Recognize your Enemies!

RAHOWA!

The Jews and the mud races have ganged up in a fierce and deadly racial war designed to exterminate the White Race. Only the victim seems unaware that it is targeted.

By Ben Klassen, P. M.

The second dumbest creature on the face of the earth is one who cannot, or WILL not, recognize its enemies. There are very few species on this planet that fall into this category.

For the dumbest of all, the ultimate booby prize goes to that creature which not only refuses to recognize its natural enemies, but will actively collaborate with those enemies in helping to bring about the destruction of its own kind.

The White Race, in its present headlong rush to extinction, has the dubious honor of qualifying for both first and second booby prizes. In fact, it is the only species I know of that gladly and wantonly participates with its enemies in its own destruction.

Why is this? For thousands of years the White Race has been the foremost species on the face of the earth in intelligence, in creativity, in productivity, in imagination; in the fields of art, literature, invention, geographical discovery, colonization, political organization and the military arts. In fact, it has been the unchallenged leader in these and in practically every other worthwhile field of human endeavor.

Today the White Race is shrinking rapidly, while the mud hordes, fed by the largesse, charity and productivity of the White Race, are exploding in numbers all over the face of the earth. Like hordes of prolific rats, they are feeding, breeding and expanding, all at the expense of the Booby Prize Winner No. 1, the White Race.

I repeat the question: why are we pursuing this insane course? The answer is both simple and complex and throughout all my writings I have chronicled both the cause and also the solution. So that no one will miss the point, I will briefly, in one paragraph, recapitulate the cause.

The White Man's brain has been deranged by an alien poison. It is interlaced and interlarded into his religion, called Christianity. It is being administered by the world's most deadly parasite, the perfidious and treacherous Jew. The essence of that poison is capsulized in the Sermon on the Mount: love your enemies; turn the other cheek; sell all thou hast and give it to the mud peoples; judge not; think not of the morrow; ask and ye shall be given; store up treasures in heaven (but not on earth!); pluck out thine eye; cut off thy hand; and a whole plethora of suicidal advice that you would only dispense to your worst enemy if you wanted him to commit suicide without having to bother killing him yourself. (Read again "The New Testament," P. 106 of Nature's Eternal Religion).

However, let us not be under any misapprehension that the "perfidious and treacherous Jew" mentioned in the previous paragraph is content in just giving us goyim bad advice and let us do the job of self-destruction unaided and all by ourselves. Far from it. Not only is the Jew the natural Enemy No. 1 of the White Race, but he is vicious and a virulent creature the likes of which the world has never seen. He is cunning, he is treacherous, he is tenacious, he is patient, he is deadly. He does, however, have one redeeming feature the White Race does not. Whereas all races (except the White Race) practice Racial Loyalty, the Jew does so with a fervent passion that is unequalled by any other race. As a culmination of these characteristics the Jew now sits on top of the world, manipulating its affairs, and plundering the goyim at will. (See Racial Loyalty No. 35, "Operation Rip-off.")

RAHOWA: The White Man's total Racial HOLY WAR in answer to the Jewish war of extermination against the White Race.

But the Jew is not only a master parasite sucking the blood of its victims. The Jew is also a master destroyer, infiltrating, undermining, poisoning and exterminating peoples, nations and civilizations. This he has been doing with an expert (hidden) hand for thousands of years, going back as far as the Ancient Egyptian civilization. This the Jew is doing today with a deadly virulence and accelerating speed as never before in its turbulent Jewish history. And the No. 1 target, as we approach the end of the Twentieth Century, is the total White Race. That means you, Whitey, your family, your relatives, your race, your civilization and along with it any future progeny that you might have forthcoming.

We, the White Race, are enveloped in a vicious deadly race war, whether we like it or not, whether we realize it or not. Like a boa constrictor wrapped tightly around our body, we are locked in, while poisonous little asps are nibbling at our toes.

Let us study our enemy more closely and examine the modus operandi he employs with such deadly skill. Which operation shall we examine? Should we study the French Revolution and the decapitation of France's most stalwart leaders? Or the destruction of the great Roman Civilization? Or the mongrelization of the great White Egyptian Civilization? Or the destruction of the great German Reich? Or the Spanish Civil War? Or WWI, that sent the White civilization on a downward tailspin? Or WWII, that killed off 50 million White men, women and children? Or the War between the States of 1861-65? Or the fire-bombing of Dresden in which 335,000 Germans were incinerated in two nights of concentrated fire-bombing? Or the pointless Vietnamese War in which 57,000 American boys were killed and hundreds of thousands wounded, crippled or maimed? We have an almost endless list of Jewish atrocities to choose from that if we wanted to cover them all, we could write a 24 volume encyclopedia on the subject and still not exhaust the material evidence.

But let us concentrate briefly on the ongoing Jewish war in the Middle East that has been in progress for a century and is still very much in the news today. Let us briefly examine how and why the Jews raped Palestine, stole it from the Arabs and by sheer force, deceit, chicanery and treachery appropriated it unto themselves as their "homeland." In so doing let us also describe the methods of terrorism they used so effectively and at which they are now the world's foremost protagonists and experts.

We choose the Palestine theatre, because there, in microcosm, is represented the heart of the Jewish struggle to enslave the world under its brutal heel. Palestine, this geographical sump hole of the world, nevertheless also represents the spawning ground of the world's three most dominant religions: Judaism, Christianity and Mohammedanism. Palestine: it is "holy ground" to three of the world's major cultures: Jewish, Arab and White Christian. Palestine: the crossroads of the world for three thousand years and an unsettled battleground of races, religions and cultures for an equal period of time.

The Jews developed their tribal cohesiveness while parasitically sponging off the healthy Egyptian civilization while the latter was at its prime. They learned many, if not practically all, of their religious ideas from the Egyptians. The idea of soul, spirits, gods, monotheism, etc., all came from the Egyptians. When this parasitical tribe of Judah finally became so obnoxious and detrimental that the Egyptians could no longer tolerate them, they were finally driven out around the 12th century B.C.E.

This band of parasites then targeted the nearby domain of the Philistines, who had lived in Palestine from the earliest of historic times, as their next "land of milk and honey." After prolonged periods of warfare, perhaps two hundred years or more, the Philistines were conquered by the Israelites under King David at about 1000 B.C.E.

For the first seven years David's headquarters were in Hebron, about 20 miles south of a fortified village called Jebus, the capital of the Jebusites. After some further warfare David decided to take Jebus by force and make it his capital. In time it became known as Jerusalem. Since these places later become emotional "holy ground," it is noteworthy to mention that one of the hills in Jerusalem was known as "Zion." This, as we all know, later became the rallying point of the "Zionists," and since the Zionists are now the core of the aggressive Jewish drive for world domination and enslavement, it is well to note its early beginnings.

Without going too deeply into early Jewish history, suffice it to say that the Jews as a "nation" lasted less than a hundred years, when it split into two parts. The northern section, consisting mainly of Samaria assumed the name of "Israel," although Jerusalem and the Temple of Solomon were in the southern section, called Judah, and later Judea (if we can believe the Jews' concocted story.) Relations between these two Jewish groups remained acrimonious and warlike, as it has always been between Jews and goyim, or if confined to live with each other, between the Jews themselves, to this day. They are a hostile, obnoxious and rebellious people, no matter where they live.

In order to get a proper historical view of the Jews' claim on the Palestine of today it is cogent to point out that the Jews, Judeans or Israelites as such never occupied Palestine as a nation for more than 300 years out of the last 3,000 years. They were neither the first to settle the land, nor did they have the longest tenure. The northern area was conquered by the Assyrians in 722 B.C.E., while the southern sector was conquered by the Babylonians in 586 B.C.E. From that time on the Jews were insignificant in numbers and the area was under the control of many larger nations and empires, such as the Romans, the Ottoman Empire and others.

In any case, the longest tenure of the land called Palestine has been by the Arabs, who have occupied it as theirs for the last 1300 years. Even as recently as 1948, when the Jews claimed Palestine as their "ancestral land" given to them by Yahweh, they were still a minority, even in the partial territory that was "awarded" by the United Nations.

So much for ancient history. Let us now see (a) how these parasites cunningly connived to steal this piece of real estate from an outraged Arab population and (b) why they would want it in the first place, when it is really such a miserable and economically detrimental piece of real estate.

The heart of both these questions goes back to religion — Judaism — which has been the mainspring of Jewish cohesiveness and solidarity for the last four, or perhaps five thousand years. The core of their religion is enveloped in the claim that they are "God's Chosen," a special people to Yahweh (their own tribal god) who, they claim, has given them "a covenant" saying so, and along with it the unlimited right to claim all the goodies of the world from the goyim (the Jewish term for all non-Jews, meaning cattle or animals). God has given it to them and they have the moral right, yea, the duty to take it from them by one way or another, be it by force, treachery, swindle, or whatever. They have written all this into their Old Testament and more. For example, in Exodus 19:5 (the Lord speaking) "Now therefore if ye will obey my voice, indeed, and keep my covenants, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine."

The same theme is reiterated again and again, not only in the Old Testament but also in their Talmud, which is even holier unto the Jews, and even more bloodthirsty.

The question still persists: why, when the Jews were doing so well incognito, and controlled most of the wealth of the world long before the seizure of Palestine in 1948, why would they go public and stir up a hornet's nest of trouble over Palestine? On pages 253 and 254 of the White Man's Bible I give five reasons, and still believe all five are valid. However, the more I study the situation the more overriding becomes Reason No. 1: to Bolster and Unify the sagging ideology of the Jewish rank and file. Through their fanatical practice of racial loyalty and racial teamwork this small minority had become so wealthy and affluent that their moral (read racial fanaticism) fibre was becoming flabby. The younger generations became more and more "assimilated" into their "western" host nations and marrying Gentiles in greater numbers, thereby forsaking their religious racial and historical heritage. The older Jewish hierarchy became much disturbed by this turn of events, and felt that new hostilities, new warfare must be engendered and the Jews must polarize around their ancient "roots," their religious fairy tales of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, their "nation" of Israel in the time of Saul, David and Solomon and other religious traditions. Hence back to Palestine to their "roots," no matter what the cost in bloodshed or mayhem. Otherwise, they might vanish as a "nation," a religion, a race, or an entity.

The idea of a "homeland" for the Jews, a place of refuge they could flee to if things got too rough, had been simmering among a certain segment of the Jews ever since Moses Hess wrote his book "Rome and Jerusalem" in 1862. Hess was an early apostle of European socialism and a collaborator of Karl Marx. Later they went their own separate ways because Hess wanted to mingle his socialism with a bit of spiritual Zionism.

As anti-Semitism (actually, Gentile awareness of the Jewish menace) was rising in Europe, during the latter half of the nineteenth century, the idea of a Jewish state somewhere in the world (even the Island of Madagascar off the coast of Africa, was considered) was becoming more urgent to a certain segment of the Jewish population. There was the Dreyfus Case in France. There were Georg von Schoenerer and Dr. Karl Lueger in Austria. In Germany, Eugen Duhring wrote his stirring book "The Jewish Problem as a Problem of Race, Morals and Culture." There was the bitter struggle between the Czars of Russia and the Jews confined to the Pale. The Jews had always been at war with their host nations, but now they were getting even more antsey. They were becoming intensely aware of the fact that their conspiracy could blow up in their faces and they might have no place to go.

However, it was not until Theodor Herzl wrote his book "Der Judenstaat" (the Jewish State) in 1896 that the idea of Zionism really began to polarize. In it Herzl laid down the first real blueprint for a new Jewish nation. Herzl called together a conference on Zionism in Basle, Switzerland, the following year, and Zionism was off and running. The Jews credit Herzl as being "the Father of Zionism." Seven years later (1904) Herzl died at the early age of 44, but his "blueprint" marched on with a vengeance.

The Zionist idea, however, was not embraced by all the Jews. In fact, at first the majority opposed it. Many of the wealthy, comfortably entrenched Jews, especially in the United States, took the position of "Why rock the boat? We never had it so good!"

But there were a number of fanatics, like the British chemist of sorts, Dr. Chaim Weizman, and a number of other Jewish zealots who began to move mountains. The story of their intrigue, their machinations, conniving and treachery is unmatched in history. It is a story we cannot chronicle here for lack of space, but can only point to a few highlights.

It was through the chicanery of Dr. Weizman that the Jews during the stress of WWI got a member of the British bureaucracy to sign the ambiguous and contradictory "Balfour Declaration." It had all the binding contractual obligations in it of a "get well" card, no more, no less. All it consisted of was a short letter, written by the Zionists themselves, reluctantly signed by Arthur James Balfour, then a Foreign Secretary in the British cabinet. It was addressed to Baron Edmond de Rothchild, a wealthy Jew of no official standing. All it said in effect was that "His Majesty's government" viewed "with favor the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people." At the same time "nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of non-Jewish communities (the Arabs) in Palestine." (The Jews at this time comprised of only 9.5 percent of the Palestine population).

This was during the heat of WWI when the war was going badly for Britain. The Jews promised to bring the United States into the war if Balfour would sign the letter. This, Balfour reluctantly did, and meanwhile such influential Jews as Justice Brandeis, Bernard Baruch, Col. Edward House (President Wilson's alter ego) successfully manipulated a befuddled President Wilson to indeed declare war on Germany.

On this flimsy pretext, the Balfour letter, which at best said two contradictory things at the same time, and which traded in real estate which was neither the Jews' nor the British to give, the Jews now shouted to the world they had a "Charter" to rush into Palestine and take over, although this country was then settled by Arabs whose ancestors had been there for 1300 years.

The Jews made the most of their piece of paper. At the ensuing Peace Conference at Versailles in 1919, the Jews swarmed all over the conference, while the Arabs were poorly represented and got short shrift. Their legitimate claims were ignored.

Most Jews are Khazars.

There is one further factor that completely demolishes any "ancestral" claims the Jews pretend to have on Palestine. Ninety percent of today's Jews are Khazars, descendants of a Mongol-Tartar race that once resided in that area of Russia between the Black and the Caspian Seas. These scurvy mongrels were converted to Judaism circa 800 C.E. and are even more virulent and bloodthirsty than the once Palestinian (Sephardim) Jews, but never set foot in Palestine.

* * * * *

Without going into the intervening details of history, we all know that from these bastardly beginnings the United Nations, with massive pressure from a Jew contaminated United States, did indeed declare the partition of Palestine and grant the Jews the State of Israel in a predominately Arab land, a land that was not theirs to give.

With it was ushered in an era of terrorism, perpetual warfare, chaos and unmitigated turmoil that has redounded badly for both arch co-conspirators of the Jews, Britain and the United States. Britain not only lost all her influence in the Middle East, but consequently lost all her colonies as well. She is now a poor third-rate power, herself being invaded and overrun by the mud races of the world. The United States is now vehemently hated by not only the once friendly Arabs, but by practically every other country in the world as well. Furthermore it is now fighting Israel's wars, perpetrating unmitigated terrorism on Israel's enemies (such as the recent $70 million raid on Libya) and subsidizing its great "ally" Israel to the tune of increasing billions each year.

The reason the White Race has been such an easy prey is that a major segment of the White Race is promoting its own self-destruction and the overwhelming moral force behind it has been none other than Christianity itself.

But let us examine what a vicious beast the State of Israel really is, and the unmitigated terrorism it has carried out, before, during, and after the take over of Israel, and how it has deliberately used terrorism as a most effective weapon to brutally panic and stampede the native population to flee and abandon their lands, and bludgeon its way to power.

We also want to examine how "thankful" Israel (and the Jews in general) are to their "allies" who were stupid enough to aid them in their brutal drive for power. In particular, we want to see just how Britain and the United States, their most "dedicated" friends, have fared and how they have received their just rewards.

* * * * *

Britain had served its purpose — then was torpedoed.

At the Versailles Treaty negotiations the Jews made sure that Britain was granted a "mandate" over Palestine so that its friendly military powers could be utilized to help protect the minority of Jews then in Palestine, and the flood of immigrants that were now invading that miserable and unfortunate country.

In 1920, there were about 500,000 Arabs, 70,000 Christians and about 60,000 Jews in Palestine. In other words, the Jews comprised only about 9.5 percent of the population. As the migration was accelerated by Rothschild money, by Zionists propaganda and by the rising fear of anti-Semitism in Europe by the rise of Hitler, the flood of Jews, especially from Eastern Europe, increased to a torrent. Naturally the Arabs became alarmed, and the British, with a certain sense of duty, tried to stem the illegal tide. By 1940 the population count in Palestine had shifted to the following figures: 947,846 Moslems, 120,587 Christians and 463,535 Jews, the latter still only 30.4 percent of the total population.

By now the Jews regarded the British as enemies and oppressors and covertly began to organize their own terrorist gangs and armies, although openly they were still "allies" against Hitler. By 1943, although still pretending to be "allies", the Jewish terrorist gangs began full scale operations against the British. After WWII was over, they discarded the hypocritical "ally" stance and viciously turned on the British, openly bringing their terrorist gangs into full play. There were three major gangs: the Stern gang, consisting mostly of Polish-born Jews, the Irgun Zvai Leumi, led by a Polish Jew named Menachem Begin, and the Haganah, which called itself an "official" Jewish army. Of the latter, the Palmach division was the terrorist commando spearhead.

The Jews, now fired up by a Messianic complex, would stop at nothing. First, they would drive out the British, then the Arabs. In both cases they largely used the sneaky hit-and-run tactics at which they excel: TERRORISM.

First the British.

The number of acts of terrorism against the British were so numerous that I can only give a sampling of the smaller acts over a short period of time and then let the reader expand this up until the British threw in the sponge and pulled out on May 15, 1948.

Scarcely was the war over in Europe when the Jewish terrorist gangs rapidly took over. May 13, 1945: telegraph poles blown up by explosives; an attack on the (British) Police Mobile Force at Sarona, using mortars; May 15: attack repeated; May 22: Iraqi Petroleum Co. (British) oil pipeline to Haifa punctured at two places; May 25: Police patrol (on pipeline) ambushed; June 12: Mortars aimed at King's Birthday Parade discovered, and on the following day mortars were found aimed at Lord Gort, the High Commissioner, who would take the salute to the parade; June 17: substantial quantities of gelignite stolen from quarries by armed Jews; July 13: a truck loaded with explosives was ambushed and the British constable escort killed; same day, a bridge on the Haifa-Kantara railway line was blown up; Aug. 7: 3500 British pounds stolen from a Tel-Aviv bank in armed hold-up; Aug 13: a large body of armed Jews stole 450 pounds of explosives at Petch Tiquch; Aug 20: a Jewish settler who had been of assistance to British police was murdered; Sept. 2: armed Jews dressed as British police attempted to rob a Tel Aviv bank and shortly thereafter a large quantity of textiles (worth $25,000) were stolen there; Oct. 31: the Palmach-Hagana blew up the railway at 153 places.

This is a sampling of terrorist acts committed in less than 6 months during 1945 alone, but actually the guerrilla warfare against the British had been going on since 1943, and did not cease until the British were driven out in desperation on May 15, 1948.

A few more typical incidents: On Dec. 12 1945, the Irgun Zvai Leumi (Menachem Begin's outfit) blew up the C.I.D. (British Criminal Investigation Dept.) Headquarters in Jerusalem, killing seven policemen and soldiers, while 2 more were killed in simultaneous attacks in Jaffa and Tel Aviv.

Shortly after 12 noon, on July 22, 1946, the King David Hotel, where the British government had set up their headquarters, was blown up by a massive amount of explosives brought in by milk cans and placed in the basement immediately under the wing housing the staff. The job was engineered by Menachem Begin, who later became Prime Minister of Israel, and was wined and dined at the White House in Washington.

Eighty-three members of the British staff were killed as well as five members of the public.

The intensity of the Jewish hatred for the British knew no bounds. To quote their official attitude "an Englishman would always be a filthy Goy, who could be killed for that reason alone." On Nov. 9, 1946, four British members of the Palestine Police Force were killed by a booby-trapped mine in a Jerusalem house which they were searching for arms.

This list of atrocities against the British (their "allies," who gave them the Balfour Declaration) is only a sampling up to the end of

BRICKBATS & BOUQUETS

Dear Racial Brother:

We received your letter just yesterday asking us to confirm if and when we received your "Race and Reason" video tape of the Pontifex Maximus, Ben Klassen. I picked the tape up at the post office just today. Thanks for the quick service. We will show it at our meeting this coming weekend.

After viewing the video tape only minutes ago, it is my personal opinion that Ben Klassen did an excellent job, as did the host Tom Metzger. Ben Klassen has brought honor to the White racist movement and I would most highly recommend the Race and Reason video tape to anyone. It is the best $20.00 donation I ever gave to any cause. Keep up your good work.

White Victory, or Death,
Rev. James L. Betts
Grand Dragon, Missouri

(Ed. Note: Rev. Betts is an ordained minister of the Church of the Creator, and has been with us for 12 years. His and Mary Carr's confrontation with Meir Kahane is described in article on this page.)

Dear Sir:

I was impressed with Mr. Ben Klassen's article 'The Glory and Catastrophe that was Rome' reprinted in a recent issue of SPEARHEAD.

I would be grateful if you would send me some information about the Church and its publications.

Yours faithfully,
Paul Rowlandson

To All Hands:

Keep up the good work! Enclosed please find my monthly contribution of $40. I just wish I could help and may be able to sometime in the future. I do spread the Word as best I can by passing out the books and literature and trying to get people to view what's happening from the conspiratorial side.

An example of this is the destruction of the Space Shuttle and two spy satellites that exploded. It would have been an easy matter for the Jews to have put Plastic explosives on these vehicles. The motive being our increasing lead in being able to view what was/is happening in Russia, the truth of their sad state of affairs may get out. The possibility of sabotage was never mentioned to my knowledge by the newsmedia.

Creatively yours,

Dear Mr. Klassen,

Thank you for sending me your paper all this time. I am enclosing $15 to pay for my subscription. The paper you have been sending me gratis has been put to good use as at least 5 people read it and hopefully should result in some new subscriptions. We are all, unfortunately at, what the darling liberals call, the poverty level!

It has been brought to my attention that you were interviewed by the "Popular Media" and appeared on Channel 2 from Spokane. Unfortunately, I missed the interview. Could you tell me what prompted the interview and, do you have a tape or a transcript on the interview? I turned my TV off several years ago and, it appears that once in awhile I really do miss something!

Have you had any response from the interview — hateful or otherwise?

With sincere best wishes,

Dear Ben,

Just finished reading Racial Loyalty No. 35. Outstanding work! Enclosed is a check for $100.00. Please send copies for distribution.

Ben, you've lifted quite a few curtains in my mind. Armed with truth, we Creators will eventually strip power from our enemy. The sooner the better!

White on!

Dear Pontifex:

Just a short letter to thank you for the copies of the Racial Loyalty that I have been receiving over the past several months. I can't begin to tell you how valuable your paper "Racial Loyalty" is to me. The material contained in each paper has richly increased my knowledge into the dark cloud that hangs over our great Race. I particularly enjoyed your story on the Alamo in February's issue, and agree wholeheartedly that we must not only remember the beastly insane act of the destruction of Dresden, but must also avenge it.

If our people will not cross the line soon, and vow to make a stand against these sub-human animals that have polluted our land, killed millions of our people, and destroy more and more of our children every day with the garbage they promote, spooks, drugs, mongrelization, etc., it will soon be too late, if not already for our once proud race. I have enclosed an article, in case you are not aware of what the Jews are brainwashing our children with now. There simply is no end to it. These animals just go on and on and on using every deviate thing they can think of to steal the minds of our little ones.

I can guarantee you, Pontifex, or anyone else, I have taken a stand

Klan Confrontation with Meir Kahane

From REVOLUTION, the monthly Newsletter of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, P. O. Box 2345, Overland, MO. 63114. Rev. James L. Betts, Leader, Mary Carr, Editor.

Recently, when Meir Kahane came to St. Louis to attend a testimonial dinner of holocaust victims and survivors as the guest speaker, he got more than he bargained for.

After a long winded speech in front of two hundred Jews and Jewish sympathizers about the atrocities committed against the Jews and how every last Nazi must pay for the horrible crimes committed against them, Kahane got a shocking surprise when Mary Carr, along with Rev. James Betts of "The New Order Party, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan" stood up from the table and blasted Meir Kahane and the "Jewish Defense League" for atrocities committed against innocent Gentiles who have openly stated the holocaust is a hoax, as well as maiming and killing those who become public with wanting an end to the state of Israel.

It is not easy to be able to purchase tickets for a holocaust dinner such as this without name changes. Instead of Carr and Betts, it had to be Guberman and Finesstein. The tickets are going to get you in the door, but you will have to look like a stinking liberal to be allowed in.

As you have seen and read many times in the news media, Kahane is a violent man who would stop at nothing to gain a feather in his cap and to be able to brag about how he assaulted Klan Officers. But even Kahane knows bad news coverage when he sees it.

Mary Carr had encountered this demon before six years ago at the Marxist Washington University. He was in an on-campus Episcopal Church spouting off at the mouth in front of 500 foulsmelling Jews, sitting around in bare feet, listening to his propaganda.

Immediately after the recent dinner, Kahane stepped up to the podium and started haranguing Whites he called "Neo-Nazis. That is the "in thing" with Jews now. Anyone who is aware of their conspiracy of eliminating the White Race is given this title. That way it turns off World War II veterans, mothers who have lost sons in the war, and so on. He also yelled that all racists should be slaughtered like cattle.

At this point, Mary Carr rose from her seat and countered with "Yes, we know of how you Jews consider us human cattle. We are all aware how you can rape our children, lie, cheat, and steal from us. And we all know you have total control over the U.S. by having complete control over the Federal Reserve System.

Kahane yelled to get us swine out of the room before he personally took us on. We had said what needed to be said. So we told this scheming Jew to get his non-American ass out of this country and head for Israel while he was still ahead.

and I will not only avenge Dresden, but I will seek vengeance also for every one of our children that these filthy dogs have destroyed. I am not going to wait any longer for our people to unite, this proud White Man is going to do what he has to do. If it means death, then, so be it. I don't give a damn about death, so long as I go out in honor.

Keep up the good work, Pontifex, and stay in good health. It's men like you that we can't afford to lose.

For the shrinkage of all Jew dogs and muds from the face of our land,

Dear Mr. Ben Klassen,

Having read several of your books: Nature's Eternal Religion, Expanding Creativity and the White Man's Bible, I find myself very much in favour of what you write. For many years, about fifty, I've known the Christian Religion to be a gigantic hoax and also the role the Jews are playing amongst us White People, but I was not aware of the extent of their activities.

* Bab's Letter of the Month.

Dear Mr. Klassen:

I do believe you are one of the finest leaders for our White Race, but I am not going to give up my belief in Jesus Christ for you.

Please do not send me your books or no other material.

I've been living here in Australia since 1941, first as an internee and stayed on after the war because my homeland was handed over to the Polish communists. I came from near Breslau in Silesia, Germany.

Please accept $100.00 to further the good cause. I also am very much interested in the series which you have: The International Jew, a study commissioned by Henry Ford.

Hoping to hear from you as soon as it is convenient, I remain,

A Reply from Mrs. Else Christensen.

(Ed. Note: On March 26 we wrote a letter to Mrs. Christensen, in which we invited the Odinist movement to join with us in building a more massive battering ram with which to smash the Jewish network. That letter was published in last month's Racial Loyalty No. 35. We invited Mrs. Christensen to reply and promised to print her letter. This she was kind enough to do, and here is her reply.)

May 8, 1986

Dear Mr. Klassen:

Thanks very much for your letter of March 26/86, I appreciate your straight talk and I think we can trust each other enough to keep it on that line.

First let me tell you that I have been accused of being an Odinist who doesn't believe in Odin; and of course this is true; I do not 'believe' any of the gods exist in the same way the Christians say they believe their god exists, or any of his three parts. What the gods represent to us is the natural forces, the universal powers, good or bad human traits. We might say when the thunder rolls — 'My, Thor is busy today!' but no sane Odinist believes that the god is travelling across the heavens in the goat-drawn chariot; to us Thor at that point is a reminder of the terrific powerful forces of Nature.

I would like to go back to one sentence in your letter — You say 'Those same Odinists would be ten times as effective had they a more comprehensive and militant creed...'

You overlook the fact that these people don't want to be 'more effective' and yet they need something upon which to base their moral concepts. Odinism is that base. The belief we present is undogmatic, so people can choose how they want to see the gods; if they want the crutch, it's there, if they have progressed so that they can stand on their own two feet, the religion will let them do just that.

At the same time Odinism gives them an opportunity to light candles, to celebrate the seasons or other such 'days,' giving them an occasion to get together in an informal, friendly atmosphere. For, believe me, one thing our folk needs is companionship, to be among their own kind with a common purpose. And logic is not going to do it entirely. Odinism cannot, and should not, go against logic, but there must be something for the emotions as well, and this is what the gods provide.

You refer to Hitler; what he provided for the German people was solidarity, emotional involvement, inspiration, but these feelings are not rational. Man is (unfortunately) not a rational being; there are degrees, of course, but most people are directed by their emotions, not by their logic.

I believe that we need to fight on all fronts; your creed is built up logically and appeals to some people; Odinism, from the Fellowship's point of view, gives something for the emotions and at the same time also is acceptable to people with a rather good rational sense. The Asatru Free Assembly has more for the emotions than both you and we have, but they are not that far down the irrational path that their version cannot be acceptable to people with a fair sense of rationality. It's not a very good explanation but I hope you understand what I'm trying to show. We need to work on all fronts; what one organization cannot do, the people they cannot reach, one of the other two can (I hope).

We have members who are also members of the AFA; I gather simply because they think we do not have enough rituals and ceremonies (which I keep to a minimum); and obviously they have a need for some emotional expression. That's good, Steve can provide that and they do not need to go to the Moonies, the Hare Krishna or the Christian churches; they can stay within a religion that is based primarily on our cultural heritage. They can follow the code of conduct as it is expressed in the Havamal and the code will not be imposed from some outside 'god' but from within, from their own intellect. And when they first understand this, when they feel the racial solidarity and have an emotional basis for their inborn inclination, then political action will follow. It takes time to get that far, but it'll come.

It is our destiny to be born in a historic period where the present cultural period is dying; it will still take maybe a couple of more centuries before the final collapse. The new has not been born yet, but I hope and believe that we are today doing the groundwork for the foundation upon which the new basis for the religious/philosophical moral concepts will be built. They will have to be racial, discriminatory, self-assertive, proud.

It is a shame that we haven't in English been able to stay with the, or get a better translation of, the German idea of 'Das Göttliche'; the godly is neuter, it is beyond gods and goddesses, and certainly a far cry from the Christian 3-in-one god.

I remember we met many years ago but never really had time to talk; it would be nice some day to have the occasion to sit down and exchange a few thoughts, I believe we would come to an understanding.

Before I finish, I'll have to add that I know that what I've been saying here is not understood by all Odinists; we have them right from the stage where they just want to exchange Odin for Jesus and carry on business as usual, so to speak.

Many do not understand the depth of the beliefs or the potential they have. But everything takes time; it's a big jump from the Christian creed which most of us have been brought up in, and to a mature understanding of our emotional and intellectual needs, and then to absorb this understanding in an intelligent manner. As the saying goes, Rome was not built in one day, neither is Odinism. And as society changes and our culture becomes more and more distorted, we may have to change our approach somewhat; our enemy is flexible in the sense that he uses all physical and psychological methods available to him; we must do the same.

I hope this makes some sense to you and it might be expressed better but maybe you get an impression of what we're trying to do.

FOR FOLK AND FUTURE!

Miscegenation, Disintegration and Degeneration in Los Angeles.

For many months my family and I have been reading about the "Spectacular" Afro-American Culture Center located in Exposition Park, L.A., CA. and of course on "Martin Lucifer Koon" blvd. (King of the Beasts). This multi-million dollar complex was paid for by our extorted tax dollars. I guess it was built as a bribe to appease the urban black beasts so they will not murder and rape more White people, but unfortunately it hasn't worked. White people in L.A. are being slaughtered by the thousands, as never before. The muddy hordes are doing their Jewish master's work well.

My wife, two children and I decided last Saturday to visit this "spectacular" event. We parked our car a few blocks away and were forced to walk past dozens of degenerate muds, not a one speaking English (sick). Finally, we reached our destination and opened the doors to this cultureless center. The first thing we noticed was the putrifying stench of nigger body odor, almost enough to knock a person out.

As we walked around trying to avoid stepping in any of the garbage left about, we looked with disgust at all the decadent naked statues that were supposed to be proof of a great and noble civilization long past. We then went to the gift shop and looked at all the Black Power and anti-White books, openly displayed for all to see and buy. I couldn't help but feel ill, to think my tax dollars were stolen from me to finance this temple of Hate.

After about 30 minutes of this hideous experience we decided to leave. We were the only White family in the damn place, although we did notice 2 White sluts with their black behemoth beasts and one of them even had a little nigglet of her own.

CUPID'S CORNER

Dear Pontifex:

I am a 34 year old male (5 April 1952) of German-British background, 5' 9", brown hair and eyes. Interests include but not confined to Baroque music, Icelandic literature, history and biography. More physical interests are hiking, camping, shooting and fishing. I have been divorced for about ten years, served a hitch in the U.S. Navy and would now like a permanent companion to share the above interests, raise beautiful White children and stand with me in helping to build a Whiter and Brighter World.

Cordially, J. W.

Christianity has all the characteristics of drug addiction, and like a dopehead, a Christian will scream loud and long when his narcotic crutch is withdrawn.

Walking back to the car, I couldn't help but feel sad for all the thousands of White school children that are marched through there under the clever guise that they are experiencing a great race's arts and artifacts. My family and I agreed that the A.A.C.C. confirmed our belief that the "Afro-American" is nothing more than a smelly, dirty, talking ape.

After the Niggerville experience we drove to "Little Mexico" where 98 percent of the poor slob refuse to speak English, but demand to be housed, fed and clothed by the foolish White Americans who always seem to pay.

I remember years ago happily growing up in this part of town then, a White, clean, orderly, safe place to live. Now it is a filthy, crime-ridden, diseased, chaotic, Latin-nightmare.

We noticed many fat, ugly, pepper-bellies wobbling around carrying armfuls of babies. It makes me think they have nothing better to do than produce little mudlets and then demand support from, the White Elephant, "Dumbo," who always seems to pay.

I wanted my children to see first hand what is happening to our country and to also understand why and what we are fighting.

I feel quite certain the parasitical Jew is pleased at these awful conditions and they are doing everything in their despotic powers to extend and compound this problem so the "White goy" will never again rise from their dormant sleep and threaten their evil power structure.

Let us once and for all get all these deadly monkeys off our back and regain control for future White generation. Creativity is the only answer.

Saving our Precious Planet from becoming a Poisonous Garbage Dump and a Human Pigsty

Part III: Clean Drinking Water A Scarce Commodity

Supposing we were able to man a spaceship and roam throughout the vast universe in search of another planet that had all the right combinations of components that make life viable on good old Planet Earth. Even though we embarked on voyages to other galaxies, I doubt whether we would ever find another such genial environment in ten billion years. This combination consists of the right temperatures, the right gravity, soil, elements, atmosphere, water, as well as thousands of other vital components of which we are not even aware.

But of all these that make Planet Earth unique and such a viable place to live, it is our vast atmosphere and the abundance of water that are the major contributions to life on this planet. Certainly no other planet in our solar system has anything like it to generate or sustain life. In fact, science has pretty well determined that no other life exists on any of our companion planets in our solar system. It is my opinion that life such as we experience here on Planet Earth is not duplicated anywhere else in the universe, and that we are unique. Nor do I believe that we are being visited by little green men from "outer space," or have been in the past, or will be in the near future.

Be that as it may, up until very recent times we have taken our two major assets, fresh air and fresh water, so for granted we scarcely give them a second thought. We assumed both commodities to be of such vast and boundless quantities, we took them for granted and as natural as breathing in and out. But no more. As the old song goes — you never miss the water until the well goes dry.

Today we want to examine the water situation on this Planet Earth — our one and only home. The well is not only going dry in some places, but in many others it is being turned into a cesspool. An overcrowded planet, too many people, too much industry and technology, and criminally irresponsible housekeeping on a worldwide scale are rapidly turning both of these, our greatest assets, into a polluted garbage dump, unfit for human consumption.

I read the morning paper. In the same issue I find on one page that "Large illegal chemical dump found," that 1700 drums of chemical poisons have been dumped on some abandoned site on a farm in Georgia. Apparently these have been surreptitiously transported from some bankrupted chemical company in Tennessee, during many midnight forays. On another page I read "Soviets try to deaden nuclear core" at the Chernobyl nuclear reactor. Scientists fear a "China Syndrome" with the hot nuclear molten mass burning its way down towards the center of the earth and on its way polluting vast quantities of underground water supplies. Meanwhile, millions of square miles of the atmosphere are being polluted with nuclear radiation that endangers not only vast areas of Russia itself, but also the nearby countries of Sweden, Germany, Austria, France, Poland and others. The jet streams in the upper atmosphere are even carrying the radiation to the United States, but, "our" government tells us, we have nothing to worry about. (Do you still believe anything JOG says?) On another page I read a little item by Evans and Novak that says, quote: "Top-secret White House information strongly hints that many of the 40,000 Russians evacuated — 36 hours later — from the nuclear power town of Chernobyl will die of radiation exposure. That horrible possibility, not planned to be made public by the U.S. government, results from a long gap between the nuclear explosion and the beginning of evacuation a day and a half later. One Soviet specialist here believes the radiation victims will be shipped to remote towns to die forgotten and unknown."

Another item, next day, same paper, tells of the prolonged drouth in our area, North Carolina, Georgia, and the S.E. United States in general, and how a week old forest fire in Eastern North Carolina has already devoured 73,000 acres of forest land and is still going strong.

Another item: Forests are dying in many parts of the country, due to acid rain and due to thousands of tons of nitrogen oxides and sulfur dioxides being spewed into the air daily. Dumped into our atmosphere, they do not stay there. They come back down as either dry acidic powder, or as nitric or sulfuric acid with rain, snow or fog. And because of our moving atmosphere, it does not necessarily come down in the area that produced it. Hence, some international and regional disputes.

Another item: Poisoned wells. For instance, TCE (Trichloroethylene), a common chemical used as a solvent and having dozens of other uses for the last 60 years, is now found to be highly carcinogenic and has seeped its way into the ground water in most of the wells in the country. But it is not the only substance. At least 22 other cancer causing chemicals and 1000 organic chemicals have intruded into the tap water we drink.

So there we have it. Polluted water on the surface, polluted water in the skies and polluted water under the ground.

Even if we overcome the mud races, it will be of little benefit to our future progeny if all we leave them is a Planet that is no more than a poisoned garbage dump.

Water. Yes, indeed, it is a precious substance. It makes up 77 percent of an infant's body, 59 percent of a child's body and between 45 and 65 percent of an adult's. An obese person might be able to go without food for 120 days, but not without water. They would be dead in 5 days, or in a hot dry climate, in about half that time.

Water. There is a lot of it, but precious little of it clean enough to drink. Three quarters of the earth's surface is covered by it. Only .001 percent of the planet's water is in the atmosphere, whereas the bulk of it, 97.2 percent, is in the oceans and inland seas. Another 2.15 percent is locked up in ice-caps and glaciers, and a remaining .64 percent is liquid fresh water that is available to us in groundwater, lakes, rivers, streams and surface soil.

When we say fresh water, we should modify that and say it used to be relatively fresh and clean, but no more. It is now almost impossible to find any unpolluted water anywhere near an inhabited area, now in the 1980's. Hundreds of contaminants now pollute our "fresh water" reserves. Concentrations of such metals as copper, cadmium, zinc, lead, mercury, and hundreds of toxic commercial chemicals, (as well as the TCE already mentioned) now pollute our water resources.

Many people are still under the mistaken impression that, well, at least in the cities, where our water has been processed by the municipal "treatment plants" it is safe to drink. Not so, my friend.

A recent study was made by the General Accounting Office (GAO) to provide Congress with facts about our drinking water. The study included 446 water supply systems in six states. Of those 446, only 60 systems met the Federal standards set for interstate planes, trains and buses. That's only 13.5 percent. But that does not mean that even that 13.5 percent of the systems had good water, only it passed minimum requirements.

There is one other pernicious factor about "treated" water that the government does not protect you from, and that is the addition of such chemicals as chlorine, and, in thousands of systems, fluorides, that are deliberately added in order to presumably kill "bacteria." In most cases the chlorine and fluorides, both deadly poisons, are more dangerous than the bacteria they are supposed to kill.

We could go on analyzing both the identity and quantities of chemical poisons, not to mention the radio-active poisons, in our drinking water, but it would be a non-productive pursuit. I have already adequately covered the ominous aspect of pollution from chemical poisons (Racial Loyalty No. 26) and of radio-active poisons (Racial Loyalty No. 27) that contaminate our Planet Earth, and how we are reaching an absolute dead-end in this insane desecration of this unique, beautiful planet with which Nature has provided us.

The question is: what are we going to do about it?

In this respect there are two parts to the problem, (a) the short-range amelioration and survival until our Planet Earth is cleaned up, and (b) a total, fundamental and basic long-range solution to the whole worldwide pollution problem. This means restructuring our whole social, economic and racial thinking. Only then will we be able to restore our Planet to the clean and beautiful environment it once had, and make it a fit place for a proud and orderly White Race to live.

Let us tackle the short-range problem first, and say that as long as we have a Jew-dominated government and society worldwide, the problem will not be solved, it will get worse, much worse. The population problem will escalate, the mud peoples will desecrate an increasingly larger area of our planet, and both the toxic chemical wastes and the radio-active wastes will burgeon to ever more intolerable levels.

So what can we, the White Race, do about drinking water? We can do two things (a) go to drinking distilled water, which is what my family is doing. This can be done by either buying bottled distilled water at the supermarkets, or setting up your own household distiller. I have done both. For several years we used our own small distiller, until one day the safety-feature on it malfunctioned and nearly burned our house down. We have been buying bottled distilled water ever since.

The second thing we must do until such time as we get the world restructured is to reassess our whole approach to our fresh water resources. We must come to grips with the fact that the amount of fresh water we have available to us is strictly limited, that we are wasting a lot of it, polluting the rest, and there just is not enough to go around. We must do a better job of housekeeping — utilization and management of the fresh water available to us.

Worldwide, 75 percent of the available fresh water supply is used for irrigation. Much of this comes from dwindling underground aquifers, such as the vast Ogallala aquifer in the Midwestern Plains, and the now almost exhausted San Joaquin Valley in California.

A partial answer to the irrigation problem is that if we (in the United States) changed our obsession about feeding all the freeloaders of the world and just took care of our own, we would not need to produce such a surplus of foods, and need much less irrigated farmland. Secondly, if we changed over to scientifically planned organic farming, we would produce more nutritious food, and hardly need any irrigation at all.

About 40 percent of all water piped into homes is used (or wasted) by the flush toilet — one of our proud hallmarks of civilization. The most negative aspect of this is that some of the effluent becomes part of the water supply to those who live downstream. The average person using a flush toilet contaminates 13,000 gallons of fresh water a year to wash away 165 gallons of sewage. Multiply that by 180 million people using such in the USA alone, and you have some idea of the dimensions of this problem.

A better, more efficient and less wasteful means must replace the flush toilet. There are already better systems available, and ever better means could be devised if we set our minds to it.

Let me reiterate what I have pointed out any number of times before: none of these problems will ever be solved as long as the Jewish behemoth is in control of the world. In fact, pollution, crowding, famine and anarchy will get worse, much worse, until and unless the White Man forcefully regains and takes charge of his own destiny. And unless he does this soon, it will be too late. We will only have a crowded, poisoned, polluted, radio-active planet to cling to, one in which the White Race will soon no longer be able to survive. The point of no return is rapidly approaching.

If we are ever to restore this Planet Earth to its original pristine beauty and fecundity, there is only one answer — RAHOWA! Total racial warfare, total WHITE VICTORY!

Therefore we must go back to square one:

1. Build up the Church of the Creator to one dynamic, aroused, unified battering ram, a powerful tool in the hands of the White Man with which to smash the Jewish monster.

2. Take charge of our own destiny, practice racial teamwork and stop subsidizing the mud races and freeloaders of the world.

3. The latter will then soon wither on the vine and the world population will shrink back to what it can comfortably support on a perpetual stable basis, probably about one-fifth of today's crowded five billion.

4. From there on out the problems can, and will, be solved. We can then go to work systematically and efficiently in cleaning up our precious Planet Earth to where it will again be a wholesome, healthy and beautiful place for our future progeny to live and to prosper for the next million years.

The American Death Ceremony

The death ceremony started as a crude ritual, back in the days of witchcraft. In recent years it has been developed into a science. It usually takes from 10 to 15 years. However, modern scientific advancements are shortening this period of time.

It starts with one simple aspirin for a simple headache. When the one aspirin will no longer cover up the headache, take two. After a few months, when two aspirins will no longer cover up the headache, you take one of the stronger compounds. By this time it becomes necessary to take something for the ulcers that have been caused by the aspirin. Now that you are taking two medicines, you have a good start. After a few months these medications will disrupt your liver function. If a good infection develops, you can take some penicillin. Of course, the penicillin will damage your red blood corpuscles and spleen so that you develop anemia. Another medication is then taken to cover up the anemia. By this time all of these medications will put such a strain on your kidneys they should break down. It is now time to take some antibiotics. When these destroy your natural resistance to disease, you can expect a general flair-up of all of your symptoms. The next step is to cover up all of these symptoms with sulfa drugs. When the kidneys finally plug up you can have them drained. Some poisons will build up in your system but you can keep going quite a while this way.

By now the medications will be so confused they won't know what they are supposed to be doing, but it doesn't really matter. If you have followed every step as directed you can now make an appointment with your undertaker.

This game is played by practically all Americans, except for the few ignorant souls who follow Nature. — Dr. L. I.

nearest expulsion point which may be lungs, skin, kidneys or bowels or all. Before being expelled, the poisons may be further broken down by lymph nodes or the liver.

Those who regularly take drugs, especially heroin and other injected drugs, are likely to suffer white blood cell deficiency, medically called lymphocytopenia or leukocytopenia, but now called AIDS.

Let's proceed to a consideration of the word "deficiency." As you know this also means insufficiency, a shortage, or simply, not enough. What the medical/drug establishment has erected as a deficiency is a low white blood corpuscle count or deranged white blood corpuscle. Until AIDS was catapulted onto the scene, a low count — that is, 5,000 per cubic millimeter or less — was diagnosed as leukocytopenia or lymphocytopenia.

To assert that a deficiency can be acquired is, of course, ridiculous. You can't acquire anyone else's deficiency by any means you can name — not by any act normal or abnormal in our society.

To overcome this deficiency in their phony disease, the medical/drug establishment via the CDC (Center for Disease Control headquartered in Atlanta), has added that universal scapegoat to the fabrication, the myth of malevolent viruses. The virus is credited with attacking the white blood cells and destroying them and of attacking the bone marrow and lymph glands which create them, thus causing a deficiency. There are other criteria that relate to the deteriorated and dying condition of T lymphocytes that can trigger a diagnosis of AIDS by current guidelines (which can be changed and modified at any time to suit the drug establishment); but these cells, as well as leukocytes, are subject to poisoning either from drugs, from poisonous by-products such as isothiocyanate from garlic, horseradish, etc.

The establishment has billions of dollars of clout, and no mere little voice like ours will make much difference — it takes millions of dollars just to spread a message minimally and even then, if it's contrary to the establishment brainwashing of the moment, will more than likely be rejected out of hand.

Now let's look at the word syndrome. It means a symptom complex. In this case it originally referred to a group of symptoms peculiar to terminal drug addicts or others poisoned as noted above. Because one finds evidence of drug use among some homosexuals, it is only reasonable to expect to find the ravages of drugs among them.

There you have it — a disease made originally for political purposes against homosexuals and now being turned to commercial account against the general population.

RAHOWA!

1946 and very incomplete. The terrorism against the British went on full blast until May 15, 1948, when the British, defeated, and militarily and economically exhausted, pulled out and dumped their responsibilities on the naive and Jew controlled U.N.

At the same time an even fiercer racial war of annihilation was waged against the native Arabs, who had lived there for the last 1300 years. Let us briefly review their fate. This war was going on even long before the start of WWII.

Next the Arabs.

The multitude of atrocities and acts of terror against the Arabs, like those also against the British are far too numerous to list, and completely beyond the scope of this limited article. Therefore, I will list but two examples to draw a general picture of the fierceness and brutality of the deliberate Jewish campaign to accomplish by murder, terrorism and wanton destruction what they could not accomplish by legal means. They used terror systematically and ruthlessly as an instrument to frighten, stampede and drive the Arabs from off their native lands. In this, they were experts and the results achieved were extremely effective.

Deir Yasin.

Under the leadership of Begin, the Irgun Zvei Leumi on the night of April 9/10 occupied the Arab village of Deir Yasin situated on the outskirts of Jerusalem. Of about 700 Arab inhabitants, 254 defenseless men, women and children were murdered in short order and many of their bodies thrown down a well. 300 were wounded.

The women and children who survived were rounded up at dawn, loaded on trucks and paraded through the Jewish section of Jerusalem. The Jewish crowds greeted their victims with a hail of stones and curses, spitting on them as they passed by.

Later 150 women and children were released near the Arab sector of Jerusalem and sent off with a volley of small arms fire.

Nasr-ed-Din.

World opinion was outraged at the brutal display of savagery at Deir Yasin, and even the Jewish Agency (the quasi-underground government of Jewish operations in Palestine) "condemned" the Irgun Zvei for this unwarranted display of wanton brutality, although they secretly participated in its planning and execution. But the blood-thirsty Jews cared little about world opinion, since their newsmedia controlled most of it anyway. They were accomplishing what they set out to do: to stampede and terrorize the Arabs to flee their lands.

This the Arabs did in large numbers. The Zionists, undaunted by outraged world opinion, on the very next day, April 10, attacked the small village of Nasr-ed-Din, near Tiberius, most of whose inhabitants had fled. They killed all 10 of the remaining persons who had stayed. They then burned down, dynamited and levelled every structure and building in the village.

The Murder of Count Folke Bernadotte.

Despite all the atrocities carried on by the invading Zionists into territory occupied by the Arabs for the previous 1300 years, the newly formed United Nations in New York did what they could to help the Jews steal their real estate, which the Jews claimed Yahweh had given them.

By 1948, affairs in Palestine were becoming so confused and violent that no end seemed in sight.

On May 20, 1948, the United Nations appointed Count Folke Bernadotte, President of the Swedish Red Cross, as U.N. Mediator on Palestine. Bernadotte and his staff drew up a plan of partition that was more than fair to the Jews in accordance to their numbers and also in respect to the territory they had settled. However, nothing will ever placate the Jews, and they were furious at his proposal.

While driving to Jerusalem on Sept. 18, 1948 to present his proposals, his motorcade was ambushed by the Stern gang, and Count Bernadotte and his colleague, French Colonel Serot, were assassinated.

The Israeli Attack on the USS. Liberty.

In chronicling the viciousness, the ferocity, and the arrogance that is part and parcel of the Jewish psycho, there is one more example of Jewish contempt and hatred that we should cite. It also demonstrates the "appreciation" they show for their best "friend," that has helped them most, the United States.

Nineteen years after the formation of the bandit state of Israel, while the Six-day Israeli-Egyptian War was in progress, the USS. Liberty, a billion dollar intelligence gathering ship, was quietly riding 12 miles off the Sinai coast in calm waters. Suddenly out of a clear sky in the afternoon of June 8, 1967, three Israeli fighter planes raked the ship's starboard bow with machine gun and cannon fire, on at least six strafing runs. Following the blitz from the air, three Israeli torpedo boats moved into position, blasting the Liberty with machine gun fire, and loosed two torpedos in a desperate effort to sink the ship. 34 Americans were killed and 75 were wounded.

While this was going on, and while the USS Liberty sent out SOS pleas for help, our traitorous President (Johnson) and military staff in Washington sent strict orders for nearby U.S. ships of the Sixth Fleet to turn the other way and ignore all pleas for help sent from the embattled Liberty.

The Jewish press at home (U.S.A.) clamped a tight lid on all information regarding this dastardly attack on a U.S. Naval vessel on the high seas. The average American citizen was completely unaware that this major atrocity had even happened.

This, my White Racial Comrades is the kind of thanks any "goy" ally can expect from the Jews, now, or anytime in the future.

The brutal acts of wanton atrocities the Jews heaped on the British and the Arabs in Palestine are so numerous that they fill several voluminous books, and a full catalogue of them is outside the scope of this article. Two

Anyone who picks up a Jewish Newspaper in the morning and does not see himself slandered in it has not made profitable use of the previous day; for if he had, he would be persecuted, reviled, slandered, abused, befouled. — Adolf Hitler authoritative books chronicling most of these events can be found in The Palestine Diaries, Vol. 1 (1914-45), and Vol. 2 (1945-48). Each of these books is approximately 2 inches thick, and they do not go much beyond the events of 1948. They therefore do not include the multitude of murders, atrocities and mayhem Israel has committed on the Palestinian Arabs since becoming a (bandit) State in 1948. Nor do they list all the treacherous acts of terrorism it has committed on its neighbors and nearby neighbors, such as Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, Egypt and Libya in the last 38 years. This would easily fill another three or four such volumes.

Perhaps I have spent too much space on these atrocities already and we must move on to the next phase, namely what is in store for the rest of us goyim, and what we can and must do about it.

Next, the United States.

If we study the Jewish modus operandi carefully, we find it is planned, deliberate and deadly, not only in their take-over of Palestine, but of the world. In Palestine the order of priorities ran in this sequence: First, destroy Nazi Germany. In this they inveigled the help of dozens of nations, including England, the United States (did they ever!) and the Arab Nations. Secondly, turn against England and drive her out of Palestine. Thirdly (and simultaneously) destroy and drive out the Arabs, a still ongoing process.

We now come to the destruction of the fourth victim, a process that also has been ongoing at a ferocious rate of speed since WWII.

Next Victim — Destroy America.

Just as they destroyed Germany, England and Palestine, so, too, are we in America now clearly in the meat-grinder, to be minced, mutilated and masticated. America, that is, White America, is marked for destruction, in no uncertain terms, as is Whitey all over the world. The Jews' objective is to see to it no more White babies are to be born, in as short a period of time as possible, and they have openly bragged about such a goal.

And since they have already gobbled up Germany, England, Russia, and the rest of the world just whom, may we ask, are they going to enlist to help them do this number, the biggest job of all, the destruction of the United States of America?

Meet the White Chicken.

Why, you guessed it! They have not only targeted Whitey for destruction in America, but they have already successfully enlisted his massive productivity and aid with which to do the job, not only in America, but to Whitey, all over the world no matter where he resides! The White Chicken, too passive to resist, is peacefully allowing himself to be pirated, looted and plucked to provide the Jews with the wherewithall to enslave the world and mongrelize the White Race into oblivion. (Read again "Operation Rip-off, the World's Ultimate patsy" in Racial Loyalty No. 35.)

The fact is, whereas the Arabs were not so dumb as to allow the Jews to take over their land, homes and country without putting up the toughest fight of which they were capable, strangely enough, Whitey in America, is either too dumb, or too cowardly, to resist the avaricious Jew. Remember what we said at the beginning of this article about the dumbest creature on the face of the earth? That fits the average White American to a "T", who apparently is not only too dumb to recognize his enemies, but

(Ed. Note: In the February edition, the Spearhead printed an article on the Romans, namely C.C. No. 20 out of the White Man's Bible. This evidently caused quite a furor with some of their Christian readers, some of which withdrew their financial support. Mr. John Tyndall, the Editor, wrote a letter to such a supporter, which letter he then printed in the May edition of Spearhead.)

CHRISTIANITY: Let's have a bit of tolerance!

by JOHN TYNDALL, Editor of the SPEARHEAD, London.

The article by Ben Klassen on the alleged role of Christianity in the decline and fall of the Roman Empire, reprinted in Spearhead in February, upset some of our readers and in one case caused a supporter who had donated to our support fund regular amounts worth about 300 British pounds a year to terminate those contributions. On hearing of this, our Editor sent the former supporter a letter explaining the magazine's position on the religious question. It later occurred to the Editor that the letter might usefully be reproduced in Spearhead for the benefit of our readers. Here it is, with one or two passages left out that are not entirely relevant to the subject and one or two added to give extra emphasis to the theme. For the purpose of protection of identity, the former donor's name, as well as that of the intermediary, are deleted.

THE EDITOR answers an angry reader

Dear-----

It is with very great regret that I have heard through ----- of your decision to terminate your financial contributions to SPEARHEAD. I understand that the cause of this decision is the article against Christianity by Ben Klassen that we reprinted in the February issue.

I am deeply sorry that you feel this way. I have reiterated again and again in the columns of our magazine that there is no editorial policy of opposition to Christianity per se, and that we number Christians and non-Christians among both our readers and contributors of articles. Were this not understood and accepted by most Christians who have been involved with us, they would have terminated their association a long time ago. Perhaps I may mention Kenneth McKilliam, Noel A. Hunt and Ronald Rickcord as just three examples; you can be quite sure that none of these writers would consent to his articles appearing in our magazine were he to believe that the magazine was an "enemy" of Christianity.

What I have always sought to do, and what I shall continue to do, is allow SPEARHEAD to be a forum for the free exchange of personal opinions on the subject of Christianity. It was in this spirit that the article by Mr. Klassen was reprinted and other articles by other authors — perhaps most notably Professor Revilo P. Oliver — have also appeared in our columns from time to time. I think this policy is correct because my observation is that it would be entirely wrong to assume Christian religious beliefs to be universally and unanimously held by all people today crusading for the cause of Britain and the White Race. Among these people there is a varied cross-section of views on religious matters, and I think that SPEARHEAD should reflect that variety of opinions.

And surely it should not be the attitude of anyone holding to any particular religious opinion that their faith should be shielded from all critical scrutiny. The test of a strong faith, whether religious or political, is its ability to stand up to such critical scrutiny and the ability of its advocates to answer criticism by the force of superior argument. In this regard I would permit myself an observation: it is that it is not the tendency of non-Christians among our readers and contributors to object to the publishing by us of pro-Christian views; on the other hand, it is the tendency of some Christians to express indignation to me that religious views opposite to their own should ever be allowed to see the light of day in SPEARHEAD and to demand that in future they be suppressed! Those who maintain such an attitude on their part — the intolerant inquisitors of the political left who demand that, for instance on the subject of race, there will only be one permissible view: their view!

It might of course be argued — and it sometimes is argued by our readers — that in the light of the extreme sensitivity of the religious issue and the deeply held convictions of many people on that matter it would be better that SPEARHEAD should not venture into the debate on Christianity at all but should concern itself solely with political subjects or other subjects not liable to involve such heated controversy. I have at times given very careful consideration to such a policy but in the final outcome I do not believe that it would be a practical one, or an honest one, in the climate of the present day.

The central fact of the present day, which we must recognise is that the Church has, whether rightly or wrongly, become intensely political, and has involved itself deeply in practically all the issues with which our magazine deals and on which it has taken a strong stand. I do not think that even you will disagree with me when I say that this involvement has been an almost universally onesided involvement in which the Church has allied itself with the enemies of our race and nation, as well as with all the disintegrating tendencies in our society, i.e. subversion, marxism, liberalism, permissiveness, etc., which are weakening the moral fibre of our people.

To those who say that we should not bring the Church or Christianity into political controversy, I have to reply that the Church and Christianity have brought themselves into political controversy and that, having done so, they can hardly complain if they get scalded by the flames! I would have been happy to abide by the adage that one should render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and render unto God the things that are God's — if Christianity had itself chosen that policy and kept out of politics. Because the Church and Christianity have opted to get very much into politics, there just is no way in which great political issues can today be discussed without the Church and Christianity coming into the discussion.

I am the first to appreciate that a great many Christians, perhaps the majority, do not identify or align themselves with their Church's role in these matters and would maintain that it is not Christianity itself that is wrong but merely the fact that its institutions have been infiltrated and subverted.

That is certainly a view which deserves a hearing — and frequently gets just such a hearing in our columns.

There is, on the other hand, another view of the matter which is held, perfectly sincerely, by many people involved in our struggle. This that for the present-day infiltration and subversion of the Christian Church by our enemies to be so nearly universal and complete there must have been certain fundamental weaknesses in both the structure and doctrine of that Church in the first place, and that these weaknesses should be frankly examined and freely discussed. If the fundamental faith of the Church is strong, it should not suffer but should indeed gain from such examination and discussion.

Inevitably, this process is at times going to involve giving an airing to opinions on the part of some which others will find repugnant. This, however, can be said to operate both ways. There are non-Christians among our readers who experience a certain repugnance at opinions expressed by Christians. As I have indicated, however, none of these readers who find Christian views repugnant have demanded that they be banned from our columns.

From indignant Christians, on the other hand, I tend to get letters very often that are long on epithets and abuse but short on arguments and facts. As just one example, some four years ago an article we published that was in some ways critical of Christianity drew an indignant letter from one reader, who said that the author of the article had a "tiny and uninstructed mind." In fact the man to whom those words referred is a man of vast knowledge and erudition and one of the outstanding intellects of this age. On the subject in question he may have been wrong — that is not something that I propose to argue over here — but to describe his mind as "tiny and uninstructed" is, apart from being an unnecessary insult, laughable to anyone with any knowledge of his intellectual accomplishments.

I have always felt that in debate over Christianity I should give free expression to the different opinions held by our readers and contributors — with the idea in mind that people may form their own conclusions on the matter by the exercise of their own common sense. Is that not a more mature way to deal with the issue than present one side while censoring the other? To my mind, the ultimate insult to Christianity would be to build a protective wall around it shielding it from any critical comment, while the ultimate insult to Christians would be to place them in a position in which they were assumed to be incapable of defending themselves through the merits of their own arguments.

In the specific case of the Klassen article, I have made it clear in correspondence following that article that I am willing to publish an article written from the opposing (i.e. pro-Christian) point of view and in a manner severely critical of Mr. Klassen's theories. As I write this letter, I am expecting two articles on this theme that I have been promised by two separate writers. Knowing one of these writers to be a fair-minded man and one of unbogoted disposition, I am confident that his contribution will be presented in a spirit of friendly debate. That is the way I want to keep it.

THE THREE BASIC BOOKS OF CREATIVITY

NATURE'S ETERNAL RELIGION

508 Pages, 49 Chapters

by Ben Klassen, P. M.
Published in 1973

This book for the first time in history sets forth the fundamentals of a basic RACIAL RELIGION for the Survival, Expansion and Advancement of the White Race. It is based on the Eternal Laws of Nature, the Experience of History, Logic and Common Sense.

It exposes the whole panorama of the dastardly worldwide Jewish conspiracy, aimed at the genocide and extermination of the White Race. It lists the five Jewish books that have had devastating influence on the thinking and course of the White Man's history.

Best of all, it not only sounds the alarm, but blueprints a specific plan and program of how to extricate the White Race from its present predicament. It presents a EUGENICS program for the future of the White Race to uplift it to the glorious heights of the Superman and beyond.

SALUBRIOUS LIVING

244 Pages, 22 Chapters

Written by Arnold DeVries with introduction and the last chapter concerning, "Eugenics and Survival of the White Race" by Ben Klassen, P. M.

Published in 1982

The phrase and the idea, "Salubrious Living," was introduced in The White Man's Bible. This third "Bible" of our Trilogy rounds off the basic creed of "A Sound Mind, in a Sound Body, in a Sound Society, in a Sound Environment." That is the heart of CREATIVITY.

THE WHITE MAN'S BIBLE

451 Pages, 73 Chapters

by Ben Klassen, P. M.
Published in 1981

This book expands and extends the Creed and Program of CREATIVITY and includes the following:

*Goals for the World of the Future from the White Man's point of view.

*Nine chapters on Salubrious Living — how to regain superhealth and keep it.

*Restoring the White Man's control over his own destiny — in religion, government, education and culture.

*How to stop the racial pollution or America and in fact, reverse the process.

*This book establishes a Powerful Religious Creed and Program for the Survival, Expansion and Advancement of the White Race.

*It proclaims our FOUR DIMENSIONAL PROGRAM.

*It sums up the Total Program, the Final Solution and the Ultimate Creed based on the Eternal Laws of Nature.

New Book!

THE LATE GREAT BOOK — THE BIBLE

By Nicholas Carter

Hilarious! More laughs than a barrel of monkeys. At the same time, it is extremely well written and contains a wealth of information about the fraudulent misinformation that has been dumped on the White Race by that destroyer of civilization and persistent parasite — the Eternal Jew.

Completely compatible with Creativity and does much to confirm our position regarding Christianity and our racial creed.

Must reading!

RAHOWA!

actively, morally and physically collaborated with this vicious vampire to help devour our own kind — The White Race — Nature's Finest. In this respect, I want to remind the White Chicken of what happened to some of our chickens on our farm in Canada. After their head was on the chopping block, they had very little control of their future. (Read again, "Make Hay While the Sun Shines", in Racial Loyalty No. 13)

Whether you like it or not, there is no place to hide, says the Jew (and they have Ronnie repeat it for them, because his trained election is so good.) As the Jew smirks when he says that, he is not talking about the Arabs, he is really talking about the White Chicken. He is talking about you. What he has in store for the White Race, can be pretty well screened as a preview of coming events if we study the happenings in San Domingo (today's Haiti) starting approximately 200 years ago. If you want to know what the Jewish script writers have in mind for (formerly) White America, read again Chapter 30 of the White Man's Bible, entitled "The Grisly Lesson of San Domingo — A Forerunner of White America." You might follow that up by again reading Chapter 35, in the same book, "Unrelenting Warfare between the Parasitic Jews and their Unfortunate Victims."

Whether you like it or not, my dear White Racial Comrades, you are locked into a vicious racial war, whether you realize it or not. The Jews have decided for you, they have locked you into it, and you cannot escape it. You are trapped, you are cornered. There is only one way out: fight your way out!

Rahowa!

The Moslems have a word for it and have utilized it effectively for centuries. It is called Jihad, and means a holy war in the name of their religion, Mohammedanism. When they have invoked it, it has worked wonders.

Now the White Race has its own term for this phenomena. We coined it only a few months ago (See Page 5 of Racial Loyalty No. 32). It is called RAHOWA! and is the official battle cry of both (a) our religion, Creativity and (b) of our race. It means we have identified our enemies, and we are going to nail them to the wall. And who are our enemies? There is nothing vague about that either. All the mud races are our deadly enemies for space and survival on this Planet Earth. But by far the most voracious, the most ferocious, the most deadly, is that foremost parasite of all, the Jewish network.

Planned and Deliberate.

We must be just as determined and as ruthless as the Jews are today, and have been for thousands of years. We, too, must polarize around our own hard-hitting, no holds barred racial religion. (a) We, too, must organize our own defense corps, in every city town and village. In Creativity we have already suggested such a security army, and want to model it in the format of the racially belligerent esprit de corps of the Texas Rangers during the middle of the 19th century. (b) We, too, must set up an intensive intelligence network, to not only know who our enemies are, what they are doing and/or about to do, but also to ferret out the racial traitors in our own ranks, and let them reap their just desserts. (c) We must get our own Racial Loyalists running for political office and place them in positions of power, either covertly, or by open election. (d) We must build our own conveyor belts of information and mass means of propaganda dissemination.

The Mossad.

The Jews have had the foresight to provide for all these measures in order to expand their powers for centuries. Since the creation of the (bandit) state of Israel, they have greatly amplified and expanded these means. One of the most deadly organizations they have put together is the Mossad in the tradition of the murderous terrorists gangs of the Stern gang, the Palmach and the Irgun Zvei. It is an organization that is not only the world's largest and most effective intelligence gathering network, but also the most massive collection of the world's most ruthless and bloodthirsty killers. They now have the run of the world, especially running rampant in the United States, to ruthlessly commit terrorism, mayhem, and murder.

A great deal of publicity around the world today is being devoted to terrorism to the point where Americans are afraid to even travel to Europe. President Reagan has just recently attended a conference in Tokyo where terrorism was the main subject on the agenda. While blaming the Irish Republican Army in Ireland, or Kaddafi, Yasser Arafat, the P.L.O. and various other Arab groups, what the President and the Jewish newsmedia are not telling us is who the real culprits are. The answer to this question is not an unsolved puzzle. The overwhelming number of these capers such as the blast at the Berlin Disco, or the bombing of a cafe in Paris, the Achille Lauro affair, when investigated in depth can be traced to none other than that bloody gang of killers, the Jewish Mossad itself.

They are best equipped to do the job secretly, expertly and devastatingly. Most of these acts accrue to the benefit of the Jewish cause and the detriment of the Arabs or the White Race. After such terrorist act has been committed, of course any idiot can call in anonymously and say we the PLO, or the IRA claim credit, and the newsmedia will then cooperate profusely to spread the word and Reagan will get up on his hind legs and do his part in saying something to the effect that "we have incontrovertible evidence" that the act is "linked" to Col. Kaddafi, etc., but the American public is never shown any real evidence. Of course, the Mossad, the real culprit, is never mentioned. But it is the Mossad that does the job in the majority of cases, and the Jews are made to seem the innocent victims.

Right now, as if the script had been written in Tel Aviv, (or Hollywood), we predict that when the President returns from Tokyo we can expect a wave of bombings to break loose in Washington and the United States. Kaddafi will be blamed but the slimey hand of the Mossad will be evident.

Racial Warfare unto Death.

We must meet fire with fire, and protect our own. We must build up our own forces and, as Hitler said, meet force with force. Not only meet it, but do what we are fully capable of doing, meet it with SUPERIOR FORCE, and smash the monster to smithereens. We must build a security force, an elite commando force, that will far outnumber the Mossad, and be just as ruthless in liquidating it.

The day might soon come when legal and peaceful means, as we have committed ourselves to in the past, may well no longer be available to us. We must then pursue the only course open to us, and do what any proud, honorable and resourceful race is duty bound to pursue, namely use any means, legal or otherwise, available to us for our own survival. This will mean ruthlessly hunting down our tormentors, and wiping them out, collectively and wholesale, or individually and one by one. When and if this stage arrives, (and we can well expect that our Jewish tyrants will push us to the limit,) then we must again plan our actions accordingly — and deliberately, carefully and ruthlessly. One thing we must make sure of, and that is that we use our resources of manpower effectively. Instead of blundering into one botched up debacle after another, where one of the enemy costs us 20 or 30 of our most militant fighters, we must make damn sure from here on in that for every one White warrior that is sacrificed, we destroy 20, or 50, or 100, or 500 of the enemy.

Let us play White Chicken no more. No matter what you do in this chaotic world, you can't pay it safe. No one gets out of this world alive. We all have to go sometime. What is at stake is our future progeny — our gene pool — our race. It, too, is perishable, if we are cowardly or careless, or it can endure for millions of years (as did the dinosaurs.)

We must proceed in a planned and deliberate program of blueprinted warfare to get this deadly parasite off our backs and take charge of our own destiny. Like the Jews, we must select our priorities, then proceed in a well-structured battle plan to demolish our enemies, one by one, step by step. When engaged in warfare, no half-baked measures will do. Victory, as soon as possible, is the only solution.

In Creativity, we already have such a program. It is clearly and specifically spelled out, program by program, priority by priority, step by step. Let me briefly recapitulate these steps.

1. First we must straighten out the confused, suicidal and scrambled thinking of the White Race itself.

2. This must be done by replacing the suicidal religion the Jew has foisted on the White Man's brain, namely Christianity, by a militant, yet logical religion, dedicated to the survival, expansion and advancement of our precious race.

3. We must then arouse and unite all our White Racial Comrades on a worldwide basis, polarized them into one mighty battering ram and first of all, Priority No. 1, smash the Jewish behemoth.

4. From thereon out, the rest is easy. We will then be able to control our own affairs, our own destiny, our own government, our own finances, our own education, and all the rest of the accoutrements that go to make up a brilliant, prosperous White society.

The rest of the mud races will then be of no particular problem, though they outnumber us 20 to 1. All we will then have to do is have the good sense to stop feeding and subsidizing these hungry freeloaders and they will wither on the vine and quietly shrink back into oblivion (Read again Racial Loyalty No. 30, "A Planet Devoid of Mud Races.")

We now have the means, we have the intelligence, we have the numbers. We now also have the religion, the program (See Page 401 of the White Man's Bible, "Our Unswerving Program") and the fighting word to do the job. We are determined to meet Fire with Fire. RAHOWA!

The Great Aids Hysteria

How This Phony Disease Is Now Used By the Medical/Drug Complex as a Vehicle to Scare and Exploit All Americans

by T. C. Fry

Newspapers, TV, radio — in short, the media has been and is whipping the American populace into a frenzy about the new non-disease called Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, popularly known by its acronym, AIDS. And the American people are buying this commercial propaganda hook, line, and sinker, including a lot of people who should know better.

This frightful and terrible new "disease" is said to kill half its victims. Indeed, half the reported diagnoses are post-mortem. In fact, that's the way the Center for Disease Control sprang this dreadful new disease upon the American people — as a detective story into the deaths of homosexual Haitians.

That the whole fabric was a contrived tool to alienate homosexuals from the community at large and destroy the gay rights movement was palpably evident almost from the beginning. In the 1983, issue of (Healthful Living), I wrote an article entitled "AIDS: A Case Study in the Invention and Promotion of a Phony Disease."

Since its introduction, this "disease" has been diagnosed as having hit 12,500 "victims," mostly homosexuals.

At this point, let's reflect a bit. In 1983, when I published my article, only 2,000 cases had been diagnosed into existence. Since then, as more and more physicians "get with it," 10,500 more cases have been diagnosed. Of course, they'll be diagnosing more and more to fulfill the predictions made for this disease — you can't scare people much unless you have a specter of a rampant new disease that's going to destroy them or their well-being.

What are your odds of being diagnosed as having AIDS?

If you're a homosexual and submit to a physician who knows this, your chances at this time are about a tenth of 1 percent in any given year. However, as this new drug/medical tool is now being aimed at the American people in general, your chances are about one in 200,000 or one 2,000th of one percent. Or, in a lifetime of 80 years, your chances are only about one twenty-fifth of one percent. Even if AIDS was for real, would you let those odds worry you? If you live healthfully, your chances are zero percent.

How does that compare with some very real odds against you? Your chance of having cancer is nearly 30 percent! Your odds of having deadly heart/cardiovascular disease is about 50 percent! Aren't these the kind of odds that you should concern yourself with?

This media-generated hysteria on behalf of the medical/drug industries is laying the groundwork for new areas of exploitation. You can expect to see a lot of "preventive" drugs and new courses of treatment. Especially will you see new vaccines to combat this raging enemy.

You can be sure that this will be parlayed into a multi-billion dollar affair. Already researchers are importuning the government for grants to investigate this so-called disease. That could turn into a billion-dollar boondoggle all by itself. The government has poured in excess of ten billion dollars down the cancer research rathole and, as you know, there's no solution in sight. And there won't be. To find the answers would end the field for the research windfall. The technique is to shower the press with "findings and promises" and let them be eclipsed among a new welter of "findings and promises."

EDITOR'S NOTE: In case anyone gathers the mistaken impression from this article that it is in defense of homosexuals, let us make it clear that it is not. The C.O.T.C. considers homosexuality a disgusting, unnatural lifestyle, and an abomination against Nature. The whole point of this article is that the Jewish Medical/Drug Complex is setting up the public to again become its patsy.

When the Center for Disease Control orchestrates the media to spend hundreds of millions of dollars to publicize such a myth as AIDS, you can be sure there are ulterior motives — that there is something heavy in the offing.

We know, from publicity, that some pharmaceutical firm, probably one from the Rockefeller complex, will be presented in shining armor as humanity's savior with a new vaccine that will end the horrible scourge of AIDS. Of course it's going to be easy to save America from a disease that never existed in the first place. When the AIDS vaccine hits, you can be sure AIDS will disappear from the scene as polio did — CDC will orchestrate a return to diagnosis of AIDS as cirrhosis of the liver, pneumonia, diarrhea, leukocytopenia, fever, abnormal weight loss, "infection," etc. Only we'll continue the vaccine as the polio vaccine continues "to make sure AIDS stays wiped out."

You probably think I'm off my rocker telling you AIDS is a phony. It's a hundred times easier to create fears and play upon them than to generate knowledge and the confidence it begets. So why should you accept the obvious truth elucidated in this issue about AIDS? After all, isn't this disease killing thousands? Didn't Rock Hudson die from AIDS?

Let's examine the disease and appellation called AIDS — it is rather obvious the name was conjured up with this acronym in mind. Actually, Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome is an absurd name. Acquired means something you obtain or get through effort or office. In this case it is used as something you inadvertently catch as the price for iniquity. This was meant to apply to homosexuals. Just as herpes genitalis is ballyhooed as the badge of iniquity for being a swinger, so, too, homosexuals must bear the iniquity of AIDS as a badge for the aberrancy.

As to what was acquired, AIDS existed three years before anyone bothered to ask what was being acquired. At first the modus operandi of acquisition was said to be homosexual acts or contact. As homosexuality is obnoxious to the general population, we didn't ask serious questions — we bought the evil fruit aspect of the thing. We were horrified, and we condemned homosexuality. But, to give some credence to the disease, a culprit had to be found. So, in 1984, an "elusive" virus was blamed as the cause. That's like saying "evil spirit," for, as malevolent entities, viruses are pure myth. Those particles of DNA called viruses are nothing more than mitochondrial debris from expired body cells — daily we lose hundreds of billions of cells from our organism of 75 trillion — most of this cellular loss is replaced.

Now that a destructive and malevolent enemy has been pronounced the villain — an enemy that transcends all and afflicts the moral as well as the immoral, the stage is set for general public hysteria as a buildup for the entry of all sorts of products on the scene, especially vaccines.

The media has been orchestrated by the CDC, an agency that is little more than the prostitute of the drug/medical/hospital monster, to create the preparatory hysteria for this heinous sales campaign. With an atmosphere of little AIDS beasties on the loose that can get anyone, it'll soon be time for the arrival of a vaccine which hordes of Americans will rush to "acquire" just to be "safe and sure."

Because of the nature and role of disease, it is impossible that it be passed along or "acquired" through common practices. (Oh yes, you can be injected or transfused with toxic substances which will result in untoward symptomology.) Contagion is popularly subscribed to even though it is pure superstition from the dark ages. The medical/drug establishment uses this voodooistic belief as a lever to make us customers for their life-sapping products.

Let's now get to the word immune as employed in the term. The word immunity means: Exempt; not liable; safe from prosecution, reprieve, etc. It means having special privilege or dispensation for acts of wrongdoing. That any such freedom from acts of transgression exists in all Nature is pure absurdity. That we can be made "not liable" for wrong acts in the physiological domain is sheer voodooism.

Remember the Church of the Creator in your Will.

In the case of AIDS the word immune is employed to mean our defensive mechanisms, foremost of which are lymphocytes and leukocytes. Prior to AIDS, a sub-normal count of white blood corpuscles was called leukocytopenia or lymphocytopenia. Now, four years after its debut, this is one of the primary symptoms of AIDS. A virus is said to destroy our ability to create these defensive faculties. But this is all fancy. A bumbling M.D. recently investigated a number of AIDS victims and said that most were on drugs, including medically-prescribed ones. He merely highlighted what we already know — drugs are highly destructive of human faculties, especially defensive faculties such as lymphocytes, leukocytes and their generative faculties in bones and the lymphatics. It is the role of these defensive mechanisms to proliferate when poisons are present in the bloodstream and lymph. They surround and capture the offending substance and carry it to the
