

What are people's thoughts on Lone Wolf activism? Do they think it discredits the cause or is an inevitable, necessary mode of action to either initiate a Rahowa situation or to bring it to a conclusion in the manner of Turner Diaries or some other sensational[istic] series of events(Hasten the Day by Billy Roper; Covington,etc.)

I have had my suspicions that those advocating this approach are agents attempting to discredit the movement but....is it not inevitable that creators become "Lone Wolf Creators" ala Metzger, Rhyes, Alex Curtis, Louis beam,etc.?

You've really got to learn. For a start, cut that COVINGTON shite out.

As for Metzger and his LOOK AT ME I'M A LONE WOLF bullshit, he's a frigging old loony that has attempted on several occasions to either seize Creativity for himself or stitch me up personally by insisting that I'm turning Creativity over to him so he can dump the religious aspects of Creativity, turn it into a political party and unite it with the Christians under the Metzger banner.

That's where that LONE WOLF CREATOR bullshit came from. Creators - Hale Heroes - too cowardly to unite in case their home is raided and they are taken away for THOUGHTCRIMES. They were so gullible, they looked to Metzger as their next appointed Leader and it went to his head.

We didn't say it at the time, but we shut them down and we will shut down anyone that proclaims to be a Creator and does not meet our standards.

As for the so-called Lone Wolf philosophy, that is also total bullshit. A REAL Lone Wolf never visits WP websites or owns any WP literature, has niggers as friends, marries his daughters off to Jews, attends the Mosque for Rubadub cultural unity celebrations, holds the NAACP Kwanza Kill Whitey Award three years running and executes race-traitors in secret.

The Lone Wolf as it is known today, thanks to Metzger, is a fool that stands on a rooftop with a megaphone declaring to the entire world "I AM A LONE WOLF! HERE IS MY PEDIGREE ...!"

The Metzger style Lone Wolf is typically the pimple faced, bullied nobody in his mammy's basement that fits the MSM description falsely give of genuine WRL's. He hangs around WP websites, surfing the web in his P.J.'s, he causes mischief with every group he touches upon, stabbing everyone in the back as he unconsciously attempts to destroy every legitimate organisation in an effort to have everyone join with him in his Metzger fantasy. He calls every radio station to tell them that he's a Lone Wolf representing this or that organisation ... then runs and denounces when the heat turns up.

CREATIVITY is a RELIGION and therefore a COMMUNITY. Without organisation, Creativity ceases to be a religion and the community dies. That is why Creativity's Founder, Ben Klassen, promoted the CELL STRUCTURE. If you believe every Creator around the world is here, on this forum, then you are deluded. There are Creator cells that keep in touch with their regional leaders, there are Creator cells that keep in touch with the World Centre ... There are Creator cells that maintain no contact at all.

Some Creators are alone - but they reach out to others however they can. The thing is, all Creators keep the Faith - all maintain a community spirit befitting a Creator.

No Creator is a Lone Wolf, because every Creator knows precisely what it takes to be a real Lone Wolf.

Thanks for the info, I appreciate and understand that Creativity is Nature's Law hence the story The Law of the Talon. I'm attempting to put people into that mode of consciousness via fiction and real world info of actual cases. Organization is of course necessary along cell structure lines but not easy to make IRL contacts for all. Now that the ChristChurch mossad operation has taken place do you think another phase has unofficially been entered into?

Now that the ChristChurch mossad operation has taken place do you think another phase has unofficially been entered into?

Another phase of operations? No. Creativity was founded with this eventuality in mind.

Mossad? With the way Israeli intelligence works, there's a strong chance of a connection there, but we believe it most likely a North Korean op with the strong possibility of being given the blessing from Chinese intelligence and Mossad. Hence our reference to Brenton Tarrant as a Marxist Anarchist Conspirator.

<https://creativityalliance.com/forum/index.php/topic,11201.0.html>

Black Flag ops are happening all the time. Breivik killed 79 ??? White Kids because he was offended that the government of Norway had decided to boycott Israel. I had the coppers banging on my door in Australia only days after that, and the MSM has from day one falsely claimed that we are connected to that Zio kiddy killer.

FBI conspirator Hal Turner conned many into agreeing to admit to criminal intent, getting them arrested in the process. When his FBI handlers ceased to pay him, he thought he was free to continue as before, but Turner's reputation meant he was nabbed, convicted and sentenced.

Creativity has even had its own share of Black Flag ops with mud-shark Erica Chase and her habitual criminal nigger boyfriend playing at the Turner Diaries in the name of Creativity.

If not Black Flag ops, then legit goings on - look at Dylan Roof in the US, look at Charlottesville, look at Glenn and his screwed up shooting of a White doctor and his grandson outside a Yid retirement home, and look at the Pennsylvania Kike killings. There was even one at a Mosque in London. Even though they are practically nothing in comparison to the daily KILL WHITEY murders, rapes, grievous and common assaults and robberies that go on every day in Australia, NZ, Canada, the US, Britain and Europe every one of those angry attempts by White folks at their wits end to fight back is used as a tool against us. And yet, not one of those Fight-Back slayings did any good for our people.

Remember The Order? One obnoxious Hebe radio announcer dead and they're still on about it.

As for Charlottesville, the video clearly shows that the reds attacked and the death of the Land Whale was an accident waiting to happen ....

Then we have Muslim terrorists killing approximately on average about 150 Whites per year in admitted terrorist acts in order to advance Islam. Each time the MSM and JOG response is that Muslims only commit terrorist acts because White People Are Racist ... and another law is enacted to hammer the White Man. A Muslim can kill 88 White People in a single attack, but Islam is the victim? Yeah, right.

Charlottesville and peaceful protests in Germany and England as well as Australia all falsely portrayed as NEO-NAZI UPRISINGS show that peaceful protest is no longer of any use. And the occasional Fight-Back killing by Whites at wits end just feeds into the anti-White narrative.

I can tell you now that coppers all around the formerly White World don't fall for the so-called Extreme-Right White Supremacist Terrorist Narrative. However, coppers are a part of the anti-White apparatus, and they are recruited and trained to believe that White Thoughtcrimes are more of a threat to their pay-cheques than are Whites being slaughtered in their thousands each year by Muslims and the various niggers out to Kill Whitey. Even those coppers that don't believe the anti-White narrative, typically don't give a f. They'll do what they can to advance their own careers and powers off of our backs. Look at what's going on in NZ and Australia at the moment: New laws are being brought in to fight non-existent so-called Extreme-Right White Supremacist Terrorists. The coppers are begging and are being given new weapons and funding to Fight Whitey. Every politician is now for it ... and yet, only a short while ago, those same politicians refused the same requests on the basis of THAT'S RACIST! because the requests related only to a very real Islamic terrorist threat; but now they have their faux White terrorist threat to wield however they want and they will not let go.

Once upon a time, when a White-Hating-Nigger murdered a White Man, it was a mugging gone wrong. However, if the White Man killed that Nigger, he was hailed a vigilante hero.

Today, when a White-Hating-Nigger murders a White Man, it is still a mugging gone wrong. However, if that White Man manages to kill his assailant - even accidentally - he's a White Supremacist Terrorist.

The question is, how does this change us WRL's? Us White Dissident Activists? It makes us more focussed on the real and the now rather than the What Ifs of a possible tomorrow. It causes us to dispense with the ideals of democratic protests. It means that we are focussed solely on recruitment for a peaceful White Revolution or a Bloody Racial War.

For the under 25 everyone-over-age-thirty-is-a-traitor crowd, it's just a game to them putting up shock-tactic swastika flyers and rattle-can spray jobs; but for us it is a very real war, and we are but marking time until we either win through peaceful educational and recruitment tactics, or we let loose as the Racial Holy War turns bloody.

We hope for the former, we expect the latter. Creators prepare for all eventualities.

When Blacks Attack - Whites Fight Back. RaHoWa!

Noli Nothis Permittere Te Terere

That clears things up and gives me your obviously more experienced perspective. Most of the lone wolf stuff seems like a psyop, I believe it is, either mossad/their affiliates anti-white elites in general framing whites to portray things in the worst light. So you recommend local organization and reaching other reachable people and prepping? Would I have your blessing to spread the creativity flyers/stickers? Or should I be more explicit and implicate the jew and expose them?

Wolf Tactical Concept

« on: 09 April 2015 at 08:51 »

I recently commented on a podcast in which a fellow by the name of 'Bill Rhyes' advocates the Lone Wolf idea, almost parroting Tom Metzger word for word.

'Listened to this show. Bill is clearly a disciple of Metzger. So basically a good man, but one who is taking a little bit of this, a little bit of that, and tossing it all together to hopefully make a palatable chop suey. It doesn't work for me, because too often it sounds contradictory and you find yourself wondering where exactly he stands on various issues.

For example, he keeps telling us that people are going wrong by demonising the 'blacks' and Jews, etc., too much, but doesn't tell us exactly what (in his view) the right balance should be. I think he's misrepresenting a lot of people anyway, because many have the right balance of criticising the 'blacks,' Jews, muds, traitors and even ourselves. I'm also very sceptical about the 'Lone Wolf' tactical concept, which, if followed, will only lead to isolation, demoralisation, wasted energy and talent.

You need some kind of organisational structure to keep people motivated. Somebody in a leadership position to urge activists to keep busy and to act as a spokesperson. True, we need to practice caution in order to live in this madhouse of a society, but to completely shun networking with others is just wrong and probably suicidal.

The idea that this 'Lone Wolf' concept keeps people safer doesn't work for me either. If, as Bill says, the government decided to come down strong on people like us (and I agree they eventually will), they would just as easily be able to locate those who are 'Lone Wolf' as those who are a bit more out there. All they (or the Mossad) would have to do is find out who is visiting a certain website (say MightisRight.net or resist.com) or doing activity in a certain area and come and pick them off.

And if the government goons or Mossad did that, because the 'Lone Wolf' is completely hiding their views and have no network of fellow Racial Loyalists, who is going to sound the alarm bell when you are 'disappeared'? Surely it would be better to have all your friends, family members and network of hundreds of Racial Comrades know that you have been 'disappeared' and let the world know about it?

Surely this would help to radicalise all of your family and those 'fence sitters' in your community that become aware of this evil injustice.

Anyway, I would still argue that the best way to go forward - if we are to have a Revolution of Values, and people are to become true Racial Loyalists that imbue family members with this same zeal - is to adopt an uncompromising Racial Religion. For me it's a no brainer - CREATIVITY ticks all the boxes. It is a fully structured creed that is both comprehensive and consistent, so you always know where you stand. It even has a sound organisational structure that is more or less compatible with the idea of practicing caution, whilst still demanding adherents to proselytise (convert others that are suitable to the creed).'

Bill Rhyes is a former Creator from the WCOTC. I do not know how long Mr Rhyes was a Creator (the WCOTC only lasted seven short years before it fell apart) or what he learned in his time as a Creator, but I'm sure aware of what he did not learn
