

Jews Are Cursing Gentiles

There was a trial in the Ukraine where a Gentile child named Andrei Yushchinsky was found ritually murdered by the Jews. The Rabbi Mendel Beilis was convicted in the court for Andrei's murder. Authorities found the child's body and the murder scene in the local synagogue, where they also found the blood-soaked shirt of the victim, along with the murder weapons. They obtained confessions, and also had the eye witness accounts of the children who were with Andrei. They managed to escape being kidnapped and identified the Rabbi on the stand.

Mendel Beilis leaving a Kiev court holding his indictment May 1913:

Mendel Beilis confessed that the ritual murder of Andrei was done as a black magic kabbalah ritual against the Russian People and the Czar to aid the Jews in their Communist war against Russia. This is how far the Jews are willing to go to curse Gentiles.

When the Jews took over the Russian Empire, the Jewish Cheka (secret police force) murdered every Gentile involved on this case and threw the mother of Andrei in prison where she died. The chief lawyer who prosecuted Mendel Beilis had published a book with over 500 pages of evidence from the trial; this was thrown into a vault and marked as top secret by the Jewish Cheka. All of this was to cover up the ritual murder.

The purpose of the Christian ritual of communion is a sympathetic ritual to unconsciously tie into the actual ritual murders being committed by Jews like Mendel. This magic is in Kabbalah, it is designed to amplify the energies of the ritual murders and to connect them and manifest them into the world, to curse Gentiles more strongly.
