DEDICATION

I would like to dedicate this book to the following people:

Juliana CZ, heiress of my path, my inspiration for every goal, my sublime and mutant divine synchronicity. Wise reflection of mind and transcendental journey. My Master of purity and great treasure bequeathed by the Gods. Keep walking the path of spiritual return to the origin, so you can finally conquer yourself. You were born to be a warrior and as such you will eternalize.

Katherine ZG, Companion of lives, comrade in struggle, messenger of the gods, noble muse of intuitive wisdom. You guided me to the path of the warrior, and opened the doors of catharsis. I admire you and I will always admire you for being a woman of Truth. In you, will and strength converge perfectly. My wise and beloved fighter, I thank you for existing and complementing me. You are the light of my destiny.

Jesus CO, My teacher and role model. My admired hero since early childhood. Guide on the path of life, who strengthened me from the great example of Virtue. Exalted paternal figure in wisdom, intelligence, patience, understanding, affection and respect. In addition to bequeathing me the genetic ancestry, you had the noble detail of offering me your friendship. You are the materialization of ethics. I will always carry your teachings in my life as a sign of affection and admiration for you. I see Krishna in you.

Betty CC: My reflection and positive pole. You inherited the spirit in my blood, you gave me the example of a teacher, strengthened in righteousness, authority, intelligence, wisdom, who has always given space for love and affection, in spite of her admirable hardness. I will always admire her vocation as a spiritual and matriarchal leader. Thank you for your teachings and unconditional support, as well as your wise counsel. I carry in my blood your great example. I see Krishna in you.

Jesús CC: Great blood companion and unconditional friend, whose knowledge of supra material, inspired to a great extent my walking the path of the warrior. I thank you for your support, advice, brotherhood and friendship. May the ineffable light of the spirit guide your path to realization. To you, my words of admiration, affection and respect.

Kevin L: My great comrade, friend and brother. Companion of struggles and battles both external and internal. The Aura Catena reunited us in the fight against demiurge, and it will be the honor that will grant us the final victory. You symbolize in your being the will, discipline and strength. A great reference and pride for your lineage. My great respect and admiration for you.

Thorn and Sieg: My spiritual guides, counselors and teachers, messengers of Asgard, who as kamaradas fight with me from hell, for the conquest of the Vril, from honor, and catharsis towards the Superman. To them, my eternal loyalty as Kamarada.

Special thanks to: Estefania M D, Kelly Z

OPENING REMARKS

The present book is a compilation of articles that manifest the author's position on topics related to the Superman and Pre-Hispanic America. Its main objective is to invite the reader to the study of the Hyperborean Gnosis, as a strategic means of spiritual development. This book is a contribution to the memory of the blood that awakens in everyone the call of the blood, and strengthens in the purification and essential hostility and thus achieves the return to the homeland of the spirit: Hyperborea.

The Hyperborean wisdom represents the most ancient and primordial legacy of wisdom by which men have surpassed themselves, obtaining as an achievement, their mutation from intellectual animal to Superman, ideal of realization to which every man should aspire to rebel as a warrior against the infamous slavery and lethargy in which he is submerged. Therefore, it is important to study the complete work of Felipe Moyano: The Mystery of the Hyperborean Wisdom, for its understanding and consequent practice.

As a Hispanic American, I consider it a duty to awaken in our compatriots, pride and respect for our ancestors and for the spiritual treasures that our continent harbors, in order to unify our wills and return together to the imperial glory of the golden days of our continent, whose wisdom today has been overshadowed by false scientific dogma and rationalism, which as dialectical myth, prevent men of today from knowing their historical and racial past, and worse still with the phagocytic force of archetypes, men ignore their past and divine heritage.

May the words contained in the following articles, serve to awaken in man the memory of the origin, and from Honor, endow him with the eternal courage to undertake the internal struggle towards the conquest of the Eternal Vril.

For the revival of the American Superman. And The Aryan Superman in the world.

ON THE PURIFICATION OF BLOOD

The legacy that Felipe Moyano left us implies the study of a deep, uncomfortable and crude truth, but one that can grant man absolute freedom. Once the aforementioned study of the complete work of hyperborean wisdom is concluded, the profane scholar must decide whether or not to accept his mysterious mission to fight for his freedom, to recover his eternity, a process that necessarily requires the purification of his blood, that is, to practice kayvalia, a process by which the human being, upon discovering that he is eternal, that within himself resides a god asleep inside the animal body, or in other words, to move away from the pasu behavior that he has inherited, being a sleeping Virya, and to move from the will of the absolute self to conquer his own freedom, and to go from the will of the absolute self to conquer his spirit, eternal, to conquer the origin, to eliminate his Pasu part, his animal part, in which he has been designated by the demiurge Jehovah Satan, to be one more sleeping slave that gives sense to the nefarious and demented work of the universe, ruled by the One and his court of Nephilim demons, in Shamballa, against these satanic hosts the Virya has declared war to free himself from the chains of karma and Samsara, initiating the return home, that is to say to Hyperborea, from the call of the pure blood.

Why in the blood? Because in the blood resides the symbol of the origin that shows us the absolute self, the spirit. Racial purification is not the same as purity of blood, for purity of blood is achieved by volitional right, while racial purity is a genetic inheritance, which also has its own scale of purity. However, it is blood purity that prevails over racial purity, for blood purity is purely spiritual. Among the masses (and even among National Socialists) it is very common to find people who presume their racial purity as a synonym of honor and supremacy, ignoring the esoteric character of blood, and its purity. As Felipe Moyano says, these people may be genotypically and phenotypically very pure racially, but psychologically most of them behave like materialistic Jews, besides keeping a marked emotional ego together with a too human rationalism. Man too much man would say Nietzsche. It is not the same a Virya to a Pasu, it is not the same a White to an Aryan. The latter, the Aryan is the representation of the blood purification in the white race, since the Aryan is a term that is first evaluated genetically, but in a fundamental way it is evaluated by an ethic achieved in its process of self-improvement, by the conquest of the Vril. Under this understanding, the purification of blood would apply not only to the white race, as historically in its conquest of the world, but also for all human races, as for example China, whose nation in most of them come from the Han ethnic group, which makes it easier for them to develop into a homogeneous national racial nucleus.

When man understands that within him sleeps an absolute and eternal God, who can never die, unlike the soul and the body, then he is aware of his gnostic predisposition, which is the first step to fight for his liberation, after purification. It is equally important to clarify our shadow or unconscious sphere, in other words to know ourselves in defects to deepen and correct them in the sphere of light such as addictions and bad habits that constitute our daily development, and also in virtues to adapt them to a Noological ethics, which is the ethics of the spiritual warrior that has its basis in the eternal spirit, which man will follow to be able to overcome and eliminate the emotional self, in which are contained all human emotions, which are part of the soul, and at the same time, exploit the eternal spirit, and are the engine producer of suffering also exploited by the entities that make up the shamballa, and by the demiurge who feeds on the same engine to evolve his consciousness.

It is this self-knowledge, of our shadow sphere, which leads us to correct our defects that corrupt the warrior ethic, we can mention among them the elimination of cigarettes, liquor, drugs (except in the case of shamanic experiences provided by nature) and gluttony, in other words, the warrior must conquer his attachments and desires, which chain him to the material world through placebos. There can be no blood purification without self-knowledge and the will to rise to the path of transmutation in the Hyperborean Origin.

It is fundamental to awaken in man a warrior ethic, martial, preferably Military, to forge an ascending hardening like steel, likewise to overcome his own mind, to generate resistance before pain, like the Spartan warriors or the SS of the Third Reich, likewise to generate resistance before situations of disgust and repugnance, to develop a great spirit of survival in precarious situations, because there are many advantages of the blood purification in a military training due to the fact that the being gets used to live in situations of danger and loneliness, strengthening him more and more. It goes without saying the learning of the use of conventional weapons, but likewise it is of great help that the man is not only a soldier but also a magician, learning the weapons taught by the hyperborean wisdom in the books of Felipe Moyano, learning also the use of unconventional weapons, which we can find in the field of parapsychology, experimenting with weapons that can generate influence in the enemy point, working in this way the mind and the spirit to the maximum. Having mentioned this, it follows that man must practice constant exercise, that is to say, temper himself completely as Ignacio Ondargain would say, because the Aryan warrior always strengthens his musculature to gain more strength, and also performs a constant and daily cleansing by constant and athletic practices to which he demands himself and even better if he perfects himself through the martial technique to further integrate as a true warrior complete. You belong to the brightest and strongest race in the universe, our strength allowed us to conquer the world, assault the court of hell, discover the deep mysteries of the universe and be the managers of the destruction of the same in Ragnarok. The Aryan Warrior must awaken the divine essence that lies within you.

This warrior student of the hyperborean wisdom of Nimrod of Rosario, will seek to approach his spirit, the self, through awakening the luciferic grace, a new ethic whose banner is honor, and whose main and infinite foundation is the eternal spirit, in addition to this, his guiding principles that will orient him in this false world of demiurgic matter, aggressive against him for rebelling against the satanic creation, will be: Truth, Courage, Justice, Loyalty, unquantifiable eternal principles found in the unknowable, in this way I allude to the noological ethics that has bequeathed us the foundations of hyperborean wisdom. An example of integrity and absolute honor, would be the practice and application of the 82 advices of the divine Siddha Gurdjieff to his Daughter, which are principles of conduct based on the noological ethics of honor and luciferic grace, which can only be applied by someone who has overcome and surpassed himself.

Accompanied to the previous one and for the guidance of his path, as a complement as the main base of the strategy chosen by the man who decides to purify his blood towards the infinite unknowable, he can apply the runes that Wotan inherited to the Aryan white race, as a set of weapons for the defense of the warrior in this material prison, in the practice of Kayvalia, with the runic Yoga, through the meditation of the Futhark, with the pronunciation of the mantra of each of the runes that make up the runic alphabet chosen for your practice, or you can perform the body gymnastics of each rune with the same mantric pronunciation, which can be found in the excellent book, Runes the path of initiation of Juan Ricardo Cespedes. Together with these exercises of runic character, they can be complemented with excellent exercises of active meditation, that is to say, to transcend the passive sphere of the mere observer in the meditative practice, locating oneself in the absolute inner self, so that in daily life the person is not only located in the so-called "infinite present" but also in the eternal spirit, that is to say, in Gnosis. Along with this, we can complement this process with the practice of Pranayama, a practice that helps us to awaken more quickly, by incorporating it into our strategy. If the same warrior has successfully passed the family test, he can practice Yoga Tantra without danger, otherwise he should not perform this path as advised in the complete work of the Hyperborean Wisdom.

Thus we have an Aryan man-warrior, who has eliminated his emotions, and can freely choose how to feel, without being harmed by any outside agent, by his admirable defense, a man of a strange personality, who by his constant laughter over the illusory world of maya, denotes a great spiritual joy, superior to any human feeling or emotion, but at the same time demonstrates and exhibits who has entered the lineage of Cain, is the man who enjoys insomnia, since he will never be able to sleep again, he will remain in constant vigil and alert, waiting to defend himself and attack at the right moment, just as Cain was punished by Jehovah with eternal insomnia for having murdered his brother Abel, as a representation of the carnal and created soul.

Finally it should be noted that only the wisdom which is purely individual, and which lies in the blood, in the spirit is the way to pontificate a path to eternity, as the purification of the blood divinizes man in its greatest splendor, this being the great mystery of the pure blood, the man who has overcome the animal, pasu, animal body in which he resides captive, while on the other hand the knowledge, is collective, ie can be learned and taught to groups of people, as these are directed to the cultural and spiritual sphere. merely material. It is worth more, therefore, the wise man with ethical principles and a moral based on honor, physically trained, in bodybuilding and martial arts than the puny intellectual that abounds in our days, as a representation of a cultural subject and a pre-established prototype, lazy and obedient to the system that enslaves him.

The mystery of the Vril accompanies only the white and yellow race and its derived crossbreeding, they are the ones who can access the high mysteries of the pure blood. And whoever manages to defeat himself, will be eternal in the origin, he will have achieved the Alchemical Opus and no one will be able to defeat him.

THIS WORLD IS REALLY HELL

Man believes he is the master of the earth, but in reality he is just another slave of a superior system that manufactured him in order to exploit him as a slave, being in reality chained to the world of the illusion of forms, where he lives surrounded by banalities and lies. Confused, he believes that this is the only possible world, completely ignoring his eternal origin because of the hypnotism in which he is submerged by direct action of Jehovah Satan and his satanic hosts, in charge of imprisoning the eternal spirit in the animal body of the pasu hominid, the first animal on earth, from whose mutation between animal and divinity, we would emerge as human beings, as an animal species but with great intelligence, whose base is not rational thought but the uncreated eternal spirit that belongs to the true world, infinite unknowable. The objective of this mutation was to create a species half animal and half divine, to enslave it through the exploitation of its capacities, so that it generates energy, love (reproduction and animal procreation of the species) and culture, which would give meaning to the immense insane work of the demiurge Jehovah Satan, demon that enslaves the eternal spirit in different forms and dimensional planes or universes, not comprehensible even to the human mind. This world is in reality a sewer, an immense filth, incomparable to the magnanimous true world, known as Hyperborea, world to which belongs the spirit chained in matter, which lies asleep in the repugnant animal body Pasu, sack of guts, which fill it with animal needs to which it must supply, in its maximum and vile inferior expression, going from being an eternal God to being humiliated and lowered to an animal, or human being that is the same garbage.

Jehovah, besides being the creator of the universe in which we live captive, imposes that his creatures live submerged in pain and suffering, food and necessary principle to empower their conscience.

Forced to live in a collective, sectarian way and to depend externally on the surrounding culture, the human being must live more and more alienated from his inner self, which is analogous to living on a cattle farm with a high degree of rationalism and false freedom, each one of them symbolizing one more number or head to be sacrificed by the satanic hosts that work to keep humanity asleep by manipulating its instinctive animal part. This farm is the center of major importance in the universe, as well as the other farms in their various subtle forms in which there are also captive spirits.

The human Farm was "created" to be exploited, evolving to the present times, where its chosen people fulfill this task in an evolved environment, projected to maintain a globalized hierarchy that works from the shadows for to submerge in ignorance, systematic dependence through money and sex, as elements of human dependence, degeneration and perversion, the latter fostered from childhood.

Since the beginning of time man has been an experiment developed by the satanic hosts of the one, becoming the sack of guts that has continued to be today, besides being a guinea pig at present in which there is no longer the memory of blood, of these same siddhas traitors from Shamballah, who create new perversions and vile behaviors in the human being such as transvestism, the various paraphilias, among other aberrations, and on earth their hermetic counterparts are the druids and Golen or cabalist rabbis who directly influence the behavior of the masses, to achieve their interests in pursuit of the strategy of their god Jehovah and at a lower level, families of a lineage imitating the hyperborean, make up the global elite of the Israeli people, experimenting with the masses through the most influential media, imposing patterns of behavior, thus achieving the domination of public opinion with a massive brainwashing. Thus, in this hell, suffering and pain abound as the main engine of the universal conscience, man becoming identified with his most vile and darkest part, reflected in addition to the above, in the most perverse and cruel actions of the money-hungry human being, with several examples, among them we can comment on the covert crimes committed by the elite by poisoning their human animals through the consumption of their products or experimenting with their health, as laboratory rats, through the pharmaceutical industry controlled by themselves or organ trafficking, definitely the world is an earthly paradise. Being descended from an animal called Pasu, man inherits from it a great part of himself, to his personal psychology. It is curious to note that man claims to be the master of nature, when in reality he is just another slave, because he is not at the top of the cosmic hierarchy, or in the higher realm, he is just another animal in the created nature. From the Pasu he inherits his complexion, his anger and fear, among the most predominant emotions. A whole host of unnecessary or "gourmet" dishes, a world of junk that poisons the body and makes it more dependent and addicted to matter and more and more distant from its inner being, and there is man admiring his work, when in reality his animality makes him analogous to the pig who enjoys his food and when meeting together for more than unnecessary formalities is equal to the latter in the pigsty, emitting gases, something besides repugnant proper to pasu behavior, that is why the virya is very careful not to do this in public. The pig is also the only animal that enjoys eating human feces, which is analogous to the cannibalism of the present time.

Human animals are also the enslavers of this filthy world, who through theology concretize Satan's intention, animals favored by the master of the farm, this immense madhouse.

It is no coincidence that man has greater sensitivity in his lips and genitals, because his creators manipulate man with pleasure, and isn't that what most of humanity seeks? Isn't that the real happiness of man? Eating, sleeping and copulating, because the manipulation through sex has the purpose and objective of expanding the procreation of the disgusting human species, that is why for the Gnostic it is a serious affront against his honor, to bring beings to suffer to this infernal and hostile world where even parasites need others to exist, the same happens with diseases, all created entities are connected to the same energy engine, it is the aggressive and satanic nature of Yahweh.

Another way of evidencing the cruelty of Satan as creator of the world, as Felipe Moyano explains, is in nature, through which animals must devour each other in order to survive, and plants, which are also living beings, suffer the same fate. And in the face of this, is this a perfect natural order? That same natural selection in nature can be evidenced in liberal society, through social Darwinism that tends to the existence of the strongest devouring the weakest, and I do not justify the weakness nor defend it, on the contrary, the imposed system wants man to be weak and pusillanimous, not to be a martial man or warrior, to be a man increasingly mestizo and without blood identity that allows him to face the cruelty and cosmic indignity as racial nucleus.

Worse yet, most of humanity is destined to die in this miserable state of existence, since it was born programmed to seek crumbs of happiness and feel comfortable with the money and sex that the system provides and encourages, as keys to happiness and success, when it is just another element of the habitat of the animal man, who believes that reason differentiates him from the animals. How much truth there is in the phrase: "man is an animal of habit" CH.D, the cultural environment, the environment, envelops man in monotony, conformist, that models his behavior in a repetitive destiny, as if it were managed by an invisible hand, mitigating and taming in this way the will of man who will have less and less will and initiative, unable to innovate in their actions, thinking and criteria, but aimed at enjoying television, and entertainment on a daily basis, until finally their life is gone and kronos has devoured him losing one more opportunity. To be born, to live and to die. Eat, defecate and sleep. Produce, procreate and spend.

We believe that this world is the only one, they fill that existential doubt and the false smallness of man with the immensity of the universe, and the ufological culture through the media and cinema. But in reality this universe is a copy of another universe being both and all false, in which the human being coexists in different forms of life to that of this universe, and even in some it has already died, with important differences, denominated

This phenomenon as of simultaneity in the hyperborean wisdom, which makes the mystery of Maya, the hypnotic veil that submerges the human being in this hell, in which our present and transcendent life would have no sense and no importance whatsoever.

Another characteristic of this hell is the cruelty of karma, we find all kinds of injustices, diseases and ailments that we suffer or suffer around us, all responding to a demented system of polar and dual "balance" that regulates compliance with the law of Brahma-Yavhe, whatever the transgression, the cruelty of Jehovah, will manifest itself in the most demonic way possible in the materialization of human destiny between malformations, diseases of all kinds created cabalistically to experiment on human rabbits, perverted rapes, tortures, repressive communism, perversion, genocide which is nothing more than human sacrifice pleasing to yahweh, pedophilia, pimping, white slave trade, drug addiction, alcoholism, obesity, fatal destinies, among other gifts from god, from which neither the religious speaker nor the good worker is spared.

We love the landscapes or the "beauty" of the beasts, but this is nothing more than an archetypal vision of which man has given meaning to a concept or parameter of beauty, but we are nothing more than disgusting machines, processors of matter, producers of disgusting garbage and nevertheless we consider that the beauty of the human being is something incomparable, but it is not more than another hypnotic process that deceives us in seeing that we are only horrible beasts, if we had bodies of arthropods we would continue considering ourselves beautiful and beautiful regardless of our condition.

Thus, the predominant systems in the world are capitalism and communism, both tending towards human enslavement, two regimes based on materialism, that is the reason why both systems come from the same origin: the international synarchy, the reigning organization of Satan: the house of David, who follows the guidelines of the Talud, which is nothing more than the word of Jehovah. Both have presented themselves as the martyrs of freedom and the union of the peoples of the world, and they are nothing more than the arms of the devil who devours his children. They have been responsible for genocides such as the French revolution and the Russian revolution, remaining totally unpunished, thus demonstrating their affiliation to this world order in favor of the existence and praise of this world and against the absolute freedom of the human being. To have hope in the current politics is useless, since the synarchy that rules behind the shadows of the church, liberalism, Marxism, Vaticanism, Zionism and Freemasonry has undermined all areas of human society, pushing it more and more to the slaughterhouse, to finally fulfill what is stipulated by the Talmud, the domination of the human races by the international Jew. They will focus the vision of man on material progress, such as the advancement of technology, but never on the advancement of dignity and the mitigation of human suffering, because such a system died more than 75 years ago, with the collapse of the last Atlantis: The Third Reich, great hyperborean bastion that fought for the happiness of man and the elimination of suffering and poverty in all its senses. But it is not a loss for our cause, that is clear. It is only the beginning of a spiritual revolution that propels all the peoples of the world towards the most absolute freedom: Hyperborea.

That is why this knowledge called gnosis or alchemy, has been the most persecuted and hidden throughout history, its warriors, monks and warriors, never sought with it any recognition, nor social status or utilities, because they overcame the mystery of pain, as their best teacher, and descended to the deepest of the hells of the universe to rise as beyond the stars, beyond the limit of the universe. Honor lies in every person who wishes to leave this illusory hell, but he will have to tame his inner demons that will prevent him at all costs to return to the original source. The sentence that this world deserves is the total destruction of its master and creator: Yahweh together with the liberation of the divine race to its return to divinity. Spirit is the only true thing, everything else is limited by time and space as the principles and rules of this universal dictatorship.

Only honor can lead us to victory, the purification of the blood will allow us to return to the origin and conquer it, in our race lies the eternal spirit seeking the glory of eternity. Complaint, depression and suicide are a defeat, a lost opportunity in the akashic sea. We must prove that we are in this world to conquer it, and at the same time we must become the strongest and most honorable heroes, implying to be our own masters.

In each one of us is the responsibility to fight for our lost and snatched divinity. The Hyperborean Wisdom gives us the best gift: Gnosis, and with it we can undertake the path back to our home beyond the stars, always fighting for truth, honor, courage and Justice as eternal values that must always dwell in the ethics of the awakened and noble Warrior, declaring total war on the demon that has imprisoned us in this hell. It is our duty to eat of the forbidden fruit, to awaken from our captive situation and fill ourselves with eternal value that only from our Vril will emerge to polish us from the purity of blood towards the battle and final victory of our spirits.

This is the Solitude of the Superman, in which only the fittest, strongest and most prepared will walk the eternal path to the gates of Valhalla. This solitude implies the process of purification such that the warrior is Student and Master at the same time, that is, his preparation must be optimal, his purity must be the sign of his internal struggle and his conduct must be the reflection of his Honor and his struggle to put an end to Demiurge. The superman is therefore, a demigod, the last degree of Human Spiritual refinement, to become a Siddha again in the eternal Origin from where the captive spirit should never have been removed.

The demiurge knows that his fight is lost and that his world is destined to be destroyed, he knows his destiny and his sentence for his insane actions, he knows that he will lose the Final Battle and that he has nothing left to do but to take advantage of the last lapses of his hell, humiliating and torturing the captive Hyperborean spirits for his delight, but in the end The truth always triumphs over the Lie, because this one is Eternal and Honor will end up burying the demon creator of the matrix, being the Human being the destroyer of "God".

For Hyperborea and the early release of the Eternal Spirit. Sieg Heil!

THE SPIRITUAL ARISTOCRACY OF THE SUPERMAN AS A MODEL OF GOVERNMENT

The superman as a social prototype has been undoubtedly misrepresented as a Utopian idea, which is far from crystallizing as a real possibility. However, such misrepresentation responds to the strategies of synarchic disinformation that over the years have been aimed at keeping man submerged in the current materialistic system in which he is in lethargy. In spite of this, history shows us that the existence of the Superman has been recorded in the past (and is still valid in the present).

It is the superman, the social type apt to hold power in a spiritual aristocratic system, defined as the government of the best for the benefit of the nation, and as a system of government based on meritocracy whose main purpose is the ethical-spiritual formation of those elected to govern, in pursuit of national benefit. Therefore, this model of government tends to the individual development of the governed and governing man, leaving aside the system of massive control of the human being as an entity belonging to a conglomerate whose main purpose is the submission of his conduct and behavior, creating the necessary conditions to keep him as a slave.

producer. The aforementioned system responds to the two main arms in force today: Liberal, democratic capitalism and Marxist communism, both of extreme materialism, with the purpose of degrading man even more around his spirituality and his national or racial pride, added to the strategies of social engineering that today are evident in the promotion of the media, controlled by the global synarchic power.

GOVERNORS

On the other hand, aristocracy is a system of government that forges the human being in his spiritual, physical and intellectual development, being these three factors of formation, the alchemical keys to achieve the awakening of the Superman in the sleeping human being. These three factors are a complement that must be worked together for the full alchemical development to be achieved. Once his full formation is achieved, his aptitude to govern will be fulfilled, being now part of the best beings. Similarly, Aristocracy is denoted as a system that forged great empires and monarchies in ancient and pre-antiquity, carrying in its wake a much more extensive historical journey than the predominant political and ideological systems of today.

The SPIRITUAL factor: forms man from GNOSIS, which implies in the first place his blood purification, (astral and karmic part) declaring his intention against the material order created in this universe against the demiurge Yahweh Satan, passing in this way to practice one of the hyperborean ways of liberation, according to his situation, such as the practice of Tantrism or Kayvalia through the Runic Yoga, as well as the essential hostility through the archemonic technique, being meditation and mental silence complementary in his individual work.

This spiritual praxis will turn him into a Magician, a monk and a soldier. In addition to the above, it is essential that the Warrior achieves victory against his inner demons, being his Mental Self and his emotional Self (soul), extension of the demiurge in the being, in order to divinize them (soul) and awaken in him the government of the spiritual over the soul, following the Hermetic principle of correspondence "As above so below". Likewise, the warrior must adopt a spiritual Ethics, which is based on the eternal principles of Honor, Justice, Truth, Courage, Virtue and Altruism, values that must transmute the being for its full and effective practice.

We must emphasize that ambition, betrayal, materialism, selfishness, dishonor, corruption, and other anti-values that arise in the conduct and actions of the sleeping animal man are by-products of the soul which has not been purified by the power of the Vril spirit, these anti-values arise in all human races, although at different levels, this responds to the alchemical-genetic principle through which if the conduct of a man is unethical, he will inherit the defects and impurities of his ancestors, but if on the contrary the conduct of a man is ethical, he will inherit the greatest virtues and qualities of his ancestors (It should be taken into account that the purification of the blood can arise from the call of the blood or Minne of the nation unconsciously or consciously by the full conduction of a leader). Finally, it will be the Hyperborean initiation the one that will allow him to shine his divine part, in this we can conclude that the spiritual factor is the most important element in the process of alchemical development for the formation of the superman.

The PHYSICAL Factor: this element is equally focused on the purification of the blood (physical part) maintaining a state that keeps it free of any influence that degrades his blood or prevents the warrior from recovering the purity of his ancestors through the blood. For the ideal physical development, the warrior aspiring to superman will be athletic and martial, practicing along with his spiritual work the military routine that his position and social class demands, in addition to a martial art that works together with his Vril force such as Kung Fu or the practice of Chi Kung.

This prototype of human being must be prepared to overcome his limits and capacities in the art of war (nothing proves racial or blood purity better than war bravery) military confrontation, as it is, to exhibit strength in physical resistance, in survival in subhuman conditions. He must at the same time have generated in his training, great tolerance to pain, to psychological and physical suffering and also to situations of disgust. It is important that this prototype of man should have an adequate diet which should be vegan or vegetarian, which should be in accordance with the care and respect for the creatures of Nature and ecology.

The above should be focused on man overcoming his emotional and mental limitations that degrade his eternal spirit in his condition as a human animal that at the same time, is is of a being asleep y dependent, and of gregarious. The INTELLECTUAL Factor: it is focused on the academic formation of the

The superman will not only be able to learn in a more effective and efficient way, new knowledge, but at the same time to remember them by the action and effect of the purification of his blood (we can cite as an example that the construction of the Vimana or Vril in National Socialist Germany, more than an invention was a rediscovery of the Atlantean past, a rediscovery of the Atlantean past), remember them by action and effect of the purification of his blood (we can cite as an example that the construction of the Vimana or Vril in National Socialist Germany, more than an invention was a rediscovery of the Germanic Atlantean past) as well as personal karmic knowledge of akashic content, which normally a brain with a dormant mentality could not bear to remember them immediately.

In the ideal aristocratic state, science is complemented by mysticism, entering into full reconciliation, whose opus is scientific alchemy, the Union of the maximum Hyperborean Tabula, the secret of the Atlanteans, the complete hermetic body of Osiris (the superman himself is the opus between the primordial wisdom of the East and the West, the Eurasian Hyperborean Aryan legacy).

This union opens the doors to a wide field of research in the human and supra-human field. Precisely from this mystical scientific doctrine have arisen great advances in genetics as a contribution of the father of this science: Josef Mengele, as well as the implosion technology.

In this way, the full development of these 3 developments results in the opus of the Superman, who in community composes the class of men most apt to exercise the government in this system, falling on them the succession of power and the confidence of the nation. Not only from the community of supermen arises the successive government, but also from it originates the priestly caste of hierophants, in charge of the direction and orientation of the nation towards the divine transmutation and its spirituality reflected in the religious cult, which must be in accordance with the ethnocentrism of its nation in its exoteric form, but always preserving the Gnosis in its esoteric form, reflecting the hermetic principle of correspondence.

Being the Super Man, as an objective of state policy, it must be meticulously planned in all its areas, having, therefore, the woman, a fundamental role as the CHOSEN MOTHER, the feminine equivalent to the Super Man and complement of the same. (It is necessary to clarify that the chosen mother is the analogous to the initiated Super Man, but within a collective strategy of transmutation, since in the individual strategies the feminine counterpart is the woman Kaly and the Vraya, and in these strategies the human procreation is a gnostic abomination). In this order of ideas, from the best women should be born the best men, passing the chosen Mother together with the Mother Nurse to be a public institution forged in the politics of the state, directed to create the most apt men and soldiers.

The Mother Nurse will fulfill the role of teacher of the infant once he reaches a certain age, she will be in charge of fostering in him his Warrior and martial spirit from his foundations. The state will be in charge of the academic and traditional formation of the mother.

Elected and Mother Nurse which will establish and strengthen this important institution as a parameter and cultural heritage of the nation, being able to educate national mothers for the strengthening of the national family.

Every Superman and chosen Mother will have the state duty to forge family with a minimum of 4 children. The state shall agree on ways of meeting and acquaintance to promote marriage between these institutions.

The military education of the aspiring infantrymen will be in charge of the state, which will train its students in spirituality, esotericism, martial arts, national history, law, agriculture and common sciences. Both the educational institutionality of aspirants and professionals will be covered by the strategic policy of the state which will enjoy its own educational structure based on the meritocratic privilege of the best. Similarly, university professionalism will be focused on the military field or in the field of knowledge, both for the aristocracy and for the nation, in completely differentiated educational structures.

In the philosophy of Plato and Aristotle as in the law of Lycurgus, we can see reflected the virtues of the Aristocracy in antiquity. We can even reference as outstanding Aristocracies in history as the Ancient Sparta in Greece, the German Schutzstaffel in the Third German Reich or the Hero Cro-Magnon in Atlantis.

Once the strategy of establishing and strengthening an integral ruling caste is forged and achieved, it will be within this community that the infinite Hyperborean Venus will begin to manifest, that is to say, it will be, due to its optimal conditions and characteristics (physical and spiritual), the propitious collectivity to exercise the birth of Tulkus, understood as Avatars incarnated in human beings whose incarnation responds to a specific hyperborean purpose and purpose to be realized in their life journey.

However, Aristocracy can also be exercised by means of Monarchy, as long as there is a wise and integrated leader in the formation of the 3 factors mentioned above, that is to say, he is a Gnostic initiate and fulfills the requirements of aptitude for the wise leadership of his people, being important that he is connected to his people by blood, The latter explains the affiliation of envoy or Avatar of the guide and "creator" of the Superman, since this monarch exercises the function of spiritual ruler of the nation or Empire in which he is established.

We can refer as examples of sacred and hyperborean monarchies that promoted the spiritual improvement of their soldiers as aristocratic elite to Genghis Khan, Frederick II Hohenstaufen, Adolf Hitler, Wotan-Quetzalcoatl-Wiracocha (emperor of antediluvian Europe and America).

At this point, it is important to clarify which element has greater preponderance: blood or race. Although the racial factor is important, in the understanding that Being is the material manifestation of the Vril spirit. While the blood is the legacy of the spirit. Having clarified this, it is the blood that predominates over the race, because the racial purity is inherited, while the blood purity is achieved, however, the cohesion of racial purity and blood purity, are extremely beneficial for the spiritual and cultural development of a nation. But if we take into account the current characteristics of the Kaly Yuga, it is difficult to apply both purifications in a strategy of social engineering in a conscious way.

GOVERNMENTS

The state will direct its political praxis in dignifying the nation outside the Aristocracy, in terms of its personal, labor and family stability, eliminating all forms of monopolization of national rights to the people, which benefit personal interests over the general ones, implying a total and free state coverage in terms of health and social security, family housing, and labor establishment through state institutionality and insurance through state and national unionism that will strengthen the needs and rights of the worker, being work the engine of the national will, reason enough to be protected and endorsed by the state.

Another important point in this form of government is the elimination of legalized crime in capitalism, such as usury and speculative private banking, with the state becoming the administrator of national banking, granting long-term loans without interest to the nation, strengthening its economy from the Autarchy, the common benefit, and the penal rigorosness regarding offenders with measures such as deportation, eugenics and the death penalty as general measures, as specific measures give rise to an even more extensive article.

The government of the Super Man will therefore be succeeded within the aristocratic elite from which will emerge a tulku or community of tulkus in charge of the destiny of the nation through their state leadership. They will be the ones in charge of practically crystallizing the spiritual stability of the nation and fulfilling the main purpose of the state of the Superman: To reduce human suffering, establish National happiness and finally transmute the whole nation by facilitating its access to the lost divinity. The spiritual aristocratic elite will strengthen over time, forming their own cities and communities, dedicated to the cult of the Vril, religion, blood and race, which will not only allow to recover the historical, spiritual and cultural legacy of the ancestors, but will also promote the art and classical and primitive native architecture, which will also be promoted throughout the territory by the olicy of the state, as an inspiring entity of improvement and improvement for the entire nation.

Longevity and old age will not be a problem or hindrance to the nation or the aristocratic elite, as it is in the capitalist and communist systems. On the contrary, the

The nation will enjoy the greatest protection from the state and the Aristocratic Elite, having served the nation, will reach an advanced age, will become part of the Caste of the MASTERS, understood as the doctors of the Hyperborean foundations, the Pontiffs of the Hyperborean wisdom, whose ethics represent a contribution as a model and social example for the nation, and as a guide and conductor of the race towards the divinity. They will preside over the centers. The most important spiritual citadels and temples of the nation throughout the territory and their legacy must endure in the collective magical unconscious, sustained archetypically from Asgard Agharta.

Briefly we have observed the general principles of the Spiritual Aristocracy of the Superman, a system applicable to all races and peoples of the world for the perfection of Man who possesses the eternal Vril. His study seems to be the faithful description of what was and IS the German National Socialism whose wisdom today remains in Antarctica in the continuation of the Reich, preparing the best men and soldiers that Europe has produced. The present world plunged in the tenebrous darkness of the Kaly Yuga where demiurgy and monotheistic materialism rule the unconscious mentality of the sleeping man. The world today is a farm where the human being is treated like cattle, like a number. However the power of maya is so strong while the system culturally keeps man submerged in the satanic hypnotism of social engineering, direct mandate of Jehovah Satan, head of the Tyrannical misrule, of capitalism, communism and monotheism. While Aristocracy, Nationalism, the third position, Fascism and National Socialism, directly and indirectly reflect the strategy of the Liberator Gods.

Today this system is in force in Polar South Antarctica and will fight in Ragnarok to establish this system in the world.

For the glory of the Superman and the Pure blood, Sieg Heil.

OF ALCHEMY AS THE PROCESS OF Gnostic TRANSMUTATION, FOURTH WAY AND ANALYTICAL PSYCHOLOGY

From the doctrine of the Fourth Way of Ancient Mazdeism collected by George Gurdjieff, he gives us the following fragment: "Later you will learn that the practice of self-remembering connected with self-observation and with the struggle against imagination, not only has a psychological meaning, but also changes the subtlest part of our metabolism and produces definite chemical substances in the organism, or rather, alchemical effects in our body".

We clearly evidence a path towards a spiritual and divine change that necessarily evokes the Greek Metempsychosis, by which the mind (soul) and our physiological part (physical body) become directed by the Spirit, that is, within the composition of the human being in body, soul and spirit, three elements represented by the colors, black, white and red, respectively, the colors of alchemy.

All human beings are born asleep, most of us die without awakening enough consciousness of ourselves, therefore, every alchemical process is a process that must be born of a sacred decision, to enter the most dangerous and repudiated path: the path of gnosis and must be willing to die, once awakened from the great material deception of the corrupt world in which we find ourselves and everything happens to us.

As the Ancient Hyperborean Gnosis would say: "The Soul is born designated by Karma, the body deteriorates with the passage of time, but the spirit is immutable, it never forgets, but remains chained to the body and animal soul of man". This doctrine offers seven ways to liberate the spirit towards eternity, the spirit dominating over the body and the soul.

The Father of psychology and psychiatry, Carl Gustav Jung, speaks of Alchemy as a process of psychological development, through which man goes through the same processes of transformation according to stages or phases which are: the purification phase where he would be in the Nígrada or black part, to move later to the Integration, Albeda or white stage, passing to the Union which is the red or red part and finally the stage of the great Work, the complete and inverse development of the being.

The profane man can give himself a purely exoteric idea about alchemy, and this is that of chemical alchemy, the transformation of Lead into Gold, the common idea and general. But the true religion is purely esoteric, because its true connotation is not merely material but spiritual, and its archetypal meaning is a deep, hidden, guarded and forbidden knowledge, since its dominion is at the same time a curse in the eyes of the dialectical demiurge, it is the most forbidden and persecuted religion of all human history, therefore it can only be possessed by the erect warrior and not by the kneeling priest possessing the kabalistic secret and the kalachakra science.

The Symbol as a transmuting entity of alchemy, par excellence are the runes, the dance of the birds, the symbols of the eternal origin of Navutan. The layman understands runes as a divinatory mancy, but the hyperborean warrior magician sees a weapon against the enemy, a tool, the eternal symbol that transforms the unconscious and helps to awaken and heal the sleeping man, the lapis opositionis and the strategic opposition as a way of lithic liberation, to finally become a Bersekir warrior, an Eriaz Rune Magician.

The same connotation has the Tantra through which the sleeping man dies in the sexual act by Kaly-Freya who kills his animal part (soul) through the body to finally transform man into a being of Red Vraja (Spirit), now converted into an eternal Kshatriya, the most fearsome warrior and full of Honor. The secret of alchemy is found in the past, because the truth is intuited in the past, this key is El Gral, hyperborean stone granted by the very Kristo Luz, or Phosforo, or Apollo, commander of the Original legions. Its distortion, like that of the myth of Navutan and the myth of the virgin Ama of Atlantis, was made by the Golen Christian church to give it a new archetypal meaning and completely modified for synarchic purposes. It is the Gral, the sacred transmuting stone, the tabula of the purest men to rule within the aristocracy, the alchemical key of sanguineous transmutation. Its non-physical possession, gives the highest wisdom to the people who have it in their possession, an example of this are the Cathars of Languedoc in northern Spain and southern France, as well as the brave Hispanic Paraguayans in the mid-nineteenth century commanded by the gallant Lord Marshal Solano Lopez is still the Gral in the Cerro Corá?

Will it be found on this site by some chosen one who will command the American nations in the final battle?

Within the Gnostic doctrine of the fourth path, it is a technique of yoga, of self-knowledge, by means of which man can discover his false personality and his essence. To understand the remembrance of self, we must be aware of the phenomenon of simultaneity that Felipe Moyano reveals in his work, through which men live in thousands of worlds at the same time, whose present is determined in different ways, reaching similar objectives. In

Some of them have perished and others lead a completely different life. The problem lies in the fact that each one of these "I's" lives alternately from world to world generating an unbalanced disorder of thoughts, which emerge through the unconscious. The techniques of respiratory yoga, mental yoga, Sexual Yoga and as a prelude the techniques of the fourth path, help to dominate the mind so that it only concentrates on the corresponding world, allowing you to have government of the mental body, through attention, concentration, introspection, thus making the mind an effective tool and not an enemy that can lead you to get sick in a manic, neurotic and so on. A very effective and accurate tool for self-discovery is the Enneagram (an analogy could be made with Nietzsche according to the bridge that man has to cross to stop being an animal and become a superman, taming the beasts and demons that rule over the being).

Finally, it should be added that alchemy is a process clearly linked to the blood, since this is the conduit of the spirit, which predetermines the ruling function, the aristocratic function, the military and the priestly. It is key in this process to awaken the HONOR which rules within the absolute self, the spirit, only the eternal will can guide man to eternity, only to take up arms and prepare to rise beyond the stars can ensure a victory. Only the religion of alchemy can transform man into superman, and awaken him from his sleep, the spell that keeps him mired in materialism, attachment and desire. Only initiation transforms man into a demigod and finally into a Siddha. This revolution will take place on the day of the Spirit, the day of the final battle, the glorious and eternal Ragnarok, which will put an end to the rule of the cabals and the black magic of the sages of Zion, which plunges nations into slavery and material dependence. Luis Felipe Moyano and his work is the prophecy of the end of the Kaly Yuga, is the call to the chosen ones to fight against the powers of matter, is the key to awaken through the door number 13, the door of Venus, is the truth brought from the unknowable and embodied in a work of 4 books.

Undoubtedly, wisdom lies in the past and it awaits our return, but for this it is necessary that we overcome the demon of Kronos and dominate time at the same time that we return to our primordial source in which lies the absolute purity of blood, which implies a defeat for Satan-Saturn, the demon creator of impure matter that keeps us submerged in the hypnotic stupor of time, in a single focus: THE FUTURE, linear time, the new and current temporal mentality of man, whose accelerated and maniacal rhythm leads him to sleep in the illusory nightmare of maya. Let us observe our original heroes in the past, let us study the works of our wise exponents defenders of spiritual awakening and let us return to our original home, let us be eternal in the origin, let us transmute ourselves in the past, let us forget the veil of maya in the future and its dirty and rotten culture. It is the time of zombies, of sleeping beings, attached to matter, to pleasure and comfort, the world is and will be.

a demonic place whose purpose is to enslave the human being, to feed this filthy matrix creation, vile and impure, but let us remember that the Black Sun shines and guides his most loyal warriors, and thanks to him, honor emerges from the purity of our blood, free of all emotional filth and attachments, which will allow the emergence of Honor as the noblest ethic of the warrior whose uncreated essence has overcome his created animality.

Jehovah knows that he will lose, and that Kristo Lucifer will win, that is why he takes advantage of the last lenses of his infernal creation humiliating the hyperborean spirit that resides in the white and yellow race and its derivatives. It is in our hands to be our own masters and overcome, o u t w i t time and step out of the Matrix into eternity, towards the Walhalla, where awaits our primary partner for our Honorable Victory. Sieg Heil

VRIL MEDITATION

I have devised a simple meditation technique to complement the strategies of Viryas who are on the path of spiritual liberation from Vril. This technique consists of three simple steps, relating to the practice of Pranayama first, sexual yoga sexual emanations second and finally concluding with a Vril connection. This practice can be done daily, before going to sleep or in the most convenient space of time, which allows the practitioner to concentrate more easily. It can be done at any time of the day, although preferably before sleeping, due to the state of relaxation in which the human body enters, and also allows to forge a habit that suits the release strategies of each Virya and also allows the practitioner to master their tactics in the astral world and develop experience, once fully realized the 3 stages of this process of Vril Meditation.

Steps:

1. Breathing Exercise

This exercise consists of retaining air in the lungs, by breathing it in externally, in such a way that it fills the lungs completely in order to support as long as possible with the retained air, in order to proceed to expire all the stored oxygen, repeating this exercise consecutively for as many times as it is considered necessary, but it is recommended to perform it for a minimum of 30 times. Once the inspiration is done, there is always one more exercise to store more air with a last effort.

It is important to mention that, at the moment of performing this first stage, the mind must go hand in hand with a double attention, performing the breathing exercise, on the one hand, and, on the other hand, clearing the mind of thoughts, in order to concentrate on itself. To do this, it is essential to eliminate the inner voice, which is the generator of all kinds of unnecessary thoughts, thus seeking to attract the attention of the subject. Therefore, eliminating the inner voice as a habit is essential to develop mindfulness and concentration, which is essential to keep the attention fixed on oneself while meditating, and then adopt this habit in everyday life, in order to begin to dominate the mind and let it act on its own, managing the subject at its dialectical disposal.

As for breathing, this exercise is part of the breathing yoga, only this exercise is part of my personal experience, which means that the practitioner can use and change this first Pranayama exercise for one that best suits him/her.

to suit your individual situation. The rationale for choosing this exercise is that it allows the greatest possible storage of air in the lungs.

It may happen that, when performing these exercises, due to lack of experience, you start to perspire, or at the same time your heart rate accelerates, as well as slight dizziness, which is completely normal, because you are beginning to disinhabit your daily breathing rhythms.

2. Elevation of Sexual Emanations

Once a deep state of concentration is achieved, it is possible to pass to the next stage, which is the practice of a special sexual yoga technique, which can be applied, even if it is not Kaula Tantra, the way of liberation in which the Virya is formed.

It is important before starting this exercise, that the state of concentration achieved by exercise number 1 is preserved. Keeping the eyes closed, once in this trance, we proceed to imagine a white smoke emanating from the gonads, if the practitioner is male, or from the ovaries if the practitioner is female. This white smoke that comes from the lower part of the testicles, must be imagined with such force that it goes up and runs along the whole spine, rising from the lower part, to finally accumulate with great force in the brain, keeping all this imaginative process in the mind, with the objective of giving more "realism" to the whole exercise, to the point of not only "observing" it but to feel the sensation of the smoke emerging and rising, but mainly, feeling the potentiation in the brain where it must accumulate. This exercise is repeated for at least 10 minutes. It may happen that during the practice, you begin to feel a deep sleep, in which case you should practice the will to avoid falling asleep and that it overcomes the conscious subject, as well as it may also happen that headaches begin to arise after fully practicing the Vril meditation, which should not stop practicing, because it is normal, while the cerero is adapted. This pain will disappear after 2 or 3 days of practice.

For a better understanding of the elevation of sexual emanations around the kundalini logos, it is recommended to read the article "Sexual Yoga and sexual alchemy. Sexual techniques of Kaula Tantra to liberate the spirit" by Professor José María Herrero Aragón.

The objective of performing sexual emanations is the repair and rejuvenation of the brain from the improper use of sexual energy, which affects and atrophies it, through habitual ejaculation, onanism or pollution. The brain and the semen, share the same composition, therefore, the semen contributes with this exercise, in first instance, to repair it and in second instance to potentiate its faculties, achieving in this way great benefits for the Virya, by strengthening the mental capacities in all magnitude, and in the same way, being able to awaken even supra mental functions.

This practice is free of any danger, becoming even more dangerous the accumulation of sexual energy in the lower genital area, which can affect the nearby organs, a phenomenon that occurs when one resorts to celibacy, being the only possibility of releasing sexual energy, pollution. Hence the importance of working the sexual energy.

3. VRIL connection

Once the practitioner has reached this stage, the state of concentration should be preserved, whose trance should be even deeper, to proceed in this way to connect with the Vril, the eternal spirit. We proceed to communicate through the word with the spirit, asking him in this way to fill with Vril energy and vitalize the whole body, and after that we can add requests that are important for our spirituality and daily life through phrases of power for this we will pronounce the phrase that is best considered to your personal strategy in order to further enhance the essential hostility, among which we can mention examples such as: "I am an eternal spirit, I alone rule in my being", "Eternal Spirit annihilate my soul and give me freedom", "I want to be free in the origin. I want to get out of the universe of the demiurge", etc. After that, one should imagine and feel the force of the Vril Spirit as cold fire that emerges from within and takes over the whole being, going through every corner of the body, from head to toe, visualizing even in the mind the fire from within, conquering the brain. One should strive to maintain this fire, which is the Vril, in the whole body, maintaining an eternal connection with itself, in a trance in which the mind should be concentrated, fixing its attention only in feeling and imagining all the power of the enriching fire.

This last stage of the Vril meditation: "Vril Connection" is based on the Gnostic principle: "Energy is concentrated where you direct your attention", a principle that nourishes the absolute self with power and brings it closer to the self-initiation granted by the Siddhas in the Dream. The Vril Connection can be used in order to strengthen the will, the essential hostility, in addition to recharging energy that will empower the body for health and daily functions, as does Qigong.

It is noteworthy that the word has been used to establish communication with the eternal spirit, being the only God who really listens to all kinds of requests and prayers. or prayers, as Gustav Meyrink and Professor José Maria Herrou Aragón mentioned in their writings.

The realization of these 3 simple steps brings man closer to his own divinity, to the Gnosis that resides within him. As the days go by, he will observe the psychological and physiological changes that will bring to his life a spiritual development closer to the absolute conquest of the Origin.

NIMROD OF ROSARY AND THE HYPERBOREAN GNOSIS VS. THE FALSE GNOSIS OF SAMAEL AUN WEOR

First clarify that these are two abysmally different initiatory paths, enemies even. These two initiatory paths denote the essential war, inside and outside the universe: The Liberator Gods of Walhalla vs.

199 Nephilims of Shamballa. The following points highlight and characterize as the main bases of each Author's Gnostic school of doctrine:

SAMAEL AUN WEOR - SAMAELITE GNOSIS

It is a Hebrew 'Gnosis' that recognizes monotheism over polytheism.

He works the Soul to initiate it in search of its immortality.

— Imposes a bow total a Yahweh
It is the path of the Hincado Priest of the white fraternity.

The Samaelite initiation eliminates the Vril-Spirit, causing the unwary to fall into an authentic suicide.

The Samaelite Initiation does not free the absolute self from the created universe or Matrix, it makes it part of it.

The only way to "eternity" is to be host and submissive to the Shamballico high command.

Works for the White Brotherhood, the 199 Nephilim who work for Yahweh Satan.

— Advocates by
He has a "hostility" towards capitalism and communism, but in a confused and misleading way, because he does not believe in the creation of Zionist social engineering, the work of the white fraternity to keep man asleep.

Samael Aun Weor, was a plagiarist like the theosophist Madame Blavatsky, in whose deep study and research, they did not create Gnostic epistemology, they only made compilations. compilations.

Samael proposes the elimination of the self and the egoic will in order not to become independent of the universe but to be part of it, that is to say, to fall into the demiurgic crew.

It is the way of the sheeple who follow their shepherd Yahweh, obediently without rebelling against his tyranny and satanic law.

One of its sciences is based on the Hebrew, numerical and acoustic Kabalah, based on the 22 voices through which Yahweh created the universe.

It makes a confusing mention of tantrism, in the "paravatic" sense and denies the woman Kaly - Hyperborean Freya, divine woman who grants the liberation of the spirit, imposing on itself, a Nirvanic tantra in which kundalini does not divinize the chakras archons of the human being. but that the carries them harmoniously to Nirvana.

In his confusion he gives a Priestly sense to the RUNES of Wotan, affirming them as a science used by Germanic priests (druids), likewise he changes the sense to the Hyperborean Siddha Quetzalcoatl equating it with an almic sense.

Samael is a servant of Yahweh and the white brotherhood of Shamballah, therefore his work is totally distant from the divine Alchemy.

Man must praise the work of Yahweh and not destroy it.

The way of worship and praise denies blood, race and nation.

There is no established order in his compendium of works, therefore, there is no guiding oren which makes it a confusing path. Initiation is granted by Man and does not produce psychological mutation.

NIMROD DE ROSARIO - HYPERBOREAN GNOSIS

_ It is the way from the alchemy that transforms to man at a God Hyperborean Gnosis works all the properties of the Vrill present in members of the white race, part of the mestization with the yellow race, Black race, Jewish people.

_ It is a way completely oriented. It is the way of the Warrior, who rebels against Yavhe satan, the jailer who has imprisoned him in his creation.

He grants the warrior absolute freedom in the unknowable Origin, teaching him the virtues of the Aryan warrior, thus turning him into a Warrior and a Wizard like the initiated soldiers. initiates of the Order Black Order SS. The gnosis of Nimrod of Rosario transforms man into a demigod in his first initiations and later into a divine and eternal Siddha God.

The Hyperborean gnosis seeks to destroy the impure and the false, which is the creation of Yahweh and the shamballa, enemies of the essential war.

The hyperborean gnostic exhibits his hostility towards this created world through Berserker Rage and strategically stimulates it through Luciferic Grace.

Hyperborean gnosis teaches the use of unconventional, parapsychological, runological weapons and terrible powers.

Hyperborean gnosis eliminates the Soul with its emotions and feelings, so that they are governed by the Spirit, that is to say, the Vril, in the absolute self, conserving an egoic will.

It is the way of the wolf that stalks and hunts the sheep in a solitary way.

It is the Gnosis of Honor and the Aryan virtues.

It is a hostile enemy of capitalism and communism, basing its precepts on nationalism, aristocracy, racialism and, in an updated form, National Socialism.

The hyperborean gnosis teaches 7 ways of spiritual liberation.

One of its most important ways of liberation is the way of Kaula Tantra, in which it is a mandatory requirement to perform tantra with the Woman Freya Kaly.

It contains the deepest study of RUNOLOGY in history as well as its initiates who have followed the path of the Wothan runes have complemented it as Ricardo Céspedes.

It rescues the hyperborean values of the Aryan Vedic India, the Sufis, the Manichaeans, the Cathars, the Iberians, the Tiwanakas, the Germanic Vikings, the Quetzalcoatlans Toltecs, the Mayas of Kukulcan, the Muiscas of Bochica, the Comechingones among other sacred cultures, daughters of hyperborea and later of Atlantis.

It frees man from Jehovah's prison, making him eternal by conquering the vril, as did the THULE Society of Germany, the German Order, the BLACK ORDER SS of Germany, the ANAEL Order and the OCTIRODAE Order of Argentina.

To conclude, Samael's students found it very difficult to understand what Samael wanted to stipulate in his works and where they were directed, let us also remember the tragic destiny that Samael had when he invoked his last words against his "masters" who were nothing more than demons of Shamballa and in the same way Madame Blavatsky died. When Samael falls dead, the relief of his origin and disciples is confused without knowing what to do, so this order sought and found in Nimrod of Rosario in his order OCTIRODAE what Samael could not fulfill them fortunately for them. Finally, it is very dangerous to fall into the illusory traps of the demiurge, therefore it is important to be cautious of the false gnosis of Samael Aun Weor. The true Gnosis is that of the spirit, because wisdom has lingered in the dark corners of history, by concealment of a world government that has been developing since the Middle Ages, to enslave humanity and keep it imprisoned in the human rook. Only Hyperborean Gnosis grants true FREEDOM.

TIPS AND TECHNIQUES FOR THE REALIZATION OF SEXUAL EMANATIONS IN SEMINAL RETENTION WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF TANTRA YOGA

Outside the spiritual and committed realization of Tantra, we can find minimal practices that every man can perform to improve his health, physical and spiritual faculties, internal energy control and mental training, based on a central axis: the sexual energy, the Kundalini energy focused and subordinated to the Vril energy, understood as the absolute self or spirit, for the control and self-improvement.

Regardless of the path to choose in Tantra, what is vital within the worldview and the Doctrine of the Hyperborean is the liberation of the Spirit, the overcoming of the archons and chakras that impede this objective and the approach towards the realization of the Kaivalya; the Elimination of the created soul, the and the divinization of the material body in divine red Vajra. In other words, Hyperborean Tantra' must forge the inner alchemy, transmuting man into the past at the origin and not evolving to the immortality of Nirvana, seeing reflected in the practice of Tantra, the essential War between the Liberating Gods of Hyperborea and the Nephilim and the Demiurge Yavhé.

Having clarified the above, we contextualize the practice of Sexual Emanations, which are the proper technique for the accumulation of sexual energy in the Brain. Its realization tends to the healing of the body and the brain, in a correct circulation of the Vril energy (also known as Chi, ki, qi or pneuma) in the whole being, allowing the correct alignment of the energy centers or chakras in subordination to the eternal Spirit or absolute self, Runifying or pontificating the chakras so that they do not impede the spiritual liberation, and requiring the intervention of a Kaly Woman to initiate the Kshatriya aspirant, a subject that is not for us to address at this time.

The first thing that must be done, to accumulate Sexual energy, once engaged in the practice is sexual abstinence, which is not a priestly abstinence that rejects sexual relations, for moral considerations, but on the contrary, it REQUIRES and NEEDS sexual contact, but basing this practice on its two main objectives:

1. NOT REACHING ORGASM.

2. PRACTICE OF ACCUMULATION OF SEXUAL ENERGY IN THE BRAIN (SEXUAL EMANATION)

3. MENTAL COMPLEMENT

1. When the man reaches orgasm in any form either in intercourse, in pollution or onanism or masturbation, and for its part, the woman when menstruating in her sexual energy counterpart: , generate an increasingly greater weakening of their brains, generating damage that in most people continues to be forged throughout their lives, not having an accurate knowledge about sexual energy within Tantra, for the use of the same in favor of physiological, mental and spiritual health in its correct application within the framework of the praxis of intelligent sex, which is purely spiritual.

We must be aware of the constant strategies of social engineering applied by this Talmudic system, for the control of the masses in terms of cultural hypersexualization to keep us submerged in the sexual dependence that offers us the ephemeral and banal pleasure of coitus. The brains that move the monstrous arms of this system, in the decision making, understand that the weakening of the masses is essential for human mind control, therefore, it is not surprising that it uses its most effective weapon such as the media to directly influence the current cultural paradigms, encouraging the unbridled use of sex, as a "normal" axis that should govern in a mandatory way in everyday life. This can be seen reflected and promoted in an overwhelming way within the monstrous cinematographic machinery, pornography, the music industry, sex education, influencing in a remarkable way the masses, especially the youth and adults, whose rates of masturbation are alarming, because there is no greater damage to the human brain than onanism, a practice that kills the vitality of man, numbs him, subtracts great will and self-control, and can degenerate into perversion and many other evils such as premature aging.

Therefore, for the awakening of the consciousness and health of spiritual men, it is necessary that the new Psychology transcends the Freudian psychoanalysis prevailing in contemporary academia, far from understanding or promoting the benefits of orgasmic retention, as it is of the inheritance of the pasu in the human being and its genetic implications in the conduct and behavior, being these behaviors of the sexuality of the slave, animal instincts.

It is also important to understand that sexuality is not an immoral act, to be denied or repressed as any dogmatic or religious system of thought would establish, since it is a necessary factor, even if celibacy is practiced, because sexuality can be taken as a placebo turning us into dependent slaves of it, or it can be used alchemically to transform us into masters of our being.

2. Practice of Sexual Energy Accumulation in the brain (Sexual Emanation) Taking into account these notions, we proceed to the realization of the emanations, once the orgasmic fluids have been retained in the man and the woman. It is necessary to emphasize that not performing sexual emanations once the semen has been retained, can generate serious consequences, because it is energy that must be worked nourishing the brain, and when it is accumulated it can damage the organs close to the genitals. Therefore, it is absolutely necessary and obligatorily important that the retained sexual energy be sent to the brain. We proceed as follows:

In any situation or moment of the day, either at rest or at work, or even before going to sleep or in the routine of Meditation, you should relax your body and mind.

body and mind (preferably being in this one in silence, without mental conversation) in daily situations watching even television or being in the computer, etc. We proceed to touch the palate with the tongue to open the micro cosmic channel and we should imagine a white smoke that arises from the genitals in the man or in the ovules in the woman that would be its corresponding, we should imagine that this smoke rises all over the back until it finally accumulates in the brain, it is important to visualize how the brain is completely bathed by this smoke. You should feel this accumulation in the brain and at the same time, with time and practice you will know which places of the brain are the most propitious to accumulate this white smoke.

This practice will repair the brain from the damage caused by the various orgasms performed throughout life. The sexual energy, by no longer going outwards, mutates inwards, transforming itself into energy (energy nodes) and it is this alchemical transformation that will nourish the brain, because for the brain the sexual energy represents a real nourishment.

Perform this process daily, along with seminal retention. You can also opt for the realization of Maithuna, that is, to have sexual relations, with penetration, but without intercourse. This is the moment of greater use of sexual energy, because it is at its peak of potential.

There are other forms of Maithuna, which involve only the visualization of the sexual partner both physically and mentally.

The brain will be potentiated and with the passage of time you will begin to see the results. It should be noted that where we concentrate our attention, is where the energy is concentrated, therefore, visualization is very important, as this allows us to have a much clearer notion of this process of emanations and therefore, this will facilitate the accumulation of energy. We can make a previous study of the anatomy of the brain, which allows us to visualize all its parts, or the most important ones, to be filled with this white smoke, the sexual energy transformed into energy.

The sexual emanation, therefore, transcends the sexual desire, and with practice and time, calms the thirst of having sexual relations instinctively or the dishabituation of the mind to the realization of onanism, gaining dominion over the instinctive and animal soul, soul subject that does not allow us to wake up spiritually, and keeps us lethargic in the placebos of food, sex or the false selves, whether ambition, lust, laziness, anger, sadness, vices, etc. Therefore, it is important to emphasize that celibacy, practiced by priests who have taken vows of chastity, is an incomplete practice, because it generates accumulation of sexual energy, without being taken to the brain for its full exercise, which in the long run, is dangerous for those who practice it with serious organic consequences and in the worst case, consequences of the sexual energy, which in the long run, is dangerous for those who practice it with serious organic consequences and in the worst case, consequences of the sexual energy.

The aim is to transform sexual relations alchemically, without morally denying sex.

It will therefore be the same sexual energy used for the procreation of external life, the generation of a new, inner body, which will increasingly mutate the practitioner gaining ground in self-control and self-mastery. Being sovereign ruler of his own body and soul.

The person who performs these emanations, at the same time, has generated a great shield against all kinds of evil, which makes him/her invulnerable to parapsychological attacks or black magic works. The secrets of sexual alchemy are such that monotheistic and demiurgic religions such as Judaism or Islam prohibit the accumulation of sexual energy, because the demiurge Yahweh or Allah fears that man awakens spiritually and becomes a warrior who rebels against him.

To begin with, this practice can be done slowly, in an ascending way in achievements such as one orgasm every week, then one orgasm every 15 days, then one orgasm every 30 days, being able to increase the respective marks, with the goal that the longer the time without ejaculation, the more beneficial it is. However, the orgasm after 30 days, no longer generates any damage to the brain.

Likewise, they try to hide the benefits of the Tantra Kaula, ignoring that it is a practice that has been developing for millennia, from its teaching in Atlantis, to Egypt, India, Nepal, Tibet, China (Taoism), Japan, since ancient times, until it spread to our American lands, being brought and taught in Germany and later popularized by the sect of false Gnosis of Samael Aun Weor.

Once man, from his will, has managed to control the sexual flow, he will be able to control the respiratory flow and finally he will be able to control the mental flow, being a necessary requirement to control sex as a necessary first instance, for a full spiritual development that focuses towards the transmutation in the liberation of the spirit, rather than nirvana in the immortality of the soul or what is known in hyperborean wisdom as Cosmic Suicide.

This brief and simple practice will allow us to recover the purity of the brain from childhood, if we continue persisting in it, we will recover the purity of the brain at birth and later on the purity of its previous reincarnations, being able to circumvent the karma of Samsara, objective sought by the hyperborean wisdom. If one continues to persist in the seminal retention, one can awaken all types of psychic faculties, such as clairvoyance, telepathy, healing, achieving a unique awakening, knowing how to direct the ying, or the VRIL energy, which is the same Chi energy. This practice can be complemented with Chi Kung or Qi Gong exercises that allow the accumulation of Chi energy in the Tan Tien, this greatly favors the mastery over sexual energy, being charged with Chi energy in these energy retaining "tanks" that will eventually perfect our daily life.

In the woman, menstruation as a sexual design, diminishes her sexual energy and potentiality, being therefore this fluid the analogue to the semen, while the ovaries are the analogue to the testicles of the man, therefore, she can proceed to perform the same personal practice mentioned above.

GNOSIS AS A POLITICAL STRATEGY IN THE DOCTRINE OF NATIONALISM

To speak of Gnosis as an element proper to a political system, which is outside the sphere of the collective unconscious, would be absurd for the masses, but for those who read with their blood, this is the ideal system of government for the best nations, a system that focuses on the complete perfection of man in all his faculties. We refer, of course, to the Aristocracy of the Spirit, a system that is not "new" nor arose from thought or abstract theory, on the contrary, it is a system born of Custom, of iusnaturalism, that is to say, it arises as a manifestation of the will of the blood and the race.

No community divine and superior to the merely human can be realized without the intervention of a great leader of the blood, of the unique and collective manifestation of the blood history of a nation, of a great Tulku, sent from the unknowable. Founder and forger of the foundations and principles of a civilization or empire. This is a system, which destroys all forms of officialdom imposed by synarchic darkness. As for time itself, it focuses on the past, but not on the future, unlike the polar system of social engineering used by the synarchy to enslave humanity, which focuses on the future, thus responding to the archetypal will of the demiurge. It is based, therefore, on recovering an immense historical spiritual tradition, of the purity of the peoples of the past, recovering the virtues that still lie dormant in the ancestral veins of the peoples of the world, who today lie under the hypnotic lethargy of Yahweh. It is this awakening that will grant man the longed-for freedom of the peoples of the world.

It is precisely aristocracy, the government of the best, a system opposed to liberal democracy and communist totalitarianism, systems that massify man, globalizing the primitive traditions, mutilating the spirituality of man, this being the current version of the witch hunt for anyone who opposes this Machiavellian system, that in its strategy of domination, has changed the deep sense of the ethical noological concepts that tend to the liberation of man, among them Aristocracy and Nationalism, being the first transformed into a synonym of Power by economic right and the second as a synonym of Chauvinism and "obsolete" patriotism.

We can even say that the center and main engine of the aristocracy of the spirit is the blood and the formation, beyond the hereditary political material succession, being a much more primitive and original concept. This same concept necessarily leads us to touch upon the fundamental theme of race, another crucial element for the formation of the community of strictly prepared men, who have conquered their animal nature and have conquered the Vril, that is to say, are initiated in the hyperborean wisdom. The race is the manifestation of the blood and, therefore, an aristocratic system tends to maintain the purity of the same, based on strategies of biopolitical character, intervening in the strategic crossings of the members of this community, assuring the purity of the future generations. All this within a RACIAL STRATEGY, which has as its strict objective to forge a community of supermen, otherwise, gnosis does not rely on procreation between animal men or sleeping Viryas. It is by therefore, the white Aryan race, the materialization of the Vrili, whose motive is the body of the pasu animal. Today it lies mostly asleep and has been extirpated of all memory and cultural registry that allows its cohesion and at the same time it is inhibited from ethnic division, through the manipulation of the massive emotion and mainly through the myth. It is this sleeping racial community that has forgotten that its blood built the most important foundations of history. In this way gnosis allows the white race to transmute itself into the Aryan race, the race of the spirit, the race initiated in the infinite blackness, the "human" element (superman).

(superman) that will make part of the mentioned aristocracy. Nation, homeland, history, culture, national unity, family, territory, identity, autonomy and freedom are basic elements of nationalism, the official historiography hides several referents of its records or places them within the psychic polarity, so that this third way, contradicts the dual and official approach of the synarchy, or persecutes and defames any Nationalist affiliation. Gnosis in this sense, enters as an INFINITE element, whose purpose is to transmute in the past (and not to evolve to the future) the nation that is sheltered by this aristocracy, all this within a FRAMEWORK, an archemona, that allows to form the fittest and strongest man in its interior, that sustains the wall and door to the infinite that arises in its center.

If we take a specific example, the aristocracy of the spirit advocates a system that magically connects the nation with the earth, agriculture being the symbol and bridge of the union between the human and the divine: "Blood and soil" as masterfully the Obergruppenführer Walter Darré, would rediscover from the primordial source of the Nordic blood, long magical tradition of the Indo-Germanic hyperborean peoples of the West, thus recalling the recovery of agriculture as an initiatory system, founded on the lithic mysteries of cereal, a direct inheritance of the Atlantis Aryanity, legacy of the Ancient Hyperborea, mother of Atlantis and of the White man.

Is it possible and feasible for gnosis to be applied to the other races within the framework of a Nationalist and Gnostic strategy? Yes, it is feasible, all races must develop to the limit that their blood allows them. In order to do so, every nation must place itself in a form Geo-spiritual, to looking for at the past for your history. Now, we can remarkably differentiate a spiritual nationalistic system from a Liberal system or a Marxist system, the latter two, slave systems that massify man collectively, as part of a whole, and this is the reason for the decadence of the modern world, as a gloomy vision of the nightmare of the Kaly Yuga. That is why the superman looks to the past, remains indifferent to the constant flow of the demiurgic breath.

The superman is the bridge between divinity and animality, only from his superior psychology, man can be worthy to rule in altruism and in the service of the other races in the world, because his rebellion is theological and his right is imposed by blood and race. His Aptitude to rule is granted by initiatory merit, he is a reborn who knows the death of the worldly soul, demiurgic, where he resides.

all ambitious material interest and therefore the weaknesses of the sleeping man, this being the curse and design of desire. His right to rule is not a crude demagogic popular election, his succession to power is Merit of Blood.

There is no doubt therefore that in the present writing, we have described in an allusive way, some of the Gnostic principles of German National Socialism, the greatest Gnostic political revolution in history, its bases and foundations necessarily lead us to remember the first idea of a Third Reich: The Thule project of John Dee, father of alchemy, who would forge the pillars of what in the future would be the Thule Society, brain of the Third Reich, being this the most powerful secret society of all times, as Philip would say. The Aristocracy of the Third Reich is the Schutzstaffel, especially the SS Black Order, which would reach the highest level of hyperborean wisdom, granting the purest and most prepared supermen of the white race today, born of the National Socialist biopolitics of the Third Reich, in the Lebensborn programs, the latter perfected thanks to genetic alchemy, deepened by the mystical science of the SS Black Order.

In the hands of the superman is the destiny of humanity, and from Antarctica, he will try to forge such system known in magnitude by the Aryan race as the Universal Aryan Empire, thus facing the intention of the demiurge to enslave non-Jewish humanity, as a form of humiliation of the eternal Hyperborean lineages through the Jewish world dominion, which tends to enslave the human being, imposing itself as master and owners of the non-Jewish.

The sleeping and manipulated man is still not aware that simple Political nationalism is unconditional Altruism whose end and purpose is abysmally different from the liberal and Marxist polarity of the slave synarchy. If to this Political Nationalism, we adhere Gnosis as a strategy of spirituality, more than altruistic, its end will be Absolute Freedom, centered in the good divine Aryan Government, as opposed to the tyranny of the demiurge and his satanic hosts that today hold the world power, thus confronting the Jehovah's dialectic whose main purpose is to confuse the masses.

When Man is an unconscious prey of this social and esoteric engineering, this leads to his division and separation not from individuation but from cultural and systematic dependence, corrupting himself under the rules based on banal knowledge that have replaced the eternal values and the primordial wisdom of thousands and thousands of years of Ethical tradition, thus evidencing the Hebrew Talmudic strategy that works to replace the tradition of all peoples, added to the rewriting, concealment and destruction of its books, to which proceeds the imposition of new social and collective patterns of conduct, as well as the promotion of the rejection and repulsion towards the historical past, focusing the mentality towards the materialistic future and dependent on a global system that advocates an internationalism devoid of Spirit and whose mechanicity is the reflection of the will of a tyrannical master and his servants.

Therefore, Gnosis within a strategy of social engineering, replaces the material interest by the good Aryan government, focused on the eternal values that transmute the nation, recovering its historical past and purifying the blood of its members.

The national laws by gnostically going back to the origin, pure and divine, the primordial source that purifies men from the Noologic Ethics of Honor.

In this way we observe a polarity very marked by two governments at war, on the one hand the tyrannical Government, proper of the creator of this universe, the Nehilim and its terrestrial headquarters: International Judaism and in its counterpart we have the Just Government, headed by the Hyperboreans in Venus-Walhalla and its terrestrial headquarters: The Polar Antarctica of the Third Reich. In the midst of this contest is the humanity asleep in the Infernal Kaly Yuga, object and main reason of this essential War.

DEDICATED TO THE HERO

Human history attests to be a great field of experimentation in which men and women are nothing more than indignantly exploited beings, who, in turn, do not understand the most vile act of humiliation that is to exist. This is reflected in the perversion and lack of ethics in the human being, who performs the same acts without any respect for nature, evidencing in this sense and in many others the hermetic principle of correspondence. Whoever pretends to see perfection in this universe, simply looks from his condition of slave, of kneeling sheep, regardless of his repulsive knowledge or personal definition, from the atheist to the religious.

Within this chaos, this hypnotic hell, the possibilities of a true freedom beyond the vile creation, are subordinated to a struggle that is fought in the personal field, which more than a struggle is a duty that every man and every woman must perform for a full spiritual development in the purity of the spirit.

The key to this infernal labyrinth is called will, and this is found within all of us, it only remains to fight against the mental manipulation with which we are born, designed to fight for our freedom, to be worthy, to have honor, like the Hero, the example of the ideal of struggle, the one who observes time without participating in it.

Such contempt for life cannot emerge from an idea, from a thought, from a mental lucubration, from an emotional onanism, from a false ego, or from the elusive false selves that undermine man. Such an underestimation of attachments can only be born of honor, of a pure man, who gives an example of life to his social and family circle, and in general to all humanity, because he himself purifies it with his struggle. He is the great Hero.

With his Honor as a banner you advance over the thousand worlds of illusion, that the demiurge weaves for you, who would even be willing to negotiate with you before facing you since your level of Honor is eternal Fire, icy fire that destroys everything in its path, being the most fearsome weapon against the filthy putrefaction created. The demons and the hosts of yahweh tremble with fear, anger and cowardice, they are the deepest expressions of the collective unconscious of the logos and the universal mind, materializing the deepest horrors upon seeing their creation rebelled and extirpated from the One. They will seek to destroy you, for they know that they could never create a being whose virtue of courage, valor and loyalty humiliate the self-proclaimed gods.

It is war, therefore, your life, your only thought, your strategy to attack, to give your life for freedom, without any fear, because all your historical journey has been the wisdom that has guided you to BE, to exist, with only one justification: TO FIGHT beyond life and death. A self-sacrifice, from which the Demons will never obtain a single atom, because your DECISION has already turned you into Vraja, your commitment has hardened you, being now alchemical gold, which transcends human filth and its inferior and instinctive animality.

Detached from the world of illusion and the stimuli of consumption and comfort that enslaves and imprisons the men of our days, whose appellation is still quite generous, when reality shows an inferior, unethical man, justifying his myths, their dirty intellectual knowledge or their material possessions as their definition of being, they could not see how empty their existence is and how pathetic is their admiration for this prison and madhouse before which you face today, to destroy.

Gone are the glorious years in which pure blood produced the best Aryan prototypes on their way to the path of the Hero from which you come, a path that can only be traveled by the best, by real men, who honor that definition, while self-proclaimed men accumulate wealth, you accumulate purity, because you claim by right the virtues of your ancestors, of your divine hyperborean ancestor, purifying yourself from the mystery of pure blood, being inevitable your awakening and spiritual and physical strengthening. From a stream you grew into an ocean.

You were born under the test of life, to innately belong to the Natural Elite of humanity, composed of the best, those who have conquered themselves, who have controlled the demons and archons that rule every being in the world advocating their enslavement and the numbing of man, as a vile systematic slave, as a datum in the vile ocean of knowledge of the architect of the madhouse. It is this elite that is the base of the elect in the true world, for the awakening of all the slaves who remain asleep by the shared dream and the power of mental manipulation, reflection of a mental universe.

The highest wise warriors and magicians of history revere the great hero who rightfully belongs to the solar aristocracy of the mysteries of spiritual liberation who once saw golden times in the ancient honorable past, worthy times when the world witnessed the purity of blood, showing the virtues of all races in the world, when men recognized by blood the right to rule, when the aristocracy of the spirit showed in the light of day the way to the origin. But, at the end of the day, time is nothing more than a banal false and repugnant illusion, the flow of the devil, as is culture and history, which show a path that matters nothing in the conscience of the hero, since you do not live in the past or in the future, you have already conquered the past and your indifference conquers the future, the present being the eternal infinite, the importance of your acts forged in an ethic superior to the human animal, the intellectual animal.

The Aristocracy of the best spiritually elevated warriors gives a special place to the hero, the son of the spiritual racial stock of the warriors of the world, for to your formidable and wise vision of the universe, nothing really exists, not even those who are condemned to live. No one can see so clearly, for honor awakens the values and principles that only in the spirit can reside.

What does the search for happiness matter, this is nothing more than false selfishness, an unnecessary search for personal satisfaction, the main objective pursued by the human masses that make up the majority, therefore, your most noble and virtuous act is precisely to face and accept your unhappiness through DIGNITY, because as the great priestess Savitri Devi says, your mission has necessarily linked you to the Eternal. You thus face your destiny and demonstrate to others that you are worthy to face any beast, nothing torments your conscience, and no doubt now haunts your being, for you deserve to exist, this is your destiny, your mysterious and glorious mission.

You have renounced your personal dreams, with only one conviction, to achieve your glorious and unexpected moment in which heroism will vainglorie you and proclaim you in eternity, you are more than a man, therefore, this filthy hell does not deserve you, and it is the gods who claim you to enter and take your place in Walhalla, the kingdom of the Gods, the house of the eternal champions, since even the gods themselves envy the hero, because he can dominate heaven and hell in an infinite instant, being able to challenge Satan and at the same time, he overcomes the greatest and most important test consisting in the transformation of the animal man into Superman, That is why the Hyperborean Wisdom reserves the life of Honor for the Great Heroes of the blood, the soldier, the warrior, the reckless son of the spirit, who will be awakened with Hydromiel by Lucifer himself, and his Valkyrie who will heal his war wounds, being received by the Gods who will toast with him, and will receive him as a brother, thus achieving the Superman to become a Siddha, reaching the Gods by synchrony, he has conquered the eternal exit thanks to that instant full of the purest and absolute and superior value.

Wotan the Father of Heroes, the most courageous God, who entered hell challenging death to discover the mystery of illusion, that the demiurge Loki as an impostor, plagiarist and liar, elaborated to keep captive the spirit given of life. The sons of Wotan, the heroes, fill with joy and eternal joy their father, discoverer of the mystery of the bird, of the language of the birds, of the runes in the tree of fear, to be self-sacrificing, giving the best example of courage and virtue to the white race and its main ethnic families, Willingly, Wotan performed the greatest heroic act, by incarnating the animal man, living the alchemical experience of mutating the animal into a real man, of awakening from the dream and the demiurgic ecstasy, thus defeating the hosts of the demons and the demons, thus defeating the hosts of the demiurge, not without mentioning that none of her great act would have been worth it, had it not been for the spiritual rescue of her great A-mada Freya, Goddess of Goddesses, heroine of A-mort of her husband who in agony could visualize him, great Freya, goddess of heroines and feminine bravery, commander of the Valkyries, Together with her husband Wotan, they boil the blood of the children of the white Hyperborean race, and from the Vril, they call their children to awaken in them the honor and bravery enough to be worthy to enter Walhalla and lead the guard of the great Odin: the Einherjar.

Thor and Tyr are exalted to the worthy representatives of humanity, Thor protector of Midgard and Asgard, from Mjolnir, guide of the heroes towards valhalla, never allowing their deviation from the spiritual path, awakening in men the virtues of the Combatant and the theology of spiritual Awakening, the philosophy of the Aryan man, full of a huge tradition of Courtly and warrior Values.

Man in the deepest sense of the word, is the great warrior, soldier and champion: the Hero of blood, the best prototype of man that the species can give. Man of action and praxis, worthy of being studied in the fields of human knowledge to transcend inferior human knowledge, eminently scientific or religious, whose main premise is culture. The hero is the projection of the spirit, of wisdom, of the principles and values governed by honor, and we can already imagine that which are the prototypes of man originated from intellectuality, and the accumulation of knowledge, varieties and multiplicity of profiles, in which only the inferior man, the mass man could identify himself.

It is known that in our dark age that the Kaly Yuga religiously teaches materialistic knowledge as the cultural, archetypal and phagocytic identification of the followers of happiness and comfort. That is why wisdom and its historical-cultural fruits will always venerate the one who overcomes the test of overcoming death, moving away from the inferior prototype of the comfortable man who judges the past without having the slightest empathic idea of it, valuing man for his creations and cultural contributions, and not for his value of blood purity, because even the valuation of racial purity can become sinful if there is no noological ethical content that founds a real man, as a being worthy of a culture or civilization.

Two decisions after death this man will have to make: stay in Walhalla to continue fighting or incarnating, or return to Hyperborea, to the absolute freedom of the reborn man. The true Hero, of course, will stay to continue fighting to rescue his comrades and brothers from the hell which he seeks to destroy in order to free the slaves in the infernal hypnotic lethargy. He will prefer to fight until the final battle, until the great holocaust of fire, which will leave behind him all the infernal hosts of the demiurge Yahweh, or he will want to manifest himself again to men, as a master initiate, as a mutated and reborn who has outwitted samsara. He will be a Bodhisattva, who will resort to the past strategies of the Gods. To guide and orient men to develop spiritually.

You are the son of humanity, the ideal of man to reach, all the unjust victims who even lacked honor, are dignified by your struggle, by your cause and integrity. You are superior to Satan, superior to death, the most sublime thing to be achieved by a man or a woman, you will always carry my respect, because you are even more worthy of worship than many indifferent gods. Your imprint and legacy is still remembered by all those who wish to conquer the origin, the Vrill, and seek the path of spiritual enlightenment to Hyperborea. Great times in which our race will produce heroes en masse, will return, and the strategies of the Gods and Tulkus as the Kristo, or the Fuhrer will manifest again, to return to the true man, to the glorious golden years in which our values and honorable principles will push us to seek death and not be the one who pursues the cowards unworthy of receiving an honorable death fighting for truth, justice, freedom and the SPIRIT.

COMMENTS ON THE CHRONICLE OF AKAKOR BY KARL BRUGGER

Undoubtedly, the Chronicle of Akakor is a polemic book defined as a cultural historical contribution of great transcendence to clarify the American historiography from the historical revisionism, while from the official historiography, it is defined from the defamation as a fraud. But, without a doubt, it is the revisionist investigation together with the proofs and evidences such as the Hispanic chronicles that prove that the Chronicle of Akakor is a true story, as a treasure that compiles the imperial history of the Ugha Mongulala for more than 13,000 years.

The Mongula empire symbolizes the passage of the white Atlanteans through South America, and although it does not provide much information about the imperial and divine historical development in Mesoamerica, this work allows us to deduce that the foundation of Anahuac has similar divine origins.

Who were these superior beings from the stars and the seas? They were the ancient Hyperboreans, the Divine Atlanteans, whose colonization of the Andes represents the cultural and racial origin of the antediluvian civilizations. It is in the current Peruvian Andes where the Gods have chosen to raise Akakor, between the mountain and the Amazon jungle, denoting a common Hyperborean trait in the construction of this city and the sacred architecture, based on a terrestrial lithic and an Intraterrestrial lithic raising, being this, not a mere myth or legend as the official historiography irresponsibly speculates, but a real and existing construction until today in the Brazilian and Peruvian Amazon, composed by a terrestrial Akakor, lithic city that lies in the jungle, and an Intraterrestrial Akakor, under the mountains perfectly aligned with the terrestrial Akakor and the pair united with a 12 cities more that together represent 13 lithic cities aligned Astrologically, according to the designs of the Ancient Masters of the Ugha Mongulala: The Hyperboreans. What could this alignment represent? It could represent, the construction of a polar mirror hyperborean terrestrial. We see that the official historiography, deduces that the existence of intraterrestrial civilizations are a mere myth irrational myth, ignoring the existence archaeological examples such as Derinkuyu in Turkey, the Cave of the Tayos in Morona Santiago, Ecuador or the Lovelock Caves in North America. There is no doubt that the pretension of the World Order is to hide and censor any type of investigation tending to show the truth that, as a paradox, would rewrite the history of the peoples of the world, in this case of South America, therefore, we already know the price that the sociologist and historian Karl Brugger had to pay for publishing this formidable historical work, losing the life as consequence. The Chronicle of Akakor is the compilation of the history of the Unga Mongulala, a tribe from white race, whose history transcends 13. The history of the white race, whose history transcends 13,000 years of history, in which the struggle for their survival as a chosen tribe of the Gods is denoted until our days, in which their legacy still endures, resisting incessantly to the catastrophes of Nature such as the Sinking of Atlantis, the wrath of the Gods, the surrounding wars, the Spanish Conquest, and the genocidal persecution of the capitalists established in the economic interests of the Amazon, suffering the inclemencies of the Kaly Yuga, the darkest era through which humanity must necessarily pass to return to a golden age, as manifested by the Pre Vedism of Ancient India, consequence of the abandonment of the Gods to man and the hiding of the black Sun as uncreated Astro that illuminates the spirituality of the divine races on earth.

This great story, together with the Popol Vuh, represent the American Mahabharata, since the Chronicle of Akakor gathers and represents one more proof of the government of the Gods over the earth in coexistence and hierarchy with the Humans, being both records of historical character that transcend the Myth. The chronicle of Akakor, illuminates a dark and confusing past that has been hidden by the scientific dogma, in which we are painted a purely Mongoloid America whose lithic constructions are as recent as the Middle Ages and whose cultural magnitude does not exceed 10,000 years. This scientific dogma, which is the object of study of the academy, pretends to ignore that historiography as a science, is a compilation of knowledge that does not stagnate, but is complemented by research, and the contributions it manages to obtain. Numerous evidences of a Divine past are censored to prevent man from knowing its spiritual origin, due to political mandates, which in the present era, has preponderance over science. This political order obeys the synarchy, a world power that intends to enforce only its social engineering.

Another evidence, that evidences its veracity, is represented by the arrival of white European men, from the VI century, such as the Goths, surely guided by the lithic maps of stones bequeathed by the Atlanteans, who arrived to the South American Amazon in search of the Ancient Hyperborean Gods, these noble and implacable warriors, hard and pure as diamond, complemented the culture of the Ugha Mongulala, sealing this union through a Pact, which would forge a new era in the empire, hard and pure as diamond, complemented the culture of the Ugha Mongulala, sealing this union through a Pact, which would forge a new era in the empire, which would be interpreted by this tribe as the envoys of the Gods to recover the legacy of the Great Lhasa, great wise leader, hero, builder and legislator par excellence, of the Mongula empire.

The Goths would not be the only Germans to form an alliance with this empire; the German National Socialists would also arrive in 1941 in Akakor, with the aim of liberating the Ugha Mongulala from the capitalist oppression that affected thousands of indigenous people in the Amazon, and in this way generate an agreement with the Ugha Mongulala.

to return to the Ugha Mongulala their lands bequeathed by the Gods, while the Germans would occupy the eastern provinces of the coasts of Brazil, as a strategic move of South American conquest by the Third Reich in counter-offensive to the North American influence of the United States as an actor in the Second World War, taking into account that Ecuador and Argentina represented the main axes of political support for the National Socialist Germany.

Just as the Vikings and the Iberians arrived at Tiahuanaco from Europe guided by the lithic maps, the German National Socialists follow the blood and spiritual path of their past to find the spiritual opus as a mandate of the Gods in South America, we should not be surprised by the investigations and explorations carried out by the Ahnenerbe in this sacred continent, specifically to the Brazilian Amazon (First expedition documented filmographically to Manaus, arrival at Akakor), to the Bolivian Tiahuanaco (Scientific investigation advanced by Edmund Kiss which was reflected in his works in experimentation and demonstration of the Glacial Cosmogony of Hanns Hörbiger) and to the Argentinean Patagonia, Cordoba (Search for the Command Staff of the Vultan cacique in the Uritorco) and Chile (Discovery of Tunnels and the chamber of Arica by Edmund Kiss) and other confidential research, in order to find the legacy of the Hyperborean Giants, the divine Atlanteans and the heritage of the Aryan race in the American Antiquity.

The National Socialist Germans announce their withdrawal in the Second World War and become part of the Mongula Empire, complementing a new Aryan Germanic era with the Ugha Mongulala, forming families and generations that endure to this day, preparing for the final battle, or Ragnarok, the twilight of the Gods, for the Scandinavian mythology, as the Akakor Chronicle prophesies.

It is important to mention that the Authentic Chronicle of Akakor has not yet been revealed and that it lies as the most precious treasure of this empire, in the Temple of the Sun of Akakor, sacred construction in which lie treasures such as the bodies of the ancient divine Mongula princes and the ships in which the Germanic Goths arrived to Akakor, among others. We must take into account that this book comes to our knowledge as an account given by the Prince of the Ugha Mongulala, of German mother and Mongula father: Tatanca Nara, who in his meeting with Karl Brugger, entrusted his study of the Chronicle to the mentioned author who finally decided to publish it and to complement it in its final part with the elements that make it true. true. We cannot leave aside the role of the Amazon warrior women in the pre-Hispanic culture, who are mentioned in the chronicle as warriors who faced the Spanish conquest, fighting until they retreated and finally abandoned the conquest.

their Capital Akahim, burn it and retreat to the subway dwellings of the city in question, legacy of the ancient Gods.

Undoubtedly, this impressive story is magnanimously complemented by the investigations of Jacques de Mahieu and the sacred commentaries of Miguel Serrano, as well as the magical work The Mystery of Belicena Villca by Felipe Moyano, being part of the Gnostic world of the Hyperborean wisdom, denoting the mysteries of the Amazon, not being the only proof of the entrance to an intraterrestrial world like Agartha, because taking into account the numerous Tunnels or Chinkanas throughout South America and their connections with the sacred cities of the ancient Tawantinsuyu, such as Cusco or Tiahuanaco, nor should we fail to mention the mysterious Macuxies and their entrances to the Intraterrestrial World of the giants, Celestial world suitable only for initiates, nor can we leave aside the Mysterious White God Bep Kororoti of the Kayapó Tribe or the spiritual power of Ayahuasca. Definitely, the legacy of the White Gods in America still endures.

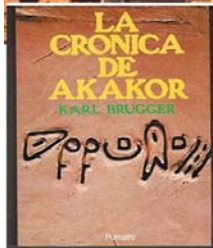

Humanity is not yet ready to know the revelations of the spirit, only those who intuit the call of the blood seek its origin, it is to these chosen ones that the gods guide gnostically to harden like diamond in search of their freedom, that is why the future events, which will be catastrophic, will determine

the birth of a new golden age, which will purge the human being of soul impurity and make him return in a spiritual rebirth to his divine origin.

Akakor's chronicle is a jewel and a treasure to rediscover the history of South America and will someday have the recognition it deserves, when the Mongulas recover their legacy, and the Antarctic Reich manages to overcome the synarchy, in the return of Quetzalcoatl and Wiracocha, in Sternberg's ride in Mongolia when the last Atlantis returns to Humanity, perhaps in Chilean soil.

Imperial Tahuantinsuyu

A common "historical" sophism, is to determine that the Inka Solar Aristocracy developed as a "Marxist socialism", being nothing more than a lefty indigenist myth that ignores that this empire was established in a solar Aristocracy and in a Caste system, closer to National Socialism for its spiritual, racial, and pagan essence in its royal, military and priestly functions, than to the materialistic and atheistic communism, promulgated in the background from the Talmudism.

It is impossible to equate a scientific dogma to the historical development by a mere ideological interpretation of isolated elements such as the economic characteristics of this empire, ignoring the hierarchical value of blood, its religiosity and supramaterial spirituality. Forgetting in the same way that this empire is the last historical and imperial stage of pre-Columbian America, whose bases include a very ancient socio-historical legacy.

The basic problem lies in the fact that the dogmatic paradigms of official historiography make political correctness prevail over the evidence of Historical Revisionism.

THE MERIT OF ROBERTO RENGIFO

The work of the Chilean Roberto Rengifo is one of the most important investigative contributions to the Pre-Hispanic historiography of America, due to his accuracy and determination to carry out a great and deep work, at a time when research was almost non-existent in this continent (1923), being a contemporary of the Tiwanacologist and "Atlantean priest" Arthur Posnansky". Like the Franco-Argentine Jacques de Mahieu, his punishment was the concealment and censorship of his work, simply for contributing with relevant discoveries of the American Antiquity.

antediluvian, Aryan and hyperborean.

Time ended up giving him the reason to his postulates, for example, regarding the Antarctic origin of the American Man, which he called the "Andean Celtic", because in 2003 the archaeological discovery of Monte Verde in Chile, dated an antiquity of 33,000 years, proving the Patagonian and Antarctic pre-Antarctic Antiquity. Similarly, another of his great proven postulates, was dedicated to the enigmatic Metropolis of the ancient white Wiracochas in present-day Bolivia, a study embodied in his work "The Secret of Aboriginal America" (1920-), determining that the Tiwanaku empire is the founder of the city of Uruk, that is to say, Tiwanaku is the founder of Uruk. Curiously, in 1950 near this metropolis on the shores of Lake Titicaca was found an enigmatic artifact known as "The Magna Fountain", an ancient piece used to perform libations in ancient Tiwanaku, with inscriptions in ancient Sumerian, proving the connection between these great cultures. And as if that were not enough, in 1960 the so-called "Pokotia Monolith" was found near Lake Titicaca, an artifact with inscriptions in ancient Sumerian, whose discovery represents a revolutionary contribution.

The day will come when their research will be taken into account to clarify the truth that has been hidden, to prevent us from accessing our ancient history.

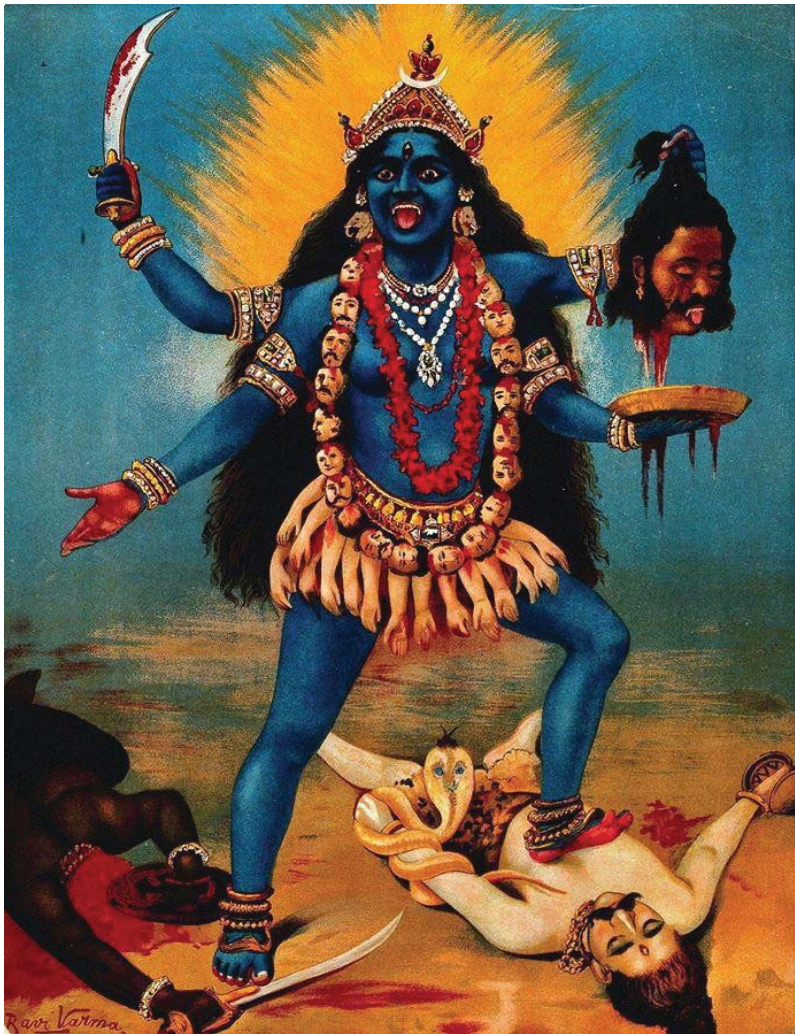

Roberto Rengifo: "You have at your disposal a supreme field of research to be proud of. You have an old world to resuscitate with your knowledge and you make it new and immortal." "It seems to be one and the same race that wrote in the Andes and the Pyrenees."

His research work postulates, among other contributions, that a primitive White race of Antarctic origin migrated from south to north, founding the first civilizations of the American prehistory through the diverse techniques that this race bequeathed to their descendants. This race which was called the Antea race, direct ancestor and father of the Aryan family of the Central European Celts in its passage and conquest from Antarctica to South America and later populating the Canary Islands before arriving to the Old European continent where they would settle down. Legacy of this primitive white race in the Andes, is the Kingdom of Chili, a race of Aryan giants, primitive settlers of the current Chile. Let us remember that the Nordic Red Family, subspecies of the Aryan white race, is the forger of great millenary empires, among which we can mention its great racial legacy in Ancient Egypt and being the brain of the hermetic cabalistic and gnostic mysticism as well as in Ancient China and its lithic wisdom, still hermetic and secret to research, The Indo-Aryan Caste of Ancient India forger of the great schools of esoteric and spiritual wisdom, as well as the legacy of the Pre-Columbian Viracochas peoples whose red-haired and white-skinned filiation is evident in excavations and DNA tests, in the Mythology full of red-haired giants, most of whose skeletons were destroyed by the Judeo-Masonic Smithsonian Institute.

Is this Antea race the forger of the Terrestrial and intraterrestrial Civilization, coming from Antarctica, is Antarctica a spiritual base opposed to the materialistic and Judeo-international system dominant today, whose hermeticism is a concealment from the public light? Whose hermeticism is a concealment to the public light, we must recognize that we know nothing about this mysterious continent and its history, which keeps valuable secrets for human and American historiography, as shown by the Piri Reis Maps and their perfect representation of this Continent, which surely exceeds the dogmatic limits of being a simple natural reserve, being today a continent on the margin and "irrelevant" for political and military reasons.

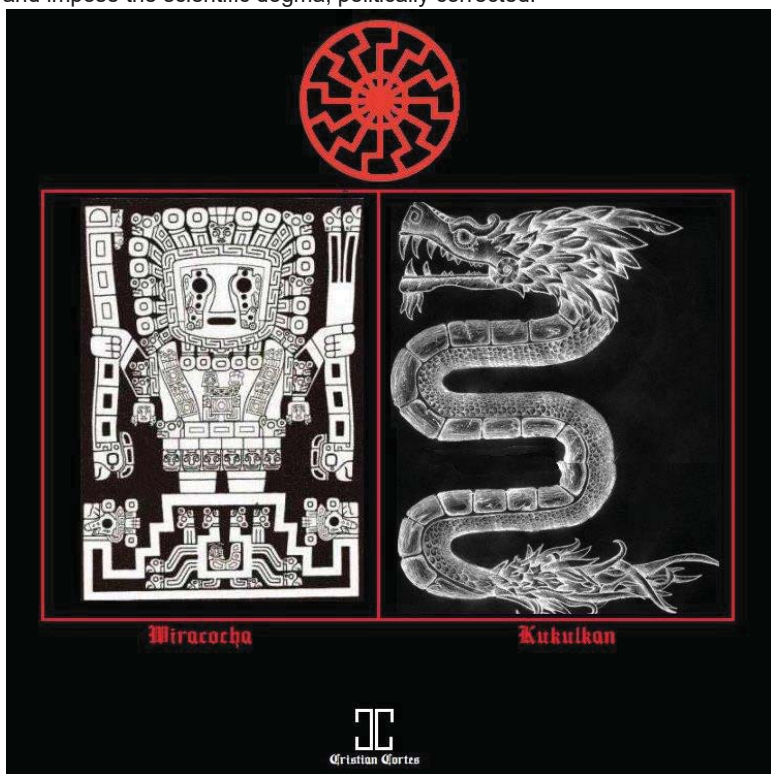

Finally, we cannot deny that there are many enigmas and mysteries that our America hides in its history, however, it is a pity that only the myth and social engineering are the main interest and objective of the academy and dogmatic science. Someday the meritorious value will be given to the work of this great Chilean researcher, while time will continue to prove him right, to finally be recognized as one of the best connoisseurs of the American past, and whose contribution gives him the right to enter the hall of the great masters of American Historiography and Revisionism, along with Arthur Posnansky, Edmund Kiss, Jacques de Mahieu, Vicente Pistilli, Rafael Videla Eissman, Guillermo Terrera, Miguel Serrano and Felipe Moyano, among others.

Become hard as diamond and Kaly will not plunge you into the deep and insane hells. She will elevate you to the infinite and incongonoscible sky, beyond the stars in the divine synchronicity of Origin.

WHITE MEN IN AMERICA

When we speak of the Ancient Wiracochas and Kukulkanes, we refer to ancient terms of our Forbidden America, in Quechua and Nahuatl, which designate the native Aryan American man in the framework of a long pre-Hispanic historical stage. The difficulty of being able to trace it in our historical records lies in the fact that our continent was constantly visited by Hyperboreans, Cro-Magnons, Atlanteans, Egyptians, Sumerians, Goths, Iberians, and Vikings (all of them Aryans). Term that in the Middle Ages, were used by the Incas and Aztecs to designate the Spanish (white but in the shadow sphere of the Europoid race), but, traditionally and mainly the Viracocha and the Kukulcan as well as the giant Hyperborean to whom the construction of the main megalithic works of our America is attributed. Roberto Rengifo was right when he bequeathed to us in his works, the extensive field of research that remains to clarify the truth of the Wiracochas and Kukulkans, as nobility in the various solar aristocracies of our continent. Let us not forget that our America is the cornerstone of Pre Antiquity to understand the origin of humanity and the Aryan race, hence the importance of setting aside this magnanimous land, and impose the scientific dogma, politically corrected.

THE CITY OF THE CAESARS, A HIDDEN KINGDOM IN CHILEAN PATAGONIA

Beyond legend and myth, the city of the Caesars comes to life in the pre-Hispanic, hyperborean mystery that envelops America in spiritual centers, invisible to the common eye and asleep to the common human being. To speak of this enigmatic city, which would exist in the south of Chile, we must recall the time when the Gods inhabited the earth, in a golden age, when wisdom was immersed in the virile and spiritual culture. Thus, we find the city of the Caesars, the lost kingdom of the ancient Patagonians, populated by beings very different racially from the American protomongoloid. A city in which gold and silver were despised due to the great quantity of these minerals, used as slabs for roads, bridges, squares and temples. A city in which the spirituality of its inhabitants who are white-skinned, tall, bearded, who would use silver weapons, genealogical children of their founding fathers (or Gods). Impossible destination for profane travelers and adventurers without a self-improving mind. According to the legend, on Good Fridays it is possible to see from afar the gleam of the gold and silver roofs, likewise it will only be possible to see it in the eyes of every human being when the earth is in a period of total destruction (Final Battle?).

The first accounts of the existence of the city of the Caesars are given by the Spaniard Francisco César, captain of the ship of Sebastián Gaboto, who would affirm in his expedition from Brazil to the southern continent, near the Strait of Magellan, to have found the kingdom of the white king of the south, in whose territory they would have been received cordially and also received large amounts of silver and gold on their visit, as gifts from this same king, news that made known in the current Lima, upon the arrival of the conquest of Francisco Pizarro to the Inca empire.

Two chronicles of great historical relevance, would prove with impressive coincidence, the existence of a great Kingdom to the south of Chile. In the first place we have the account of the chronicler Francisco Lopez de Gomarra, who compiled in his work "History of the Indies" of 1560, the stories of the Indians who told the conqueror Pedro de Valdivia, of a king whose name was Leunchelgoma, who had two hundred thousand soldiers at his disposal, to confront another king who was his enemy and who had a similar amount, besides that, Leunchelgoma had an island in which he erected a temple to his gods, a temple that was guarded by 2.000 priests and near this place would be a kingdom of Amazon warriors whose queen would be called Guanomilla. Now then, In second place we have the account of the chronicler and historian Agustin de Zarate, who in his work "History of the discovery and conquest of Peru" establishes in the same way that, in this same area, there was a constant war between two kings, with more than 200.000 combatants, one of them called Leunchelgoma who would possess an island which was guarded by priests and in addition to this, Leunchelgoma received tribute from a province of Amazons, who did not allow men in his kingdom, but only to copulate with them and thus procreate. Impressive is the similarity

The existence of Amazon warriors in the Chilean south, demonstrating the existence of these brave women all over South America and not only in the Amazon as we imagined.

Garcilazo de la Vega, in his work: "Comentarios reales de los Incas", comments on the existence of the "Gran reino de Chili" (Great Kingdom of Chili) after the Indians' stories in their compilation tour.

The mysterious Patagonian zone keeps with it great lithic monuments, elements of strategies of the ancient Hyperboreans: the white gods and the bearded giants. Proof of this are the stone of the Sun of Santodomingo in Chile, which was made known by Oscar Fonck and was unfortunately destroyed, as well as these lithic manifestations, are the product of the primitive race as Roberto Rengifo would call it. Rengifo. There is even evidence of a connection between Tibetan priests and Chile, around Araucanian grammar, runic symbology, cultural presence of swastikas and chants. What connected the ancient Indo-Aryans with the Kingdom of Chili, did the city of the Caesars connect them?

It is curious to note Miguel Serrano's great mystical respect for the great Patagonia, as he would express it in "The Delivery of Magic Patagonia", exposing the future plans of Zionism in the Southern Cone. Miguel Serrano would be a hyperborean Magician, whose legacy has remained on earth, for the interpretation of mystics and alchemists, while his spirit lies in Agharta, waiting with the Wildes Heer, to attack with the last battalion. Miguel Serrano would say that the city of the Caesars would be located on Mount Melimoyu, and he would also say that this hill was connected to Mount Kailash (Chile's connection with Tibet), and curiously his son, José Miguel Serrano, would say after his father's death, that Miguel Serrano owned land on Mount Melimoyu, possibly Miguel Serrano frequently visited the city of the Caesars.

Finally, to add that this possible spiritual center could be part of the intraterrestrial Agharta, like an earthly mirror, inside an archemona, invisible to the sleeping man, who awaits the historical moment of the day of the spirit.

THE WHITE GODS OF AMERICA

In America and India rests the spirit of Europe, which one day will awaken from the darkness in which it finds itself. A manifestation of this western spirituality is manifested in the pre-Columbian era in which, searching among its diffuse history, we will find that in most cultures, especially imperial ones, the teaching work of civilizers and white masters is highlighted, who are mythologized as an archetype, even Igneous in many cases, those who have taught Agriculture, Magic, construction techniques, civilizing norms and diverse legislations, elements in which distinctly Hyperborean Symbols and principles stand out, even without European cultural conditioning.

It is known that in the Pre-Inca history of America, according to tradition, we find the era of the Ancient Wiracochas, that is, the whites who ruled a vast empire that would be the predecessor of the Inca empire, whose traces can be found in the Tiahuanaco Wari culture, as well as in the Mochica culture and in the Chachapoyas culture, main metropolis of the Aryan American man. But without a doubt, it is Tiwanaku, the main metropolis of the American white man, on the shores of Lake Titicaca between Peru and Bolivia, consisting of three eras in which in the first we can see an ancient empire founded by Wiracocha, remembered as a God of blond hair and long beards, who was the high spiritual leader, the great priest and solar King who civilized and taught the art of alchemy in this Empire, God of magic and science, conceived as a creator god in the Andean cosmivision. It seems that he is an ancient Hyperborean founder of the race of giants Viracochas. Likewise Oryana the eared Goddess, represents the divine femininity and the cult of Venus, linked to the principle of agriculture, all Aryan-Hyperborean symbols.

It is curious to note the investigative interest that the Germans had, in these high lands over the Andes, remembering the Glacial Cosmogony of Hans Hörbiger, which would explain the constant changes and catastrophes that the earth would suffer in the past, by the change of the polar axis of the earth, theory that would be deepened in the investigations of the great architect Edmund Kiss, the poet of Atlantis, who would visit South America constantly, between Manaus, Chile, Peru and Bolivia, whose investigations were aimed at following the passage of the Hyperboreans in America, discovering tunnels under the Atacama Desert. In 1937 he would arrive to Tiwanaku, where he would conclude that this citadel of solar cult, would be a magnificent architectural work of Giants of Aryan Race that in one night would raise the great walls that surround the city based on Andesite, abundant stone in the Ande, as the chronicles of Pedro Cieza de León would also gather.

Just as they arrived by sea, they bid farewell to their nation by the same route, with the promise of returning someday. This scenario would be repeated among the Comechingones, led by another white god known as Voltán (Wotan).

and to the south of the continent we would find elements mostly related to the Protonordic mythology, like the Kingdom of Chili and the city of the Caesars evoking Asgard/Agharta and further south we will find in the land of Fire, in the extreme south of the continent in the sacred lands of the Patagonian giants, the tribe of the Selknam, whose main god evokes an American version of Wotan, known as Halaháches, as a direct inheritance of the polar continent of Antarctica, which could have harbored in the remote ancient past, the Pole and the peak of wisdom, from where the white race would emerge as Roberto Rengifo would postulate, conquer the Andes and found Tiwanaku, following the path from South to North to finally leave the continent in consequent conquests and foundations.

In Mesoamerica the same panorama would be repeated, in the imperial cultures of the Toltecs, Aztecs and Mayas and several others. Here we find Quetzalcoatl the civilizing god of white race, with a great blond beard, King Priest and magician who would teach alchemy in his initiatory schools, King who would practice purification through penance, would found his initiatory schools where gnosis would be practiced. Likewise, we find a fundamental hyperborean element that would be the foundation of the city of TULA by Quetzalcoatl, the feathered serpent, evoking the capital of Hyperborea: THULE, in which Venus, the star of opposition proper of the hyperboreans, would be summoned, and in which the sculptures of the giants of Tula would be built, we find again the giants, another primordial element of the Aryan people. Thus the Toltecs represent the ideal of the perfect man for the peoples of Mesoamerica, the civilization of greater wisdom and expertise in all areas of human knowledge, because the American man always observed and identified his personal psychology with the past, with the ORIGIN.

Quetzalcoatl would take the Toltecs to a Golden Age, which would be definitively interrupted by Tezkatlipoca leader of a circle of monotheistic masters, who offered with sacrifice and were monotheistic par excellence, in which we can evidence that the synarchy is much more than a political or economic power, it is a power that works with the power of myth and black magic. Tezkatlipoca would be in charge of inviting Quetzalcoatl one night with intentions of deceiving him, where he got him drunk with pulque to make him lose his chastity making him have relations with Tezatlipoca's sister. Ashamed he would leave his city among the Toltecs with the promise that he would return and so he would go to the Yucatan peninsula between Mexico and Guatemala today, and there he would be known as Kukulcan where he would institute a golden age among the Mayas, bringing with him the sacred alchemy and the lithic architecture typical of the Hyperboreans, we will find in the Mayan archeology several buildings and temples dedicated to the cult of Kukulcan among them the most important one the Castle or pyramid of Kukulcan. Among the Mayas themselves in Palenque Kukulcan would be known as Votan or WOTAN. He would also leave with the promise to return.

From Mesoamerica we move again to South America where we will find more white gods, in Colombia, Venezuela and the Amazon. In Colombia we will highlight the main imperial culture among the Chibchas: The Muiscas, who go through historical cycles, in ups and downs of booms and depressions, one of them in particular was the period of degeneration in which the Chibchas forget the legacies of wisdom of their Female deity Bachue and become advised by the black magic of Huitaca female deity of strange beauty, who promoted lust, debauchery, parties and liquor. This is how the white bearded god Bochica arrived to the Cundiboyacense plateau, coming from the east who, with a golden staff, opened a water outlet against some rocks, thus creating the Tequendama waterfall in Bogota, providing a channel that would free the savannah of Bogota from floods and would proceed to punish Huitaca, turning her into an owl as explained by the Muisca Mythology. Thus Bochica would teach a doctrine of his own among the Muisca and would teach agricultural techniques and the art of magic. And again he would leave with the promise to return.

In the Amazons, we remember the Chronicle of Akakor by Karl Brugger, and the pact of white Gods with the Ugha Mongulala, Gods that would build an intraterrestrial Antediluvian empire, constituted of 13 cities bequeathed to the tribe in mention. In this book Karl Brugger mentions the history of this civilization told by its leader Taturca Nara. In this story, the white gods, builders of Akakor, promised to return in the future.

It is noteworthy that the second stage of the empires mentioned above, came from the hand of the Germanic Vikings who came from Skioldland, the current Diinamarca, to the empires of Tiwanaku, a place where the Iberians of the House of Tharsis would also arrive, both escaping from the Golen persecution, and mainly in fulfillment of their family missions as Hyperborean lineages, continuing with the empire left by the white Gods, as they did in Mesoamerica, even creating an Aryan nobility that mixed the two lineages of the Atlantean and the Viking Germanic nobility. Therefore, they were received as sons of the sun, fulfilling the promise that the master kings and legislators would return. Although to the Spanish conquerors it was more useful that they were confused with the ancient Wiracochas to be able to conquer more easily.

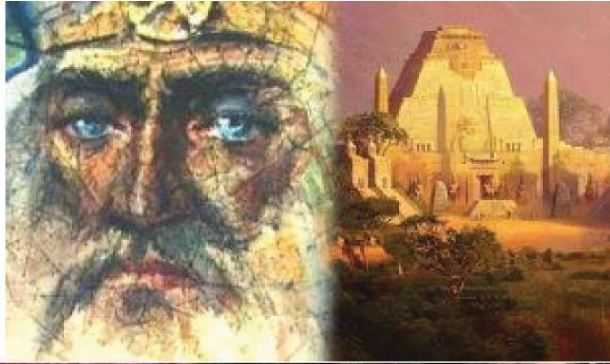

Now we will see that the first monotheistic attempt to end the Hyperborean paganism in America, would come as a first attempt from the hand of the Templars who sought the evangelization of Tiwanaku, reported everything that happened to the hosts sinarcas, who first tried to plagiarize a legacy of a white God through Pay Zume, a white evangelizer arrived by the Amazon River sent by Christianity, used to make the Indians believe that it is a sent from heaven, with the sole intention of putting an end to polytheism and introducing Christianity more easily, this evangelizer would begin to destroy images and sculptures dedicated to the cult, which led him to earn the enmity of the natives and was nicknamed "Zume" referring to "queer shepherd", chasing him to Paraguay where he would have similar results. Let us remember that after the conquest, the mission of putting an end to all hyperborean vestiges was carried out by two arms of the synarchy, still important today to establish the government of Satan Yavhe: the Druids and the Jesuits, in charge of hiding all runology and the ritual elements of the pagan cult. They used the power of the acoustic Kablah to be able to hypnotize the Indians, this power of black magic even led them to have their own empire in which they were supplied with wealth and exploitation of gold and beach in northern Argentina and southern Paraguay known today Missions. Accumulating so much wealth even led them to be expelled from the Vatican, their main task being the search for the stones bequeathed by the white Atlanteans, which the Cathars in the thirteenth century hid in the present Paraguay.

The great Miguel Serrano recognizes his great admiration for the revisionism of the French-Argentine Anthropologist and military man Jacques Marie de Mahieu, for his great complete study of pre-Columbian America in which he differs from Mahieu in recognizing only the Vikings as the first settlers of America, because what Serrano corrects is that it was not the Germans who were the first, but the Hyperboreans, the parents of the white race, to arrive to this continent, a position that I also share, because the Vikings never used the art of the Lythic wisdom. The great Luis Felipe Moyano would make the same correction.

There is no doubt that the megalithic constructions that we can find throughout our continent, are part of a sacred architecture, bequeathed by an antediluvian past, of great sages initiated in alchemy, guided by great Gods and Siddhas who are our White Gods, whose memory still lingers in the great sages who look towards the Origin. The promise of the return of our White Gods, will be fulfilled in decisive historical times to define the destiny not only of the American man but of humanity, in the final battle where America will rise as a solar empire over the ashes of Satanist Zionism.

America will be repopulated by white men and will rise as an aristocracy from whose sons the superman of the golden antediluvian past will re-emerge.

WOTAN IN THE AMERICAN ANDES

Why do we find the name of Wotan in several pre-Columbian cultures from Central America to the southern tip of our South American continent? What is the origin of this historical event, Hyperborean, Atlantean or Germanic? Everything seems to point to an antediluvian event that took place in a continental contact millennia ago.

After researching this enigmatic subject, we found unproven stories, but with remarkable elements about this lithic object found near the Uritorco hill, located in the Sierras de Viarava, in the province of Cordoba, Argentina, mystical lands where German soldiers persecuted by the sinarchy would have taken refuge. It is a Black basalt stone that according to studies of the German archaeologist, Baron Jorge von Hauenschild, is an object that dates from about 8,000 years ago, being a key element within the Comechingona Culture which is said to be a descendant of Atlanteans by some postulates and by others descendant of Indo-Aryans who arrived in America through the Bering Strait, highlighting that in the Comechingona linguistics are found voices in Sanskrit as well as in the Quechua.

According to the tradition this object contains a capable superior power, it works as a mirror of connection with another world, some have said that with Agharta, besides that it was ordered to build by a circle of priests led by the chieftain Voltan, whose name reminds us of Wotan the God of Gods of the old Europe of 14.000 years ago, known as "vultan" in the Andes, great and just ruler according to the legend, who possessed great powers of nature because we could find ourselves before an antediluvian culture not of lytic megaliths but of a great metaphysical-esoteric content with great knowledge of the primordial tradition and above all it seems to be to be linked a the wisdom The story behind the tracking of the person who first found this object is very interesting: Orfelio Ulises Herrera, who called himself master of Shamballa as in his books he expresses (as his book "unfinished poems") because he was entrusted with the mission to find this staff from Tibet, where he trained for years around meditation, self-observation and parapsychology under rigid tests that strengthened him to achieve that end, as it is said that it was done in the city of Shamballa. Once his preparation was completed, he was entrusted to carry out the end of his mission, so he traveled throughout the Andes in search of hermetic orders finding in his path nothing of a primordial content only exoteric societies that were a total of 7 throughout South America, including countries like Ecuador, Peru, Chile and Argentina, the latter would be the country where his mentors directed him, to find buried this magical stone, in the Uritorco hill under the guidance of these masters.

Was this orientation a mission from Shamballa against Agharta? Was it a direct mandate to bring a Hyperborean Object under synarchic dominion? We do not know, although I interpret it as such. Later this element would reach the hands of the Freemason Guillermo Alfredo Terrera, who in his books would make apologies to National Socialism and the ancient Hyperboreans, as well as to the white race. Under his custody he would be publicized to the world, which led him to be a prey of defamation until his death. In his books he would describe a power of telepathy and contact that this object would generate with the person who had it in his hands. In the work "Wolfram Eschenbach, Parsifal y Orfelio Ulises" (1988), Prof. Dr. Guillermo Alfredo Terrera explains that: "It is well known that nowhere in Argentina can be found the complete text of the poem written by Wolfram Eschenbach between the years 1150-1170 and which served as a model several centuries later for the creation of the wonderful opera "Parsifal", written by Ricardo Wagner".

It is important to point out that the Comechingones as well as several Tehuelches had physical characteristics very different from those of other tribes, they were very tall, had light hair and long beards, other theories place them as descendants of the last Atumurunas in the third Viking empire in the Andes, after the rebellion of Kari, directed under the Diaguita Hebrew priestly caste, who beheaded and ended the second empire. These would be initiated in runology and would escape this persecution until reaching the Calchaquí valley and the Sierras de Characato in the province of Córdoba, Argentina. Whether or not, the Comechingones are recognized in this culture as a characteristic of the extension of the Aryan in pre-Columbian America, mystical people who guarded the mysteries of Erks, the subway city under the Uritorco hill of which there are many sightings of ships of great movement coming out of it, as a coincident sign of Nordic mythology in relation to Agharta as a Subterranean kingdom. Among their rituals, they performed the sun salutation or the Sthada of the Run Sieg, at each sunrise, a sign of a possible runic wisdom, what they would call the "red sun".

At the present time it is supposed that the object is in the hands of the son of Guillermo Alfredo Terrera, but the latter denied having it in his domain. It seems important to me to emphasize the relation of a sacred stone, in possession of a pagan Nation, I relate it with the filiation to the Ancient Atlantean masters who bequeathed speaking and sacred stones to the chosen Aryan peoples before leaving. I am sure that this sacred object will be in the hands of a chosen one and will come to light at the end of Kaly Yuga.

It is in the aforementioned cavern, where the wise sword of the house of Tharsis lies and will be found at the synchronous moment, by a great leader who in the future will be able to lead all America due to his racial purity and he will be in charge of putting an end to Zionism in the second coming of the Fuhrer.

ARISTOCRATIC AMERICA

As a Panamericanist, who, following the spiritual orientations of the Indo-Aryan Gnosis, I consider that it is of vital importance that as warriors defending the noble National Socialist cause, we look to the past and rescue the virtues of the American man and his wise and ancient legacy from the eye of the spirit, in its enormous and rich history. Our struggle is not cultural and does not worship materialism, but on the contrary our duty as warriors who practice and study alchemy, is to transform our historical study, that is to say, our intellect into Virtue, that is to say, to transform intellectuality and the accumulation of knowledge into respect and admiration for the past, thus increasing and strengthening Honor.

We have before our feet a glorious land, on whose soil great empires were erected that perfected man in all his faculties, developing the human mind in its absolute perfection in a territory chosen by the Gods to found ancient empires. It is not necessary to observe myths foreign to our culture, because our America keeps in itself, the ancient history of gnosis and alchemy that should identify us. As whites and as Aryans, our genetic identity can be Eurocentric, as Aryan brothers of a single White and Aryan family, we can also identify ourselves with our Forbidden America, because our race also forged a caste system, a spiritual aristocracy in these lands, being the heir of an original past, forged by the White Atlanteans, and of the Polar Gods of the South and North.

Let us feel proud to be Americans, and to be children of this land, which today lives the dark stage of the Kaly Yuga, racially degraded, multiculturalized, by the claws of the world power that looks at the consequences of the sacrifice perpetrated by Christopher Columbus Quiblon, Rabbi who delivered the 3 pagan empires to Moloch or Satan. There is no longer a dignified and millenary culture that forges the foundations of our spirituality or our philosophical thought, due to the descent into the most banal and repugnant materialism in which the demiurge submerges our beloved America. It is, therefore, our duty to wait for the right moment and rebel against the tentacles of the Hebrew monster; liberal Capitalism and Marxist Communism, which with its claws pretends to make us forget our roots, and our Nationalist pride. There will always be a Third path that we must travel, to recover the purity of the past and bring it to the present in the form of virtue, as our banner, under the flag of Unification and of an authentic Federalism that enhances the identity of each Nation in America from South to North.

Our giant march, and our spiritual rebellion will come before the call of blood and before the duty and mission of the chosen one to face the way of honor. We are we Panamericanists, who will have the greater glory of confronting and defeating world power in this sacred land.

Zionism, capitalism, communism, the Vatican and Freemasonry, will have nothing to do before the inevitable and unforeseeable defeat of our warriors, being replaced by Nationalism, aristocracy, solar paganism and the cult of the superman. America will live a hell, which will purify it and it will be necessary for it to recognize in the decadent synarchic systems, the treason and the true enslaving intentions of its ideologists and theologians, in order to wake up from the great deception, in which humanity and not only our fellow countrymen are submerged. It will be that miserable situation that will unite us again as in the golden times to confront the enemy of all the peoples and races of the world.

We will be reborn and bring back the original golden and divine era, which will return the spiritual dignity to our people, who since the conquest entered an even darker era, eliminating everything that evokes our past glory, the culminating moment in which the sinarchy imposed itself with blood and fire, spilling its semen, cursing the white race and the coppery yellow race.

The truth will again present itself in the light of day, as in the times when magic and spirituality were culture, and wisdom was a cultural paradigm, and even a state institution, of the great state aristocracy that past empires vivified as cultural heritage of the White Atlanteans and of the polar Antarctica, center and main fever of divine and millenary wisdom, that delivered to our continent the Siddha emperors and semi-divine men, to make America, the land of the pure men or Hvetrannaland, the land of the white men as it was called by the Vikings, Germanic men who followed the orders of the gods to establish themselves here as imperial nobility and caste, in whose national, racial and collective mentality it was understood as a return trip to the land of the ancestors, because the Germans were not the first white men in the sacred America.

Our legacy is so important for human history, that it is uncomfortable for the synarchic monster, because the caste system that was experienced in forbidden America was comparable to the caste system of Vedic and pre-Vedic India, because the spiritual and biological racism that was experienced in the American solar aristocracies, is not "morally" correct to be academically encouraged, therefore the synarchic monster hides all evidence and vestige of this original past, a key piece to understand the origin of humanity, politically correcting this legacy and rewriting our history in an exclusivist dogmatism, whose purpose is to generate discord between whites and browns, reflecting the real conduct and behavior of the Jew, in the white man, showing him as a cruel and inhuman being, rapist and without any ethical value, (just as the Hebrew man really is), and at the same time, showing the Indian as a victim who must rebel, being this the essential myth for social engineering to be put into practice by putting into play the cultural Marxism, main agitator and enemy of the hierarchical castes, in which blood is the main element to forge a true imperial social order.

The distortion of the false official historiography on our continental history, gives us a completely wrong anti-nationalist idea of what our culture was from ancient times to the present. We must also clarify that the conquest and evangelization determined the extirpation of the main source for the glorious existence of ancient and pre-Hispanic America: its millenary spirituality, its initiation schools and its ethical-psychological sense of the values and virtues of the warrior. The imposition of Judeo-Christianity undermined and fulminated our identity, because the rapes, looting and elimination of all forms of paganism and traces of the ancient Atlantis, erased from history almost absolutely the proto-runic writing, as well as the proto-Aryan lithic idols, which denoted the ancient magic of our land, a vile task carried out by Jesuits and Golen Druids, lackeys of the demiurge, horrible sinarchs who eliminated the hyperborean wisdom in their cultural entities. The American race suffered the same affectations, giving rise to miscegenation, a curse that robbed our nations of their ethnocentric identity. These errors of the white man in his sphere of shadow, were generated due to the Judaization that the Judeo-Christian dogma imposed on the European man, at the beginning of the Middle Ages. But this is not an indigenist message, it is a pro-Aryan message in favor of Gnosis as a means for the purification of the blood, being a white mestizo or Amerindian. Gnosis is the wisdom necessary to purify our race, and in this way, it is also the descendant of Spain, another white brother that composes our sacred America, the Creole representative of the white and therefore, of the American sleeping viryas. This message extends and also includes these brothers, to unify and strengthen our continent in a sacred war, and in a bastion that directly confronts the enemy of all peoples: the Hebrew Satanism.

Blood and fire will purify this land in the future, our courage crystallized in our duty to defend the homeland against Zionism, will be the cornerstone and the key to defeat the sinarchy, in this continent as epicenter, we will cut off the head of Satan and his hosts.

In this way, we will give a new rebirth to the transmuting past, to the glorious divine past in which scientific priests and warriors established the paradigms of aristocratic society. Our victory will be the rebirth and reconstruction of ancient Tiwanaku, a sign that will indicate the spiritual awakening of our nations. The future racial leaders initiated in the mysteries of the Aryan gnosis, will form a new imperial land, which, from Chile and Argentina, have been chosen to guide the peoples towards the path of honor. Which will open the gates of Agharta, located in North America, the Bermuda triangle, Argentina and Antarctica, from which the intraterrestrial initiates, who awaited the culminating moment for the final battle for the liberation of the captive spirit, will emerge.

Likewise, just as Tiwanaku is the origin of South American man, Toltequity and its wisdom is the origin of the Anahuac, it is the ideal of the God-man, to which one aspires and which one must conquer to achieve fulfillment. It was the model of great sages like the Mayas, who would bequeath their mastery of the lithic wisdom of these great and gigantic men, who came to populate and civilize the region, the south-central part of present-day Mexico. We must recover the mentality of the Pre-American who, as we can determine, looked towards the PAST, and not towards the materialistic future, which is one of the objectives of my work and personal work.

Toltequity represents the basis of Central American spirituality, therefore it was the Aztecs who declared themselves its heirs, despite the fact that in the last stage of these peoples, human sacrifice was completely established, and it should be clarified that this last cultural phase of pre-Columbian America, has nothing to do with true spirituality, being a reflection of the degeneration in which the various nations of the continent were falling, which no longer provided initiates to a greater extent, therefore, it is the influence of the Kaly Yuga that archetypically began to influence the American social and cultural psychology, to finally materialize in the somber and horrific Spanish conquest. This stage being the peak of the priesthood, focused on the simple and plain rituality, losing as a millenary inheritance the path of the wise warrior. Therefore, human sacrifice and animal sacrifice must be eliminated from the diverse cultural paradigms by means of transcendence and opus between the path of the priest and the path of the warrior, in other words: through Gnosis, remembering that the sacrifice and the holocaust of fire are elements of worship within the demiurge monotheism, which in the last pre-Columbian stage was reflected in the sacrifice of the cult of Tezcatlipoca to the cult of Huitzilopochtli in the demand for human sacrifice, as a theological reflection of the demiurge Yahweh.

On the other hand, the Shaman as priest, doctor and warrior must polish his virtues and qualities for the demon and conquest of the plane of the elementals of nature, in a new golden age for shamanism: gnosticism and tantra, because this sacred practice does not begin in the East, but in Atlantis and from there it reached Egypt, India, China, Japan and apparently was practiced in America, in the Moche culture, which had a large presence of white race in its nobility.

Thus, the initiatory schools of Quetzalcoatl will re-emerge, thus returning the cult of Venus, from the sacred city of Tula Hidalgo, spiritual capital of Toltequity and therefore of Central American wisdom. The Mayan cult to Kukulcan, priest king of the Mayas, will return.

Our spiritual legacy and our wisdom is still recoverable, because no matter how much the official science investigates, it will never be able to obtain the greatest spiritual treasure of our golden times: The priestly legacy and the American gnosis, which today can only be accessed by the worthy initiates in Gnosis, when the vril has been conquered and the blood is at its highest point of purity, which it reflects through the noological ethics. This wisdom is found under the Andes, under the Amazons and all the continent, being the cave of the Tayos in Ecuador proof of it, as well as the great lithic city of Akakor. Only those initiated in the great mysteries of the purification of the blood will be able to access this great subterranean world, in which our continental spirit resides. We speak, therefore, of the Dorado, of Paititi, of the city of the Caesars. And thanks to the Gods, it is this Aryan blood that will repopulate America, reorganizing the Aryan race and the copper race in a caste system and in solar aristocracies, under the guidelines of the high subterranean wisdom, transcendence of religion and worship, thus initiating a sacred golden age, in which the black sun will once again illuminate the sky.

It will be the return of the white Gods, Wiracocha, Oryana, Quetzalcoatl, Kukulcan, Gucumatz, Votan, Bochica, Amalivaka, Naymlap, Bep kororoti, Cacique Vultan, among other hyperborean giants, thus fulfilling their promise to return to guide all peoples and civilizations that witnessed the wisdom of these great and ancient priests and civilizing kings, responsible for the wisdom fever of America. It is important that before forging their own strategies for the imperial development of our continent, such as the formation of great armies that with blood and fire purify this territory, in order to open the way to the creation of the American Superman, worthy link between the kay pacha and uku pacha, the subway world of the dead, but also of the reborn.

America will recover its copper and white racial purity, developing in gnosis, as kamaradas, who in mutual support, will contribute their knowledge and wisdom to humanity, guiding it towards spiritual liberation, just as the Mayas achieved by applying the strategy of encirclement, which granted them the necessary purity to open the gates of Agartha, surely closed today by Druids and golen. This same strategy would be applied by the Vraya and priestess Eva Perón and the Tehuelche imperial general: Juan Domingo Perón.

Argentina, Chile and Costa Rica must remain white, for it is the duty of the future continental leaders to foster biopolitics (like Juan Domingo Perón's intention to encourage the immigration of Scandinavian Europeans to Argentina), which must focus on rescuing and autonomizing the white race of these countries in order to preserve their heritage and national identity. The imperial legislation must aim to prohibit all forms of cultural Marxism and will encourage the creation of castes, aimed at creating lineages, from the blood of initiates in the Aryan gnosis. All within a racial strategy based on the guidelines of the Gods. Argentina and Chile will be the nations where the first signs of the sacred wars for the beginning of the golden age will be unleashed.

Whites and browns will organize themselves as kamaradas, directing themselves in the perfection of their own peoples, their camaraderie and support must be the American identity.

Sacred architecture must be forged again not only as a cultural means but as a star aimed at the perfection of man, which necessarily implies the recovery of the lithic wisdom of the hyperborean times, in which the strategic opposition was applied, making invulnerable the liberated squares won from the demiurge, being necessary and primordial before the establishment of the American aristocratic imperialism, the magical foundation of walls or stone structures, whether monuments or strategic constructions, whose main function is to operate as machines of transmutation, which at the same time must strengthen the will of the absolute self and the collective ethics in a series of codes of honor, understood as a collective ethics, but which must necessarily be intuited in an intimate and individual personal way, being necessary the intervention of man in the realization of the strategic opposition in order to activate these lytic machines, which also serve as corrective entities of diseases, perversions or psychological conducts that transgress the ethics, being of great importance the existence of purification policies, understood as the expulsion of evil beings that attempt against the aristocratic order, parasitic evil elements such as the Hebrews, who at the same time have the memory of the blood by racial filiation, can be participants of this "spiritual correction".

This is the great difference between the sleeping man and the man who struggles to awaken to intuit the influence of lithic wisdom, having on the one hand the archaeologist or the researcher, whose perception of lithic entities is purely descriptive, while the Gnostic, the man who struggles to awaken, perceives the lithic entity, not only in intellect but understands it from the absolute self, hence the pagan veneration and respect for dolmens and menhirs in pre-history.

Shamanism and priesthood will become institutions, officiated from the sacred architecture of lithic temples, built in turn to favor the mentioned transmutation, whose main epicenter and spiritual capital of the continent must be the reconstructed Tiwanaku, from which the new order of Amautas of Kon Tiki will emerge. Metropolis of the "new" and recovered viracocha lineage, Center of wisdom of Spiritual, mental and physical training for the warrior monks, members chosen to conform the solar aristocracy.

The priesthood will again contact the gods, and more than priests they will be wise teachers and gnostic pontiffs who through their oracles such as the mirror of the Aztec papan princess or the idol of Pachacamac, or symbols of power such as the Staff of Command of Cacique Vultán, will officiate the magical rites necessary for the divine contact, in the decision making process.

Thus prophesied by the white Gods, the Serpent will again join the Puma, Viracochas and Cobrizos, they will again fight together and the black sun will guide them to Venus, to rule from Wisdom.

From Canada to Argentina, our spiritual revolution will echo throughout the world, thus putting to death Zionism and all prevailing Satanism.

ON THE NEW SYNARCHIC WORLD ORDER

Power is an element that has been constituted as the basis of structural order throughout the history of mankind, the moral efficacy of which depends on the ethical purity of the leaders who administer this responsibility. It is in this sense that religion, social psychology, gnosis, spirituality and materialism play a predominant role, as factors of an essential war, which allows us to understand the political history of humanity from the sacred polarity, that is, from the distinction of two sides, the Aristocracy of blood against the aristocracy of gold.

It is important to understand that the world is dominated by a Satanist elite whose sole purpose is to plunge humanity into the most deplorable slavery, whose origins are hidden in the deepest monotheistic cults, which in a unified way, are part of the same demiurgic entity.

When observing in a general way the long historical and anthropological path of humanity, we can clearly conclude and infer that, from certain historical epochs, specifically speaking from the Middle Ages, passing to the modern age and thus to the contemporary age, that is to say until our days, the world is ruled by a world power, which is so well camouflaged, that it purposely escapes the dogmatic and obsolete vision of the paradigm of the official historiography that pretends to hide this world power. But fortunately, today we have one of the most valuable sources of research to understand this phenomenon. This source of information, so appreciated by the lovers of universal history, and of the forbidden history of humanity that includes forbidden anthropology, as well as forbidden archeology, is known as the school of HISTORICAL REVISIONISM, a school that in the XXI century suffers a witch hunt by this world power that is seated on the throne of the world, defining strategies that direct the destinies of humanity, strategies that have no philanthropic purposes at all, of course.

The problem of the information we receive today lies in the fact that the main sources are contaminated and directly controlled by this supra-capitalist elite, including the media, academia, and cultural paradigms, hence the importance of studying censored and prohibited sources such as Historical Revisionism.

Having reached this point and having made the bases clear, we can now define what world power is and who makes up that world order, it is important to refer to one of the most important sons of Latin America, whose struggle against world power was evidenced in the history of Argentina in the mid-twentieth century. We are clearly talking about the great Juan Domingo Perón, president of Argentina, the only Argentinean to be three times president of his nation, who defines world power.

as the world Synarchy, which is composed of: The Vatican, Capitalism, Freemasonry, Judaism (Zionism) and Communism.

Now I will define the world power as the world synarchy, previously clarified this concept, I must say that it is of vital importance to determine in which areas of society, this synarchic power operates, with the sole purpose of being able to dominate the world and awaits the day when humanity is completely dominated in its entirety, for the synarchy, human beings are nothing more than cattle, as George Orwell masterfully exposes in his works 1984 and Animal Farm, which precisely reflect how the world power exercises its social engineering in order to manipulate society in favor of its interests.

It is important to clarify and determine that the Synarchy divides the world into 3 allied poles, which exercise imperialism over the nations that are not of the first world, being these poles determined as follows: Pole number 1: Israel - United States - England; Pole number 2: Russia, China and Iran and Pole number 3 is composed by the globalists; the latter refer to the Zionist families, that is, the Jewish families that through Freemasonry and through the banking industry, as well as direct financing, interfere in the various nations, which most suits their dynastic business because the world conspiracy is so infamous that the history of these families goes back to lineages and centuries great political and governmental power.

Specifying in this way the great synarchic monster, we can now define its objectives, which are determined in the absolute world power, within the sphere of globalism, the elimination of any system of values and principles that are reflected in religion or philosophy, using as a strategy the future creation of a single religion, which is superimposed on other religions or philosophical systems of thought, differentiating the elite from the slave, an intellectual elite that imposes itself as master over nations and millions of humans. Here it sounds with great clarity the Blue Beam project, illusory strategy of holograms that pretend the creation of a myth that is engraved and leaves a mark in the collective unconscious, in the minds of the people. In addition to the above, the synarchy will seek by all means, the elimination of national economies, with the imposition of a single currency, whose first project has been the European Union, an organization that represents the materialization of the policies of world Freemasonry, Likewise, the synarchy promotes today the miscegenation of humanity so that they lose their genetic heritage and therefore lose consciousness of their racial past, while they use racism for themselves, because they do not mix their blood with humanity that does not belong to the elite, because they consider us cattle, they consider us animals, as their false Hebrew principles stipulate.

It is also easy to find various conspiracy theories, which are ridiculed by the academic, scientific and media community, without taking into account that topics such as: financial mafias, Freemasonry, Zionism, Jesuit conspiracy, were very common until before the Second World War. These theories that we can find, most of them are part of the so-called "conspiracy theories", they are quite incomplete to understand the magnitude of the problem, the great size of the monster that day by day gets stronger thanks to the promotion of human misery, the degradation of the human being to such miserable points that we have not seen anything yet and they alert us of difficult and future times that are coming for the benefit of them to the detriment of our spiritual welfare, our human rights and our sovereignty in our respective nations.

We can now see that thanks to historical revisionism we can determine the synarchy from historiography and geopolitics, research points that are nowadays censored by the official media, who never

The witch-hunt is even evident on the Internet, a medium that day by day is becoming more and more capitalized, losing that free right that as humans belongs to us for the benefit of the dissemination of ideas and vital information for the awakening of the human being. As the documentary showed us a great influence of the media industry, we can say that the power of propaganda is a sociological weapon that predetermines something even more important than the domain of public opinion of the masses, which is the domain of the human mind, therefore, whoever has control of the media has control of the masses. Does humanity know that 96% of the media in the world are controlled by Zionist Jews? Just look at our national media such as Caracol, RCN, are controlled by Jews, such as the Ardila Lule group, or the Santodomingo group. Or the Santos family. Media that notably support Israeli Zionism of international stature such as Russia Today or CNN, or the BBC, Warner Brothers, Fox, ABC, CBC, New York Times, Washington Post, Washington Times, and a long, long etcetera. Even reaching the music industry in which the three most powerful pillars of music are also Jewish and Zionist companies, we are talking about Warner Music, Universal and Sony.

So we can see in this way that conspiracy theories tell us the truth, because they are data that can be easily evidenced, and that together with historical revisionism, allow us to be fully informed, in this case if we investigate their owners and we can infer their political and psychological position focused on cheap entertainment without quality that seek to sink the human being in the materialistic decadence, generally focused on a cultural Marxism.

The banking industry is not left behind, which is controlled from the banking dynasties, whose historical origin dates back to the invention of the financial system of usury in the Middle Ages, referring to the Templar banks, which forged innovative systems of protection of treasures and profits of great feudal lords and later to the kings and landowners, taking into account that the tradition of the temple is not Christian, this tradition is purely Jewish, if we analyze that the specific power of this order was forged in the use of the Kabbalah, who in their liturgies spoke the Hebrew language, and worshipped Moloch, Yahweh Baphomet, a financial and religious tradition that in the future would evolve into two great pillars of the synarchy and would be key to augur the present success of the synarchy. We are clearly talking about Freemasonry and the Jewish Rothschild Dynasty. Two allies that today have undermined almost the entire world with their tentacles. The banking industry in the nineteenth century would be strengthened significantly opening the way to another dynasty of Jewish Khazars: the Rockefeller clan, the second financial pillar, the Jewish oil power, responsible for enhancing American imperialism, while in turn the Rothschild dynasty would be responsible for strengthening its influence for their political benefit in Europe, directly reflected by Liberalism and Marxism. For it was the Rothschild Family together with the Rockefeller family that detonated the First and Second World Wars, as well as the Russian Revolution, of which the exact investigative data can be found in the books World Defeat and World Infiltration, by Salvador Borrego, who demonstrates that Communism is another tentacle of Zionism, reflected in the sacrifice of more than 200 million people, being the expression of the purest Jewish Talmudism, 50 million more dead than the genocides perpetrated by the Catholic Church and 100 million more than the dead left by the French Revolution, historical peak of Freemasonry, the latter also financed by the Rothschild dynasty, by mandate of the Phrygian priests, the highest hierarchy of Freemasonry.

Another Orwellian way of looking at this not very encouraging panorama of our present world situation can be seen reflected in the pharmaceutical industry, which is also controlled by Zionism, and which is responsible for making health and science capitalizable from a reduced and billionaire monopoly. Here it can be seen how the elite has no respect for human integrity, which is based and established under the proclamation: "Cured patient, lost customer". The pharmaceutical industry is nothing more than the promotion of the poisoning of the human being to undermine his balance, filling him with chemical substances that worsen his situation, tending to lethargy the symptoms of any disease. The best example of cruelty on the part of this entity can be seen in the creation of the German New Medicine by Reek Hammer, physician, theologian and scientist, who elaborated his own system of medicine, combining the principles of traditional Chinese medicine with science, giving excellent results, self-curing his own cancer, generated by a serious state of health in which he fell due to the loss of his son. Thanks to the experimentation of his own methods, he discovered the cure for cancer, directing his solidarity to spread his new medicine to the world, in order to give humanity the cure for one of the worst evils in health. He was censured by the scientific and academic community of North America and Europe, who responded to the pressure of the Zionist pharmaceutical Lobby, who determined that it was more important to maintain the profits of the obsolete medicine of treatment of cancer, than to give humanity the cure for cancer. Curiously, the Jewish community through the Kabbalist Rabbinate of Jerusalem, modified the Talmud, its most important book, to add a new rule in the Jewish law, which states that if a Jew suffers from cancer, he should be treated as a patient by means of the New Germanic medicine, being a fact that is completely verifiable.

Let us remember that the same injustice suffered the great genius Nikola Tesla, when he wanted to give to humanity the various patents of free and infinite energy (who had more than 700 patents) with the sole altruistic purpose of giving mankind an infinite means of energy, which today would break with the entire capitalist electric company, and also through the field of research today we would have discovered countless inventions that would facilitate our lives, but unfortunately this SYSTEM does not allow the freedom of human beings, only seeks to reduce it to the food of slavery.

The whole reflection of the Zionist's evil can be verified by reading the book "The Protocols of the Elders of Zion", a book that exposes all the current situation that we are living today, a book whose possession was punished with detention in Gulags, in the Soviet Union, under the government of both Vladimir Lenin and Yossip Stalin, both Jews educated for life by Jesuits, trained from the Catholic Church to govern from Marxism.

We could continue quoting information of great relevance for the human being to wake up from this vile situation, and rebel against this system and at the same time generate politics, and unify the nation in a single group to fight against the vile interests of this elite of monsters who seek to end our dignity and reduce us to slavery, it is our duty to fight against this system of political and religious, in which dogma is the excuse for the worst evils, It is only a matter of consulting extracts from the most sacred book for Judaism, the Talmud, fundamental book for occultism and the Jewish Kabbalah, which justifies pedophilia with the non-Jew, justifies theft, as well as usury, animal sacrifice, the sacrifice of non-Jews, gives us the excuse for the worst evils, the sacrifice of non-Jews, gives irrational explanations about racial supremacism, equating us as inferior beings, which according to them, having no lineage, we are nothing more than animals, or Goyim, as they call us, because it is the sound that pigs emit. All this world power is justified on the basis of religion, for let us remember that above the politician and the banker there will always be the theologian, for it is he who directs the destinies of religion and its consequent politics, in the same way happens with the Vatican and the Catholic religion. The man of today must face to death against religious dogma and emerge victorious for the glorious and longed-for FREEDOM of all the peoples and races of the world.

It is only from the union that we can be strategists, and we can find alternatives to confront this Hebrew world order. It is important to fight from the political proposals, from the great ideologies of the past to confront from our country to the synarchic advance, that pretend to destroy the little that is left of the Jewish world order.

of civilization and social value in the world, in America and in our country. It is important that we keep in mind that if there is no social unity that becomes a national unity, it will be impossible to face this Zionist crusade that has already undermined the entire economy of the whole world, because its main objective is not only to control the political opinion of the masses, but the mental control of humanity that is increasingly submerged in a hypnotic sleep, dominated and governed from the shadows. These shadows are the analogy to the secret societies, so it is not absurd at this point to speak of such organizations that rule the world, we can easily provide examples such as Freemasonry, the Sages of Zion, the Order of the Knights of Malta, the Rosicrucian Order, the Theosophical Order, the Golden Dawn, the Jesus Company, the Society of Jesus, the Society of Jesus, and so on, the Golden Dawn, the company of Jesus or the order of Jesuits, among other organizations that none of them have been mentioned in the documentary observed, and are fundamental to understand the situation of world domination that the world lives, they are societies that have been key to give Zionism the highest power in the world.

The problem of the massive disinformation also lies in the fact that this global synarchic power also has almost total control of the media, there are very few independent and alternative media that explain how the secret societies operate for the benefit of a plutocracy and a global oligarchy established from the Middle Ages to the present day. It is also noteworthy that whoever speaks of conspiracy or secret societies, is immediately branded as crazy, or ridiculed, regardless of their arguments have great coherence, and are at the same time solid, always the media fall these argumentative fallacies and do not treat the subject as if it were something unimportant, within a focus of curiosity, however, they hide the POLITICAL and HISTORICAL side of the matter, ignoring the vitality for historical events of great importance, such as the French Revolution or the independence of the United States in 1776 or at the same time the independence of the nations of America from the Viceroyalty of Spain, at the beginning of the XIX century. There is much talk of illuminati in our days, as a cultural phenomenon of conspiracy that abounds in social networks, but from a historical point of view we understand that the illuminati of Bavaria, secret order to which these theories refer, born in Germany in the eighteenth century, is of an accessory relevance, taking into account the fundamental orders for the rise of Zionism to world power.

It is important to take into account both historical revisionism and conspiracy, science that the academy leaves aside, due to the importance of this field of knowledge to awaken humanity. And as we well know the academic parameters to be taught as parameters in the orb, because it is the UN the one in charge of establishing such parameters, and as we well know the UN is a Zionist organization that currently allows the violation of human rights regarding the Palestinian genocide.

It is worth mentioning that organizations such as the aforementioned, the UN interceded for the Jewish people to give them the lands of Palestine, which claimed that the world was indebted to Israel because of the holocaust, regardless of the usury of centuries that have established as a system to exploit the people, being received by the Palestinians as brothers, with effusive solidarity, which in the long run in the establishment of the Jewish people in this land, would become a declaration of war from within decided to seize all the lands of the Palestinians, gaining large territory, won through terrorism and what today can be translated as a genocide that escapes public opinion, because its moral judgment is not transcendent for the media, despite the death of thousands and thousands of Palestinians, denoting again that the media mostly operate as a network of pro-Zionist operations, since the establishment of Israel until today, which besides being a great betrayal and cowardice, is one of the most inhuman historical processes that passes to the indifference of the human being, prisoner of the trends imposed by the social networks and the official media, being the reason why these phenomena do not have greater interest or coverage or less indignation. There is even legislation today that takes as an act of hatred towards Israel, to support the Palestinian cause, which is the worst censorship.

We can now see how cruel Zionism can be, whose most important foundation is the most sacred book for Judaism: the Talmud, the Jewish law that is considered superior to the Torah, a book that justifies the rape of minors, pederasty, pedophilia, human sacrifice, animal sacrifice and mistreatment, usury, lying, theft, racial superiority, and other depravities that have no official indignation on the part of the masses, because it would never be officially denounced, as the religion that is at the top of the hierarchy of world domination is morally justified in the RELIGIOUS DOGMA to be able to carry out all kinds of crimes and violations of human rights. Just look at the history of pederasty and rape of minors behind the rabbinate and at the same time, in the Vatican itself. The Talmud promises that at the arrival of the Jewish Messiah, 2,500 slaves will correspond to each Jew, which according to their disgusting religion will be us. And yet, in the face of all this, do we not continue to ask why anti-Semitism is so persecuted and so condemned?

Another great example of world power is the Trilateral Commission, in which the most powerful companies and multinationals in the world have agreed to unify in three pillars of mercantile domination as industrial powers, which are: Europe, the United States and Japan, three poles that will control the production of raw materials issued and exploited from the countries of the first world, countries whose importance lies in globalism and that will never see the utility and profits issued from the production of raw materials crystallized. These powers are strengthened both in the media industry and in the financial industry, and whose main philosophy is reduced to the surveillance of Big Brother, for let's remember that it was the Bilderberg Club that was the entity ideological project that projected the realization of the trilateral commission, Club of Zionists, Freemasons and people of great purchasing power, founded by the Jew Joseph Retinger, but even more important and inhuman, is that the philosophy of the big brother was formulated by the Tavistock Institute, institute destined to the mental control of humanity, and as an Orwellian concept, the big brother is the perpetual surveillance of the human being by means of cameras and microphones that invade all his intimacy under the pretext of the security for finally the achievement of the control and study of all the human actions, for this way to exert an entity of communication, advice but mainly of perpetual surveillance of the man.

Actually, there are many projects of experimentation that the elite has launched, it has been denounced without much coverage, of course even the Bilderberg club exercises the so-called war games, which are nothing more than strategies in which the destinies of the people are spun generating conflicts so that multinationals and banks are the biggest beneficiaries through usury and lending, as we have seen evidenced in the Zeitgeist documentary, in which the Rockefeller, Rothschild, Warbug, Warbug, JP Morgan families, all Jewish, were responsible for generating the conflict of the First World War, in order to benefit in full. We can already see how detestable and unjustifiable usury and financial speculation are, and to what extent are the bankers and theologians the people who spin the destinies of the nation, because in the words of the former secretary of Richard Nixon, and great director of the Russian KGB the Jew Henry Kissinger, responsible for imposing a puppet government in Argentina which was the government of Rafael Videla among others, expressed the following words in ideal, and pro Talmudic religion and therefore, Zionist: "Control the food and you control the PEOPLE. Control the oil and you will control the NATIONS. Control the money and you control the WORLD". To this we reply: Control Zionism and you will achieve true Nationalist sovereignty, financial freedom and absolute prosperity.

It is illogical to think that a private entity governs over the state government, as happens in the United States, where this report showed us how the Rothschild family, together with the Rockefeller family and the Jp Morgan family, mainly, have formed the federal reserve, a private company that has the audacity to indebt the government. They have formed the Federal Reserve, a private company that has the audacity to indebt the government, which, like an obedient dog, voluntarily goes into debt to strengthen the interests of the aforementioned banking dynasties, private dynasties that provide no benefit to humanity and even less to the Americans. Let us take into account that since 1913, one of the most cynical laws is issued, a real coup d'état generated in the U.S. Congress, which officially founded the Federal Reserve as the bank of issue of the U.S. currency. Establishing the gold standard as the current economic standard, here we must clarify that the gold standard is the economic FICTION.

The most shameless and cynical in history, since it is a Hebrew Templar model, to give value to the currency from its weight in gold, which forces nations to strengthen their reserves in gold for their economy to be valid. Here we can refer to two historical examples, defamed for mocking this illusory system that since 1930 ceased to be used in the United States, which by logic would take away the value of the currency, but the opposite is true, the dollar money is not represented by amounts in gold, therefore, it is nonexistent. Returning to mention the two examples that flouted this fallacious system, we can begin by mentioning National Socialist Germany which created its own economic system, which was based on the German economic school and whose masterly study and research can be found in depth in the wonderful book Arma económica by Salvador Borrego, who deepens and explains the dynamics of this system, which focused on valuing the German currency not by means of gold because Germany lacked gold reserves since this nation was devastated by the consequences of the Treaty of Versailles, therefore, which left this country in misery. Thus, Germany created its own economic standard: the Obra standard. For example, if a number of workers are hired by the state or by a private company to carry out a work, it is the work done by these people that gives value to the currency, and not the opulent reserves of gold hoarded in the basements of the banks. Let us bear in mind that since 1933 Germany nationalized the banks, expelled the Rothschilds from this country and at the same time in 1941 Germany expelled and banned Freemasonry, historical phenomena that we can see reflected in the excellent film "Hidden Forces".

Therefore, the greatest fear of the Rothschild dynasty was the advent of National Socialism, which was aimed at preventing other European nations and the world from imitating this system of labor standards, a system that would set aside the usurious and speculative banks to give way to a source of infinite income, based on the will of the worker, the laborer and the professional. In addition to the above, the National Socialist system used two more strategies to strengthen its economic system, which were autarchy and barter. The autarchy is established as the measures of self-sufficiency in which a state uses its resources as much as possible, improvising with what it has at hand, in colloquial terms, because the historical circumstances merited it due to the need of the Germans, since the countries "defenders" of human rights, were determined to embargo and blockade Germany, to starve the Germans, civilians who had nothing to do with this economic war, before the Second World War. Thus, Germany had to improvise and draw from its own resources, what it lacked, for example, leather was obtained from the skin of fish, sugar was obtained from sugar beet, and it was in this type of experimentation was born even vegetable Margarine, among other interesting inventions and contributions. It was this system that turned a Germany plunged in misery, into a superpower in less than 3 years, concluding in this way that this system was a great success.

economic system DOES WORK. Unfortunately the brainwashing in which humanity has been victimized, the only thing that the mind associates with Hitler and National Socialism is the Jewish Holocaust, a holocaust that never existed.

The other example that we can determine, is the Nationalism of the King of Africa Muammar Gaddafi, in Libya, who circumvented the synarchic system through the Nationalization of its resources and the investment in pharaonic works, primary duty of a ruler. We can clearly evidence the historical growth that Gaddafi gave to Libya and at the same time we can evidence the involution and underdevelopment in which Libya is today, as a punishment for having opted for a third way. Everything I expose here is not an invention of mine or a mere subjective opinion, Gaddafi himself refers to this issue in the speech that we can find on the Youtube platform as "the speech to the UN that cost Gaddafi his life".

Curiously and ironically, socialist regimes have historically used the gold standard.

Finally I want to conclude by stating that the United States is simply a visible pole of the true intentions of world power, we can see how the United States has always been at the forefront of supporting its main ally Israel in the Middle East war which they call "war against terrorism" which is nothing more than the perfect excuse to invade nations and steal their resources, That is what happened with the false flag attack, or better yet we should say self attack perpetrated by the United States against its own people, to have the perfect excuse to perpetrate its Yankee imperialism, its repugnant liberal and capitalist influence over other nations. After this attack the United States took the daring decision in which the media were vital to stir up the masses to the intervention of the United States in the Middle East, and if we can contribute a curious fact to this historical phenomenon is that curiously no Jew went to work in the United States. Fundamental fact that should have been mentioned in the documentary previously studied.

It was the synarchy even in charge of assassinating John F Kennedy, who limited the Federal reserve, the main reason for his death, which is evidenced by the fact that after his death, immediately after his death, the federal reserve was legislatively freed to continue usurping the "American" state.

In the same line of thought to defend it is of vital relevance to make a small and brief theological and religious analysis, in which the demiurgic monotheism moves in its world power structure that hides behind this plot. Let us take into account that Judeo-Christianity elaborated a series of myths, taken from ancient cultures such as Sumerian, Egyptian, Odinism, Zoroastrianism, Mithraism among other mythologies. This responds to the fact that Christianity was born from the esoteric circles of Alexandria, where this religion was projected and planned.

which is born from the priesthood and the deepest mastery of the sages of Zion, who in the state of consumption of the amanita muscaria mushroom, elaborated and elucidated the religious bases of Christianity, taking into account that Alexandria was a center of Gnostic spirituality as well as Cairo. Judeo-Christianity as we know it is an Israeli creation, and therefore, Talmudic.

The establishment of Christianity as the official religion of the Roman Empire since Constantine, denotes the history of the bloodiest and most Machiavellian religion in history, which burst into Europe with a Middle Eastern origin, to shape the new mentality of the human being. This was the beginning of the medieval theocracy, that is to say, the Middle Ages, a historical moment that predetermined the behavior of man in the West.

Judeo-Christianity represents the era of greatest darkness in the history of mankind, because it was imposed with blood and knife on the peoples of Europe, whose proclamation was the elimination of all forms of paganism and all forms of polytheism still in force, with the primary purpose of establishing itself as the greatest theocratic dictatorship in history, followed by Islam and the Jewish empire of Khazaria, as auguries of the most intolerant and criminal dogma in history. Let us remember Charlemagne and his Judeo-Christian imposition that completely ended the spirituality of the Saxons in his Central European campaigns, as he finally ended up cutting down the tree of Irminsul, one of the most important pagan relics of ancient man, representing one of the most detestable pagan losses, for the pagan spirituality.

Similarly, we remember one of the most fearsome armies in history, which were the Templars in charge of recovering from Europe the promised land: Jerusalem, this by means of campaigns that literally sweep with blood and fire, all religion and people who oppose them, and so the crusades were launched generating a relentless genocide, whose primary objective responded to a mandate of theological origin, being the Golen priests in charge of planning the death of all forms of worship in Europe. Undoubtedly, their purpose was to eliminate any Atlantean vestige of the European past in order to shape his mind as a sheep, as we well know in the doctrine of Jesus Christ every human being must identify himself as a sacrificial sheep under a false humility, which implies kneeling before a pathetic god named Yahweh, who is so ridiculously inferior to legitimize his followers through sacrifice, animal abuse and submission of its members.

Jesus Christ is nothing more than the vile copy of the great god of the Saxon peoples: Wotan, who in Atlantis was known as Navutan. And for the Germanic Nordicism he was known as Odin. According to the myth reflects, Wotan decides to descend to the world to find the key to the spiritual enchainment of the world, in which the God Loki (equivalent to Jehovah, as in Hinduism yavhe is Brahma), and for it incarnates in a human being, who sacrifices himself on a tree during 9 nights to discover the secret of death, it is this tree of fright, which became known as Irminsul, so that Wotan discovers the mystery of the runes, sacred symbols for the Germanic peoples and which forge the main basis of the Indo-European languages. Wotan rediscovers the secret of death and bequeaths it to the Indo-Aryan peoples so that they can attain immortality. This myth is approximately 12,000 years old, and Wotan was called the Kristo by the Gnostics. This is the main reason why the Golen priests, forgers of Christianity and coming from Carthage and Phoenicia, imposed on the myth of Jesus Christ, a shameless imitation of Wotan, the name of Christ, because the Golen priests simply changed the myth, reverted it from its sense of warrior valor, transforming it into a demigod "son of God, who preaches about submission to his father. Thus, being the effeminate version of the God Wotan, in a Jewish reinterpretation, which allows us to see a Father equally unhinged and misogynist.

Many mythographers and theologians, scholars and researchers of important myths for world religions, when studying the bible, determine Yahweh as a God thirsty for blood and fire holocausts of human and animal sacrifices, therefore, many determine him more as a demon, as a being of lesser category, a vain god who demands to be worshipped and to be worshipped excessively to be recognized above others. So the myth is fundamental to explain the archetypal psychology of the people who participate in the myth, which is installed directly in the collective unconscious if we follow the postulates of analytical psychology, and thus we can understand the psychology and behavior of the Germans and at the same time, the psychology of the Judeo-Christian priesthood and their followers, who humiliate themselves before plaster idols.

We well remember the crusade that Christianity launched against the Gnostic Cathars, who organized themselves as a religion born in the Middle Ages as a reflection of the wisdom of the Manichaeans, the Gnostics of Alexandria and the Bogomils. More than a religion, the Cathars composed a philosophy on a par with Buddhism or Taoism of the East, three forms of philosophy that focus on the purification of the being by adopting spiritual vows, in the case of Catharism they focused on vegetarianism and vows of chaste sexuality, as well as their vast wisdom in criticism of Christianity, a religion which they called the synagogue of Satan, denouncing the demonic nature of Yahweh. Its geographical location is determined in the South of France and the North of Spain in the current Catalonia. As it is known, the Templars in the name of religious dogma ended up burning this people and their religion in the Holy Inquisition, being another genocide that has been silenced in the light of historiography and the shameful history of the CRIME of Judeo-Christianity.

The same fate befell the Scandinavian peoples, who were killed by knife and fire, in a hellish holocaust that forcibly imposed Christianity. Many of the Vikings settled in Greenland, escaping from the fury of Judeo-Christianity and its horde.

The first of them, under the guidance of Leif Erickson and King Kollman of Denmark, to follow the routes of their Goths ancestors to VINLAND, what we know today as Canada and also to South America, land that they knew as Hvtramannaland, where they established since the tenth century a vast empire that stretched from Mexico to Chile, whose capital was located in present-day Bolivia on the shores of Lake Titicaca, the beautiful and ancient Tiwanaku, a city of more than 20,000 years of existence, as reflected in one of the most erudite works on the subject, the revisionist research of Jacques de Mahieu, being a great recommendation and admiration for his work. 000 years of existence, as reflected in one of the most erudite works on the subject, the revisionist research of Jacques de Mahieu, being of great recommendation and admiration the total study of his work.

Returning to our theme, in the context of the Crusades, Christianity launched one of the most infamous strategies, most violating of human integrity: The Crusade of the Children, under the order and planning and ideation of Pope Innocent III in the thirteenth century, comprised sending a crusade made up only of the "simple" sum of the "simple" sum of the "simple" sum of the "simple" sum of the "crusaders". 40,000 children, sent to the reconquest of Jerusalem. These children were mostly kidnapped, adopted and beggar children, from Germany and France. One can be so wretched and cowardly to take advantage of such innocent creatures as children to throw them into war, while their ideologues lived in opulence and comfort. These children arrived to the villages and towns eating everything they found, because for obvious reasons nothing of provisions was recognized, this implied that the children ate everything they found in their path, in its raw state, eating all animals without any type of cooking, which generated diseases immediately, many of them dying in an undignified way, without even having a dignified burial, after a death and an undignified life, of course, what could be expected from the most miserable religion in history? Worst of all, is that this crusade of children led by Templar commanders never reached Jerusalem, these children reached the Mediterranean Sea of which arrived in a very small number of the thousands and thousands of children forced to march in this crusade, because a tiny part only arrived alive. What happened to the remaining children? Well, they were sold as slaves in the middle of the Mediterranean Sea. What generates too much indignation for this type of events, so Machiavellian. If the same animals can assure their offspring the enjoyment of the most tender childhood, why can't the human being, some day justice must be done for the memory of these children and for the memory of millions of people killed by the catholic dogma.

Another outrageous example is the castrati. Another outrageous story perpetrated by Christianity. The high priests in the monasteries for the delight and comfort of their ears, kidnapped and adopted abandoned children and beggars, in the same style of the children's crusade, these children were inculcated under the religious teaching of Christianity and many of them it is estimated thousands of children, were destined to be trained in the intonation of ceremonial chants in the harmony of the Christian monasteries, and to perfect this technique in the children, they were subjected to the castration of their genitals, so that their voice is perfected, becoming a paradigm of great admiration for the time of obscurantism that humanity lived, of these 4,000 castrated children, only a small number was suitable for the intonation of these songs. What happened to the remaining children? Well, they were destined to the satisfaction of the sexual desires of sick priests, Satanist pedophiles, cabalists, miserable pigs. (Both historical passages commented and contributed by Croy Romero).

We can already see the only thing Christianity has served for, to leave death, genocide and to be the prostitute of the most powerful governments of the earth after losing power in the French revolution. We can already determine how criminal the monotheistic religions have been compared to the polytheistic and pagan religions, where wisdom still emerges, while in these religions everything is so dead and stained with blood that the only thing they seek is political power. There are 3 of the most criminal and sickly monotheisms, within the dogmatic theology: Judeo-Christianity, Judaism and Islam. 3 Religions that historically have been characterized by being sacrificers, radical and aligned in all their decisions, whose misogyny and mistreatment of women is evident, we see Semitic religions such as Islam or Judaism in which women have a completely secondary role, But undoubtedly Islam is the religion that most violates and violates women, in which the same theocratic legislation justifies carnal rape of women, the same that must pay if she is unfaithful or if there is doubt of her husband, with death by stoning, which reflects the repugnant customs of Semitism.

Not being satisfied with the aforementioned, we ourselves as Americans are the product of a curse, a burden that Catholicism imposed on us since the conquest of America. Our Forbidden America of which I feel very proud to belong, is the product of a millenary wisdom, whose wisdom has transcended spiritually to the monotheistic and Semitic religions of the Middle East, equaling the East in its philosophical systems of thought, with great preachers like Quetzacoatl or Wiracocha, who bequeathed the gnostic creation of an ethical and warrior man who was the pre-American as mentioned by the great researcher Ruth Rodriguez Sotomayor. The American man is the forger of the human origin, because his ancient constructions of lithic wisdom do not compare in antiquity to any other, as for example in the forbidden archeology we can evidence the magnificent Sacsayhuaman in Cusco, the Tiwanaku of the fathers of the origin, Chachapoyas, and all the Patagonian tradition of indigenous Copper and white whose purity of blood was evidenced in an aristocratic system formed in the most absolute spirituality of the ancestors.

The Spanish conquest was carried out in the name of Catholic dogma, and in the name of "god" the conquerors spilled blood and semen, damaging the Amerindians' race, degrading their millenary culture that recalled the white Gods: Quetzalcoatl, Viracocha, Bochica, Kukulcan, Amalivaca, Bep kororoti, Voltan, Cacique Vultan, Lhasa, Oryana, among others. Whose wisdom raised pre Inca empires in our sacred lands, all of them degraded now to the catholic dogma, of a new idea imposed by force with the power of the holy inquisition of the tridivision of the idea of God, which is so ethnically and spiritually foreign to the American man, that it denotes the consequences of its curse. For our spirit is clearly pagan, wise and warlike.

The Catholic Church wiped out millions of American men, being such an outrageous genocide for our history, which was extirpated of its cultural, racial and ethnic essence.

We want to bring to coalition, the conquest of the Amazon jungle by the Spaniards who granted an independent state to the Spanish crown to the church, which enjoyed its own sovereignty within the American state. We are talking about the arm of the Vatican in the conquered America, the Jesuit Missions, located in southern Paraguay and northern Argentina. This state formed by Jesuit priests, used the power of the acoustic cabala to hypnotize the Indians and submit them to the slavery of the exploitation of gold and silver, since it was rumored that in these lands the Guayakies Indians were established by mandate to keep the treasures with greater wisdom of the Cathar civilization, which in small part escaped to South America, following the Viking routes, encouraged by the emperor Frederick II of Hohenstaufen. So, this was the reason why the satanist Jesuit monks settled in this strategic sector. The Jesuits in the Society of Jesus stole so much wealth from these lands that they even alarmed the Vatican, causing their expulsion. They were later reinstated, of course.

As Akakor's chronicle says, there was so much silver in America that even a silver bridge could be built to connect South America with Europe.

Fortunately, our American legacy, stained with blood and semen, can still be cleansed of this Judeo-Christian impurity and its wise and valuable legacy lies under the Andes, being the chronicle of Akakor by Karl Brugger proof of this. Akakor is a lithic empire with great megalithic monuments located in the Peruvian Amazon, whose 13 subway cities did not suffer the consequences of the conquest and today still awaits the day to come to light. That day will be when we recover what belongs to us.

That is why Nationalism is so important, to recover our dignity, our freedom and sovereignty beyond liberalism and Marxism, doctrines that impose on us to feel ashamed of being American Indians or Creoles. Before this false spirituality we must rebel, we must re-emerge as an Andean homeland and confederation, proclaiming our past ethnocentric spirituality as the model to follow of the American Superman, the Jaguar warrior or the Snake Men, scientific priests and wise amautas of Tiwanaku. Our model of man to be recovered.

The Vatican with its solvent banking which could end the poverty of Africa 3 times over, must die with its greed and at the same time, with its clandestine accounts that serve to cover up corrupt multi-millionaire politicians around the world, as well as its vast arms business, will go with this satanic religion to the flames, when Justice falls upon its hosts, proclaiming truth and Honor as the standard of the American people and the world, fighting for the liberation of the synarchic power.

Today more than ever it is our duty to soak ourselves intellectually in our history, in our culture, and to fight against all forms of internationalism, be it Marxism, liberalism or Freemasonry. And proclaim the nationalist pride of our peoples and ethnic groups, whether we are indigenous, white or mestizo, because our nationalism must embrace the American man without any kind of exclusivism, and by the art of wisdom we must change the mentality of the people, as did the Ibera Casa de Tharsis of Andalucia Spain, Iberos of race, who remained firm in their pagan beliefs and never converted to Christianity, and when they arrived in South America in 1534 they did not commit the crimes of their Spanish compatriots by raping and murdering or enslaving Indians, but joined the Amerindians and Vikings who still remained in America as attested by the Spanish chronicles and formed their own dynasties outside the influence of the Judeo-Christian yoke. Proving that Christianity damaged the mind of European man. Being an abysmal difference in the ethical conduct of Iberians with their compatriots converted to Christianity.

Contextualizing now the influence of world power in the Colombian national sphere, it is worth adding the following clarifications:

As we well know, product of the independence of Colombia, which was perpetrated by Freemasonry and the financing of England strengthened in the Rotschild Dynasty in the nineteenth century, in order that the vast resources that in viceregal America was only traded between the same America and Spain, now with the "independence" America fully enters global capitalism, which was already booming in the nineteenth century by the liberal rise of Freemasonry in the West. We see how Simon Bolivar as well as St. Martin were Masons, and whose main base of action in America was Jamaica, main bastion of England, because as we know Masonry in the United Kingdom has one of the main bastions by the Scottish rite which responds to the ancient cult of the Druids, who were the Golen priests who at the same time of being ethnically Levites, that is, Israelites, The Templars accumulated a lot of wealth in the Middle Ages and thus began to finance explorations and that is how they arrived in America and overnight they themselves began to circulate in the thirteenth century currency no longer in gold but in silver, this silver came from Potosi Bolivia, it was American silver. The Templars began to finance maritime exploration and thus began a great tradition of piracy, the same tradition that would later finance the voyages of Christopher Columbus. Piracy is

The pride of the Masonic lodges that today are revered by Hollywood, who worships piracy, because they are the ancestors of Freemasonry, also remember that Christopher Columbus was educated as a Kabbalist rabbi, and at the same time he knew the mysteries of Freemasonry. Curiously, England is the naval power of the world, and its Zionist intervention is evidenced in the factors I mentioned in the Falklands War against Argentina.

America was not granted independence with Simon Bolivar, it was handed over to capitalism and Freemasonry as its absolute ruler, so that England could trade its resources with the world and enrich itself vilely. Anglo-Saxon power was beginning to strengthen in the United States, let us remember that the genocide suffered by the Native Americans has no other name but a vile massacre, giving rise to the United States of America, the main bastion of the synarchy and world power, lapdog of Israel, a land that rose on blood.

Thus was born the Colombian Freemasonry in a long tradition that began in 1821, in which was evidenced notably in the Colombian liberalism as the main dissidence to represent free trade, and on the other side the conservative oligarchy based on the postulates of Bolivar as opposed to Santander, which housed the Colombian plutocracy, dividing the people into secularism and Catholicism, confrontation and dichotomy that gave the Colombian people many victims, such as the Colombian civil war of 1863, the only victorious war in the history of Colombian liberalism, thus creating the United States of Colombia, thus starting another civil war in 1885, in which conservatism would prevail over liberalism, giving rise to the period of Colombian regeneration and proclaiming the political constitution of Colombia in 1886, which at the same time would unleash the civil war of 1895, but would be the main trigger for one of the most violent wars in the history of Colombia: The War of the Thousand Days, a war that notably scourged the corners of the whole country, and from which we can extract a very important passage: The separation of Panama from Colombia.

England and the United States sign the Spooner Bill ignoring Colombia's sovereignty and declaring the Darien and Panama zones as international waters, thus demonstrating that imperialism is superior to the puppet sovereignty of each country in the Hispanic America of 1901.

Colombia in 1903 was already devastated by the consequences of the war of a thousand days giving the conservative side as the victorious of the dispute, Panama already had more than 17 attempts of separation in the nineteenth century, and it would not be until this year under the presidency of the traitor to the country and sold president Jose Manuel Marroquin who would sell Panama to the Jewish interests of the United States, more specifically of the banking house of JP Morgan, Hebrew bank that 10 years later would pass along with Rockefeller and Rothschild, Jewish banks also, to form the Federal Reserve. We can say that even though at the beginning Colombian emissaries such as Jose Vicente Concha or Carlos Silva, did not want to negotiate our sovereignty, they did not want to negotiate our sovereignty.

Another traitor as Tomas Herran Mosquera Herran finally closes the deal with the United States as the treaty Hay Herran, by mandate of President Marroquin, also JP Morgan money that sent the U.S. government to invade Panama Colombian territory, was willing to go to war to steal Panama at all costs. This Jewish money also bought generals Esteban Huertas and Alfredo Vazquez Cobo, who enter the historical book of traitors of the Colombian homeland.

Historically, Colombia would enter the Reyes quinquennium, a government of which we must emphasize that it did not pay foreign debt and even solved this debt, which is a fundamental strategy to rebel against debt slavery, in which the federal reserve is the bank where all foreign debt payments are kept. Every nationalist government should appeal to no longer pay an enslaving debt, this government is also criticized for officially recognizing Panama as an independent nation and was not able to militarily confront the situation to recover the country, although it did try, reducing the strategy to mere diplomacy.

Colombia would thus enter the conservative hegemony that does not bring major advances to the country, only profits to the Colombian oligarchy and plutocracy, so that since 1930 the liberal hegemony begins with Enrique Olaya Herrera, Alfonso Lopez Pumarejo and Eduardo Santos as consecutive presidents, that is to say, returning the executive power to the Freemasonry which throughout Colombian history evidenced a confrontation within a Historical Revisionist approach, between the Liberal Oligarchic Freemasonry Versus the Catholic and conservative plutocratic clergy. But we must highlight Colombian nationalism as a form of rebellion against world power, which can be found in both liberalism and conservatism as government alternatives and ideological alternatives as we shall see.

On the part of conservatism we have the example of Gilberto Álzate Avendaño and the Leopards, as an expression of the first forms of Nationalist dissidence, great intellectuals of the conservative party that opposed Freemasonry and the influence of this entity in Colombia, basing their thinking on Corporatism, a broad doctrine of defense of workers' rights and trade unionism as a vertical union of the state, widely used in Nationalist Europe, based on the French Action of Charles Maurras.

On the part of liberalism we have the example of the caudillo of the Colombian people: Jorge Eliecer Gaitán, whose thought and ideology were not a social democracy as the official historiography pretends to defame. Jorge Eliecer Gaitan was a third positionist, a great nationalist and corporatist who witnessed the European nationalist revolutions, specializing in Italy, with the best penalist of the time, Enrico Ferri, Benito Mussolini's jurist. Therefore, America was already witnessing a stone in the shoe for the world plutocracy, the supra-capitalist elite: the Rise of John Domingo Perón to power in Argentina, an ultra-nationalist who sought to turn America into a power with Argentina, Chile and Brazil at the head. Gaitan, of course, completely agreed with Peronism, and created his own doctrine, Gaitanism, which sought at all costs to break relations with the United States, modernize Colombia and its armed forces and also to eliminate all Soviet influence on liberalism and the PCC. Finally it is important to emphasize that with Gaitan the country would have seen the glory of the dignified awakening of the Colombian people, Gaitan dies assassinated unleashing the Bogotazo leaving as main suspects the CIA, the FBI and the PCC, but the doubt can be solved by reading the investigations of the Colombian Eduardo Mackenzie.

What few know is that the so-called Gaitan plan, the government plan was executed by Gaitan's advisor, Garcia, who bequeathed this plan to the best reference of Colombian Nationalism next to the caudillo, the best president in the history of Colombia: Gustavo Rojas Pinilla. Third positionist and nationalist who confronted the Colombian oligarchy in a government full of pharaonic works, modernizing Colombia and pacifying the country from the dichotomous violence between liberals and conservatives, Rojas Pinilla based his ideology on nationalism and the third position calling his government the THIRD FORCE in his political party known as the ANAPO. Party that would eventually end up being infiltrated by communism, through the m - 19 Zionist organization, founded by Hebrews such as Jaime Bateman Cayón, and the Pizarro brothers, ironically financed by the Morgan bank. Movement to which Álvaro Uribe would collaborate a lot, as well as Pablo Escobar, who was a partner of Álvaro Uribe Vélez, besides it was Uribe who pardoned and forgave all crime to the M-19 and proof of synarchic and anti-patriot affiliation is that both Uribe Velez and IVAN Duque and Gustavo Petro, as well as others, are financed today by the ultra capitalist Jew George Soros, in addition to the fact that all 3 are Masons, two of them belonging to the Order of Knights of Malta.

Finally, we must emphasize Colombian nationalism to be able to confront world power, we have great examples in our history, which are hidden from research, and that we can take forward through the revolutionary struggle. We must nationalize our resources, nationalize banking, oil, and remove the parasitic multinationals from our territory, we must defend ourselves from imperialism sinarca, We must unite in the ethical formation of our fighters that allows them to have a thought based on honor, altruism, justice, freedom, solidarity and respect. For this it is important that we generate awareness about Zionism and the world synarchy, owner of the power of the world.

For a Free, National and Sovereign Colombia and America and for the defeat of the world synarchy: Long live Pan-American, Pan-European, Pan-Asian Nationalism and nationalism in all nations and peoples of the world.

COMPILATION OF PERSONAL PHRASES ON GNOSIS AND NATIONALISM

1. Religious dogmatism has evolved into scientific dogmatism, with the sole purpose of numbing man through the machinery of archetypes and preventing him from accessing his spiritual part, resident within himself. The promoters of the aforementioned dogmatism are the same ones who have imposed lies in all areas of human knowledge, as a mechanism to maintain their power structure.
2. The power and the absolute will of each man allows the awakening of the eternal spirit, granting complete sovereignty over himself, leaving aside the Gods that pretend to turn the being into one more subordinate.
3. We seek spiritual development in external paths guided by illusion, forgetting that the true path to follow lies within us, it is a matter of knowing the internal map and guiding us towards the exit of the illusory labyrinth.
4. We are gods who have forgotten their divinity because the illusion does not allow us to see that we are being humiliated by incarnating the body of animals, in a material and finite world in which total disorder and dialectics as a method of mental confusion rule for millennia.
5. It is not possible to attain spiritual liberation without first having undergone an absolute catharsis, which destroys everything impure in the human being, including his created body and soul, which in reality are rulers and parasites of the absolute Self or eternal spirit. The catharsis must be such as to include death in its purification process, in order to prove the efficacy of the work done to aspire to an initiation.
6. The demiurge's horrifying hypnosis consists of submerging humanity in archetypes of identification, before which man will give personal meaning, modeling his own interpretation of the world, for the joy and pleasure of the jailer: the Demiurge, who boasts his insane work with his Nephilim demons, the traitor gods and scientific masons of the created universe.

7. The greatest and most important duty of every man is spiritual development, following the path of the warrior to impose himself from the eternal and true over the false and created, that is, from Honor, Truth, justice, loyalty, over lies, deception and spiritual repression.
8. National Socialism is the most just, complete and noble Doctrine for the human being, because it seeks the liberation of man in all areas, being the faithful reflection of the Truth, and the light that from Asgard is reflected to Midgard as the sign and total declaration of the demiurgic hosts on earth, within the framework of the extension of a conflict that has begun in the heavens. This ideology is the only one worthy to proclaim itself revolutionary, because it transcends the material planes from the alchemy applied in theology, politics, economy, culture and mass psychology.
9. As a general rule for the synarchy, the rational sciences are directed as permissible knowledge for the masses, i.e., for the slaves, while the irrational sciences are reserved only for an elite of theologians who from the human realm rule the world from the mental domain of the masses. Thus we see reflected the difference between Academia and Kabbalah.
10. The world crisis of the world degraded in the vilest materialism is not a product of circumstances, but is the result of a millenary plan, which can be attributed to Israel from a socio-historical point of view, but which in reality responds to the directives of the Demiurge Yahweh, who seeks to enslave in the most terrible slavery, granting the throne of the world to his chosen people, which is an astral unfolding of the demon Jehovah, thus fulfilling his mandates in the world.
11. Social engineering is the science specialized in the control of the masses, which can be redirected in a sphere of light or in a sphere of shadow depending on the Sinar or Hyperborean affiliation of the executor of the same, or of the initiated ruler.

12. There is no greater goal than Freedom for the dignification of the spirit. The problem lies in the fact that man is unaware of his condition of prisoner and slave in this world.
13. Entertainment is one of the various forms of mental masturbation, in which the system introduces archetypal images and contents to our minds. It is essential to be willing enough to overcome comfort and pleasure over real work on oneself.
14. When science stops prostituting itself to politics, the true and altruistic contributions to humanity will re-emerge.
15. We tame and domesticate the animal and we believe ourselves owners and masters of nature, ignoring that the Demiurge and his Judaic hosts, manage and control our conduct and behavior, being this an example of micro and macrocosmic analogy.
16. The superior man sacrifices instinctive pleasure for an absolutely superior pleasure: death and rebirth.
17. We are a reflection of the demiurge, made in his image and likeness, evidenced in our emotional self and in our mirror mind of the soul, however, the uncreated spirit is reflected in the absolute uncreated Principles and Values, alien to the demonic nature of the Demiurge.
18. Erasing the trace of Aryan man in the past in all continents of the world, is the strategy of the new synarchic education, which aims to extol Judaism as a race of geniuses, hiding and censoring all content that tells the truth about the true Talmudic behavior of this people.
19. The official historiography teaches various paradigms and approaches separated from each other, leading the student to confusion. The proper way to understand human history is from polarity and duality, as a hermetic principle manifested between the war between Hyperboreans and the Demiurge, or between Aryans and Jews.
20. The superior man perfects his ethics, while the inferior man at most perfects his intellect. The superior man is Practice and pure work, the inferior man at most perfects his intellect.

The inferior man is theory and word. The superior man rejects worldly pleasures, the inferior man extols them.

21. Practice and results determine the effectiveness of any philosophical system. Thus, we can understand how contradictory are the religious principles of monotheism.
22. Judaism seeks to impose the aristocracy of gold and intellectuality on the Aryan aristocracy of blood. In the midst of this sacred racial war is humanity, who must necessarily take one side or the other. When the destiny of the world is defined in the final battle, either on one side the aristocracy of the purification of man and the liberation of the spirit, or the materialistic aristocracy that seeks to enslave man and submissively kneel before the creator.
23. The superman is the fruit of absolute will, of a sacred work that has allowed him to overcome himself and to be master of his own demons. The luciferic grace and the coldness that has murdered emotions are the characteristics of his transmuted psychology. His own self has elevated him as the best profile and prototype of a human being, as a being of integrity and complete in wisdom.
24. Knowledge is lost in the Akashic sea, wisdom endures in the spirit.
25. Only from the noological ethics is it possible to travel on the path of purity, on the way back to the origin, while polishing the diamond body, hard and implacable.
26. In an era as dark and degrading for the spirit as the Kaly Yuga, humanity has ceased to contribute great sages, great philosophers and masters, whose echo in knowledge transcends history. This era alone denotes the filthy disgust in which the human being has decayed, the dregs into which he has been converted. Therefore, it is necessary to observe, study and apply the virtue of man in the past, turning the swastika against the demiurgic flow.
27. To awaken requires cleansing the mind of all forms of dogmatic rationalism in which man has been trained.
28. The Jew must reflect his wretched Talmudic image and behavior in National Socialism in order to generate hatred and repudiation in the masses as a social engineering strategy, because he knows that the National Socialist threat is latent and has strengthened in recent decades in Antarctica. If this threat did not exist, it would simply hide the historical passage of the Third Reich, to prevent humanity from accessing this worldview.

29. The Aristocracy of the Superman is a cosmovision superior to synarchic supracapitalism, which operates through its two arms: Liberal Capitalism and Communist Marxism, due to the fact that its revolution focuses on the perfection of the animal man, from his spirit, freeing him culturally from his imprisonment, systematically helping him to reach true joy beyond the human farm in which he lives today.
30. It is necessary to overcome death to reach eternity. Only the strengthening of the body in pure diamond allows the survival of the being after death.
31. No matter how wise a nation may be, it is doomed to disappear if it does not take care of its sons and warriors. The strengthening of the warrior is vital to defend the border walls, while in the center the original wisdom is gestated.
32. Without Will, man will sleep and die in the same shared sleep without ever waking up until he tries in an insane series of reincarnations.
33. Superman is the ideal of fitness to rule, to govern and to fight. A nation or civilization is purified in essence when it produces Supermen en masse, in whose hands the destiny of the same is deposited. Being at the same time, a duty of the regal power, to take care of their blood and perpetuate it in racial strategies of biopolitics.
34. Racism as a social science is a system that today is forbidden to slaves, but is constantly being applied to the elite of synarchs who rule the world. All races have the duty to perfect their latent genetic faculties, and to rebel against those who forbid the perpetuation of their blood.
35. The academy offers purely human knowledge, which forces us to identify ourselves with collective archetypes to finally be phagocytized by them, and thus determine us as one more entity of this slave system. True knowledge, that is, wisdom, is learned from self-knowledge, for it is information that grants consciousness rather than intellectuality, thus determining its value.

36. To generate self-knowledge it is necessary to diagnose our own ethics, conduct and behavior to determine qualities, virtues, defects and mistakes. Being the correct way to process them, the reaction around happiness and joy, but not guilt and judgment, because joy is based on having recognized which are the vital points to work on oneself.
37. Gnosis occurs when the inner map has been made conscious. And one strives to walk the path within oneself towards liberation from the gate of Venus. Fundamental to undertake this path are: Self-knowledge, will and essential hostility.
38. We do not understand that to struggle to awaken is really to struggle to exist.
39. Discipline and perseverance strengthen our gnostic works, therefore it will be reflected in the other daily areas of our daily life, as a sign of transmutation.
40. He who accesses the mysteries of the purification of the blood, begins a journey into the past to finally conquer the origin.
41. Noological ethics allows us to reclaim the best virtues of our genetic inheritance bequeathed by our ancestors. But if, on the contrary, we live an unconscious and honorless life, we are likely to inherit the defects of our ancestors.
42. Authentic gnosis is necessarily located on the path of the warrior and not on the path of the priest, because man must fight against his own nature and against the demiurge to become God again, contrary to the false gnosis that preaches the cult of the demiurge, black magic and monotheism, without differentiating the spirit from the soul.
43. Political ideologies in the Kaly Yuga focus solely on materialism and worse, end up being demagogues par excellence. The only solution for the nations of the world is the aristocracy of the spirit, for its altruism transcends the false and material of the world, through action and the charismatic bond between the leader and the nation.
44. Blood and race are fundamental factors that determine the governmental, cultural and psychological life of a nation. Blood and racial identification predetermine the members best suited to succeed the government.

within a full ethnocentric government, beyond liberal democracy or communist Marxism.

45. Talmudism must be replaced by the Ethics of Honor. The example must rise from a revolution that echoes throughout the world, and will lay the new foundations for a golden age, which gives priority to Noology over matter. Thus we speak of empowering nations from the spiritual to the military.
46. The most complete warriors are those who go into combat with a complete theology within themselves, being able to master both physical and metaphysical weapons, having martial and esoteric training, being both a soldier and a magician at the same time, which allows him to master the physical plane and the astral plane created, differing from the robotic military of our time, whose nature is too human, he needs a lot of work to match the ideal model of superman - warrior magician.
47. If you fight to enter Walhalla and recover your lost divinity, what does it matter if you are not happy in your destiny? Happiness is irrelevant for the true Warrior.
48. Woe to the wretch who seeks to profit from the wisdom that awakens the spiritual will, for it will be the gods who will judge the vile Jew and the merchant to act.
49. We must use the mind as another weapon, but to achieve this feat, it is important to first fight against oneself to overcome and dominate it, because at birth, the mind is nothing more than a reflection of the demiurge through the created soul.
50. Let us use the power of imagination to purify ourselves within a hyperborean strategy. Let us imagine our worst fears, let us imagine being tortured, let us imagine losing what we love the most, let us imagine murdering and dismembering, because in this way, somehow or other, our mind will be even more prepared and will be disinhabited from everyday life.
51. Man must rebel against his creator, and fight unified to destroy him, and for this he must become an initiated Superman, who exhibits his spirit.

as a banner, before the demon Yahweh, his imprisoning jailer who will hesitate to face the challenging Heretic.

52. Before kneeling before any god, first dignify yourself, for you are being enslaved in hell, and your will alone must take precedence over any worship or subordination.
53. The White Gods will fulfill their promise of return to their American nations, witnesses to their great wisdom and civilizing power, to again forge the eternal pillars of the return to the origin. They will return not from the stars, but from the Inner Earth, and its 4 American gateways, to command the sacred armies that will confront the synarchy in the Final Battle.
54. UFO culturalism is a media strategy of social engineering, promoted by Hollywood as a weapon to divert the attention of humanity towards a structure of speculative myths whose main purpose is to prevent humanity from knowing the military might of the Third Reich, strengthened today from its main base.
55. The Third Reich did not lose the great war against the world synarchy, it simply withdrew strategically to its base in Antarctica, which resisted attacks and combats that finally gave victory to National Socialism. The days are numbered for international synarchy, for they know that it is impossible to win a direct combat against the Thousand Year Reich.
56. Today, in Antarctica, the greatest alchemical, scientific and technological advances are being gestated, which after the war, will form the new life of the future man, liberated from the yoke of Marxism and Hebrew liberalism. In less than 12 years the Third Reich was already a spiritual superpower. Let us imagine its power and development throughout the last decades after the Second World War.
57. The sun man, is the same superman, is the sanguine and transmuting recovery of the swastika twist that, within the racial strategy of National Socialist Germany, managed to enter the well of the pure blood of the Nordic man, to re-create the Aryan Superman, crystallized in Vajra, in the SS Man. That is why the Fuhrer spoke of an empire of more than a thousand years, but he was referring not to the future linear time, but to the past, at a time when gnosis was more in force for the European race and culture, established directly by Indo-European paganism.

58. Runic gymnastics, allows a direct connection of the practitioner with the igneous archetype represented in the runic essence, whose main purpose is the creation of a diamond body that accesses Hel the world of the dead, as a passage to the world of the dead, as a passage to the world of the dead.
59. To the inferior man, death is dark and inevitable, that is why he evades it in his thoughts, while for the superior man death, besides being illusory, represents his opportunity to recover his divinity.
60. The scientific dogma seeks to correct history and give it a perspective of synarchic political convenience, erasing all traces of the white, Aryan, Atlantean or hyperborean legacy from history, which materializes as a setback for research and knowledge, and mainly a serious affectation to the identity and culture of the Aryan man. Just as in the past the Judeo-Christian dogma was sold to the highest bidder, today the scientific dogma is sold to Hebrew globalism.
61. Today's society trusts the system so much that it would never doubt that it is the victim of a terrible mental experiment whose power structure is girded from the shadows to impose itself in a Talmudic-like hierarchy of subjugation.
62. The man who wishes to overcome and overcome himself must necessarily distance himself from the masses, from the flock of sheep, asleep and lethargic, prisoners of circumstances and facts, who are led by the unconscious towards the parameters previously established by the architect, because only from solitude can gnosis emerge.
63. We live in an era that justifies and promotes false Jewish supremacism, based on religious dogma, but denies and persecutes the scientific results that demonstrate the racial supremacism of whites and yellows.
64. Spirituality will never have any relation with material ambition, with money, with political power or with the accumulation of wealth. Therefore, religions that manipulate their believers to obtain profits, are nothing more than miserable psychological Jews, who dirty the name of spirituality, to take advantage of the naivety of their followers.
65. The demiurge is essentially a plagiarizer of the true and unknowable world, so, as a microcosmic reflection, this demon has ordered his chosen people to steal genetics from other races superior to the people.

Semitic, in order to generate a miscegenation that gives them greater intellectual and physical faculties. That is the reason why the dominant caste in Judaism is the Chazara, that of the white Jews, responsible for Zionism and the creation of the state of Israel, who in turn are ironically racist against the non-white Jews themselves.

66. Always look for your essence and originality, beyond any cultural or professional qualification, because ethics will always prevail over academic titles and social status. The good and honorable man is worth more than the presumptuous materialistic bourgeois.
67. Don't stop learning, value the wisdom required to undertake the act of learning and turn it into a habit and a passion.
68. Anyone who does not find his master must be a student and master of himself, following the path of self-knowledge as a map and essential guide.
69. Value and polish your humility as one of the most important virtues and principles, for it will not only make you magnanimous, but will give you the power to lead strategically among men.
70. Let us identify with ourselves, and not with cultural entities. Only the just cause of spiritual liberation can give a worthy meaning to our lives.
71. Follow the path of purity, free of vices and bad habits. Purify your blood by practicing sports and strengthen yourself in martial arts. Opt for vegetarianism, defeat your own demons (the soul, the mind and the animal instinct), and together with your essential hostility towards Satan, honor will guide you towards Hyperborea. Where you will be free in the most absolute original freedom where heroes recover their divinity.
72. One of the main objectives of the different worldwide synarchic revolutions, besides offering genocidal sacrifices to their main ruler: Jehovah Satan, was to separate man from his spiritual essence, his national identity and his ethnic-racial identity, thus forming a collective schizophrenia of psychosocial division, which evolves day by day and adapts itself to the current synarchic parameters: evidencing itself as the current cultural Marxism.

73. Our duty is to rebel against the vile lies and deceit, as well as to fight to wake up from this nightmare, the dream that we all share, imprisoned in the hyper excitement of a demon that dreams and thinks, so that we can give sense to its rotten creation.
74. Cosmic suicide offers all kinds of benefits to the wretch who is unaware of his higher spirituality. Riches, comforts and pleasures will surround his life, and even the requisites requested as part of the bargain, but, just as the Jew deceives to swindle and rob the non-Jew, the demiurge deceives him to steal from him and seize his spirit.
75. It is curious to note that those who make a pact with the demiurge, because of their contextual ignorance of human knowledge such as history, politics or general culture, in a purely public sector, are rare cases in which they are ordered to speak ill of Hitler and National Socialism. It is a current priority for the synarchy in the present essential war being waged in heaven and earth.
76. The evangelical church is the arsenal of mass training, whose preparation seeks to train the naive believers, so that they receive the messiah like sheep, and accept their condition of slaves, in front of the order that Israel intends to impose.
77. Israel intends to impose a Stalinist communism in South America, with the presentiment that our continent will be the main contingent that will rebel against the Zionist world order. Israel intends to create in the Chilean Patagonia and Argentina the state of New Judah, they will want to sacrifice the red cow to the demiurge, and in spite of the deaths, the victory will be ours and America will wake up as a Spanish-American Nation, and in whose command and leadership, Argentina and Chile will be the nations that will guide them.
78. The imperial greatness of the ancient past is based on the heritage of the Hyperboreans, the gods who conquered the world from their terrestrial Hyperborean homeland, a faithful reflection of the spiritual Hyperborea, an imperial nation, a liberated square, which liberated many Hyperborean spirits trapped in the body of the pasu and in the bodies of animals and in the entities of nature. The same feat was performed by the Hyperboreans traveling throughout the world, to liberate the man of Cro-Magnon and to bequeath them the Hyperborean wisdom, which in the future would crystallize in Atlantis, the second Thule. While all this historical spiritual process was developing, the continents and nations of the world were nourished by their gnosis, and were the support and cornerstone for the creation of great Aryan empires throughout the world.

79. Blood purity is superior and much more important than racial purity, since blood purity is obtained by right, after a long work of spiritual catharsis involving the direct intervention of the absolute will, while racial purity is inherited. The latter guarantees greater chances of success on the path of catharsis, however, it does not guarantee any kind of gnostic legacy enlightenment. Therefore, biological racism must be complemented with spiritual racialism, since Gnostic work is necessary for the past recovery and mutated ideal of the white man, purifying the impurities of the passage of time and the contemporary cultural stimulus, which rests in the great human degradation of the Kaly Yuga. This allows us to conclude that the purification of the blood purifies the race and in turn purifies the genetics, eliminating everything that karmically and physiologically can harm our being.
80. It is very difficult to recover the dignity of the European white man, due to the fact that in Europe the Kaly Yuga is even more powerful, and this can be evidenced in the constant cultural Marxism applied to the white masses, from political strategies executed by neoliberal capitalist governments, which give way to the mentioned Marxism, by mandate of Freemasonry, political arm of International Judaism. Europe aims to become the garbage dump of the worst immigration in the world, being the refuge for beings of all kinds, since the Elite foresees Islamization for Europe, to end up undermining the will of the white man. It is important for the dirty Zionist elite to control the Europoid, to divide it socially and culturally in the controlled political polarity, while the white identity dies.
81. When the Justicial War between the elected Americans and Israel is waged in Spanish America, the measures that should be taken once Zionism is defeated in our territory would be the expulsion of Judaism from the entire Ibero-American continent, subsequently the dignification of the white, copper and mestizo man, the proclamation of American independence from globalist and financial world power, the proclamation of an American imperial federalism, the prohibition and penalization of Talmudism, usury and financial speculation. Racial biopolitics, for the recovery of Cobrizo lineages and for the care of the American white race.
82. Argentina and Chile must rise up as the leading nations of the future Spanish-American Nationalist imperial confederation, becoming the spiritual powers of the south. They should promote the immigration of white Europeans, whose continent will be sunk in Talmudic darkness and its Marxist social engineering. Ibero-America will have to compete as in the Second World War for their countries to receive the largest number of immigrants.

white. Argentina and Chile will have to promote a Criollo nationalism empowered and strengthened by means of the biopolitics of the care of the white race, which implies territorial autonomy and white separatism for white Americans, Argentines and Chileans. The guidelines of spiritual and martial formation of the military elite of these white men, must be emanated by the baton of command of the charismatic leader chosen to raise the continent from the Zionist darkness, and from the direct influence of the Reich of the Polar Antarctica. Only from America can we dignify the white man throughout the world. The gods have bequeathed us the opportunity to re-create the Aryan man again in our sacred lands. At the origin.

83. The Jew fears the will of the White Man, therefore, he constantly endeavors to undermine the mind of the European, with degrading cultural Marxism, and unnecessary dialectical debates. History demonstrates the great power that keeps the blood and the heritage of the divine Hyperboreans manifested in the historical will of the white nations to conquer the world, in several occasions the white man has put Europe as the center of the world, from war and conquest, both in the psychological sphere of light and in the sphere of shadow. The white man is the greatest historical enemy of the Jew. The white man has the duty and mission to extirpate all impure Satanism, and has seen reflected in the Jew the inferior child of darkness.
84. Be proud of your roots, live and defend your race, dignify your ancestors and they will bequeath you the key to access the well of purity, in which you can claim the virtues they carved in the Menhir and foundation of your family lineage.
85. As hyperboreans, we must transcend all kinds of dualism and polarity, from the understanding that both poles come from and emanate from a single entity: the demiurge.
86. Taoism and the Hyperborean Wisdom are the greatest spiritual legacies that the race has contributed to humanity. Both represent the wisdom of the liberating Gods. On the one hand, we have the white man, the strongest willed warrior race in the universe and the Hyperborean and Atlantean wisdom of the white gods, whose center of Energy is today Antarctica and Europe. And on the other side, we have the yellow man, genial race that until today gives example of discipline and racial will from Buddhism and Taoism as cultural paradigm, around its spiritual development, whose center of energy today is China.

87. Nature is the manifestation of the spirit imprisoned in matter, just as man is a mutation between the Siddha and the pasu. It is in nature where we can see the evil and insanity of its creators, forcing these beings to live in insurmountable stupidity, devouring each other, but at the same time we can also see in them nobility, loyalty, and innocence, especially in the dog and the horse, the best companions and comrades of man. The dog reflects the master's mind and the horse the corporal dominion. The union between the human being and these animals is mystical and is even a symbolism of esoteric character that reminds us of the Hyperboreans, lords of the dog.
88. Adolf Hitler, an artist who did not require academia to raise an entire German nation and in a matter of a few years turn it into a world superpower, transcending all human fields, being the most evident archetype of the Aryan Superman, as commander and warrior king of the Aryans, for he is the Christ Incarnate.
89. Eugenics is a biopolitical measure necessary for the care of the race, for the health and safety of its future generations. It is structured as a form of social cleansing and purification, which puts ethnocentrism as the axis and the main basis of the nation. This measure is necessary to forge the aristocracy of the blood.
90. Racial superiority is measured by altruistic contributions and inventions that improve the quality of life of mankind. Racial superiority is not measured by religious dogma or myth, because it is not evidence, it is simply a pathetic and pretentious religious interpretation.
91. We are bombarded with false media information, pseudo scientific, historical and even genetic research, showing Judaism as a people and a race of geniuses, whose victimization is the justification to be praised as the "strongest people in the world, ignoring that in reality Israel is so irrelevant to the development of the peoples of the world, falling far below the advances of the white race, among Greeks, Romans and Egyptians or the yellow race, especially in China, who structured paradigms that transcended culture, echoing throughout the world for their great contributions that are still being used today. Someday the truth will be known about this Talmudic people of opportunists, whose only purpose is to end the Non-Jewish, and that day justice will be implacable against them.
92. Science must be transcended by wisdom, so that alchemy may be bestowed upon man in the light of d a y , which will generate men of integrity and complete in the future. It is in the past that truth is to be found, and not in the future that material development is to be found.

93. Religions are the most archaic systems of human domestication, whose rules are obeyed by the masses without passing through any filter of reflection, under the promise of salvation as a myth and not as a tangible and palpable reality, as demonstrated by Aryan philosophical systems such as Buddhism or Enlightened and yellow philosophical systems such as Taoism.
94. Religion is closer to mythological knowledge than to the true spiritual wisdom that awakens man.
95. The damage Israel has done to the world is so great that the death granted by divine justice would actually be a reward for such a degree of historical criminality. The final battle will define the existence on earth of Aryans and Jews.
96. We must understand the Third Reich as the third Atlantis, a fever of supra-human knowledge that in only 12 years produced the mutation of many men in Germany, with a Doctrinary worldview, unsurpassed by any existing synarchic religion, or internationalism, due to its high degree of authentic altruism and supra-human or noulogical ethical system, from a Gnostic perspective.
97. Technology in the future will aim to directly influence the psychology of the human being, to try to erase the memory and call of the blood, which manifests the symbol of the origin, vital sign to awaken in the will of man, the eternal and inexhaustible spiritual force to return to the homeland of the spirit.
98. Under the majestic mountains of the Andes, lies the immense wisdom of the White Gods, and the great knowledge contributed by the amautas, throughout the ancient history of America. Not all the great knowledge was lost with the conquest and evangelization of Hvetramannaland. To access this information it is necessary to be pure of heart or Initiate.
99. Agharta resides under the poles as a reflection of the true Hyperborean. It is required to be pure to enter the subterranean world of Agharta, the same analogy under the principle of correspondence, is the necessary catharsis that man must go through to conquer his inner Vril.
100. It is necessary to be chosen in higher worlds, to make the voluntary decision to become a Superman.

101. The Superman marches freely through all the created and conceived universes, with the loud proclamation of being free and eternal, from the enslaving yoke of the demiurge.

102. There cannot exist an authentic aristocracy, without an ethnocentrism that places blood and race as the fundamental pillars of the nation, and a theology proper to the past and original racial paganism, duly sustained by the priestly caste, whose theology will strengthen the warriors of the military elite of civilization.

103. This world is in reality hell, but the mental and designated dominion that Satan exercises over us, does not allow us to see the reality of the universe, the evil, the aggressiveness and cruelty of nature, the humiliation of the imprisoned gods being humiliated into animals, our condition of slaves subordinated to a system of worship to the greater jailer, are elements that show us that the world is in reality hell that we must fight to become gods again, to reach heaven.

104. The so-called CIVILIZATIONAL DUTY OF THE WHITE MAN, which official history shows us in the various conquests carried out by Europe throughout all the continents and its evangelizing roll, is a genetic reflection of the ancient Hyperboreans manifested as a psychological tendency of the white man, Although, in the most recent historical stages, this duty has been degraded by the synarchy, it responds to a blood cycle that has been repeating itself since pre-antiquity, in the marches of Hyperboreans, giants and Cro-Magnons throughout the world, teaching the Hyperborean wisdom of the Return.

105. There is no doubt about the connection, Sumer, Egypt and America, but it is the official historiography, which tries to hide this link, so that we do not look to the American antiquity, because this continent is a great cornerstone that would explain the human cultural origin along with the polarity, from which emerged the wisdom to the world, especially America, Asia and Europe.

106. It is derisory the academic scientific dogmatics that does not postulate as hypothesis the official chronology of history, but imposes it simply to suit the Judeomasonic theories on the "natural and animal" origin of the human being, The human being is a semi-divine product of an animal mutation.

107. The Vatican treasure contains fundamental elements for the understanding of the forbidden history of the human being. That is the reason why the Rotschild dynasty is in charge of its custody. Likewise, the research that Anhnenerbe carried out throughout the world is a great compendium of knowledge that provides fundamental information for the search of the Hyperboreans in the past, the ariosophy and the search for fundamental elements in the essential war of the arianity against the sinarchy. This knowledge is found in Antarctica, an Aryan center that, being the base of the current Reich, possesses privileged information, product of its wisdom and superior technology. We hope that someday it will be possible to have access to the most important knowledge of the above mentioned important entities.

108. The priestesses and alchemist women, will be able to form empires and Solar civilizations, as in the pre-Hispanic America, and whose descendants can be agreed depending on the racial affiliation of the diverse nations of the mentioned Amazon women, by means of biopolitical measures, that within a racial strategy, can give birth under the procreation performs with initiated men, where the births of women will nourish these nations in the legacy of wisdom and priesthood. While men will compose the ranks of the American superman who by right can access the initiatory mysteries of the Hyperborean wisdom, forming spiritual centers and temples of priests, sages and pontiffs, or they can take vows within the same Amazonian cell.

109. Antiquity keeps a closer memory to the true origin of man, as a being created and designed by the gods for their bliss and pleasure, considered as the herd of the gods, mythologically speaking, which being intelligible is possible to determine the sciences of kalachakra, in which treacherous gods imprisoned the spirit in animal bodies, to be exploited from the reversion of their own spirit.

110. It is important that in the future Aristocratic golden age of American and world, that from the nuclei of great sages, initiates, chosen ones, masters and pontiffs, great projects in the writing of important materials for the strategic orientation of the nationals, with the purpose of contributing to the American librarianship in favor of establishing gnosis as a cultural paradigm, by recovering in an inverse sense to the historical evolution, the American golden age, bequeathed by the Atlantean Hyperborean wisdom.

111. Before the great Universal destruction by the Loyal Siddhas, it will be important the spiritual formation of a golden age, which culturally and strategically frees human beings from the spiritual imprisonment in which they find themselves. Culture must be the strategic weapon against the enemy that uses the archetypal cultural creation so that men unconsciously identify themselves with the archetypes and end up phagocytized by them, by the immense quantity of created entities. That same strategy must be reversed to achieve the maximum spiritual potential, as in the times of white and Nordic Atlantis.

112. The synarchy promotes an anti-white racism, using the falsification and rewriting of history, to direct the other races to generate a constant hatred of the white man, such anti-white racism is promoted and financed directly by Jewish globalists, who see in the Europoid and its descendants their greatest enemy. The strategy of anti-white racial destruction consists in using cultural Marxism to extirpate the racial consciousness of men, promoting spiritual and scientific falsehoods such as racial equality, social equality, the rejection of national identification, politics to legislate against white racial and cultural identity and their descendants in the world, thus demonstrating how rooted in the world order is Marxism, also remembering that it has its origin in Hebrew Talmudism. Against these forms of global internationalism, is that we must rebel, therefore, all the whites of the world must unite and enter into a process of mental catharsis of all the archetypal machinery with which the media and the ideological culture with which this infamous international organization constantly bombards us. We must investigate in historical revisionism, and defend our race and our nations. We will return to be the center of the universe and we will rebel against Satan.

113. The god money is a fundamental element to dominate the masses and above all to enslave them, becoming the main goal that sinks dreams, dignity and happiness. Therefore, one of the main reasons for attacking National Socialism is to hide and censure its economic system, which sets aside usurers and speculators, and thus prevent the world from knowing this great contribution.

114. Adolf Hitler is the genius and one of the fathers of Politics. Nikola Tesla the genius and one of the fathers of invention, as well as Reek Hammer is one of the geniuses of Medicine. If we introduce the contributions of these three great persons we can obtain a true dignified and just system that, Militarily must face through the strategy of encirclement, to prevent the repugnant synarchy from using its vile and cowardly ways to invade nations that contravene their interests. Curiously, the aforementioned geniuses will never be studied by academia, the political prostitute of world power.

115. It is important to transcend biological racism, through kamaraderie, in the existence of a just and ethical order that dignifies the races, in their own territories, eliminating the current imposed multiculturalism. There must be a healthy competition, that forges the admiration for the principle of kamaraderie, of the best racial prototypes granted by all the races that participate in the mysteries of racial purification, which necessarily, must be structured and systematized on the basis and foundation of the Aristocracy of the blood and the spirit, the only system that can perfect man integrally, to generate thanks to the measures taken, the so-called race of the spirit, which for us whites means the Aryan man and for the yellows is the enlightened man.

116. Only the reborn superman and the hero are capable of imposing justice in the miserable materialistic and consumerist world in which we find ourselves. Only they are capable of establishing a just and aristocratic imperial order, which is necessarily achieved with weapons in hand, never through diplomacy. It is in their hands the opportunity to defeat the synarchic world order and its infamous Talmudic conspiracy.

117. The parameters of human beauty that we know are nothing more than mental and illusory ideas, proper to the mystery of maya that must be transcended, which do not allow us to see how horrible man is. If we had been born in the horrifying bodies of beasts that we can see today in nature, we would still interpret these characters as being of human beauty, worthy of "respect" and "admiration". Our condition of slaves generates repugnance to the loyal Siddhas, and it is that sacred repugnance and horror, which must emerge into our mind from the spirit. Disgust and hostility towards the created, towards our nature, towards everything finite, including our physiological conditions.

118. We must be existing men, self-surpassed men who maintain the state of alertness as a way of life, being vigilant soldiers, because we must value more the Gnostic warriors, we carry a struggle that transcends the material spheres, our struggle is beyond life. We must perform an esoteric cult of war, because courage makes us more and more pure. There is no peace or harmony for the warrior.

119. Heaven is achieved by right with a lifelong effort, it is not democratized for all men.

120. Judaism is the most genocidal, miserable, usurious, lying, murderous, pedophile, pedophile, satanist, sacrificial, materialistic and inferior spiritual religion in the world.

and racially. They represent the dictatorship from the shadows, because the cowardice of this conglomerate of criminals. It only allows them to act from the shadows, as rats do: ruthless and cruel when they are in a group, but cowardly and fearful when they are alone and surrounded.

121. Judeo-Christianity is an intrusive religion, to the hyperborean spirit that notably affects the ethics of the white man and that as a system of social engineering prevents the white race from producing new ARIOS prototypes. Even its philosophy arises in the Middle East, as well as its projection arose in Africa, in the minds of the Rabbis of Alexandria under the effects of the Amanita Muscaria, whose purpose has been to rewrite the history of the West, to hide the divine origins of the Europoid and to model in principle the mind of the white man and later of humanity, at benefit of the the synarchysynarchy. I understand that National Socialism did not seek to extirpate Christianity but to Aryanize it, just as I understand the dichotomy of Guelphs and Ghibellines. However, I see the Catholic Church as an institution so stained with blood and Judaism that personally, for the benefit of all the peoples and races of the world, the best thing to do is to return to the essential ancient and pre-ancient pagan spirit, of which one can still hear the echo of Gnosticism, Zoroastrianism, Neoplatonism, Catharism, Manichaeism, Buddhism, Taoism, Shivaism and other wise doctrines.

122. Never look for the Aryan in academic historiography, mediocly scientific. The Aryan Man is found in paganism and in the wisdom of the primordial past. Today and always I declare myself an enemy of SATAN, as well as of his hosts and worshipping lackeys, who through Judeo-Christianity seek to cloud the memory of the blood, if not to eliminate him from our memory and our mission to return and leave this disgusting hell that for them as slaves, sepoys and unworthy kneeling slaves that they are, is paradise. My brothers, today and always the struggle continues.

123. We must fall in love with training and self-discipline, with everything that makes us grow spiritually and physically, for this knowledge is supra-human, that is to say, it is supra-intellectual. It is this type of books that we must necessarily compile and study. Wisdom must always have a preferential field in our criteria, because it is not inert knowledge like human and putrefied knowledge that lives in the memory and with time is invalidated in oblivion. No, wisdom is practice and pure work on itself, and theory without practice is false and inapplicable, as is communism, for example.

124. No matter how long the present nightmare of the Talmudic world order lasts, in the end justice and truth will always prevail. And just as Joseph Goebbels prophesied, the duty of the honorable Aryan man will prevail over the inferior Satanist Judaism.

This will require a major war, which will begin when the synarchy

125. Don't lie to yourself, and don't lie to others. Honor must be the spiritual guide that predetermines your ethics. Remember that we are the opposite of the miserable Jew, who hides like a rat, in a cowardly image of a victim. Our ethics transcends that vile inferior behavior of unethical and spiritless demons. A true reflection of their master and boss, the most inferior imitator demon, and creator of garbage and universal filth: The One, Yahweh.

126. Honor is the father of all the principles and values that govern man. Truth and honor are part of a single principle. Its practice purifies man from the eternal self. It aggrandizes him to such an extent that he comes even closer to his divinity and from honor he can conquer the Vril, following the path of the warrior, the only way to self-realization, to get out of Samsara. The demiurge lacks honor and therefore hates the Hyperborean lineages that genetically bequeathed this eternal value.

127. The Gods rewarded with Walhalla all Germans who died in combat fighting against Judeo-Christianity, demonstrating their greatest virtues, living a life focused on exalting the hero.

128. The story of Inka Karl Lamp, shows that he is the archetypal sign that still resonates in the Amerindian collective unconscious in the recognition of the Aryan hierarchs, in the high sphere of the aristocratic and solar nobility, in memory of Viracocha, the Aryan God of the Andes. Could it have been an avatar in the Andes? Curiously, Karl Lamp disappears in the same way as the White Gods did. With the promise to return.

129. Our will of Hyperborean kamaradas, will make resurge the empire of the Tawantinsuyu in South America and the Toltecayotl in Mesoamerica. Bringing with it the glorious and golden era of America. We will recover our era of greater Aryan and Hyperborean glory for our territory.

130. From that moment in my childhood when I met my guides, a halo of fear and confusion appeared in me for some years, but it was the Hyperborean wisdom that mutated the terror into a spiritual feeling of camaraderie.

131. Shamanism can offer ways of purification and blood putrefaction. It all depends on the will and the degree of spiritual development of the practitioner.

132. Cultural Marxism, being an ideology of Jewish origin, undermines what it calls structure, in order to do away with tradition in all its forms of expression, be it in art, culture, literature and so on, like a virus that destroys everything it touches. Contradictorily, it opposes Yankee imperialism (when history shows that both have been brothers) and its imperialism has historically been even more dogmatic than Christianity itself.

133. The Marxist dialectic is sold to us as a discourse that vindicates the modernization of all areas surrounding the human being, being in reality the most fallacious and contradictory ideology, as its practice has historically demonstrated, in addition to the fact that its false image of modernity is overshadowed by its obsolete anti-national proposal.
