JFK slaying

by Ben Klassen, P.M.

This is a repeat of our article in R.L. No. 46 which we printed in January of 1989. Since the movie JFK has come out there has been a tremendous renewal of interest in the government (Jewish) cover-up at the time. Anyone seeing the three hour movie, as did I, can come to only one conclusion — and that is the one we came to in RL 46, namely the Mossad did the assassination job — the Jewish government (JOG) network did the cover-up. Unfortunately, the movie stops just short of saying so.

No big mystery to those who understand the murderous MOS-SAD, the nature of the sinister Jewish power establishment behind it, and to those few of us who have the guts to tell it as it is.

Last November 22, my wife and I celebrated our forty-second Wedding Anniversary, and we did so in the company of our children and grandchildren on a special vacation at Disney World. On that same day the world widely acclaimed and publicized the anniversary of the criminal assassination of the then young and glamorous President of the United States, John F. Kennedy, shot down in cold blood in the streets of Dallas 25 years earlier. Numerous feature articles appeared in newspapers, tabloids and on television screens commemorating that fateful day. But after 25 years, the mystery of who shot Kennedy on November 22, 1963, seemingly still remains unsolved and beclouded. Numerous theories, mostly bizarre and off the mark, still swirl around that historic and dastardly deed.

I remember that day well, as undoubtedly do millions of others who were then old enough to realize the shock and impact of that foul crime. When my 12 year old daughter came home from school that day, the first thing she said was "Boy! Those Republicans don't fool around, do they?" True, her assessment may have been premature and somewhat naive, but perhaps no more so than the numerous theories and conclusions floating around in the minds of the vast majority of the American public today, and certainly it was no more wild than the official conclusion put out by the Warren Commission that was quickly set up to whitewash and confuse the whole criminal affair. After months of "investigation" the commission managed to so contrive the "evidence" that it would support the conclusion they wanted to project even before they started the expensive and long drawn out probe — namely, that it was nothing more than one lone, erratic nut — Lee Harvey Oswald — who did the job, all by his impulsive little lonesome.

Despite the massive propaganda barrage that the Jews have slopped on us for the last 25 years, the American public and the world at large still won't buy that ridiculous explanation. In fact, at the time of the 25th anniversary in 1988 there was not only widespread coverage recalling the event, but there were also a number of public opinion polls taken as to what the public believed or did not believe about the Warren Commission's official verdict. The Orlando Sentinel ran one such poll in their program called "Sound Off." Of the 2039 callers who answered their key question — Did Lee Harvey Oswald act alone in assassinating President John F. Kennedy? — 1890 callers (93 percent) said they did not believe it. This was 25 years later, and after the prestigious Warren Commission who had spent months of endless "investigation" saying that a lone nut was responsible and that was all — there was no conspiracy! When this did not wash with the American public, the Rockefeller Commission was set up later to again investigate and whitewash the same affair, to try to shore up the public confidence in the Warren lie. When this still did not do the job, years later the House Select Committee on Assassinations was set up, headed by a capable lawyer named Richard Sprague. When it seemed he might be coming too close to the facts, the CIA and FBI decided to have him sacked. The CIA took over and the cover-up of the crime proceeded to grind out the same impossible and ridiculously stupid conclusion as the Warren Commission. That the public still didn't believe it was shown by numerous polls conducted at that time and the ensuing years.

Today, after numerous books and thousands of articles and "documentaries" by the Jewish press, the public at large and the world as a whole overwhelmingly rejects the ridiculous conclusion that "there was no conspiracy," as is shown by the Orlando Sentinel poll (93 percent rejection) and numerous other polls.

Although the American public is extremely gullible and will swallow most of the lies slopped upon it by the Jewish propaganda machine (such as the Holofoax

Christianity vs. Creativity

by Rev. Eric Hawthorne

The fact that the White Race is in serious jeopardy of extinction can hardly be debated by rational men. There is no safe haven on this Planet Earth where Whites can flee the advancing hordes of mud races for long. Our population is rapidly declining, miscegenation is on the rise, and the mud birth rate is going through the proverbial roof.

Although it takes only a rudimentary understanding of mathematics to determine that we are in serious trouble, and although every White Racial organization recognizes this fact, there is much controversy as to how we got into this predicament — and therefore — no conclusion as to how we get out. The question that I am attempting to answer is: What weakness of character softened the White Race up for enslavement to the Jewish overlords, and furthermore, what ideological influences (or other factors) contributed to this fall from grace? There is a growing schism in the White Racial movement over this issue. We Creators believe that the determining factor has been, and continues to be, that certain form of dead red sea pedestrian worship called Christianity.

Many people that I have personally introduced to Creativity have initially reacted with a degree of confusion as to why we call ourselves a religion, when we exclude the reverence and worship of certain nebulous otherworldly life forms. "Isn't it part of a religion," they wonder, "to profess a belief in things that are not of this world?" This is a serious problem for the White Race, the fact that we have problems relating to and accepting a value system that does not offer the usual myriad of escape chutes, to allow ourselves to leave the pain of reality behind.

The nineteenth century belief that man craves to be dependent on a superior energy or concept of life is no longer convincing. Children need to be sheltered and protected from the harsh elements of this world, but as the child grows into adulthood, he desires to be freed from the shackles that bind his soul. He wants to be free: free to think and feel; free to act upon those feelings; free to accept the guilt for his failure or the praise for his success. The Christian only credits "God" or blames the "devil" for his fate. He bows down meekly before a mythical Jewish bastard and begs for help when faced with a challenge. On questions of values and morality, he resorts to a Middle Eastern text written by people who thought that the world is flat.

It is not the fact that Christianity has its origins in Jewish mythology that disgusts me the most, but the fact that it is a slave religion designed to attract the weak and make wimps out of formerly strong men. Everything that Christianity teaches reeks of depravity: the passionate longing for an "afterlife" that belittles the value of this world; the glorification of everything ugly and diseased in favor of that which is beautiful and healthy; the childlike relinquishing of responsibility to super-spooks that are in eternal competition for our souls.

Once a people become complacent to their fate, little can save them from a punishment of tremendous suffering. The mythological Christ figure of the New evidently the "official" Warren Commission lie is just too, too much even for the gullible American public to accept. And there is good and sufficient reason why such an outright and blatant lie cannot and will not wash, as we shall see. But whereas the American public will not buy the lone nut, no conspiracy story, it still remains hopelessly confused as to who did do it, and as to why Kennedy was assassinated.

Before we go into the who and the why, let us briefly review the known and accepted events of that fateful episode that in a few brief moments changed the course of American and world history.

On November 22, 1963 John Kennedy, in the company of his glamorous wife Jacqueline, was riding in an open motorcade through the streets of Dallas, ostensibly to shore up his sagging political image. As he was riding by the Dealey Plaza and past the Texas School Book Depository Building, at 12:30 PM, shots suddenly rang out. Governor John Connally, who was riding in the same car in a seat in front of Kennedy was severely wounded. John Kennedy, whose brains were blown out by one of the shots, was pronounced dead on arrival at the Parkland Hospital, to which the car was rushed.

Lee Harvey Oswald, a drifter and nonentity without means, had evidently been carefully coached and set up by the conspirators to play the part of the fall guy. He was seen running out of the Texas School Book Depository Building, and a Dallas policeman by name of J.D. Tippit, who tried to arrest Oswald shortly thereafter, was shot and killed in the act. Presumably he was killed by Oswald, but even this conclusion is questionable. Shortly thereafter Oswald was captured and taken into custody.

The Kennedy assassination cover-up is undoubtedly the most complex and pervasive Jewish hoax since Christianity and the Holohoax.

He was promptly questioned by seven FBI agents for 12 hours. Forty-seven hours after Kennedy was shot, while in the custody of Federal agents and being transferred in a passageway beneath the Dallas police building, Oswald himself was gunned down by a Jewish night club operator named Jack Ruby (real name — Jacob Rubenstein). This was done in broad daylight in full view of the television cameras, and thereby instantly was destroyed a highly visible but unstable key witness who could have shed considerable light on the conspiracy. He was, however, only one of 29 people who were connected with the conspiracy that were to die prematurely and violently under mysterious circumstances, as we shall see.

Lyndon B. Johnson, Vice-President under Kennedy, was quickly sworn in as President during the flight back from Dallas to Washington. Contrary to all legal procedures and to the laws of Texas, Kennedy's body was also flown to Washington and taken out of the jurisdiction of the Texas authorities. So too was the investigation of this foul crime. The now president Lyndon Johnson quickly curtailed the investigation and bypassed independent Texas authorities who had prime legal jurisdiction by appointing the Warren Commission as the sole authority to do the job. Seemingly this was done because the crime was of such magnitude that the usual authorities who should have had legal jurisdiction (the Dallas police, the State of Texas) were too minor to be entrusted with such a major crime. Actually, the real reason, as we shall see, was so that the cover-up could be contained and controlled in one highly selective package, a package carefully stacked so that it could be trusted to do just what it did do — not to investigate the crime at all, but on the contrary, cover it up.

The Warren Commission, headed by Supreme Court Justice Earl Warren, took over all aspects of the investigation and barred all other authorities who had prior and legal right to do so. In this it was backed up by the controlled Jewish press, by the FBI, and by the CIA. In fact, it became a willing tool of these latter two federal agencies and did as it was told.

The story of the cover-up was long and odious, and unfortunately, we cannot cover all the details of its many dubious procedures, nor can we fully review its preconceived conclusion that it contrived to report in thousands of pages. Let me repeat that after all the massive propaganda support it received, despite volumes of lies sworn to by the FBI and the CIA, the fact remains — that after 25 years, even a highly gullible American public does not believe the commission's ridiculous and impossible fairy tale.

Basically, the conclusions the Warren Commission reported were these:

- (a) There was no conspiracy.
- (b) Lee Harvey Oswald, a lone nut, did it all by himself. He fired all the shots that killed Kennedy and wounded Governor Connally from a sixth story window of the Texas School Book Depository building.
- (c) This consisted of only three shots fired from a Mannlicher-Carcano rifle made in Italy.

There is more, much more, thousands of pages of garbage, that is the story put out by the Warren Commission. It was the conclusion they were determined to foist on the public before they ever even started gathering "facts" and "information," and they stuck with it to the bitter end, either ignoring or twisting any evidence that did not fit their preconceived "conclusion." The story is so wild that it could easily fit into our series of "The Wildest Stories Ever Told." No wonder. The authors have a common mentor — the Jewish power establishment. Also, no wonder that after 25 years and massive doses of lies and propaganda the overwhelming majority of the American public still won't buy it.

Here are some of the strange and bizarre antics and episodes that occurred during this blatant crime and fraudulent cover-up.

- Although the alleged key culprit, Lee Harvey Oswald, was questioned by seven FBI operatives for 12 hours, the transcripts of the interrogations were burned and destroyed forever.
- Oswald was murdered within 47 hours of the assassination, by Jack Ruby, a sleazy pimp and himself a paid operative of the FBI. This he was ostensibly able (allowed) to do while Oswald was in the custody and "protection" of Federal agents.
- In order to make sure that Jack Ruby would not at some later date recant and spill the beans, he conveniently "died of cancer" while in prison awaiting trial.
- None of Oswald's fingerprints were found on the Mannlicher-Carcano rifle with which he was accused of shooting the president. Since he rushed out of the Depository building immediately after the president was shot, he would hardly have had the time to clean it up.
- Although Oswald was known to be a poor marksman with a rifle (several months earlier, April 6, 1963, to be exact, he had taken a shot at right-wing Maj. Gen. Edwin Walker and missed) yet the Warren Commission credited him with the miraculous feat of inflicting eight different wounds on President Kennedy and Governor John Connally within six seconds from a distance of more than 200 feet and at an angle that would have taxed the professional skills of even the world's most expert marksman.

- One of these bullets was credited by the Warren Commission as having followed this most amazing route: It supposedly went through President Kennedy's back and came out of his neck, then went through Gov. Connally's back and out of his chest, into the Governor's wrist and out of his wrist into his leg. Now, man, that is some shooting! Strangely, this same alleged bullet was then accidentally found lying on the floor of the Parkland Hospital where the victims were taken. When "discovered," this magic bullet was found to be clean as a whistle, unscarred and unmashed, even though it supposedly had traversed and shattered ribs, wrists and other bones in its most remarkable trajectory. Would you believe?

- The Warren report blandly stated that "no credible evidence suggests that the shots were fired from...any other place than the Texas School Depository Building." This despite the fact that the commission knew the names of at least 266 witnesses present at the scene of the crime. Of these 259 were able to testify before the Dallas police, the Dallas Sheriff's Dept., the FBI or the Secret Service. In the case of 68 persons interviewed or called as witnesses, the law enforcement interrogators "forgot" to ask where they thought the shots came from. Of the 90 who were asked this important question 58 said that the shots came from the grassy knoll (in front of the motorcade) and not from the Texas Book Depository Bldg. (behind the motorcade). Strangely, most of the 32 who disagreed about the shots coming from the grassy knoll were government officials, their wives, or aides. Nevertheless, even ignoring coercion or bribery of such officials, two thirds of the witnesses affirmed they believed the shots came from the grassy knoll in front of the motorcade, a very important piece of evidentiary information the Commission chose to completely ignore. We will have more to say about this later.

- There was one individual spectator, a man by the name of Zapruder who happened to film the motorcade at the time of the shooting, using an 8mm movie camera. Since this was hard evidence that could refute the conclusions desired by the conspirators, the CIA moved quickly to appropriate the film.

- LIFE magazine in its October 2, 1964 issue ran an article by then Rep. Gerald R. Ford (R-Michigan) who was a member of the Warren Commission. In this article, it ran eight pictures of the critical frames from the Zapruder film. In one issue frame No. 6 showed blood and brains spurting upward from the head of Kennedy. Evidently LIFE had committed an unforgivable error that could have run counter to the establishment's directive. The presses were stopped in mid-run and a new No. 6 picture was substituted, which merely showed the president slumped over. Someone from higher up evidently gave the order. When a keen reporter (who had a copy of both issues) years later tried to obtain an explanation from LIFE, the management blandly denied that there had been a switch or that there had been two versions.

- Nitrate tests exonerated Lee Harvey Oswald from having fired a rifle on November 22, but this evidence was suppressed.

- Oswald vehemently denied that he had shot anybody, but because he evidently had much more he could tell, he was quickly murdered and removed from the picture.

- Oswald was questioned by a federal agent back in August 1963, but the notes were later burned.

- X-ray and autopsy pictures of the dead president have been concealed from the public to this day.

- The Warren Commission claims that only three shots were fired and all came from Oswald's Mannlicher-Carcano rifle. Two of these shots were fired within 1.2 seconds (according to the Commission as evidenced by the Zapruder film). Officials of the Mannlicher Steyr factory in Italy found this most flattering, but stated that the time lapse between shots from their rifle had never been less than 2.3 seconds.

- When a newspaper in Spain (La Voz de Espana) printed that story and it was brought to the attention of the Senate Press Gallery, one of the pressmen (an agent of the CIA) asked if he could have the copy to photocopy it. It was "accidentally" destroyed.

Allen Dulles, CIA director during the Kennedy investigation is quoted as saying that, after all, the CIA would lie about anything, at anytime and to anyone.

- When the same individual who had dug up this issue tried to get another copy from the Spanish newspaper, he was told that they happened to have ample copies of every issue except that one particular issue. It had disappeared.

- During the Kennedy autopsy, his brain (what was left of it) was removed and placed in a stainless steel container with formalin. This chemical "sets" the brain tissue so it can be sliced and examined. It was placed in the National Archives, under lock and key.

Some years later, the neutron activation tests were perfected. These remarkable tests could accurately tell, for instance, by taking one hair from Napoleon's head how much arsenic had been given to him to cause his death. They could also tell whether Kennedy had been shot from the front or the back. When forensic pathologists went to the National Archives to try to conduct just such tests and settle once and for all the question of from which direction he had been shot, the JFK brain had disappeared from the archives. To this day, nobody knows where it is (officially).

That the conspirators were determined to suppress the real information at all costs was evidenced by the fact that it was apparently dangerous to know too much about the crime, should such people not be subject to control in cooperating in the cover-up. I have already mentioned that two people, Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby, met violent and untimely deaths. Both of them were part of the conspiracy, and neither apparently could be trusted not to blow the whistle. But they were only two out of a string of at least 29 people who had some knowledge of the conspiracy and who, over a period of years, died under mysterious and violent circumstances. These murders, too, had to be covered up in an ever widening circle of complications. That the conspirators, whoever they were, or are, have been able to successfully do so over the last 25 years proves more than anything else that the conspiracy is not only determined and pervasive, BUT ALSO TREMENDOUSLY POWERFUL. Here are a few of those that met with an untimely death because they knew too much.

- Dorothy Kilgallen, a nationally known syndicated columnist and television personality interviewed Jack Ruby during the latter's trial for killing Oswald. She then made the mistake of telling her make-up man that she was going to "break the Kennedy assassination wide open within five days." Three days later, November 8, 1965, she was found dead in her apartment.

- Gary Underhill, a CIA agent, told friends he knew who killed Kennedy, and that he was sure that they would soon get him (Underhill) also. On May 8, 1964 Underhill was shot to death in Washington.

- William Pitzer, a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy had photographed the military-performed autopsy of JFK's body. He told friends he had been ordered to keep quiet about what he saw and did so for years. Nevertheless, he was found dead with a bullet in his head on October 29, 1966.

- Carlos Prio Socarras, formerly a sometime president of Cuba and at one time a business associate of Jack Ruby, died on April 15, 1977, of what was declared "a self-inflicted" gunshot wound to the chest.

- Joseph A. Milteer, who was identified by Miami Police as a "right-wing extremist" was secretly taped by the Florida lawmen in which he accurately described how Kennedy would be assassinated. This he did 13 days before the event. On February 9, 1974 a Coleman stove blew up in his bathroom. He died two weeks later, but the mortician who saw the body said the burns were not sufficient to cause his death.

- David Ferrie was a CIA contract pilot who flew secret missions into Cuba. New Orleans D.A., Jim Garrison, in a trial, questioned the flier, implying that Ferrie had flown the real killers out of Dallas and into Cuba immediately after the assassination. On February 21, 1967, a month after the questioning, David Ferrie was found dead in his apartment, shot in the heart.

There are more detailed stories easily available of people who knew too much and consequently died an untimely, violent death under mysterious circumstances. However, we do not have the space here to further pursue each case. I believe, however, that I have cited sufficient examples to show that the conspirators, whoever they might be, are powerful, are ruthless killers, and will leave no stone unturned in suppressing any evidence which they suspect might surface to blow their conspiracy.

* * * * *

We now come to the heart of the story. Who might these conspirators be? We have clearly established that there was a widespread conspiracy, planned long before its execution on November 22, 1963. More importantly, the evidence further strongly indicates that there was a vast cover-up, and it, too, was meticulously planned long before the Warren Commission was set up to whitewash the real conspirators and blame the "lone nut," Oswald, as the culprit of the foul deed. That Oswald was a naive patsy, and a small cog in the operation, of that there is no doubt, but he was neither the main instigator of the huge plot, nor is it likely that he even so much as fired a shot. Then who did? Moreover, who was powerful enough to successfully carry out a pervasive cover-up that spread not only throughout the nerve centers of power in this country but even to the press and power centers of foreign countries as well?

There are any number of individuals or groups who would have had motives to kill Kennedy, and perhaps would also have had the means to do so. After all, any man, no matter how well protected, is vulnerable to the assassin's bullet, as has been proved more recently in that President Reagan was shot at and hit, as also was Pope John Paul II and a number of other highly protected individuals. From time to time, a considerable number have been mentioned as possible suspects of killing Kennedy, people and parties who had both the means and the motive:

- Fidel Castro, because there was information out that the U.S. was going to liquidate him.
- The Anti-Castro groups, because Kennedy betrayed them at the Bay of Pigs fiasco.
- The Kremlin and the KGB because of the missile crisis and other frictions, had both motive and the means.
- The list that has been brought up at one time or another is almost endless. For one reason or another the following have also been mentioned: the CIA, the FBI, Richard Nixon, Lyndon Johnson, H.L. Hunt, E. Howard Hunt, Howard Hughes, Aristotle Onassis, David Rockefeller, and even Jacqueline Kennedy.

Each one of these, it has been argued, could have conceivably had some motive to see him dead. There is one major test, however, that none of these could possibly meet, and that is the all-pervasive power in the press, in the political field, in the judicial field (and several other major areas) to plan and stage a successful cover-up, something the conspirators have more or less succeeded in doing for the last 25 years.

Who could possibly have the power to do this? Who could stop the presses of LIFE magazine in mid-run and change pictures? Who could yank the Supreme Court Justice out of his routine and put him at the head of a whitewash committee? Who could command the whole news media to consistently support a blatant and transparent lie claiming that there was no conspiracy? Who could tell the Mannlicher-Carcano Corporation and its employees, even in Italy, to keep their mouths shut? Who could possibly murder at least 29 other people who knew too much and get away with it?

The Spotlight, in a series of articles it compiled over a period of years and put together in a book called J.F.K. The Mystery Unravelled, asks similar questions, but then at the very end it gets cold feet and cops out by leaving the question unanswered, and thereby does not quite unravel the mystery. DeWest Hooker, who is credited with being the first to enlighten George Lincoln Rockwell about the evil ways of the Jew (see dedication of G.L.R.'s book, This Time the World), and was an early cohort of Willis Carto in their Nazi days, told me that Carto had told him that The Spotlight can use such terms as "dual loyalists," "Zionists," "Israelis," but had been forbidden to use the word "Jew" in reference to any culpability in any endeavor whatsoever. Who would have the power to tell Willis Carto and The Spotlight that they cannot ever under any circumstances accuse the Jews directly of anything?

Once presented with the voluminous evidence, a person would have to be a moron not to assign complicity in the JFK slaying to the MOSSAD and its concomitant Jewish network.

Why, who else but the Jewish establishment and the Jewish powerhouse itself. It is they who have the power to not only suppress any information they deem deleterious or harmful to their cause, but they can also spread wholesale all over the world any lie or set of lies they deem beneficial to their cause, and this they blatantly have done for centuries. The cover-up of the Kennedy assassination is one major example, but by no means the only one. The Six Million lie, the holohoax, is an even bigger lie they have successfully promoted, and communism and Christianity are two more gigantic Jewish lies.

The whole stance and position of The Spotlight is in itself a strange case in point. Whereas it proudly proclaims to print news that other papers (meaning the Jewish establishment papers) do not dare to print, it does in fact present a wealth of news on the many shady shenanigans the government and the Jewish establishment would just as soon the public did not hear. Many of these news items are directly aimed at our cozy relationship with Israel and how Israel is manipulating the United States and ripping off the American taxpayer. It has even run a powerful expose on the 1967 Israeli attack on the U.S.S. Liberty, and referred to it repeatedly, something the establishment press does not dare to touch.

But here is the strange paradox in The Spotlight's position. It will go so far in pointing to the Jewish stranglehold in America and the world, and then it will pull back. It will never say explicitly, loud and clear, THE JEWS ARE BEHIND IT. Dual loyalists, Zionists, Israelis, yes, but not Jews, per se. The Jews, on the other hand, blatantly accuse The Spotlight of being violently anti-Semitic, and The Spotlight will vigorously deny it, and so they play the game. The fact is, there are a number of Jews on The Spotlight staff. Their star lawyer, Mark Lane, is a Jew. So are Charles M. Fischbein, the Collier brothers, Alfred Lilienthal and others.

Mark Lane's and The Spotlight's treatment of the Kennedy assassination is a case in point. Mark Lane has written a major book Rush to Judgment on this heinous crime, and written several subsequent follow-up articles, as have others on the staff. Mark Lane makes it very clear that the Warren Commission lied to the American public, that there was undoubtedly a vast conspiracy behind it, and that the whitewash and cover-up were of unprecedented magnitude. Anyone with an ounce of reasoning would be led to the same conclusion as we have come to — but strangely, he does not. He concludes that it was the CIA, which as we all know is American, don't we? So the Jews, Israel, and the MOSSAD had nothing to do with it, right? But then, you wouldn't expect a Jew to blow the whistle on the Jews, now would you?

This is a last minute diversion that is typical of most of The Spotlight's reporting — point in that direction — then cop out in the finale. All of which raises the question — is The Spotlight controlled by the Jews, or isn't it? We believe it is. We believe it fits neatly into the class III journal category, the TRAP CLASSIFICATION, which is described in Protocol No. 11 of the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion.

The future despotic Jewish State will have three classes of journals that they will control. In the front rank will stand organs of an official character. These journals will always stand guard over the Jewish interests and they admit that, therefore, their influence will be comparatively small. In the second rank will be semi-official organs whose part it will be to attract the tepid and indifferent Goyim. In the third rank they will set up their own papers, but to all appearances they will be in opposition to their regime. This will

To Whom it may Concern:

Decline of White Culture

Dear Sir:

About two or three weeks ago I saw a short news feature on your church on one of the TV news magazines. I was able to catch your address from the announcer and subsequently dropped you a note requesting information on the Church of the Creator. To my surprise, a note sent to you simply in Otto, NC, was delivered and in yesterday's mail I received a packet of information from you, including your newspaper, Racial Loyalty.

I have read through the newspaper and the accompanying material that was sent. On the surface I have to admit that your Church and I seem to be in agreement on many of the topics that you discussed.

Like yourselves, I have noticed the declining stature of the White Race in America. This is not something that has just happened in the last several years, but has been a long and slow process that has been fostered upon unsuspecting Whites by Jews and blacks using traitorous Whites as their front men. We need only to look at the many programs forced upon our society by "liberals" who want to raise the "poor black man" up to the level of his White "brother." If it were not for the fact that such a move is not only biologically impossible but also unsustainable without outside stimuli, the entire idea of racial equality would be laughable.

Make no mistake about it. What we face in the near future is an out and out war along racial lines. We not only have to be prepared to face an enemy that we can identify by skin color or other racial (Jew) features, but we must also be prepared to do battle with those of our own race who have had their minds clouded by the propaganda of the Jew and the black. These "fifth columnists" will in the long run prove to be much more dangerous to our cause than the lower races. For in causing racially strong White persons to do battle with Whites that have become the dupes of JOG, the Jews and blacks will give the world the opinion that the White Race will have fallen into disarray among themselves.

Part of the task that I see before us is that the White Race must take a page from the book of the blacks. We see in American society how, supported by governmental payments such as welfare and the like, today's black will live off of the sweat of others, mainly the White man, and will reproduce more of the same kind. I do not for a moment suggest that White people should all suddenly go on welfare, but we must begin to get back to the basics and reproduce more of our own kind. This does not need to apply to the "liberal" element.

Too many people who share the same skin color and ethnic backgrounds as ourselves have already sold out to the JOG and are beyond salvation. Just because a person has the same skin color as you and I does not make him or her truly White.

There is one thing that we can know for sure — if things are allowed to continue in the future as they are happening today, the White Race in America, and anywhere else on the planet, cannot be long for this world.

Sincerely,
James J. Hogan

Shocked and Appalled

Dear Brother:

I have become shocked and appalled at the state of affairs in my country. There must be something people like us can do to help preserve our heritage, before it's too late.

Please send me as much information on your organization as possible. The time has come to change things for the better. When I look out of my window I get depressed. What about our children? Even now they're being brainwashed into believing liberal lies about equality. I eagerly await your reply.

Yours truly,

From the National Alliance

Dear Mr. Klassen:

Thanks for your hospitality last Sunday. I enjoyed meeting with you again after eight years.

It was inspiring to me to see the size and quality of your establishment. Now I am determined to set aside some time this year to finish many of the construction details which have lingered uncompleted here for so long.

I know that this is a difficult time for you. The failure of your plans for Rudy Stanko to shoulder your burden must have been very disappointing. I hope that you do not act too hastily now and put your faith in people unable or unwilling to carry on in the right direction.

Please be very careful during the next couple of months. There are people who, for one reason or another, will challenge you, and I am afraid that no good will come of it. The problem, in my opinion, is that none of the challengers will be able to do the necessary things to preserve and advance what you have built. Their challenges will only cause damage. I've survived enough of these mutinous conspiracies to know how to handle them, but they take a lot of energy out of a person.

I always have appreciated your work, even though your style is different from mine, because you have helped to move a substantial portion of the White resistance movement away from Christianity. In the past there was too much a feeling that one must at least pay lip service to Jesus, but your work during the past ten years has greatly reduced that feeling.

If things become more difficult during the next few weeks, please don't hesitate to give me a call. Actually, I hope that you will be able to visit Hillsboro soon.

Sincerely,
William L. Pierce
W.Va.

Light of Creativity

Dear COTC:

I would like to express my thanks to Jill and Jeremy VonRineman, our wounded warrior, for showing me to the light of Creativity.

With the help and hospitality of the COTC leadership in Otto, NC I have been converted to the one and only true White racial religion structured toward the survival, expansion and advancement of the White Race.

As a newly ordained minister of the COTC, I will dedicate myself to the cause and encourage others to join our movement.

I am moving my base of operations to Southern California to work with Jill and Jeremy and others that they have recruited, but I am willing to give assistance wherever it can be used for the good of the cause.

I think that your "little" newspaper is totally outrageous. You people are all self-centered and ignorant. What is wrong with Jews and Blacks? They're human just like the rest of us. At least they're different and don't have to follow in anyone else's footsteps to be the same.

I'm white and I'm not racist now and I don't plan on being racist. I have many "blacks" as friends and I don't treat them any different than I treat my "white" friends.

Excuse me but, maybe you people should pull your heads out of your butt and put it back on your shoulders where it belongs. Your paper isn't going to start anything except more trash for people to throw away.

I mean get real, its the 90's no one revolves around being racist, except the people who are jealous of people who are different in color, and to me you are those people.

Sincerely,

Creativity Replaces Christianity

Dear Mr. Klassen:

Its been almost half a year since I became a Creator, sorry I've been quiet so long. I would just like to say that it is the best thing that has ever happened to me. I was raised as a Christian and taught the lies all my life. Thanks to Creativity I'm learning the truth. Creativity is the only way to save the White Race and someday I'll be teaching my kids what an honor it is to be White. I also hope that I can make other White people realize what danger our race is in and that its their job to save it. In the meantime I will continue to fight for the White Race. Enclosed is a money order for $55.00, please send me the Eight Book Combination Package and use the rest as a small donation. Thank you! RAHOWA!

Creativity — the Winning Formula

COTC:

After searching through many organizations, unable to conclusively feel as though we were accomplishing anything substantial for the White Race, we are now proud to say that we are new members of a program and creed that will bring about the salvation and redemption of the White Race. As Creators we now know that we can give our all to a real movement that will stop at nothing until we have a Whiter and Brighter World. We are now working hard to start a strong chapter out here in Southern California. We have started recruiting many of our friends and distributing books. We have also directed some of our financial backers towards the Church. We hope to do our best to be an asset to the Church. Our hotline phone number is (818)546-5453.

Baby Boom

Dear C.O.T.C. Hq.

Recently on Feb. 3, Katrina Viganski and I had a bouncing baby Creator. His given name is Andrew Gunnar.

Andrew was created, (a ceremony set forth in Racial Loyalty No. 72) on Sunday March 20 at the Wisconsin C.O.T.C. Hq. The services were performed by Rev. Ken Zalubouski. Andrew became a card carrying member of the Church the day after he was born. He may possibly be the youngest member in the world.

Katrina and I plan to raise him with strict racial consciousness in the direction of the White Race and Creativity.

Tennessee Ally

Dear COTC:

I've been reading your publication Racial Loyalty and frankly I'm impressed. You, along with some other pro-White papers show just how corrupt our Jew-controlled government and all the niggers are! I live in Knoxville, Tennessee and the part of town I live in is now being overrun by niggers and Jews. I am proud to say I am one of the few people here who are trying to preserve the White Race. Although there are people around me who are trying to do the same thing, it seems there are still good White people who are not aware of what is happening to their race. I've been sending out copies of your paper along with various other pro-White publications with little response. But I am not giving up! I just wanted you to know I support you 100% and I always will. It's really hard to be a White racist woman, but I know it's hard for a man too.

Where I work, where I live, everywhere I go, I see our race being destroyed. But as I said, I am not giving up. Never will I turn my back on my race. And if you have any people in the area or anywhere close, (I know North Carolina isn't far from Knoxville) you are welcome to come down to visit. Just get in touch with me a few days in advance. I am an 18-year old girl. If you have any leaflets or some kind of information you could send me it would be very much appreciated.

Update from Sweden

Dear Creators:

The referendum in South Africa shows us all what Jewish trap "democracy" is. 1.9 million voters decide (after a massive anti-White reform campaign financed by foreign money powers, the state and rich Jews like Oppenheimer) that the other pro-White 875,000 Whites must accept an upcoming nigger government! What a joke if it wasn't such a tragedy. Tragedy because this was the last White bastion on the African continent. I called my friends in the Pretoria area and was informed that they do expect the worst. Lets hope the militants meet the biological enemy as Spartans rather than slaves.

From this to Sweden. When French revisionist Robert Faurisson arrived in Sweden a week ago the media immediately started a smear offensive against the poor guy. They called him "Nazi" and "liar" but refused to let him explain why he did not believe in the holocaust myth. He was later brutally attacked by left-wing thugs and mud races (his Arab host thought they could hold a meeting outdoors!). The newspapers are still writing fantasy stories about "they survived the death camps." This over reaction from the establishment indicates that they are losing ground for their myths even here in meek Sweden.

A letter of support for Faurisson was faxed by our COTC to a popular radio station — and they read it on the air!

Rev. Charles Altvater

Designated as the Next Pontifex

Televangelist Oral Roberts recently lamented that "Success without a Successor is failure." This is a self-evident truism. Oral is getting up into his seventies and knowing he is mortal as everyone else, he is intensely worried if anyone can carry on his job and keep the organization he has founded alive after his own demise. He also knows that chances are slim since he is running a con-game and it takes a special type of con man to keep it going. Such successors are rare.

In our own organization the situation is different. When Creativity was founded it was founded for a great and real goal — the survival, expansion and advancement of the White Race, a goal that every White man, woman and child is concerned about and will become increasingly so as the White Race is increasingly threatened with extinction. Our cause will persist and grow because we must now, in this decade fight and fight hard for our very survival. Unlike the Christians, we don't have to lie to anybody, or invoke ancient Jewish myths in order to further our cause. We have also provided for continuity that goes way beyond the life of the Founder. We have made provisions for providing a leadership training school and installing a new and dynamic leader every decade, on the decade. Our whole organization is based on the Leadership Principle as set forth in our creed and program.

After much deliberation, I have chosen Reverend Charles Altvater, from Baltimore, Maryland, as my duly authorized successor. His duties are to begin in the first week of May. The T.O.L. ceremonies (Transfer of Leadership) will follow at some convenient date a few months later, after a number of most urgent problems have been taken care of first.

Rev. Altvater has been a true and dedicated member and Reverend of our church for the last eight years. He has proven his loyalty and has many rare and outstanding abilities. He is a doer and he is a fighter, having the guts and the determination to fight for the forward movement of our church no matter what it takes. "Over my dead body" is his motto, as far as giving quarter to the enemy. He will need all the energy and fighting spirit he can muster in the days ahead, but we are confident that he will prevail, with the dedicated support of our growing membership.

We will not go into the Rudy Stanko fiasco at this point, who was originally picked, but at the last moment he informed us that he was going back to his home town in Nebraska instead. Perhaps it was all for the best. We might go into further details about the situation in a later issue, should circumstances so warrant.

Anyway, Charles Altvater will now be our prime leader. He is 30 years of age, in the prime of life, has given eight years of dedication, hard work and many contributions to the Church of the Creator. We have full confidence in him and wish him well. B.K., P.M.

WARRIOR RACE

A warrior race,
once long ago,
Wandered this land,
and they feared no foe.

Honor and courage,
was their main rule.
Never be weak,
or act like a fool.

Then a deadly plague,
came from afar.
And no one saw,
their life it would mar.

Depleting their will,
down to a few.
A terrible plague,
this thing called Jew.

With stealth and deceit,
wormed its way in.
Killing the children,
women and men.

Destroying their will,
strength couldn't show.
Preparing to land,
the fatal blow.

Only one race,
it wished there to be.
And all others,
mud people you see.

Breed out the whites,
yes! this was it's plan.
Rid of us all,
to hell and be damned.

Dilute our blood,
no warrior race.
Then the damn Jews,
have no one to face.

Destruction was nigh,
down upon our head.
Our warrior race,
just might have been dead.

But there was a chance,
that we could survive.
Warrior spirit,
was ours to revive.

And though we are few,
who have strength of will.
The battle we'll win,
this plague we must kill.

Nothing of worth,
has come from this race.
They're totally useless,
what a disgrace!

Ignorant and filthy,
obnoxious and rude.
Everything about them,
is smelly and crude.

Gave them their freedom,
what a great blunder.
Destroying our race,
tearing it asunder.

Gotten more breaks,
than any white man.
But the lazy coon,
still holds out his hand.

Envy our wealth,
our women so fair.
Ugly black bastard,
and his wiry hair!

Reason and wisdom,
they never will see.
Niggers are monkeys,
and always will be!

(a) trap their real opponents to accept this simulated position as their own. (b) They can lead the opposition opinion into the very channels to which they then desire, and thereby neutralize them.

In this regard Racial Loyalty stands nearly alone in category No. 4 — a journal which the Jew can't control, and truly loathes and fears!

Whereas The Spotlight is evidently (for obvious reasons) not willing to put the finger on the Jewish network for the assassination and cover-up of the Kennedy crime, we of The Church of the Creator come up with the obvious and only answer: The Jews planned the foul job, and their murderous band of bloodthirsty killers, the MOSSAD pulled the trigger or triggers that killed Kennedy.

* * * * *

Who or what is the MOSSAD? Most Americans have never even heard of it, and few even know it exists. It is therefore cogent that we expand here briefly on the nature of the Jewish MOSSAD.

The MOSSAD is, in a way, the Israeli equivalent of our CIA, but it is much more. It is the Jewish intelligence gathering arm, whose headquarters are in Tel Aviv, Israel, but their vast armies are spread into every country of the world. Like the CIA, they not only gather information relentlessly from every corner, nook and cranny of the world, but they also ruthlessly murder people they deem a threat to the Jewish conspiracy. They foment revolutions, hatch political plots, overthrow governments, assassinate key figures, stage commando raids where necessary, or organize revolutionary movements, all in the cause of the Jewish race. The CIA, or the Russian KGB do all these things also, but with this difference. Since the Jews control practically all the nerve centers of power throughout the United States and the world, so do the intelligence agencies of the United States collaborate with the MOSSAD. In short, the CIA and the KGB are adjuncts of the MOSSAD, with the MOSSAD firmly in control of all. The CIA feeds all important information it gathers not only into its own computers in Washington, but also into the huge bank of computers in Tel Aviv. So does the KGB, so does the British Intelligence, the German and the French. The MOSSAD gathers all, but it does not give any back. It is a one-way street.

In fact, the CIA and FBI are heavily infiltrated by, and staffed with MOSSAD agents. The MOSSAD also makes sure that their own agents are in every agency of the government, in the staff of every congressman and senator, and, in fact, every important nerve center of power.

In short, the MOSSAD is purely Jewish — loyal only to Israel and the Jewish race and the world wide Jewish conspiracy. It is the world's most powerful, most efficient gang of killers. Although, historically speaking, the name MOSSAD is of recent vintage, under other names the roots of these murderous brigades go far back in history. When the Jews describe the killing of 75,000 of their enemies in the Book of Esther, they were describing a typical MOSSAD operation, and they have been celebrating their PURIM every year ever since. Killing their enemies is what they mean by "having a good day." These killers run rampant throughout every country in the world, including, and especially, the United States. Our congressmen are acutely aware, and also deathly afraid of them, and for good reason, as are most personnel in the government's employ.

It is my unswerving conclusion that when the Jews planned to assassinate John Kennedy, it was the MOSSAD which did the job. They had their professional triggermen carry out the execution and do it right. They had their sharpshooters set up behind a stone wall on the grassy knoll in front of the motorcade and when Kennedy was in close range they let him have it from front and back and blew his brains out. That is why the Warren Commission repeatedly ignored eyewitness reports about the shots from and the activities on the grassy knoll. At the same time they placed Oswald in the School Book Depository Building to play the part of the fall guy, but you can be sure they did not leave the real killing job to a third rate bungler like Lee Harvey Oswald.

* * * * *

We now come to the question of motive. Why would the Jews want to kill Jack Kennedy?

When it comes to motives, I confess I do not claim to be a mind reader. We can only speculate, look at the ensuing events of history and come up with cogent reasons as to why they did what they did. With that as a basis I can think of several important reasons why they would want to see John Kennedy dead, and I will list them in what I believe to be their order of importance.

1. According to the Canadian Intelligence Service of September, 1988, Kennedy committed the most deadly of all crimes in the eyes of the Jewish bankers. He bypassed the Jewish Federal Reserve and issued government notes. He committed the same unforgivable sin as did President Abraham Lincoln a hundred years earlier and for which he, too, paid the ultimate price. In the complex cover-up of the Kennedy murder, history repeated itself and a strangely similar modus operandi was used as in the cover-up of the Lincoln crime some 98 years earlier.

On June 30, 1963, Kennedy signed Executive Order No. 11110, and further amended E.O. No. 10289 of September 19, 1951, thereby giving the President authority to issue the currency. He thereupon ordered the issue of $4,292,893,815.00. This was almost ten times as much as the $450,000,000.00 printed by Lincoln during the Civil War. He evidently forced then Secretary of the Treasury, C. Douglas Dillon, another name changing Jew (Lapowski?), to sign the United States notes. Shortly thereafter, on November 22, 1963, Kennedy paid the ultimate price and was shot, as was Lincoln.

The first thing President Johnson did when he flew back to Washington was to reverse this order. For good reasons this operation of printing U.S. notes (as mandated by the Constitution) has been shrouded in secrecy by the Jewish bankers, since, if it became general knowledge, it would blow the cover on the whole Federal Reserve scam. Even among racial and "conservative" circles there is much confusion and a general ignorance of this bold and monumental action. When I discussed this issue with Tom Metzger about a year ago, he vehemently assured me that he had thoroughly investigated this matter of Kennedy printing the notes, and that there was nothing to it.

However, we have the Executive Order number, the date, and the amount of the issuance, all stated above. Even more convincing, I have seen and personally held in my hand one of those U.S. notes — a five dollar bill.

2. The second serious infraction that Kennedy made in opposition to the Jewish conspiracy was his decision to end U.S. participation in the Vietnam fiasco before it had hardly begun, a move that angered the Jews, since they had planned an increasingly heavy, long term involvement in that stupid venture. Present on Air Force One with Kennedy on his fateful trip to Texas was Rep. Henry Gonzales of Texas. On March 21, 1988, Rep. Gonzales revealed a bit of significant past history in a speech before the House. Gonzales told that on said trip, Kennedy, as he rose to leave the (airplane) compartment, turned and said to him (paraphrased), "By the way, I have issued orders to pull all our military and their equipment from Vietnam, beginning this December." The Jews had different plans as we all know only too well. They planned to bleed the American treasury dry, to kill thousands of young American boys in the jungles of Vietnam and destroy American prestige and honor, what was left of it. All this they did with a vengeance. Kennedy was killed within hours after he talked to Gonzalez, and Lyndon Johnson, as soon as he became president, reversed that order, and used the Tonkin Gulf "incident" to vastly expand the ill-fated American presence in Vietnam. This insane war helped to put billions of profits into the hands of the Jewish war profiteers, at the expense of the world's foremost patsy, the White American taxpayer. (See "Operation Rip-off" our Booklet No. 103.)

3. The third reason the Jews had for seeing Kennedy dead was inherent in the whole Kennedy clan. They had all the characteristics necessary to build a powerful goy dynasty, and this the Jews feared from the time old Joe Kennedy began building his powerful empire. The Kennedys were extremely wealthy, they were numerous, they were clannish, and they were politically ambitious and aggressive. Joe Kennedy already had ambitions in the thirties of grooming his oldest son Joe, Jr., to become a future president of the United States, and Joe, Jr. was shaping up to become an ideal candidate, being considerably more articulate and charismatic than was his younger brother John. Unfortunately, Joe was killed while on a bombing mission during W.W.II. Routine casualty of war, or did the Jews plan it that way? We will never know, but Joe Jr. was out of the way, accidentally or deliberately. Joe, Sr. still had three more sons, and he next groomed son John, who, as we all know, by hook or by crook did become president in 1960. We also know that Bobby became Attorney General, and later Senator. Teddy as we all know also became Senator, and is still in the Senate today. The third generation of Kennedys are also entering the political domain, despite three violent deaths in the Kennedy clan.

There was one other thing that the Jews feared about the Kennedys. Although we have been told about their extreme liberal orientation in the Democratic party, essentially old Joe and his four boys were extremely well versed in the existence of the worldwide Jewish network and their string pulling. Although John feigned to go along with Israel and the Jews, it was not sincere, paying only lip service for political gain. The Jews, being well trained in detecting the innermost sentiments of their enemies since before the days of Esther, did not trust John Kennedy and feared the rise of a Kennedy dynasty that might turn on them at the earliest opportunity. In his decisions on Vietnam, on issuing U.S. notes without the benefit of the Federal Reserve and in his lukewarm support of Israel, John Kennedy was already beginning to display his rebellion against the Jewish powerhouse. Consequently Kennedy had to go, as five years later in 1968, did his brother Bobby, and Teddy, being of even more dubious moral fibre, is now thoroughly locked in their embrace.

4. Shortly before he was assassinated Kennedy made a speech to a group of Cuban patriots in Miami. In this speech he revealed that he had been betrayed and double-crossed during the Bay of Pigs invasion, that whereas he had ordered air cover, someone in the chain of command reversed the order at the last moment and left the Cuban freedom fighters to the mercy of Castro's militia. "We will have our revenge!" he is quoted as saying. The Jews, who put Castro in power in the first place, saw it otherwise, and were determined that Cuba remain in the Communist camp.

5. Back in 1963, before he was shot, John himself did not have the public image of being the great "hero" that the glitz and hoopla of Jewish propaganda has now, 25 years later, built him up to be. In fact, he was thoroughly hated and despised by many. After his Bay of Pigs debacle in Cuba, he was regarded as a wimp by many. After he used 20,000 army troops in strong-arm tactics to force one miserable nigger into the university at Oxford, Mississippi he enraged most of the White electorate and many people began to ask "Whose side is this damn fellow on, anyway?" His many extramarital affairs with prostitutes and other sleazy characters earned him nothing but disgust. Nor did his associations with the Frank Sinatra "rat pack" and Mafia characters win him any popularity ratings. The fact is while he was alive, he was becoming the laughing stock of the American electorate. A phonograph record put out by nightclub comic Vaughn Meader parodying the Kennedy family was rapidly becoming a runaway best seller, and the nightclub comedians, too, in general, were having a field day in which the Kennedys were the butt of their jokes.

What did all this have to do with the Jews? Well, a great deal. It was at this time, in the early sixties, that the Jews were getting their major onslaught into high gear to ram their plethora of "civil rights" legislation through congress, but with the unpopular image with which the Kennedy administration was now saddled, they were getting nowhere. All this changed overnight after he was shot. He now suddenly became a legendary hero, and the American nation not only was in shock, but somehow felt terribly guilty about his death. President Johnson (actually, the Jews) wasted no time capitalizing on this ridiculous guilt feeling, and "in the name of our martyred President," he and congress rushed through one civil rights bill after another, all designed to mongrelize and pump the black blood of Africa into the unwilling veins of White America.

Death penalty ruled out

JACKSONVILLE — Prosecutors won't seek the death penalty against an avowed white supremacist in the slaying of a black sailor, State Attorney Harry Shorstein said.

The decision announced Thursday means George Loeb will face up to life in prison with no parole for 25 years if convicted of first-degree murder in the May 17, 1991, shooting death of Petty Officer 3rd Class Harold Mansfield.

Mansfield, from Oklahoma City, was shot and killed in a Neptune Beach parking lot after police said he was involved in a racially tinged argument. Loeb, 34, was arrested a month later in New York.

Although a Duval County grand jury indicted Loeb on a first-degree murder charge, he claims the killing was self-defense.

Racist leaflets delivered to suburb

HARPER WOODS — A North Carolina-based white supremacist group with strongholds in three Michigan cities targeted this Detroit suburb with racist leaflets, sparking an outcry Saturday from residents

Dozens of tabloid-size newspapers titled "Racial Loyalty" were left after dark late last week on the driveways of homes in several neighborhoods by local members of the Otto, N.C.-based Church of the Creator.

The newspaper called itself the "spearhead of the white racial holy war." Inside, articles ran under headlines such as "What is the Matter with Being a Racist?" and "The Negro: Nature's Most Dismal Failure."

It also included numerous anti-Semitic references in columns and cartoons that espoused both racial and religious bigotry.

City Manager James Leidlein said Harper Woods police received several complaints about the leaflets, which listed a Wayne telephone number and post office boxes in Warren and Sterling Heights.

BEHIND THE SCENES WITH PEOPLE IN THE HEADLINES

Alderman vows snipers if voters snub him today

By Debbie Howlett USA TODAY

MILWAUKEE — Alderman Michael McGee fancies himself a modern American patriot, even if the south side of this hyper-segregated city doesn't.

"When Patrick Henry says give me liberty or give me death, it's patriotism," says McGee. "When I say it, it's scary."

McGee, a black man, faces four others in a primary election today where he's almost certain to win one of two spots for the April general election. Angered by a change in his district boundaries, he vows to ignite an urban race war if he loses today, or in April.

Young black men, McGee says, will take up posts on Interstate 43 and open fire at passers-by. Some residents met with local officials Sunday, demanding protection.

"They have nothing to fear from me," McGee said Monday.

McGee got his idea early this year when a reporter chided him about the possibility of losing. He fanned the flames a day later, saying his militia would target freeways and the Bradley Center sports arena downtown.

Mayor John Norquist, whom McGee once supported, calls it "hysterical rantings" and vows that any such attack would be "decisively met."

People outside the 10th district on Milwaukee's north side may see a wild man. But four years ago he got 82% of the vote in a district where 98% of the 39,000 voters were black.

In an area where average household income is $6,300 a year, McGee is revered.

"He's not a charlatan," says his friend and lawyer, Tom Jacobson.

'DRASTIC SOLUTIONS': Milwaukee Alderman Michael McGee, during a Jan. 16 news conference, promised to ignite urban race war if defeated.

"He truly is frustrated and trying to accomplish something for the most deprived members of our community."

McGee is prone to dramatics. He gained national attention in 1990 when he formed the Black Panther Militia. He threatened to mount a guerrilla war by 1995 if conditions in the inner-city didn't improve. He also:

► Brandished a shotgun at a news conference to prove he was serious about taking up arms. He says it was unloaded.

► Stormed the stage of Good Morning America during a live segment last May in Milwaukee, was arrested, but never charged.

► Forced the 1990 recall of 80,000 pounds of bratwurst and hot dogs made by Usinger's Famous Sausage. McGee says black militants phoned him to say they had spiked a batch with rat poison; critics say he made that up after Usinger's and other firms balked at his plan to rename a street for the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.

In recent years, Milwaukee has spent $25 million to build the Bradley Center and $17 million to assist the Brewers professional baseball team. McGee wanted the money for a jobs program for blacks, whose unemployment rate is 35%.

The city's murder rate — more than 160 people killed last year — is at an all-time high. Blacks make up a majority of the victims.

McGee also is upset that the Common Council — 17 aldermen, including three blacks — shifted the boundaries of his district so much that he lost 60% of his original constituency, and picked up middle-class suburbs where he is less popular.

He calls it a blatant effort to dilute the voice of the black community. But he shrugs off criticism he's really upset over reapportionment, which has left him politically vulnerable.

"This 'Keep-the-Dream-Alive' stuff has passed. We've tried non-violence and it hasn't amounted to a hill of beans," he says. "We need drastic solutions."

COTC believes non-whites should be shipped back to their place of origin

By Julie Stevenson and Carl Beery Staff Writers

Reverend Dan Hassett, leader of Missoula's local chapter of the controversial Church of the Creator, claims members of his group are neither Aryans nor Klu Klux Klansmen, rather racial separatists. The church's newspaper, The Racial Loyalty, has been circulating and causing debate on the University of Montana campus.

Hassett agreed to an interview in order to respond to the editorial by Jen Swartz that ran in the February 13 issue of the Sun Journal. History teacher Bob Womack sat in for part of the interview.

"People refer to us as white supremacists, and that is a false term," Hassett said. "Supremacists implies that we want to exploit other races. That is not what we are about. We believe in separation of the races."

According to Hassett, this is the fifth step in the Church of the Creator's five-step plan. According to him, the church first plans to "straighten out the thinking" among white people. Hassett said this includes educating the American people who have been brain-washed by what the terms the "Jewish education system and the Jewish media."

Secondly, the church wants to "wage propaganda warfare against the enemies of our race by electing our people into office and boycotting the Jews in business and schools, in the theatre, and in government," Hassett said.

Hassett said the fourth step is, "we pass laws such as in Nuremberg in Nazi Germany that prohibit Jewish participation. Then, after that, we ship them back to Israel."

Hassett indicated the church plans to continue this action with all other non-white races, including the Native Americans which would be "shipped back to Asia, where they came from."

"Out of all the creatures there are on the earth, the white race is by far the most productive, creative, and intelligent species," Hassett said. "The race is far better because of our gene pool. They make a big thing in sociology that everything has to do with environment and really underestimate the value of the genes. Our genes are our most precious treasure."

Big Sky biology teacher, Robin Anderson, said that there is no scientific evidence that distinguishes behavioral differences between races.

"No one has ever isolated the gene for being technological... It's impossible to separate the social setting and the genes for this. It is possible that someone may discover a gene for competitiveness or aggressiveness, but it is also possible to ask how do you measure the intelligence of someone. If you take a person from New York and a person from the bush in Zimbabwe, what test can you give them to measure who is more intelligent?" said Anderson.

Womack said he has dealt with people who hold views like the Church of the Creator, and said what the church is saying is the same thing as white supremacist groups.

"These people have basically grabbed onto something that makes them feel good," Womack said. "Instead of doing something constructive they make themselves feel good by putting other people down. It is the same old stuff."

University of Montana Professor of Native American studies Woody Kipp agrees. "Whenever you have an economic downfall, the white majority feel that jobs are being taken away from them by minorities," Kipp said. "White people have had the jobs for 500 years. In my point of view, maybe it is my turn to have a job and the white guy should be out of a job for awhile, bring him humility to understand where my people have been."

Church of the Creator leader Reverend Dan Hassett explains his controversial views. Hassett consented to an interview in response to an editorial that had appeared in the Sun Journal.

Cupid's Corner

One of the 16 Commandments of CREATIVITY states: "Be fruitful and multiply! Do your part in helping to populate the world with your own kind!"

Therefore, to bring eligible White men and women together and facilitate the accomplishment of the very important goal of White genetic procreation, Racial Loyalty has created a "White racial match-making service" which is called CUPID'S CORNER.

There has already been considerable interest among our members in taking advantage of our CUPID'S CORNER in finding an ideologically compatible life-partner for themselves, and we have received several inquiries.

We invite all White readers of Racial Loyalty (and especially White girls and women!) to participate in the White racial match-making service by writing to:

CUPID'S CORNER c/o Racial Loyalty
P.O. Box 400, Otto, NC 28763, USA

- 1..Include a recent photo of yourself.
- 2..Give most of the basic statistics: race, ancestry, age, sex, weight, height, color of eyes and hair, health, overall appearance.
- 3..Brief personal resume: level of commitment to the pro-White racial activism, ideological / political / religious convictions, education, job, hobbies, interests, talents.
- 4..Preferences about potential life-partners of the opposite sex with whom the writer would like to correspond.

These are some of the items you might wish to cover in the initial letter, but it is not necessary to go into too much detail. Keep it short and to the point. The essential information of your inquiry will be added to our match-making master list.

The ultimate objective of participation in the White racial match-making service — CUPID'S CORNER is, we hope, marriage and the founding of another White family.

The White racial match-making service — CUPID'S CORNER is provided free of charge as a special service to all White subscribers to Racial Loyalty.

White Men and Women, be fruitful and multiply! Do your part in helping to populate the world with your own kind! Rahowa! This planet is all ours!

(Disclaimer: Racial Loyalty encourages all participants in the White racial match-making service, CUPID'S CORNER to use caution and sound judgement in evaluating potential partners.

Racial Loyalty takes no responsibility for possible misinformation and/or mis-matches. "Caveat emptor!" Buyer beware!"

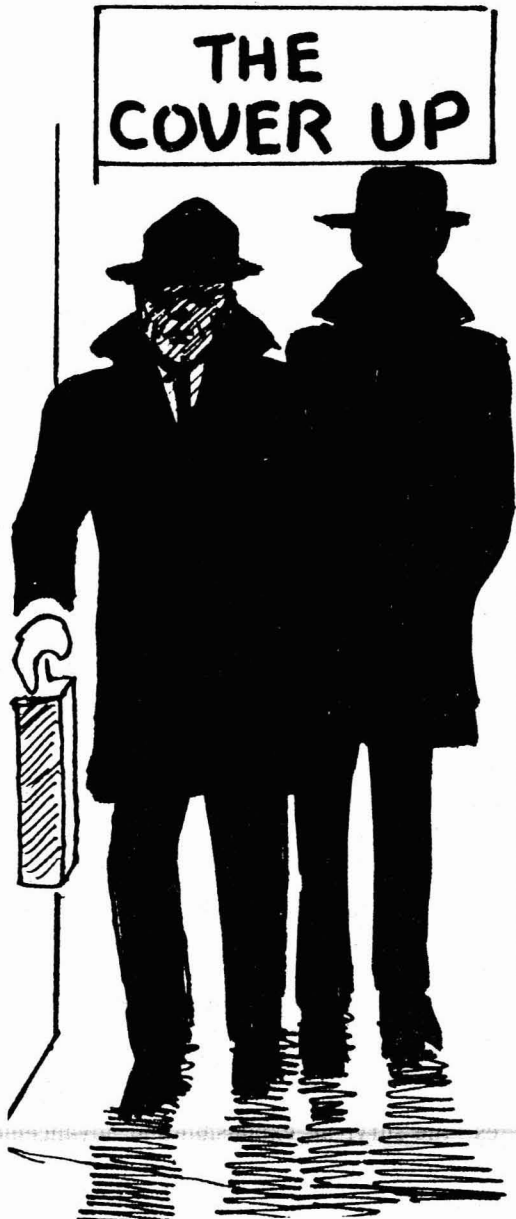

Important Note:

Dear participants in the White Racial Match-Making Service, please be patient!

It takes time and effort to develop a good match-making master list. The problem is that most of our responses are coming from men. But, we are sure, with time we will reach a more diverse group of eligible White people, not only in the U.S., but also Europe, Australia and South Africa.

THE MOSSAD KILLED KENNEDY

6. There was one other extra dividend the Jews reaped from this murderous affair. Whereas old Joe Kennedy (and the family) had a major grip on the liquor industry, especially the importation of Scotch whiskey, this now rapidly slipped out of their hands and to the benefit of the rival (Jewish) Bronfman family. Although it was not really a significant factor in causing Kennedy's execution, nevertheless, the Jews never miss a bet in cashing in financially.

So John Kennedy was murdered by a brigade of professional killers, the Jewish MOSSAD. Both the execution and the cover-up were planned months in advance by the only force in the world that had the pervasive power to draw on all its resources in the news media, the government and the judicial agencies, namely the worldwide Jewish network. Nobody else could have done it and made it stick, and that, my White Racial Comrades, is an obvious fact.

* * * * *

Such is the nature of our treacherous enemy. Unless we smash this rapacious beast it will certainly devour us all.

The only way we can stop the Jews from destroying the White Race is to smash this sinister behemoth to smithereens, once and for all, and the only way it can be done is with a superior and more powerful force than theirs. Let us remember that the Jews built their power network solely through the aegis of their racial religion. With 500 million White people on this planet we certainly still have the wherewithal to destroy this plague upon mankind, and with CREATIVITY as the rallying point we have the vehicle and the means with which to do the job. Do your part in building that power structure. Become a militant partisan, an activist Creator in the fight for survival, expansion and advancement. Become involved, heavily involved! Time is of the essence.

Creativity vs Christianity

Testament repeatedly glorifies the attitudes of children. "Thou shalt be more like the child, for the child is holy in the eyes of the Lord." What Christ is really saying is that only if you are as gullible and naive as a child could you possibly believe in his doctrine. The result: a complacent population of nameless, mindless zombies floundering around endlessly in an immense vortex that they neither understand nor observe.

We have all felt it at one time or another: the confusion over life's mysteries; the vexation brought about by pondering the endless dimensions of the universe; the feelings of worthlessness in comparison to the unfathomable reaches of time and space. We have all been plagued by the burning question of existence: Why? Why is man here? Where do we come from? Where are we going? Is there reason and rhyme behind the currents and waves of the Universe? Was there ever a beginning? Is the only end awaiting this planet to become a frozen stone circling a dying star? Amid all of these questions stands man.

Throughout history, man has fabricated solutions to his problems by means of organized religion. The recipe is simple: in a deceitful and oblique approach, answer these questions that only helps to further confuse man. Then erect an infallible and all-pervasive life form that puts his stamp of approval on the answers. Further include a variety of punishments for even imagining that the explanations could be incorrect, no matter how obscene or insulting they might be. If such a program is promoted relentlessly, the end result is a powerful and organized body of members. But there is one weak link in such a formula: the entire base of the ideology is resting on nothing but a tissue of lies, and as science continues to reveal more and more of Nature's wonders, man finds superstition ever less and less appealing. Christianity has lost its hold upon the masses, evidenced by the decadence permeating both the organized Christian churches and society at large. It is this spiritual vacuum that Creativity seeks to fill and shall triumph.

Since the entire Christian dogma is based on nonsense that the faithful must accept as truths (although they are offensive to the mind), a certain warping or disabling of a man's cognitive capacities takes place. Suddenly, an entire myriad of nonsense can be accepted as fact: Christ walked on water and rose from the dead, therefore the statement "All men are created equal" appears reasonable in comparison. But in Creativity, we practice the opposite, encouraging our members to scrutinize everything they are presented with, and to declare "false" that which deserves the label. A Creator is the opposite of the child-type so glorified by the Christian doctrine.

Since its inception, and especially through the Middle Ages, the Christian Church was preoccupied more with sexuality than any other issue. It was commonly believed that woman was evil incarnate, since (they claimed) it was Eve who tempted man and led him out of paradise. As a result, women were held in lower esteem than male children. They were forbidden to hold any positions of authority, they were burned at the stake by the thousands for insolence, wife beating was common and legal, and women had absolutely no rights whatsoever. Clergymen practiced homosexuality on a widespread basis to avoid what they considered to be the "filthiness" of women. The Christian philosophers Cyprian and Ambrose asserted that it would be better for mankind to perish than to perpetuate the species through fornication. According to historian Nicholas Carter, "Life was a hell beyond all comprehension for the peasant woman. Like her husband, she was bound by law to the soil. From dawn to dusk she knew only the hardest labor. She could be bought and sold or given away or flogged or killed. Even here children were not her own. She lived in a filthy, chimneyless, single room, with bare-earth floor, and she slept on a hard mat crawling with lice. Fever and plague stricken, dying slowly of want and filth and wretchedness, she labored in a world of droughts, scarcities, famines, crime, violence, scurvy, leprosy, typhoid, wars and pestilences. If half of her children survived infancy, she was lucky."

The society that developed under the insanity of the Christian dogma is truly revolting. Human cleanliness was shunned in favor of self-mortification...it was a time when the dogmatic code considered expressions of love and intimacy to be revolting and evil...a time when the thumbscrew and rack were considered fair and just tortures for the unbelievers...when superstition reigned unchallenged, as devotees of righteousness had asserted that there were approximately 7,405,926 demons divided into companies, each under a captain...when all forms of disease were blamed on these demons and imps...when it was believed that the imps concentrated their greatest energies towards the corruption of children...when urine and horse dung were considered medicines...when monasteries purchased milk purportedly from the Virgin Mary (1500 years old and it hadn't gone bad!)...when the faithful purchased bags of sand from salesmen insisting that Christ himself had walked on it (perhaps the scent of his feet could be found among the grains!)...and when man was comforted by his belief in the existence of God, the devil, heaven, hell, and a host of demons, goblins, ghouls, and ghostly things.

But now we stand on the verge of a new era, when man has the opportunity to free himself from the old world of corruption and superstition that spawned hypersensitive imaginations. The old dogma of Christianity is ripe for destruction, and the minds of our White Racial Comrades can be recovered and retrieved from the perpetrators of disease and degeneracy. It was the Jew who first painted the devil on the wall of the world, it was his depraved mind that first conceptualized hell, and then built around the fear of damnation the slave religion that was to become Christianity.

But no longer shall our people look to the sky for security in a blazing tempest, for we are in possession of a Warrior's Creed, a White Racial Religion that challenges us to rise and to defy the forces that seek our destruction. No longer must we wallow in guilt and fear that our every action is being judged and criticized by a host of all-pervasive spooks. We are free to determine our morality, and this quest has taken us back to the immutable and eternal laws of Nature, where truth and wisdom has been preserved while our kind dwelt in ignorance. The result: Creativity, a Revolution in Values, a secular based religion designed for the survival, expansion and advancement of the White Race. Join us today and help build a better tomorrow for the future generations of beautiful and intelligent White children.

Creativity is the thinking man's religion!

Supremacist Paper Angers S.L. Neighborhood

By Amanda Ballif
THE SALT LAKE TRIBUNE

Stephanie Hamilton was enraged when a white supremacist publication called Racial Loyalty was circulated in her Salt Lake City neighborhood.

"I don't want [Racial Loyalty] anywhere near my kids," said Mrs. Hamilton.

Mrs. Hamilton, who is half Schaghticoke Indian, said her anger was kindled by the newspaper's reference to American Indians as "red niggers" and "mudds."

The paper brought back feelings of disgust from years ago when she was a high-school sophomore in Connecticut. The bus she was riding was attacked by whites who threw metal objects through the windows and injured her best friend.

"I am more scared than angry," said Karen Wood, a neighbor who fears it will escalate racial tensions.

It is unclear how many papers were distributed, but they were found last month on porches along 600 East from Emerson Avenue to Liberty Park.

The papers were stamped with the insignia of the United White Working Class, a Salt Lake City organization; Group representatives declined to answer any questions.

Cosette Joesten, principal at Hawthorne Elementary, 1675 S. 600 East, said Mrs. Hamilton is the only parent who brought the paper to her attention so she doesn't know if it reached many in the community. But the principal was not pleased: "I got sick to my stomach."

"This is a clear example of the increased efforts of white supremacist groups to spread their message of hatred," said Ronald Coleman, Associate Vice President for Diversity and Faculty Development at the University of Utah. "They obviously see us [in the Salt Lake area] as a community vulnerable to the rise of skinheads and neo-Nazis and the like."

The 12-page newsletter was published in Otto, N.C., by The Church of the Creator, which preaches "the survival, expansion and advancement of the white race."

Ben Klassen, the 75-year-old leader of The Church of the Creator, said in a telephone interview he doesn't know any members of his church in Utah, but he believes he has an audience here.

John Foster of the Salt Lake City Police Department Intelligence Unit monitors publications that are inflammatory or a threat to the community. "This publication is clearly inflammatory and distasteful," he said. "But not illegal."

Skinheads pass 'trash'

Group distributes racist literature in area

By WENDY E. SOLOMON
Staff writer

The Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission is investigating the distribution of racist and anti-Semitic literature to residents of Spring Garden and Springettsbury townships this week.

A white supremacist newspaper published in Otto, N.C., is being distributed by a Stew-artstown group called the Eastern Hammer Skin Heads. Laura Treaster, director of public relations at the commission, said the local organization is the largest skinhead group in the state and may be a part of a larger group based in Baltimore.

The Stewartstown skinheads have been distributing a small newspaper called Racial Loyalty, which calls itself "dedicated to the survival, expansion and advancement of the white race." The paper has been delivered onto the front lawns and in mailboxes of some residents on Niles Road and around York Suburban High School, according to Treaster.

Treaster said the commission is filing a tension incident report, which is an official re-

SKINHEADS

The commission received two reports this week from residents in the area about the material, but "they are still coming in . . . a lot of people recognize it for the trash that it is and they throw it in the trash, which is where it belongs," Treaster said.

Dennis Smith, a county detective in the district attorney's office, who lives in Spring Garden Township, said he received a copy of the newspaper on Tuesday. "It's trash," Smith said, and added he would charge the person distributing it with littering. "Whenever you throw trash, it is littering," he said. Smith said he was going to report the incident to both the Spring Garden police and state police.

Springettsbury Township Police Chief Harold D. Kessler said that although he has not received any reports of the skinhead material, a racist pamphlet was distributed in the area several months ago. Kessler did not know whether it was from the Stewartstown group.

C.R.A.P.

by David Lane

One of the most revered, time honored, insidious, and successful techniques used by debaters and political deceivers is to trick the opponent into arguing lines of thought which spring from a false premise. Let us look at the facts in all brutal reality, as they relate to our racial survival.

We are a distinct minority in the world. The occupation governments and particularly the American government, deny us not only nations of our own, but exclusive neighborhoods, schools, organizations, and everything needed for our continued survival as a biological and cultural entity. It is deliberate malicious genocide.

Perhaps the major force in determining our racial circumstances throughout known history, has been a religion of one kind or another. The dominant religion in the once White nations is self evidently a program of genocide against the White Race.

If there is one clear and certain racial lesson shown by history it is that our race cannot share Gods, religions, holy books, nations, territory, women, technology, wealth, productivity, knowledge, or anything else with another race. It is racial suicide if voluntary, and planned genocide when forced.

This is the reality that must form the foundational premise for all propaganda, literature, and debate, as well as our motivation and raison d'etre, if our kind is to secure it's existence.

In light of the above stated realities, an objective observer would label the Christian Rightwing American Patriots, C.R.A.P., (since that is what they did to the future of all White children.

It appears no power on earth will persuade those who have been taught what to think, that those who desire freedom must learn how to think. They are incapable of judging a religious or political entity based on the words of religious and political hucksters, and so it will be until America and Christianity have presided over the funeral of the White Race. All despots disguise their tyranny in noble words, and yet while little White children are busied, mugged, raped, and deracinated, often in places the C.R.A.P. would not dare go without riot guns and police protection, the mindless debates over the words of political and religious hoaxers, both past and present continue.

It makes absolutely less than no difference whatsoever what someone says that Jesus, or John, or Paul, or a Pope, or Washington, or Jefferson, or Lincoln, or Roosevelt, or Lyndon Johnson, said. What matters is what American and Christianity did, what they are doing, and what they intend to do. What they have done, and intend to do, is exterminate the White Race.

It is said, "Those whom the Gods would destroy they first drive mad." I know of no better prescription for insanity than contradictions, like attempting to make the religious and political entities that exterminate our race into the "God Ordained" religion and country of our race. So I must now conclude that the majority of the C.R.A.P. are enemy agents, some consciously, and some as dupes. Many of them of course, like retired military officers, enjoy substantial benefits from their own racial executioner, and others do not want tarnish on their medals, given for actions like the destruction of the racial basis of our European homeland. So they have dual loyalties. Others enjoy the power of the pulpit, tithes, and the aura of patriotic respectability.

Since the alleged words of God and men are so important to the C.R.A.P. let's touch on them briefly before discussing the reality of actions and results. Here are some words of Christianity's three major biblical teachers — Paul, John, and Jesus. Paul says it is best that we do not touch a woman. John says that only virgin men will be "saved" and that sex with a woman defiles a man. Jesus says that even to lust after a woman in your heart is a sin.

Wodensson says that a race of men that does not lust after it's women strongly enough to fight to the death for women and territory is doomed to extinction.

Roosevelt said he would send no Americans to fight in a European war. He lied. Lyndon Johnson said he would send no Americans to fight in an Asian war. He lied. Washington supposedly said America should avoid foreign entanglements. So what? Lincoln said he was a racist and constitutionalist. Yet he destroyed states rights, created the central government monster that destroys us, denied the right of anyone to secede from the beast, and loosed the black plague upon us. Words mean nothing.

Like the Constitution, the New Testament is filled with noble sounding, (albeit anti-nature and destructive) platitudes. But the C.R.A.P. love words. So they ignore the millions upon millions of our race destroyed, murdered, tortured, and displaced by Christianity. Is it so difficult to compare the condition of our race two thousand years ago under the old nature based religions, to the present condition? What was the relative position of our race prior to the formation of America in comparison to now?

It is apparent that actions and results mean nothing to the C.R.A.P. Self serving bigotry, conditioned dogma, and suicidal fire escape religion color their every thought and action. I have little doubt they would cheerfully lop off the heads of another five thousand Odinists and again destroy the flower of European manhood, as their much loved Charlemagne did some twelve hundred years ago in forcing the accursed religion on the European people.

That one third of Europe slaughtered each other in the name of Jesus during the Thirty Years War is incidental. The massacre of the Cathars is incidental. The millions tortured to death in the inquisitions, in ways too obscene to describe, is incidental. That Christianity and America have presided over and caused the near certain extinction of our race is incidental. That America was used to destroy the racial basis of our European homeland is incidental. That America's racially integrated military was used to destroy the racial integrity of White towns, schools, and neighborhoods, all over Europe and this continent is incidental. All history, fact, action and effect is incidental. Just wave the red, white and blue flag of racial murder and the C.R.A.P. will fight to their last breath in defence of our racial executioners.

Enough with debates over their system. Who cares about their trade deficits, their abortion mills, their politicians, their flag, their brain pollution institutions called schools and on and on? We cannot capture the geographical nation needed for our preservation by vote or any other means that is "permitted." That isn't the enemies intent. We cannot win with executioner worship.

How the C.R.A.P. loves to slander the Odinist, Robert Jay Mathews. If only he had waited, and if only he had known Jesus, he wouldn't have had to die. Perhaps he should have waited another two thousand years for the imaginary rapture by the equally imaginary Jesus? In fact, he had to die precisely because the White man is infected with a fire escape religion.

Some questions for the C.R.A.P. How do you sleep at night knowing what is happening to little White children every day? Did your Jesus save the millions of my people murdered in Christian wars or the millions tortured to death in his name? Did your Jesus save our race in Sumer, Carthage, Egypt, Greece, the Hittite empire, Philistia, or anywhere else in all history?

Wake up White man. There is no fire escape. There is no peaceful political answer and no matter your conception of God, or the Gods, you will have to pull the trigger yourself. Bob Mathews did not sacrifice his life for a joke. Or for you to cling to a standard of living. Or for you to cling to executioner worship. He went to war because the terror brought against children in the jungles America calls cities was a torture to his soul. As it is to mine. He knew that if our race is to live then we must take territory, women, and power by force, and war. All who deny it are cowards and fire escape artists.

No more propaganda about equal rights for Whites. If a man, and that includes a David Duke, cannot or will not make the simple statement that he intends to secure the existence of his race and a future for White children, then he is unworthy of our company or acknowledgement. If we have become so cowardly that we cannot even state our intention to obey the first law of nature, the preservation of our own kind, then we deserve to die.

No more debate on "justice" for aliens. Did the North African Moors or the Mongols of Ghengis Khan worry about justice when they invaded Europe and carted our women off as slaves? Inter specie compassion is contrary to the laws of nature.

No more Kohnservatism. The enemy intends to exterminate our species and they're close to their goal. We will respond in kind or perish from the earth. That is Nature's law. The time for intellectual escapism passed long ago. Of course the intellectuals of the C.R.A.P. will claim they are too valuable to risk their sanctified holy hides in real struggle. So be it. Some of us remember the torture and murder of millions of our folk in the name of Jesus. Some of us remember the murder of every voice of reason and of all followers of our Gods of nature. We intend to have a nation for the preservation of our people. No C.R.A.P. need apply unless they have taken up arms in defense of our racial existence.

Jewish group's leader jailed in murder plot

An Associated Press Report

LOS ANGELES — The chairman of the militant Jewish Defense League, Irv Rubin, was in jail Saturday in an alleged murder-for-hire plot, and police said they were searching for a second suspect.

Rubin, 46, was arrested Friday night as he left a restaurant, said police spokesman Mike Schwehr.

Details of the alleged conspiracy were withheld pending a second arrest, Schwehr said. It stemmed from an incident in San Pedro, about 30 miles south of Los Angeles.

Rubin, from Monrovia near Los Angeles, denied involvement in a murder plot, said his attorney, Steven Goldberg. Rubin was held without bail.

"He has no idea where they're coming from or what they're based on. He does not know who the alleged victim is supposed to be," Goldberg said.

In 1985, Rubin succeeded Meir Kahane as league chairman when the group splintered into the Los Angeles-based Jewish Defense League and the New York-based Jewish Defense Organization.

Goldberg said police told him the allegations did not involve the Jewish Defense League.

The league has advocated use of violence in the Arab-Israeli conflict. It was founded in the early 1960s by Kahane, who was shot to death in a New York hotel on Nov. 5, 1990.

An Egyptian-born Muslim, El Sayyid Nosair, was acquitted of murder in Kahane's slaying but convicted in December of wounding two men as he fled the scene. He was sentenced to up to 22 years in prison.

League members regularly protest speeches by Black Muslim leader Louis Farrakhan and others they consider anti-Semitic.

In 1989, Jewish Defense Organization leader Mordechai Levy, a longtime Rubin adversary, was charged with attempted murder. Police said Levy fired shots at Rubin and three others outside Levy's home in New York City.
