Introductory Note

This text is intended ONLY for those who have a history of "searching for the truth." Those who still doubt the explanations they have given themselves throughout a lifetime of investigating who we are, our origins and destiny; and who, through esoteric schools, "paranormal" experiences and hundreds of books, continue to seek answers, because what they have learned does not satisfy them. For those who know that we are passing through, THAT WE ARE STRANGERS in this world, but have not yet managed to put together the PUZZLE OF HISTORY; OF THE MILLENNIAL DRAMA in which we are immersed. For those who WITHOUT DOUBT feel UNIQUE in the entire UNIVERSE.

The purpose of this short text is to point out a series of missing "gaps" in the Puzzle that we all have incomplete; that is, information and wisdom, not just intellectual knowledge.

If you are NOT A PERSON with a GNOSTIC PREDISPOSITION (as we will call it), the destination of this rubbish is the rubbish dump. So don't waste your time, go and "spend" it with the "real men of the real world", the fun, modern, tangible and scientific ones that you either love or hate.

If you are intellectually lazy, not much of a reader, want everything handed to you on a plate, or find it too difficult to overcome your physical and mental limitations, don't bother reading this. Also, if you are a person who is addicted to vices, negative, and looking for something to find an outlet for your frustrations (believe me, you will find nothing here), go back to your pills, drinks, and television, which are better remedies in these cases. Live like Homer Simpson, who is much more comfortable. Try to have fun at night and face life as a game, as this is the best thing to do in this case.

If you are looking for friendly words, affection, love, beautiful truths full of beauty, you will not find them here, because this wisdom is sometimes harsh, cruel, insane, and often leads us to rethink various concepts.

This is not a RELIGION, or a cult, or an esoteric society, nor is it a small social group of friends. If you are looking for friendships and like-minded people, search the internet for social networks doomed to illusion and extreme futility, because that is where you belong.

Do you want to share experiences? Feelings, lyricism, and things like that? Look for a support group, or one of those places that treat the mentally ill, where you will find all the help you need, with qualified people who will attend to your needs.

Because the words you will find here are harsh, direct, and far from moralism, dogma, and cultural precepts. However, if you do not have the courage to progress, stop here so you do not come back crying like a little girl from school.

You will not find comfort, but rather a proposal from Warriors who possess this Hidden Wisdom, long before any academic allusion. And to the sceptics and religious fanatics, give up here before this backfires on you.

We are wolves, not sheep, and our only difference from the madmen is that we are not mad.

WARRIOR THAROS

"Hyperborean Wisdom is not suited to weak natures; the Hyperborean Initiate must display a heart of ice and a will of fire."

Nimrod de Rosário (Luis Felipe Moyano) - "Letter to the Elect"

"Let us look each other in the eye. We are Hyperboreans, and we know very well how distant we live. 'Neither by land nor by sea will you find the path that leads to the Hyperboreans' - as Pindar once said of us. Beyond the North, beyond the ice, beyond death - our life, our happiness... We have discovered happiness, we know the path that leads to it, we have found the way out after thousands of years in the labyrinth."

Friedrich Nietzsche in The Antichrist, 1888.

INTRODUCTION TO HYPERBOREAN WISDOM

INTRODUCTORY BEGINNING

The National Socialism of the NS (DAP) was a purely political application within a psychosocial strategy that involved a series of concepts focused on ancestry and the primordial rescue of the Germanic people, but which could be applied to any other people. It was a METAPOLITICAL doctrine (beyond politics, closer to spirituality). It is pure and applied metaphysics (beyond the physical world), much richer, more complex and essentially different from Marxist "metaphysics", if there is any in Marx's theories.

This Metapolitical doctrine (taking Metapolitics to mean a policy oriented towards transcendental or mystical ends) originated in Thule and the Vril-Gesellschaft (as well as others such as the Germanenorden), which in turn were based on sources from ancient secret societies and esoteric circles, with names such as Guido Von List (1848–1919), Rudolf Freiherr von Sebottendorff (1875–1945), Karl Maria Willigut (1866–1946), as well as Dietrich Eckart, Gottfried Feder, Hans Frank, Rudolf Hess, and Alfred Rosenberg; and which was professed by the ancient Germanic peoples, Iberians, medieval Cathars, Gnostics, Manicheans, and other peoples as ancient and ancestral as all of these. Such Hyperborean Wisdom was upheld in the Third Reich by the Black Order-SS (Schutzstaffel) and the Knights of the Black Sun (such names can be easily researched and consulted a posteriori, and some evidence corroborating the statements contained in this text has been verified at Welvesburg Castle), the Ahnenerbe (Institute for Research and Teaching on German Ancestral Heritage) and the Totenkopf Orden.

There was then a whole symbolism, concepts, ideas and strategy endorsed in a revitalisation of the true cults and rites of the ancient Germanic gods, thus emptying what Christianity had done to the ancestry of the Indo-Aryan peoples in its entirety. As can be seen, the swastika rune and several other runes took the place of sacred Christian symbols, replacing them. A new concept of mythical and spiritual culture was being applied. Once again, as in Doric Greece or Rome, the people would be engaged, in contact with the gods, their myths and eternal symbols. Under the gaze of a charismatic leader, raising a people fallen into slavery and usury, usurped of their rights and fullness in essence, beyond material riches, removed from their true mission and their barbarian ancestral origins, steeped in virginal and matriarchal values.

There was also the "pragmatic NS" (merely political, adopted by ordinary people, mostly those lacking in spirituality, but nevertheless involved in a psychosocial strategy, who made their contribution), only as a strategic veil and as the cultural milieu where those whose Voice of Blood (concept of astral blood ancestry, focused on the voice of the spirit, of the Self) integrated them with their Kameraden proliferated, even though they did not have a more advanced vision.

Not everyone knew the fundamentals of the Thule Society, or even the hidden side of the Third Reich, as it was something for more advanced natures, full spirits, and unfortunately not all of the masses were YET prepared for the total enlightenment of a new reborn Atlantis. And so, often, such slogans, advertisements, and symbols were used and directed at the collective unconscious, where not everyone should know their content directly, in order to avoid unfolding merely CULTURAL paradigms. Only an ELITE had full Wisdom.

Therefore, the entire modus operandi of NS and its psychic mechanisms are charismatic, not cultural, not rational, residing in what C. G. Jung (analytical psychology) called the Shadow Sphere (unconscious) of the human psyche - leaving any pragmatic epistemological structure that resides in the rational understanding of NS devoid of meaning, as they are archetypes, symbols and myths that sustain eternal symbols (hyperborean symbols, gods, universal archetypes only located in the shadow sphere or unconscious, to be understood noologically - with the Spirit - and brought to consciousness). Identification is automatic depending on the development of the Shadow Sphere (Black Sun) and the synchronic purity of the Blood.

According to C. G. Jung (remembering that many still deny his contribution to Hitler's National Socialism and that he was an enthusiast of it) in his analytical psychology, we can understand archetypes as:

"If we refer to the original concept, formulated by Jung (but misrepresented and distorted by all those who wanted to give a certain 'scientific' air to their beliefs), Archetypes are the invisible structural tendencies of symbols. Archetypes create images or visions that correspond to certain aspects of the conscious situation. Jung deduces that "primordial images," another name for archetypes, originate from the constant repetition of the same experience over many generations. They function as autonomous centres that tend to produce, in each generation, the repetition and elaboration of these same experiences. They are isolated from each other, although they can interpenetrate and mix. It is like the hole in the ice shape. There are therefore universal archetypes, inverted and entities in their levels of meaning and context, which are present in the collective unconscious of humanity, and which will make any people from anywhere, even if isolated on an island or planet, after some time, to adopt the same myths and wisdom (intuitively, as long as they belong to the Cro-Magnon lineage) to understand this gap left by the absence of understanding in the sphere of light (consciousness) of the spirit and the self."

The core of a complex is an archetype that attracts experiences related to its theme. It can then become conscious through these associated experiences. The archetypes of Death, the Hero, the Self, the Great Mother, and the Wise Old Man are examples of some of the numerous primordial images that exist in the collective unconscious. Although all archetypes can be considered autonomous dynamic systems, some of them have evolved so profoundly that it is justified to treat them as separate systems of personality. These are: the persona, the anima (pronounced "anima"), the animus (pronounced "animus") and the shadow. We call instincts the physiological impulses perceived by the senses (affective sphere). But at the same time, these instincts can also manifest themselves as fantasies and often reveal their presence only through symbolic images. It is these manifestations that reveal the presence of archetypes, which direct them. Their origin is unknown (to a certain extent by the archetypal brain), and they are repeated in any era and anywhere in the world - even where it is not possible to explain their transmission by direct descent or by "cross-fertilisation" resulting from migration.

One of the best-known archetypes is that of the Hero, which highlights – among a thousand other things – many people's taste for action films, following Olympic sagas and tournaments, elements that exalt the warrior spirit and the unconscious attention to the visualisation of the Swastika and Evastic runes, which were not only used by the NS. Such Vox makes the blood boil and further stimulates the knowledge and understanding of such a sensation and the action of its Voice of Blood or Blood Memory (Minne). Thus, the direct exaltation of the voice of the blood of the Germanic people was crafted in various ways, in direct opposition to prevailing Christianity and its concepts, and excellently applied by Joseph Goebbels (1897-1945), Minister of Propaganda of the Third Reich. Such a response was the astonishing number of FOREIGN volunteers to the SS (Schutzstaffel) in arms. People from all over the world, even those whom today's neo-Nazi racists would call "inferior," responded to the Führer's charisma and the war against the greater enemy.

The Third Reich held several parades, encouraged by Alfred Rosenberg (1893-1946), with stars, sceptres and costumes typical of Babylon, Greece, Teutonic, Roman, etc., because, following their initiatory mission, the SS wanted to be the "New Babylon," "New Rome," "New Greece," "New Sparta," the "Third Reich." But this "tower" of Babel referred to by the Initiates has a very different meaning from that of Judeo-Christianity and the accounts in their respective Bibles or the Torah. It was also possible to note the wealth of symbolic elements highlighting the ranks of soldiers as Spartans of ancient Doric Greece and also the Praetorian soldiers of Rome. The "Sieg Heil" salute (performed with one arm stretched forward, forming a right angle with the body, seen in profile) is a very ancient magical salute, dating back to Atlantis, used by various other peoples when greeting the king of blood. A more recent example is Rome with the salute to Caesar. But the most important thing is the spoken word (bija - a term used by Hindus to distinguish words that have "magical" effects when pronounced with the correct acoustics, widely used for mantras), because it is from this that the voice command emanates, and the bodily movement represents a rune; there is a whole energy created around this, far beyond what ordinary and sceptical people can imagine.

A typical mistake made by rationalists and sceptics, Gnostic colour-blind people, is to think that National Socialism without its mystical terms is just a partisan, secular and temporal ideology. The basic elevation of a deeper vision is to see National Socialism from the perspective of its central origin, that is, within the knowledge of the Thule Society and the SS. All historians who attempt to decipher the enigmas of the Third Reich always fall into deductionism, guesswork and esotericism in order to try to describe the Führer's proposal as demonic. Thus, they at least admit that they will never fully understand how such symbolism, signs, signals and the swastika can express so much strength and value in their people; synchronised in a single goal and giving their lives in war. The closest answer these simplistic historians come up with is that the people were "hypnotised", an idea that at first glance is laughable. After all, the Führer was able to make politics with his oratory, a speech lasting an entire afternoon; keeping a crowd euphoric all afternoon, attentive and listening, as if in a magical dream come true; without being tedious.

National Socialism did not "invent" its esoteric side out of thin air, but rather it was preceded by millennia of ancient strategy and wisdom, passed down by various civilisations. The most recent references are medieval Catharism, the doctrine of the Tibetan Kāulikiyas monks (many of whom defended Hitler's bunker in the Battle of Berlin, causing more than 600 casualties in the Soviet army; because of this, the existence of the small Tibetan division of the SS was completely covered up, the traces destroyed by the USSR, but they appear in their documents kept secret and in some rare photos), among other contributions, from Armanen and his runic system, Von Sebottendorf (1875-1945), Guido von List (1848-1919), Nietzsche (1844-1900), Edmund Kiss (1886 – 1960, who went on an expedition to Bolivia for the Ahnenerb) and other influences, easily verified by reading the books OFFICIALLY published by the SS during the Third Reich. Heinrich Himmler (1900-1945) and Rudolf Hess (1894–1987), both high initiates, also made their theoretical and magical contributions to creating the charismatic diffusion of Germanic identity.

Dietrich Eckart, who discovered Hitler in September 1919, later became his friend and teacher. With his nationalist and anti-Zionist views, he was Hitler's ideological role model. Dietrich Eckart was already convinced in 1920 that Zionism had to be destroyed. Rudolf Hess also saw Adolf Hitler speaking and immediately sensed his Gnostic predisposition to become the future King of Blood of the German Hyperborean civilisation, with Hess being tasked with finding him. When he recognised him, his immediate reaction was, "It's him, it's him, I'm sure," said his son Wolf Rüdiger Hess in later statements. Hess was one of the great Initiates, as were Martin Bormann (1900-1945) and Dietrich Eckart (1868-1923), naturally. Hess was then Hitler's Taufpate (initiation godfather) in Thule and was soon passed on to Dietrich Eckart, Hitler's direct mentor in Thule, who passed on all his wisdom to him and saw in him, and in everyone in the order, tremendous inner energy: all the Initiates then saw in him t h e future King of Blood, the one who rules by birthright of his extreme spiritual power, elected by his charisma and not by any political democracy. He received the Initiation and was placed at the head of a small party (DAP); from there, the psychosocial (NS) strategy began, forming the well-known NSDAP (Nationalsozialistische Deutsche Arbeiterpartei - National Socialist German Workers' Party).

Not only Hitler, but Hess (his godfather in Thule), Eckart (his mentor), Himmler and a circle of almost 300 SS members were part of the highly secretive Einherjar society, which was formed over 600 years ago with a branch of the ancient Tharsis family that continued the Hyperborean initiatory chain in the interior of Austria (more details in the magical novel "The Mystery of Belicena Villca"). Hence, many other SS members were initiated (but not all SS members in the armed forces or other divisions were initiated or belonged to Thule; basically, most were part of the Black Order of the SS), especially those who participated in esoteric expeditions such as those to Tibet, China, Bolivia, the Amazon, Scandinavia, Antarctica, etc.

The rhetoric of "Deutschland Erwache!" ("Awaken, Germany!") awakening to the Value of the Spirit was created by Eckart. It was dedicated to enveloping people in a charismatic atmosphere of absolute and synchronous Union of Blood, so that the common Voice of Blood of the people, the Voice of the Spirit, could manifest itself (Aura Cátena). All the spiritual symbols used, from the Eagle, which is the ultimate symbol of the Wise Warrior, of the virile and proud man, to the Swastika, which is a fragment of the Sign of Thule (sign of origin), were conducive to this esoteric end of collective awakening and the attempt at collective transmutation of the lost Vyria (Vyria, from Sanskrit, "awakened man") into a Domini Canis (tamed Dog or tamed Soul), a Spiritual Man where his created soul (from the creator) is dominated and controlled by the eternal Spirit (free, uncreated), and this expresses his Absolute Honourable Value. This is where the motto of the Black Order of the SS comes from: Meine Ehre heißt Treue - My Honour is called Valour (loyalty)!

Adolf Hitler, the Führer, the King of Blood, was a unique personality, as was the ancient Mesopotamian king Nimrod. He had a lot of energy. He rose from almost nothing – a peasant devoted to public speaking and leadership from an early age, even in playgroups, where he was the one who dictated the games – and managed to rise to the highest level of existence solely through his WILLPOWER (strength of will).

He went hungry several times in order to spend money on education and art, selling paintings to earn a minimum livelihood so as not to submit to the existing slave wage system, and if no one helped him - not even Thule (who helped him a lot later, given his education and initiation into Hyperborean Wisdom) - he achieved immortality through his deeds, without help, even more so through the TRIUMPH OF THE WILL. And as a soldier, his acts of bravery only highlighted his heroic potential, having deservedly earned the Iron Cross, he became admired even by his superior officers who later joined his strategy.

Even though he knew he could not win a war, and did not want to (he only wanted to gain time to extend his strategy to more individuals), he prepared for it and fought it, for strategic reasons beyond what generals or ordinary people can deduce and imagine. He never attended military schools, yet he won battles and created strategies that were the envy of many renowned generals. No matter how much they criticise this or that action today, everything was carefully considered, and often some generals omitted information simply because their EGO was greater than their certainty of victory. He fought not only against a cruel and criminal system, but against the entire Synarchy (union of powers) and its ramifications in the annals of all governments and political economies. And if Germany resisted so much, it was thanks to the unbreakable courage of the Spirit that was inspired by the example and Hitler's energetic presence, his determination and position in the Essential War (War of the Gods). Since Atlantis, no other combat, war or battle has been as atrocious as this one, which resulted in the alliance of the ENTIRE WORLD against Hitler's Germany (Japan left Germany in the lurch, even though many samurai warriors did their part, unlike their superiors; Italy was weak and Mussolini did not have the same charisma as Hitler, thus having to send help to his friendly neighbour; on the other hand, there were volunteers from all over the world to help the German Reich).

Like all Great Spirits who express extreme value in this life, he freed himself from the chains of material existence and joined the world of Free Spirits, Hyperborea, where he became a GOD (as all Viryas can become) or KSHATRIYA (a term used in Sanskrit to define "Caste of Warriors"), and from where he manifests himself every time a person declares, with all their strength, spiritual war (Essential War) against the forces of Karma (a set of accumulated demerits that aims to achieve an evolutionary goal or Dharma to fulfil the will of the Creator).

In more historical terms, we can see Hitler exactly as portrayed in Leni Riefenstahl's (1902-2003) film: TRIUMPH OF THE WILL. He knew the suicidal nature of his mission, and never backed down because of his immanent awareness that it was a struggle in the name of Honour, a new revolt in the name of all the Hyperborean peoples who had been devastated by the Synarchy in Europe, Asia, the Americas and elsewhere. Hitler's exoteric (something that is outside, external) mission was to expose the Synarchy at its foundations and in its full operation - the alliance that plunged the world into total war was designed to erase the Voice of Blood from the German people, who were then approaching collective transmutation into spiritually awakened men (the song DEUTSCHLAND ERWACHE!).

The entire SS high command was committed to Hyperborean Wisdom, hence the circus and lynching at Nuremberg - the allied enemies from then on took a series of measures and created international laws, disregarding existing ones, to vehemently prohibit any symbolism adopted that made reference to National Socialism and all its aspects. This was done so that the world would never again even have Hitler's name mentioned in the annals of history. This work is in vain, because no earthly political or synarchic power has the autonomy or strength to destroy the unbreakable spirit and eliminate the strategy of the Loyal Gods, these laws being only to frighten the weakest and confuse the most feeble.

In short, it is clear that National Socialism is a GNOSIS (superior, internal, spiritual, initiatory knowledge), a deeper study of spiritual and ancestral origins applied in a different strategy and stance towards the whole of Western society.

Anyone who claims to understand National Socialism must have read Hitler's "Mein Kampf", but this is not recommended as an initial reading. This book expresses the political lines adopted in that historical context, during his exile in prison, was written with the help of Rudolf Hess as part of a psychosocial strategy; catchphrases with symbolism that are overlooked by the uninformed, leading to gross misinterpretations and false accusations; disconnected phrases that are devoid of real connotative meaning. It was precisely because of this misuse by Allied propaganda that the Führer ordered the book to be withdrawn from circulation.

Let us look at what Hitler said in an interview given in 1936 to French journalist Bertrand de Jouvenel (Paris Midi): "My book is a challenge to the struggle, filled with insolence and imprecations, for it was written in prison. I wrote it with the indignation of a persecuted apostle, but there is a fundamental difference between the political programmes in the book and those of the German Reich Chancellor. There have been changes and compromises, as always when an opposition takes over the government. Should I correct myself and remove from the book the passages that are now outdated? Politicians do not correct themselves with words, but through their behaviour, their actions. I rectify what I said in Mein Kampf about France in the best way possible by striving with all my might for a German-French understanding."

With this in mind, the poor German citizen of today is not allowed to study his own history.

Thus, we can identify that:

- NS and the Occult Doctrine of the Black Order of the SS are not a privilege of the White Race, but virtually any human being can access Hyperborean Initiation and form a Pure Blood people as long as they purify their astral blood by applying the volitional force (Will) of their Spirit (the deepest part of the Self).
- Blood purity is not simply genetic; it is much more complex. Whenever we think of blood, we think not only of genetics, but also of ASTRAL BLOOD. Blood purity is measured by the degree of development of the Shadow Sphere and by the ORIENTATION demonstrated by the individual towards their Blood Voice, the Voice of the Hyperborean ancestors. Those who can hear (the song of the gods) better, the purer and more transmuted their blood is.
- The NS does not recommend miscegenation because it causes great spiritual confusion, making it difficult (though not impossible) to visualise the sign of primordial origin, which is the goal for the liberation of the imprisoned spirit. The rhetoric of Nordicism, that only blondes with blue eyes are valid, is an argument put forward by those who do not understand ancestry as a whole. Even among Indo-Aryan peoples, there are phenotypic variations, as detailed by the Ahnenerbe in its archaeological and esoteric studies. Only those who take NS as something cultural, a stage for a subterfuge of hatred and aggregate instinct, can rely on this. Because NS preaches precisely the strengthening of each race, of each culture that can create a charismatic bond through Blood. Racial preservation is a strategic movement that allows, at certain moments in history, the application of a collective transmutation, a complete synchronisation of Blood. But this does not apply only to the White race, but to any people and race that, at a certain moment in history, wishes to move collectively towards the Origin, and among these cases we have several peoples throughout history.

- No true student of the Black Order of the SS and its wisdom would ever preach "white supremacy" or pure and simple cultural racism, but rather the preservation of each race and the beauty of each in its Primordial Purity, without detriment to others.

We could describe here in an academic and forensic manner all the political nuances of the NS Strategy. However, this is not necessary, since it can be verified in any serious historical source, even if the author denies such spiritual garb and proceeds to make a mixture of "esquisoterice" as we see in much literature for profit.

In this way, we can better understand the GENERATING ORIGIN of National Socialism, which is Hyperborean Wisdom. All politics would be merely cultural and intellectual information, already well known and only superficially reviewing the true hidden NS - the deepest prior knowledge in the annals of history. The main objective behind this policy is to counterattack in an act of Honour, even without a chance of victory (and Hitler was aware of this) against the Synarchy, exposing its strength and mode of operation, moving in opposition even culturally to the Kali Yuga (Iron Age, for Hindus our current era of greatest degradation of man, the last era of existence of this world), slowing down the wheel of decay of the world and of men.

It was not the first time in Europe that such a strategy was applied (not on the scale and with the global reach that was so recent in World War II, confronting the Synarchy and exposing its shady union and how they had been working together since Atlantis), but in much of the world, there were guardians of Hyperborean Wisdom, of Primordial Gnosis prior to National Socialism. National Socialism rescued several eternal symbols from Rome, from Caesar Augustus (one of the highest initiated Pontiffs of Hyperborean Wisdom), reviving the splendour and heyday of a highly honourable and transformative strategy of awakening dormant men into Men of Stone. There are also other accounts of various Germanic and Nordic lineages, some of which will be reviewed here.

Many researchers and historians, mistakenly (or not) constantly associate Druids with Celts, or any megalithic monument related to them. In such a way that they lead us to believe that these priests were actually of Indo-Aryan origin, when we know very well that this is not the case. Thus, the Oera Linda Manuscript (a book found in the research collection of the German Ancestral Research Institute Ahnenerbe during the Third Reich, among other ancient writings recovered) contains accounts of the Overlinden noble family in what was then Friesland, now Dutch territory

Dutch territory, dating back thousands of years, and how the cult of this region was degraded by a caste of priests who called themselves "treuwidden" ("those who know everything", better known as "Celtic" Druids). The Overlinden knew through the Dacians, Thracians and Bulgarians that the treuwidden came from Judea and were constantly seen among the Assyrians and Phoenicians, in a port on the route near the "promised land". The Celts, having been directly influenced by the Druids, were the first peoples to fall, offering no resistance to conversion to Christianity, unlike other Nordic and barbarian peoples. Armanen also recounts the history of his own Germanic family, the wars they faced because of their cult, and their ancient runic system, which shows several differences from the so-called contemporary runic system.

Karl Maria Willigut tells the story of the Saxons, a brave and barbaric people, and their religion, which they defended from their own Germanic brothers who adopted a distorted version of Odinism in the mid-3,000 BC.

All these accounts are similar. They are all accounts of very ancient lineages and peoples. In such a way that the correlation between the myths themselves, in each people, becomes evident, and how each one adopted a peculiar syncretism through such "priests" implementing, or attempting to confuse, the real MEANING of the myths. All these peoples had the mission of defending a religion that apparently revolted their neighbours and disturbed several ancient enemies, mostly nomads and traders. They tell of a sacred artefact, which invariably involved a green gem, which their neighbours and enemies coveted at all costs and waged exorbitantly costly wars to possess. They were all persecuted and violently exterminated, and much of their blood was shed when they lost a war, in a very ignorant hatred. The influence of priests is evident, who, even though they distorted mythical concepts, still succeeded in some cases and failed in others, at great cost. A much older, primordial ancestral connection is evident, dating back to the formation of the world, where they resemble each other in several factors.

We can see that in these religions and peoples, apparently different from each other, the figure of Wotan (Old High German) was always evident, sometimes called Na-Wotan, Wōden (Anglo-Saxon), Wodan, Wōdanaz (Proto-Germanic), Óðinn (Old Norse), etc. Lord Wotan (Navutan), in a very ancient language, such as Archaic Norse, Archaic Germanic and other archaic languages of Indo-Aryan origin.

The common link between these peoples was undoubtedly the psychic unconscious and the Hyperborean heritage of the sign of origin (spiritual and transcendental, not only in the cultural sense), unlike rational and tame, it was focused on war, on the barbarian (just like the famous character Conan the Cimmerian, we can see the myth of such a character presented in these peoples), clearly insane. It was not a common religion, nor an "occult doctrine," but simply a code of intuitive knowledge based on Warrior Pride and Honour (far from being moral and psychological or ethical, very different from the current psychological concept of Honour) that everyone claimed to have.

received from an ancient people of giants who bequeathed them such wisdom, along with the sciences of stonework, stone walled fortifications, weapons, and agriculture, before migrating eastward and building such stone monuments always near rivers or sea coasts. Such accounts can be found in various books, albeit in a very timid and sometimes erroneous manner, which makes a historical review necessary, from Doric Greece and/or Rome under Caesar Augustus, to other isolated peoples, including North American Indians, the Ainu of Japan, the Kassites of Babylon, the Sumerians, and even the Mongols.

Not only in Europe, but in much of the world, there were those who flaunted the Occult Wisdom of the Liberation of the Captive Spirit, as can be verified.

Genghis Khan, for example, was one of these. His symbol was the swastika. Its origin will never be fully explained, especially since he went into exile in the Gobi Desert and what happened there. The "official" history will never go into detail, even if it knows. This sign was the symbol of Temüjin's (Genghis Khan) Mongol army, precisely because everything was destroyed (however, in the Mongol parliament, even today you can see the adorned swastika on the monument to Genghis Khan), deliberately and systematically banned and hidden from the annals of history for centuries. After all, history is told by the victors or their successors. The same can be said about Rome, all the lies they tell and attribute to the great Rome, its symbols and temples, all discreetly left aside, especially those with swastikas and runes, such as the Temple of Ara Pacis, which the Führer himself made a point of visiting first when he was in Italy.

In America, there were several North American tribes (some artefacts bore the swastika and many accounts resemble those of the other peoples already mentioned) who built stone cities according to Hyperborean Wisdom. In South America, the Incas worshipped a god named VIRACOCHA, similar to the Aztec QUETZALCOATL, who were none other than ODIN, WOTHAN or NA-VUTAN. He was depicted as an elderly white man with a long beard, wearing a grey or black tunic, who always appeared to give advice in times of great difficulty (similar to the character Gandalf in J. R. R. Tolkien's 20th-century epic saga). Another example is the Moon People, located on Moon Island (destroyed and now known as Sun Island, more details can be found in the magical novel "The Mystery of Belicena Villca") on Lake Titicaca in Bolivia (Edmund Kiss visited this territory on an expedition organised by the Ahnenerbe Institute and was able to verify the presence of several stone monuments with incusted runes), who were wiped out by rival tribes. Other accounts can be read in the Chronicles of Akakor, about the tribes of Germanic peoples in the Amazon and in the border region with other countries.

Such accounts form a great puzzle, which when put together, find a mythical synchronicity, a relationship more intrinsic to the Spirit than merely racial (with the exception of strategic issues of collective transmutation and other factors in which pure genetic blood can have a beneficial influence). Thus we observe, always, an ancient wisdom, from stone builders with cromlechs and monoliths, megaliths, etc., always described as wise peoples in various mythical and religious accounts. These wise peoples were the White Atlanteans (survivors of the Battle of Atlantis, warriors of origin; they made a Blood Pact with the Iberians; they were Cro-Magnon men, initiates who helped with their stone constructions to influence nearby peoples, neutralising the energy of Kali Yuga; they signify the Eternity of the Spirit and withdrew to Agharta), from Atlantis, or as some Nordic and Indo-Aryan peoples called them, Hyperborean Peoples of Hyperborea or Thule.

HYPERBOREAN WISDOM

(HYPERBOREAN GNOSIS)

Around the 1980s, Argentine Luiz Felipe Cires Moyano Roca, (a high Initiate and Hyperborean Pontiff, supposedly from a line of succession in South America of the Black Order since Martin Bormann), came into contact with the history of the House of Tharsis (lineage of the ancient Tartessians of the Iberian Peninsula), a family of Spanish nobles dating back more than four millennia. His works are the result of more than 20 years of study, drawn from various rare and forbidden books (around five thousand books) and compiled from all these accounts and written fragments of Hyperborean Wisdom. Thus ends his works, which are nothing more than a didactic compilation of the highest Hyperborean Gnostic "science" ever so excellently written. These are: the magical initiatory novel entitled "The Mystery of Belicena Villca" (where all these fragments of the accounts of the House of Tharsis and Hyperborean wisdom are found throughout history, explaining its concepts and how it was maintained by various peoples over time), as well as the fundamental books of didactic studies, par excellence in deep studies of Hyperborean wisdom and its Gnostic application entitled "The Fundamentals of Hyperborean Wisdom" (a very detailed work, with 14 volumes/books with all the concepts described as never before, on the strategy of the Loyal Gods, the concepts of Hyperborean gnosis and its applications) and others not yet disclosed for strategic reasons. In total, there are almost two thousand pages of material plus supplements to be read, at least by those who desire a better understanding of the primordial strategy of the Loyal Siddhas (Loyal Gods) for the purpose of orienting themselves in the Essential War that is taking place and who, from now on, desire to possess sufficient willpower to become another soldier and student of Primordial Gnosis.

So we will introduce and review some concepts of Primordial Gnosis, in order to better understand what these works written by Luiz Felipe Moyano explain.

Simply put, there has been a conflict between Gods (Loyal and Traitors) since the Origin of human beings. This conflict has been guiding the great conflicts of humanity since the earliest times of the Created world.

Man (referring to man in the sense of gender/species) has a threefold nature: the physical body, a Soul or Monad (The One emanates rays, breaths or the divine breath called Monads, which are the immortal essence of the soul of the animal-man) which is equally material (created by the Creator God and belongs to his Universe) and a NON-MATERIAL Spirit, IMPRISONED TO THE SOUL, INFINITE IN ITSELF AND ETERNAL (not immortal in existence, but eternal in presence). This Spirit comes from HYPERBOREAN, a place outside/beyond the Created Universe, where it was infinite and indeterminate, plenipotentiary and omnipresent like a God.

According to various Western esoteric traditions, seven is the fundamental number of manifestation, often found in different cosmogonies (the origin of the cosmos, study of), as well as in the dogmas of various religions and in the traditions of many ancient peoples. Just like nature, they call Man saptaparna (seven-leaved plant), symbolised geometrically by a triangle on a square. In this sevenfold constitution, we can understand the Monad as the crown (or halo) that is above the human constitution (the top of the triangle), providing it with its "immortal" (created) soul.

It is said that the upper Triad is the "immortal" part of human nature, the "spirit" (erroneously used as being the same thing as the soul) and soul of Christian terminology, while the lower Quaternary is the mortal part, the "body" (Sthula Sharira - the physical body, dense body) of Christianity. The monad aims to individualise itself, emanating from itself a denser principle called Budhi (from the Sanskrit verbal root budh, to awaken, to enlighten, to know; the created soul, the fine vessel within which the Monad burns, is the individual ray that emanates from the Universal Soul or anima mundi).

These are concepts from Theosophy, which, even though it is the result of strategic confusion, synarchic and Shambholic agents (Chang Shambalah – centre of the White Brotherhood, of the Traitor Gods) show us parts of this triple material human composition, without secrets. Body, soul and Spirit is the original triple nature (or trinity) of man, after his imprisonment in matter through the original deception. Even today, the Catholic Church admits this triple nature. Therefore, it is necessary to keep in mind this difference between SOUL and SPIRIT within the concepts of Hyperborean Wisdom so as not to fall into CONFUSION, as many esoteric, spiritualist, and Buddhist sects say it is the result of evolution, that they are under some karmic mission, which is true, however, such evolution concerns merely the SOUL, the MONAD of the Demiurge. On the other hand, the Spirit does not need evolution because it is FULL, and it is where the Soul feeds on its infinite energy, a soul that acts like a parasite.

This trinity occurs when the imprisonment of Spirit in Matter is generated and the Creator (or Demiurge, from the Greek, from the Platonic tradition, meaning Creator) together with his traitorous band, imprisons these spirits, which were free, in this structure of man's body and soul, in order to obtain maximum evolution of his "clay man" and his psychic structure. In this way, consciousness arises, the I AM, and its existence in the Created Universe is affirmed. Attracted by an illusion and deceptions generated by the Demiurge, the spirits fell into this universe, generating the great original mystery of imprisonment. After all, the Demiurge needed these spirits (used as "batteries" of infinite energy to feed the soul of the animal-man) to evolve his master plan and give meaning to his newly created world, like a painter observing his work of art, using whatever it takes to feed his satisfaction and adoration as the One God. So the Spirit was imprisoned in the Soul of the animal-man (Pasu, or the well-known Neanderthal), so that its volitional force would help in the evolution of the psychic structure of the humanoid creature that until then was the PASU, the primitive man of dual nature formed of body and soul.

The lodging of the Spirit from outside the Material Universe (created) within the material Soul (monad) of man caused a RAPID EVOLUTION OF THE NEOCORTEX (his Sphere of Consciousness, which was until then primitive), where the SPHERE OF LIGHT is largely lodged: this evolution is what anthropologists and archaeologists try to identify as CRO-MAGNON MAN.

After such imprisonment, the Loyal Gods came to the aid and gave instructions to these imprisoned spirits, who then formed a civilisation called "Atlantis", NEVER SEEN IN ALL ITS RICHNESS OF NATURAL, ENERGETIC, PSYCHIC AND ESOTERIC KNOWLEDGE TO THIS DAY, IN SUCH A WAY THAT AN ATLANTEAN USED 100% OF THEIR BRAIN CAPACITY, WHILE TODAY THE AVERAGE HUMAN USES ONLY A MAXIMUM OF 8% OF THEIR CAPACITY.

From then on, the Essential War begins between the Loyal Gods (who come to the aid of the imprisoned spirits in order to free them so that they can be free again in the Origin) and the Traitor Gods (Gods of the same origin, who were the inventors of this "system" of imprisoning spirits, to save the work of creation that was doomed to failure) led by the Creator (Demiurge) of the world, the Hebrew god Jehovah-Satan (Satan, which in Hebrew means adversary, enemy, to the Loyal Gods). The Christian Holy Bible, together with the Jewish Torah or Talmud (both share the same symbolic and spiritual line), written only millennia later to distort and misrepresent Hyperborean Wisdom, refers to Lucifer as Satan, but neither Lucifer nor Nawothan are demons, nor does Satan mean demon, but rather "enemy" - Jehovah, the Enemy of Free Spirits; good and evil (dualism) are two sides of the same coin in the World of Illusion, but Jehovah (also referred to in Judaism as Elohim, YHVH, God, etc.) is closer to being a "demon" (even the term demon, comes from the Greek Daemon, and had no evil connotation; it was only medieval Christians who gave it such a malevolent meaning because it was a pagan concept of spiritual deity), an evil essence, a born traitor, because he deceived his peers by relying on tyranny, treason, and dishonour, and Love for his work as a means of IMPOSING his dominion.

These men were the object of the War between Loyal and Traitor Gods; divided into two factions (Siddhas – from the Sanskrit Siddhi, meaning perfect in itself, complete, pure spirit), they fought until their homeland Atlantis was completely devastated. Forced to migrate, they crossed Europe led by Wotan (the true Kristus-Lucifer, Na-Wotan, Wöden, Wōdanaz, Óðinn) and his court (the 12 Drotnar or Gods of Asgard, who later became the 12 Knights of Arthur's Round Table or Arcturus, Arctus, Hyperborean Initiate Berserker), bringing agriculture and a whole series of developments to the European peoples, then to other continents. They were the builders of stone, and their Cromlechs, Monoliths, Megaliths can be seen, some even today, in various parts of the globe, as they were built strategically and with the use of the telluric energy of the earth's flowing energy. Archaeologists try to dismiss such monuments as being built by seafaring peoples, which is a mistake, as they were always built close to rivers, seas and lakes because it is from these "veins of the earth" that the telluric energy of Kali Yuga flows; thus creating differentiated space/time and influencing peoples in order to nullify the destructive and degenerative effect that Kali Yuga has on the blood. With this strategic influence, peoples emerged who were more involved in the strategy of Hyperborean wisdom and who carried out their missions encouraged by them.

He became known in many of the places he visited, and his myth was passed on by all these peoples. Thus, Navutan in other mythologies and tales is Wotan or Odin, Zeus, Apollo, Theseus, Prometheus, Lucifer, Luci Bel, Phosphorus, Eosphorus, Hesperus, Quetzalcoatl, Shiva, Rudra, or another entity of the Mongols. All have the essence of the Warrior Leader, the God of War, the sage who guides men out of the labyrinth and challenges the Creator and the reality of his creation, the Just God who renounces the Ritual Sacrifice of blood imposed by the one; he is also the old guide who appears to give advice in difficult times (the raven of the storm, or the Viracocha of the Incas, who is the same figure). Similarly, Frya, his wife, is Athena, Freya, Ariadne, Pyrena or Belisana (Medusa, whom the Iberians worshipped and whom the Phoenicians later misrepresented), Artemis, Lilith, Kali, Persephone, Ishtar, and among so many other names that it would be too long to list. The Goddess of War is born armed, wild and free, fully mastering Strategy and guiding by weaving the golden cord that connects all viryas on their way out of the labyrinth of illusion (as in the myth of the labyrinth with the Minotaur), and is mistress of the Gaze of Death (the gaze of Medusa) that transmutes man into Initiate, into man of stone, and of all other feminine and Virginal mysteries.

According to the evolution experienced and given the results obtained with the Cro-Magnon races through Pasu (Neanderthal), the KALACHAKRA key was implemented again and new extraterrestrial spiritual races were deceived and thrown into matter with the purpose of generating a genetic mixture with it in order to add greater SPIRITUAL WILL to the peoples of the cultural pact. Within these fallen races were certain groups such as the ASSYRIANS, HITTITES, and KASSITES, who were assimilated into the peoples of the cultural pact: EGYPTIANS, NUBIANS, ACCADIANS, SUMERIANS, JEWS, PERSIANS, ETC. Although these races coming from a spiritual system belonging to another creation; they were drawn into this deception for the purposes mentioned above, but we must consider that their incorporation into the plan was not easy, because some groups tried to return and fight back. A concrete example is the story of the CASSITA people developed by NIMROD the hunter, narrated in the book "The Mystery of Belicena Villca".

In turn, in EUROPE and ASIA, new races were imprisoned and caught up in the world of illusion, but the audacity of the TRAITOROUS SIDDHAS was already very great, because these races no longer came from an evolutionary system but were of HYPERBOREAN lineage, THAT IS, OF A NOTABLY DIVINE ORIGIN; in such a way that the first INDO-EUROPEAN ARIAN and INDO-ARIAN groups appeared, which were quickly taken over by the Synarchic GUIDES; although these races, BEING OF DIVINE ORIGIN, had engraved in their spirit the memory of their ORIGIN, they generated certain groups with strategies different from those of the pact.

cultural, for example: the CRETAN AND MYCENAEAN cultures, the IBERIANS, PELAGIANS, ETC.; they were quickly reduced by the peoples of the cultural pact and incorporated into their strategies, counting among these groups specifically the CELTS, as the first to be gathered by the GUIDES (DRUIDS) of the cultural pact. Seeing this, the gods of AGARTHA (or Valhalla) intervened, summoning Kristus-Lucifer (or Odin, Wotan, Navutan); the reason was to see how to stop the fall of the spiritual races into the world of terror and rescue the fallen spirits.

At this moment in history, when everything changes because the SHIDDAS from AGARTHA, with NAVUTAN's approval, decide to implement a strategy to combat terror and stop the sacrifice of extraterrestrial races that have fallen into a world of pain; for this purpose, they plan and descend from the ORIGIN the PURE HYPERBOREAN races that quickly and fearlessly penetrate from the pole, the races of the SEA called AQUÉLAS, JÓNICAS A N D SPECIFICALLY THAT OF THE DORIC WARRIORS who invade by penetrating the KALACHAKRA key. When we say that these races invade the kalachakra key – demiurgic science that focuses on metempsychosis or reincarnation and fundamentally has the mission of erasing the sign of origin and affirming ontological designs – we maintain that one ASPECT of kalachakra was invaded at the moment of the imprisonment of these spiritual races thanks to the action of the LOYAL SIDDHAS; the neutralisation of this aspect of the key remained open in the spirit of these races and the MISSION entrusted by the SIDDHAS and the sign of origin with which the HEROES who fell valiantly in death could return to the ORIGIN or AGARTHA; in such a way that they carried within themselves the power of the SIGN OF ORIGIN, HAVING THE MISSION TO DESTROY THE PEOPLES OF THE CULTURAL PACT.

That is why we affirm that these races entered from INFINITY (Hyperborean Wisdom maintains: they penetrated from the infinite ladder through the TAU point) and brilliantly developed the strategy guided from AGARTHA. This is how the HYPERBOREAN "cultures" such as SPARTA and specifically ROME emerged, which detained and destroyed the peoples of the cultural pact, definitively affirming the RUNES and ETERNAL HYPERBOREAN SYMBOLS in the world; for 500 years they detained the advance of synarchic cultures and surrounded and isolated HALF the world from the strategies of the One.

We can identify, through various myths and archetypal symbols of each people, fragments that are not so distorted from Hyperborean guides, because each myth and/or eternal symbol preserves a Gnostic truth, an aspect of the real myth and the truth of what it represents. It is a mistake to understand such myths through a rational and literal aspect, ignoring the symbolism and the true aspect of symbolism. Hence arise religions, albeit pagan, literalist, and that people worship, perform rites, and even make physical sacrifices of death and blood. No Hyperborean guide or Loyal God will ever accept sadistic and deliberate suffering without an honourable way to justify it for worship. All these blood rituals established throughout the history of these peoples are purely the result of synarchic misrepresentation and the infiltration of its agents, in order to distort, confuse and nullify the gnostic truth gnosis of these myths. Few have managed to maintain the truth behind the myth, removing the blinders and SEEING with the EYES OF BLOOD.

We must be clear that this is only an INITIATIC PATH that leads to the understanding of Frya and the other "gods," Hyperborean Guides, who are not lords nor do they demand worship or fear, but are guides who, in an honourable act, come to rescue their peers. Leaving us the means to guide ourselves, not giving us anything for free or inducing us to serve a cult or form temples in worship. There were indeed "temples" in psychosocial strategies, but they involved other strategic factors for weaker masses and an experience of collective transmutation from the unconscious and Apollonian and virginal symbols.

Something we can note is that in all Nordic religions, the act of kneeling before a God was forbidden, outrageous and ridiculous, a true lack of Honour. One should always respond to contact with a divine being with head held high and arms at the ready, from Krista (Arista, the V).

In order to identify such strategic confusion, we must understand the hidden concepts of everything, SEE the Gnostic fire and extract its understanding from it, removing the cultural blinders. Thus, for a long time, the world has seen the confrontation of two strategies: the Synarchic and the Hyperborean.

As already mentioned, Wotan, known in the Origin as Lucifer, declared war on Jehovah-Satan, and so, from outside creation, he agreed to descend to the Created World incarnated in a mortal human (called Wotan, Wodan, Odin, etc., as we have already seen) to prove that it is possible to abandon this world, where one is a slave, and return to the Origin, the Homeland of the Spirit, Hyperborea, Thule. He was born of a Virgin (hence the countless accounts of gods always born of a virgin, but this term goes beyond merely not having been sexually violated, to spiritual purity, as it has no connection with Christian morality), who of her own free will gave birth to her son of stone.

Amma was the name of the Virgin who came from Agartha. For this reason, some peoples worshipped the Virgin of the Cave, the Virgin of Agartha, the Virgin of Thule, among others, and the synarchy corrupted this into the myth of the mother of Jesus, commonly known as Our Lady.

Wotan, descending from the tree on which he sacrificed himself to acquire the occult knowledge of death and runes, discovered the secret weapons in this Essential War: Hyperborean Wisdom. He then travelled much of the world openly teaching this secret to men, so that those who possessed the Honour to declare war on the Creator and the Created World might join the Gods in Valhalla (the Germanic name for the Kingdom of Agartha, a place outside of space/time somewhere in the Material Universe where some Loyal Gods still fight for humanity and help those who die with Honour and Valour and those who awaken, seeking to wait and return for the final battle, the opposite of Chang Shambalah and not the same as some mistakenly call it). He was known to the most ancient humans as

The "Great White Chief" raised up good warrior peoples wherever he went, established noble families, the aristocracy of blood, who were to withstand the test of time and perfect Wisdom (the so-called Blood Pact), and created a new way of life based on walled strongholds, self-sufficient agriculture, and the refinement of the art of war; from which arise the basic precepts of a Hyperborean Strategy in contrast to Synarchy, which was instituted to degrade the Blood Pact and perfect the material, the useless, and the easy life that generates culture.

The blood pact consists of maintaining a linear society, with as much common blood as possible, in order to synchronise this through the memory of blood (voice of blood) and identify their common blood leader, who is elected in a CHARISMATIC and non-democratic manner (this process has nothing to do with tyranny and political dictatorship; it is a tribal leader elected for their lineage, their blood and spiritual power, like any other ancient model, prior to hypocritical democracy). They are generally sedentary peoples, focused on productive work, ancestry and ethnic and national boundaries, working the land to achieve self-sufficiency and independence from other peoples or modes of subsistence. When this collective process, in which common blood is more linear and they have common ancestors, occurs, the phenomenon called AUREA CÁTENA occurs, the charismatic recognition of the leader of the blood, the Führer of his people. Among peoples considered hyperborean, the process is always the same, as we can see in ancient Babylon, where the Kassites chose Nimrod and Ninurta, the Tartessians in Iberia chose the lineage of the House of Tharsis, the French elected Philip the Fair, the Mongols chose Genghis Khan, the Spartans chose Leonidas, the Macedonians chose Alexander the Great, the Romans chose Caesar Augustus, the Paraguayans chose Solano Lopez, Germania elected Adolf Hitler, and among other peoples and leaders that would be too extensive to list here.

What identifies a king of blood is precisely his cold, serene and inspiring gaze, his energy when shaking hands and, as a result, his admiration and unparalleled charisma. There is always a tone of mystery and wisdom present, which can be felt by those who have such a predisposition. There is a synchronicity of blood through mnemonic content (which "science" denies at all costs, but it is more than correct to say that it carries historical memory, as C.G. Jung rightly stated) and everyone participates in the blood pact. A very clear example of this is Sparta.

They had a strict code of conduct for warriors, based on Virtue, Valour, Vicissitude, Vehemence, Will, Virility, etc., in the construction of men of stone. From birth, they were chosen to wage war; it was a matter of pride, not obligation or imposition. It was not a society determined to evolve technologically through progress; they were focused on perfecting combat and the art of war, but that did not make them any less intellectual or wise, for knowledge is not wisdom. Socrates was an enthusiast of this thinking, as was Plato. Neither believed in Athenian democracy as an effective system for society (but this is still a topic of debate among pseudo-academics and philosophers today). Such a society does not even need many laws, as codes of honour are intrinsic to each individual, naturally placing Value and Honour in a clear position (their

The only ethical and moral code was that of the Spirit, not based on psychological conjectures and concepts rooted in cultural ideas. Thus, they had few problems with superficial issues, as they were an aristocracy of blood. Their economy is simple, but very cooperative and sufficient, arousing the envy of the peoples of the cultural pact (synarchists), who subsisted on the need to live off trade and perfect material ways of making life comfortable and acceptable, the facilities, buying something ready-made and not having the will to work on the entity from its origin and meaning. The best form they adopt is a system of exchange or sustenance through work and the raw materials of their lands. Trade is a typical characteristic of the peoples of the cultural pact who need to buy their raw materials externally, as they are unable to live without a financial system geared towards capital speculation or gold.

This is why the Synarchy governs international banks, the global financial system, gold and currency, and above all, encourages miscegenation and the end of traditionalism in some traditions, as long as they mix with others, because they are mostly nomadic peoples, who go here and there acquiring goods of production, ready-made cultural objects, using only gold as their labour. Thus, we have countries dependent on an illusion that is gold and international money, and any country that attempts to grant financial independence (except for the countries that are lackeys and servants of the Synarchy, such as the USA, Israel, England, and much of the European Union) will be boycotted and suffer various retaliations from the Synarchy, as in the case of Paraguay and Germany in the Third Reich.

When a blood pact society is established, in splendour, prosperous and warlike, completely united in the charismatic synchrony of the ancestral voice of ASTRALLY purified blood (Pure Blood is blood capable of hearing the ancestors and Loyal Gods, it does not exactly have to do with the concept of race, although it is one of the determining factors, but not exclusively so); thus leaving a step to be taken towards the task of combating the Synarchy, the great religions and all the HIGHLY ENTROPIC tendencies of unification; all the peoples of the cultural pact or allies of the Synarchy come together for the destruction of this imminent "danger". All the ancestral races and cultures of the world can be beautiful, strong and pure if the aristocracy of blood is maintained and preserved in its original state and with its living space maintained. Protected from mixing and the synarchic illusion of "progress" of facilities that make man increasingly apathetic, conformist and cowardly; under an essential strategy called siege, stone fortresses, saved and isolated from the degradation of the world, its time and natural destruction that come from Kali Yuga. That is why such a society is based on turning back time, on the fight against time, on the past, its origins and its true homeland of the spirit. Not in this world, which we know to be the stage of the battlefield (Valplads). Behold, the swastika appears (it can be dextrorotatory or levorotatory, that is, it can turn to the right (in this case associated with the sun) or to the left (associated with the moon) against time, but the one adopted by the Führer was levorotatory), turning inversely to illusory successive time and thus bringing us back to the ORIGIN.

However, the Traitor Gods imprisoned the spirit with their Passion, to use its strength in the evolution of the animal-man (like infinite batteries for the soul to evolve and give meaning and energy to all matter, like a parasite). thus, it was essential that the spirit did NOT manifest itself or awaken from this illusion that is the created world (Maya – Hindu term for world of illusion, we can also call it the Matrix, as the film of the same name addresses in a very simple and summarised way). This is achieved by hypnotising, further numbing the Spirit in the ILLUSION OF MATERIAL EXISTENCE in the VEIL OF MAYA, leaving it even weaker and more confused with each cycle of incarnation, unable to recognise itself and unable to free itself, thus gradually erasing the sign of its origin. Intoxicating man with vices, entertainment, dreams and false hopes of immortality, which he knows full well will come to an end. That end will be the Demiurge's own swallowing of his womb, sucking everyone into himself, or as the Hindus call it: the night of Brahma. It is as if all of us (our physical organic body and soul) were parts of an immense LIVING organism (the Universe) and we are inserted into this organism of the Demiurge himself.

It is only through Culture, the reason for the world's meaning, that this goal is sustained by SYNARCHY, which is World Government by the Chosen People (chosen by the Creator to monitor and control all "gentiles" so that they do not interfere with their goals, and this is verifiable even in their own Torah and in the Christian Bible, the people chosen by God) of the Creator, which is Israel. All trends towards acculturation, cultural and racial miscegenation, unification of religions, customs and concepts, all multicultural and egalitarian deception; everything that makes it necessary to dispense with a natural identity in order to unite on a larger scale, points to Synarchy. In this way, people are taught to compromise and relativise, to be accommodating and passive, to avoid confrontation whenever possible, to value peace even if it is cowardly, thus removing all capacity to transcend matter to its spiritual essence. The purpose of Synarchy is to bring together an exhausted and downtrodden humanity as a large and amorphous egalitarian caste under the iron tyranny of the Israelites, a people whom the Demiurge took from among the most primitive that existed on Earth and favours them to reign, thus affirming their Power and Victory by bringing the nobility of the spiritual Warriors to their knees, sacrificing their purified blood. In short, the Synarchy is the Sacrifice of humanity in exchange for the "Perfection" of this "Chosen People," and with this, Jehovah affirms his power over that of the other Gods.

For a long time, the developing Synarchy has been tempting people with promises of progress, power, and material comfort, so that they will wage war against the bearers of Hyperborean Wisdom and repress them. That is why all the families in ancient accounts were almost exterminated, sometimes totally exterminated, and their blood profusely spilled, down to the last drop. Those who were not destroyed suffered severe brainwashing, the administration of medicines, drugs, and everything else that could DESTROY the FREE WILL of the FREE SPIRIT. In such a way that there exists a society of zombies, addicts and anaesthetised people, without even the will to wake up or make the slightest effort, thus wasting away like the character Gollum from J.R.R. Tolkien's epic saga.

Then we have the cunning work of the Synarchy, which is mainly to confuse those who seek gnosis or spiritual truth, answers to their countless transcendental questions, always generating deceptions and hoaxes, as we can clearly see. Therefore, the idea is promoted that everything that is in favour of war, darkness, night, not fearing death, physical pain or not accepting submission is something that comes from "evil", from the "devil", demonic and malignant, and in itself lacks love. Such concepts, spearheaded directly by the Christian Church (both Protestantism and any doctrine that culminates in Judeo-Christian symbolism), are intensified when pagan peoples (already well worked on by the agents of the synarchy, distorting all Hyperborean symbols, as we can see among the Celts - except the Tuatha De Danann) automatically convert to Christianity, and that is when the collective structures of egalitarianism, tolerationism, and global economic and financial laws begin to be worked on, including even the counting of time and history. Then came the Mercantilist Bank, the original bankers, those who created currency, gold and greed: the Order of the Knights Templar, the Jewish Freemasons. They began the work of translating Christian scrolls (said to be sacred and untouchable, just like the sacred scriptures of the Jews in the Torah or First Testament). A whole hoax began to be meticulously elaborated by Benedictine monks to apply Christianity globally as the sole strategy of Christ of Nazareth, which is a poorly made and maliciously conceived copy from Chang Shambalah of the true Kristus-Lucifer.

ETYMOLOGY OF THE WORD LUCIFER

Lucifer is not the Devil

"How you have fallen from heaven, O morning star, son of the dawn! How you have been cut down to the ground, you who laid low the nations!" Isaiah 14:12

Due to an error by the translator of the Septuagint, Morning Star was translated as Eosphoros.

Note that Eosphoros is a Greek deity related to the Morning Star. Note that the biblical text is clearly referring to the king of Babylon, that is, there was no mention of heaven, hell, much less Satan, and because of this error, Jerome, when translating the Vulgate, did so by adopting not the original Hebrew but the text of the Septuagint, and when he found Eosforos, he translated it as Lucifer.

"How you have fallen from heaven, Lucifer, son of the dawn! You have been cast down to the earth, you who once laid low the nations!"

Liber Isaiae 14:12

So far, we have a basic translation error that would have no consequence (like so many other errors) were it not for the fact that the Christian Church now needed to combat Paganism (the religion practised by peasants), whose main deities included Lucifer; So far, so good, but the big problem is that this cult had strong sexual connotations, which was unbearable for a castrated and castrating church, where the body is evil, life is evil, everything is sin, and all is related to constant suffering that only a lamb-like entity can comfort. See what Paul says about the body:

*"What a wretched man I am!
Who will deliver me from this body of death?"*

Rom. 7:24

We can observe the sacralising and dogmatic character that the Christian Church tries to intensify in man with its strategic confusion. So, as they knew who Lucifer was, the authentic Kristus-Lucifer, they demonised any mention of him, however small, even though it had nothing to do with Christianity or Judaism.

Lucifer was never the devil, much less Satan (adversary/enemy in Hebrew). He was never an angel of Jehovah (who is Satan), he is not a demon, and he has nothing to do with Jewish/Christian culture. Finally, as Lucifer is not the devil, much less Satan, he has nothing to do with Satanism, whether traditional or modern. If someone wants to be a Satanist, they are falling into a terrible mistake, for Lucifer does not lend himself to reaffirming the true egregore of evil that is Jesus, the Jehovah's lambs, these are extremely harmful and represent the ultimate castration of the spirit and the warrior, turning eagles into doves, wolves into sheep. And they deceive everyone with their illusory promises and their piety and mercy worthy of the weak and submissive Pasus with their calloused knees. They are so pious and kind that it is easy to verify their APPLIED strategy and see how many people have been killed in nomine dei, offered in a Fire Holocaust, in blood sacrifice to please the sadistic, genocidal One God. Just read the "Holy" Bible from beginning to end, and make a brief count of how many people Jehovah has killed, apart from those I have already mentioned, in his name.

We may ask ourselves, since the word Eosforós was inadequate for the translation of the Hebrew word Heylél, which is why the myth arose that Lucifer is the name of Satan, then what would be the appropriate Greek word to use in the Septuagint translation?

Let us first look at the text in English:

In the LXX, the text reads as follows:

*"How did the morning star fall from heaven, the one who rose early?
He fell to the earth, the one sent to all nations."
Is. 14:12*

As you can see, ἑωσφόρος replaces the Morning Star, and as we know, Hêylél ben Shachar means SON OF THE DAWN. Just remember Ben Hur, which means son of UR.

So some problems arise from the point of view of a rigorous exegesis of the Bible. Let's see:

- The author of this translation was certainly a Hellenised Jew, or at most a Greek who knew Hebrew.
- Why was ἑωσφόρος used? ἑωσφόρος is associated in Greek mythology with AURORA, that is, ἑωσφόρος is the son of AURORA, and ἑωσφόρος was, for the Greeks, the MORNING STAR. In other words, ἑωσφόρος is a proper name.

- It should have been translated directly as MORNING STAR.

See the text of Revelation 22, where Jesus identifies himself as the morning star, and the author of the Greek text did not use ἑωσφόρος but rather morning star. Why is that?

Text from Revelation:

"I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify to you about these things for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star."

Conclusion:

"I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify to you about these things for the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright morning star."

Rev 22:16

If it is permissible to translate morning star as ἑωσφόρος, then:

Why was the same criterion not used in this text?

If the MORNING STAR in Isaiah 14 is a reference to Lucifer, what criteria prevent us from making the same interpolation for Jesus?

The Christian Gnostics in the early centuries did exactly this, and even though they were Christians, they were considered heretics by the patriarchs of the church, because in this way, they were not collaborating with the whole strategy of confusion itself. And even before them, several others, such as the Cathars, knew the true history of the real Kristus-Lucifer and also were exterminated completely.

We also have this text from II Peter:

"And we have the prophetic word made more sure, to which you do well to pay attention, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts."

II Peter 1:19

In Greek we have (highlighting the word Eosforos):

"καὶ ἔχομεν βεβαιότερον τὸν προφητικὸν λόγον, ὃ καλῶς ποιεῖτε προσέχοντες ὡς λύχνοι φαίνονται ἐν ἀύχμηρῳ τόπῳ, ἕως οὗ ἡμέρα διαυγάσει καὶ φωσφόρος
ἀνατέλει ἐν ταῖς καρδίαις ὑμῶν·
PETER 2:19

Now let us see the same translation in LATIN (and note the highlighted name):

"Et habemus firmiorem propheticum sermonem, cui bene facitis attendentes quasi lucernae lucenti in caliginoso loco, donec dies illucescat, et lucifer oriatur in cordibus vestris," II
PETRI I:XIX

Why did this happen?

Certainly, if one is arguing at this level, it is because one must at least have a knowledge of Greek and Latin (even though Latin is not taught in evangelical seminaries), but have you ever wondered why all the quotations from Jesus in the Greek book were taken from the LXX?

It is more than obvious that the Christian scriptures were written based not on the Hebrew text but on the LXX, hence the many strategic confusions and the cover-up of the true hoax of Jesus of Nazareth, an ascended master of the White Brotherhood. We may also ask ourselves, why, when listing 45 cities in Galilee, did Josephus forget to include Nazareth among them?

Why is there not a single serious historical reference to the city of Nazareth before the 4th century CE?

Why is there not a single reference to the city of Nazareth in the entire Tanach?

Because they are part of the strategic confusion of the agents of the Synarchy and Chang Shambalah (Headquarters of the White Hierarchy of the Traitor Siddhas). That is why we use the term Kristus-Lucifer, and as we know, the Morning Star is Venus (planet), from where the free Spirits crossed from Thule.

CHRISTIANITY AND ITS FARCE

Christ (Kristus) is a title and not a name as many interpret it. It means the Anointed One (its etymology is also the stage for several different origins). And in the West, he became better known as Christ the Nazarene, Jesus.

Jesus of Nazareth was an ascended master of the White Brotherhood who came to confuse the people, REPLACING THE MEMORY OF THE TRUE KRISTUS, WHO LIVED MORE THAN 11,000 YEARS BEFORE HIM, WITH HIS CULT.

Navutan, the real Kristus, came from Hyperborea and agreed to descend into Hell (this reality, our world also called Valplads, the battlefield) to teach Hyperborean Wisdom to the first men; from him arose the Myth of Odin (or Wotan, Na-Wotan, Navutan, etc.) of the one-eyed god who hung nine days and nights from the Columna Universalis (or the magical Tree of the Creator's garden, which the Jews call Rimmon, Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, Tree Sephiroth, and known in Odinism as Yrminsul, the Tree of Terror), in the mystery of the crucifixion millennia before the Canaanite copy to acquire the knowledge of death and the wisdom of the uncreated runes. He acquired the key and the mystery of the liberation of the spirit, with the help of his wife-sister-mother (who seduced and prostituted herself to the traitors who possessed the pieces that make up the key to the secret: the Kalachakra key) Frya (or Freya herself, but Odinists mistakenly associate them as being different).

He managed to climb down from the Tree, returned from the dead, and Frya danced (runic gymnastics, yoga, etc.) to express the pieces of the key in his blood, so he discovers and understands imprisonment for himself. He communicated to men the secret of Krista (the right angle, the V, the Arista) and left with his closest courtiers, crossing the world and bequeathing a life guided by Warrior Valour and the search for Freedom of Spirit. In this way, he became known as the God of War and other myths by various peoples, for he declared war on the creation of this universe and gathered various armies and followers. As we have already noted, there are traces of his passage even in the Americas, where he was known as Quetzalcoatl, Viracocha, and other Toltec, Sioux, Hopi, and Navajo gods. In Europe, he always appeared as some variation of Odin, but he was also known as Phosphorus, Eosphorus, Hesperus, Lucifer, Lucibel, the pre-classical Zeus, and many other variations according to the language of each people among whom he passed.

In contrast, the Christ of Nazareth came to preach gentleness through love for creation, lamb-like passivity in complete trust in the god of destiny and his priests, penance and remission of sins, life through suffering in the punishment of Karma through the illusory promise of hope for heaven. All these numbing values are the opposite of what Hyperborean Wisdom considers healthy for the spirit.

As a result of the emergence of Hyperborean "cultures" such as SPARTA and specifically ROME, which detained and destroyed the peoples of the cultural pact thus definitively affirming the RUNES and ETERNAL HYPERBOREAN SYMBOLS in the world; for 500 years they halted the advance of the Synarchic cultures and surrounded and isolated half the world from the strategy of the One God.

This act of war carried out by great warriors builders, PONTIFICAL HYPERBOREANS such as ALEXANDER THE GREAT, JULIUS CAESAR, AUGUSTUS, and so many viryas of pure warrior blood from the Hyperborean lineage, such as the Viking BERSERKERS, horrified the demon gods (Siddhas Traitors) who felt how the GREAT FACE OF THE ANCIENT HAD LET OUT A HOWL of grief upon seeing how his chosen peoples and his plans were being exterminated and his work was failing; That is why from SHAMBALAH he rushed and incarnated in his own world of pain, this time with his face and power - Jesus, Christianity - THUS BEING ABLE TO DETER HIS OWN END.

Christianity was a terrible blow against the secret doctrines and peoples who still partially maintained Hyperborean Wisdom, despite all the wars and resistance of the Synarchy and the powers of matter. It was cowardly and atrocious, for it used the Blood Voice of the awakened peoples against themselves, deceiving them with a decoy, a farce copied from the primordial Kristus-Lucifer, and spreading the Synarchy of the chosen people (then infiltrated by the Benedictine order, which guided the Christian Church for over a thousand years) in a subjugated and docile Europe. And then because, very differently from what is reported in the sacred scriptures of Christianity, Jesus did not die physically, but rather Kristus-Lucifer, who practised self-sacrifice by descending into hell (not for any God) in order to discover the system of imprisonment of this created world, all of his own free will.

Some rabbis today already recognise this "Messiah". Jesus, Ascended Master of the White Brotherhood trained in acoustic Kabbalah by the cream of the Levite priests, who still lives after the Cross and was welcomed by his Order (Melchizedek); he returned to Shambhala and is still there, fulfilling his manifest mission, ready to return to rebuild the temple of Jerusalem. His energy emanates as Metatron, the Archetypal Man, and this has the effect that THE VERY EVOLUTIONARY IMPULSE OF HUMAN CULTURE MOVES, FROM JESUS, IN THE DIRECTION OF METATRON, THE MAN OF CLAY, THE ARCHETYPICAL JEW.

Through the Solar Logos and its planetary arguments, its action emanates through sacred symbols and superstructures, royal systems, etc. Also called the God of an Age, a myth or sacred symbol, and in this case, it was the Age of Pisces.

And within this strategy of Christianity, it automatically implies the almost universal belief in equality, democracy, the sentimentality of facilitated rights, the stories and dogmas that the Chosen People imposed on those whom they themselves, the Jews, call Gentiles. It then became a natural impulse in human reason from Jesus onwards.

In Hyperborean Wisdom, Israel is called ANAHATA CHAKRA (the Heart Chakra or the Heart of the Earth, because all its arguments are based on the sphere of sentimentality, piety, compassion, pacifist brotherhood, and love for all created things). Kabbalist priests call this phenomenon, as applied to gentiles, EXCHANGING THE EAGLE FOR THE DOVE: from the haughty and proud bird of warriors to the fragile and servile dove of peace of obedient lambs. This is why the white dove universally symbolises Peace, as well as the presence of God and the Holy Spirit and/or the Shekinah (one of the 10 aspects of the sephirotic tree of YHVH, representing the physical manifestation of the Demiurge).

But there were those who resisted, and like the Cathars, even though they claimed to be believers in Christ, they rejected the entire Bible and called the Christian Church and the Vatican "the throne of Satan." For the Cathars, Jehovah was Satan, and Christ was the true bearer of uncreated light. It is no wonder that more and more people were involved in this Cathar strategy of collective conversion, and disturbing the Synarchy, which once again took action, applying genocide and the Albigensian Crusade against the Cathars, with orders to kill them all and burn them without distinction for heresy.

It was also during this period, due to their support for this cult, that the disaster of Teutoburg Forest occurred and the Five Thousand of Verden were ritually murdered. The Danish royal house of Kollman fled with half of their people to America, where they were known by the Incas as Atumurunas, the People of the Moon. Crusades were also organised by the Benedictine popes to destroy the church of Our Lady of Thule in Garðar, Greenland. Similarly, the Teutonic Knights helped some Cathars escape to the region now known as Paraguay, thus bringing the Grail to safety.

This was the case with all those who opposed the false Christ and Judeo-Christianity.

JESUS, THE DESPERATE ATTEMPT AT DECEPTION

"For God so loved the world"...

That is, as a result, he was pleased with his way...

Jesus came into the world to silence the fury acquired from Cain's blood. In order to redeem the "impure" blood, the "sin" that runs in our blood inherited from the Serpent. "Poison" that, if not cut off, would be the death of the soul.

He came to combat this "poison," our sign of origin, with the balm of his Love, the Power of his Love that fills hearts with lies and illusion and numbs righteous fury, that consoles little by little and calms, tames, sheepifies, "purifies" and "converts" into the blood of a SERVANT, the blood of FEAR, the blood of a SHEPHERD, LOVING blood, the blood of ABEL, the blood of a WEAK man. Blood of the Redeemer grateful to the Creator.

PRIMORDIAL GNOSIS

Primordial Gnosis is knowledge that dates back to the proto-history of humanity. Its almost total obscurity is due, ridiculously, to the enormous distance in time that separates us from the facts, if not to the tenacity with which it has been combated by antagonistic religious and social systems, which have subjected it to permanent degradation: destroying ancient documents, mutilating the symbols that sustained it, and distorting human history in favour of their interests contrary to the right to MAN'S ETERNITY THROUGH HIS SPIRITUAL LINEAGE AND HIS FREE WILL REGARDING HIS DESTINY (eternity, not immortality).

IT IS NOT A RELIGION, it is Knowledge left by the Hyperboreans: THE RACE OF ORIGIN; to be used as an effective and INFALLIBLE STRATEGY of LIBERATION for IMPRISONED SPIRITS and for human beings; lost in the world of material illusion and ignorant of their origin and destiny.

If today there are VESTIGES of this Science, it is because it has survived within ancient Gnostic groups that are terribly secretive. Information, knowledge and symbols have been preserved to the present day and through them, the MEMORY OF THE ORIGIN, OF THE ETERNAL.

We can recognise many aspects of this Wisdom in Gnosticism in general, in Manichaeism, Catharism, Theosophy, Rosicrucianism, Freemasonry, Buddhism, Hinduism, Judaism, Christianity, Sophism, Shintoism, Taoism, esoteric martial arts and many other schools of Knowledge in the East and West; knowledge that is INCOMPLETE AND, IN MANY DETAILS, DISTORTED.

Through time and by means of fear, terror, cunning, murder, treachery, substitution, deception and lies; the ENEMIES OF THE ORIGIN, with the aim of confusing, have buried and cut the golden thread, THE AURA CATENA, THE PRIMORDIAL GNOSIS that leads to the TRUTH OF THE ORIGIN, in a labyrinth from which nothing can escape by itself. Knowledge that today, as a disguise, has become other RELIGIONS THAT KNEEL AND BOW THEIR HEADS BEFORE THE CREATOR AND HIS UNIVERSUM, FOR THE LOVE OF THE MAN OF CLAY AND THE ILLUSORY WORLD OF MATTER, WALKING HOPEFULLY TOWARDS THE PROMISE OF IMMORTALITY, THE FAVOURITE DAUGHTER OF THE ILLUSION OF TIME, WHICH WILL INEVITABLY END IN ITS PRALAYA (PERIOD OF TIME IN THE CYCLE OF EXISTENCE OF PLANETS IN WHICH NO ACTIVITY OCCURS), WHEN THE ONE GATHERS IN ITS BOSOM, ONCE AGAIN, ITS BREATH, ITS CREATIVE WORD AND ITS INSANE WORK AND EVERYTHING IN IT.

THE FORGOTTEN

"The idea that men, starting from bestiality and savagery, slowly evolved into civilisation, is recent. It is a Judeo-Christian myth, imposed on people's consciences to expel an older, more vigorous and revealing myth. When humanity was younger, closer to its past, in times when no successful conspiracy had yet been expelled from its own memory, it knew that it descended from gods, from giants from whom it had learned everything. It remembered a golden age when its superiors, born before it, taught it agriculture, metallurgy, the arts, the sciences and the management of the Soul."

Louis Paules and Jaques Bergier in "Return of the Magicians"

These new religious and esoteric currents maintain that the origin of our species and intelligence lies solely in the soul, in matter, in anthropoids and time; we repeat, it is a Judeo-Christian myth sustained by the culture which seeks to eclipse the memory of another older, more vigorous and truer one.

SOUL AND SPIRIT

We are fallen reflections, projections of spirits reversed and imprisoned in substance animated by souls, and this is sustained by the will of an animalistic spirit, which in a state of fantasy has precipitated its power by ordering matter, and has become a demiurge (creator) of a version (Latin: universus) of a bestial world, shaped by its forming word (Logos), and directed to perfection, because it is imperfect. A world in which its creations must destroy each other in order to satisfy their hunger, the driving force of their animalistic existence.

We carry with us a factor that is not created, that has no beginning and no end, that is a reflection of beyond infinity, outside the creator; that is, of Eternity, of the Homeland of the Spirit, the "place" from which our deceived Spirits look down upon us, and their gaze is reflected in the blood, causing the factor we call "I", which makes us intelligent, individual, strong-willed, aristocratic and truly foreign in the universe of the animalistic community of souls, absolutely inferior to the Aristocracy of our Spirits.

PAGANISM AND MONOTHEISM

Our Self, being a reflection of the spirit that lives in eternity, is intuitively pagan, because it remembers the Aristocracy of its existence in the Homeland of the Spirit alongside the Court of the Uncreated, the Gods and Freedom.

Our Self is therefore: Loyal, Aristocratic, Willing, Imperial, Nationalist. The soul, being like a drop that falls adventurously among millions in the storm of creation, desperately seeks to gather in crowds, to gather strength and return in communities to the ocean of substance, where they slept, and will sleep when they finally return to their creator.

A hopeful tear, entrusted to the lamb, marches through the "good adventure" to the end, grouped in the Red-il of the good shepherd.

One creator, one substance, one Red-entor, one Blessed One, one end.

The Soul is therefore gregarious, common to all created beings, truly communist, trusting, having faith in its Shepherd and its destiny, it is 'international-communist', 'global'.

LIBERATOR AND SAVIOUR

There is talk of liberation: the one who is liberated is a Prisoner, a Slave, an Inmate, that is, someone deprived of Freedom.

If we talk about salvation:

Save us from what?

Death, illness, hunger, pain, work, illusion, dissatisfaction, lack of reward, poverty, suffering, etc.?

But isn't that what it means to be "blessed"? Isn't that the ordeal of all of us in this Creation?

Isn't it truly enigmatic that the creator intends to 'save' us from his own creation?

Isn't it ironic that Christianity, as directed to the West in its "beatitudes," advocates weakness, suffering from hunger, weeping, and poverty of the Spirit?

THE REAL, CURRENT SITUATION OF VIRYA

To acquire Hyperborean Wisdom, patience is necessary. Having patience where one can have it is not true patience, but when one has it where one usually cannot have it, then we say that one has acquired patience. Patience is one of the greatest human virtues that distinguishes the true man from the common man. One could say that it determines the degree of self-control and the ontological knowledge that man has about himself. Thus, we can affirm that from a philosophical and ontological point of view, BEING can fully belong to the individual, provided that he has completely mastered his patience, for it is the internal key to self-knowledge. Ontologically (onto = being; study of being and all its possibilities), we can affirm that the individual must guide their NOOLOGICAL SELF (Noo = Way of the Spirit) towards their own psychological and spiritual reality, since this is the only way to know oneself and achieve the highest noological, ontological and gnosological aspiration, which is ABSOLUTE INDIVIDUALISATION. The path and study contained in this treatise specify how to achieve the three initiatory paths that the Hyperborean Warrior must follow, which are essential for awakening and becoming a WISE WARRIOR, a man who is self-elected and deified by his own free egoic will and guided by Hyperborean languages and eternal symbols.

Man lives busy in a cultural and social structure that keeps him atomised, confined to certain moral guidelines that have turned him into a totally collective and gregarious being; this situation has broken down his self into a plurality of selves and egos that, structured in complexes, have led him to live in constant dramatic tension, which slowly but surely destroys his spirit and his soul. But in man there is a possibility of being, a destiny that transcends the stages of ordinary consciousness. On this path, HYPERBOREAN GNOSIS calls it THE WAY OF INDIVIDUALISATION.

Individualisation means becoming a unique and absolute being, with full knowledge of oneself and fundamentally ORIENTED, affirmed in the ETERNAL SELF and in a wisdom that allows one to know and deeply understand REALITY.

Unfortunately, the comedy of life has turned into a drama that slowly leads us to tragedy, and this is due in particular to the loss that has occurred in man of the CENTRE, OF HIS BEING. Dramatic tensions have created an internal and external conflict that has led us to an existential crisis where we are immersed in a nebula of desires that only create a state of perdition and confusion. In this way, we are overwhelmed by our complexes, which are the fruit of our desires. Unable to become aware of them or control them due to a lack of knowledge and wisdom, they lead us irretrievably into a moral and social crisis from which it is increasingly difficult to escape. In this desperation, we appeal to certain religious or scientific institutions for assistance religious or scientific institutions to provide us with solutions and enable us to recover our volitional and spiritual loss.

Thus, we are lost within an internal psychological labyrinth and believe that the reality of our being is in DRAMATIC TENSION because of our faults, our incapacities, our "sins," to such an extent that we resort to psychologists, psychiatrists, and, if they do not produce results, we turn to religious structures such as Catholicism, Protestant churches, Buddhism, Hinduism, or esoteric systems such as theosophy, Freemasonry, Rosicrucianism, yoga, etc., believing that they hold the panacea, the solutions to all our pains and ills. The truth is that the root of our ills does not lie within ourselves but in the destiny that has deceived us, only in this world, in this material order that is directed by a WORLD SYNARCHY (union of powers) THAT ONLY SEEKS TO DESTROY US MATERIALLY AND SPIRITUALLY.

If wealth were distributed equitably, poverty and misery would be eliminated, and in this way, man would regain his dignity and rise to a level of spirituality where the best human qualities would develop. By raising the standard of living of humanity, combating ignorance and destroying what hinders the growth of consciousness, we will recover the honour and value that we have always had and that, due to excessive ambition and an unbridled race for money and power, we have lost.

The change must be profound; man must awaken in his other being another level of comprehension and understanding. Only in this way will the eternal warrior that exists in the depths of the human spirit emerge.

A drama is embedded in human existence, and an inner cry from the depths of the spirit calls for a more dignified and just existence in all respects. Human will in the face of existential drama imperiously seeks to rise above the pain and anguish of an existence subjected to absolute materialism, to systems laden with connotations where man and destiny are subject to "predestination" and "predetermination," concepts very similar to those expressed in HINDUISM, BUDDHISM, JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY, ISLAM, etc. In this way, Unfortunately, man leaves his destiny to God, and thus personality is formed based on formal parameters constituted by archetypal models structured in a moral and religious axiology where aesthetics and formality are decisive over ethics; where consciousness becomes massified in the collective, losing volitional and intellectual autonomy, falling into an ontological degree where the merely human is determined by an unconscious mechanism where man is food for the gods.

However, in existence, life is constantly offering you alternatives for spiritual development, since you yourself are a being intrinsic to the eternal spirit, even though determined in a finite and relative ontology. Likewise, in man, in the human soul, the eternal reality of the spirit underlies. It is through it that more

Beyond the uncertainties of reality distributed across different economic, political, social, and cultural orders, there always exists within man the possibility of being an awakened man, free from the premises of this aberrant materialism and dogmatic religions. this reality of spiritual and intellectual understanding that does not allow us to see the lie is only possible if we have within ourselves a Gnostic predisposition of mind and spirit, which guides us to a higher, different knowledge, to an absolute truth, the WAY OF INDIVIDUALISATION that prepares us to be initiated into Hyperborean Gnosis.

That is why it is imperative to understand that an international political, religious, and financial power structured in a GLOBAL SYNARCHY determines man with cultural guidelines that are preeminently poured into our being through culture and education, thus determining our ontological and noological complexon, limiting our capacities for apprehension and understanding, and reducing the level of being and consciousness to an axiological limit where the self is reduced to its minimum expression. In this way, we are massified, asleep and trapped in an external world where we serve as slaves to this international synarchy, which is a world power that only wants us to be servants of itself and its plan for universal domination.

That is why it is essential that we reorient ourselves and awaken from the illusory slumber of this materialistic culture ruled by capitalist neoliberalism or pseudo-socialist Marxism, and realise that there really is an external enemy, sometimes visible (imperialist governments such as the United States, Russia, Israel) in the world and sometimes invisible (world synarchy, secret societies, esoteric organisations, etc.) which we must fight with all our strength. To do so, we must recover our spirit, and it is essential to access the liberation contained in ABSOLUTE INDIVIDUALISATION. However, in order to reorient ourselves internally, it is imperative to unveil and unmask the real enemy, which is entrenched in this reality, structured in a religious, political, financial, and economic synarchy that has been operating in the world since the beginning of history, conspiring and destroying everything that is spiritual. There is practically no culture or nation that has not been affected by it, through its cultural, religious or even atheistic, materialistic, capitalist and liberal premises.

That is why we emphatically affirm that being awake is not only about raising awareness of individualisation, but mainly about analysing coldly and objectively all the events, deeds and successes of the world's extensive cultural network in all its past, present and future contents and realities. It is essential to discern and understand the international conspiracy of this global super-government that constantly manipulates collective consciousness from the shadows and to REALISE that the real enemy is MATERIALISM and its NEO-LIBERAL COUNTERCULTURE (we call it counterculture because true culture is rooted in principles that are totally opposed to those of capitalism) and to understand that its ideology, its economic and political philosophy, its concepts and premises hide purely destructive intentions towards everything that is national, traditional and spiritual, is the first step towards AWAKENING.

We must resist and sustain with will and honour, within our true culture, within the spiritual values of our blood

But what happens? He walks along the most diverse paths, knocks on every door, studies all sciences, fulfils himself in his profession, complies strictly with moral and religious dogmas, practises all the rites and ceremonies imposed by his priests, by the "masters of wisdom". Thus, the seeker of truth passes through all schools of learning, from the academic to the esoteric, complying with all conditions and guidelines, without question, accepting their dogmas and premises as absolute truths, following the instincts and designs imposed on the human soul by its creator. But let us first analyse the PASÚ (from now on we will use this term to refer to the sleeping man; a concept taken from Sanskrit meaning 'needle'), the massified man subjected to the chronological lines and ontological designs of his existence, with which the gods of matter weave the daily fabric of life.

First, he develops as an individual, affirming his being based on a personality structured around his racial, national, and cultural idiosyncrasies, which endow him with a psychological ego; Second, Pasú tries to fulfil all the social, cultural and religious norms imposed on him by society and his cultural being: to have a family, children, to progress materially and economically, to succeed in the world of money and love, to obtain a name, fame, social status, etc. In this way, he spends his entire life feeling that if he is successful, he is 'happy', and if he does not meet the requirements of the agenda, reality and liberal culture, he is simply an ordinary man, a mere 'failure' in this plot, this existential labyrinth, and suffer the consequences, falling psychologically into a depressive pit that inexorably drags them to ruin and perdition.

Undoubtedly, if this is not enough, NEOLIBERAL culture offers other alternatives to dissolve EXISTENTIAL DRAMA, such as PERVERSION, through addiction to alcohol, drugs, indiscriminate sex (homosexuality, sodomy and sexual perversion), techno music (playful or without content that expresses the essential hostility of the spirit), etc. Now, if the pasú is fortunate in the world of circumstances and meaningless events favour him, obtaining money, love and social status, he will feel that he has triumphed. However, fate also has its pitfalls and the bourgeois pasú will suffer the consequences of a hedonistic, sensualist life, trapped in the illusion of the power of money and terrifying consumerism.

However, if the man is a VIRYA (a term taken from Sanskrit meaning 'awakened man') and has a differentiated spiritual principle within his being, something spiritual existing within himself, he will awaken to a second religious intention and may take an ontological leap, reorienting his self towards mysticism. Generally, in the beginning, he will seek according to his degree of intellectual will and consciousness.

relating to certain esoteric religious groups: Freemasonry, Rosicrucians (spiritualist chain in general), theosophy, yoga, Buddhism, Zen, etc., adhering to them with conviction and loyalty, since these institutions promise to resolve the spiritual dilemma by 'teaching' them the 'secrets' of some ancient wisdom.

Thus, the years pass within these organisations and the disciple begins to lose "faith", demanding and begging for greater knowledge from the "masters", who argue that he is still a disciple and is not prepared to receive the "initiations" that will allow him to "evolve", "cleanse his karma", and thus access higher knowledge. They demand greater faith, to continue begging since pleading is insufficient, that he must be even more rigorous with himself, that he lacks internal work, greater disintegration of the ego, of the self, etc. Unfortunately, as the greatest victim of fate, man submits to these doctrinal designs subject to their ideologies, to the vertical hierarchical structures that impose the harshest conditions on him in order to access their pseudo-initiations and crumbs of knowledge.

This is the state of affairs in which the LUCIFERIC WARRIOR finds himself when he submits to a priest, a guru, a master of an esoteric or religious doctrine, exactly as happens in academic circles; in order to obtain a drop of wisdom that never arrives, that has never been granted, even though it is his due.

In this way, the seeker ends up being deceived, subjected to the cultural norms of these esoteric religious structures of strictly DEVOTIONAL characteristics and conceptual premises of a low level of knowledge. Their will usurped and their consciousness alienated by these merchants, "intermediaries" of the divine, they incorporate the disciple, man or woman, into their dogmas, to serve and obey the masters and gurus; this is the fundamental premise: LOVE for their visible or invisible higher hierarchies. The subjugation to which they submit is so terrifying that even their possessions are taken from them, forcing them to give them up or donate them to their masters as a sign of "love." They are isolated, confined to cloisters, convents, lumiciales, ashrams, etc., requiring them to break with their families, abandon their parents, siblings, and friends because their essential duty is worship (in the sacralising sense of an imposed form), love for their gods and masters of wisdom; everything must be abandoned if they want to receive a choice, a drop of knowledge, they must pay with growing pain and suffering.

The reality and truth is that these philosophical, religious, esoteric ideologies, whether of Eastern or Western origin, structured into sects, lodges, institutions, etc., only deceive those seeking spiritual freedom and only seek to stop them on their path to knowledge and freedom; sooner or later, this will lead them to nothing, causing them to become exhausted, wasting their time, slowly losing their faith and hope, inevitably reaching disillusionment and disappointment with mysticism and causing them to abandon their search.

That is why he must awaken, realise the truth, understand that these sects, lodges or religious institutions that promise everything, "INITIATIONS",

"WISDOM," "IMMORTALITY," respond to a global religious and political synarchy that only responds to its own interests, to its PLAN, and in it, man is simply a tool, a means and not an end, used by it, disposable, definitive and expendable.

This religious synarchy is metaphysically directed from the heavens by the 'masters' of the so-called 'WHITE LODGE' called the Hierarchy, masters who present themselves as angelic figures or images or saints and who in reality are hypocrites who disguise themselves as enlightened beings, prophets or messiahs, and who carry so much malice and dogmatism, are in reality true demons disguised as angels.

These beings, "divine" emanations of the demiurge who call themselves lesser gods, which Christian eschatology divides into thrones and powers, seraphim, nephilim, archangels, and finally angels, are represented as kind beings who help the pasú, in reality they are traitorous gods who serve strictly on the plane of the demiurge and have within themselves such a degree of cruelty and coldness that they do not hesitate to sacrifice whatever is necessary if the plan of the great architect requires it. Such is the deception in which man finds himself, firmly believing in these beings and, due to the guidelines he has acquired through religious culture and education, unable to see the reality of these "celestial beings," who are TRUE DEMONS CLOTHED AS LAMBS.

These and their partisans of the global synarchy, in the service of their plans, seek only to deceive the spirit in order to subject it to their designs, their plans, to capture it in matter, in the world, in the plane and their projects. The spiritual man is a VICTIM of these gods who betray the eternal spirit and keep him asleep, subject to this plane of creation, to this insane world of illusion where the DEMIURGE, THIS TERRIFYING GOD WHO IMITATES THE ETERNAL, is the main enemy of the spiritual.

THE WARRIOR HAS AN OPPORTUNITY TO ESCAPE, TO BREAK THE CHAINS THAT SUBJECT HIM TO FEAR, IGNORANCE AND MEDIOCRITY THROUGH HYPERBOREAN WISDOM AND THE WILL WITHIN HIMSELF.

COMRADES in the search for freedom and eternity, divine rights inherited in our BLOOD AND SPIRIT, OWN TO WARRIORS AND STEADFAST HEARTS, you have the natural and spiritual right to the highest knowledge, to eternal truths, and from this moment on you will unlock this knowledge, which is the key to the TEMPLE OF VESTA, and the flames of wisdom will burn within you; if you are bold and valiant as a knight in battle, you have the NOOLOGICAL right to begin studying these mysteries. This is only the beginning.

IF YOU HAVE READ THIS FAR AND UNDERSTAND THE CONCEPTS, YOU ARE WILLING TO DISCOVER AND DELVE DEEPER; AND YOU ARE NOT JUST CURIOUS, A PERSON WITHOUT THE SLIGHTEST Gnostic PREDISPOSITION, WITHOUT WILL, AND AFRAID TO BREATHE THIS COLD NIGHT AIR, THE

DARK AIR OF THE TRUTH OF YOURSELF; IN THE LAST CASE, RETURN TO YOUR ORDINARY LIFE AND FORGET WHAT YOU HAVE JUST READ. BUT IF YOU FALL INTO THE FIRST CATEGORY, YOU ARE A WARRIOR WHO SEEKS YOUR INNER TRUTH, YOUR GNOSIS. YOU HAVE THE POWER IN YOUR HANDS, THE TEXTS, BOOKS AND MATERIALS TO ACHIEVE THIS FOR YOURSELF, NOT THROUGH A PRIEST OR PASTOR, FATHER, RELIGIOUS LEADER, BUT YOUR OWN SEARCHES THAT WILL INITIATE YOU INTO THE HYPERBOREAN MYSTERY OF ETERNAL GNOSIS; THUS YOU ARE ABLE TO CONTINUE AND DEEPEN YOUR KNOWLEDGE OF HYPERBOREAN WISDOM. MAY THE SOUTHERN BREEZES BRING THE LEGACY OF THE BLOOD OF OLD.

"I make this clear to warn you that, from now on, supporters of Hyperborean Wisdom must define which reality they refer to: whether it is the reality of the Führer killed in the Berlin Chancellery bunker or the reality of the Führer alive, forever young in his Magical Refuge, where he awaits the historic times of the Final Battle. And I can tell you now that those who choose to live in the first reality will be considered traitors, no matter how much they proclaim themselves to be 'National Socialists' or 'Nazis'."
