Greetings Warriors of the W.A.Y.:

Our major problem is how do we convince a young generation who have been disillusioned by the hypocrisy they have seen in a generation of people of many so-called religions, a mature people who were thought to have mature common sense? How do you convince these young people that it is really worthwhile to adopt a moderately compassionate, moral, just way of life, to live in conjunction with what they have had to live in order to survive the Hellish streets of the so-called “Christian” world? Our race must find the answers to these questions, and we must find the ways to full cooperation in sharing knowledge, viewpoints and a corrective solution ... as in the saying “Don't throw the baby out with the bathwater”, and have to go thru all the old mistakes again. The older generation made a lot of mistakes ... our children must use the knowledge of that experience to avoid those same mistakes, while at the same time attempting to avoid making new ones thru overconfidence ... the very thing which caused the downfall of their fathers.

We have been destroying our “faith” in our Almighty Creator – thru the adoption of so-called man made “chapter and verse” religions, with each religion favoring certain “chapters” and “verses”. This has caused widespread division of our people thru purges of those who don't believe exactly as we do. Are we going to keep on pursuing this senseless “warfare” within our race, while the other races overrun our world? No... we must renew our “faith” in one Creator, and let us get on with the work he have us to do, instead of spending all our effort on arguing which name is the right name, or which day is the right day etc. We have been on the wrong course for a long time, allowing man to constantly expand and change ... through his own interpretation – to suit his own desires – his own selfishness ... instead of following the fundamental simple laws of nature devised by nature's Creator.

Turning to the practice of complete brutality, humanism or Atheism in an attempt to reach our goals is certain to destroy all we are reaching for. This is the very curse that plagues humanity from the cradle to the grave. The process of extremes in whatever we do ... causes us trouble in eating, exercise, work, drinking, etc. – but the area in which it really destroys us, is in how we handle the problem of punishing ourselves (or those around us) for all the evil things we do. Man is ruled by absolute compassion or absolute brutality ... neither one will give us a good life. For instance – today's compassion for the mother – is carried to extreme brutality of aborticide (murder ... pre-meditated murder!) of millions of innocent babies. So far, in history, man has never had common sense enough to steer a course for any lengthy period of time, in the center of these two extremes. That is why we must understand and accept – without compromise or “amendment” - all the fundamental LAWS of our Creator .. not the statutes of any man who claims himself (and those who accept his teachings) as being “Creators”, but instead – the eternal LAW's of “Nature”, set up by nature's Creator.

What difference does it make which name each of HIS people use to indicate who they are speaking of – (remember the blind man and the elephant – each touching and describing a different portion of the elephant and claiming it to be THE ELEPHANT). We are all blind if we have to prove our point, for it all boils down to the fact that we mean the greatest power in the universe ... The Creator. Anyone who insults another over this simple truth, shows their ignorance, their bigotry, and their own desire to be the big cheese, while calling those who follow – the curds. Their attitude is not the way of Aryan Warriors. We don't look for personal gain and personal glory. Our goal is the glory and survival of our Aryan Race. Every true Aryan, is one more warrior in the battle .. not one plus or one minus .. but ONE comrade, with no jealousy over capable leadership. There have to be capable chosen leaders, and there have to be capable co-workers... but every capable co-worker must always retain the right to rise in capability to leader. Just always remember, we remain equal Aryan brothers and sisters, and we all demand equality and respect, and always remember – one man cannot lay the pipe if the other does not dig the ditch.

Another thing I want to remind you of, is this ... after victory – have you considered how the pieces are going to be put together? It will be a shambles – much the same as Hitler inherited when he assumed power in Germany (or even worse). Are you preparing yourselves so that you are capable of taking responsible leadership – in line with Aryan principles? We don't want to trade one tyrannical dictatorship for another – as bad or if possible – even worse. Hitler pulled Germany out of the hole quickly, because he planned ahead... he had a complete plan... he had the faith of most of his people, and he put that plan into effect ruthlessly. If he had not been prepared to act swiftly, crushing all opposition that developed – Germany would have starved to death after W.W.I – for that was the plan of the allied (Judeo-Christian) nations.

We must always remember that Liberty is hard won and easily lost ... if we do not work and fight for it continuously. There are always self-seeking empire builders in our midst. Think seriously about the future. A destitute Aryan world is going to have to be put to work immediately .. just as Hitler did.. or our victory will be lost to starvation and anarchy. We will need many capable leaders who above everything else, have common sense, plus the trust and respect of the people. Leaders who put “race survival” above personal gain and glory – and who trust in the grace of God to show the way.

Our Aryan Race is a noble race. In earliest recorded history – before Christianity- we were the Nobleman of Yah. We were praising Yah when much of the world was under Babylonian idol worship, just as our modern religions are today. Show me the average modern church person today, and I'll show you a person who loves his “possessions”, his “games”, or his “vices” more than he does anything else. If you don't believe it – ask one of them to give these things up and work to save their race ... just ask them to sacrifice one of their “addictions” for the good of our racial effort, and see what their answer is. We true Aryans, have an inbred sense of Noble feelings for the creation around us... we are proud of it – of our place in it – and of our race. We Hail the Aryan warrior ... we strive for the noble things in life rather than the common. We are born with this belief as a part of our genes... not taught, but inborn. I can remember as a child of three, becoming fighting mad and going in tooth and nail – as they say- to protect a small friend who I thought was being hurt. And again when about five, for a little girl – each time with no regard to what might happen to me. I know you will all recall such instances in your own lives. This was not taught ... it is in our genes.. it is instinctive “nobleness” rising to the challenge. We were born with this nobility – but as we grew older, and were constantly rubbed by the coarseness of a brutal society, we saw ourselves becoming coarser thru this constant brainwashing and rubbing. Some withstood it well – others only partially – and some could not combat it any longer, and died of frustration – mentally or physically – or took their own lives. We see many at this point of decision ... “Am I going to cave in to the beast” - or “Am I going to fight with all my Aryan spirit for justice and honor of my people.. my race?” This is where our young people are today. We're going to fight... but let's not forget that we are the Creator's – “My People” - first... and call the Creator into this battle and fight it with the laws of creation. Our people need a faith to reach to.. but it must be a noble faith in harmony with our race .. and not a shallow pretense of words without works. Many have not had the chance to learn these truths, and are blindly following counseling of those who care nothing for the safety of those following them... people who are thinking only of raising themselves to a higher pinnacle thru the exploits of the desperate young warriors of our race. These leaders are no better than the cursed priests of old who led the “Children's Crusade” of Europe into the slavery of the Ottoman Turkish empire. Whatever we do, we must never bow our heads to any type of priesthood, in any form. It is only a method of controlling our minds and our bodies for the profit (benefit) of the priest (the false leader). Our race must live or die by each individual member making his or her own choice of leadership, not by another's command. There can only be but one law to follow... the Eternal Law. Under that Law, we will be as we are supposed to be, the noble people – reaching ever higher for greater nobleness in all things. The Knights of old had a noble creed, which we would do well to follow in the days ahead.. Faith in the Almighty, Chivalry, Bravery, Honor, Truth, Justice and everlasting loyalty to all brothers and sisters unto death. What is life without Honor? Our young men must fully respect and honor our young women... our young women must prove themselves worthy of that respect. They are the mothers of our race, and fight the battle of life besides us as equals... always think of them as equals – yet think of them as on a pedestal... as you do your mother. We must bury that stupid “chauvinism” that has caused so much division and dishonor in our people... it is a curse... as is the so-called pseudo “generation gap”.

Naturally there are sexual differences, but we are one race... let's keep it that way. The anti-Aryan jew created and has propagated these thoughts in their continuous effort to divide us, so that we cannot work together to re-unify our race and retrieve all that they have stolen from us.

Our goal is a good life, a good mate, a happy home and children, with the strength and ability of our noble forefathers – all bound together in a supreme “faith” in our eternal Creator. Don't fall for the smooth talk of those who lead you down the path of no return, of Humanism and/or Atheism, just because they say “Follow me”. STOP! ... and ask these questions... “Follow you where?” -and- “Who really benefits if I follow your directions?” “Will I end up in prison while you are free, leading others into martyrdom?” – We don't need any more martyrs... we need Warriors – training to be leaders in a free world.

In our prison ministry, we have letters everyday from young people falsely led to believe they should commit acts which cause them to be imprisoned for long periods of time. Don't let this happen to you.

When you do have to defend yourself – get it over with quickly and don't hang around for the glory. Disappear quickly... don't be there for the cuffs. A young person's mind is very often easily influenced by what or who they associate with. If there is no one of wisdom to help them avoid the pitfalls with common sense truth... they are likely to soon be behind iron bars or dead. We don't want either to happen. That is not justice. These young Aryan Warriors never had a chance to learn to live the life they were supposed to live. Always remember, we learn much of what we know from the example set by others.. we teach others by the examples we set. We should not have to take our ultimate learning from the ways of the gutter. We are the Noble Race... and we must continually reach up... constantly improve ourselves in every way. We have to create (by our example) the desire to be like the highest form of humanity, and not let the inborn lusts dominate and make mud people of us. It is the easiest thing in life to be a drunken, dope ridden, lust driven person, but there is no honor or glory in that course, only disgrace and death. It takes the real Aryan warrior to be the man or woman Yah demands. The command is “rise up, improve, learn, correct our mistakes”, always move upward, forward to complete victory thru supreme capability.

Learn to pool all our knowledge with our kinfolk. We need to know the natural Almighty laws of our Creator, and bring ourselves under their power and protection as man's system of statutes collapses (as it is rapidly doing in large areas of the world), and in particular the rapid deterioration to jungle rule around our cities. We must know the best way to fight in every type of encounter, know the ultimate methods to disorganize the enemy in its communication, transportation, and how to destroy his morale, by learning where to strike at the most vulnerable points in simultaneous action to hamstring the enemy forces whoever, whatever they may be. Know the area you live in.. the hideouts... the escape routes, and all vulnerable ways to hit and run – for that is what this war will be.

Above all be patient.. this is the time to organize, learn, recruit and train yourself for perfection.. instead of premature acts which will only result in your own destruction. The enemy is digging its own grave – give it time to dig deep. Prepare ourselves for that final push, and make ready to take control when the collapse comes. Prepare ourselves to go forward under the eternal everlasting laws of natural living. We want no priestly leader or dictator to chain us again with man-made Statutes!

Our forefathers intended for us to be under “eternal law” when they wrote the constitution as a nation of law – under the law of the Almighty Creator, but they made a terrible mistake when they wrote in that the law could be “amended”. That was what made our constitution worthless... for the supreme law we must live under – can NEVER be changed – that is the supreme command. Time does not change the laws of living.. only man corrupts (if we give him license to change, and if other men do not keep a constant guard against every other man's evil corruptiveness). TO AMEND IS TO DESTROY. It is time we learned this.

And when they allowed the President to have Executive Order privilege, it allowed him to take over all power into his hands... as dictator. With the power to pardon an evil doer, he can allow the evil to continue which makes the presidency an absolute dictatorship, so you see – our present constitution was intentionally set up to be a failure it has demonstrated itself to be. The best book, in my opinion, which exposes in easy to understand and simplified means, the present day U.S. Constitution, is “Patrick Henry.. A Christian Patriot says 'NO!' to the United States Constitution – '... what right had they to say, “WE THE PEOPLE”?” by Francis Christen. (Distributed by CBA, P.O.Box 935, Medford, OR 97501)

If we are not ready to use these lessons of history, our chance of creating something better than we have, is hopeless. Hitler knew and used God's “natural law” for Germany. We saw how it worked in the first three years. The jews also knew it was going to destroy their parasitic culture, if allowed to continue... so THEY declared themselves officially at war with Germany in 1933... (or didn't you know who started W.W.II) – why and when?). They pulled out every stop, with their financial power, to destroy the “nationalist” government of Germany... and when that failed, forced the whole world into a shooting war in 1939. If you don't believe this, demand that all those sealed war records be revealed. Why do you think they remain sealed?

History teaches us that there is a limit to the practice of compassion... at the proper time, we must harden our hearts, and practice ruthlessness of the supreme law of God. We are His hands... we are His people.. we must obey. No if's or but's about it. This is the only way we will save our White Aryan Race.. thru the Creator's “natural law”.

Many people strive hard for the redemption of our race, but are wasting our power thru letting petty differences in beliefs and procedure divide our effort. We should be using this effort to support each-other, and work out our differences until the victory is ours. We should not be raising up overall leaders who can be shot down by the evil enemy... but by all obeying the laws of creation, and carrying out those laws as individuals, or as small units in total support of all others in each group, and each individual or group who choose to act, to be in full support of the whole movement... free our race from tyranny.

We must use care in what we do, that we do not bring down wrath upon Kinsmen thru foolhardy – ill planned actions. While fighting hard to uphold our race, we must also try to impress on all people, that our creed is the Law of the Creator, that we are worthy of their support. We need the support of all truly good people, and we will not deserve it if we act like fools and despots. We have to demonstrate common-sense and determination... coupled with compassion, justice, honor and loyalty. Show them why we are the ones they should stand with. This is so important, that I cannot emphasize it enough!

Many leaders are teaching our youth that most anything goes, as long as we fulfill our own personal desires. This is NOT God's way, and if it were pursued by everyone, our world would be totally impossible to live in, with any sense of civilization. It is not in accordance with natural law.

The final outcome of resistance to this world tyranny – will be worldwide conflict, but it must not be brother Aryan against brother, as we have been forced into before by those who wish to destroy our Aryan race, and we must fight it to a total conclusion under the Creator's laws of survival.

The dogs of history gnawed on the bones of the dictatorial great because they enslaved their enemy instead of destroying them. If we obey the eternal LAW, there will be no dogs worrying our bones, as history points its finger at us for being over-compassionate fools.

It only needs the use of little common-sense by everyone, to see the benefits to each and every one of us, if we all use our effort to build a society based on truth and justice, rather than on evilness and tyranny. Is it not better to have food than go hungry; to have a warm bed than a cold doorstep; a tight roof over your head than the open sky; a good clean mate rather than a filthy diseased one? There is only one way to have these things in life... we must produce them with our honest effort... what we demand of others, we must live ourselves. Only he who works shall eat... this word “eat” did not mean only beef and onions, it meant and still means all that is worthwhile in life. We cannot all steal from one another and no one produce – or we will all end up living in the gutter.

Our race must raise itself by its own efforts under God's LAW, by setting the example to all others .. we must lead the way. Our people have allowed our heritage to fall in the dust. Pick it up and carry it to new heights. It is Yah's will, and demand... or we'll be rejected to go the way of the Dinosaur.

Many of our young people have dropped out of the hypocritical educational system, but don't let this stop your education. We do not need the teachers of falsehoods that the enemy wishes to put over us. We have our Aryan capability to learn within us.. all we need is the cooperation of our brothers and sisters thru sharing and teaching each other. Never withhold wisdom from our Kindred. If our Aryan people hope to regain the superior knowledge we once displayed, we must revive ourselves and each other. The world is still full of knowledgeable books waiting for us to take the riches of wisdom from them and apply it to our lives. Right now we are in a war situation... we are all going to have need of the understanding of Guerrilla tactics from A to Z, and no better way than thru the writings of past great leaders of this type of action. Look in the Encyclopedias under “Guerrilla Warfare”. They refer you to the right books to study, but don't go off half-cocked after you learn a little, and pull some fool stunt which will hurt us all. Learn it all, and store it up for when it can be used to advantage. Many of you know street fighting... man to man combat --- now learn Guerrilla Warfare... this is where brain work really counts – so put those young Aryan brains to work... we are going to need that perfection and ability in the coming struggle.
