jew above all others knows how to purchase the heart and mind of his fellow man with the almighty dollar. So there you have it. Our own White brothers and sisters betraying us again (ala, "We Are The World") to help sell another Jewish idea to an unsuspecting public.

When asked by a cameraman what this march was all about we got the following answer from a young aspiring actor: "Well you see, (cough, ahem, flash of eyes, pretty smile) we (get this, we!) are trying to show the American people that they don't have to sit back and witness all the horror in the world. We want them to know that they can get involved in a march for peace". And then the little sycophant went on to say that Americans need to know that they can do something to help. He made a couple more comments that I refuse to reflect upon. (At this point he was beginning to sound like a "neophyte" Jew Psychiatrist!)

Immediately, I asked myself. Peace? War? Are these questions that the White American should concern himself with at this time? Whose war are we talking about anyway?

I do not see any White Americans out in the city streets burning down buildings like the niggers did in the 60's (I will NEVER forgive them for that) and as niggers are doing again in England's major cities today.

Now, are we supposed to march out in the streets this Spring to beg these animals to stop their violence? (Or maybe we should placate them again with jobs and cars and government paychecks as the White Man has done since the 1960's and earlier).

Oh my, oh my, oh WHY are "We, the White Folk of the United States of America" supposed to be so utterly concerned with peace when we did not instigate the war? Why should we march across the U. S. with niggers, chinks, Jews, spics and other muds, posing as a floral arrangement of polyglot dogooders?

Meanwhile, the JEW-torious puppet of elocution, Mr. Louis Farrakhan, is speaking to hundreds of thousands of potentially hostile niggers across the United States of America, while the idiotic lilly-Whites beg who knows who, for peace. Personally I feel that the general White population is being led by its Jewish teachers on a roundabout search for nothing that is of benefit to the White race.

White Man, where is YOUR RELIGION? How come you are always walking about in an ethereal world of ghosts and spirits and demons while everyone else is polarizing and preparing to cut you and your family to pieces?

In CREATIVITY we have the Total Answer, the Final Solution to all of our woes. We have a religion that is designed for us and us alone. Nobody can imitate it and nobody can claim it as theirs without actually being one of Nature's finest.

In CREATIVITY we reject the Jew network and all of its mendacious lies that it spreads roundly about this planet. We replace their "Wizard of Oz" approach with historical facts and good old fashioned common sense. Our lives are not motivated by deceit and our goals are not inspired by money. We will not sell our race down the river for a home in Beverly Hills. That is, unless we could use it as a front for a church of the Creator

This whole caper is another attempt to fire up the American public to fight a war for the hard pressed, but valiant Israelis. They're valiant, all right! Treacherous cowards is a better description. With the U. S. supplying them with the most sophisticated, top of the line military hardware, they still managed to suffer over 25 per cent of their casualties due to "combat fatigue" against a few sand niggers with Kalashnikov rifles and hand held rocket launchers. Combat fatigue is a nice way of disguising cowardice. Now the Jewish mothers are screaming for the White goyim to die in place of their "valiant" little Jew boys.

The fact that the American public has refused to get involved into another no-win Jew instigated war makes me optimistic that we are finally wising up. The Mossad and U. S. government collaborated and blew up nearly 400 Marines and we still have not managed to get too involved. The many other outrages perpetrated on U. S. citizens so far has not been enough to suck us into going to war for the Yids. They will continue, however, to wear us down until we do, I'm sure.

As far as the White Race is concerned the Jew controlled U. S. government is a powerful tyrant and can be rated as Public Enemy No. 1

All this new hype about Klinghoffer has now sparked the White House to magnanimously recommend that Jew for the Nation's highest award, the Congressional Medal of Honor. While genuine fighting men risk their necks and die in actual fighting, a sleazy vacationing invalid Jew gets the Medal of Honor for being a victim of a situation he no doubt helped instigate and supported with ill-gotten gains from business interests in America. Somehow, I don't think this will sit well with America's fighting men. This fatcat Jew, (probably one of millions of professional concentration camp survivors) more than likely never even saw the inside of a military barracks in his whole miserable life! What an affront to the thousands of young White soldiers and sailors who died so this Jew could come here and practice his nefarious trade of money-grubbing and swindling. But that's to be expected from the world's foremost parasites. Especially since this country treats Jews as special citizens giving them privileges such as dual citizenship and the right to criticize the President for his visit to Bitburg. The muddle-headed White Christians vie for the privilege to fawn over "God's Chosen" and soberly warn us daily of the dire consequences of not blindly supporting God's pet criminals. God might turn his back on our nation if we don't help the Jews as Jerry Falwell says. Now, we can't have a country without God on our side, can we?

Hell yes, we can. Since there isn't one tittle of proof to back up any of these spookie, nonsensical claims fundamentalist preachers constantly feed us, why not live dangerously for once and throw these sick parasites out on their ears? We surely can't find ourselves any worse off without the Jews and their tribal god Jahweh than we are right now.

I have heard this from many well-meaning people time and again. "If you turn against God he is going to strike you down." "If you go against the Jews and niggers they will kill you." I have been in the White racist movement since 1981, over four years. Ben Klassen has been in it most of his life. Guess what? WE'RE STILL HERE! And I plan to be around for many more years. If I die tomorrow, so what? We all have to go some time. It's the manner in which you live and die that counts. When I die, I want to do so as I have always lived, PROUD, FREE AND UNBROKEN!

It all adds up to this: kill 400 Marines — or beat, shoot or stab to death White Americans; kidnap delegates from our embassies, hijack planes or try to sink our intelligence ships (U.S.S. Liberty) and almost nothing is said or done about it. Kill one miserable Jew like Klinghoffer, and shrines are erected, anti-terrorists foundations are set up, Congressional Medals of Honor are passed out like candy and a multitude of publicity over the TV networks are thrown out at us. The Jews might or might not be Jahweh's pets, but they sure as hell are the chosen favorites of the U. S. government and newsmedia. And why not? They own and run both of them. (W)

THE THREE BASIC BOOKS OF CREATIVITY

NATURE'S ETERNAL RELIGION

508 Pages, 49 Chapters

by Ben Klassen, P. M.

Published in 1973

This book for the first time in history sets forth the fundamentals of a basic RACIAL RELIGION for the Survival, Expansion and Advancement of the White Race. It is based on the External Laws of Nature, the Experience of History, Logic and Common Sense.

It exposes the whole panorama of the dastardly worldwide Jewish conspiracy, aimed at the genocide and extermination of the White Race. It lists the five Jewish books that have had devastating influence on the thinking and course of the White Man's history.

Best of all, it not only sounds the alarm, but blueprints a specific plan and program of how to extricate the White Race from its present predicament. It presents a EUGENICS program for the future of the White Race to uplift it to the glorious heights of the Superman and beyond.

XMAS PROMOTION

In the first place, there is no evidence, no claim even by the gullible Christians that they "know" what date Christ was born. It is only a date picked at random, since the adulators wanted to celebrate his "birth" and had to have some date, any date.

Why did they pick December 25?

Well, there was a good reason for that. Many pagan (White) peoples already had a long standing tradition of celebrating the Winter Solstice at about that time of year, and it was a well established traditional holiday.

The Romans, for example had had a long standing religious tradition of celebrating December 25 as the birth of the sun god.

The Catholic church wanted to do away with this "pagan" festival, but Emperor Constantine refused the church's request, claiming it was too popular. He finally did accede to the church's request for a law freeing all slaves who accepted Christianity, and renounced the sun fest. However, these converts continued to celebrate the sun festival and in 345 A.D., under Liberius, the bishop of Rome, the December 25 date was declared a Christian holiday honoring the birth of Christ. Previous to this the church had taken the stand that it was sinful to celebrate Christ's birthday, since the date was unknown.

The Christian oligarchy, being led by Master Sneaks of all time, decided it was more expedient to turn an existing tradition to the glory of their movement, than to try to fight it and set up a completely new tradition. This they succeeded in doing with overwhelming success.

They did the same thing with Easter, which was already a well established tradition. For years the White peoples had celebrated the Spring Equinox, the fertility of new crops and new growth, the rites of Spring and similar ideas.

So we, the White pagans, were hoaxed from a long standing custom of celebrating traditional White holidays, and converting them into (Jewish) Christian holidays, including honoring a Jew from the seed of David whose birthdate we do not know. But let us move on. There are many more deceptions in this picture.

Not only does nobody know what day of the year the Jewish Saviour was supposedly born, but nobody even knows what year, either. And that isn't all. The fact is, nobody "knows" whether he was born at all, or whether "he" is just another hocus-pocus myth, like Santa Claus, or Mother Goose and hi-diddle-diddle the cow jumped over the moon.

Now considering the tremendous impact Christianity has had on the fortunes (or rather misfortunes, to be more correct) of the White Race, you would think that some researchers and historians would go to some considerable trouble to track down this mighty historic event and resolve once and for all: did this Jewish teacher, preacher, "Son of God", Saviour", (or whatever) actually live or didn't he.

I would like to think this one point would be rather important - no Christ, then all is a hoax. It's similar to somebody giving you a million dollar check. I believe it would be damned important to determine if the check were for real, or if the check were a phony, without a cent in the bank to back it up. I would think any sensible person would want to determine this issue as quickly as possible.

Well, I for one have spent a lot of time and research doing just that. I have already written any number of chapters on the subject such as, "Christ's Existence not substantiated by Historical Evidence", and "The Spooks in the Sky Swindle", and many others. Many other historians and researchers have done an even more thorough search into the genuine annals of history and they have come up with the same answer as have I. There is not a scintilla of evidence that such a figure as Christ ever existed; that the stories told by Mathew, Mark, Luke and John are phony as hell. Not only phoney, but contradict each other on dozens of important points. Not only are their garbled stories as fictitious as Santa Claus, Mother Goose and the Tooth Fairy, but there is no historical evidence throwing any light on who Mathew, Mark, Luke and John were, where they lived, or if, in fact, they ever lived at all.

All we have are myths, stories, hearsay, much gullibility and deception. In fact, the oldest "documents" regarding the authenticity of their scripts date no further back than about 400 A.D.. Four hundred years between an event and a report is a pretty hefty gap.

Alright, no Christ, no Saviour, no Christmas. But nevertheless, we, through repeated mind manipulation and programming are stuck with a traditional holiday that really moves billions of dollars worth of merchandise every year. It also has a multitude of other significant ramifications.

So let us probe further as to what kind of a traditional holiday we are stuck with, what are we really celebrating.

Well, for one thing we are celebrating a hoax, and a Jewish hoax at that. And the joke is on us.

The Jewish mind manipulator, Saul of Tarsus, the Christian's St. Paul, did more than any other man in history to put this hoax across and sell it to the goyim. That is why the Jews are so grateful to him when they count their shekels the day after Christmas. And well they should be.

There is no other event (or non-event) in the business world (mostly monopolized by Jews) that generates as much force-fed business as does Christmas. It is the biggest shot in the arm any department store (or thousands of other stores) get to hype their business. To many stores it means the difference between making money and staying in business or going broke. Many stores do their volume of business before the Christmas season and many make the total year's profit from just Christmas sales. So the gimmick the Jew-boy Saul, stirred up is not to be sneezed at. No wonder his co-religionists are eternally grateful to him for this innovative gimmick.

Now let us look at it from the White Man's point of view, as we Creators are inclined to do on every issue, and ask a few questions.

1. Should an intelligent White Man join in promoting a Jewish hoax, of which the White race is the prime target?

Creativity is the most constructive thing that has happened to the White Race since civilization. Help realize the benefits.

2. Even though we realize that Christ per se is a myth, should a proud and race conscious White Man join in glorifying a mythical "hero" who is Jewish?

3. If you know the truth, do you think that under any circumstances it is morally justifiable to lie to yourself (and/or others) if you think that nurturing the deception will make you (and/or others) happier?

From The Church of the Creator's point of view the answer to each of these questions is a resounding no!

Looking at it from the White Christian's point of view i.e., one that "believes" these Jewish stories, we would like to pose the following unanswered questions:

1. Did Christ's supposed dying and being nailed to the cross really "save" all the sinners?

2. If so, why are there thousands of varieties of confused preachers running about imploring you to come to their church and put money in their collection plate?

3. If Christ did the job 2,000 years ago, why do we need all these bumbling preachers today to do the job all over again?

4. According to the criteria of all these blubbing preachers, and according to the New Testament itself, just about everybody in the world today, 2000 years later, is going to hell anyway. How do you explain that?

5. If Christ and/or his pappy are so anxious to "save" us all from hell, why did he/they construct the abominable monstrosity in the first place?

6. If the Devil is the root of all evil, why doesn't the all-powerful Lord wipe him out once and for all, instead of relentlessly and repeatedly putting the monkey on our back? (See "The Phoney Fight Ruse" in January, 1984, Issue of R.L.)

What sensible answers any intelligent Christian can come up with I haven't the slightest idea. I have never heard them do so, since all their premises at best are based on superstition and gullibility, on mawkish myth and hocus-pocus. Nevertheless, I would be interested in hearing some, but will not hold my breath in the meantime.

But the key question I would like to ask these befuddled Christians is this:

7. If it came to a showdown of either defending the White Race, or the Jewish myth of Christianity, which side would you choose?

This may sound like a hypothetical question, but I want to assure you that most decidedly it is not. Before this century is over, in fact, even this decade, many a White Man is going to be pushed to the wall in the upheavals of our society and will have to come to grips with that question.

* * * * *

Just about now I can hear some bleeding heart slopped with mawkish sentimentality exclaim, "Aw! Aw, Gee! Aw! Aw! Do away with Christmas? Klassen wants to kill Santa Claus!"

Well, no. Relax. I'm a good sensible and sentimental fellow myself. I don't want to kill anybody, least of all Santa Claus, and for two good reasons.

1. You can't kill somebody that doesn't exist.

2: I don't even want to do away with the mythical Santa Claus either, since (a) at least he is not a Jewish character (b) his origins are a derivation from the German Kris Kringle, as explained earlier, and therefore, White.

But, I do want to: abolish all this Jewish commercialism that surrounds Christmas; to explode the Jewish hoax of celebrating the birthdate of a Jew, any Jew, for the same reason I will not celebrate the birthdate of Martin Lucifer Koon; to expose the outrageous nonsense about a non-event that never happened and try to get the White Race back to sense and reality, back to their own rich heritage and values.

In this context, I make the following suggestions in building up our own healthy White racial religion:

1. Let us keep the events of Christmas and Easter at the Winter Solstice and Spring Equinox respectively, but let us turn the tables on the Jewish hoaxsters: Let us turn them back into White holidays. Let us give them new names, names completely removed from any Jewish taint.

2. As far as Santa Claus is concerned, let future custom and preference decide, but let us separate this myth from all Jewish and Christian connotation.

3. Let us take the commercialism completely out of these and any other holiday, and emphasize instead the spiritual, traditional and genetical strength of our own White culture.

4. If we are going to celebrate and honor folk heroes, let us make certain they are White, of our own race and culture, whether such characters are mythical or historical.

5. Let us begin now in building traditional holidays for the advancement of the White Man's culture, and shun all others.

6. Boycott all Jewish businesses, whether they be stores, real estate agents, lawyers, doctors, politicians, writers or whatever.

This Christmas, instead of throwing your hard earned money into the coffers of the Jewish department stores and buying a lot of "presents" that nobody needs, why not consider a new approach. Instead of succumbing to Jewish propaganda commercializing Christmas "in order to glorify" a Christ that never existed, a non-event that never occurred, why not help promote the Church Of The Creator and the White racial movement? We cannot carry on without financial and moral support. We need all the help we can get in building the School for Gifted Boys, in putting out RACIAL LOYALTY and meeting the thousand and one other demands made upon us. Don't support a Jewish hoax. This year, instead of enriching the Jewish department stores, why not change course and spend some of it disseminating the racial idea. Give some of our Basic Books as presents. They will cost you less, have much more long-lasting, constructive benefits and you will be doing something meaningful for your own culture, your own kind, your own religion. I repeat, we need all the help we can get.

Never Give up Your Guns

Some Good Logic about Handguns

The two letters below appeared on Oct. 25 and Nov. 2, 1985 respectively in the Atlanta Constitution under "Letters To The Editor." They contain some excellent arguments and a realistic attitude about handguns and firearms as a whole.

The first letter makes the following basic points:

1. The Second Amendment is just as much a part of our Bill of Rights as is the First Amendment.
2. Whereas there are plenty of laws on the books to prevent or

Properly used, handguns are tools to protect rights

DECATUR — I read with great interest the lead editorial in your Oct. 21 issue, "Plague among young black men," concerning the crime rate in the poor and black community. Once again, emotion rather than logic rules the thought processes. Soon, your paper will proclaim that the trade and budget deficits are a result of inadequate gun control.

As long as you are going to think emotionally, consider the following hypothetical case: An elderly black woman, living alone in a public housing project, is distraught after being robbed at knifepoint. Can she rely on quick police action to protect her? Will her neighbors, probably as frightened as she, respond to her screams for help? What are her alternatives? Enter the ubiquitous "Saturday Night Special." Her personal defense needs could safely and adequately be filled with an inexpensive revolver.

If the police would spend as much time training citizens in the safe handling of discourage the abuse of firearms, there are none to speak of that protect us from the flagrant abuse of the First Amendment by journalists and editors, as a whole, and the latter group do abuse the First Amendment flagrantly and repeatedly.

3. The first and foremost legitimate use for any firearm is the basic right to defend oneself, not some "sporting" value.

4. Whereas the journalists are the first to scream about protecting their rights to freedom of speech firearms as they do blaming their problems on inanimate objects, our communities would be much safer. It's a proven fact that criminals fear a potentially armed victim far more than they do the police.

It has always amazed me that your paper zealously guards your constitutional rights while attacking others, as well as the basic right to defend oneself. That is the first and most legitimate use for any firearm, not some nebulous "sporting" value. Certainly, the media abuse their rights as frequently as firearms are abused. The difference is that there are already laws to protect society from people who abuse firearms, but "journalists" can always hide behind the First Amendment, regardless of the consequences of their abuse of the public trust.

If there was any hint of journalistic equity in your publication, stories concerning the successful use of firearms in response to criminal threats would be on and hiding behind the First Amendment while abusing it, they will at the same time viciously attach the Second Amendment, and undermine a citizen's right to protect himself from criminals and even a criminal government.

The second letter quotes a wealth of statistics that demonstrate the fact that making it illegal or restrictive to own a gun does nothing to curb crime, but do deprive the average law abiding citizen of his or her basic rights to protect themselves.

the front page of your paper often. On the rare occasions when they are printed, they are buried. Yet, when an innocent, unarmed citizen is killed by someone with a handgun, it makes front-page headlines.

Gun-control advocates have now attacked the Second Amendment through all three branches of government. Early efforts focused attention on the legislative branch. Failing there, Jimmy Carter attempted to use his executive power to write administrative regulations for the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms in contradiction of the will of Congress. Now, lawyers with no legitimate work to do are attacking the firearms industry through civil actions. Their basic argument is that handguns have no legitimate use. If you give my example any thought, even emotion sides with logic to read the same conclusion: Properly used, handguns can be a tool to protect basic human rights.

office! (authors note: I am not following the Christian adage, "The love of money is the root of all evil", I am simply accepting the fact that most of the world's currency is Jewish controlled and therefore we of The Church Of The Creator must be extremely CAREFUL not to be bribed or bought into the role of a traitor, like so many of our White kinsmen have been).

You ask: Well, what can we do? There is a lot we can do. We have the total answer here at the Church of the Creator. Get out into the streets and pass out our "Racial Loyalty" publications! Give the White Man's Bible to a friend! Start up new congregations! Become reverends and proselytize and promote. Do it! Do it! Do it! Do it now or we are going to bear another slap in the face this coming Spring as we witness thousands of lollypop licking White loggerheads march across the country for peace! What an awfully poignant insult to the White Man's integrity — to be led into a senseless walk for peace while his very enemies plot to destroy him.

Help us, friends. Help us to educate our white brothers and sisters back to their TRUE cultural instincts. Help us to help them see that the Jew is once again playing the "Pied Piper" with his so-called peace march. If we let these fiendish Jews pull another fiasco such as the "We Are The World" scam, we are in for a rude awakening. Ask yourself and ask your friends. March for peace? Whose peace?

More evidence shows gun control laws don't work

Your editorial of Oct. 18 entitled "Justice fires blanks on gun-law study," concerning the Justice Department's report on crime, is the product of wishful thinking that refuses to acknowledge increasing evidence that gun control laws simply don't work and are even counter-productive.

Your editorial failed to point out that the Wright-Rossi study found that 82 percent of the felons interviewed said only law abiding citizens paid any attention to gun laws; and that 88 percent said they could easily obtain firearms outside of prison regardless of state or federal laws.

You also failed to mention that domestic shootings were most often perpetrated by felons, parolees, and those who should be in jail in the first place. These individuals are already prohibited from possessing firearms, yet a lax criminal justice system allows these individuals the freedom to have their violent way with society. An example happened to appear in that same edition. An individual shot his ex-wife's boyfriend, yet is inexplicably released on $4,500 bail. Four days later he killed his ex-wife. That is a legal atrocity.

Simply put, there is no evidence that gun control laws applying to the law-abiding citizen will ever work, whether on the state or federal level. In fact, there is evidence to the contrary. A tough three-year old gun law in Chicago is an example. In that period armed robberies and burglaries were up 48 percent and 85 percent, and assaults with firearms have quadrupled. Nationally, trends for these crimes are down. And technical violation of the Chicago law by otherwise law-abiding citizens is rampant.

You also ignored evidence from the Wright-Rossi Study that indicated that firearm ownership plays an important role in reducing violent crime. Seventy-four percent of the felons said they avoided occupied dwellings for fear of being shot by the occupants, and 57 percent said they were more afraid of armed civilians than the police. In fact, 69 percent said they knew at least one colleague who had been shot or scared off by an armed citizen. Also, 69 percent of the felons who did not use firearms in crimes cited the risk of harsher punishment as their reason for doing so.

We do agree on one point. The mish-mash of local, state and federal gun laws needs to be junked in favor of one national set of laws protecting the rights of lawful gun owners and setting tough penalties for violent offenders. The McClure-Volkmer bill is a good start — it dismantles some of the most abusive parts of the Gun Control Act of 1968. New Jersey has enacted a law that mandates a three to five year sentence for any firearm crime. Many existing gun laws aren't gun laws at all; they are simply revenue producers whose main purpose is to employ bureaucrats to harass persons who wish to own a gun legally.

PHILLIP M. WINTER

The Second Amendment, namely, the Right to Keep and Bear Arms, is as important as any other single right spelled out in this Historical Document designed to protect the citizen from a hostile and overpowering government. In fact, it is more important than most of the other nine rights cited. The Jews desperately want to disarm the Goyim so they can clamp their iron-clad tyranny on us all. DON'T LET THE SCOUNDRELS DO IT!

HINDUISM

solve any of their vast multitude of problems. They are unable to feed their masses, nor are they able to control their population bomb. Stupidly, the White Man, (particularly the taxpayers of the United States) is annually sending millions of tons of grain and other foods to them, gratis, thereby expanding and proliferating the misery. (See Racial Loyalty No. 22 on this subject). Sooner or later, this will have to end and Nature will solve the problem by ruthless means — mass starvation.

Hinduism has 477,991,300 followers throughout the world, of which there are 88,500 in North America and 475,073,000 in Asia.

Such is the final drama of superstition, incompetence and stupidity. Such are the historic consequences of the White Man trying to conquer, govern and exploit an inferior mass of mud races while tolerating geographic mixing with his conquered. Let us learn once and for all Nature's eternal lesson. India and Hinduism says at all.
